§ 39.136 What is the WSU for Language Development programs?

Language Development programs are funded at 0.13 WSUs per student.

§ 39.131 What is a Language Development Program?

A Language Development program is one that serves students who either:
(a) Are not proficient in spoken or written English;
(b) Are not proficient in any language;
(c) Are learning their Native language for the purpose of maintenance or language restoration and enhancement;
(d) Are being instructed in their Native language; or
(e) Are learning non-language subjects in their Native language.

§ 39.132 Can a school integrate Language Development programs into its regular instructional program?

A school may offer Language Development programs to students as part of its regular academic program. Language Development does not have to be offered as a stand-alone program.

§ 39.133 Who decides how Language Development funds can be used?

Tribal governing bodies or local school boards decide how their funds for Language Development programs will be used in the instructional program to meet the needs of their students.

§ 39.134 How does a school identify a Limited English Proficient student?

A student is identified as limited English proficient (LEP) by using a nationally recognized scientifically research-based test.

§ 39.135 What services must be provided to an LEP student?

A school must provide services that assist each LEP student to:
(a) Become proficient in English and, to the extent possible, proficient in their Native language; and
(b) Meet the same challenging academic content and student academic achievement standards that all students are expected to meet under 20 U.S.C. 6311(b)(1).

§ 39.136 What is the WSU for Language Development programs?

Language Development programs are funded at 0.13 WSUs per student.

§ 39.120 How are gifted and talented services provided?

In providing services under this section, the school must:
(a) Provide a variety of programming services to meet the needs of the students;
(b) Provide the type and duration of services identified in the Individual Education Plan established for each student; and
(c) Maintain individual student files to provide documentation of process and services; and
(d) Maintain confidentiality of student records under the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA).

§ 39.121 What is the WSU for gifted and talented students?

The WSU for a gifted and talented student is the base academic weight (see §39.103) subtracted from 2.0. The following table shows the gifted and talented weights obtained using this procedure.
