Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services, HHS

§ 417.166 Waiver of assurances.

(a) General rule. CMS may release an HMO from compliance with any assurances the HMO gives under subpart D of this part if—

(1) The qualification requirements are changed by Federal law; or

(2) The HMO shows good cause, consistent with the purposes of title XIII of the PHS Act.

(b) Basis for finding of good cause. (1) Grounds upon which CMS may find good cause include but are not limited to the following:

(i) The HMO has filed for reorganization under Federal bankruptcy provisions and the reorganization can only be approved with the waiver of the assurances.

(ii) State laws governing the entity have been changed after it signed the assurances so as to prohibit the HMO from being organized and operated in a manner consistent with the signed assurances.

(2) Changes in State laws do not constitute good cause to the extent that the changes are preempted by Federal law under section 1311 of the PHS Act.

(c) Consequences of waiver. If CMS waives any assurances regarding compliance with section 1301 of the PHS Act, CMS concurrently revokes the § 417.165 Reapplication for qualification.

An entity whose qualification as an HMO has been revoked by CMS for purposes of section 1310 of the PHS Act may, after completing the corrective action required under § 417.163(c)(2), reapply for a determination of qualification in accordance with the procedures specified in subpart D of this part.

§ 417.164 Effect of revocation of qualification on inclusion in employee’s health benefit plans.

When an HMO’s qualification is revoked under § 417.163(d), the following rules apply:

(a) The HMO may not seek inclusion in employees’ health benefit plans under subpart E of this part.

(b) Inclusion of the HMO in an employer’s health benefit plan—

(1) Is disregarded in determining whether the employer is subject to the requirements of subpart E of this part; and

(2) Does not constitute compliance with subpart E of this part by the employer.
