§ 1400.4

(C) Rental value of the equipment necessary to conduct the farming operation; or
(ii) If the contribution by a person or legal entity consists of any combination of land, capital, and equipment, such combined contribution must have a value at least equal to 30 percent of the person’s or legal entity’s commensurate share of the total value of the farming operation;
(2) For active personal labor, an amount contributed by a person to the farming operation that is described by the smaller of the following:
(i) 1,000 hours per calendar year; or
(ii) 50 percent of the total hours that would be necessary to conduct a farming operation that is comparable in size to such person’s or legal entity’s commensurate share in the farming operation;
(3) With respect to active personal management, activities that are critical to the profitability of the farming operation, taking into consideration the person’s or legal entity’s commensurate share in the farming operation; and
(4) With respect to a combination of active personal labor and active personal management, when neither contribution by itself meets the requirement of paragraphs (2) and (3) of this definition, a combination of active personal labor and active personal management that, when made together, results in a critical impact on the profitability of the farming operation in an amount at least equal to either the significant contribution of active personal labor or active personal management as defined in paragraphs (2) and (3) of this definition.

Substantial amount of active personal labor means the provision of active personal labor to a farming operation in an amount described by the smaller of the following:
(1) 1,000 hours per calendar year; or
(2) 50 percent of the total hours that would be necessary to conduct a farming operation that is comparable in size to the person’s or legal entity’s commensurate share in the farming operation.

Total value of the farming operation means the total of the costs, excluding the value of active personal labor and active personal management contributed by a person who is a member of the farming operation, needed to carry out the farming operation for the year for which the determination is made.

§ 1400.4 Indian Tribe.

Provisions of this part do not apply to Indian tribes as defined in § 1400.3.

§ 1400.5 Denial of program benefits.

(a) All or any part of a payment otherwise due a person or legal entity on all farms in which the person or legal entity has an interest may be withheld or be required to be refunded if the person or legal entity fails to comply with the provisions of this part.
(b) All or any part of a payment otherwise due a person or legal entity on all farms in which the person or legal entity has an interest may be withheld or be required to be refunded if the person or legal entity fails to comply with the provisions of this part and adopts or participates in adopting a scheme or device designed to evade this part, or that has the effect of evading this part. Such acts may include, but are not limited to:
(1) Concealing information that affects the application of this part;
(2) Submitting false or erroneous information; or
(3) Creating a business arrangement using rental agreements and other arrangements to conceal the interest of a person or legal entity in a farm or farming operation for the purpose of obtaining program payments the person or legal entity would otherwise not be eligible to receive. Indicators of such business arrangement include, but are not limited to the following:
(i) No crops are grown or agricultural commodities produced by the represented operation;
(ii) The represented operation has no appreciable assets;
(iii) The only source of capital for the operation is the program payments; or
(iv) The represented operation exists only for the receipt of program payments.
(c) If the Deputy Administrator determines that a person or legal entity has adopted a scheme or device to
