Detrick, MD / Davis, CA), $200,000; Sugarbeet Research (Kimberly, ID), $75,000; Sugarcane Variety Research (Canal Point, FL), $175,000; Sustainable Viticulture Research (Davis, CA), $50,000; Transmissible Spongiform Encephalopathies, $225,000; Tree Fruit Quality Research (Wenatchee, WA), $175,000; Turfgrass Research (Beaver, WV), $150,000; United States National Arboretum (Washington, D.C.), $125,000; U.S. Pacific Basin Agricultural Research Center, Hilo, HI (Univ HI Manoa / Univ HI Hilo), $125,000; Vaccines and Microbe Control for Fish Health (Auburn University), $20,000; Verticillium Wilt (Salinas, CA), $125,000; Waste Management Research, Bowling Green, KY (Western Kentucky University), $137,500; and Wild Rice Research (St. Paul, MN), $50,000.

The conference agreement continues the fiscal year 2004 level of funding for all research projects proposed to be terminated in the President's budget as provided in House Report 108-584 and Senate Report 108-340 accompanying the fiscal year 2005 Agriculture Appropriations bills, including the following at all locations: Aquaculture Density Research (Stuttgart, AR); Water Resources Management (Tifton, GA); Water Use Management Technology (Tifton, GA); Great Basins Rangeland (Boise, ID); Source Water Protection (West Lafayette, IN); Great Basins Rangeland (Reno, NV); Western Grazinglands (Reno, NV); and, Pasture Systems and Watershed Management (University Park, PA).

The conference agreement provides an increase of $125,000 for the Children's Nutrition Research Center at Houston, TX, for a cooperative research project with Baylor College of Medicine and the Peanut Institute to examine ways to prevent the onset of chronic diseases and the growing problem of overweight children.

The conferees direct that a portion of the funding for grape rootstock should be allocated to support the ongoing grape industry research strategic planning process.

The conference agreement provides an increase of $75,000 above the fiscal year 2004 level for the Grand Forks Human Nutrition Laboratory for a cooperative agreement with the Northern Great Plains Research Laboratory, Mandan, ND, the University of North Dakota, and North Dakota State University on a healthy beef initiative.

The conferees note the growing concern raised by the soybean industry due to the threat of soybean rust. The conferees also note the recent announcement by the Department of Agriculture that soybean rust has now been confirmed in the United States. Soybean rust is a fungus that appears on the leaves of the plant and eventually causes premature defoliation which brings about substantial yield loss. The conferees encourage the Department to accelerate research on plant varieties that improve tolerance to soybean rust pathogens.

The conferees do not include funding for the development of a wine grape foundation block of certified "clean" rootstock in ARS. The conference agreement provides funding for this vital research in the Cooperative State Research, Education, and Extension Service account.

BUILDINGS AND FACILITIES

The conference agreement provides $187,838,000 for the Agricultural Research Service, Buildings and Facilities, instead of $202,000,000 as proposed by the House and $172,838,000 as proposed by the Senate.

The following items reflect the conference agreement: National Center for Animal Health (Ames, Iowa), $122,000,000; Grape Genomics Research Center (Davis, California), $3,000,000; U.S. Agricultural Research Station (Salinas, California), $3,000,000; U.S. Pacific Basin Agricultural Research Center (Hilo, Hawaii), $3,000,000; Aquaculture Facility (Aberdeen/Billingsley Creek, Idaho) $1,000,000; National Center for Agricultural Utilization Research (Peoria, Illinois), $3,000,000; Animal Waste Management Research Laboratory (Bowling Green, Kentucky), $2,300,000; Forage-Animal Research Laboratory (Lexington, Kentucky) $3,000,000; ARS Sugarcane Research Laboratory (Houma, Louisiana), $3,000,000; Northeast Marine Cold Water Aquaculture Research Center (Orono/Franklin, Maine), $3,000,000; Beltsville Agricultural Research Center (Beltsville, Maryland), $3,000,000; Jamie Whitten Delta States Research Center (Stoneville, Mississippi), $3,000,000; Poultry Science Research Facility (Starkville, Mississippi), $3,000,000; National Plant and Genetics Security Center (Columbia, Missouri), $5,000,000; Animal Bioscience Facility (Bozeman, Montana), $2,000,000; Center for Grape Genetics (Geneva, New York), $3,000,000; Center for Crop-based Health Genomics (Ithaca, New York), $3,000,000; University of Toledo (Toledo, Ohio), $2,000,000; Southern Plains Research Station (Woodward, Oklahoma), $3,000,000; U.S. Vegetable Laboratory (Charleston, South Carolina), $3,000,000; ARS Research Laboratory (Pullman, Washington), $3,000,000; Appalachian Fruit Laboratory (Kearneysville, West Virginia), $3,638,000; and, Nutrient Management Laboratory (Marshfield, Wisconsin), $4,900,000.

The conferees note that there is widespread interest in additional construction and renovation of ARS facilities throughout the country. This is not surprising when considering the fact that many of the existing facilities are decades old. The conferees continue to believe that the ARS needs a master plan for addressing these needs. Until such a master plan can be developed, however, the Committees will not consider funding requests for projects for which a prospectus has not been completed and submitted to the Committees by March 1 of each year. Each prospectus shall, at a minimum, include the following information: the feasibility, requirements, and scope of the proposed project; details on building size, cost, associated facilities, scientific capacity, and other requirements; and details on existing and planned program and resource requirements. Further, the conferees strongly encourage the ARS to determine the merits and priority for these projects.

The purpose and intent of the ARS Buildings and Facilities account is to provide new, replacement, and modernized Federal laboratories and facilities needed to carry out and strengthen ARS research and to protect the Government's significant investment in these Federal assets. As noted in House Report 108-584 and Senate Report 108-340, there has been widespread interest in additional construction and renovation of the Department's research facilities throughout the country. The conferees encourage ARS to consider the development of a master plan that deals with ARS programs and related buildings priorities. This will be useful to the Committees in assessing and determining ARS in-house laboratory requirements.

COOPERATIVE STATE RESEARCH, EDUCATION, AND EXTENSION SERVICE
RESEARCH AND EDUCATION ACTIVITIES

The conference agreement provides $660,781,000 for research and education activities instead of $628,607,000 as proposed by the House and $628,492,000 as proposed by the Senate.

The conference agreement includes bill language for the following items: West Virginia State University as proposed by the Senate instead of West Virginia State College as proposed by the House; and, $500,000 for resident instruction grants for insular areas as proposed by the House.

The following table reflects the conference agreement:

OUTREACH FOR SOCIALLY DISADVANTAGED FARMERS

The conference agreement provides $5,935,000 for Outreach for Socially Disadvantaged Farmers as proposed by both the House and Senate.

OFFICE OF THE UNDER SECRETARY FOR MARKETING AND REGULATORY PROGRAMS

The conference agreement provides $721,000 for the Office of the Under Secretary for Marketing and Regulatory Programs as proposed by the House instead of $733,000 as proposed by the Senate.

ANIMAL AND PLANT HEALTH INSPECTION SERVICE

SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The conference agreement provides $814,623,000 for the Animal and Plant Health Inspection Service (APHIS) instead of $831,823,000 as proposed by the House and $786,866,000 as proposed by the Senate.

The conferees direct that projects identified in House Report 108-193, Senate Report 108-107, and House Report 108-401 that were directed to be funded in fiscal year 2004 are not funded for fiscal year 2005 unless specifically mentioned in this conference report and the reports of the House and Senate that accompany this Act. Further, the conferees direct APHIS not to redirect funding for programs and activities without prior notification to and approval by the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations in accordance with the reprogramming procedures specified in this Act.

The conferees provide the following increases in the APHIS salaries and expenses account for new and enhanced activities related to the Food and Agriculture Defense Initiative: $33,197,000 for a national animal identification program, $3,600,000 for state cooperative agreements, $2,000,000 for bio-surveillance, $2,500,000 for the control of select agents, $2,303,000 for the National Veterinary Vaccine Bank, $8,641,000 for BSE testing, and $2,900,000 for the national animal laboratory network.

Animal Health Monitoring and Surveillance.—The conference agreement includes $145,082,000 for Animal Health Monitoring and Surveillance. Within that amount, the conference agreement provides an increase of $33,197,000 for the National Animal Identification System (NAIS) and includes bill language naming the amount and requiring a report on the system components. The conferees note that, in addition, the Secretary transferred $18,792,997 from the Commodity Credit Corporation for animal identification in April 2004.

The conference agreement includes not less than $2,000,000 for a cooperative agreement with the Wisconsin Department of Agriculture, Trade and Consumer Protection to continue work carried out by the Wisconsin Livestock Identification Consortium.

The conferees provide $600,000 for the Farm Animal Identification and Records (FAIR) program. Both the Wisconsin consortium and the FAIR project should also be eligible to apply for additional cooperative agreement funding for animal identification, which is funded within the NAIS total.

The conference agreement provides the full increase requested, $8,641,000 over the fiscal year 2004 level, for activities related to Bovine Spongiform Encephalopathy (BSE). In addition, the conferees note that the Department has available $69,900,000, which the Secretary transferred in March 2004 from the Commodity Credit Corporation (CCC) to fund an intensive BSE surveillance and testing program. That funding will allow APHIS to conduct testing for approximately 268,000 animals within a 12 to 18 month period starting June 1, 2004; as of November 9, 2004, APHIS has tested 106,484 cattle. The conferees note that the CCC-transferred amount will cover all BSE testing during that time-frame.

The conference agreement includes: $300,000 to assist in creating a database of North Carolina's agriculture industry for rapid response capabilities; funding of the New Mexico Rapid Syndrome Validation Program at $450,000 to support early detection of pathogens in animals and prevent their spread; $300,000 for Iowa State's work regarding risk assessments of genetically modified agricultural products; $746,000 for an alkaline digester for the Ohio Agriculture Research and Development Center in Wooster, Ohio; and $298,000 to address bio-safety issues relating to antibiotic-resistant strains of bacteria in Vermont.

The conference agreement includes increases of $3,600,000 for cooperative agreements with states and $1,900,000 for cooperative agreements as part of the National Animal Health Laboratory Network.

Import-Export Inspection.—The conferees provide $12,874,000 for import-export inspection, including an increase of $1,000,000 for select agents, and an increase of $500,000 for a cooperative agreement with the California County Pest Detection Augmentation Program.

Emerging Plant Pests.—The conference agreement includes an increase of $8,469,000 above the amount available in fiscal year 2004. The conferees provide $36,578,000 for citrus canker eradication; $23,190,000 for Pierce's Disease/Glassy-winged sharpshooter; $5,000,000 for Emerald Ash borer; $3,000,000 for Sudden Oak Death; and $29,168,000 for the Asian long-horned beetle. The conferees provide $100,000 of funding for hydrilla eradication around Smith Mountain Lake in Virginia, and Lake Gaston in Virginia and North Carolina. Funding for Karnal bunt, olive fruit fly, and miscellaneous pests continue at the fiscal year 2004 level.

The conferees expect the Secretary to utilize authorities and resources of the Commodity Credit Corporation (CCC) to provide assistance in response to animal and plant health threats.

John's Disease.—The conference agreement provides $18,740,000 for John's Disease. From within that amount, the conference agreement provides the fiscal year 2004 funding level to continue cooperative agreements with the Wisconsin Department of Agriculture, Trade and Consumer Protection.

Low Pathogenic Avian Influenza.—The conferees provide $23,000,000 for activities relating to the prevention, control, and eradication of Low Pathogenic Avian Influenza (LPAI) to remain available until expended. Within the total amount, $12,000,000 is for indemnities, $3,000,000 is for surveillance activities, up to $2,000,000 is for reagents and costs of administering tests, and up to $2,000,000 is for live bird market closure for disinfection, as needed. Full funding for other LPAI activities that were included in the budget request is included in the total. The conferees are concerned that LPAI, which appears to be endemic in certain live bird markets in urban areas, could mutate into highly pathogenic forms. To prevent this from happening, a robust surveillance and control system in both commercial poultry industries and live bird markets is important. The conferees believe that industry cooperation and program fairness will be maximized through the indemnification of losses.

Wildlife Services Operations.—The conferees direct that, other than funding for the specific items noted in this statement, the funds provided in the Wildlife Services Operations line item are available for general operations needs.

The conferees do not concur with the President's request to reduce funding in the Wildlife Services account to allow cooperators to assume a larger share of the costs associated with these activities.

The conferees provide $1,215,000 for wolf predation management, of which $1,065,000 is for Wisconsin, Minnesota, and Michigan, and $150,000 is for New Mexico and Arizona. The conference agreement does not include separate funding for Minnesota, as proposed by the House.

The conference agreement continues funding for the following projects: $300,000 for beaver management in North Carolina; $250,000 for crop and aquaculture losses in southwest Missouri; $625,000 for game bird predation work with the University of Georgia; $100,000 for predation wildlife services in western Virginia; $120,000 for blackbird control in Louisiana; $1,300,000 for predator control programs in Montana, Idaho, and Wyoming; $1,000,000 for wildlife services in Texas; $150,000 for beaver management and damage in Wisconsin; $515,000 for brown tree snake management in Guam; $310,000 for Hawaii and Guam operations; $300,000 for sandhill cranes in Idaho; $50,000 for control of feral hogs in Missouri; $1,000,000 for cormorant control in New York; $150,000 for cormorant control in Michigan; $100,000 for cormorant control in the Lake Champlain basin; $750,000 for wildlife service operations with the South Dakota Department of Game, Fish, and Parks to meet the growing demands of controlling predatory, nuisance, and diseased animals; $550,000 for the management of beavers in Mississippi; $335,000 to continue control measures for minimizing blackbird damage to sunflowers in North Dakota and $33,000 for those purposes in South Dakota; $120,000 for blackbird management efforts in Louisiana; $174,000 for Kansas blackbird control; $247,000 for the Jack Berryman Institute, Utah; $199,000 for beaver control in Kentucky; $325,000 for Delta states operations; $199,000 for geese control in New York; $249,000 for the New Hampshire State operations; and $474,000 for the Nevada Division of Wildlife. The conferees do not provide $50,000 for the Cooperative Livestock Protection Program in Pennsylvania as proposed by the Senate.

The conference agreement includes $21,850,000 for a cooperative oral rabies vaccination program. This amount includes an increase of $1,000,000, of which not less than $420,000 is directed to go to the state of Florida for bait and related costs.

Emergency management systems.—The conference agreement includes $12,968,000 for emergency management systems, which includes a total of $4,000,000 for emergency coordinators and a total of $3,000,000 to establish a vaccine bank.

Pest Detection.—The conference agreement includes $1,500,000 for select agents, $200,000 for a remote sensing, hyperspectral imaging and light detection and ranging project; and an increase of $1,000,000 for surveys through the Cooperative Agricultural Pest Surveys system.

Chronic wasting disease.—For chronic wasting disease, the conferees provide $18,839,000. The conferees direct that of this amount $1,750,000 is for Wisconsin and $250,000 is for Alaska. Funding for Utah and the Conservation Medicine Center of Chicago remains at fiscal year 2004 levels.

Veterinary Diagnostics.—The conferees provide an increase of $1,000,000 for the National Animal Health Laboratory Network, as requested. The conferees do not continue the funding for equipment needs recommended in the Senate report.

Wildlife Services Methods Development.—The conference agreement includes $17,428,000 for wildlife services methods development. Within that amount, the conferees provide $400,000 in funding for the National Wildlife Research Station in Kingsville, Texas, to address emerging infectious disease issues associated with wildlife populations; $498,000 for the Jack Berryman Institute, Utah, for addressing wildlife damage management issues; and $352,000 to continue research efforts at the National Wildlife Research Center field station in Starkville, MS, for resolving problems regarding bird damage to aquaculture farms in the Southeast.

Agricultural Quarantine Inspection.—For fiscal year 2005, the conferees provide $25,292,000 for the AQI appropriated account to conduct preclearance quarantine inspections. The conferees have included the fiscal year 2004 funding level for interline activities in Hawaii as proposed by the Senate, assume the reduction of $1,246,000 due to one-time equipment purchases, and provide an increase of $490,000 for the National Germplasm Laboratory.

Boll Weevil Eradication.—The conferees provide $47,500,000 for fiscal year 2005 to continue the Boll Weevil Eradication Program, as proposed by the Senate instead of $47,000,000 as proposed by the House.

Brucellosis.—The conferees provide an increase of $114,000 above the fiscal year 2004 level for the brucellosis program. This amount continues funding at the fiscal year 2004 level for Montana to protect the State's brucellosis-free status and for the operation of the bison quarantine facility and the testing of bison that surround Yellowstone National Park.

Noxious Weeds.—The conferees provide $1,991,000 for the noxious weeds account. This amount includes $199,000 for the Nez Perce Bio-control Center to increase the availability and distribution of biological control organisms used in an integrated weed management system, and $298,000 for the Kiski Basin Initiative.

The conference agreement provides continued funding at the fiscal year 2004 level for an invasive species program to prevent the spread of cogongrass in Mississippi, and requests that the agency take necessary steps to address this invasive weed as a regional infestation problem.

Fruit fly exclusion and detection.—The conferees include $58,343,000 for fruit fly exclusion and detection, a $1,000,000 increase over the fiscal year 2004 level. Of the increase, $100,000 is for Texas.

Grasshopper and mormon cricket.—The conference agreement includes $5,528,000 for grasshopper and mormon cricket control. Of this amount, no less than $1,000,000 is for activities in Utah and funding for Nevada is at no less than the fiscal year 2004 level for survey, control and eradication activities.

Pierce's Disease/Glassy-winged Sharpshooter.—The conferees strongly object to the recent decision of the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) to deny funding that the Secretary identified as necessary to combat the glassy-winged sharpshooter and to contain Pierce's Disease. The conferees note that OMB's decision to deny this funding has needlessly increased the serious threat posed by Pierce's Disease to California's multi-billion dollar wine and grape industries, constituted an unwelcome intrusion upon the Secretary's exercise of discretion, and was in total disregard of the fact that 33 Members of Congress supported the Secretary's request for these funds. The conferees further note that OMB's decision in this matter contradicted the direction provided to OMB by Congress in fiscal year 2004 to "disregard any arbitrarily imposed cost-share requirements." Accordingly, the conferees strongly encourage OMB to approve the $5.2 million USDA requested for efforts to combat Pierce's Disease.

The conferees recognize the work conducted in Texas related to the glassy-winged sharpshooter, and direct the Department to continue this work.

Vine Mealy Bug.—The conferees are concerned about the effect of the vine mealy bug (Planococcus ficus) on grapes. Over 900,000 acres of grapes are threatened by this pest. The conferees encourage APHIS to appropriately address this emerging threat through the funds available to the agency.

The conferees direct the agency to initiate a cooperative agreement with the Louisiana Department of Wildlife and Fisheries for development of diagnostics related to disease affecting the domestic alligator industry.

The conferees have included language under the Office of the Secretary to address concerns that the veterinary diagnostic work conducted at Plum Island, New York, remains focused on agriculture.

BUILDINGS AND FACILITIES

The conference agreement provides $4,967,000 for Animal and Plant Health Inspection Service Buildings and Facilities as proposed by the Senate instead of $4,996,000 as proposed by the House.

AGRICULTURAL MARKETING SERVICE MARKETING SERVICES

The conference agreement provides $75,698,000 for the Agricultural Marketing Service instead of $75,892,000 as proposed by the House and $78,198,000 as proposed by the Senate.

The conferees do not include Senate bill language or funding under this section for a web-based supply chain management system, but the conference agreement does provide funding for this system under the section 32 account.

The conferees provide $2,000,000 for activities relating to organic standards. The conferees continue to encourage AMS to use this funding to finalize the hiring of an executive director for the National Organic Standards Board (NOSB), to create a Peer Review Panel to oversee the USDA accreditation process for organic certifiers, and to improve scientific technical support for the NOSB. The conferees also encourage AMS to regularly collect and report agricultural price trends in the organic industry.

LIMITATION ON ADMINISTRATIVE EXPENSES

The conference agreement provides $64,459,000 as proposed by both the House and Senate.

FUNDS FOR STRENGTHENING MARKETS, INCOME, AND SUPPLY (SECTION 32)

The conference agreement provides $15,800,000 for Funds for Strengthening Markets, Income, and Supply as proposed by the House and Senate.

The conferees are aware that farmed salmon imports have undercut the market for Alaska wild salmon creating a domestic surplus of wild pink salmon. The conferees encourage the Department to use all existing authorities under the section 32 program to purchase surplus domestic salmon and stabilize the domestic salmon industry. The conferees are aware that section 32 funds have been used to assist food producers affected by adverse market conditions caused by an imbalance of supply and demand.

The conferees strongly encourage the Department to begin development of the Web-based Supply Chain Management System, which will benefit the programs of the Agricultural Marketing Service, the Farm Service Agency, and the Food and Nutrition Service, as well as enhancing food distribution to schools and other feeding outlets. Administrative expenses to support section 32 purposes are expressly allowed, and section 32 funds, accordingly, should be used to fund support computer systems. The conferees believe that all of the cost of the Web-based Supply Chain Management System should be financed from section 32. The first phase of the system should be funded at no less than $10,000,000, as included in the Commodity Purchase Support line in the following table.

PAYMENTS TO STATES AND POSSESSIONS

The conference agreement provides $3,847,000 for Payments to States and Possessions as proposed by the Senate instead of $1,347,000 as proposed by the House.

The conference agreement includes bill language and funding for a specialty markets grant as proposed by the Senate.

GRAIN INSPECTION, PACKERS AND STOCKYARDS ADMINISTRATION

SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The conference agreement provides $37,299,000 for the Grain Inspection, Packers and Stockyards Administration as proposed by the Senate instead of $37,540,000 as proposed by the House.

The conference agreement provides an increase of $1,000,000 for budgeted increases including IT security and BSE-related activities.

The conference agreement includes $500,000 to continue the product verification protocols pilot program, in conjunction with the Missouri, Illinois, and Iowa Corn Growers Associations. The pilot program is to establish controls for regulated seed varieties and augment grain marketing.

LIMITATION ON INSPECTION AND WEIGHING SERVICES EXPENSES

The conference agreement provides $42,463,000 as proposed by the House and Senate.

OFFICE OF THE UNDER SECRETARY FOR FOOD SAFETY

The conference agreement provides $595,000 for the Office of the Under Secretary for Food Safety as proposed by the House instead of $608,000 as proposed by the Senate.

FOOD SAFETY AND INSPECTION SERVICE

The conference agreement provides $823,760,000 for the Food Safety and Inspection Service, instead of $824,746,000 as proposed by the House and $823,757,000 as proposed by the Senate.

The conferees include bill language, as proposed by the Senate, regarding full-time equivalent positions for inspections and enforcement of laws and regulations related to the Humane Methods of Slaughter Act.

The conference agreement includes bill language to provide $3,000,000 for the Humane Animal Tracking System, a component of the Field Automation and Information Management System (FAIM). These funds will remain available until September 30, 2006. The conferees direct FSIS to provide notice to the Committees on Appropriations prior to obligating funds for this purpose, with details on specific costs associated with this action, a schedule for incorporation, and how this action will benefit enforcement of the Humane Methods of Slaughter Act regulations.

The conference agreement includes $20,653,000 for regulatory and scientific training.

The conferees provide the following increases: $17,267,000 for frontline inspectors and humane slaughter enforcement; $3,000,000 for surveillance related to Bovine Spongiform Encephalopathy; $7,153,000 for entry-level training for field employees, food safety regulatory essentials training, and biosecurity training; $2,100,000 for biosurveillance; $2,000,000 for the Food Emergency Response Network (FERN); $1,500,000 for FERN data systems; and $350,000 for microbiological baseline studies, bringing total funding for this activity to $2,000,000.

The conferees commend FSIS for beginning to include photographs of recalled products and website addresses of manufacturers in recall press release notices. The conferees urge FSIS to continue to do this to the greatest extent possible and also to ask manufacturers if they will voluntarily provide information on retail outlets of recalled products for inclusion on the FSIS press release, so that consumers may readily locate them.

OFFICE OF THE UNDER SECRETARY FOR FARM AND FOREIGN AGRICULTURAL SERVICES

The conference agreement provides $631,000 for the Office of the Under Secretary for Farm and Foreign Agricultural Services as proposed by the House instead of $648,000 as proposed by the Senate.

FARM SERVICE AGENCY

SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The conference agreement provides $1,007,597,000 for the Farm Service Agency instead of $1,060,471,000 as proposed by the House and $1,004,032,000 as proposed by the Senate. The conferees direct that of this amount $854,000 shall be for additional salaries and expenses to carry out disaster assistance related activities.

STATE MEDIATION GRANTS

The conference agreement provides $4,000,000 for State Mediation Grants, as proposed by the House and Senate.

DAIRY INDEMNITY PROGRAM

The conference agreement provides $100,000 for the Dairy Indemnity Program, as proposed by the House and Senate.

AGRICULTURAL CREDIT INSURANCE FUND PROGRAM ACCOUNT

The following table reflects the conference agreement:

RISK MANAGEMENT AGENCY

The conference agreement provides $72,044,000 for the Risk Management Agency as proposed by the House and the Senate.

FEDERAL CROP INSURANCE CORPORATION FUND

The conference agreement provides an appropriation of such sums as may be necessary for the Federal Crop Insurance Corporation Fund (estimated to be $4,095,128,000 in the President's fiscal year 2005 Budget Request), as proposed by the House and Senate.

COMMODITY CREDIT CORPORATION FUND

REIMBURSEMENT FOR NET REALIZED LOSSES

The conference agreement provides an appropriation of such sums as may be necessary for Reimbursement for Net Realized Losses of the Commodity Credit Corporation (estimated to be $16,452,377,000 in the President's fiscal year 2005 Budget Request), as proposed by the House and Senate.

HAZARDOUS WASTE MANAGEMENT

The conference agreement provides a limitation of $5,000,000 for Hazardous Waste Management, as proposed by the House and Senate.

TITLE II—CONSERVATION PROGRAMS

OFFICE OF THE UNDER SECRETARY FOR NATURAL RESOURCES AND ENVIRONMENT

The conference agreement provides $741,000 for the Office of the Under Secretary for Natural Resources and Environment instead of $731,000 as proposed by the House and $758,000 as proposed by the Senate.

The conferees direct the Natural Resources Conservation Service (NRCS) to provide the Committees on Appropriations a report no later than 90 days after enactment of this Act detailing the steps necessary and the funds required to complete the Kagman watershed project in the Northern Mariana Islands.

The conference agreement directs the NRCS to provide funding from within the Mississippi Wetland Reserve Program allocation to restore catfish ponds to functioning wetlands in order to reduce flooding, improve water quality, and provide habitat for aquatic wildlife.

NATURAL RESOURCES CONSERVATION SERVICE
CONSERVATION OPERATIONS

The conference agreement includes $837,360,000 for Conservation Operations, instead of $854,132,000 as proposed by the House and $845,863,000 as proposed by the Senate. The agreement includes statutory language to make the funds in this account available until June 30, 2006, instead of the funds remaining available until expended, as proposed by the Senate.

The Committee provides $23,500,000 for the Grazing Lands Conservation Initiative, $10,500,000 for snow surveys, $14,433,000 for Plant Materials Centers, and $87,196,000 for the Soil Surveys Program.

Misuse of discretionary funds.—The conferees are concerned about the misuse of discretionary conservation technical assistance funds. The fiscal year 2004 instructions to State Conservationists from the Chief of NRCS, state, "Your fiscal and performance responsibilities include . . . Assuring that all planning that occurs before the approval of an application for Farm Bill conservation programs is charged to Conservation Technical Assistance (CTA), but charge the planning that occurs after the application has been approved (contract planning) to the benefiting program . . .". This instruction is in clear violation of provisions of Public Law 108-199, which are restated in this Act, directing that none of the funds made available to NRCS may be used to provide technical assistance "with respect to programs listed in section 1241(a) of the Food Security Act of 1985." The Office of the General Counsel has opined that the language is clear in its prohibition of the use of discretionary CTA funds for Farm Bill conservation programs. The NRCS is directed to provide the Committees on Appropriations with a detailed accounting of all CTA funds that were used for Farm Bill conservation programs at any point in fiscal years 2003 and 2004, including the amounts and dates of any charges made to CTA during the planning process before application approval, by January 15, 2005.

