§ 351.312 Industrial users and consumer organizations.

(a) Introduction. The URAA provides for opportunity for comment by consumer organizations and industrial users on matters relevant to a particular determination of dumping, subsidization, or injury. This section indicates under what circumstances such persons may submit relevant information and argument.

(b) Opportunity to submit relevant information and argument. In an antidumping or countervailing duty proceeding under title VII of the Act and this part, an industrial user of the subject merchandise or a representative consumer organization, as described in section 777(h) of the Act, may submit relevant factual information and written argument to the Department under paragraphs (d)(3)(ii) and (d)(3)(vi), and (d)(4) of §351.218, paragraphs (b), (c)(1), and (c)(3) of §351.301, and paragraphs (c), (d), and (e) of §351.309 concerning dumping or a countervailing subsidy. All such submissions must be filed in accordance with §351.303.

(c) Business proprietary information. Persons described in paragraph (b) of this section may request business proprietary treatment of information under §351.304, but will not be granted access under §351.305 to business proprietary information submitted by other persons.

§ 351.401 In general.

(a) Introduction. In general terms, an antidumping analysis involves a comparison of export price or constructed export price in the United States with normal value in the foreign market.
