LETTER OF TRANSMITTAL

WASHINGTON, D.C., June 11, 1969.

Hon. JOHN L. MCCLELLAN,
Chairman, Senate Permanent Subcommittee on Investigations,
Committee on Government Operations.

Dear MR. CHAIRMAN: Enclosed is a study of campus riots and disorders for the period October 1967 to May 1969.

This study was prepared by Daniel Harris and Joseph Honcharik of the General Accounting Office for the Senate Permanent Subcommittee on Investigations of the Committee on Government Operations, pursuant to Senate Resolution 26, 91st Congress, first session.

Respectfully,

JEROME S. ADLERMAN,
General Counsel.

STAFF STUDY OF CAMPUS RIOTS AND DISORDERS—OCTOBER 1967–MAY 1969

Introduction

The Senate Permanent Subcommittee on Investigations of the Committee on Government Operations has been engaged since August 1967 in the investigation of riots and civil and criminal disorders in the United States and is to report to Congress measures necessary for the prevention of such disorders.

In the performance of this obligation under the resolutions authorizing this investigation, the subcommittee staff has compiled two lists of disturbances which occurred on the campuses of colleges and universities in the United States between October 1967 and May 1969, on (a) a chronological basis and (b) an alphabetical basis.

These lists were compiled from various news media, including publications of militant organizations, in cities and towns which have experienced some sort of civil or criminal disorders on their college or university campuses.

JEROME S. ADLERMAN,
General Counsel.

Statistical Summary of Campus Disturbances Covering the Period October 1967–May 1969

(1) Total colleges or institutions of higher learning	2,374
(2) Total colleges involved in disturbances	211
(3) Total disturbances [1]	471
(4) Types of alleged grievances leading to disturbances—[2]
(a) Military recruiting	24
(b) Military research	9
(c) ROTC	41
(d) Vietnam war and draft	44
(e) Corporate recruiting	28
(f) Black students' demands	125
(g) Administration policy	192
(5) Damage:
(a) Total incidents of—
Bombings and attempted bombings	25
Arsons and suspected arsons	46
General destruction, such as windows, furniture, etc	67
(b) Total estimated persons injured	598

See footnotes at end of table, p. 2.

(8) Costs:

In a Law Day speech, Attorney General John Mitchell stated that more than 2,300 arrests had been made and more than $2.2 million in property damage was involved in campus disorders during the 1968–69 academic year.

For the limited period of 5 months from Jan. 1, 1969, to May 31, 1969, the American Insurance Association reported that it estimated total damages as a result of campus riots to be $4,432,-330. [However, this estimate is not all inclusive since it does not cover losses at some colleges; for example, Stanford University and San Francisco State College.]

---

[1] 19 percent of the total disturbances occurred at the University of California at Berkeley, Columbia University, Harvard University, San Francisco State College, and the University of Wisconsin at Madison.
[2] Some disturbances had more than 1 cause.