State funding allocations.—The conferees are concerned that funding allocations to the States are being reduced in proportion to Congressional earmarks funded in the Conservation Operations account. The conferees direct the Chief of the NRCS, in making the fiscal year 2005 Conservation Operations funding allocations to the States, to treat Congressional earmarks as additions to the States' funding allocation. The conferees direct the NRCS to provide a report to the Committees on Appropriations, not later than 45 days after the enactment of this Act, including the following: fiscal year 2004 Conservation Operations Allocation by State, fiscal year 2005 Conservation Operations Allocation by State, the fiscal year 2005 Congressional Earmarks by State, and the Total Conservation Operations Allocation by State.

Projects identified with a specific dollar amount in House Report 108-401 that were directed to be funded by the conferees for fiscal year 2004 or identified with a specific dollar amount in House Report 108-584 or Senate Report 108-340 are not funded for fiscal year 2005, unless specifically mentioned herein.

The conferees direct NRCS to obligate the funds for the projects named within this account within 45 days of enactment, and to provide a report within 60 days of enactment to the Committees on Appropriations regarding those obligations, and specifically noting any projects for which funding has been delayed beyond 45 days and the reason for the delay.

The following funds are directed to be used in cooperative agreements continued with the same cooperator entities as in the fiscal year 2004 agreements, unless otherwise noted.

Cooperative agreement between the Alabama Department of Conservation and Natural Resources and the Alabama Wildlife Federation for conservation education in Millbrook, Alabama—$450,000; Obtain/evaluate materials for cold region seeds of plants in conjunction w/ Alaska Division of Agriculture (AK)—$315,000; Native Plant Materials (evaluating and developing) (AK)—$315,000; GIS-based mapping/hyperspectral imaging of agriculture lands (AK)—$400,000; NRI pilot development (AK)—$1,200,000; Cooperative agreement w/ Soil and Water Conservation District (AK)—$1,500,000; National Water Management Center (AR)—$2,612,500; Little Red River Irrigation Project (AR)—$399,000; Study to determine logistics of transportation/coordination of excess nutrient management (AR)—$225,000; East Valley Conservation District/Santa Ana Watershed Authority Non-native Plant Removal (CA)—$1,000,000; Monterey Bay Sanctuary (CA)—$600,000; Cooperative agreement with the Municipal Water District of Orange County, California—$100,000; Cooperative agreement w/ Tufts University to improve conservation practices (CT)—$480,000; Pilot projects for technology systems resulting in nutrient reduction (FL)—$5,500,000; Manatee Agriculture Reuse System (FL)—$2,000,000; Lake Okeechobee Watershed project planning (FL)—$310,000; Suwannee, Dixie, and Lafayette Counties dairy and poultry waste treatment (FL)—$280,000; Cooperative agreement

w/Green Institute (FL)—$340,000; Implementation of pilot projects for nutrient reducing waste treatment systems (FL)—$720,000; Georgia Soil and Water Conservation Commission Cooperative Agreement (GA)—$3,600,000; Community nutrient management facilities (GA)—$350,000; PMC for Native Plants to clean up the Island of Kahoolawe (HI)—$108,000; Molokai Agriculture Community Committee (HI)—$250,000; Agricultural development/resource conservation—Molokai (HI)—$740,000; Idaho One Plan (ID)—$200,000; Conversion to sprinkler irrigation—Minidoka (ID)—$950,000; Basalt and ground water protection project (ID)—$275,000; Ecological site description project w/ ID Association of Conservation Districts (ID)—$300,000; Trees Forever Program (IL)—$100,000; Iroquois River watershed (IL)—$468,000; Illinois River Agricultural Conservation Project w/ Ducks Unlimited (IL)—$244,000; Wildlife habitat education program in conjunction w/National Wild Turkey Federation (IL)—$244,000; Cooperative agreement with Kane County, Illinois, for Blackberry Creek watershed (IL)—$360,000; Illinois River Basin—EQIP; Hungry Canyon/Loess Hills Erosion Control/Western Iowa (IA)—$1,200,000; Trees Forever Program (IA)—$100,000; CEMSA w/ Iowa Soybean Association (IA)—$431,500; Cooperative agreement w/ Northern Iowa University (IA)—$450,000; Innovative environmental technology program (IN)—$650,000; Soil erosion control cost-share program/soil survey program (KY)—$2,800,000; Technical assistance to provide grants to Soil Conservation Districts in Kentucky (KY)—$940,000; Cooperative agreement w/ Western Kentucky University (KY)—$400,000; Dairy waste remediation—Lake Ponchartrain Basin (LA)—$295,000; Cooperative agreement w/ LSU on effectiveness of agriculture and forestry (LA)—$336,500; False River sedimentation/Bayou Grosse (LA)—$150,000; Chesapeake Bay activities (MD)—$6,000,000; Conservation related to cranberry production (MA/WI)—$570,000; Weed It Now—Taconic Mountains (MA/NY/CT)—$200,000; Great Lakes pilot program for conservation (MI)—$575,000; Mississippi Conservation Initiative (MS)—$2,500,000; Delta Water Resources Study (MS) $700,000; Delta Conservation Demonstration Center, Washington County (MS) $1,400,000; Soil erosion/Alcorn State (MS)—$175,000; Cattle and nutrient management in stream crossings (MS)—$900,000; Choctaw County feasibility study for surface impoundment (MS)—$230,000; Wildlife Management Institute (MS)—$5,813,000; Humphrey's County Hospital flood protection (MS)—$125,000; Drainage improvements/Hinds County (MS)—$250,000; Drainage improvements, Port Gibson, (MS)—$397,000; Rankin County-Richland Creek Watershed (MS)—$250,000; Rankin County erosion control project, Mill Creek (MS)—$225,000; Upper White River Water Quality Project in southern Missouri (MO)—$391,500; Lake Tahoe Basin Soil Conservation Project (NV/CA)—$500,000; Great Basin Land and Water study (NV)—$300,000; State conservation cost share program (NJ)—$950,000; Riparian restoration activities along Rio Grande and Pecos River (NM)—$540,000; Pastureland Management/Rotational Grazing (NY)—$600,000; Best management practices/Skaneateles and Owasco Watersheds (NY)—$325,000; Address non-point pollution in Onondaga and Oneida Lake Watersheds (NY)—$500,000; Phase II/Watershed Agriculture Council in Walton (NY)—$700,000 of which $80,000 is for monitoring the easements purchased by the Council's Whole Farm Easement Program; Pace University Land Use Law Center (NY)—$200,000; technical assistance to address water quality problems in Sodus Bay watershed, Wayne County (NY)—$250,000; New York State Agriculture and Environment Management Program (NY)—$800,000; Long Island Sound watershed initiative (NY)—$200,000; Erosion control/stabilization for Hudson River shoreline (NY)—$250,000; Technical assistance to livestock/poultry industry (NC)—$450,000; West Cary Watershed and Farmland Protection Project (NC)—$300,000; Red River Flood Prevention/Energy and Environmental Research Center (ND)—$1,000,000; North Central Planning Council water utilization/Devil's Lake (ND)—$350,000; Maumee Watershed Hydrological Study and Flood Mitigation Plan (OH)—$1,000,000; Oregon Garden, Silverton (OR)—$325,000; Native grassland demo project in the vicinity of Tar Creek (OK)—$2,350,000; Pawcatuck Watershed (RI)—$500,000; Study to characterize land use change while preserving natural resources in cooperation with Clemson University (SC)—$1,200,000; GIS based Model to integrate commodity and conservation (SC)—$900,000; Bexar, Medina, Uvalde Counties irrigation in Edwards Aquifer (TX)—$500,000; Field office telecommunications pilot program/advanced soil survey methods (TX)—$2,400,000; Leon River Restoration project (TX)—$100,000; Range vegetation pilot project, Ft. Hood (TX)—$500,000; a cooperative agreement with the Texas Water Resources Institute to implement a watershed protection plan for Tarrant County (TX)—$500,000; AFO/CAFO Pilot Project (UT)—$300,000; Dry Creek/Neff's Grove project (UT)—$1,050,000; Study to examine effects of vegetative manipulation on water yields w/ Utah State (UT)—$625,000; Washington Fields (UT)—$1,125,000; Utah Conservation Initiative (UT)—$1,000,000; Reduce phosphorus loading into Lake Champlain (VT)—$295,000; Pilot farm viability program project (VT) $233,500; Walla Walla watershed alliance (WA)—$500,000; Design/implement natural stream restoration initiatives (WV)—$785,000; Soil survey geographic database in the Mid-Atlantic Highlands (WV)—$190,000; Poultry Litter Composting (WV)—$160,000; Potomac and Ohio River Basin Soil Nutrient Project (WV)—$300,000; Appalachian Small Farmer Outreach Program (WV)—$860,000; GIS Center of Excellence at West Virginia University (WV)—$4,418,500; Grazing Lands Initiative/Wisconsin Department of Ag (WI)—$950,000; Examine benefits of using vegetative buffers w/ Univ. of Wisconsin—Madison (WI)—$550,000; Conservation land internship program (WI)—$114,000; Wisconsin Tribal Conservation Advisory Committee cooperative agreement (WI)—$287,500; Cooperative agreement w/ Sand County Foundation (WI)—$1,050,000; University of Wisconsin cooperative agreement on conservation tech transfer (WI)—$300,000; Cooperative agreement with Pioneer Farm (WI)—$300,000; Soil survey mapping project (WY)—$300,000; Audubon at Home Pilot Program—$500,000; Great Lakes Basin Program for Soil & Erosion Sediment—$2,500,000; On-Farm Management Systems Evaluation Network—$200,000; Watershed management demo program/NPPC—$548,000; National Fish and Wildlife Foundation Partnerships—$3,000,000; Source water protection project to States showing greatest need—$3,250,000; and Operation Oak Program to restore hardwoods—$350,000.

The conferees provide $900,000 for the continued development of a geographic information system database in South Carolina to integrate commodity and conservation program data at the field level for watershed analysis and other purposes as the agency deems appropriate. The conferees encourage the agency to consider the designation of the University of South Carolina Earth Sciences Resources Institute as an Information Technology Center of Excellence.

The conferees recognize that the High Plains Aquifer, with the Ogallala Aquifer as its most important component, lies beneath eight States and is the primary source of water for all reported uses in western Kansas. The conferees are aware that the aquifer is depleting at alarming rates and absent conservation efforts could be dry within two decades. The conferees urge the agency to give consideration to the use of ground and surface water funding for projects in Kansas that will conserve this aquifer.

The conferees support the preservation of the last tallgrass prairie in North America, most of which is located in the Flint Hills region of Kansas. The conferees recognize that the tallgrass prairie provides rich ranching lands, open spaces, and habitat for a diverse assemblage of plants and animals. The conferees urge the agency to give consideration to the use of all appropriate funding sources for projects in Kansas that will preserve and protect this unique area.

Edwards Aquifer.—The conferees encourage the Agency to provide technical and financial assistance to the Edwards Aquifer Authority, San Antonio Water Systems, and other local entities, regarding plugging of wells to address pollution concerns.

The conferees appreciate previous efforts by NRCS to conserve sage grouse habitat in the western United States. The conferees encourage the agency to use no less than $5,000,000 in fiscal year 2005 to enhance its efforts on sage grouse habitat conservation. Additionally, NRCS should consider using such funds on public land grazing leases in addition to private lands.

Plant Materials Centers.—The conference agreement provides funding to complete construction of the Fallon, Nevada, Plant Materials Center, $1,500,000, and of the storage facility at the Alaska Plant Materials Center, $1,350,000. The conference agreement provides funding for the Kika de la Garza Plant Materials Center at no less than the fiscal year 2004 level, to continue the work conducted at the Center.

WATERSHED SURVEYS AND PLANNING

The conference agreement provides $7,083,000 for Watershed Surveys and Planning instead of $11,083,000 as proposed by the House and $7,500,000 as proposed by the Senate.

The conferees are concerned that additional watershed surveys and planning work is being initiated at a time when ongoing planning is not being completed in a timely manner, and the backlog for watershed project implementation and construction continues to mount. The conferees direct the Chief of NRCS to evaluate and rank planning efforts in order to fund and complete the most promising projects based upon merit, and notify the Committees on Appropriations of the selected watershed projects.

WATERSHED AND FLOOD PREVENTION OPERATIONS

The conference agreement provides $75,576,000 for Watershed and Flood Prevention Operations instead of $86,487,000 as proposed by the House and $64,000,000 as proposed by the Senate.

The conferees include bill language which limits the amount spent on technical assistance to not more than $35,000,000.

The conferees include funding to complete the next phase of projects listed in the House and Senate reports.

WATERSHED REHABILITATION PROGRAM

The conference agreement provides $27,500,000 for the Watershed Rehabilitation Program instead of $30,091,000 as proposed by the House and $25,000,000 as proposed by the Senate.

The conferees direct that funding under this program be provided for rehabilitation of structures determined to be of high priority need in order to protect property and ensure public safety.

RESOURCE CONSERVATION AND DEVELOPMENT

The conference agreement provides $51,641,000 for Resource Conservation and Development as proposed by the House instead of $50,760,000 as proposed by the Senate.

The conferees include bill language as proposed by the House that directs the Secretary to enter into an agreement with a national association related to the Resource Conservation and Development program, and directs that such an agreement must maintain the same matching, contribution requirements and funding set forth in previous agreements.

The conferees also include bill language that limits funding for national headquarters activities as proposed by the House.

TITLE III—RURAL DEVELOPMENT PROGRAMS

OFFICE OF THE UNDER SECRETARY FOR RURAL DEVELOPMENT

The conference agreement provides $632,000 for the Office of the Under Secretary for Rural Development as proposed by the House instead of $645,000 as proposed by the Senate.

The conferees direct the Under Secretary to give consideration to the following projects or organizations requesting financial and/or technical assistance, and grants and/or loans made available under the Rural Development mission area: Las Lomas Colonia, Starr County (TX), park and youth center; City of Benevides (TX), infrastructure for town park; City of Penitas (TX), development of wildlife park; City of Rio Grande City (TX), improvements for neighborhood pocket park; water and waste disposal loans for Pojoaque Pueblo (NM); and Union-Lincoln Regional Water Supply Initiative (LA), for alternative water supply program.

The conferees expect the Under Secretary to approve these projects only when such applications are judged to be meritorious when subject to established review procedures.

The conference agreement includes a general provision (Section 793) that provides $2,250,000 to assist in the establishment of pilot cooperative healthcare purchasing alliances for farmers, ranchers, small businesses and non-profit organizations in Wisconsin and Minnesota. The conferees expect the Department to provide the grant within 60 days of enactment of this Act to the Wisconsin Federation of Cooperatives, of which $2,000,000 is for the establishment of a stop loss fund and of which $250,000 is for administrative expenses, including actuarial studies.

RURAL COMMUNITY ADVANCEMENT PROGRAM

The conference agreement provides $716,049,000 for the Rural Community Advancement Program (RCAP) instead of $668,408,000 as proposed by the House and $733,360,000 as proposed by the Senate. The conference agreement provides $89,180,000 for rural community programs; $552,689,000 for rural utilities programs, of which $1,000,000 is for grants to nonprofit organizations to finance construction, refurbishing, and servicing of individually-owned household water well systems in rural areas, and of which $500,000 is for revolving funds for financing water and wastewater projects; and $74,180,000 is for rural business and cooperative development programs.

The conference agreement provides $25,000,000 for loans and grants to benefit Federally Recognized Native American Tribes.

The conference agreement provides $4,500,000 for community facilities grants to tribal colleges.

The conference agreement provides $6,350,000 for the Rural Community Development Initiative.

The conference agreement provides $1,000,000 for grants to the Delta Regional Authority for any Rural Community Advancement Program purpose.

The conference agreement provides $18,250,000 for technical assistance grants for rural water and waste systems.

The conference agreement provides $5,600,000 for the Rural Community Assistance Programs, of which $800,000 shall be for a qualified national Native American Organization to provide technical assistance for rural water systems for tribal communities.

The conference agreement provides $13,500,000 for a circuit rider program.

The conference agreement provides $26,000,000 for rural and Native villages in Alaska.

The conference agreement provides $21,000,000 for facilities in rural communities with extreme unemployment and severe economic depression.

The conference agreement provides $28,000,000 to be transferred to the Rural Utilities Service, High Energy Cost Grants Account.

The conference agreement does not include $200,000 for predevelopment planning grants from the Rural Community Development Initiative.

The conferees expect the Department to continue Rural Community Advancement Program predevelopment planning grants.

The conferees encourage the Department to provide a rural business enterprise grant for the Tioga County Rural Economic Area Partnership Zone to coordinate and facilitate local community development projects in Tioga County, New York.

The following table indicates the distribution of funding for the RCAP:

|                                        |                    |

| Tribal Colleges .....                                | 4,500,000  |

RURAL DEVELOPMENT SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The conference agreement provides $148,452,000 for Rural Development Salaries and Expenses instead of $171,250,000 as proposed by the House and $143,452,000 as proposed by the Senate.

The conferees provide an increase of $5,000,000 within the Rural Development Salaries and Expenses account to be used to complete the consolidation of St. Louis Rural Development activities at the Goodfellow facility. The conferees further request the Department to provide the Committees on Appropriations a report on the status of the consolidation within 60 days after enactment of this Act.

RURAL HOUSING SERVICE

RURAL HOUSING INSURANCE FUND PROGRAM ACCOUNT

The conference agreement provides a total subsidy of $228,256,000 for activities under the Rural Housing Insurance Fund Program Account instead of $230,030,000 as proposed by the House and $228,847,000 as proposed by the Senate.

The conference agreement provides for an estimated loan program level of $4,720,843,000 instead of $4,686,906,000 as proposed by the House and $4,157,691,000 as proposed by the Senate.

The conference agreement provides for a transfer of $448,342,000 to salaries and expenses as proposed by the Senate instead of $448,889,000 as proposed by the House.

The conference agreement includes a provision authorizing housing funds initially allocated to Alaska to be available until September 30, 2006.

The conference agreement does not include bill language restricting the section 515 rental housing program to repair and rehabilitation.

The conferees include a general provision (Section 726) to increase the guarantee fee for the guaranteed single-family housing loan program to two percent. The conferees are concerned that in fiscal years 2003 and 2004, the Rural Housing Service needed to exercise the Secretary's interchange authority to transfer additional budget authority to avoid shutting down the guaranteed loan program. The fiscal year 2005 President's budget request included only a small increase in loan level above the appropriated fiscal year 2004 level. Raising the guarantee fee to two percent will allow this guarantee loan program to more effectively use its budget authority.

The following table indicates loan and subsidy levels provided in the conference agreement:

| Rural Housing Insurance Fund Program Account |                        |
|-----------------------------------------------------|------------------------|
| Loan authorizations:                                |                        |

RENTAL ASSISTANCE PROGRAM

The conference agreement provides $592,000,000 for the Rental Assistance Program as proposed by the House instead of $585,900,000 as proposed by the Senate.

MUTUAL AND SELF-HELP HOUSING GRANTS

The conference agreement provides $34,000,000 for Mutual and Self-Help Housing Grants as proposed by the House and Senate.

RURAL HOUSING ASSISTANCE GRANTS

The conference agreement provides $43,992,000 for Rural Housing Assistance Grants instead of $42,500,000 as proposed by the House and $46,992,000 as proposed by the Senate.

The conferees provide $3,000,000 for the preservation of the section 515 multi-family housing portfolio. The conferees encourage the Secretary to issue a Notice of Funding Availability within 90 days of enactment of this Act. The Secretary should give funding priority to entities with equal or greater matching funds, including housing tax credits for rural housing assistance. Additional priority should be provided to entities with experience in the administration of revolving loan funds and the preservation of multi-family housing.

The conference agreement provides $1,800,000 for Empowerment Zones and Enterprise Communities and communities designated by the Secretary of Agriculture as Rural Economic Area Partnership Zones.

FARM LABOR PROGRAM ACCOUNT

The conference agreement provides $34,118,000 for the Farm Labor Program Account instead of $36,765,000 as proposed by the House and $31,471,000 as proposed by the Senate.

The conference agreement provides $38,500,000 for an estimated loan program level, $18,118,000 for loan subsidies, and $16,000,000 for grants.

RURAL BUSINESS-COOPERATIVE SERVICE

RURAL DEVELOPMENT LOAN FUND PROGRAM ACCOUNT

The conference agreement provides an estimated loan program level of $34,213,000 with a subsidy of $15,868,000 for the Rural Development Loan Fund as proposed by the House and Senate.

The conference agreement provides for a transfer of $4,316,000 to the Rural Development salaries and expenses account as proposed by the Senate instead of $4,321,000 as proposed by the House.

The conference agreement includes $3,449,000 for Mississippi Delta Region counties, of which up to $1,500,000 is for the Delta Regional Authority.

RURAL ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT LOAN FUND PROGRAM ACCOUNT

The conference agreement provides an estimated loan program level of $25,003,000 for the Rural Economic Development Loan Fund Program Account with a subsidy of $4,698,000 as proposed by the House and Senate to remain available until expended.

RURAL COOPERATIVE DEVELOPMENT GRANTS

The conference agreement provides $24,000,000 for Rural Cooperative Development Grants as proposed by the Senate instead of $23,500,000 as proposed by the House.

The conference agreement provides $15,500,000 for value-added agricultural product market development grants.

RURAL EMPOWERMENT ZONES AND ENTERPRISE COMMUNITIES GRANTS

The conference agreement provides $12,500,000 for Rural Empowerment Zones and Enterprise Communities Grants as proposed by the Senate instead of $11,419,000 as proposed by the House.

The conference agreement includes bill language providing that $1,000,000 shall be for third round empowerment zones.

RENEWABLE ENERGY PROGRAM

The conference agreement provides $23,000,000 for the Renewable Energy Program as proposed by the House instead of $20,000,000 as proposed by the Senate.

RURAL UTILITIES SERVICE

RURAL ELECTRIFICATION AND TELECOMMUNICATIONS LOANS PROGRAM ACCOUNT

The conference agreement provides a total subsidy of $5,158,000 for activities under the Rural Electrification and Telecommunications Loans Program Account. The conference agreement provides for an estimated loan program level of $4,840,000,000 as proposed by the House and Senate.

The conference agreement provides for a transfer of $38,277,000 to the Rural Development salaries and expenses account as proposed by the Senate instead of $38,323,000 as proposed by the House.

The conferees are concerned by the Department's reprogramming of the Rural Electrification and Telecommunications Loan Program in fiscal year 2004. The program levels are estimates, not limitations, and the affected direct loan program levels had negative subsidy rates in fiscal year 2004. If the program levels with negative subsidy rates in this account are insufficient to meet the expected demand, the program level should be increased with no offset to another program level. The Committees on Appropriations continue to require notification of any reprogramming and expect that all loan level reprogramming be consistent with this paragraph.

The following table indicates loan and subsidy levels provided in the conference agreement:

RURAL TELEPHONE BANK PROGRAM ACCOUNT

The conference agreement provides an estimated loan program level of $175,000,000 for the Rural Telephone Bank Program Account as proposed by the House and Senate.

The conference agreement provides for a transfer of $3,152,000 to the Rural Development salaries and expenses account as proposed by the House and the Senate.

DISTANCE LEARNING, TELEMEDICINE, AND BROADBAND PROGRAM

The conference agreement provides $56,425,000 for the Distance Learning, Telemedicine, and Broadband Program instead of $44,594,000 as proposed by the House and $60,064,000 as proposed by the Senate.

The conference agreement provides for an estimated loan program level of $50,000,000 for distance learning and telemedicine and $550,000,000 for broadband telecommunications.

The conference agreement includes $35,000,000 for distance learning and telemedicine grants, of which $10,000,000 is for public broadcasting system grants. The conference agreement also includes $710,000 for the distance learning and telemedicine loan subsidy.

The conference agreement includes $11,715,000 for broadband telecommunications loan subsidy, and $9,000,000 for grants.

TITLE IV—DOMESTIC FOOD PROGRAMS

OFFICE OF THE UNDER SECRETARY FOR FOOD, NUTRITION AND CONSUMER SERVICES

The conference agreement provides $595,000 for the Office of the Under Secretary for Food, Nutrition and Consumer Services, as proposed by the House, instead of $608,000 as proposed by the Senate.

FOOD AND NUTRITION SERVICE

CHILD NUTRITION PROGRAMS

The conference agreement provides $11,782,000,000 for Child Nutrition Programs, instead of $11,380,557,000, as proposed by both the House and Senate. Included in the total is an appropriated amount of $6,629,038,000 and a transfer from section 32 of $5,152,962,000.

The conference agreement includes a provision prohibiting use of funds for studies and evaluations.

The conference agreement provides the following for Child Nutrition programs:

Total Obligational Authority

SPECIAL SUPPLEMENTAL NUTRITION PROGRAM FOR WOMEN, INFANTS, AND CHILDREN (WIC)

The conference agreement provides $5,277,250,000 for the Special Supplemental Nutrition Program for Women, Infants and Children (WIC), instead of $4,907,250,000 as proposed by the House, and $5,175,250,000 as proposed by the Senate.

The conference agreement provides an increase of $190,000,000 above the budget amendment that was submitted July 14, 2004. Within the total provided, the conferees redirect $37,250,000 from requested initiatives to meet current and anticipated increases in program participation.

The conference agreement includes $125,000,000 for a contingency reserve fund, to be allocated as the Secretary deems necessary, as proposed by the Senate. The conference agreement does not include statutory language designating the amount as an emergency requirement.

The conference agreement does not include bill language that sets aside $5,000,000 for childhood obesity and $20,000,000 for State management information systems.

FOOD STAMP PROGRAM

The conference agreement provides $35,154,554,000 for the Food Stamp Program, instead of $33,635,798,000 as proposed by the House and $33,641,798,000 as proposed by the Senate. Included in this amount is a reserve of $3,000,000,000, to remain available until September 30, 2006.

In addition to the $3,000,000,000 in the reserve, the conference agreement includes $30,499,527,000 for program expenses, $1,515,027,000 for grants to Puerto Rico and Samoa, and $140,000,000 for commodity purchase for The Emergency Food Assistance Program.

The conference agreement includes a provision allowing for purchase of bison meat, in an amount not to exceed $4,000,000, for the Food Distribution Program on Indian Reservations (FDPIR).

COMMODITY ASSISTANCE PROGRAM

The conference agreement provides $178,797,000 for the Commodity Assistance Program as proposed by the House, instead of $172,081,000, as proposed by the Senate.

Within that amount, the conference agreement provides $107,716,000 for the Commodity Supplemental Food Program, as proposed by the House.

The conference agreement includes a provision allowing the Secretary to determine what form of special assistance would go towards supporting the nuclear affected islands in this account.

The conferees provide $50,000,000 for administration—processing, storage, transport, and distribution—of The Emergency Food Assistance Program (TEFAP). The conference agreement includes a general provision (Section 739) that provides the Secretary with authority to transfer up to $10,000,000 from TEFAP commodity purchases to administration.

NUTRITION PROGRAMS ADMINISTRATION

The conference agreement provides $139,937,000 for Nutrition Programs Administration, instead of $133,742,000 as proposed by the House, and $142,592,000 as proposed by the Senate. The conference agreement does not include funding for the requested initiatives as proposed by the Senate.

The conference agreement does not include language regarding WIC-only stores, as proposed by the House.

TITLE V—FOREIGN ASSISTANCE AND RELATED PROGRAMS

FOREIGN AGRICULTURAL SERVICE

SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The conference agreement provides $137,822,000 for the Foreign Agricultural Service, Salaries and Expenses instead of $137,722,000 as proposed by the House and $139,162,000 as proposed by the Senate.

