Federal Aviation Administration, DOT

§ 125.133 Fuel valves.

Each fuel valve must—
(a) Comply with §125.155;
(b) Have positive stops or suitable index provisions in the “on” and “off” positions; and
(c) Be supported so that loads resulting from its operation or from accelerated flight conditions are not transmitted to the lines connected to the valve.