ANO NOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. BOOZMAN) that the House suspend the rules and pass the bill, H.R. 1683.

The motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

So the resolution was agreed to.

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

Mr. SOLIS. Mr. Speaker, during rollcall vote No. 208 on H. Res. 247, providing for consideration of H.R. 1888, I was unavoidably delayed. I had been present, I would have voted "no."

PERSONAL EXPLANATION

Mr. UDALL of Colorado. Mr. Speaker, earlier today I was inadvertently delayed in reaching the floor and as a result was not voted on two previous votes. I have been present, I would have voted as follows:

On rollcall No. 207, on ordering the previous question on H. Res. 247, I would have voted "no."

On rollcall No. 208, on adoption of H. Res. 247, I would have voted "no."