The conference agreement includes the following increases: $1,759,000 for ICASS; $1,565,000 to offset the increased costs in overseas currency rates; $490,000 for overseas telecommunications; $516,000 for capital surcharge; and $600,000 for technical assistance for the promotion of specialty crop exports.

PUBLIC LAW 480 TITLE I AND TITLE II

PROGRAM AND GRANT ACCOUNTS

The conference agreement provides $94,198,000 for Title I loan subsidies for a loan level of $109,000,000 as proposed by the Senate instead of $86,420,000 for Title I loan subsidies and a loan level of $100,000,000 as proposed by the House.

The conference agreement includes bill language providing that the Secretary of Agriculture may implement a commodity monetization program under existing provisions of the Food for Progress Act of 1985 to provide no less than $5,000,000 in local-currency funding support for rural electrification overseas as proposed by the House.

The conference agreement provides $22,723,000 for Ocean Freight Differential Grants as proposed by the House and the Senate.

The conference agreement provides $1,182,501,000 for Public Law 480 Title II Grants instead of $1,180,002,000 as proposed by the House and $1,185,000,000 as proposed by the Senate.

The following table reflects the conference agreement for Public Law 480 program accounts:

COMMODITY CREDIT CORPORATION EXPORT LOANS PROGRAM ACCOUNT

The conference agreement provides $4,423,000 for the Commodity Credit Corporation Export Loans Program Account as proposed by the Senate instead of $4,473,000 as proposed by the House.

McGOVERN-DOLE INTERNATIONAL FOOD FOR EDUCATION AND CHILD NUTRITION PROGRAM GRANTS

The conference agreement provides $87,500,000 for McGovern-Dole International

Food for Education and Child Nutrition Program Grants instead of $75,000,000 as proposed by the House and $100,000,000 as proposed by the Senate.

TITLE VI—RELATED AGENCIES AND FOOD AND DRUG ADMINISTRATION

DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES

FOOD AND DRUG ADMINISTRATION

SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The conference agreement provides total appropriations, including Prescription Drug User Fee Act, Medical Device User Fee Act, and Animal Drug User Fee Act collections, of $1,788,478,000 for the salaries and expenses of the Food and Drug Administration, instead of $1,788,849,000, as proposed by the House and $1,791,599,000 as proposed by the Senate, and provides specific amounts by FDA activity as reflected in the following table.

FOOD AND DRUG ADMINISTRATION, SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The conference agreement also makes mammography user fees and export certification user fees available to the agency.

Within the total funding for the Food and Drug Administration, the following increases above the fiscal year 2004 level are provided: $35,500,000 for activities related to food safety and food defense, as proposed by the Senate, instead of $43,367,000 as proposed by the House; $8,325,000 for activities related to BSE, as proposed by the House and Senate; $25,555,000 for medical device review, as proposed by the Senate, instead of $23,055,000 as proposed by the House; $5,000,000 for medical countermeasures to ensure preparedness in the event of war or catastrophic events, as proposed by the House and Senate; and $15,628,000 for relocation expenses related to the move of the Center for Drug Evaluation and Research offices to the consolidated White Oak campus, instead of $10,628,000 as proposed by the House and $20,628,000 as proposed by the Senate.

In addition, the conference agreement includes increases above the budget request for the following: $1,200,000 for Orphan Product Grants, instead of $1,800,000 as proposed by the House; $325,000 for the Office of Women's Health, as proposed by the House; $250,000 for the Food Technology Evaluation Laboratory at New Mexico State University, as proposed by the Senate; and $300,000 for additional activities relating to the vaccine for influenza.

The conferees note the intense public interest in two recent events related to prescription drug safety—the changes ordered in anti-depressant drug labels and the September 2004 withdrawal of a widely-prescribed painkiller. The conferees are aware that FDA has undertaken a number of steps in response to concerns raised about drug safety in the aftermath of those incidents, including commissioning a study by the Institute of Medicine (IOM) on how FDA handles drug safety issues. The conferees direct FDA to regularly advise the Committees about any changes that FDA anticipates regarding drug safety, and to provide the Committees with regular progress reports on the IOM review and with a copy of the IOM report as soon as it is completed.

The conferees find it necessary to remind the Food and Drug Administration that the Committees on Appropriations perform critical oversight functions for the agency. The ultimate expression of this oversight is the funding decisions for the agency and accompanying language in the statement of managers. The conferees expect that Members of Congress will be provided requested information from FDA so that the Committees can perform their oversight function. It is insupportable that in some cases FDA has given information about major policy matters to the press before providing the same information to Congress. The conferees expect FDA to be fully cooperative with all Congressional oversight activities.

The conferees direct that no less than $14,392,000 be available for grants and contracts awarded under Section 5 of the Orphan Drug Act.

The conferees appreciate receiving the detailed information provided in the Explanatory Notes prepared by the Department of Health and Human Services, Food and Drug Administration, and rely heavily on this information when considering budget proposals. These materials have traditionally been prepared for the sole use of the Committees on Appropriations in a format consistent with the organization and operation of the programs and the structure of the Appropriations Act. At the direction of the Office of Management and Budget, agencies have changed the format and content of these materials to focus on broader goals and objectives rather than the major program structure followed in the Act, and in the actual conduct of the programs. The new organization and content does not present budget information in a format useful to the deliberations of the Committees. For fiscal year 2006 and future years, the FDA is directed to present Explanatory Notes in a format consistent with the presentation used for the fiscal year 2002 Budget. Any deviations from that format are to be approved in advance by the Committees.

The conference agreement also includes savings related to administrative efficiencies, as proposed in the budget.

The conference agreement does not include language regarding collection of the fiscal year 2006 Prescription Drug User Fee Act fees as proposed by the House.

The conferees include a $300,000 increase for the Center for Biologics Evaluation and Research (CBER) and related field activities in the Office of Regulatory Affairs for flu vaccine-related activities. The conferees understand that CBER will be undertaking a number of additional activities in fiscal year 2005 to secure additional units of flu vaccine for the 2004-2005 flu season and to ensure an adequate supply of flu vaccine for the 2005-2006 flu season.

Relocation to White Oak Facility.—The conferees provide a $15,628,000 budget authority increase and expect that appropriated user fees will fully fund the additional amount needed for relocation costs to the White Oak, Maryland, facility.

National Center for Food Safety and Technology.—The conferees recognize the contributions which the National Center for Food Safety and Technology (NCFST) is making toward ensuring the security of the nation's food supply. The conferees direct that FDA continue to provide $3,000,000 to NCFST through the cooperative agreement. The $3,000,000 in funding shall be exclusive of any additional initiative funds that FDA may award to NCFST.

Human Drug Compounding.—The conferees do not include the language in the Senate report on human drug compounding. The conferees believe that drugs for human use compounded by pharmacists in response to a practitioner's prescription or order in conformity with state law should be prepared according to established guidelines on quality, purity, and strength, and preparation-specific monographs when they exist. The conferees also recognize, however, that the nature of compounding and the medical need it serves makes it impossible for all compounded medications to be prepared according to pre-existing monographs, and doing so would infringe on the professional obligation of a medical practitioner to prescribe the optimal medications for their patients.

There are existing state laws and official United States Pharmacopoeia (USP) pharmacy standards which necessitate good compounding practices. However, the conferees believe it is desirable to develop additional formal monographs to provide additional guidance and conformity for doctors, patients and pharmacists.

Presently, the USP, a national drug standard setting organization recognized by Congress, has developed a number of monographs for individual compounded preparations. The conferees believe that a private sector partnership of involved organizations with demonstrated expertise regarding pharmacist compounding of preparations for humans should be expeditiously established to help assure a significant expansion of USP monographs and other relevant guidelines.

The conferees believe that the FDA should assist in the establishment of the private sector partnership to commence the expansion of available monographs relevant to pharmacist compounding of drugs for humans. The conferees encourage the FDA to request adequate funding in the fiscal year 2006 budget request to support this effort at increasing the number of formal monographs.

Nothing in this statement regarding human drug compounding should be interpreted to change or impact in any way the existing state and federal regulatory roles regarding compounding.

Alpha-1 Antitrypsin Deficiency.—The conferees commend FDA for the progress made in bringing two additional plasma based therapies to market for the treatment of the progressive degenerative lung disease Alpha-1. Currently the only treatment for Alpha-1 is weekly infusions of plasma based augmentation therapy that is life sustaining and helps these individuals maintain lung function. Further, the Center for Biologics and Evaluation and Research (CBER) is recognized for meeting with consumer stakeholders in efforts to further the development of next generation therapies. The conferees encourage CBER to facilitate the development of novel and innovative therapies for the Alpha-1 community to treat the entire spectrum of individuals with Chronic Obstructive Pulmonary Disease.

Consolidation and Fees.—The conferees direct the Department of Health and Human Services (DHHS) to include all anticipated consolidations that impact FDA in the President's budget requests submitted to Congress. Further, the conferees direct that none of the funds made available to FDA in this Act be used for any assessments, fees, or charges by DHHS unless such assessments, fees, or charges are identified in the FDA budget justification and expressly provided by Congress, or approved by Congress in the official reprogramming process as required in the General Provisions of this Act.

Biotechnology.—The conferees understand that the FDA frequently receives requests from foreign governments for FDA regulators to visit foreign countries to educate regulators on the evaluation of the safety of biotechnology. Providing information on the soundness of the U.S. regulatory process will promote the understanding of the benefits of biotechnology to human health and the environment and improve the climate for acceptance of U.S. agricultural products abroad. The conferees encourage FDA to allocate adequate funding so that agency representatives may perform this service.

INDEPENDENT AGENCIES

COMMODITY FUTURES TRADING COMMISSION

The conference agreement provides $94,327,000 for the Commodity Futures Trading Commission, instead of $93,327,000 as proposed by the House and $95,327,000 as proposed by the Senate.

FARM CREDIT ADMINISTRATION

LIMITATION ON ADMINISTRATIVE EXPENSES

The conference agreement includes a limitation of $42,350,000 on administrative expenses of the Farm Credit Administration, instead of $42,900,000 as proposed by the House and $41,800,000 as proposed by the Senate.

TITLE VII—GENERAL PROVISIONS

DIVISION B—DEPARTMENTS OF COMMERCE, JUSTICE, AND STATE, THE JUDICIARY AND RELATED AGENCIES APPROPRIATIONS ACT, 2005

TITLE I—DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE

GENERAL ADMINISTRATION

SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The conferees recommend a total of $124,100,000 for General Administration, Salaries and Expenses, instead of $97,856,000 as proposed by the House and $141,466,000 as proposed by the Senate.

The conference agreement includes the following program increases: $100,000 and 2 positions for the Office of Public Affairs; $6,592,000 and 30 positions for the Office of Intelligence Policy and Review; $200,000 for diversity programs; and $250,000 to enhance attorney recruitment and retention through the Student Loan Repayment Program.

In addition, the conferees strongly support the request for the Justice Unified Telecom Network, Public Key Infrastructure, Enterprise Architecture, Information Sharing Initiative, Information Technology Project Oversight, Investment Management, E-gov initiatives, and the Unified Financial Management System (UFMS). The conference agreement provides $1,073,000 in additional direct appropriations for the Chief Information Officer's highest priority needs and an additional $1,000,000 for the UFMS. The conferees support additional funding for these initiatives through the recovery of obligated but unexpended funds transferred to the Working Capital Fund, or through other sources, subject to section 605 of this Act.

The conferees direct the Department of Justice to provide quarterly reports describing Department resources dedicated to Indian Country and the activities of the Indian Gaming Working Group. Additionally, the Department shall also provide quarterly reports to Congress detailing efforts to reduce the violent victimization of Native Americans, including efforts to reduce murder rates, serious assaults, violence against women, and child abuse. These reports shall include: the number of agents assigned to Indian Country; man-hours worked in Indian Country; the amount and type of training provided; the number of matters initiated; the number of cases; the number of subjects/defendants; the number of convictions; and the amount of restitution ordered.

The conferees adopt by reference the Senate report language directing the Office of the Chief Information Officer to evaluate commercially-proven enterprise data warehousing and analytic systems and to provide a report to the Committees on Appropriations summarizing the findings on this technology's applicability to the counterterrorism mission not later than March 31, 2005.

The conference agreement includes necessary sums to continue efforts to replace locks used to store classified information.

The conference agreement adopts by reference the House report language concerning budget models and directs that the Department of Justice submit a report, no later than August 1, 2005, describing how the hiring of an investigator impacts the workload of the U.S. Attorneys, the U.S. Marshals Service, the Detention Trustee, and the Federal Prison System.

In addition to the concerns stated above, the conferees have expressed concerns elsewhere in the report about the rationale underlying the allocation of staffing between the litigating divisions and the United States Attorneys. The conferees believe that it is critical that the Department of Justice take a systemic approach to resource requests and subsequent allocations. With that in mind, the conferees direct the Government Accountability Office to initiate a review of the Department of Justice resource planning and allocation processes, with particular emphasis on consistency of resource allocation within the operating year with national law enforcement priorities, in particular the counterterrorism and counterintelligence priorities, articulated by the Administration and supported by the Committees on Appropriations.

The conference agreement adopts by reference the House report language concerning fast track programs and directs the Department of Justice to submit a report within 45 days of enactment of this Act providing a list of the fast track programs operating throughout the country, and an estimate of the resources the Department of Justice saves and the costs that are avoided by these programs. The report shall also discuss opportunities to expand fast track programs to other districts.

The conferees believe that the Department of Justice needs to coordinate its efforts to address gang-related crimes. The Department of Justice is directed to submit a report to the Committees on Appropriations no later than 30 days after enactment of this Act on how the Department is addressing gang issues throughout the country.

The conference agreement adopts by reference the House report language concerning the establishment of an international law enforcement alliance.

Office of Privacy and Civil Liberties.—The conference agreement includes not less than $690,000 for the salaries and benefits of this office including funding for 2 additional professional staff positions. The conference agreement adopts by reference the House report language requiring the submission of a report detailing the specific responsibilities and authorities of the Office of Privacy and Civil Liberties within 30 days of enactment of this Act. In addition, the Department of Justice shall report to the Committees on Appropriations annually on the activities of this office.

Debt Collection.—The Government Accountability Office recently found that outstanding criminal debt as reported by the Department of Justice totaled about $25,000,000,000 as of September 30, 2002, almost double the amount reported by Justice 3 years earlier. Moreover, the Department of Justice reported collecting only about $800,000,000 of criminal debt for fiscal year 2002.

In view of the increase in reported outstanding criminal debt and low collections of such debt, the conferees are concerned that the Department of Justice along with other agencies still has not taken action to develop a strategic plan for improving criminal debt collection. The conferees understand one of the reasons for this outstanding criminal debt is that the Mandatory Victims Restitution Act of 1996 makes restitution mandatory in all violent crimes and most property crimes regardless of a defendant's ability to pay. Nevertheless, there appears to be criminal debt that may be collectible.

To address the large balances of outstanding criminal debt, the conferees direct the Attorney General to establish a task force within 90 days of enactment of this Act that includes other Federal agencies, including, but not limited to, the Department of the Treasury, the Office of Management and Budget, and the Administrative Office of the U.S. Courts, to participate in the task force. Led by the Department of Justice, the task force will be responsible for developing a strategic plan for improving criminal debt collection. The strategic plan shall include specific approaches for better managing, accounting for, reporting, and collecting criminal debt. Specifically, the plan shall include steps that can be taken to better and more promptly identify all collectible criminal debt so that a meaningful allowance for uncollectible criminal debt can be reported and used for measuring debt collection performance. The conferees direct the Attorney General to report to the Committees on Appropriations within 180 days of enactment of this Act on the activities of the task force and the development of a strategic plan.

Fugitive Apprehension.—In an October 19, 2004, report, the Department of Justice acknowledges that “the United States Marshals Service is the federal government’s primary agency for apprehending fugitives”. While the Department does not recommend transferring fugitive apprehension activities to the USMS to ensure continued departmental management flexibility, it recognizes that USMS fugitive efforts free up resources for other Federal law enforcement agencies to focus on their core missions. For example, the report states that for the past 15 years, the USMS has been responsible for the apprehension of many DEA fugitives, leaving DEA agents free to develop new drug crime cases.

The conferees are aware that the USMS arrest statistics far exceed other Federal law enforcement agencies. The conferees also understand that the statistical success, in terms of the number of Federal, state, and local warrants closed, has coincided with the on-going development of the regional fugitive task forces, showing a benefit of linking performance with budget. While the conferees recognize the Department’s desire not to consolidate fugitive apprehension activities under one component, the conferees strongly urge the Department to update its 1988 memorandum of understanding to provide greater latitude for the USMS and to promote greater inter-agency cooperation. The conferees commend the USMS, DEA, Interpol, and ATF in its continuing efforts to coordinate investigations.

JOINT AUTOMATED BOOKING SYSTEM

The conference agreement includes $20,185,000 for the continued operation of the Joint Automated Booking System (JABS), as proposed by the Senate, instead of $20,000,000 as proposed by the House.

AUTOMATED BIOMETRIC IDENTIFICATION SYSTEM/INTEGRATED AUTOMATED FINGERPRINT IDENTIFICATION SYSTEM

The conference agreement includes $5,054,000 for this account, as provided by the House and Senate.

The conferees are troubled by the security gap on the nation’s borders caused by delays in linking the Automated Biometrics Identification System (IDENT), the fingerprint database managed by Customs and Border Protection (CBP) and US Visitor and Immigrant Status Indicator Technology (US-VISIT), with criminal history data contained in the Federal Bureau of Investigation’s Integrated Automated Fingerprint Identification System (IAFIS). The conferees understand that by the end of calendar year 2004, interoperability will exist at airports, seaports, and the largest and busiest Border Patrol stations and land ports of entry. CBP and Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) locations will not be completed until December 31, 2005. With implementation of a new visa tracking system and enrollment of millions of visitors into US-VISIT, it is essential that the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) collaborate with the Directorate of Border and Transportation Security to ensure that IDENT and US-VISIT can retrieve, in real time, biometric information contained in the IAFIS database, and that the IAFIS database can retrieve, in real time, biometric information contained in IDENT and US-VISIT.

The conferees direct the Department of Justice and the Department of State, in coordination with the Under Secretary for Border and Transportation Security (BTS), to report, not later than 90 days after enactment of this Act, on the status of efforts to achieve real time interoperability between these systems, including steps the Departments will take to integrate IAFIS into IDENT and US-VISIT, funds needed, and a timetable for full interoperability of these systems. This report should address the recommendations from the March, 2004, Department of Justice Inspector General report, which documented the need to integrate existing biometric databases.

LEGAL ACTIVITIES OFFICE AUTOMATION

The conference agreement provides $40,510,000 for this account, which is equal to the amended budget request. The conferees support additional funding for this program through the recovery of obligated but unexpended funds transferred to the Working Capital Fund, or through other sources, subject to section 605 of this Act.

NARROWBAND COMMUNICATIONS

The conference agreement includes $100,000,000 for Narrowband Communications, as proposed by the House, instead of $68,021,000 as proposed by the Senate.

ADMINISTRATIVE REVIEW AND APPEALS

The conference agreement includes $203,965,000 for this account, instead of $202,518,000 as proposed by the House and $205,411,000 as proposed by the Senate. The funding level provides for the annualization costs associated with filling immigration judge vacancies.

It is the conferees’ understanding that the Executive Office for Immigration Review (EOIR) has issued interim procedural guidelines for the adjudication of unaccompanied alien children’s cases before immigration judges. The conferees commend EOIR for this initiative. The conferees further urge EOIR to dedicate resources from its appropriation to developing and implementing policies and procedural guidelines as well as training programs for judges and pro bono attorneys in this area in order to protect the children’s due process rights under the Immigration and Nationality Act—including their right to apply for forms of relief from removal—and to further their access to pro bono representation rights, due process and relief under the Immigration and Nationality Act.

DETENTION TRUSTEE

The conference agreement includes $885,994,000 for the Detention Trustee, as proposed by the Senate, instead of $938,810,000 as proposed by the House. The conferees are aware that the Trustee has made progress in refining the detention forecasting model, which will provide better projections for this account, and the conferees encourage the much-needed work to continue. The conferees believe that the Trustee should review the entire Federal detention process from commencement to incarceration to identify greater efficiencies in operations. The conferees anticipate that these efforts will result in cost savings. When the Trustee can provide assurance of the funding needs for this account, the Committees will consider options for providing additional resources. The conferees also direct the Attorney General to ensure that the Department’s entire law enforcement agenda, including its prosecutorial policies and detention resources, is thoroughly considered when determining the future funding needs for this account.

The conference agreement incorporates by reference Senate report language that prohibits any construction, planning, support, or contracting of new detention facilities and directs the Detention Trustee to withdraw any solicitations for such activities.

The Justice Prisoner and Alien Transportation System (JPATS) has become an increasingly complex system, in part because its biggest user is now Immigration and Customs Enforcement within the Department of Homeland Security. The conferees expect that the United States Marshals Service will continue to operate JPATS, but believe the Federal Detention Trustee, as an independent entity that oversees detention issues for the Department, must play a heightened role with this program. The conferees therefore direct the Trustee to address immediate and long-term planning, management, and policy issues with JPATS, with the goal of improving efficiencies and ensuring equality among participating agencies, and to submit a report on those efforts to the Committees on Appropriations, no later than May 31, 2005.

OFFICE OF INSPECTOR GENERAL

The conference agreement includes $63,813,000 for the Office of Inspector General, as proposed by the House, instead of $63,187,000 as proposed by the Senate.

UNITED STATES PAROLE COMMISSION

SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The conference agreement includes $10,638,000 for the United States Parole Commission, as proposed by the Senate, instead of $10,650,000 as proposed by the House. The conferees adopt by reference House language regarding a study required under Public Law 107–273.

LEGAL ACTIVITIES

SALARIES AND EXPENSES, GENERAL LEGAL ACTIVITIES

The conference agreement includes $634,193,000 for General Legal Activities, instead of $639,314,000 as proposed by the House and $623,364,000 as proposed by the Senate. The distribution of funding provided is as follows:

General legal activities

[In thousands of dollars]

2005 appropriation

|                                                  |         |
|--------------------------------------------------|---------|
| Office of the Solicitor General .....            | $8,245 |
| Tax Division .....                               | 81,399  |
| Criminal Division .....                          | 137,177 |
| Civil Division .....                             | 188,754 |
| Environment and Natural Resources Division ..... | 90,856  |
| Office of Legal Counsel .....                    | 5,858   |
| Civil Rights Division .....                      | 109,141 |
| Interpol USNCB .....                             | 12,426  |
| Office of Dispute Resolution .....               | 337     |
| Total .....                                      | 634,193 |

The funding provided is equal to the requested current services level less requested program reductions for the Department of Justice's litigating divisions. The conferees understand the Department has reviewed the allocation of attorneys between headquarters and the field. The conferees further understand that the Department believes that 59 attorney positions should be realigned from headquarters litigating divisions to those U.S. Attorney Offices that have a critical shortage of attorney resources to address priority areas such as counter-terrorism, drugs, violent crime, corporate fraud, and immigration. The conferees applaud the Department's efforts to allocate attorney positions to where they can be most productive. The conferees understand this will be a multi-year effort and, therefore, have not provided any of the increases in attorney positions for the litigating divisions at this time. Within the level of funding provided, the conferees expect attorney resources to be provided to the Department's highest priorities, including counterterrorism, violent crime and corporate fraud.

The conferees direct the Attorney General to submit a detailed study to the Committees on Appropriations, not later than January 3, 2005, providing the criteria the Department would use to determine which litigating division positions would be reallocated to the field; the criteria that would be used to determine which U.S. Attorney Offices would be allocated additional positions; and a crosswalk showing the proposed allocation of attorney positions from each legal division to each district.

The conference agreement fully funds the Civil Rights Division's efforts to combat human trafficking and the conferees expect the Department of Justice to continue submitting yearly updates regarding efforts to address human trafficking.

The conferees expect the Department of Justice to submit a reprogramming for costs associated with continuing tobacco and other litigation activities, should funding be warranted.

The conferees are aware that the parties to Irvin Rosner, et al., v. United States of America have agreed to mediation and to the selection of a mediator. Given that this case involves elderly Holocaust survivors, the conferees believe that the Department of Justice should proceed with this mediation in a compassionate and expeditious manner in order to reach a fair resolution.

The conferees direct the Department of Justice to submit a report to the Committees on Appropriations not later than April 10, 2005, on proposals to leverage the United States National Central Bureau's network as a means to effectively share national security related information with State and local law enforcement agencies.

THE NATIONAL CHILDHOOD VACCINE INJURY ACT

The conference agreement includes a reimbursement of $6,333,000 from the Vaccine Injury Compensation Trust Fund to the Department of Justice, as proposed by both the House and the Senate.

SALARIES AND EXPENSES, ANTITRUST DIVISION

The conference agreement includes $138,763,000 for the Antitrust Division, which is the same as proposed by the Senate, instead of $135,463,000 as proposed by the House. The conference agreement incorporates by reference Senate report language regarding additional resources.

SALARIES AND EXPENSES, UNITED STATES ATTORNEYS

The conference agreement includes $1,547,519,000 for the United States Attorneys instead of $1,535,000,000 as proposed by the House and $1,532,154,000 as proposed by the Senate.

The conference agreement includes a program increase of $5,762,000 for 66 additional positions, including 44 attorneys, for additional terrorism and criminal prosecutions. The conference agreement also includes an additional $3,029,000 for 32 additional positions, including 25 attorneys, to address gang-related crimes.

Project Seahawk.—The conference agreement includes $5,000,000 for the continuation of Project Seahawk, a pilot project to enhance intermodal security and law enforcement within our Nation's coastal cities. The pilot will provide a national model for cities that experience heavy volumes of intermodal traffic by establishing a streamlined process to address criminal activity that may compromise or impede the movement of intermodal traffic within the U.S. Project Seahawk shall continue to be coordinated under the U.S. Attorneys and include Federal, State, and local law enforcement.

Legal Education.—The conference agreement provides $18,266,000 for legal education and distance learning at the National Advocacy Center (NAC). NAC State and local training funds are provided under the Office of Justice Programs.

Violent Crime Task Forces.—The conference agreement includes $1,500,000 to continue and expand task force activities associated with Operation Streetsweeper.

The conference agreement adopts by reference the House and Senate language providing $10,000,000 for cybercrime and intellectual property enforcement and requiring the submission of a report by April 30, 2005, on the number, types, and locations of copy-right prosecutions undertaken during the previous fiscal year.

The conference agreement adopts by reference the House report language concerning public corruption.

UNITED STATES TRUSTEE SYSTEM FUND

The conference agreement includes $173,602,000 for this account, instead of $172,850,000 as proposed by the House and $174,355,000 as proposed by the Senate. The conferees support the requested information technology enhancements and expect the Trustees to fund the request to the maximum extent possible. The conference agreement incorporates by reference the Senate report language directing the Trustees to consult with the Department's Chief Information Officer before obligating its information technology funds. The conference agreement includes not less than $750,000 for the Bankruptcy Training Center at the National Advocacy Center in support of the Trustees' continuing education program.

SALARIES AND EXPENSES, FOREIGN CLAIMS SETTLEMENT COMMISSION

The conference agreement includes $1,220,000 for this account, as proposed by both the House and Senate.

UNITED STATES MARSHALS SERVICE

SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The conference agreement includes $751,985,000 for the United States Marshals Service (USMS), instead of $752,070,000 as proposed by the House and $744,725,000 as proposed by the Senate. The conference agreement provides funding for USMS construction under a separate heading, as proposed by the House. The conference agreement includes the base reductions and streamlining efficiencies included in the budget request.

The conference agreement incorporates by reference the Senate report language regarding submission of a spending plan and the timely release of funds to programs.

The conferees are pleased that the USMS has made a concerted effort to fill critically-needed supervisory deputy marshal positions in the districts; boosted its on-board staffing levels throughout the agency; allocated positions based on performance; addressed its information technology infrastructure weaknesses; and improved its overall financial management practices. In many areas, the USMS has demonstrated marked improvements and is urged to continue these practices.

