§ 270.32a–1 Exemption of certain companies from affiliation provisions of section 32(a).

A registered investment company shall be exempt from the provisions of paragraph (1) of section 32(a) of the Act (54 Stat. 838; 15 U.S.C. 80a–31), insofar as said paragraph requires that independent public accounts for such company be selected by a majority of certain members of the board of directors, if:

(a) Such company meets the conditions of paragraphs (1) to (8), inclusive, of section 10(d) of the Act (54 Stat. 807; 15 U.S.C. 80a–10); and

(b) Such accountants are selected by a majority of all the members of the board of directors.

[Rule N–32A–1, 6 FR 6631, Dec. 23, 1941]

§ 270.32a–2 Exemption for initial period from vote of security holders on independent public accountant for certain registered separate accounts.

(a) A registered separate account shall be exempt from the requirement under paragraph (2) of section 32(a) of the Act that selection of an independent public accountant shall have been submitted for ratification or rejection at the next succeeding annual meeting of security owners, subject to the following conditions:

1. Such separate account qualifies for exemption from section 14(a) of the Act pursuant to §270.14a–2, or is exempt therefrom by order of the Commission upon application;

2. The selection of such accountant shall be submitted for ratification or rejection to variable annuity contract owners at their first meeting after the effective date of the registration statement under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (15 U.S.C. 77a et seq.), relating to contracts participating in such account: Provided, That such meeting shall take place within 1 year after such effective date, unless the time for the holding of such meeting shall be extended by the Commission upon written request showing good cause therefor.

(Sec. 6, 54 Stat. 800; 15 U.S.C. 80a–6)
[34 FR 12696, Aug. 5, 1969]

§ 270.32a–3 Exemption from provision of section 32(a)(1) regarding the time period during which a registered management investment company must select an independent public accountant.

(a) A registered management investment company (“company”) organized in a jurisdiction that does not require it to hold regular annual meetings of its stockholders, and which does not hold a regular annual stockholders’ meeting in a given fiscal year, shall be exempt in that fiscal year from the requirement of section 32(a)(1) of the Act (15 U.S.C. 80a–31(a)(1)) that the independent public accountant (“accountant”) be selected at a board of directors meeting held within 90 days before or after the beginning of that fiscal year; or § 270.32a–4 Independent audit committees.

A registered management investment company or a registered face-amount certificate company is exempt from the requirement of section 32(a)(2) of the Act (15 U.S.C. 80a–32(a)(2)) that the selection of the company’s independent public accountant be submitted for ratification or rejection at the next succeeding annual meeting of shareholders, if:

(a) The company’s board of directors has established a committee, composed solely of directors who are not interested persons of the company, that has responsibility for overseeing the fund’s accounting and auditing processes ("audit committee");

(b) The company’s board of directors has adopted a charter for the audit committee setting forth the committee’s structure, duties, powers, and methods of operation or set forth such provisions in the fund’s charter or bylaws; and

(c) The company maintains and preserves permanently in an easily accessible place a copy of the audit committee’s charter and any modification to the charter.

§ 270.34b–1 Sales literature deemed to be misleading.

Any advertisement, pamphlet, circular, form letter, or other sales literature addressed to or intended for distribution to prospective investors that is required to be filed with the Commission by section 24(b) of the Act (15 U.S.C. 80a–24(b)) ("sales literature") shall have omitted to state a fact necessary in order to make the statements made therein not materially misleading unless the sales literature includes the information specified in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section.

NOTE TO INTRODUCTORY TEXT OF § 270.34b–1:
The fact that the sales literature includes the information specified in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section does not relieve the investment company, underwriter, or dealer of any obligations with respect to the sales literature under the antifraud provisions of the federal securities laws. For guidance about factors to be weighed in determining whether statements, representations, illustrations, and descriptions contained in investment company sales literature are misleading, see §230.156 of this chapter.

(a) Sales literature for a money market fund shall contain the information required by paragraph (b)(4) of §230.482 of this chapter, presented in the manner required by paragraph (b)(5) of §230.482 of this chapter.

(b)(1) Except as provided in paragraph (b)(3) of this section:

(i) In any sales literature that contains performance data for an investment company, include the disclosure required by paragraph (b)(3) of §230.482 of this chapter, presented in the manner required by paragraph (b)(5) of §230.482 of this chapter.

(ii) In any sales literature for a money market fund:

(A) Accompany any quotation of yield or similar quotation purporting to demonstrate the income earned or distributions made by the money market fund with a quotation of current yield specified by paragraph (e)(1)(i) of §230.482 of this chapter;

(B) Accompany any quotation of the money market fund’s tax equivalent yield or tax equivalent effective yield with a quotation of current yield as specified in §230.482(d)(1)(iii) of this chapter; and
