§ 553.61 When is a guarantor subject to direct action for claims?

(a) If you are a guarantor, then you are subject to direct action for any claim asserted by:

1. The United States for any compensation paid by the Fund under OPA, including compensation claim processing costs; and

2. A claimant other than the United States if the designated applicant has:
   (i) Denied or failed to pay a claim because of being insolvent; or
   (ii) Filed a petition in bankruptcy under 11 U.S.C. chapters 7 or 11.

(b) If you participate in an insurance guaranty for a COF incident (i.e., oilspill discharge or substantial threat of the discharge of oil) that is subject to claims under this part, then your maximum aggregate liability for those claims is equal to your quota share of the insurance guaranty.

§ 553.62 What are the designated applicant’s notification obligations regarding a claim?

If you are a designated applicant, and you receive a claim for removal costs and damages, then within 15 calendar days of receipt of a claim you must notify:

(a) Your guarantors; and

(b) The responsible parties for whom you are acting as the designated applicant.