Protection of the Judicial Process.—The conference agreement includes the requested increase of $8,897,000 and 94 positions to enhance protection of the Federal Judiciary. When determining resource allocations, the USMS should be mindful of the recent recommendations of the Department's Inspector General.

Witness Security.—The conference agreement includes the requested increase of $1,922,000 and 15 positions for the witness security program.

Information Technology.—The conference agreement includes the requested increase of $478,000 and 5 positions to meet information technology (IT) requirements. The conferees direct the USMS to submit a report to the Committees on Appropriations, no later than March 17, 2005, on IT needs throughout the USMS and a plan to address those needs, including funding requirements.

Central Courthouse Management Group.—The conference agreement provides $4,226,000 for the Central Courthouse Management Group (CCMG), including $3,968,000 in base resources for 34 existing CCMG positions, two restored positions, and an additional $258,000 for three new CCMG positions, of which two shall be GS-14 positions.

Courthouse Security Equipment.—The conference agreement provides a program increase of $5,050,000, for a total of $11,580,000, for preventive maintenance and repair of courthouse security equipment to be allocated to the USMS's highest priority needs. The conference agreement incorporates by reference Senate report language directing the USMS to report to the Committees on Appropriations within 30 days of enactment of this Act on the allocation of this funding. The conferees expect no less than this amount to recur in future budget submissions to address the courthouse security equipment needs of the USMS.

Regional Fugitive Task Forces.—The conference agreement provides $17,988,000 for the Regional Fugitive Task Forces (RFTF), which includes base resources for the 38 existing RFTF positions, and an additional $2,439,000 for 17 new positions to staff these task forces, including supervisory personnel. Available resources can also be used for the district-managed task forces.

Technical Operations Group.—The conference agreement provides $17,216,000 for the Technical Operations Group (TOG), which includes base resources for the 50 existing TOG positions, an additional $632,000 for three restored positions and one new position, and an additional $2,000,000 for non-personnel expenses.

International Fugitives.—The conference agreement provides $4,459,000 for the International Fugitive Apprehension Program, which includes base resources for the four existing international positions and an additional $1,086,000 for three new GS-13 deputies at the existing foreign offices. The conferees also direct the USMS to submit a five-year plan for this program, including a time-line and cost estimate to open additional international offices that are critical to the USMS fugitive apprehension mission.

Analytical Support Unit.—The conference agreement provides $3,835,000 in base resources for the Analytical Support Unit (ASU), including $1,069,000 for eight existing positions and $2,766,000 (excluding a $500,000 transfer from the Justice Detainee Information System) to improve and maintain the Warrant Information Network and to continue subscriptions to various government and private networks and on-line services.

Special Operations Group.—The conference agreement provides $2,835,000 in base resources for the Special Operations Group (SOG), which includes funding for the 11 existing SOG positions. In addition, the conferees direct the USMS to transfer the funding, duties, and personnel of the Hazardous Response Unit (HRU) to SOG, and to submit a report to the Committees on Appropriations no later than April 5, 2005, on any additional personnel and funding requirements that will accompany the HRU transfer, as well as on the proper location of such transferred personnel.

Vehicles.—The conferees commend the USMS on its efforts to modernize its vehicle infrastructure. Over the last three years, the conferees have included funding for the USMS to replace older vehicles and recognize that under the new vehicle allocation formula, older vehicles are excessed when new vehicles are allocated. Districts no longer are allowed to expand their fleets by keeping vehicles well beyond their useful lifecycle. The conferees expect this trend to continue and for the USMS to continue modernizing its fleet.

CONSTRUCTION

The conference agreement includes $5,734,000 for this account, instead of $1,371,000 as proposed by the House. The Senate provided funding for construction in the salaries and expenses account. These funds shall be allocated to the USMS's highest priority construction needs. The conference agreement incorporates by reference the Senate report language directing the USMS to report to the Committees on Appropriations within 30 days of enactment of this Act on the allocation of funding for this program. To the extent that slippages occur throughout the year, however, other priority projects can be undertaken. The conferees expect no less than this amount to recur in future budget submissions to address the construction needs of the USMS.

FEES AND EXPENSES OF WITNESSES

The conference agreement includes $177,585,000 for Fees and Expenses of Witnesses, as proposed by both the House and the Senate.

SALARIES AND EXPENSES, COMMUNITY RELATIONS SERVICE

The conference agreement includes $9,664,000 for the Community Relations Service, instead of $9,833,000 as proposed by the House and $9,494,000 as proposed by the Senate.

ASSETS FORFEITURE FUND

The conference agreement includes $21,759,000 for the Assets Forfeiture Fund, as proposed by both the House and the Senate.

PAYMENT TO RADIATION EXPOSURE COMPENSATION TRUST FUND

The conference agreement includes $27,800,000 for this account, instead of $72,000,000 as proposed by the House. The conferees understand that $27,800,000 will fully fund the Department of Justice's current estimate of payments for eligible claimants through fiscal year 2005.

INTERAGENCY LAW ENFORCEMENT

INTERAGENCY CRIME AND DRUG ENFORCEMENT

The conference agreement provides $561,033,000 for this account, as proposed by the House, instead of $295,409,000 as proposed by the Senate. The conference agreement does not adopt the Senate proposal to move management of this program to the Director of the Executive Office of the United States Attorneys. The conference agreement provides the following amounts to reimburse Federal agencies for their costs to participate in these task forces:

Reimbursement by Agency

(Dollars in thousands)

| Department of Justice Agencies:                           | Amount           |
|-----------------------------------------------------------|------------------|
| Drug Enforcement Administration .....                     | $191,112        |
| Federal Bureau of Investigation .....                     | 135,859          |
| United States Marshals Service .....                      | 6,431            |
| Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives ..... | 11,228           |
| United States Attorneys Criminal Division .....           | 118,083          |
| Tax Division .....                                        | 2,941            |
| Administrative Office .....                               | 975              |
| Non-Justice Agencies:                                     | 5,565            |
| Internal Revenue Service .....                            | 54,643           |
| United States Immigration and Customs Enforcement .....   | 33,589           |
| Coast Guard .....                                         | 607              |
| Total .....                                        | $561,033 |

The conference agreement provides the following increases: $6,113,000 for adjustments to base; $14,623,000 for 172 additional U.S. Attorney positions; $4,320,000 for 14 additional U.S. Marshals Service positions; $6,344,000 and 60 positions for the Drug Intelligence Fusion Center; and $13,240,000 for the Drug Enforcement Administration including $10,465,000 for 79 additional positions and $2,775,000 for additional operational costs.

The conferees note that the Administration chose not to comply with the direction provided in the fiscal year 2004 Conference Report that participation of the Departments of Homeland Security and Treasury should not be included in the Department of Justice budget request. The participation of these entities should be budgeted by those respective departments. While the conferees are aware of the critical role of the Departments of Homeland Security and Treasury, the conference agreement is unable to fully fund the request for the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) and United States Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) while meeting the resource needs of the Department of Justice. The conferees understand that carryover balances from fiscal year 2004 are available in fiscal year 2005. These balances may be utilized, through the regular reprogramming process under section 605 of this Act, to provide additional funding to IRS and ICE if warranted.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The conference agreement provides $5,205,028,000 for the Federal Bureau of Investigation Salaries and Expenses account as proposed by the House, instead of $4,990,728,000 as proposed by the Senate. The conference agreement funds the Foreign Terrorist Screening Task Force, the Terrorist Screening Center, and the FBI's costs associated with the Terrorist Threat Integration Center under this heading as proposed by the House, instead of under a separate heading as proposed by the Senate. Construction costs are funded under a separate heading as proposed by the House.

Directorate of Intelligence.—The conference agreement adopts the House report language establishing a Directorate of Intelligence. The conferees applaud the improvements the FBI has made in transforming itself from an agency whose primary mission was to investigate traditional crimes, to an agency whose top priority is to prevent terrorism. However, more institutional changes are needed for the FBI's intelligence program, a critical component of an effective terrorism prevention strategy. Toward that end, the conference agreement adopts the House report language directing the FBI to create a new Directorate of Intelligence, led by the Executive Assistant Director for Intelligence. This new directorate shall have broad and clear authority over intelligence-related functions. The need for effective intelligence capabilities cuts across all FBI programs including the counterterrorism, counterintelligence, criminal and cyber crime programs. This new directorate will ensure that intelligence is shared across these programs, eliminate information stove-piping, and allow the FBI to quickly adapt as threats change. The new directorate will have responsibility for operational elements including those of the Office of Intelligence, the FBI's Terrorist Threat Integration Center participation, the Foreign Terrorist Tracking Task Force, and the Terrorist Screening Center. It will also include programmatic elements representing analyst and administrative components across the FBI, such as training, recruitment, information technology, and security. This directorate shall be responsible for enhancing the FBI's ability to recruit and retain the highest quality intelligence staff, including attracting individuals with educational and professional backgrounds in intelligence, international relations, language, technology and other relevant skills. It shall also work to improve the FBI's capability to share intelligence, not only within the Bureau and the Intelligence Community, but also with State and local law enforcement. Further, it shall ensure that intelligence-related performance criteria are in place for agents and analysts, and develop a process for agents to receive a formal Intelligence Officer Certification. The FBI is directed to submit quarterly reports updating the Committees on Appropriations on the continued transformation, including the FBI's efforts to ensure that the priorities and operations in all of the Bureau's field offices and resident agencies match national priorities.

The conferees note that the 9/11 Commission Report endorsed many of the intelligence reforms proposed in the House bill. The conferees appreciate the assistance the Government Accountability Office, the National Academy of Public Administration, and the Congressional Research Service have provided to the Committees on Appropriations in reviewing the FBI's operations and making recommendations to improve the Bureau. The conferees expect the FBI to continue to work with these organizations and others in fiscal year 2005 to review and improve their operations.

Budget Structure.—The conference agreement adopts the budget decision unit structure proposed by the House. The conferees note that this identical budget structure was recommended by the 9/11 Commission. The new budget structure will align the FBI's budget with its organizational structure by collapsing the ten budget decision units used in previous years to four decision units. There will be a decision unit for each Executive Assistant Director (EAD) with the exception of the EAD for Administration. The costs associated with program administration will be spread to the four other decision units in order to capture the full costs of each program. This new decision unit structure will not only empower the new Director of Intelligence, but will enhance the ability of the EADs for Counterterrorism and Counterintelligence, Criminal, and Criminal Justice Services to manage their programs by unifying their budgets. The following distribution represents the conference agreement. The conferees remind the FBI that changes in this distribution are subject to the reprogramming requirements of section 605 of this Act.

FBI SALARIES AND EXPENSES

(Dollars in thousands)

| Decision unit                               | POS    | FTE    | Amount    |
|---------------------------------------------|--------|--------|-----------|
| Intelligence .....                          | 4,703  | 4,291  | $792,033 |
| Counterterrorism and Counterintelligence .. | 10,549 | 10,268 | 1,979,378 |
| Criminal .....                              | 12,852 | 12,578 | 2,156,421 |
| Criminal Justice Services .....             | 1,935  | 1,945  | 277,196   |

The recommendation includes increases of $204,515,000 for adjustments to base to support the current operating level. The recommendation includes the following program increases as requested: $13,400,000 and 151 positions for the Office of Intelligence; $14,307,000 and 89 intelligence and counterterrorism positions for headquarters program support; $45,954,000 and 259 positions for counterterrorism field investigations; $12,838,000 and 86 positions for language services; $11,155,000 and 14 positions for legal attaché, offices in Beirut, Lebanon; Baghdad, Iraq; Dakar, Senegal; Kuwait City, Kuwait; and Cape Town, South Africa; $9,000,000 for the Chemical, Biological and Radiological Forensic Analysis Counterterrorism Program; $29,000,000 for the operational costs of the Terrorist Screening Center; $35,470,000 for the relocation of portions of the Counterterrorism Division to the Hazel-Peterson Building; $63,754,000 and 294 positions for the counterintelligence program; $58,257,000 and 188 positions for cyber investigations including $3,000,000 for Innocent Images; $46,508,000 and 65 positions for information and physical security improvements; $20,000,000 for technology investments including $12,000,000 for TS/SCI LAN field installations and $8,000,000 for enterprise architecture activities; $16,000,000 and 12 positions to support the integration of IDENT/IAFIS; $1,785,000 and 10 positions to support the Criminal Division's Child Exploitation and Obscenity Section; $1,831,000 and 16 positions for the Lost Innocence National Initiative to address the problem of children forced into prostitution; $1,213,000 and 8 positions for corporate fraud cases; $1,170,000 for forensic costs associated with Indian Country and the National Backstopping Program; and $21,309,000 for renovations at the FBI Academy.

In addition, the conference agreement includes the following increases above the request: $5,000,000 for the National Security Support Capability program; $2,750,000 and 27 positions for the Indian Country Unit to investigate crimes in Indian Country, including violent crimes against Native Americans, gang violence, and crimes related to Indian gaming; $2,085,000 to establish a legal attaché office in West Africa; $10,000,000 and 78 positions to combat gang-related crime; $10,000,000 for enhanced training programs; $30,000,000 to fund additional recruitment and retention programs; $20,500,000 to accelerate the expansion of secure facilities in FBI field offices; $8,500,000 for the acquisition of helicopters and related equipment; and $5,000,000 for the Investigative Technology Division for research and development of emerging technologies.

Training.—The conference agreement adopts the House report language regarding training. The conferees direct the FBI to continue to expand its training opportunities and the capabilities of the College of Analytical Studies to ensure that agents and analysts are receiving the highest quality intelligence, counterterrorism and counterintelligence training available. These training programs should include: joint training sessions with other members of the Intelligence Community; opportunities for an academic sabbatical to pursue an advanced degree; sending staff to the Department of State's Foreign Service Institute; and creation of a fellows program to exchange staff with other Federal agencies and the private sector. In addition, the conferees expect the FBI to expand both its basic intelligence analyst course and its advanced intelligence training courses offered at the College of Analytical Studies. The FBI shall also consider offering intelligence classes to other Federal law enforcement agencies, where appropriate. For example, the conferees believe it would be beneficial for corrections intelligence staff in the Federal Prison System to receive specialized training to recognize and thwart the introduction of violent ideology and extremism in Federal prisons. The recommendation provides $10,000,000 above the request to implement these enhanced training programs. In determining its future staffing needs, the FBI shall take into account the staff time associated with training and development programs.

Gangs.—The conference agreement adopts the House report language regarding the spread of violent gangs throughout the country. In order to address this problem, the conference agreement provides $1,754,000 for the establishment of a National Gang Intelligence Center that will integrate the assets of the FBI, the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives, and other affected Federal agencies to serve as a "clearinghouse" and information management mechanism for gang intelligence on a national and international scope. In addition, the recommendation provides $8,246,000 for additional agents, analysts and support staff to address the most violent gangs throughout the country.

Offsets.—The conference agreement does not adopt the proposed $35,000,000 offset in fees to State and local law enforcement for forensic services. The conferees are disappointed that the Administration is proposing to provide funding increases for Federal law enforcement by increasing the financial burden on State and local law enforcement. The conferees expect the FBI to absorb this proposed $35,000,000 offset within existing funds. The conference agreement also does not adopt the proposed $3,000,000 reduction to the Criminal Justice Information Services Information Management Accounts.

Retention and Recruitment.—The conferees understand that the FBI is having difficulty retaining certain staff in critical senior management positions and other specialized positions. For example, since September 11, 2001, the attrition rate for intelligence analysts has exceeded 10 percent. The conferees understand that other agencies in the Intelligence Community have more flexible pay and benefit authorities than the FBI and consequently are able to recruit talented staff from the FBI. The conferees further understand that many FBI employees living in high cost areas are experiencing financial hardships. The conferees are concerned that this financial hardship could eventually have a negative impact on FBI agent and staff performance. This is particularly troubling given that high cost areas are the most likely targets for a terrorist attack. In order to address these concerns, the conference agreement includes section 113 and section 115. These provisions are identical to those included in the House bill.

Section 113 provides the Director with the authority, after consultation with the Office of Personnel Management (OPM), to provide retention and relocation bonuses to employees with high or unique qualifications who, in the absence of a bonus, would likely leave the FBI. The provision also allows for retention and relocation bonuses for individuals transferred to a different geographic area with a higher cost of living. A bonus may total up to 50 percent of an employee's basic rate of pay.

Section 115 authorizes the FBI, in conjunction with the Office of Management and Budget and OPM, to pay critical intelligence positions up to an Executive Schedule I salary provided that the position is determined to be: (1) a high level position in a scientific, technical, professional, or administrative field; and (2) critical to the FBI's mission.

These provisions are included to allow the FBI to begin enhancing its personnel capabilities in order to thwart terrorism. These provisions will also improve the FBI's ability to compete with other Intelligence Community agencies for high quality employees. The conference agreement provides $30,000,000 above the request to implement these new retention and recruitment authorities.

Within the level of funding provided, the conferees also expect the FBI to expand the number of employees participating in the FBI's Student Loan Repayment Program.

Mandatory Separation.—The conference agreement includes section 112, as proposed by the House. This provision empowers the Director to, on a case-by-case basis, delay the mandatory retirement age of 57 for FBI agents until the agent reaches 65 years of age. Currently, the Director is authorized to delay mandatory retirement until an agent reaches 60 years of age. This provision does not require agents to work past the age of 57, but gives the Director the authority to extend agents until the age of 65 in certain circumstances. This provision provides the FBI with additional discretion and flexibility to retain senior managers and employees with critical technical skills beyond age 60 where it is clear that the individual being retained can meet all requirements, including physical requirements, of the specific job being filled.

Reserve Service.—The conference agreement includes section 114, as proposed by the House. This provision authorizes the Director to provide for the establishment and training of an FBI Reserve Service that would facilitate streamlined, temporary rehiring from a pre-certified cadre of retired FBI employees who possess the specialized skills required to deal with the demands of crises or other special situations. The provision will allow the FBI to quickly access experienced former employees in the event of an emergency, without adversely impacting reserve service members' retirement pay.

N-Dex.—The conferees are aware that this new information system will allow for better tracking of corporate crime, such as pollution, accounting fraud, corruption, price fixing and tax evasion. The conferees encourage the FBI to work with other federal agencies such as the Securities and Exchange Commission, the U.S. Attorneys, and the Sentencing Commission to ensure adequate data is provided on referrals for prosecution and dispositions of cases. The conference agreement adopts by reference the House report language regarding N-Dex and the submission of a report within 180 days of enactment of this Act.

Oil-for-Food.—The conferees direct the FBI to provide assistance in the United Nations investigation of the "Oil-for-Food" program, if requested to do so by the Independent Inquiry Committee chaired by Paul Volcker. The conferees strongly support this investigation and encourage the FBI to make resources available, as appropriate, to ensure its successful conclusion.

OPR.—The conference agreement adopts by reference the House report language concerning the Office of Professional Responsibility (OPR) and the submission of a report 90 days from the enactment of this Act.

Innocent Images National Initiative.—The conference agreement adopts the Senate report language directing the FBI to consider emerging technologies that may help prevent and prosecute crimes against children and child exploitation through the Internet, such as software to troll online venues and record evidentiary materials.

Terrorist Financing.—The conference agreement adopts the Senate report language concerning software that seeks to track financial data streams and, in real time, automatically notify analysts when designated transactions occur in the financial accounts of suspected terrorists. The FBI is directed to evaluate such software and report back to the Committees on Appropriations on its findings.

Enterprise Architecture.—The conference agreement adopts the Senate report language directing the Government Accountability Office (GAO) to review the FBI's management of its enterprise architecture effort, including its use of effective contractual controls and its approach to contractor tracking and oversight. In addition, the conferees direct GAO to review whether FBI's approach to developing its enterprise architecture is consistent with established best practices.

Criminal Justice Information Services Division.—The conference agreement includes $387,271,000, including fee collections, for the Criminal Justice Information Services Division (CJIS). The conference agreement does not adopt the FBI's proposal to reduce the CJIS IT system maintenance budget by $3,000,000.

The conference agreement also includes by reference Senate language prohibiting the diversion of funding collected through the CJIS user fee for any purpose other than CJIS, its refreshment plan, or a subsequent modernization plan for the current facility. Moreover, the conferees direct that $50,668,734 of Working Capital Fund balances be utilized to begin design for hardware and software modernization at CJIS located in Clarksburg, West Virginia. The intent is to ensure that legacy systems are phased out and replaced with modern equipment so that the FBI can take advantage of emerging technologies, such as advances in biometrics, and ensure interoperability and increased information sharing with other agencies. This will also allow for dedicated development of future generations of equipment at CJIS. Within 180 days of enactment of this Act, the FBI is directed to submit to the Committees on Appropriations a status report on the modernization of the existing CJIS systems.

Automated Biometric Identification System/Integrated Automated Fingerprint Identification System (IAFIS).—The conference agreement adopts the Senate report language directing the Department of Justice to submit a report to the Committees on Appropriations not later than April 5, 2005, on the existing capacity of IAFIS, the expected impact US-VISIT may have on the system, and any additional costs necessary to increase IAFIS's capacity to meet that impact.

Intellectual Property Rights.—Within the resources provided for counterintelligence, not less than $5,000,000 shall be available to combat industrial espionage and other threats to the intellectual property rights of manufacturers and researchers in the United States.

Trilogy.—The conferees have not adopted the total program cost cap included by the Senate for Trilogy, including the Virtual Case File (VCF), but agree that imposing discipline in this program is essential. The Initial Operating Capability (IOC) for VCF is expected to be completed in December 2004, and will provide the following functionality: import all document types; manage workflow; upload to the Automated Case Support System (ACS); and interfaces through ACS. The conferees recommend that the FBI commission an independent study of Trilogy that evaluates the overall achievements of the program, including equipment upgrades and improved capabilities, identifies outstanding requirements, and establishes a timeline and cost estimate to complete deployment of the program. The study shall also note the benefits of making VCF capabilities available to the users as soon as possible.

CONSTRUCTION

The conference agreement includes $10,242,000 for FBI construction as proposed by the House. The Senate funded this activity under a different heading. The conference agreement includes $1,242,000 for recurring construction needs and provides $9,000,000 for a records management center.

The conferees understand that consolidation of records and collocation of records management personnel would achieve business process efficiencies and personnel savings. It would make more space available in the FBI headquarters building, allowing the FBI to reduce leased space in the Washington, D.C., metropolitan area, and would free up needed space in the field as the number of FBI staff continues to increase. The conferees understand that the FBI hired an outside consultant to study potential locations for a records management center using the following criteria: (1) at least 60 miles outside of Washington, D.C., for continuity of operations; (2) away from obvious terrorist targets; (3) within 250 miles of Washington, D.C.; (4) having access to transportation, utilities, and communications networks; and (5) availability of an educated workforce. The conferees understand the FBI chose Frederick County, VA, as the most ideal location to establish this center. The conferees further understand that the FBI intends to lease an interim facility in Frederick County while the design and construction of a permanent facility is underway. The recommendation includes $9,000,000 for the costs to lease, equip and relocate an interim records management center in Frederick County in fiscal year 2005. This records management facility will not assume any personnel, projects, programs, or activities being performed by the CJIS.

DRUG ENFORCEMENT ADMINISTRATION

SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The conference agreement includes $1,653,265,000 for the Drug Enforcement Administration, instead of $1,661,503,000 as proposed by the House and $1,645,027,000 as proposed by the Senate.

The recommendation provides the following increases: $53,146,000 for inflationary and other costs to maintain the current operating level; $14,976,000 and 165 positions for priority targeting; $3,000,000 for the Special Operations Division; $4,047,000 and 3 positions for investigative technology support; $1,173,000 and 9 positions for computer forensics support; $1,000,000 for aviation support; $8,530,000 and 10 positions for the Concorde project and web infrastructure; and $4,837,000 and 4 positions for the El Paso Intelligence Center.

Of the funding provided for priority targeting, $4,095,000 and 82 positions are for administrative support to relieve agents from performing non-investigative duties. The remaining positions and funding shall be available for the highest priority domestic and international enforcement activities.

Decision Units.—The conference agreement adopts the Senate report language regarding the consolidation of DEA's ten decision units to three. The conferees direct DEA to provide a spending plan by the proposed three decision units to the Committees on Appropriations not less than 30 days after enactment of this Act. To measure the impact of this change, DEA is directed to provide quarterly reports to the Committees on Appropriations of its obligations by prior year as well as proposed decision units.

Demand Reduction Activities.—The conference agreement includes not less than $8,891,000 for DEA's Demand Reduction activities.

Number of Drug Agents.—Since the September 11, 2001 attacks, the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) has diverted agents from drug investigations to counterterrorism and counterintelligence activities. In order to address this change in FBI priorities without negatively impacting Federal law enforcement's ability to combat drug crimes, the conferees have provided increased funding to the DEA to compensate for this change. With the additional DEA agents funded in fiscal year 2005 under this heading and under the Interagency Crime and Drug Enforcement heading, the total combined number of DEA and FBI agents working on drug cases will exceed the pre-September 11th level by 202.

Ecstasy Interdiction.—The conferees note the progress made by DEA and the Department of State against so-called "club drugs" under the "Roadmap" initiative with the Belgian and Dutch governments. The conferees direct the Department of State and DEA to submit a report to the Committees on Appropriations no later than 90 days after enactment of this Act, detailing steps to be taken in the second roadmap. The second roadmap should emphasize sufficient U.S. presence in the Netherlands, more effective work against the export of precursor chemicals, and a review of terrorist links to club drug trafficking organizations.

DEA's Role in the Intelligence Community.—The conferees are aware of the direct relationship between the funding of international terrorism and narcotics trafficking. The conferees applaud the work of DEA personnel around the world and encourage them to continue sharing critical intelligence related to terrorism with other U.S. government agencies.

Offsets.—The conference agreement assumes the implementation of all of the Administration's proposed offsets except the proposal to charge the District of Columbia Metropolitan Police Department fees for forensic evidence analysis services. The recommendation reduces funding for requested program increases in order to offset this proposal. The Committee is disappointed that the Administration's proposal to offset funding increases is to increase the funding burden on State and local law enforcement.

Operation Containment.—DEA is directed to continue to provide an update on Operation Containment activities in Afghanistan in May and September of 2005.

Diversion Control Fee Account.—The conference agreement includes $154,216,000 for this account, as provided by the House and Senate. The conference agreement includes the following program increases: $11,711,000 is to improve and modernize customer service and e-commerce; $3,482,000 is for the Internet Online Investigations Project and to update the Controlled Substances Information System II; $659,000 is to enhance DEA's ability to respond to the regulated community and improve the management and financial accountability of resources; and $15,773,000 supports the Drug and Chemical Diversion Control Decision Unit, previously funded under salaries and expenses, to simplify financial management issues and ensure a stable source of funding for the program. In addition, the conference agreement provides DEA with 10 additional positions to implement sections 110 and 111 of this Act. The Department of Justice is directed to submit quarterly reports describing its efforts to address prescription drug diversion.

BUREAU OF ALCOHOL, TOBACCO, FIREARMS AND EXPLOSIVES

SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The conference agreement provides $890,357,000 for the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives (ATF) as proposed by the Senate instead of $870,357,000 as proposed by the House.

The conference agreement includes program increases of $2,707,000 and 31 positions for additional explosives investigations and regulatory compliance; $5,000,000 and 24 special agents to focus on gang-related investigations; and $5,600,000 for the construction and establishment of the Federal Firearms Licensing Center at the National Tracing Center Facility.

In addition, the conference agreement provides a $1,000,000 increase for the National Tracing Center Division. The conferees understand that the number of trace requests, particularly international trace requests, is growing dramatically.

Specialized Explosives Groups.—There has been a large increase in the criminal misuse of explosives. Therefore, the conference agreement includes an increase of $10,200,000 for the creation and operation of four specialized explosives groups. These groups shall be strategically located throughout the United States based on a thorough threat and workload assessment conducted by the Bureau. These groups will be responsible for investigating the misuse and trafficking of explosives, increasing inspection efforts for high-risk explosives licensees, and increasing forensic support to explosives investigations with the goal of proactively preventing explosives crimes and acts of terrorism.

