Subpart A—Definitions

§ 1025.100 Definitions.

Refer to §1010.100 of this chapter for general definitions not noted herein. To the extent there is a differing definition in §1010.100 of this chapter, the definition in this section is what applies to part 1025. Unless otherwise indicated, for purposes of this part:

- (a) Annuity contract means any agreement between the insurer and the contract owner whereby the insurer promises to pay out a fixed or variable income stream for a period of time.
 - (b) Covered product means:
- (1) A permanent life insurance policy, other than a group life insurance policy:
- (2) An annuity contract, other than a group annuity contract; or
- (3) Any other insurance product with features of cash value or investment.
- (c) Group annuity contract means a master contract providing annuities to a group of persons under a single contract.
- (d) Group life insurance policy means any life insurance policy under which a number of persons and their dependents, if appropriate, are insured under a single policy.
- (e) Insurance agent means a sales and/ or service representative of an insurance company. The term "insurance agent" encompasses any person that sells, markets, distributes, or services an insurance company's covered products, including, but not limited to, a person who represents only one insurance company, a person who represents more than one insurance company, and a bank or broker-dealer in securities that sells any covered product of an insurance company.

- (f) Insurance broker means a person who, by acting as the customer's representative, arranges and/or services covered products on behalf of the customer.
- (g) Insurance company or insurer. (1) Except as provided in paragraph (g)(2) of this section, the term "insurance company" or "insurer" means any person engaged within the United States as a business in the issuing or underwriting of any covered product.
- (2) The term "insurance company" or "insurer" does not include an insurance agent or insurance broker.
- (h) Permanent life insurance policy means an agreement that contains a cash value or investment element and that obligates the insurer to indemnify or to confer a benefit upon the insured or beneficiary to the agreement contingent upon the death of the insured.

Subpart B—Programs

§ 1025.200 General.

Insurance companies are subject to the program requirements set forth and cross referenced in this subpart. Insurance companies should also refer to subpart B of part 1010 of this chapter for program requirements contained in that subpart which apply to insurance companies.

§ 1025.210 Anti-money laundering programs for insurance companies.

- (a) In general. Not later than May 2, 2006, each insurance company shall develop and implement a written antimoney laundering program applicable to its covered products that is reasonably designed to prevent the insurance company from being used to facilitate money laundering or the financing of terrorist activities. The program must be approved by senior management. An insurance company shall make a copy of its anti-money laundering program available to the Department of the Treasury, the Financial Crimes Enforcement Network, or their designee upon request.
- (b) Minimum requirements. At a minimum, the program required by paragraph (a) of this section shall:
- (1) Incorporate policies, procedures, and internal controls based upon the insurance company's assessment of the
