§ 219.33 Evidence of a deemed valid marriage.

(a) Preferred evidence. Preferred evidence of a deemed valid marriage is—

(1) Evidence of a ceremonial marriage as described in §219.31;

(2) If both the employee and spouse are alive, the spouse’s signed statement that he or she went through the ceremony in good faith and his or her reasons for believing the marriage was valid; or if the employee is dead, the widow or widower’s signed statement to that effect;

(3) If required to remove a reasonable doubt, the signed statements of other persons who have information about what the parties knew about any previous marriage or other facts showing whether the parties went through the marriage ceremony in good faith; and

(4) Evidence that the parties were living in the same household when the employee applied for payments; or, if the employee is dead, when he or she died. See §219.31 for the evidence required to demonstrate living in the same household.

(b) Other evidence of a deemed valid marriage. If preferred evidence of a deemed valid marriage cannot be obtained, the claimant must explain the reason therefor and submit other convincing evidence of the marriage.

§ 219.34 When evidence that a marriage has ended is required.

Evidence of how a previous marriage ended may be required to determine whether a later marriage is valid. If a widow or widower remarried after the employee’s death and that marriage was annulled, evidence of the annulment is required. If the claimant is a divorced spouse or surviving divorced spouse, evidence to prove a final or absolute divorce from the employee may be required.

§ 219.35 Evidence that a marriage has ended.

(a) Preferred evidence. Preferred evidence that a marriage has ended is—

(1) A certified copy of the decree of divorce or annulment; or

(2) Evidence of the death (See §219.23) of a party to the marriage.

(b) Other evidence that a marriage has ended. If preferred evidence that the marriage has ended cannot be obtained, the claimant must explain the reason therefor and submit other convincing evidence that the marriage has ended.

(Approved by the Office of Management and Budget under control numbers 3220–0021 and 3220–0140)

§ 219.36 When evidence of a parent or child relationship is required.

(a) When parent or child applies. A person who applies for a parent’s or child’s annuity or for Medicare coverage is required to submit evidence of his or her relationship to the deceased employee.

(b) When individual with child in care applies. An individual who applies for an annuity because he or she has a child of the employee in care is required to submit evidence of the child’s relationship to the employee.

(c) Evidence required depends on relationship. The evidence the Board will require depends on whether the person is the employee’s natural child, adopted child, stepchild, grandchild, or stepgrandchild; or whether the person is the employee’s natural parent or adopting parent.

§ 219.37 Evidence of natural parent or child relationship.

(a) Preferred evidence. If the claimant is the natural parent of the employee, preferred evidence of the relationship is a copy of the employee’s public or religious birth record. If the claimant is the natural child of the employee, preferred evidence of the relationship is a copy of the child’s public or religious birth record.

(b) Other evidence of parent or child relationship. (1) When preferred evidence of a parent or child relationship cannot be obtained, the Board may ask the applicant for evidence of the employee’s
