think what you have to come to a conclusion is that there are some people that take their job very seriously, and they have integrity, and that is the decision, the journalistic decision that they have come to, and yet they get attacked just like a StairMaster attacked, just like anybody that has ever sort of been caught in the President's headlight's gets savagely attacked.

I read a news article about a former Miss America in fear for her life and her family's life, and we have seen the hit show of the week, well, it is just regrettable.

Mr. SOUDER. Well, as I went through this I found I have gone through seven parallels, and I found 21 minimum.

Number 8: Take advantage of the public's belief the Presidents act logically. November 1, 1972, Nixon and Erlichman. Erlichman: We do not mind being called crooks, but not stupid crooks. Nixon: We know we will never convince them on our morality, but do they really think we are that dumb?

And, excuse me, when you say what is is, you are referring to everyone?

Mr. SOUDER. What the verb is.

Mr. SCARBOROUGH. What the President said in his testimony, it depends on what your definition of is?

Mr. SOUDER. Yes, I am saying that there appears to be a historical parallel.

Erlichman says the Watergate thing. I do not think there is anything to add what we have already said. Haldeman said you might re-say it. Erlichman: That nobody in the government did this thing. Haldeman: The White House.

Haldeman: Currently employed in the government, say currently employed. Nixon: Ever involved in the government.

Erlichman: Now you have Liddy and Hunt who were at one time employed. Nixon: But while they were doing it even, while they were doing it? Erlichman: That is right. Then employed I can say. Nixon: No one who is an employee of the White House, who is an employee of the White House. Then he goes on. Erlichman says either at the time of the incident or since. Nixon: Or since, that is what I mean, yes. Because in fact they were still employed not at the White House.

They were another branch of government. That is the precision of the is, that they had it down, that they were at the White House earlier, they are now in another branch of government, but if they said is in a certain way, it implied they weren't employed by the government.

Number 11: This is just partisan politics. February 6, 1973, Haldeman says something we heard almost weekly.

Haldeman: As we start into the Senate thing, which is that there is a dire threat to the two party system, because for the first time in our history we have one of the political parties using the machinery of government to investigate the other political party. Nixon: Yes. Because in fact it is not up. It is not going to make any difference, and he does not have any illusions that it will. He is just trying to make a case that this is a totally partisan thing.

October 11, 1998  CONGRESSIONAL RECORD Ð HOUSE  H10559

Mr. SCARBOROUGH. And this if can be the gentleman's last one? And if I can ask the gentleman if he can submit all of those into the RECORD, I think that will be helpful.

Mr. SOUDER. Okay, one I want to finish on then is the loyal secretary. There is one, my friend Woods.

Two points, one Woods. He said says, well, I think he is too a nice man, referring to a man, but because of that fact is it even safe for me to talk on the phone? Nixon says, no, do not talk on the phone. Woods says I will call this girl today and say as soon as he gets back into town, say I need to see him. In other words, do not do it at the White House.

Then in another amazing parallel Nixon and Rosemary Woods, June 12, 1973. Nixon: You know, Rose, you know that money you got from that fellow? I would like to find a way to get that to the campaign committee. I do not know how it could be done. Woods: I am concerned. Who can hand it to them? Who can hand it to that does not have to say he has got it? It is safe and sound already. Nixon: Third parties. You never know when it is going to be investigated. Woods: But I do not think he would need it, but if so, it is out of the safe. We have seen this ever and over, and it is amazing parallel, and I will submit them all for the RECORD.
