§ 37.7 Authority to request service.

Proof of the interest of an applicant involved in the request for service, or of the authority of any person applying for the service on behalf of another may be required, at the discretion of the reviewing official.

§ 37.8 Financial interest of official.

No auditor or other Department official shall review any programs or documents concerning a certification program in which the official is directly or indirectly financially interested.

§ 37.9 Access to establishments or records; record retention.

The applicant shall cause records and documents, with respect to which service is requested, to be made easily accessible for examination. Supervisors and other employees of the Department responsible for maintaining uniformity and accuracy of service shall have access to all parts of establishments covered by approved applications for service under the regulations, during normal business hours or during periods of production, for the purpose of evaluating systems or processes associated with an approved certification program. Records and documents shall be retained for at least 5 years beyond the date of the applicant’s request for service.

§ 37.10 Official assessment.

Official assessment of an applicant’s certification program shall be granted upon successful completion of a two-step review process, as provided for in § 37.2.

(a) Documentation approval. Documentation approval will be provided by the Branch Chief regarding the adequacy of an applicant’s quality manual with respect to ISO Guide 65 requirements upon completion of an adequacy audit by the auditors.

(b) Program assessment. Assessment of a certification program will be issued by the Branch Chief by written memorandum or other approved method of assessment upon successful completion of an onsite audit conducted by the auditors of an applicant’s organic certification program ensuring that the provisions of the applicant’s quality manual have been implemented and that the applicant’s certification program complies with the requirements of ISO Guide 65.

(c) Disapproval and corrections. An applicant determined not to meet applicable assessment requirements shall be provided by the Branch Chief with a written summary of observed program deficiencies. The applicant may appeal such a determination in accordance with the provisions of § 37.13 or implement required corrective action. After completion of the corrective action, the applicant may contact the Branch Chief to schedule another audit for assessment.

§ 37.11 Publication of program assessment status.

(a) The names of assessed certifying agencies shall be posted for public reference on the Livestock and Seed Program’s website at: http://www.ams.usda.gov/lsg/. Such postings shall include: certifier’s name and contact information; referenced specification or standard(s) covered under the scope of assessment; effective date of assessment; and control number(s) of official certificate(s), as applicable.

(b) The names of assessed certifying agencies posted on the Livestock and Seed Program’s website may be removed from the website upon suspension or termination of assessment for noncompliance with the regulations pursuant to § 37.13.

§ 37.12 Reassessment.

Approved certification programs shall be subject to periodic reassessment to ensure ongoing compliance with the regulations, including the requirements of ISO Guide 65. The frequency of such reassessment shall be based on the relative risk associated with the certification program’s integrity, as determined by the Branch Chief.

§ 37.13 Suspension or denial of program assessment; appeals and termination.

(a) Suspension or denial of assessment. When a review of a certification program by auditors finds noncompliance with the regulations, including the requirements of ISO Guide 65, the Branch Chief may suspend or deny assessment
