§ 301–70.600 What governing policies and procedures must we establish related to threatened law enforcement/investigative employees?

You must establish policies and procedures governing:
(a) When you will pay transportation and subsistence expenses of threatened law enforcement/investigative employees, under part 301–31 of this chapter;
(b) Who will determine the degree and seriousness of threat in each individual case;
(c) Who will determine what protective action should be taken, including the location and duration of temporary lodging;
(d) Who will reevaluate the situation to determine whether protective action should be continued or discontinued and how often;
