§ 404.735 Evidence you are the grandchild or stepgrandchild.

If you are the grandchild or stepgrandchild of the insured person, we will ask you for the kind of evidence described in §§ 404.731 through 404.733 that shows your relationship to your parent and your parent’s relationship to the insured.

§ 404.736 Evidence of a child’s dependency.

(a) When evidence of a child’s dependency is needed. If you apply for child’s benefits you may ask for evidence you were the insured person’s dependent at a specific time—usually the time you applied or the time the insured died or became disabled. What evidence we ask for depends upon how you are related to the insured person.

(b) Natural or adopted child. If you are the insured person’s natural or adopted child, we may ask for the following evidence:

(1) A signed statement by someone who knows the facts that confirms this relationship and which shows whether you were legally adopted by someone other than the insured. If you were adopted by someone else while the insured was alive, but the adoption was annulled, we may ask for a certified copy of the annulment decree or other convincing evidence of the annulment.

(2) A signed statement by someone in a position to know showing when and where you lived with the insured and when and why you may have lived apart; and showing what contributions the insured made to your support and when and how they were made.

(c) Stepchild. If you are the insured person’s stepchild, we will ask for the following evidence:

(1) A signed statement by someone in a position to know—showing when and where you lived with the insured and when and why you may have lived apart.

(2) A signed statement by someone in a position to know showing you received at least one-half of your support from the insured for the one-year period ending at one of the times mentioned in paragraph (a) of this section; and the income and support you had in this period from any other source.

(d) Grandchild or Stepgrandchild. If you are the insured person’s grandchild or stepgrandchild, we will ask for evidence described in paragraph (c) of this section showing that you were living together with the insured and receiving one-half of your support from him or her for the year before the insured became entitled to benefits or to a period of disability, or died. We will also ask for evidence of your parent’s death or disability.

§ 404.745 Evidence of school attendance for child age 18 or older.

If you apply for child’s benefits as a student age 18 or over, we may ask for evidence you are attending school. We may also ask for evidence from the school you attend showing your status at the school. We will ask for the following evidence:

(a) Your signed statement that you are attending school full-time and are not being paid by an employer to attend school.

(b) If you apply before the school year has started and the school is not a high school, a letter of acceptance from the school, receipted bill, or other evidence showing you have enrolled or been accepted at that school.

§ 404.750 Evidence of a parent’s support.

If you apply for parent’s benefits, we will ask you for evidence to show that you received at least one-half of your support from the insured person in the one-year period before he or she died or became disabled. We may also ask others who know the facts for a signed § 404.770 Evidence of the insured person’s permanent home.

(a) When evidence of the insured’s permanent home is needed. We may ask for evidence of where the insured person’s permanent home was at the time you applied or, if earlier, the time he or she died if—
(1) You apply for benefits as the insured’s wife, husband, widow, widower, parent or child; and
(2) Your relationship to the insured depends upon the State law that would be followed in the place where the insured had his or her permanent home when you applied for benefits or when he or she died.

(b) What evidence is needed. We will ask for the following evidence of the insured person’s permanent home:
(1) Your signed statement showing where the insured considered his permanent home to be.
(2) If the statement in paragraph (b)(1) of this section or other evidence we have raises a reasonable doubt about where the insured’s permanent home was located, we will ask for evidence from others in a position to know the insured’s place of residence when you applied for benefits or when he or she died.

§ 404.762 What is acceptable evidence of having a child in my care?

What evidence we will ask for depends upon whether the child is living with you or with someone else. You will be asked to give the following evidence:
(a) If the child is living with you, your signed statement showing that the child is living with you.
(b) If the child is living with someone else—
(1) Your signed statement showing with whom the child is living and why he or she is living with someone else.
(2) The statement of the person with whom the child is living showing what care you provide and the sources and amounts of support received for the child.
(3) If you cannot get the preferred evidence described in paragraph (b)(2) of this section, we will ask for other convincing evidence that the child is in your care.

§ 404.770 Evidence of where the insured person had a permanent home.

(a) When evidence of the insured’s permanent home is needed. We may ask for evidence of where the insured person’s permanent home was at the time you applied or, if earlier, the time he or she died if—
(1) You apply for benefits as the insured’s wife, husband, widow, widower, parent or child; and
(2) Your relationship to the insured depends upon the State law that would be followed in the place where the insured had his or her permanent home when you applied for benefits or when he or she died.

(b) What evidence is needed. We will ask for the following evidence of the insured person’s permanent home:
(1) Your signed statement showing where the insured considered his permanent home to be.
(2) If the statement in paragraph (b)(1) of this section or other evidence we have raises a reasonable doubt about where the insured’s permanent home was located, we will ask for evidence from others in a position to know the insured’s place of residence when you applied for benefits or when he or she died.