Conversion of Records.—The conferees recognize the need for the ATF to begin converting tens of thousands of existing records of out-of-business Federal firearms dealers from film to digital images at the National Tracing Center. Once the out-of-business records are fully converted, the search time for these records will be reduced to an average of 5 minutes per search from the current average of 45 minutes per search. This significant time saving will ultimately reduce overall costs and increase efficiency at the National Tracing Center. Therefore, the conference agreement includes a $4,200,000 increase for the ATF to hire additional contract personnel to begin this conversion.

Access 2000 Program.—The conferees are aware that the Access 2000 program was initiated by ATF to improve the efficiency and reduce the costs associated with firearms tracing incurred by Federal Firearms Licensees (FFLs). ATF and FFL importers, manufacturers, and wholesalers form a partnership in this effort. FFLs take their data from their mainframe computer and import it into a stand-alone server provided by the ATF. The National Tracing Center is connected to this server remotely by secure dial-up and obtains information on a firearm that is subject to a firearms trace. The conferees support this program, which reduces the administrative burdens of the FFL and allows the ATF around the clock access to the records. The ATF currently has 36 Access 2000 partners. The conferees encourage the ATF to place more emphasis on this program and expand the number of partners to the greatest extent possible.

Special Response Teams.—The conferees are aware of the extremely important role Special Response Teams (SRTs) play in the enforcement of our Nation's laws. The Bureau has four teams throughout the United States. Due to the personnel limitations within the Bureau, the four SRTs are predominantly made up of special agents that maintain a full case load on the street and train to maintain the highly specialized skills required to qualify for an SRT position. The conferees laud these special agents and the extraordinary dedication to the mission of the ATF they display in order to ensure these teams are effective, safe, and successful. The conferees also acknowledge the outstanding service the unique human scent/tactical K-9 program has provided in support of the Special Response Teams. The conferees urge the ATF to train at least two additional K-9s so as to equip each SRT with full time support.

The conferees adopt by reference the House report language concerning certain sensitive law enforcement information contained in databases maintained by the ATF.

FEDERAL PRISON SYSTEM

SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The conference agreement includes $4,627,696,000 for the salaries and expenses of the Federal Prison System as proposed by the Senate, instead of $4,567,232,000 as proposed by the House. The conferees believe that the budget request was inadequate to support the requirements of the Federal Prison System (FPS). The conference agreement provides an amount that should be sufficient to complete or begin activation of ten prisons and also continue operations at existing prisons. To ensure that the FPS is able to activate prisons on a two-year timeline, the conference agreement includes a provision making activation funds available until September 30, 2006. The conferees expect the ten new prisons to be receiving inmates by the date listed in the table below and have provided funding to maintain this schedule. Amounts are dedicated to activate each institution as follows:

| Institution                          | Activation date | Activation costs | Inmate care nationwide | Total    |

| Yazoo City, MS FCI .....             | 2/05            | 26,300           | 7,295                  | 33,595   |
| Coleman, FL USP .....                | 2/05            | 23,000           | 7,295                  | 30,295   |
|                                      |                 | 306,000          | 59,836                 | 365,836  |

Reprogramming Authority.—The amounts designated in the table above for “activation costs” are intended for the sole purpose of bringing these new prisons online. The amounts designated in the table above for “inmate care nationwide” represent the cost associated with the inmates who will eventually be housed at the new facilities. The amounts designated in the table above are to be obligated as directed, and are therefore subject to the reprogramming procedures established in section 605 of this Act.

Carryover Amounts.—In addition to the amounts designated in the table above, an additional $50,015,000 is available from amounts carried forward from fiscal year 2004 for prison activations. The conferees expect that funds for Victorville, CA; Williamsburg, SC; Canaan, PA; Hazelton, WV; Herlong/Sierra, CA; Forrest City, AR; and Yazoo City, MS will be obligated as planned. If the amounts required deviate from the planned levels, the FPS should submit a reprogramming notification in accordance with section 605 of this Act.

Base Operations.—The conferees believe that the amount provided for this account is sufficient to support the base operational needs of the entire FPS. Within the amounts provided, the conferees provide base funding of $41,000,000 for FCI Gilmer, West Virginia and $41,000,000 for FCI Beckley, West Virginia.

Contract Confinement.—The conference agreement includes $584,948,000 for the contractual costs associated with housing inmates. This amount includes $22,850,000 in contracts for the National Institute of Corrections and $9,400,000 for 4,500 additional low-security contract beds. The conferees adopt by reference House language regarding use of excess State, local, and private prison capacity to meet bedspace needs, if these facilities meet FPS standards. The conferees also adopt by reference Senate report language in support of private sector contract confinement.

Drug Treatment.—The conferees expect that an amount equal to the fiscal year 2004 level will be provided for the transitional drug treatment program.

Joint Bureau of Prisons/Judiciary Pilot Program.—The conference agreement includes a general provision supporting a pilot program that will allow the Federal Public Defender in the Southern District of Florida to transfer computers for use by inmates reviewing electronic discovery.

Financial Plan.—The conference agreement includes section 118, which requires submission of a financial plan. In requiring the submission of a financial plan, the conferees are mindful of the complexities of managing the budget for the FPS. However, the conferees believe that such a plan is justified in order to effectively carry out the oversight responsibilities of the Committees on Appropriations. To ensure that there is no unnecessary delay in operations of the FPS, the Committees will review the proposed financial plan and respond to the Department of Justice within 15 working days of receipt of the plan. However, submission of the financial plan does not replace the requirement for reprogramming notification under section 605 of the Act.

Sexual Misconduct.—The conferees commend the FPS on its work to address and prevent sexual misconduct. With funds provided in earlier appropriations Acts, the National Institute of Corrections has made useful progress in providing training and technical support to correctional systems throughout the country to eliminate staff sexual misconduct with inmates, training in investigating cases, and training “trainers” in order that employees at every level will be more aware of, and better prepared to deal with, these cases. The conferees direct the FPS to continue these efforts and to report to the Committee by March 31, 2005, on progress made in this area.

The conference agreement incorporates by reference House report language regarding a reimbursable agreement. The conference agreement incorporates by reference Senate report language directing the FPS to move forward with the site investigation and planning for Hazelton, West Virginia. The conferees also incorporate by reference Senate report language regarding female inmates and medical records.

BUILDINGS AND FACILITIES

The conference agreement includes funding of $189,000,000 for construction, modernization, maintenance and repair of prison and detention facilities housing Federal prisoners as proposed by the House and the Senate. The conference agreement includes section 106, which prohibits the transfer of funds from this account to any other Department of Justice account. The conferees continue to expect that all current construction projects will proceed as planned.

The conferees remain concerned that while the prison population grows, the Department of Justice continues to submit budget requests with proposed rescissions of prison construction funds. The conferees reiterate previous direction to discontinue this practice.

The conference agreement directs the Office on Violence Against Women to submit a Management and Administration financial plan to the Committees on Appropriations within 60 days of enactment of this Act. The financial plan shall include the amount of funding reimbursed to the Office of Justice Programs for administrative services. The Justice Management Division is required to verify the appropriateness of this amount.

Native American/Native Alaskan Liaison Office.—The conferees understand that Native American and Native Alaskan women experience a high rate of violence compared to any other group in the United States. The conferees are concerned these individuals lack a comprehensive community response to address their needs in breaking the cycle of violence. The conferees believe a liaison office would be an effective resource for these communities to identify and address their needs in order to develop a community response for the elimination of domestic violence.

The conferees are aware that the State of Alaska has been ranked number 1 in the country for its rate of rape, the rate at which men kill women, and the rate at which firearms are stolen. Although violent crime rates have dropped across the nation last year, Federal statistics have shown that violent crimes have been on the rise in Alaska. The conferees understand that the Office on Violence Against Women held a summit in Alaska in July, 2004, which enabled experts from across the country to assist Alaska with this pervasive social problem. The conferees commend the Office on Violence Against Women for their effort in bringing both the Alaska community and the professional community together.

The conference agreement includes $7,550,000 for the Native American/ Native Alaskan Liaison Office to begin their work in Alaska. The conferees have provided $2,400,000 for the Anchorage Domestic Violence Prevention Project; $950,000 for the domestic violence prosecution unit in Alaska;

National Institute of Justice (NIJ).—The conference agreement provides $55,000,000 for the National Institute of Justice. The conference agreement provides $20,000,000 for the Office of Science and Technology, $3,250,000 for counterterrorism research and development, $10,000,000 for social science research and evaluation, $21,000,000 for the National Law Enforcement and Corrections Technology Centers, and $750,000 for Mistral Security Non-Toxic Drug Detention and Identification Aerosol Technology.

The conferees adopt the Senate report language concerning the National Law Enforcement and Corrections Technology Centers. Funding for these centers is distributed as follows:

LIMITATION ON ADMINISTRATIVE EXPENSES, FEDERAL PRISON INDUSTRIES, INCORPORATED

The conference agreement includes language regarding a limit on administrative expenses of $3,411,000 for Federal Prison Industries, Incorporated (FPI). The conferees adopt by reference House report language regarding the FPI program.

OFFICE ON VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN

VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN PREVENTION AND PROSECUTION PROGRAMS

The conference agreement includes $387,275,000 for violence against women prevention and prosecution programs instead of $383,551,000 as proposed by the House and $410,000,000 as proposed by the Senate. The following table outlines the funding provided in the conference agreement:

OFFICE OF JUSTICE PROGRAMS

JUSTICE ASSISTANCE

The conference agreement includes $227,900,000 for Justice Assistance. The conferees do not adopt the Administration's proposal to consolidate all Office of Justice Programs (OJP) activities under this heading. The table below displays the conference agreement compared to the request for programs funded under this heading and compared to the amounts provided in the House and Senate bills.

Within the level of funding provided, $3,000,000 is for the Center for Rural Law Enforcement Technology and Training, and $2,800,000 is for the Office of Law Enforcement Technology Commercialization, Inc. The conferees recognize and support the important work of the Border Research Technology Center and support the budget request for research on trafficking in persons. NIJ shall consider expanding the Forensic Resource Network in future years.

National Center for Missing and Exploited Children (NCMEC).—The conferees strongly support the NCMEC's nationwide services for the prevention of abduction, endangerment, and sexual exploitation of children. The conferees believe these services are an effective part of the congressionally intended safety net for our most vulnerable children. The conferees commend the leadership of NCMEC for their dedication to these issues. Of the funds appropriated for the NCMEC, $1,000,000 is for NCMEC's Lost Child Alert Technology Resource (LOCATER) program; $2,250,000 is for NCMEC's NETSMARTZ program; $1,650,000 is for the expansion and enhancement of the Child Recognition and Identification System (CRIS); and $2,000,000 is for NCMEC's Team Adam initiative.

Regional Information Sharing System.—The conference agreement provides $40,000,000 for the Regional Information Sharing System (RISS). The conferees direct the Department to ensure that inter-state information sharing systems funded by OJP and COPS comply with the National Criminal Intelligence Sharing Plan. The conferees strongly support RISS's leadership role in implementing the National Criminal Intelligence Sharing Plan. In particular, the conferees are pleased with RISS's efforts in promoting collaboration between Federal, State, and local agencies through information sharing, especially in the exchange of antiterrorism information. Furthermore, the conferees commend the support provided by BJA for RISS.

Bureau of Justice Statistics.—Of the funds provided for the Bureau of Justice Statistics, $2,000,000 shall be utilized for the National Crime Victimization Survey (NCVS) conversion. This funding supports the continuation of converting the NCVS from primarily a paper and pencil operation to a fully automated data collection operation.

Victim Notification System.—The conferees understand that eighteen states have implemented statewide automatic victim notification programs, but a national automated victim notification network remains incomplete. The conference agreement recommends $8,000,000 for the Bureau of Justice Assistance to launch a new grant program for State automated victim notification programs. The conferees agree that no funding can be utilized from the Victims Assistance Program for this initiative and that funds provided under this heading require a 50 percent match from State, local, or private sources. The conferees direct the Bureau of Justice Assistance to work with Congress in developing this program and to submit to the Committees on Appropriations a report outlining the program within 180 days of the enactment of this Act.

Management and Administration.—The conference agreement provides $35,000,000 in direct appropriations for the management and administration of OJP. The conferees direct OJP to submit a financial plan to the Committees on Appropriations within 60 days of enactment of this Act. The financial plan shall include the amount of reimbursable funding OJP receives from the Office of Community Oriented Policing Services, the Office on Violence Against Women and the Office of Domestic Preparedness, as well as reimbursements for the processing of grants for any other agency outside of the Department of Justice. In addition, the financial plan shall outline the level of funding individual OJP programs will be contributing for management and administration.

The conferees are cognizant that independent auditors performing the fiscal year 2004 financial audit at OJP found multiple material weaknesses in internal controls surrounding OJP's grant accounting practices and grants management systems. The conferees are extremely disappointed that the weaknesses have caused the auditors to disclaim their opinion on OJP's financial statements and as a result have caused the loss of the overall Department of Justice clean audit opinion. The conferees understand the auditors reported weaknesses in OJP's grant accounting process, significant errors in reporting, weak systems controls, weaknesses in OJP monitoring, and an inability to adequately document certain accounting entries. The conferees direct OJP to rectify its accounting and monitoring weaknesses, strengthen its internal controls and systems, and ensure it can reliably report its financial activity in fiscal year 2005. Additionally, the conferees expect OJP to submit monthly reports to the Committees on Appropriations on the status of the corrective action plan.

STATE AND LOCAL LAW ENFORCEMENT ASSISTANCE

The conference agreement provides a total appropriation of $1,295,510,000. The table below displays the funding provided in the conference agreement compared to the level of funds requested under the Justice Assistance heading for similar activities, and compared to the levels provided in the House and Senate bills.

Edward Byrne Memorial Justice Assistance Grants program.—The conference agreement includes $634,000,000 for the Edward Byrne Memorial Justice Assistance Grants program, as authorized by H.R. 3036, the Department of Justice Appropriations Authorization Act, Fiscal Years 2004 through 2006, as passed by the House on March 30, 2004. The conference agreement is $125,063,000 above the budget request.

This program is intended to consolidate the Local Law Enforcement Block Grant program and the Byrne Formula program. Funding under this program is authorized for: (a) law enforcement programs; (b) prosecution and court programs; (c) prevention and education programs; (d) corrections and community corrections programs; (e) drug treatment programs; and (f) planning, evaluation, and technology improvement programs. Funding is not available for: (a) vehicles, vessels, or aircraft; (b) luxury items; (c) real estate; or (d) construction projects.

The formula used for distributing funds under this program allocates 50 percent of funding based on population, and 50 percent based on violent crime rates. The formula allocates 60 percent of funding to States and 40 percent to units of local government. Of the amount provided, $85,000,000 is for Boys and Girls Clubs; $10,000,000 is for NIJ to assist local units of government to identify, select, develop, modernize, and purchase new technologies for use by law enforcement; and $2,500,000 is for the USA Freedom Corps initiative for the expansion of Neighborhood Watch programs and the Volunteers in Policing program.

Indian Country Grants.—The recommendation provides $18,000,000 for Indian Country grants. The conferees acknowledge the success that the Comprehensive Indian Resources for Community Law Enforcement (CIRCLE) initiative is having and urge the Department to continue to work on ways to expand CIRCLE.

Edward Byrne Discretionary Grants.—The conference agreement includes $170,027,000 for discretionary grants under this account.

Within the amounts provided, OJP is expected to review the following proposals, provide grants if warranted, and report to the Committees on Appropriations regarding its intentions:

Harold Rogers Prescription Drug Monitoring Program.—The conference agreement includes $10,000,000 to assist States in building or enhancing prescription drug monitoring systems, facilitating the exchange of information between States, and providing technical assistance and training on establishing and operating effective prescription drug monitoring programs. During 2002, 6.2 million Americans abused prescription drugs. The conferees expect OJP to collaborate with DEA and other entities of the Executive Branch, such as the Food and Drug Administration and the Office of National Drug Control Policy, to ensure a coordinated government-wide approach to address prescription drug diversion. The Department of Justice is directed to submit quarterly reports describing its efforts to address prescription drug diversion.

Prison Rape Prevention and Prosecution.—The conference agreement provides $37,000,000 for implementation of the Prison Rape Elimination Act of 2003 (Public Law 108-79). The conference agreement provides $15,000,000 for the collection of statistics, data and research as authorized by section 4 of the Act; $1,000,000 for the National Institute of Corrections for a national clearinghouse, training and education as authorized by section 5 of the Act; $20,000,000 for grants to States to protect inmates and safeguard communities as authorized by section 6 of the Act; and $1,000,000 to be transferred to the National Prison Rape Elimination Commission.

Improving State and Local Law Enforcement Intelligence Capabilities.—The conference agreement includes $10,500,000 for the implementation of the National Criminal Intelligence Sharing Plan and the efforts of the Global Justice Information Sharing Initiative. The conferees direct this funding to be used to support training for State and local law enforcement on the intelligence process including planning, collection, analysis, dissemination and reevaluation. This program should continue to provide support for training in the use of intelligence as a tool in identifying pre-incident indicators. The conferees believe the training should ensure that law enforcement officials are protecting individuals' privacy, civil rights, civil liberties, and constitutional rights within the intelligence process. The conferees also expect some funding to be available to promote the use of information technology standards among law enforcement to ensure that the data can be exchanged across disparate information systems.

WEED AND SEED PROGRAM FUND

The conference agreement includes $62,000,000 for the Weed and Seed program as proposed by the Senate. Of the funds provided, $2,000,000 shall be for comprehensive community development training and technical assistance.

COMMUNITY ORIENTED POLICING SERVICES

The conference agreement includes $606,446,000 for Community Oriented Policing Services (COPS) programs instead of $686,702,000 as proposed by the House and $755,969,000 as proposed by the Senate.

The table below displays the funding provided in the conference agreement compared to the level of funds requested under the COPS and Justice Assistance headings for similar activities and compared to the levels provided in the House and Senate bills.

COPS Hiring Program.—The conference agreement includes $10,000,000 for the hiring of law enforcement officers, of which $5,000,000 shall be for school resource officers.

Police Corps.—The conference agreement includes $15,000,000 for the Police Corps program. The conferees expect that the Police Corps training curriculum will incorporate all relevant training portions of the National Criminal Intelligence Sharing Plan.

Indian Country.—The conferees recommend that 5 percent of COPS funds be provided directly to tribal judicial systems to assist Tribal Courts with the caseload associated with increased arrests as a result of more stringent tribal law enforcement.

Methamphetamine Enforcement and Clean-Up.—The conference agreement includes $52,556,000 for State and local law enforcement programs to combat methamphetamine production and distribution, to target drug "hot spots," and to remove and dispose of hazardous materials at clandestine methamphetamine labs.

Within the amount provided, the conference agreement includes $20,000,000 to reimburse the Drug Enforcement Administration (DEA) for assistance to State and local law enforcement for proper removal and disposal of hazardous materials at clandestine methamphetamine labs.

In addition, within the amount provided, the conferees expect the COPS Program Office, in consultation with DEA, to examine each of the following proposals, to provide grants if warranted, and to submit a report to the Committees on Appropriations on its intentions for each proposal:

$2,000,000 for a Washington State law enforcement methamphetamine initiative;

COPS Interoperable Communications Technology Program.—The conference agreement provides $100,000,000 to continue the COPS Interoperable Communications Technology Program being designed and implemented by the COPS Office, in consultation with NIJ's OS&T as well as the Bureau of Justice Assistance. The conferees commend the COPS Office for its coordination with other Federal agencies who deal with public safety interoperability. The conferees believe coordination of Federal efforts is critical to ensure our Nation's safety and a necessity if we are not to fall victim to the pitfalls of the past.

The conferees strongly support the need for minimum standards for law enforcement communications technology. Therefore, OS&T should continue to assist COPS in incorporating existing minimum standards into the formulation of this grant program.

Within the amount provided, $5,000,000 shall be transferred to the National Institute of Standards and Technology (NIST) to continue the efforts of the Office of Law Enforcement Standards (OLES) regarding the development of a comprehensive suite of minimum standards for law enforcement communications.

The conferees commend the Institute for Telecommunication Sciences (ITS) in Boulder, Colorado, for all their efforts and contributions to the public safety communications statement of requirements. Their contributions were critical in addressing the many issues plaguing public safety organizations for decades.

Interoperable Standards.—Over a decade ago, APCO Project 25 was established through a joint effort of Public Safety First Responders, U.S. Industry, and elements of the Federal Government to provide the public safety community with interoperable, spectrally-efficient, economically-priced, digital radios capable of providing a variety of operationally required functions and features, including backward compatibility with existing analog land mobile radios.

The Project 25 suite of standards, being developed with the technical assistance of the Telecommunications Industry Association (TIA) Standards Committee TR-8, is intended to satisfy defined user needs, allow multiple vendors to manufacture some or all components of the Project 25 system at their discretion, and ensure that components produced by many sources will be interoperable.

The timely completion of the Project 25 standards for all of the relevant communications systems equipment is essential to the public safety community. The conferees are concerned that the functional standards that specify key Project 25 system interfaces (such as the Inter-RF Subsystem Interface (ISSI), the Console Interface, and the Fixed Station Interface) have not been developed or approved, nor have the standards that define how the interfaces should be tested and evaluated.

The conferees encourage the OLES to work with CommTech within the National Institute of Justice and the Wireless Public SAFETY Interoperability COMMUNICATIONS (SAFECOM) Program within the Department of Homeland Security, to consider the issuance of interim standards that can be used to specify the required functionality and testing validation characteristics.

Law Enforcement Technology Program.—The conference agreement includes $138,615,000 for the COPS Law Enforcement Technology Program. The conference agreement adopts by reference the House report language concerning standards.

Within the overall amounts recommended, the conferees expect the COPS office to examine each of the following proposals, to provide grants if warranted, and to submit a report to the Committees on Appropriations on its intentions for each proposal:

Enforcing the Underage Drinking Laws Program.—Within the funds provided in the At Risk Children Program (Title V), the conference agreement provides $25,000,000 for grants to assist States in enforcing underage drinking laws.

Gang Prevention.—The conference agreement includes $25,000,000, within Title V grants, for OJP to administer a gang resistance and education program. These funds shall be available to develop comprehensive community strategies to address gangs, including anti-gang education programs and coordination with Federal, State and local law enforcement. This program shall be administered by the Bureau of Justice Assistance with assistance from the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives, and the Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention.

Internet Safety.—The conferees strongly support programs that provide various services and resources to protect children from being vulnerable to on-line predators. The conferees understand there are a multitude of arenas where parents, law enforcement personnel, school personnel and after-school programs can obtain information about Internet safety. The conferees desire a better understanding of what types and how many Internet safety programs are being Federally funded. The conferees direct the Administrator of the Office of Juvenile Justice, in coordination with the Coordinating Council on Juvenile Justice and Delinquency, to submit a report on federally funded Internet safety programs to the Committees on Appropriations within 180 days of the enactment of this Act.

Victims of Child Abuse Act.—The conference agreement includes $15,000,000 for the various programs authorized under the Victims of Child Abuse Act (VOCA). The recommendation provides the following:

$3,000,000 for Regional Children’s Advocacy Centers, as authorized by section 213 of VOCA;

$9,500,000 for local Children’s Advocacy Centers, as authorized by section 214 of VOCA;

$50,000 for the National Children’s Advocacy Center in Huntsville, AL, to implement a training program;

$850,000 for the National Children’s Alliance for technical assistance and training, as authorized by section 214a of VOCA; and

$1,600,000 for the National Center for Prosecution of Child Abuse for specialized technical assistance and training programs to improve the prosecution of child abuse cases, as authorized by section 214a of VOCA.

PUBLIC SAFETY OFFICERS BENEFITS

The conference agreement includes $69,464,000 for this account, including $63,054,000 for death benefits, $3,615,000 for disability benefits, and $2,795,000 for education benefits.

GENERAL PROVISIONS—DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE

The conference agreement includes the following general provisions for the Department of Justice:

Section 101 provides language making up to $60,000 of the funds appropriated to the Department of Justice available to the Attorney General for reception and representation expenses.

Section 102 provides language, included in prior Appropriations Acts, which prohibits the use of funds to perform abortions in the Federal Prison System.

Section 103 provides language, included in previous Appropriations Acts, which prohibits use of the funds in this bill to require any person to perform, or facilitate the performance of, an abortion.

Section 104 provides language, included in previous Appropriations Acts, which states that nothing in the previous section removes the obligation of the Director of the Bureau of Prisons to provide escort services to female inmates who seek to obtain abortions outside a Federal facility.

Section 105 includes language providing authorization for Department of Justice programs until the effective date of a subsequent Justice authorization act.

Section 106 provides language allowing the Department of Justice, subject to the Committees’ reprogramming procedures, to transfer up to 5 percent between any appropriation, but limits to 10 percent the amount that can be transferred into any one appropriation. The provision also prohibits transfers of funds from the Bureau of Prisons Buildings and Facilities account unless the President certifies that such a transfer is necessary to the national security interests of the United States, and such authority shall not be delegated, and shall be subject to section 605 of this Act.

Section 107 provides language to continue section 114 of Public Law 107–77 during fiscal year 2005.

Section 108 includes language regarding additional funding for Project Seahawk.

Section 109 provides for the extension of the Personnel Management Demonstration Project for certain positions of the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives.

Section 110 prohibits the Drug Enforcement Administration from establishing procurement quotas in certain circumstances.

Section 111 provides for the establishment of procurement quotas for certain drugs following the approval of a new drug application.

Section 112 empowers the Director of the FBI to, on a case-by-case basis, delay the mandatory retirement age of 57 for FBI agents until the agent reaches 65 years of age. Currently, the Director is authorized to delay mandatory retirement until the agent reaches 60 years of age. This provision does not require agents to work past the age of 57, but gives the Director the authority to extend agents until the age of 65 in certain circumstances.

Section 113 provides the Director of the FBI with the authority, after consultation with the Office of Personnel Management (OPM), to provide retention and relocation bonuses to employees with high or unique qualifications who in the absence of bonuses would likely leave the FBI. The provision also allows for retention and relocation bonuses for individuals transferred to a different geographic area with a higher cost of living. A bonus may total up to 50 percent of an employee’s basic rate of pay.

Section 114 authorizes the Director of the FBI to provide for the establishment and training of an FBI Reserve Service that would facilitate streamlined, temporary rehiring from a pre-certified cadre of retired FBI employees who possess the specialized skills required to deal with the demands of a crisis or other special situation. The provision will allow the FBI to quickly access experienced employees in the event of an emergency, without adversely impacting reserve service members’ retirement pay.

Section 115 authorizes the FBI, in conjunction with the Office of Management and Budget and the Office of Personnel Management, to pay critical intelligence positions up to an Executive Schedule I salary provided that the position is determined to be (1) a high level position in a scientific, technical, professional, or administrative field, and (2) critical to the FBI's mission.

Section 116 provides authority for the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives to use confiscated funds during undercover operations.

Section 117 amends Title 31 of the United States Code to provide protection for the Director of the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives.

Section 118 requires the Bureau of Prisons to submit a financial plan.

Section 119 directs the Bureau of Prisons to work with the Federal Public Defender in the Southern District of Florida on a pilot program.

Section 120 limits the placement of maximum or high security prisoners to appropriately secure facilities.

Section 121 restricts Federal prisoner access to certain amenities.

Section 122 provides for payment of certain eligible radiation exposure claims.

Section 123 changes the name of the National Prison Rape Reduction Commission to the National Prison Rape Elimination Commission.

Section 124 establishes the 9/11 Heroes Medal of Valor.

Section 125 provides for the transfer of certain land to the Secretary of the Army.

