

Pennsylvania relative to September 11, 2001; to the Committee on the Judiciary.

RESOLUTION

Whereas, On September 11, 2001, the people of the United States were deliberately attacked without warning or provocation, thus evoking another day that will “live in infamy”; and

Whereas, Let us never forget the nature and character of this cowardly and brutal attack in which individuals without conscience turned the early minutes of a normal workday into a vision of horror, with more American blood spilled on American soil than anytime since the Civil War; and

Whereas, These senseless, inhuman acts have turned our beloved, tranquil homeland into a scene of untold suffering and destruction; and

Whereas, The World Trade Center became a tomb for American Airlines Flight 11, carrying 81 passengers and 11 crew members, and United Airlines Flight 175, carrying 56 passengers and 9 crew members; and

Whereas, United Airlines Flight 93, carrying 38 passengers and 7 crew members, crashed in Somerset County, Pennsylvania; and

Whereas, American Airlines Flight 77 crashed into the Pentagon, killing 58 passengers and 6 crew members; and

Whereas, The unthinkable has occurred with the shedding of American blood on American soil by commercial aircraft under the control of suicide hijackers; and

Whereas, The bombing of Pearl Harbor nearly 60 years ago resulted in the loss of 2,388 American lives; and

Whereas, America gave 3,393 of her sons on D-Day to liberate Europe; and

Whereas, The terrorist attacks of September 11, 2001, are a tragedy of epic proportions, with preliminary reports of 252 confirmed dead, 6,291 injured and updated reports of 6,453 missing in the destruction of the World Trade Center and 189 presumed dead in the attack on the Pentagon; and

Whereas, The President of the United States has called these attacks of wanton aggression acts of war that will solidify our resolve to defeat the forces of terrorism; and

Whereas, This is the latest in a long series of murderous rampages committed against the United States and the world, including: the October 1983 bombing of the Marine barracks in Beirut, the December 1988 bombing of the Pan Am Flight over Lockerbie, Scotland, the February 1993 truck bomb which crippled the World Trade Center, the August 1998 bomb attacks on the United States embassies in Kenya and Tanzania and the suicide attack on the USS Cole in October 2000; and

Whereas, The attacks on the people of the United States are attacks on the people of the entire civilized world as at least 62 countries lost citizens in the carnage at the World Trade Center; and

Whereas, The world is outraged and shocked by such death and senseless mayhem and there appears to be no limit to the malice of those who must find some inconceivable satisfaction from the slaughter of innocents; and

Whereas, Our national resolve has come together as never before, for we, as one people, have a spirit that is solid and impenetrable; and

Whereas, Over $200 million has been donated to date for financial assistance and aid to the victims of the attacks; and

Whereas, Those who cause us harm will be brought to justice in a world made smaller by the unity of all peoples of good will; and

Whereas, We encourage all Pennsylvania and Americans to pray for peace, the end of conflict and comfort for the victims, their brokenhearted families and our bruised nation, as we share in the grievous losses of their loved ones; and

Whereas, In the days that have followed the tragedy we have heard of people, most previously unknown to us, whose lives were taken through these despicable acts. Let us celebrate their lives and accomplishments as their loss will impoverish our country in ways as of yet unknown; and

Whereas, We encourage support for our President, George W. Bush, as he weighs the options before him and seeks wise counsel for the difficult decisions that must be faced by our country in the months ahead; and

Whereas, We witness the prayer services, candlelight vigils and spontaneous supportive actions of a grieving nation that are a balm to wounded hearts across our stricken land; and

Whereas, Our duty is not to shrink, fearful of the future, but to go boldly to claim our place as a leader among nations and a people committed to freedom and justice; and

Whereas, We go forth affirming our cherished liberty and freedoms and now to rebuild an even better America and world; and

Whereas, We go forth fulfilling the promise of the future that was taken from so many as their sacrifice demands; and

Whereas, The intent of these horrific acts was to divide us into irreconcilable parts, let us confound such terrorism and come together as a nation and as a people as never before in a spirit of tolerance and true compassion for the beliefs that unite us are far more plentiful than the items that divide us; and

Whereas, Even as our nation weeps for our murdered fathers, mothers, sons and daughters, we will undertake the necessary task of rebuilding and safeguarding our future; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania urge the President and the Congress of the United States and this Commonwealth to commemorate every September 11 as a day of mourning and remembrance; and be it further

Resolved, That the Senate extend its deepest sympathies and condolences to the families and friends of the victims of this terrible tragedy; and be it further

Resolved, That the Senate unanimously and unequivocally condemn those individuals and countries who played any part in the shedding of innocent American blood; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the President of the United States, the presiding officers of each house of Congress and to each member of Congress from Pennsylvania.

POM-210. A resolution adopted by the Senate of the General Assembly of the State of Pennsylvania relative to the nations response to September 11, 2001; to the Committee on Armed Services.

RESOLUTION

Whereas, As our nation prepares its response to the horrors visited on our people on September 11, 2001, we pause to lend our support and give thanks to those who will be seeking justice for our beloved dead and injured; and

Whereas, As the President of the United States, George W. Bush, said in his speech to the nation during a joint session of the Congress of the United States on September 20, 2001: “Whether we bring our enemies to justice, or bring justice to our enemies, justice will be done”; and

Whereas, We wholeheartedly support the President of the United States in his pledge to use every resource at America’s disposal to successfully conclude the conflict brought to our peaceful shores, whether through diplomacy, the use of intelligence capabilities, instruments of law enforcement and elimination of financial resources or every necessary weapon of war; and

Whereas, We recognize that a nation cannot maintain peace without a willingness to defend itself against terrorism or aggression; and

Whereas, The President of the United States has authorized the call-up of 50,000 reservists; and

Whereas, More than 35,000 reservists have been activated for homeland defense in order to permit troops to engage in other duties; and

Whereas, Those soldiers, sailors and Marines now being deployed have our complete support, unending thanks and countless prayers; and

Whereas, We pray that our men and women in uniform will be comforted and given strength to perform the very difficult tasks ahead of them; and

Whereas, The Pennsylvania Division of the National Guard, known as the 28th Infantry Division, is the oldest division in the Army in continuous service; and

Whereas, Pennsylvania has the largest National Guard unit in the United States; and

Whereas, Pennsylvania’s National Guard has played a crucial role in every major conflict since the early days of our nation; and

Whereas, The valiant citizen-soldiers of Pennsylvania’s National Guard, all 22,000 men and women, are properly trained and stand ready to do whatever is needed in the defense of our Commonwealth, our nation and our freedom; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the people of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania commend and support the President of the United States as the Commander-in-Chief of our armed services; and be it further

Resolved, That the Senate send its support, prayers and gratitude to all our military service personnel as they undertake the difficult tasks that may lie ahead; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the President of the United States, the presiding officers of each house of Congress and to each member of Congress from Pennsylvania.