Section 126 establishes an Office of Justice for Victims of Overseas Terrorism, as recommended by the Koby Mandell Act of 2003, to ensure that the investigation and prosecution of deaths of American citizens overseas are a high priority within the Department of Justice. The Office shall create a Joint Agency Task Force consisting of Department of Justice and Department of State personnel to be activated in the event of a terrorist incident against American citizens overseas.

TITLE II—DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE AND RELATED AGENCIES

TRADE AND INFRASTRUCTURE DEVELOPMENT

RELATED AGENCIES

OFFICE OF THE UNITED STATES TRADE REPRESENTATIVE

SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The conference agreement includes $41,552,000 for the Office of the United States Trade Representative (USTR) for fiscal year 2005, as proposed by both the House and Senate.

The conference agreement adopts, by reference, language proposed by the House regarding the United States trade deficit with other nations, reporting requirements, and international standards.

The conferees expect the USTR to make use of all available mechanisms, including the safeguards delineated under the Trade Act of 1974, specifically Sections 301 and 421, to address the disruptions resulting from trade with the People's Republic of China.

The conference agreement includes language proposed by the Senate regarding the establishment and the responsibilities of a Chief Negotiator for Intellectual Property Enforcement.

The conference agreement continues language from the prior year regarding certain trade negotiations to be conducted within the World Trade Organization, as proposed by the Senate.

NATIONAL INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY LAW ENFORCEMENT COORDINATION COUNCIL

The conference agreement includes $2,000,000 for the National Intellectual Property Law Enforcement Coordination Council (NIPLECC), instead of $20,000,000 as proposed by the Senate.

The conference agreement adopts by reference Senate report language regarding the mission of the NIPLECC and the creation of a Coordinator for International Intellectual Property Enforcement to head this Council.

INTERNATIONAL TRADE COMMISSION

SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The conference agreement includes $61,700,000 as proposed by both the House and Senate for the International Trade Commission for fiscal year 2005.

DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE

INTERNATIONAL TRADE ADMINISTRATION

OPERATIONS AND ADMINISTRATION

The conference agreement includes $401,513,000 in total resources for the programs of the International Trade Administration (ITA) for fiscal year 2005, of which $8,000,000 is to be derived from fee collections, as proposed by both the Senate and House.

Manufacturing and Services.—Of the amounts provided under this heading, the conference agreement includes $10,000,000 for the National Textile Center, $3,000,000 for Textile/Clothing Technology Corporation, $500,000 for Kansas City Smart Port, and $500,000 for the continuation of the international competitiveness program.

Market Access and Compliance.—Of the amounts provided under this heading, sufficient funding is provided to continue the BISNIS program.

Import Administration.—The conferees direct the Department to ensure that in cases regarding non-market economies, the surrogates are carefully selected. For those alleged dumping cases, the Department should clearly distinguish the fundamental differences in production processes and rely upon all credible expert information (including economic modeling and industry-based cost comparisons) in determining whether the financials of a surrogate realistically reflect costs. The conferees note that in chemical cases, as well as other cases, producers of identical products may not be the most reliable surrogate if they are distinctly different in size or production process. The conferees direct the Department to select the surrogates that most accurately reflect actual costs.

United States and Foreign Commercial Service.—Of the amounts provided under this heading, the conferees direct that overseas position levels dedicated to the Baltics will remain at fiscal year 2004 levels.

The conferees expect the Department to continue to fully participate in and contribute to the Clean Energy Technology Exports Initiative, a nine-agency approach to help open international markets and aid in the export of a range of United States clean energy technologies.

The conference agreement adopts, by reference, language regarding the Appalachian-Turkish Trade Project as proposed by the Senate.

The conferees direct the Secretary of Commerce to report back to the Committees on Appropriations, no later than January 20, 2005, on the trade and U.S. employment impact of the currency valuation of our trading partners including China, Japan, Vietnam, South Korea, Taiwan, the Ukraine, and Indonesia.

The conference agreement includes bill language designating the amounts available for each unit within ITA. The conferees remind ITA that any deviation from the funding distribution provided in the bill and report, including carryover balances, is subject to reprogramming procedures set forth in section 605 of this Act. In addition, ITA is directed to submit to the Committees on Appropriations, not later than 60 days after the enactment of this Act, a spending plan for all ITA units that incorporates any carry-over balances from prior fiscal years.

The conference agreement adopts, by reference, language as proposed by the Senate under the heading of World Trade Organization. The conference agreement adopts, by reference, language as proposed by the House concerning imports of polyester fibers from Korea, Channa micropeltes also known as Snakehead fish, staffing for market access compliance, establishment of a dispute settlement mechanism, report on right-sizing methodology, human rights training, spending plan, trade missions, foreign currency valuation, Caribbean Basin, Global Diversity, the rural export program, and travel expenditures.

The conference agreement includes $500,000 for the Rural Export Initiative for fiscal year 2005, and directs the ITA to work with the West Virginia High Technology Consortium Foundation. Further, the conferees expect the previously provided $500,000 for the Rural Export Initiative's National Technology Transfer Center to be awarded or otherwise made available to the West Virginia High Technology Consortium Foundation.

The conference agreement includes report language as proposed by the House regarding the Office of Trade and Economic Analysis (OTEA). The conference agreement includes up to $3,000,000 for this purpose.

The conference agreement includes, by reference, report language as proposed by the House regarding jobs in food manufacturing (including confectionery) and the submission of a certain report.

The conferees direct the Secretary of Commerce to take all necessary steps to ensure that American business interests are represented in international standards negotiations, including those concerning digital telecommunications. The conferees continue to direct that ITA collaborate with NIST, the USTR, and the State Department to reduce trade barriers to U.S. business exports. The conferees direct the Secretary to report to the Committees on Appropriations regarding the steps taken to ensure these goals are met and what obstacles are impeding the conferees' intended results. This report should include proposals to transfer existing ITA and NIST personnel on a temporary or permanent basis to certain international organizations.

Executive Direction.—The conferees are concerned regarding the accuracy and timeliness of information presented to the Committees on Appropriations, specifically data regarding financial and human capital. The conferees urge the Secretary to address the conferees' concerns.

Language is included regarding a certain international trade study.

BUREAU OF INDUSTRY AND SECURITY

OPERATIONS AND ADMINISTRATION

The conference agreement includes a total operating level of $68,393,000 for the operations and administration of the Bureau of Industry and Security (BIS), as proposed by the House, instead of $70,872,000, as proposed by the Senate.

The conference agreement adopts, by reference, Senate report language regarding a certain report.

ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT ADMINISTRATION

ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT ASSISTANCE PROGRAMS

The conference agreement includes $257,423,000 for Economic Development Assistance (EDA) Programs. The conferees direct EDA to continue traditional programs to provide needed assistance to communities struggling with long-term economic dislocation, as well as sudden and severe economic dislocation. Of the amounts provided, $166,593,000 is for Public Works and Economic Development; $45,400,000 is for Economic Adjustment Assistance; $24,500,000 is for planning; $8,435,000 is for technical assistance, including university centers; $12,000,000 is for trade adjustment assistance; and $495,000 is for research.

The conference agreement adopts, by reference, language proposed by the House regarding coal and timber industry downturns, and assistance to applicants and requirements for applicants. The conference agreement adopts, by reference, Senate language regarding the economic downturns including the timber, steel, and coal industries, United States-Canadian trade-related issues, communities in New England, the mid-Atlantic, Hawaii, and Alaska impacted by fisheries regulations, and communities in the southeast impacted by downturns due to the North American Free Trade Agreement.

SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The conference agreement includes $30,483,000 for the salaries and expenses of the Economic Development Administration, instead of $30,565,000 as proposed by the House, and $30,400,000 as proposed by the Senate.

The conference agreement adopts, by reference, House language regarding efforts to maximize the operating funding level, a special headquarters reserve fund, and requirements for reorganization proposals.

MINORITY BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT AGENCY MINORITY BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT

The conference agreement includes $29,899,000 for the Minority Business Development Agency for fiscal year 2005, instead of $31,555,000 as proposed by the Senate, and $28,899,000 as proposed by the House. The conference agreement adopts, by reference, House language regarding the Entrepreneurial Technology Apprenticeship Program.

The conference agreement adopts, by reference, Senate language regarding the Initiative on Asian Americans and Pacific Islanders. The conferees continue to support the Office of Native American Business Development.

ECONOMIC AND INFORMATION INFRASTRUCTURE ECONOMIC AND STATISTICAL ANALYSIS

SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The conference agreement includes $80,000,000 for the economic and statistical analysis programs of the Department of Commerce, including the Bureau of Economic Analysis (BEA), for fiscal year 2005, instead of $78,211,000 as proposed by the House, and $81,764,000 as proposed by the Senate.

The BEA has received programmatic increases over the past four years to ensure that policy makers have access to more accurate and timely economic data.

Language is included regarding a grant to the National Academy of Public Administration to conduct a comprehensive study on the effects of off-shoring on the U.S. workforce and economy. Subcontracts should be awarded as necessary. Information and opinion should be collected from stakeholders in business, education, and government, as well as professional associations and employee organizations.

BUREAU OF THE CENSUS

The conference agreement includes a total operating level of $754,881,000 for the Bureau of the Census, instead of $773,881,000 as proposed by the House, and $605,768,000 as proposed by the Senate.

SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The conference agreement includes $198,765,000 for the salaries and expenses of the Bureau of the Census for fiscal year 2005, instead of $174,304,000 as proposed by the Senate, and $202,765,000 as proposed by the House.

The conference agreement adopts, by reference, House report language regarding the highest priority core activities, reimbursement, the monthly Export-Import and Trade Balance statistics on a North American Industry Classification System (NAICS) basis, and the Advanced Technology Trade Imports, Exports, and Net Balance By Country, domestic stock production, and other key reports.

PERIODIC CENSUSES AND PROGRAMS

The conference agreement includes a total of $556,116,000 for all periodic censuses and related programs in fiscal year 2005, instead of $571,116,000 as proposed by the House, and $431,464,000 as proposed by the Senate. Of the amounts provided, $146,009,000 is provided for the American Community Survey, and $82,310,000 is for the Master Address File/Topologically Integrated Geographic Encoding and Referencing (MAF/TIGER) system. The conferees expect to be kept apprised on a monthly basis on the expenditure of these funds.

The conference agreement includes language regarding the collection of data on race identification.

NATIONAL TELECOMMUNICATIONS AND INFORMATION ADMINISTRATION

The conference agreement includes a total of $39,202,000 for the National Telecommunications and Information Administration (NTIA), instead of $17,820,000 as proposed by the House and $58,194,000 as proposed by the Senate.

SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The conference agreement includes $17,433,000 for the Salaries and Expenses appropriation of the NTIA, instead of $15,282,000 as proposed by the House, and $21,583,000 as proposed by the Senate.

The conference agreement adopts, by reference, language proposed by the House regarding the maximization of the operating level and reimbursements.

PUBLIC TELECOMMUNICATIONS FACILITIES, PLANNING AND CONSTRUCTION

The conference agreement includes $21,769,000, the same amount as in the Senate, instead of $2,538,000 as proposed by the House.

INFORMATION INFRASTRUCTURE GRANTS

The conference agreement includes language allowing recoveries and balances to be used for administration of open grants as proposed by the House. The Senate proposed an appropriation of $14,842,000.

UNITED STATES PATENT AND TRADEMARK OFFICE

SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The conference agreement includes $1,544,754,000 for the United States Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO) for fiscal year 2005, the same as proposed by the Senate, and $1,523,407,000 as proposed by the House.

The conference agreement includes language restricting certain travel payments and language designating full-time equivalents and funding for certain functions.

The conference agreement adopts, by reference, language proposed by the House regarding the National Inventor's Hall of Fame and Inventure Place and the International Intellectual Property Institute.

The conference agreement adopts, by reference, language proposed by the Senate regarding the Whittemore School of Business for an intellectual property rights pilot project.

The conference agreement includes $20,000,000 for USPTO's efforts to combat piracy and counterfeiting overseas, as proposed in the Senate report.

The conferees remind the PTO that any changes from the funding distribution provided in the bill and report including carry-over balances are subject to the reprogramming procedures set forth in section 605 of this Act.

In addition, PTO is directed to submit to the Committees on Appropriations, not later than three months after the enactment of this Act, a spending plan, which incorporates any carryover balances from previous fiscal years and any increases to the patent or trademark fee structure.

SCIENCE AND TECHNOLOGY TECHNOLOGY ADMINISTRATION SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The conference agreement includes $6,547,000 for necessary expenses of the Under Secretary for Technology Policy and the Office of Technology Policy, as proposed by the House, instead of $6,407,000 as proposed by the Senate.

The conference agreement includes $200,000 for the World Congress on Information Technology.

NATIONAL INSTITUTE OF STANDARDS AND TECHNOLOGY

The conference agreement includes $708,692,000 for the National Institute of Standards and Technology (NIST) for fiscal year 2005, instead of $524,970,000 as proposed by the House, and $784,963,000 as proposed by the Senate.

SCIENTIFIC AND TECHNICAL RESEARCH AND SERVICES

The conference agreement includes $383,892,000 for the Scientific and Technical Research and Services (core programs) of the NIST, as proposed by the Senate, instead of $375,838,000 as proposed by the House. Of the funds made available, $2,900,000 is provided for transfer to the NIST Working Capital Fund.

Within the funds made available for Electronics and Electrical Engineering, $4,000,000 is provided for the Office of Law Enforcement Standards [OLES] to fund the highest priority homeland security research projects. Projects managed by OLES are to be coordinated with the Department of Justice and the Department of Homeland Security. In addition, $1,000,000 is for a nanoelectronics initiative to support the development of semiconductor technologies.

Within the funds made available for Manufacturing Engineering, $2,000,000 is for the nanomanufacturing initiative enabling critical infrastructural measurements and standards for the developing nanotechnology industry.

Within the funds made available for Physics, $3,000,000 is for quantum computing. The conference agreement adopts language, as proposed by the Senate, regarding support of NIST's Nobel Laureates' efforts.

Within the funds made available for Materials Science and Engineering, $6,000,000 is provided for upgrades to the National Center for Neutron Research in order to meet the increasing demand for this national scientific resource.

Within the funds made available for Building and Fire Research, $2,000,000 is for measurements and standards for advanced fire fighting technologies. Numerous innovative technologies are becoming available for the Nation's fire departments. Unfortunately, there are few standard test methods able to assess the performance of these instruments.

Within the funds made available for Computer Science and Applied Mathematics, $500,000 is for NIST's efforts in support of the Technical Guidelines Development Committee, as established under the Help America Vote Act, Public Law 107-252. Additionally, the conferees recognize the need to continue support of the US-VISIT program and other biometric programs of the Departments of State and Justice and have provided $2,000,000 to allow for NIST to begin testing the accuracy of multimodal systems, develop guidelines for testing fingerprint segmentation methods, and determining the influence of multiple images on the accuracy of facial biometrics.

The Nation's critical infrastructure continues to be at risk due to inadequate security, which is subject to exploitation, including the critical systems of the Federal Government. The Congress has designated the Computer Security Division as having the authority and responsibility of developing Federal standards, security guidelines, security checklists and associated methods and techniques for securing information systems, specifically Federal non-classified systems. These responsibilities are derived from the Federal Information Security Management Act and the Cyber Security Research and Development Act. The conference agreement includes $10,000,000 to develop the standards, guidelines, security specifications, testing methods, checklists, and testing and scanning tools necessary to protect the Nation's cyberspace.

Within the funding for Research Support, an increase of $3,000,000 is provided to the Competence program and $10,050,000 is provided for Business Systems. The recommendation continues funding of $2,400,000 for a telework project and $6,500,000 for a critical infrastructure program, both of which received similar funding in fiscal year 2004.

Chemical Science and Technology Study.—The conferees understand that the current methods of bulk asbestos analysis were designed to segregate commercial asbestos products containing more than 1 percent asbestos and may be inadequate for determining low concentrations of asbestos that occur in the natural environment. The conferees are aware of private-sector interest in developing a mass-based method that is accurate to the 0.1–1 WT percent levels and which will segregate asbestos from non-asbestos particles on mine-grade samples of amphiboles and a method for distinguishing asbestos and non-asbestos particles in airborne filter samples. The conferees direct NIST to provide to the Committees on Appropriations in both the House and Senate, not later than January 31, 2005, a determination on whether developing such a methodology is necessary and, if so, the process, cost, and timetable for developing this methodology.

INDUSTRIAL TECHNOLOGY SERVICES

The conference agreement includes $251,300,000 for the Industrial Technology Services appropriation of the National Institute of Standards and Technology, instead of $106,000,000 as proposed by the House, and $315,000,000 as proposed by the Senate.

Manufacturing Extension Partnership program (MEP).—The conference agreement includes $109,000,000 to fully fund all MEP centers. The conference agreement includes bill language prohibiting the Secretary of Commerce from competing any existing Manufacturing Extension Partnership Center prior to 2007. Federal support for the MEP program, combined with State and private sector funding, has translated into more jobs, more tax revenue, more exports, and a more secure supply source of consumer and defense goods. The MEP program is an economical and prudent means of assisting small manufacturers that want to remain in the United States, continue to hire American workers, and stay competitive in the global market place. Of the amounts provided, $3,000,000 is to ensure small and rural States receive necessary manufacturing assistance and services. The conferees have reviewed the Department of Commerce's report entitled, "Manufacturing in America" and its recommendations. The conferees do not support the report's recommendation to reorganize the MEP program around a regional approach. The conferees recognize that the original concept of 12 regional centers for MEP is not the best model to address the needs of small and medium-sized manufacturers. The conferees support MEP's expansion in order to equalize services to all types of manufacturers across the country. The conferees direct the Secretary of Commerce to provide the necessary coverage for small and medium-sized manufacturers. In addition, the conferees are concerned about the ability of small and rural States to provide adequate "matching" funds. The conferees direct MEP to develop a program, which will provide additional assistance to small and rural States and report back to the Committees on Appropriations by April 15, 2005, with an implementation plan.

The conference agreement includes a new provision naming the Manufacturing Extension Partnership Centers the Hollings Centers.

The conference agreement adopts, by reference, language in the House report regarding the requirements for applicants seeking assistance.

Advanced Technology Program.—The conference agreement provides an appropriation of $142,300,000 for the Advanced Technology Program (ATP), instead of $203,000,000 as proposed by the Senate and no funding as proposed by the House. The conference agreement does not adopt bill language providing specific funding for new awards as proposed by the Senate.

CONSTRUCTION OF RESEARCH FACILITIES

The conference agreement includes $73,500,000 for the construction and major renovations of the NIST campuses at Boulder, Colorado, and Gaithersburg, Maryland.

The conferees provide $23,000,000 for safety, capacity, maintenance, and major repairs, and $7,000,000 for the central utility plant upgrades for the Boulder, Colorado, facility.

NATIONAL OCEANIC AND ATMOSPHERIC ADMINISTRATION

The conference agreement includes a total of $3,940,000,000 for the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration (NOAA), instead of $3,158,000,000 as proposed by the House and $4,141,793,000 as proposed by the Senate. The conference agreement includes funding under the same account structure as in previous years as proposed by the House, instead of unifying the two main accounts as proposed by the Senate.

OPERATIONS, RESEARCH, AND FACILITIES

(INCLUDING TRANSFERS OF FUNDS)

The conference agreement includes total funding of $2,872,065,000, instead of $2,324,000,000 as proposed by the House. The Senate bill included $4,109,646,000 under a new "Operations, Research, Facilities, and Systems Acquisition" account which included funding for activities under this account. Of the amount provided, $65,000,000 is from balances in the account entitled, "Promote and Develop Fishery Products and Research Pertaining to American Fisheries", instead of $79,000,000 as proposed by the House, and $57,000,000 as proposed by the Senate. The net appropriation from the General Fund is $2,804,065,000.

Language is included prohibiting any general administrative charge against an assigned activity in this Act or the accompanying report. An exception is provided to facilitate the modernization of NOAA's grant systems. The conferees endorse the language in the Senate report emphasizing the need to expedite financial assistance to grantees.

Language is also included capping the amount provided for corporate services administrative support at $171,530,000, and capping the amount available to the Department of Commerce Working Capital Fund at $39,500,000.

The conference agreement stipulates that any deviation from the amounts designated for specific activities in the report accompanying this Act shall be subject to the procedures set forth in section 605 of this Act.

The conference agreement includes, by reference, language in the House report regarding the submission of a report on amounts planned for line office personnel and overhead, and a report on positions, full-time equivalents, and salary-related costs for each line office.

The conferees support the intent of the Senate report language connecting the NOAA budget with the agency's strategic plan and goals. However, the conferees were surprised to learn through NOAA's appeal in response to the Senate bill that every agency is unable to track its funds or execute its budget in alignment with its strategic goals. Accordingly, the language proposed by the Senate has not been adopted. The conferees have, however, provided a crosswalk for appropriated amounts between strategic goals and line offices in the financial tables included in this statement.

The following table identifies the activities, sub-activities, and projects funded in this appropriation:

NOAA OCEANS AND COASTS/NATIONAL OCEAN SERVICE

The conference agreement includes a total of $548,788,000 for activities of the National Ocean Service (NOS). The conference agreement adopts, by reference, language in the House report on the hydrographic survey backlog, and on the strategy for the use of private mapping services. The conference agreement adopts, by reference, language in the Senate report regarding NOAA's Integrated Coastal Ocean Observing System, including the important contributions of the National Data Buoy Center and the National Center for Environmental Prediction (NCEP) Environment Modeling Center.

The conferees agree that amounts provided to address the hydrographic survey backlog on the line items "North Pacific Maritime Boundary Line", "Gulf of Alaska" and "North Pacific" may be used to contract for hydrographic services in Alaska in areas defined as "navigationally significant" in the current edition of the NOAA Hydrographic Survey Priorities.

The conference agreement includes funding for NOAA to consult with and provide assistance to the Departments of Defense and Interior and the Environmental Protection Agency in carrying out their responsibilities in cleaning up Vieques, Puerto Rico.

The conference agreement for the Marine Sanctuary Program includes $2,000,000 for the conservation of artifacts related to the USS MONITOR, including the vessel's turret and engine. These funds are provided for that grant in addition to the amounts currently provided for public education, the housing of MONITOR archives, and artifact conservation. The conferees expect that MONITOR exhibits will reference any support provided by NOAA and the Marine Sanctuary Program. The conference agreement for the Marine Sanctuary Program also includes $500,000 to be used for international marine sanctuary and reserve issues, including, but not limited to, the work with the Galapagos Islands Marine Reserve. The conferees expect funds will be allocated, from within amounts provided for the Marine Sanctuary program, for conservation activities at the Monterey Bay National Marine Sanctuary Exploration Center.

The conference agreement adopts, by reference, report language regarding Pier Romeo and a Memorandum of Understanding between the NOS Assistant Administrator and other Federal agencies as proposed by the Senate.

NOAA FISHERIES/NATIONAL MARINE FISHERIES SERVICE

The conference agreement includes $674,199,000 for the operations of the National Marine Fisheries Service (NMFS).

The conference agreement adopts, by reference, language proposed by the House regarding continuation of funding for implementation of a West Coast in-season harvest data collection system. The conference agreement also includes, by reference, language in the House report regarding the development of forensic tools, the protection of consumers from bacteria in raw molluscan shellfish, and the continuation of funding for the Gulf and Atlantic Foundation for education programs regarding Vibrio vulnificus.

The conference agreement includes additional funding for marine mammal activities, as proposed by the Senate. Of the funding provided for Dolphin Encirclement, NMFS is directed to dedicate funding and efforts on revising downward its definition of a vessel that is not capable of setting on or encircling dolphins to reflect the fact that vessels smaller than 400 short tons are known to engage in this practice.

The conference agreement adopts, by reference, language proposed by the Senate under the heading Native Hawaiian Observer Program.

Within funds provided for Habitat Conservation, the conferees encourage NOAA to work with the Ocean Resources Enhancement and Hatchery Program in California, if warranted, and to support the program's efforts to evaluate the effectiveness of marine replenishment.

The conference agreement includes funding for maintenance, operations, and lease costs of all NMFS labs. The conference agreement includes, by reference, language in the House report regarding future NMFS base budget requests.

The conferees urge NOAA to continue support for Virginia Trawl Survey activities.

NOAA RESEARCH/OCEANIC AND ATMOSPHERIC RESEARCH

The conference agreement includes $409,278,000 for the Oceanic and Atmospheric Research (OAR) line office.

The conference agreement adopts, by reference, language in the House report on ballast water exchange programs; forecasting models for beach closings; coordination of efforts to protect the Great Lakes including a report on mercury contamination; and responding to the report of the Research Review Team.

The conferees reject the proposed reductions in the budget request to continue activities at the fiscal year 2004 level for paleoclimate and abrupt climate change research; for social science research related to climate variability, including the human dimensions of climate change; and for educational outreach.

Funding is included in the Climate Research account for Joint and Cooperative Institutes for the institutes to continue their work at fiscal year 2004 levels. The conferees direct NOAA to fund all Joint Institutes on a fully annualized basis for fiscal year 2005.

The conference agreement adopts, by reference, language regarding the Economic Development Alliance of Hawaii, and language regarding the Hawaii Marine Invasives Program, as proposed by the Senate under the National Marine Fisheries Service.

The conference agreement adopts, by reference, language in the Senate report regarding the distribution of funds for the Ocean Exploration Program and the National Undersea Research Program, including the participation in the Ocean Exploration program.

NOAA NATIONAL WEATHER SERVICE

The conference agreement includes $710,796,000 for the operations of the National Weather Service (NWS).

The conference agreement adopts, by reference, language in the House report on weather radio coverage in certain locations. The conferees agree that the amount provided for Air Quality Forecasting includes $750,000 for efforts to establish air quality and meteorological monitoring equipment throughout the Shenandoah Valley as described in the House report.

The conference agreement includes funding for the Susquehanna River basin flood system within funding for Advanced Hydrological Prediction Services.

The conferees urge NOAA and NWS to take maximum advantage of capabilities and services that already exist in the commercial sector to eliminate duplication and maximize the accomplishment of the core mission of the NWS.

The conference agreement adopts, by reference, language regarding the weather radar and office in Williston, ND, as proposed by the Senate.

NOAA SATELLITES/NATIONAL ENVIRONMENTAL SATELLITE, DATA, AND INFORMATION SERVICE

The conference agreement includes $178,319,000 for the operational and research and development programs of the National Environmental Satellite, Data, and Information Service (NESDIS).

Data Dissemination.—The conferees are concerned that with the significant increase in oceanographic and environmental data collection in Hawaii and the American Flag Territories, including the Northwestern Hawaiian Islands, NOAA continues to have inadequate capacity to provide timely data and services to the region. The conferees urge NOAA to enhance its Pacific Ocean and environmental data services and specifically encourage NOAA to incorporate the ongoing data management and archival activities at the University of Hawaii's Asia-Pacific Data Research Center (APDRC) as a critical component of a NOAA Pacific Ocean and Environment Information Center.

NOAA-WIDE PROGRAM SUPPORT

The conference agreement includes $348,185,000 for Program Support.

The conference agreement adopts, by reference, language in the Senate report regarding the NOAA Education Initiative. The agreement includes $6,500,000 for the Office of Education and new initiatives to improve K-12 environmental, science and math outreach and education. Of this amount, $100,000 is provided to replicate the successful "Science on a Sphere" environmental education technology display at the John C. Stennis Space Center's Infinity Center facility. The conferees have shifted funding for a number of specific educational programs to the NOAA-wide program support area. As in past years, the BWET Hawaii program is to be managed by the Pacific Coastal Services Center. The amounts under the NOAA Ocean Exploration Program provided under NOAA Research include $1,500,000 to support the Sea Research Foundation's Immersion Project as described in the Senate report.

The conference agreement adopts, by reference, Senate report language regarding modernization of NOAA's infrastructure, including the fleet of vessels and aircraft, and the fleet modernization plan. The referenced plan should also provide a breakdown by geographic region, including the Western Pacific. Within the marine services activity, $15,350,000 is provided to ensure the full-year operation of the NOAA vessels OSCAR DYSON, FAIRWEATHER, NANCY FOSTER, and HI'IALAKAI, at standard operating tempos. The amounts within fleet planning and maintenance include $2,000,000 for these same vessels. The conference agreement includes $1,000,000 for staffing, training and planning for the newly dedicated NOAA ocean exploration vessel. The conference agreement also includes an increase of $2,100,000 above the budget request, and above the House and Senate bills, to offset fuel price increases for all NOAA ships and aircraft.

The conferees agree that, within the amount provided for Marine Services, NOAA shall take the necessary actions to convey a decommissioned NOAA ship in operable condition to the Utrok Atoll local government as authorized by Public Law 108-219.

Of the amounts provided for Facilities, $200,000 shall be used for completion of the Santa Cruz Laboratory sea water system.

PLANNING AND PROGRAM INTEGRATION

The conference agreement includes $2,500,000 for Planning and Program Integration.

PROCUREMENT, ACQUISITION AND CONSTRUCTION

The conference agreement includes $1,053,436,000 under this heading instead of $840,000,000 as proposed by the House. The Senate bill included funding for these activities under the "Operations, Research, Facilities, and Systems Acquisition" account. The conference agreement makes funding available for three fiscal years with exceptions for certain construction activities.

The conference agreement includes language clarifying procurement authorities related to the National Polar Operational Orbiting Operational Environmental Satellite System.

Of the amount provided for Maryland Chesapeake Bay Coastal and Estuarine Land Conservation projects, $1,000,000 is for Wapiti Farms and $300,000 is for Holly Grove.

The conference agreement adopts, by reference, language regarding land acquisition and construction, including Section 2 (Fish & Wildlife Coordination Act), as proposed by the Senate.

The conference agreement includes language proposed by the Senate requiring the submission of multi-year program cost estimates for each NOAA procurement, acquisition and construction program having a total multi-year cost of more than $5,000,000.

The conference agreement includes $2,400,000 for acoustic quieting, outfitting and improvements for the OSCAR DYSON. The conferees understand that NOAA's first acoustically quiet fisheries research vessel is not meeting its design specifications. The conferees are concerned about NOAA's inability to adequately address this key design element within the original project budget and schedule. The conferees agree that NOAA shall submit a report to the Committees by January 1, 2005 addressing quieting issues in fisheries research vessels, including other vessels in the design and construction phase.

The conference agreement includes $34,000,000 to complete funding for the construction of the third NOAA Fisheries Research Vessel; $5,600,900 for initial procurement of the fourth NOAA Fisheries Research Vessel which will be homeported on the West Coast; and $9,300,000 to complete funding for the SWATH hydrographic vessel.

The following distribution reflects the activities funded within this account:

PACIFIC COASTAL SALMON RECOVERY

The conference agreement provides $90,000,000 for Pacific Coastal Salmon Recovery, instead of $80,000,000 as proposed by the House and $99,000,000 as proposed by the Senate. Language is included extending authorization for this program in fiscal year 2005 and authorizing participation by the State of Idaho.

Funds provided under this heading shall be allocated as follows: $24,000,000 for Alaska; $13,000,000 for California; $2,500,000 for Columbia River Tribes; $4,500,000 for Idaho; $13,000,000 for Oregon; $8,000,000 for Pacific Coast Tribes; and $25,000,000 for Washington.

With respect to the amounts for Alaska, the conferees agree to the following allocation: $3,500,000 is for the Arctic Yukon-Kuskokwim Sustainable Salmon initiative; $1,000,000 is for the Cook Inlet Fishing Community Assistance Program; $500,000 is for the Yukon River Drainage Association; $3,368,000 is for Fairbanks hatchery facilities; $250,000 is for an initiative to redefine optimum goals for sockeye, chinook, and coho stocks; $2,500,000 is for the NSRAA Hatchery; $500,000 is for Coffman Cove king salmon; $250,000 is for the State of Alaska to participate in discussions regarding the Columbia River hydro-system and for fisheries revitalization; $100,000 is for the United Fishermen of Alaska's subsistence program; $3,500,000 is to restore salmon fisheries in Anchorage at Ship Creek, Chester Creek, and Campbell Creek, including habitat restoration and facilities; $500,000 is for Alaska Village Initiatives to enhance salmon stocks; $800,000 is for Bristol Bay Science and Research Institute; $1,100,000 is for the Alaska Fisheries Development Foundation; $150,000 is for the State of Alaska for fishing rationalization research; $1,500,000 is for the State of Alaska for fisheries monitoring; $1,500,000 is for the Alaska SeaLife Center to restore salmon runs in Resurrection Bay; $500,000 is for the southeast Revitalization Association for its fleet stabilization program; $1,000,000 is for the Kenai River; and $200,000 is to restore the Craig watershed.

Of the amounts provided to the State of Washington, $3,500,000 is for the Washington State Department of Natural Resources and other State and Federal agencies for purposes of implementing the State of Washington's Forest and Fish report, and $3,000,000 is for the purchase of mass marking equipment used at Federal hatcheries in Washington State to promote selective fisheries and protect threatened and endangered species.

Of the amounts provided to the State of Oregon, $1,000,000 is for conservation mass marking at the Columbia River Hatcheries.

The conferees agree that NOAA shall report to the Committees by March 31, 2005, on final performance measures for this program, including an assessment of cumulative program effects on Pacific salmon stocks, and the identification of recovery needs of specific salmon populations as a resource for determining future funding allocations.

COASTAL ZONE MANAGEMENT FUND

The conference agreement includes language allowing the transfer of up to $3,000,000 to the "Operations, Research, and Facilities" account for the costs of implementing the Coastal Zone Management Act, as proposed by the Senate.

FISHERMEN'S CONTINGENCY FUND

The conference agreement includes $499,000 for the Fishermen's Contingency Fund, instead of no funding as proposed by the House and $956,000 as proposed by the Senate.

FISHERIES FINANCIE PROGRAM ACCOUNT

The conference agreement includes language proposed by the Senate providing $287,000 to subsidize up to $5,000,000 for Individual Fishing Quota loans and up to $59,000,000 for fishing capacity reduction loans, of which $40,000,000 may be used for the United States distant water tuna fleet, and $19,000,000 may be used or the United States menhaden fishery.

OTHER

DEPARTMENTAL MANAGEMENT
SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The conference agreement includes $48,109,000 for costs related to managing the Department of Commerce, instead of $52,109,000 as proposed in the House, and $55,550,000 as proposed in the Senate. The conference agreement includes $1,621,000 and 12 full-time equivalents for the legislative affairs function of the Department.

The conference agreement includes, by reference, language proposed in the House report regarding the security upgrades to the Herbert C. Hoover building, and language regarding office relocations.

The conferees direct the Secretary of Commerce, in cooperation with the Secretaries of Energy and Labor, to examine and prepare a study on the economic impacts of rising natural gas prices on energy-intensive industries overseas. The conferees expect a report to be provided to the Committees on Appropriations no later than 120 days after the enactment of this Act.

UNITED STATES TRAVEL AND TOURISM PROMOTION

The conference agreement includes $10,000,000 for the United States Travel and Tourism Promotion program, instead of $20,000,000 as proposed by the Senate. The House did not include funding for this purpose.

OFFICE OF INSPECTOR GENERAL

The conference agreement includes $21,660,000 for the Inspector General for fiscal year 2005, instead of $22,249,000 as proposed by the House and $21,071,000 as proposed by the Senate.

GENERAL PROVISIONS—DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE

The conference agreement includes the following general provisions for the Department of Commerce:

Section 201 making Department of Commerce funds available for advanced payments only upon certification of officials designated by the Secretary that such payments are considered to be in the public interest.

Section 202 making appropriations for the Department for Salaries and Expenses available for hire of passenger motor vehicles, and for services, uniforms and allowances as authorized by law.

Section 203 providing the authority to transfer funds between Department of Commerce appropriation accounts and requiring notification to the Committees of certain actions.

Section 204 providing that any costs incurred by the Department in response to funding reductions shall be absorbed within total budgetary resources available.

Section 205 prohibiting the use of Commerce Department funds for the purpose of reimbursing the Unemployment Trust Fund or any other account of the Treasury to pay unemployment compensation for temporary census workers.

Section 206 designating amounts available in the "Promote and Develop Fishery Products and Research Pertaining to American Fisheries" fund and including language to provide authorities for a certain Board.

Section 207 authorizing the Secretary of Commerce to operate a marine laboratory.

Section 208 extending the availability of funds to administer the Emergency Steel Loan Guarantee Act of 1999.

Section 209 providing the authority and amounts to administer a certain fishing capacity reduction program.

Section 210 establishing the position of Coordinator for International Intellectual Property Enforcement.

Section 211 designating funds for certain projects.

Section 212 extending authorization for the environmental cleanup of the Pribilof Islands.

Section 213 making permanent the conservation and management of marine mammals in the State of Hawaii.

Section 214 establishing the Ernest F. Hollings Scholarship program.

Section 215 regarding a certain land transfer.

Section 216 regarding an ocean activities fund.

Section 217 regarding E-government initiatives.

Section 218 authorizing a fishing capacity reduction program.

Section 219 authorizing a fishing capacity reduction program.

Section 220 regarding a community development quota program.

Section 221 designating funding for a fishing capacity reduction program.

TITLE III—THE JUDICIARY

The conferees adopt by reference the Senate report language regarding budgetary constraints and reminding the Judiciary that it should comply with section 605 of this Act. The conferees also adopt by reference the House report language concerning fast track programs.

SUPREME COURT OF THE UNITED STATES

SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The conference agreement includes $58,122,000 for the salaries and expenses of the Supreme Court, as proposed by the House and the Senate. The conferees adopt by reference House report language regarding public access to Supreme Court proceedings. The conferees also adopt by reference House and Senate report language regarding personnel and inflationary increases.

CARE OF THE BUILDING AND GROUNDS

The conference agreement includes $9,979,000 for the Supreme Court "Care of the Building and Grounds" account, as proposed by the House, instead of $10,579,000 as proposed by the Senate. The conference agreement is $600,000 below the request because of the planned delay in renovating the Supreme Court's kitchen. The conference agreement adopts by reference the House report language concerning budget requests to renovate the Court.

UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS FOR THE FEDERAL CIRCUIT

SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The conference agreement includes $21,780,000 for the United States Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit, instead of $20,624,000 as proposed by the Senate and $22,936,000 as proposed by the House. The conferees adopt by reference Senate report language regarding funding for a Deputy Circuit Executive, a disaster recovery plan, and an independent security assessment.

Consistent with the budget request, the amount provided includes $541,000 transferred from the Court Security appropriation for eight court security officers currently stationed at the Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit. In addition, the conferees have become aware that the Federal Circuit relies on an annual reimbursement from the Courts of Appeals, District Courts, and Other Judicial Services, Salaries and Expenses account to cover certain costs associated with library operations. To eliminate the need for this reimbursement, the amount provided includes $400,000 for library expenses that have previously been transferred from the Courts of Appeals, District Courts, and Other Judicial Services, Salaries and Expenses account.

UNITED STATES COURT OF INTERNATIONAL TRADE

SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The conference agreement includes $14,888,000 for the U.S. Court of International Trade, as proposed by the House, instead of $14,060,000 as proposed by the Senate.

COURTS OF APPEALS, DISTRICT COURTS, AND OTHER JUDICIAL SERVICES

SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The conference agreement provides $4,177,244,000 for the salaries and expenses of the Courts of Appeals, District Courts, and Other Judicial Services, as proposed by the House, instead of $4,131,487,000 as proposed by the Senate. The amount provided assumes that Federal Protective Service charges are funded in the Court Security account.

Office of Probation and Pretrial Services.—The conferees adopt by reference the Senate report language on the Office of Probation and Pretrial Services in the Southern District of Florida.

The Edwin L. Nelson Local Initiative Program.—Within 30 days of enactment of this Act, the Administrative Office (AO) will report to the Committees on Appropriations the financial status of this program. This report, at a minimum, will include a list of all courts that have received grants to date, the reasons for the grants, and the amounts provided. Hereafter, the AO shall submit this information on a quarterly basis.

VACCINE INJURY COMPENSATION TRUST FUND

The conference agreement includes $3,298,000 from the Vaccine Injury Compensation Trust Fund instead of $3,471,000 as proposed by the House and $3,159,000 as proposed by the Senate.

DEFENDER SERVICES

The conference agreement includes $676,385,000 for the Federal Judiciary's Defender Services account, instead of $676,469,000 as proposed by the House and $648,116,000 as proposed by the Senate.

The conferees adopt by reference the Senate report language regarding an increase in the hourly rate for panel attorneys in capital cases and an increase in the case compensation maximum for panel attorneys in non-capital cases. The conferees also adopt by reference the Senate report language concerning training programs by the Federal Defender's Office in the Southern District of Florida.

The conference agreement includes section 119 supporting a pilot program with the Bureau of Prisons and the Federal Public Defender's Office in the Southern District of Florida. By October 15, 2005, the Defender's Office should report to the Committees on Appropriations on the cost savings achieved by this pilot program.

FEES OF JURORS AND COMMISSIONERS

The conference agreement includes $61,535,000 for Fees of Jurors and Commissioners, instead of $62,800,000 as proposed by the House and Senate. The conference agreement fully funds the Judiciary's latest estimate of needs for this account.

COURT SECURITY

The conference agreement includes $332,000,000 for the Judiciary's Court Security Account, instead of $379,580,000 as proposed by the House and $274,653,000 as proposed by the Senate.

The conference agreement includes the transfer of the Federal Protective Service (FPS) charge from the Salaries and Expenses account to this account. The conferees understand that the FPS has not provided the Administrative Office (AO) of the U.S. Courts with a detailed justification to substantiate the 34 percent increase in FPS security costs assessed to the judiciary in fiscal year 2005, as discussed in the Senate report. The conferees are unable to confirm the need for an increase, and therefore the conference agreement only provides $58,000,000 for FPS security charges, which is the fiscal year 2004 payment plus an inflationary cost increase.

ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICE OF THE UNITED STATES COURTS

SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The conference agreement includes $68,200,000 for the Administrative Office of the United States Courts (AOUSC) instead of $68,635,000 as proposed by the House and $67,249,000 as proposed by the Senate. The conferees adopt by reference the Senate report language concerning cost saving measures, new positions for program oversight, the Edwin L. Nelson Local Initiatives program, and requirements for reprogramming actions under section 605.

FEDERAL JUDICIAL CENTER

SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The conference agreement includes $21,737,000 for salaries and expenses of the Federal Judicial Center as proposed by the House, instead of $21,670,000 as proposed by the Senate.

JUDICIAL RETIREMENT FUNDS

PAYMENT TO JUDICIARY TRUST FUNDS

The conference agreement includes $36,700,000 for payment to various judicial retirement funds, as proposed by the House and Senate.

UNITED STATES SENTENCING COMMISSION
SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The conference agreement includes $13,304,000 for the U.S. Sentencing Commission, as proposed by the House instead of $12,404,000 as proposed by the Senate.

GENERAL PROVISIONS—THE JUDICIARY

Section 301.—The conference agreement includes a provision allowing appropriations to be used for services as authorized by 5 U.S.C. 3109.

Section 302.—The conference agreement includes a provision related to the transfer of funds.

Section 303.—The conference agreement includes a provision allowing up to $11,000 to be used for official representation expenses of the Judicial Conference of the United States.

Section 304.—The conference agreement includes a provision raising the compensation maximums for Criminal Justice Act panel attorneys.

Section 305.—The conference agreement includes a provision requiring the Administrative Office to submit an annual financial plan for the judiciary.

Section 306.—The conference agreement includes a provision allowing for a salary adjustment for Justices and judges.

Section 307.—The conference agreement includes a provision changing the fee structure for district court filings.

Section 308.—The conference agreement includes a provision changing the Central Violations Bureau processing fees.

TITLE IV—DEPARTMENT OF STATE AND RELATED AGENCY

In total, the conference agreement includes $8,882,787,000 for the Department of State and the Broadcasting Board of Governors. Of the total amount provided, $8,750,187,000 is derived from general purpose discretionary funds and $132,600,000 is scored as mandatory spending. This funding level includes significant program increases to improve diplomatic readiness and security. The conference agreement includes $1,571,022,000 to continue worldwide security activities, including the design and construction of replacement facilities for the most vulnerable overseas posts.

DEPARTMENT OF STATE

The conference agreement for the Department of State is intended to continue the Department's efforts to meet emerging diplomatic requirements, strengthen diplomatic and border security, and institute sweeping management reforms. In the past five fiscal years, the Congress has provided appropriations to significantly increase the Department's operating budget, including funding to support the hiring and training of new employees.

The conference agreement includes a total of $8,283,227,000 for fiscal year 2005 for the Department of State. Of the total amount provided, $8,150,627,000 is derived from general purpose discretionary funds and $132,600,000 is scored as mandatory spending. The conferees expect that this funding level will allow the Department to meet critical embassy security and staffing requirements, modernize its technology and equipment, and continue vigorous management reform initiatives to right-size America's overseas presence.

The conference agreement includes a total of $6,314,122,000 for the discretionary appropriation accounts under Administration of Foreign Affairs; $1,672,000,000 for International Organizations; $64,130,000 for International Commissions; and $100,375,000 for other activities. The conferees' priorities for the Department of State are delineated in the following paragraphs.

ADMINISTRATION OF FOREIGN AFFAIRS

DIPLOMATIC AND CONSULAR PROGRAMS

The conference agreement includes $4,228,702,000 for the Diplomatic and Consular Programs account, instead of $4,278,701,000 as proposed by the House and $4,151,755,000 as proposed by the Senate. The conference agreement includes $658,702,000 to continue funding for worldwide security upgrades, and $319,994,000 for public diplomacy programs. The conference agreement represents an increase of $165,214,000 above the fiscal year 2004 appropriation, excluding emergency appropriations.

Right-sizing.—The conferees urge the Department to move forward expeditiously with its right-sizing plan. Right-sizing refers to the reconfiguration of overseas U.S. Government personnel to the number necessary to achieve U.S. foreign policy goals. The conferees recognize that, as the property manager for all U.S. Government properties overseas, the Department of State faces considerable pressure to accommodate ever-greater numbers of non-State Department personnel in its overseas facilities. Given the increasing security vulnerabilities of U.S. Government personnel and facilities, the conferees strongly urge the Department to use the most stringent criteria for determining overseas staffing levels. In addition, the conferees expect the staffing decision-making mechanism used for the U.S. mission in Iraq to be the model for future right-sizing efforts.

For any right-sizing framework to be effective, it must have two main components: (1) a process for determining, internally, the appropriate number of State Department personnel stationed overseas, and (2) an inter-agency process for determining the appropriate number of non-military U.S. government personnel stationed overseas. To this end, the conference agreement designates

$3,000,000 for the Department to continue the operations of the Office on Right-Sizing the United States Overseas Presence. The conferees expect that this Office, which shall continue to report directly to the Undersecretary for Management, will lead the Department's effort to develop internal and interagency mechanisms to better coordinate, rationalize, and manage the deployment of U.S. government personnel overseas. The conferees expect the Office of Right-Sizing to report to the Committees on Appropriations each year on June 1 regarding the trends in overseas staffing, and support for Chiefs of Mission (COM) and to undertake a review of certain posts, as described in the Senate report.

As part of the overall right-sizing function, the conferees encourage the Department to review the International Cooperative Administrative Support Services (ICASS) system to ensure that the system contributes to right-sizing efforts.

The conferees commend the Department for its recent steps to strengthen internal processes for determining staffing projections for overseas personnel needs. However, more needs to be done. The conferees are not aware of any right-sizing analysis in the past several years that has resulted in a proposed reduction to a country-wide staffing presence. The conferees are supportive of the concept of regionalization. Regionalization refers to the practice of basing certain administrative functions and personnel in regional centers, or "hubs", thereby creating efficiencies. The conferees note that the Department continues to make less than notable progress towards developing an interagency right-sizing process, but anticipates that the capital security cost sharing plan will create new right-sizing incentives to facilitate meeting the conferees' expectations. Language is included establishing and outlining the requirements of the Department's capital cost sharing plan to encourage other Federal agencies to examine more closely whether the personnel they send overseas are truly mission-critical. The conferees remind the Department that this interagency process should not supercede the authority of COMs to determine the composition of their posts, but rather, to serve as a tool and support mechanism. The post must remain at the center of the right-sizing process.

Border Security Program.—The conference agreement includes $836,480,000 for the Department's Border Security Program, of which $75,000,000 is from appropriated funds, $661,480,000 is funded through the collection of Machine Readable Visa (MRV) fees, and approximately $100,000,000 is to be funded through a proposed Enhanced Border Security Program Fee. The conferees expect this funding to provide for an increase of 60 new consular positions, for a total position base of 2,585 positions by the end of fiscal year 2005. The conferees direct the Department to continue its bimonthly reporting on MRV fee revenues as specified in the conference report accompanying the fiscal year 2003 Supplemental Appropriations Act (Public Law 108-11). Disruption of the border security program due to an MRV fee shortfall must be avoided at all costs. The conferees would therefore entertain a reprogramming of funds out of the Diplomatic and Consular Programs account to cover any unanticipated shortfall in the Department's Border Security Program.

The conference agreement adopts, by reference, language as proposed in the House report concerning efforts to strengthen the visa process to make it an effective anti-terrorism tool. Further, the conference agreement adopts, by reference, language in the Senate report concerning the Interagency Study on the Visa Clearance Process. The conferees require the Department of Justice to work with the Departments of Homeland Security and State on this effort.

Within the amount provided, $175,000 is to support the United States' membership in the Arctic Council and $40,000 is to support the United States' membership in the Bering Straits Commission. The former includes funds for representation expenses and travel for United States delegates.

The conference agreement includes language increasing the fees the Department of State may collect for passports and immigrant visas.

Public Diplomacy.—The conference agreement includes language designating $319,994,000 for the Department's Public Diplomacy program. The conferees continue to believe that separately identifying public diplomacy resources will facilitate monitoring funding levels and trends for these activities. The need to strengthen our public diplomacy has gained urgency as we continue to see alarming public opinion polls and foreign media content relating to the war on terrorism and the war in Iraq that reveal profound anti-American sentiments, and often a rejection of our values. The need for expanded efforts is primarily, but not exclusively, in the Arab and Muslim world. The conferees direct the Department to submit reports outlining the criteria for measuring performance of these expanded efforts, and expect these reports to be submitted to the Committees on Appropriations on a quarterly basis.

The conference agreement adopts language as proposed in the House report regarding the American Corners program. The conference agreement also adopts language regarding efforts to counter disinformation and deliberate misinformation.

The conferees urge the Department to review the recommendations made by the Defense Science Board Task Force on Strategic Communication in their September 2004 report.

The conferees commend the Department on the establishment of an office of policy, plans, and resources within the Office of the Under Secretary for Public Diplomacy and Public Affairs; and the recent efforts and proposed plans to strengthen the authority of the Under Secretary to improve accountability for public diplomacy resources. The conferees continue to urge the Department to improve interagency coordination; increase resources dedicated to program performance measurement and research; expand the English language office; support speaker and fellows programs; expand American studies programs, including American Corners; and increase public diplomacy staff with better language skills. The conferees adopt, by reference, language in the Senate report concerning the Department's Public Diplomacy Strategy, PD Global Forum, and Micro-grants.

The conference agreement includes, by reference, language in the Senate report regarding the refining of a public diplomacy strategy, including the harmonization of mission and strategy with the Broadcasting Board of Governors, and the incorporation of ongoing international assistance and volunteer programs into public diplomacy.

The conference agreement adopts, by reference, language included in the Senate report concerning the 9/11 Commission Report, including a report on how the Department intends to implement its recommendations.

The conferees include $2,500,000 for the Ambassador's Fund for Cultural Preservation. Currently, there is no greater need for achieving understanding than in the Middle East. Therefore, within amounts available, at least $500,000 is for projects in the Middle East.

The conference agreement adopts, by reference, language included in the Senate report concerning Continuing Overseas Language Training and provides $6,000,000 for this purpose.

Cultural Antiquities Task Force.—The conference agreement also includes $1,000,000 for a cultural antiquities task force as described in the Senate report. The task force will coordinate with all relevant Federal law enforcement and cultural agencies to prevent further looting and promote preservation of Iraq's historically and culturally significant works. The conferees expect the Department to create a database as described in the Senate report. The conferees further urge the Department to make changes to visa policies as they pertain to persons found to have looted, damaged, or trafficked historically or culturally significant works. Finally, the conference agreement includes language proposed in the Senate report regarding a report on the creation of the Cultural Antiquities Task Force, funding requirements, and investigation of alleged damage to an Iraqi temple.

North Korea.—The conference agreement adopts, by reference, language contained in the Senate report concerning an international conference on the human rights situation in North Korea. The conferees expect the conference to be administered by Freedom House.

The conferees recognize the importance of the Special Envoy position created by Section 107 of Public Law 108-478 and include $1,000,000 for this purpose. The conferees expect that the Special Envoy will be compensated at a level available to Ambassadors without portfolio, and that no full-time incumbent State Department official will fill this position.

Anti-Semitism.—The conferees direct the State Department to work with the Organization for Security and Cooperation in Europe to support projects and personnel increases to combat anti-Semitism and intolerance.

Intellectual Property Protection.—The conferees continue to be concerned regarding the adequacy of the Department's infrastructure for fulfilling its responsibility to protect American intellectual property. The conference agreement includes language establishing the Office of International Intellectual Property Enforcement. The conference report adopts, by reference, Senate report language regarding a report to the Committees on Appropriations concerning intellectual property efforts.

Post-conflict Response.—The conferees include language regarding the function of the Office of the Coordinator for Reconstruction and Stabilization, as proposed by the Senate, with the exception of a funding designation. The conferees support the Department's establishment of the Office of the Coordinator for Reconstruction and Stabilization, which shall serve as the central entity to plan and coordinate United States Government civilian activities in pre- and post-conflict environments, and to react to complex contingencies. The conferees understand that this office will improve operational response time in the areas of reconstruction, stabilization, and humanitarian assistance. The conferees direct the Office to coordinate with bureaus within the State Department, other relevant U.S. agencies, and non-governmental organizations. The conference agreement adopts by reference language included in the Senate report regarding a description of this Office's functions and a description of how the Office will coordinate with other bureaus in the Department and other agencies. The conferees expect to be notified of any expansion of the Office as required by section 605 of this Act.

War Crimes.—The conferees reiterate their support for the work of the Special Court for Sierra Leone. The purpose of the Special Court is to prosecute those who bear the greatest responsibility for the appalling violations of international and Sierra Leonean law and crimes against humanity perpetrated during the conflict in Sierra Leone. Charles Taylor, the former president of Liberia, has been indicted by the Special Court of Sierra Leone and faces 17 counts of war crimes, crimes against humanity, and violations of international humanitarian law. Charles Taylor organized and ordered widespread and systematic attacks on the civilian population of Sierra Leone. According to the indictment, his supporters commonly used abductions, hacking off limbs, facial and bodily mutilations, and gang rapes to wage a terror campaign against civilians who supported the Revolutionary United Front in Sierra Leone. The conferees expect the Department to ensure that funding for the Special Court continues until all indictees are brought to justice expeditiously, including Charles Taylor. The conferees encourage the Bureau of African Affairs and the Special Court for Sierra Leone to work cooperatively to bring about this result.

International Religious Freedom.—The conference agreement continues funding for the Office of International Religious Freedom in the Bureau of Democracy, Human Rights and Labor. The conferees urge the Office to develop and implement comprehensive strategies to promote religious liberty, and to assist in the preparation of the Human Rights Reports and the Annual Report on International Religious Freedom. The conferees also expect the Office, in consultation with the U.S. Commission on International Religious Freedom, to work to further incorporate religious freedom themes in the Department's public diplomacy programs. In addition, the conferees expect the Department to continue to integrate the internationally recognized right to freedom of religion into foreign service officer training at all levels.

The conferees urge the Secretary of State to continue to every extent possible to monitor and promote religious freedom and human rights in China, Eritrea, India, Nigeria, Pakistan, Saudi Arabia, Sudan, Turkmenistan, Uzbekistan, and Vietnam. The conferees expect the Secretary of State to use all available forums and formal actions to address violations of religious freedom in these countries. The Secretary of State should continue to consult with the U.S. Commission on International Religious Freedom to promote religious freedom and human rights abroad.

Sudan.—The conferees expect the Department to review current staffing levels at the U.S. Embassy in Khartoum and to address increased requirements at this post. The conferees direct the Department to report to the Committees on Appropriations on the findings of this review and any proposal for staffing increases by no later than 120 days after the enactment of this Act.

Worldwide Security Upgrades.—The conference agreement includes $658,702,000 for worldwide security upgrades as proposed by the Senate, instead of $658,701,000 as proposed by the House. The conference agreement includes $582,482,000 for ongoing security activities, including guard services, physical equipment, armored vehicles, personnel, training, and wireless communications; and State Department participation in TOPOFF III, a national counterterrorism exercise, at the funding level described in the Senate report. Language is included to continue $5,000,000 for the Center for Antiterrorism and Security Training. The conference agreement includes $43,400,000 to continue the perimeter/compound security initiative and $29,198,000 in program increases. The program increases include $4,000,000, for a total of $18,422,000 for the prevention and response to chemical or biological agents in various locations around the world; $14,698,000 to support an additional 71 security professional staff positions, including 6 special agents and 55 professional and administrative support positions; $4,500,000 for a total of $27,714,000, to maintain a five-year replacement cycle for armored vehicles; $3,000,000 to reduce the risk that information systems will be compromised; and $3,000,000 to improve electronic access to, and exchange of, security and law enforcement information.

The conference agreement includes, by reference, language in the House report on the interagency task force to monitor the United Nations headquarters renovation project, intelligence and research, club drugs, trafficking in persons, minority recruitment and hiring, overseas schools, ICASS, security of classified material, Tibet, and the U.S. presence in China. The conference agreement also includes, by reference, language in the Senate report on financial operations, foreign language proficiency, clean energy technology exports, international child abductions, marine environmental issues, and international trade.

Food and Agriculture Organization.—Within funding provided under this heading, the conferees expect the Department to support the costs of an independent, outside evaluation of the operations and performance of the Food and Agriculture Organization. The conferees expect the Department to report to the Committees on Appropriations in both the House and Senate by no later than March 31, 2005.

As in previous years, the conferees expect that there will be additional savings available to the Department, including vacancies in funded positions. The Department will have the ability to propose that savings be used for needs not funded by the recommendation through the normal reprogramming process. The conferees are concerned about the Department's practice of resubmitting reprogramming requests that have previously been denied by the Committees on Appropriations. Reprogrammings should be resubmitted only if the circumstances surrounding the request or the request itself change substantially enough to warrant a reevaluation by the Committees. The conferees remind the Department that action by the Committees on Appropriations is required before the Department proceeds with any reprogramming action.

The conference agreement includes language in the bill, similar to language in prior years, which: (1) permits not to exceed $4,000,000 to be transferred to the Emergencies in the Diplomatic and Consular Service account for emergency evacuations and terrorist rewards; (2) provides $1,426,000 in fees collected from other Executive Branch agencies and $490,000 from reserves for lease or use of facilities at the International Center Complex, as authorized by law; (3) provides not to exceed $15,000 from reimbursements, surcharges, and fees for use of Blair House facilities in accordance with the State Department Basic Authorities Act of 1956; (4) requires notification of Congress before processing licenses for the export of satellites to China; and (5) makes not to exceed $6,000,000 in fee collections available until expended for various activities.

CAPITAL INVESTMENT FUND

The conference agreement includes $52,149,000 for the Capital Investment Fund, as proposed by the Senate, instead of $100,000,000 as proposed by the House. The conference agreement includes two separate accounts for the Department's information technology (IT) programs. The agreement includes language to create a new account, called the "Centralized Information Technology Modernization Program". The Capital Investment Fund will continue to provide funding only for new investments in IT, and the new account will provide funding for the maintenance of the Department's IT infrastructure, including hardware and software refreshment and upgrades.

The conference agreement adopts, by reference, language included in the Senate report concerning payroll consolidation, public diplomacy support, centralization, messaging, and centralized management of information. The conference agreement includes $7,563,000 for public key infrastructure requirements to help secure interagency communications.

CENTRALIZED INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY MODERNIZATION PROGRAM

The conference agreement includes $77,851,000 for a new account entitled Centralized Information Technology Modernization Program, instead of $102,951,000 as proposed by the Senate. The House did not provide funding for a new account. The conference agreement includes language establishing this new account to provide funding for the maintenance of the Department's IT infrastructure, including hardware and software refreshment and upgrades.

In addition, the Department is directed to develop a plan to implement a four-year replacement and modernization program for its classified and unclassified desktop computers, servers, network equipment, circuits, and software. The purpose of this plan will be to provide a blueprint for the maintenance of the Department's network infrastructure to meet current and future needs and to ensure that the Department's communications and information systems remain state-of-the-art. The Department is directed to update this plan on an annual basis. The Department shall provide the first such plan to the Committees on Appropriations no later than September 1, 2005, and every year thereafter at the time of submission of the President's budget request to Congress.

OFFICE OF INSPECTOR GENERAL

The conference agreement includes $30,435,000 for the Office of Inspector General (OIG) as proposed by the House, instead of $31,435,000 as proposed by the Senate. The conference agreement includes language, as carried in previous years, waiving the requirement for a five-year post inspection cycle. The conference agreement does not include language in the Senate report on U.S. diplomatic activities in Iraq.

EDUCATIONAL AND CULTURAL EXCHANGE PROGRAMS

The conference agreement includes a total of $360,750,000 under this heading, as proposed by the Senate, instead of $345,346,000 as proposed by the House. The following chart displays the conference agreement on the distribution of funds by program or activity under this account, including an estimated $5,400,000 in prior year recoveries and unobligated balances:

Deviations from the distribution of funds under this heading will be subject to the normal reprogramming procedures under section 605 of this Act.

The conferees understand that, due to the absorption of the former Soviet Eastern European exchanges in this account, there are additional needs for funding in the "Exchanges Support" category. The Department is directed to apply, on a priority basis, any balances that may become available for this purpose.

The conference agreement includes, by reference, Senate report language regarding the exchange visitor program, program regulations, the Fulbright Foreign Student Program with Iraq and Afghanistan, and working exchanges.

The conference agreement continues a program begun in fiscal year 2000 to provide one-time funding to international exchange start-ups. The recommendation includes $100,000 for each of the following programs: the Middle East Information Portal; the Afghanistan Young Leaders Program at the University of Nebraska-Omaha; the Flushing Council on Culture and the Arts' Partnership Between Queens and Taipei; the Inuit Circumpolar Conference; and the Auschwitz Jewish Center's Student Scholarship Program. Of the amounts provided for Seed programs, $300,000 is available for exchange programs related to Operation Smile, Inc.

The conferees support the expansion of the Partnerships for Learning program, which is an overarching theme for exchanges in which resources are shifted from lower to higher priority regions. Presently, and for the near future, the focus of the program is on engagement with the Arab/Muslim world.

Within amounts specified in the chart, the conference agreement includes $14,500,000 for the Future Leaders Exchange Program, $2,700,000 for teacher and school administrator exchanges, Teaching Excellence Awards (including the Partners in Education program), and $4,700,000 for Junior Faculty Development Program exchanges. The conferees support the Youth Exchange Study program.

The conference agreement adopts, by reference, language in the House report on Fulbright exchanges with Tibet; the Leaders in Education Initiative; Traditional Public-Private Partnership grants; artistic and cultural exchanges; minimizing unnecessary barriers to legitimate travel of exchange program participants; enhanced support for engaging Arab and Muslim audiences through exchange programs; allocation of funding for the Near East and South Asia regions; religious freedom; and the allocation of all resources under this account in accordance with worldwide policy priorities.

REPRESENTATION ALLOWANCES

The conference agreement includes $8,640,000 for representation allowances as proposed by both the House and Senate. The conference agreement includes, by reference, language in the House report regarding the submission of a quarterly report on expenditures under this account.

PROTECTION OF FOREIGN MISSIONS AND OFFICIALS

The conference agreement includes $9,894,000 under this heading as proposed by the House, instead of $5,000,000 as proposed by the Senate. The conference agreement includes, by reference, language in the House report regarding the Department's treatment of reimbursement requests and the submission of a report on budgeting for protection expenses in light of heightened security measures. The conferees believe that local jurisdictions incurring such costs must submit a certified billing for such costs in accordance with program regulations. The conferees expect the Department to treat such submissions diligently and provide reimbursement for valid claims to local jurisdictions on a timely basis. The conferees recognize that, in those instances where a local jurisdiction will realize a financial benefit from a visit by a foreign dignitary through increased tax revenues, such circumstances should be taken into account by the Department in assessing the need for reimbursement under this program.

EMBASSY SECURITY, CONSTRUCTION, AND MAINTENANCE

The conference agreement includes a total appropriation of $1,524,000,000 for Embassy Security, Construction, and Maintenance, as proposed by the House, instead of $1,376,758,000 as proposed by the Senate. The conference agreement designates $912,320,000 as available only for priority worldwide security upgrades, acquisition, and construction, the full amount requested for such activities. The conference agreement includes full requested wage and price increases for the Department's Bureau of Overseas Buildings Operations (OBO).

The conference agreement includes $912,320,000 for worldwide security upgrades, including $869,000,000 to continue the capital security program for constructing new secure replacement facilities for the Department's most vulnerable embassies and consulates. Within the funds made available under this category, the conferees expect the Department to undertake new office building projects from among the highest priority facilities listed in the Long Range Overseas Buildings Plan. Projects funded under this account must follow a rigorous right-sizing methodology.

The conferees expect that projects undertaken under this program will address the highest priority facilities from a security standpoint. The conference agreement supports the construction of seven new embassy compounds, two annex buildings, four United States Agency for International Development (USAID) buildings on secure embassy compounds, and acquisition of a number of secure sites for future embassy compounds.

Brussels, Belgium.—The conferees understand that certain non-security requirements exist in the Sate facilities in Brussels. The conference agreement includes $2,500,000 for these requirements.

The conference agreement includes such sums as necessary for the renovation of and seismic upgrades to the historic Palazzo Corpi building in Istanbul, Turkey, as determined by the Secretary.

The conference agreement adopts, by reference, language included in the Senate report concerning Beirut, Lebanon, and Karachi, Pakistan, building size, and asset management funds.

The conference agreement includes, by reference, language in the House report regarding compound security, security capital projects fully meeting existing security standards, immediate notification on serious security risks, reprogramming, and right-sizing.

The conference agreement includes $15,000,000 to secure and protect soft targets, of which $10,000,000 is for security at overseas schools attended by dependents of U.S. Government employees; $8,000,000 for consular workspace improvements; and $25,000,000 for buyout of uneconomic leases, as described in the Senate report.

The recommendation includes language establishing the Capital Security Cost Sharing Program. Under this program, all agencies that have staff overseas under Chief of Mission authority will pay a fair share of urgent, security-driven capital projects undertaken to replace embassies and consulates at the most vulnerable posts. The goals of this program are two-fold. First, the program will accelerate the replacement of unsafe, unsecured and outdated diplomatic facilities that are used overseas by U.S. Government agencies. This is planned as a 14-year, $17,500,000,000 program to replace 150 vulnerable embassy and consulate facilities with new compounds that fully comply with statutory security requirements. Second, the program will create incentives within all government departments and agencies to scrutinize and “right-size” their overseas presence to avoid unnecessary costs and security risks.

Each agency with staff overseas under Chief of Mission authority has, built into their fiscal year 2005 budget request, an annual contribution towards construction of new secure diplomatic facilities based on the number of positions overseas and the type of space occupied. These contributions do not take the place of State Department contributions, which are also growing, but create a larger, shared funding pool to accelerate replacement. In fiscal year 2004, the conferees funded the “virtual” costs of the program by including a $120,000,000 increase to State Department appropriations. The recommendation assumes a total program level of $869,020,000 in fiscal year 2005 for Capital Security Construction, including $785,320,000 under this account. The total amount includes a continuing State Department base appropriation of $622,720,000. The additional amount generated by the Capital Security Cost Sharing program is $249,101,862, which consists of $160,186,300 from the State Department included under this account, and $88,915,562 from non-State agencies, based on positions worldwide. The conferees understand that there is an anticipated five-year phase-in period for the program, wherein the total Government-wide amount grows from $869,020,000 in fiscal year 2005, to $1,400,000,000, then remains at that level for the next 9 years. The conferees further understand that the program will include agency involvement in setting priorities, and in other aspects of the development of new embassy compounds. The conferees believe that the establishment of strong interagency coordination and cooperation will be critical to achievement of program goals, and encourage the Department and the Administration to ensure that the management of this program is inclusive, cooperative and transparent.

The conference agreement includes $604,880,000 for operations and maintenance activities, including $76,729,000 in program increases. The conferees include $6,800,000 for headquarters operations. The conferees direct the Department to prioritize requested funding increases, and to specifically identify amounts above current services in a comprehensive spending plan to be submitted no later than 60 days after enactment of this Act.

Assets Management.—The conference agreement designates $100,049,000 in assets management funds planned for obligation in fiscal year 2005, of which $25,000,000 is for buyout of uneconomic leases. Any use of assets management funds in fiscal year 2005 is subject to reprogramming, as stated in the Senate report.

The conferees expect the Department to submit to the Committees any waiver or waivers signed by the Secretary of State in accordance with section 606(a)(2) and section 606(a)(3) of the Secure Embassy Construction and Counterterrorism Act of 1999 (Public Law 106-113) within five days of the Secretary's signature of such a waiver or waivers.

The conference agreement adopts language in the House report concerning reprogramming requirements.

EMERGENCIES IN THE DIPLOMATIC AND CONSULAR SERVICE

The conference agreement includes $1,000,000 under this heading, instead of $7,000,000 as proposed by the House, and instead of $1,000 as proposed by the Senate. The conference agreement anticipates that significant carryover balances from fiscal year 2004 will be available for obligation in fiscal year 2005. Within prior year unobligated balances, the conferees expect that $2,000,000 will be transferred to the Special Court for Sierra Leone, as proposed by the Senate.

REPATRIATION LOANS PROGRAM ACCOUNT

The conference agreement includes $612,000 for the subsidy cost of repatriation loans and $607,000 for administrative costs of the program as proposed by both the House and Senate.

PAYMENT TO THE AMERICAN INSTITUTE IN TAIWAN

The conference agreement includes $19,482,000 under this heading as proposed by both the House and Senate. The conference agreement includes, by reference, language in the House report regarding the submission of a fiscal year 2005 spending plan, except that such plan shall be submitted by February 28, 2005.

PAYMENT TO THE FOREIGN SERVICE RETIREMENT AND DISABILITY FUND

The conference agreement includes $132,600,000 under this heading, as proposed by both the House and the Senate.

INTERNATIONAL ORGANIZATIONS

CONTRIBUTIONS TO INTERNATIONAL ORGANIZATIONS

The conference agreement includes $1,182,000,000 under this heading, instead of $1,194,210,000 as proposed by the House, and $1,020,830,000 as proposed by the Senate.

The conference agreement includes, by reference, language in the House report regarding offset of exchange rate losses, reassessment of U.S. membership in certain international organizations, reform and budget discipline, the Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development, the North Atlantic Treaty Organization, International Atomic Energy Agency, the Pan American Health Organization, and the costs of a direct loan to the United Nations for the cost of renovating its headquarters in New York. The conference agreement includes, by reference, language in the Senate report regarding the International Coffee Organization, the International Copper Study Group, and the International Rubber Study Group.

The conference agreement includes language requiring the Secretary to transmit the most recent biennial budget for the operations of the UN.

The conference agreement includes language, as in fiscal year 2004, providing that funds within the Diplomatic and Consular programs account may be used for a United States Government interagency task force to examine, coordinate, and oversee United States participation in the United Nations headquarters renovation project. The conferees direct the task force to coordinate its efforts with OBO and to consult with senior OBO officials in formulating its recommendations.

The note the role of the UN in fighting diseases, providing humanitarian assistance, fostering conflict resolution, and providing an international forum for world issues. However, the conferees are concerned by recent developments in a number of areas. The conferees note that the United Nations Oil-for-Food program in Iraq is marred by allegations of corruption and that it aided or abetted a tyrannical regime and undermined the international community's good will. Further, the conferees urge the UN to do more to mitigate or resolve the conflicts and humanitarian crises in Sudan, where war has ravaged the country for decades at the cost of millions of lives. Finally, the United Nations' leadership and legitimacy are tarnished by continued failure to bring to justice those individuals involved in improper and illegal activities.

United Nations Oil-For-Food Program.—The conferees direct the Department to bring all necessary resources to bear on the investigation of fraud and bribery allegations regarding the United Nations Oil-For-Food Program. The conferees expect the Department to provide all requested documentation to the U.S. Congress, and to provide any requested support to the Secretary General's Independent Inquiry Committee. The conferees strongly support the Inquiry and expect the Inquiry Committee's review to be thorough, rigorous, and expeditious. The conferees expect the Department to use the voice and vote of the United States to ensure the Inquiry be conducted in this manner.

CONTRIBUTIONS FOR INTERNATIONAL PEACEKEEPING ACTIVITIES

The conference agreement includes a total funding level of $490,000,000 for payments for Contributions for International Peacekeeping Activities, instead of $650,000,000 as proposed by the House, and $574,000,000 as proposed by the Senate. The conferees remain concerned that the United States has voted in the United Nations Security Council to establish five new or expanded peacekeeping missions (Haiti, Burundi, Uheria, Cyprus, and Ivory Coast) without presenting the Committees on Appropriations with a viable plan to meet the current and future costs of such commitments. All but the Cyprus mission were approved by the Security Council and are underway and incurring costs. The Secretary of State testified that in such instances the Administration would request supplemental appropriations to cover these costs. The conferees expect that such a supplemental appropriation request will provide for the full UN peacekeeping assessments.

The conference agreement includes language, as proposed by the Senate, regarding the adjustment of the rate at which the United States pays for the cost of United Nations peacekeeping missions.

The conference agreement includes, by reference, language in the House report regarding UN peacekeeping in the Western Sahara; UN peacekeeping reform; benchmarks for mission performance and termination; UN peacekeeping in the Democratic Republic of the Congo; and the Office of Internal Oversight Services. The conference agreement includes, by reference, language in the Senate report regarding peacekeeping reports. The allocation of funds under this account to specific missions shall be subject to the reprogramming requirements in section 605 of this Act.

The conferees support the work of the Special Court for Sierra Leone, and expect the United Nations Mission in Sierra Leone to provide support, as necessary, to the Court. The conferees urge the Department to work with the Court and other nations to ensure the expeditious prosecution of indicted persons.

INTERNATIONAL COMMISSIONS

INTERNATIONAL BOUNDARY AND WATER COMMISSION, UNITED STATES AND MEXICO

The conference agreement includes a total of $32,554,000 for the International Boundary and Water Commission, United States and Mexico (IBWC). The total amount provided includes $27,244,000 for Salaries and Expenses and $5,310,000 for Construction. The conference agreement includes language authorizing not to exceed $6,000 for representation expenses.

SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The conference agreement for the Salaries and Expenses account includes $27,244,000, instead of $26,800,000 as proposed by the House and $27,689,000 as proposed by the Senate.

The conference agreement includes, by reference, language in the House report regarding the use of surplus operations and maintenance funding through reprogramming.

CONSTRUCTION

The conference agreement includes $5,310,000 in new direct appropriations under this heading, instead of $4,475,000 as proposed by the House and $6,146,000 as proposed by the Senate.

The conference agreement includes $1,750,000 for the Rio Grande Canalization Project and $1,000,000 for the Lower Rio Grande Flood Project/Levee Rehabilitation.

The conferees encourage the IBWC to attempt, if possible, to achieve greater secondary treatment of Mexican sewage within current funding levels under this account. Any plan that assumes a significant increase in appropriations under this heading in future years is not feasible given resource restraints and competing priorities.

Any additional obligations under this heading within the total spending level cited above, including any new project starts, shall be subject to the reprogramming process described in section 605 of this Act.

AMERICAN SECTIONS, INTERNATIONAL COMMISSIONS

The conference agreement includes a total of $9,594,000 under this heading, instead of $9,356,000 as proposed by the House, and $10,546,000 as proposed by the Senate. This amount includes $1,248,000 for the International Boundary Commission; $6,298,000 for the International Joint Commission, including $200,000 for efforts concerning the Red River Basin, and $1,019,000 for the fifth and final year of the water regulation plan governing Lake Ontario and the St. Lawrence River; and $2,049,000 for the Border Environment Cooperation Commission.

INTERNATIONAL FISHERIES COMMISSIONS

The conference agreement includes $21,982,000 under this heading, the same amount as proposed by the Senate, instead of $19,097,000 as proposed by the House. The conference agreement includes $3,000,000 for the Pacific Salmon Commission, $2,100,000 for the Inter-American Tropical Tuna Commission, $1,800,000 for the International Pacific Halibut Commission, $177,000 for the North Pacific Marine Science Organization, and $12,964,000 for the Great Lakes Fishery Commission, of which not less than $845,000 is for lampricide in Lake Champlain. House language regarding Asian Carp is included by reference. The conferees expect the Department to allocate the balance of funds in the conference agreement, and, through the regular reprogramming process, any additional funds that may become available, to priority commissions.

The conferees expect the Department to take immediate action to evaluate and prioritize United States participation in, and funding for, international fisheries commissions. In a climate of limited resources the conferees continue to insist that the Department operate within appropriated amounts, prioritize as necessary among commissions according to policy goals, take steps as necessary to withdraw from lower priority commissions, and refrain from entering into new commitments.

OTHER

PAYMENT TO THE ASIA FOUNDATION

The conference agreement includes $13,000,000 under this heading, the same amount as proposed by the House. No funding was proposed by the Senate.

CENTER FOR MIDDLE EASTERN-WESTERN DIALOGUE

The conference agreement includes $7,000,000 under this heading to be deposited in the International Center for Middle Eastern-Western Dialogue Trust for the perpetual operations of the Center in Istanbul, Turkey. Of the amounts provided $250,000 is for the steering committee, chaired by the Council of American Overseas Research Centers (CAORC), for the operations of the Center.

EISENHOWER EXCHANGE FELLOWSHIP PROGRAM

The conference agreement includes an appropriation for fiscal year 2005 of interest and earnings from the Eisenhower Exchange Fellowship Program Trust Fund, expected to total $500,000. The conference agreement includes, by reference, language in the House report regarding geographical priorities and the selection of fellows.

ISRAELI ARAB SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM

The conference agreement includes an appropriation for fiscal year 2005 of interest and earnings of the Israeli Arab Scholarship Endowment Fund, expected to total $375,000.

EAST-WEST CENTER

The conference agreement includes $19,500,000 under this heading, as proposed by the Senate, instead of $5,000,000 as proposed by the House.

NATIONAL ENDOWMENT FOR DEMOCRACY

The conference agreement includes $60,000,000 for the National Endowment for Democracy (NED), instead of $40,579,000 as proposed by the House and $50,000,000 as proposed by the Senate.

The conferees strongly encourage both the NED and the four core institutes to focus available funding on the Middle East region, continuing work on electoral processes and political party development. The conferees commend the institutes for their contribution to the recent presidential election in Afghanistan and support similar work in future parliamentary elections.

The conference agreement adopts, by reference, House report language reaffirming NED's duty to ensure that all sponsored activities adhere to core NED principles and requiring a report on NED activities in Venezuela.

The conference agreement includes $1,000,000 for a grant to support the creation of the Fern L. Holland Democracy Institute in Africa, as outlined in the House report. The conferees remain concerned that there is a lack of effectiveness and cohesion among the groups advocating for awareness and action on behalf of the victims of human rights abuses and the persecuted. The conferees provide $500,000 to be made available for programs designed specifically to promote basic human rights of ethnic minorities, including their right to maintain and exercise their culture, religion, and language, free from discrimination.

RELATED AGENCY

BROADCASTING BOARD OF GOVERNORS

INTERNATIONAL BROADCASTING OPERATIONS

The conference agreement includes $591,000,000 to carry out United States International Broadcasting Operations for fiscal year 2005, instead of $601,740,000 as proposed by the House and $552,240,000 as proposed by the Senate. The conference agreement includes $64,969,000 for efforts to provide people of Arab and Muslim countries with accurate information about U.S. policies and values. The conferees provided initial start-up costs for a television program stream specifically tailored for the Iraqi audience in Public Law 108-106. The conferees expect the Broadcasting Board of Governors to provide quarterly status reports detailing the efforts to develop quality news and entertainment programs for the Arab and Muslim world.

The conference agreement adopts, by reference, House language regarding broadcasting to Africa, language service reviews and research, and anti-jamming efforts.

The conferees remain concerned about a potential blurring of the distinction between the international broadcasting conducted by the Broadcasting Board of Governors and that conducted by the Defense Department. While the conferees continue to strongly support all necessary efforts to provide for national security, close collaboration with the Defense Department may foster misunderstanding among foreign audiences as to the principles and goals of BBG broadcasting. The BBG shall continue to notify the Committees in writing of any projects or programs to be undertaken with the Defense Department within 7 days of the beginning of such activities. The report should include a description of services provided and any financial arrangements between the entities.

Security of Radio Free Europe/Radio Liberty Headquarters.—During fiscal year 2004, the RFE/RL was directed to work with the Department of State's Bureau of Overseas Buildings Operations to develop a comprehensive site and cost assessment for relocation of the RFE/RL headquarters in Prague, the Czech Republic. The conferees are concerned that RFE/RL has informed the Committees on Appropriations that RFE/RL intends to sign a pre-lease contract. The conferees believe it would be premature for BBG and RFE/RL to proceed without a thorough explanation as to how specific relocation costs, as outlined in the report, will be absorbed in future years. The conferees direct BBG and RFE/RL to compile and submit a strategic funding plan for the intended relocation process no later than February 1, 2005. Until the long-term maintenance cost of a new building has been contemplated and endorsed by the BBG, no additional funds shall be provided to secure a site for relocation. The conferees expect funding decisions on the relocation to occur expeditiously given the expressed concern for the security of employees of RFE/RL.

The conferees direct the BBG to report on Al Hurra's coverage, audience, reception, and public response in the Arabic-speaking world. The report shall include the findings of an independent and validated public opinion poll.

The conference agreement includes language designating $27,629,000 for Broadcasting to Cuba.

The conferees continue to support Radio Free Asia's broadcasting efforts in China, Tibet, Burma, Vietnam, North Korea, Laos, and Cambodia and VOA's efforts in North Korea. The conference agreement includes funding to continue daily Uyghur broadcasts.

The conferees expect the BBG to provide a spending plan to the Committees on Appropriations by no later than April 11, 2005.

BROADCASTING CAPITAL IMPROVEMENTS

The conference agreement includes $8,560,000 for broadcasting capital improvements, as proposed by both the House and Senate.

The conferees expect the Board to keep the Committees on Appropriations informed on the status of its efforts to acquire additional transmission capabilities in the Middle East, including Egypt.

GENERAL PROVISIONS—DEPARTMENT OF STATE AND RELATED AGENCY

The conference agreement includes section 401, permitting the use of funds for allowances, differentials and transportation.

The conference agreement includes section 402 dealing with transfer authority.

The conference agreement includes section 403 prohibiting the use of funds by the Department of State or the Broadcasting Board of Governors to provide certain assistance to the Palestinian Broadcasting Corporation.

The conference agreement includes section 404 clarifying the responsibilities of the Senior Policy Operating Group on Trafficking in Persons. The conferees understand that the Operating Group has been actively meeting and performing its designated functions since enactment of Section 406 of division B of Public Law 108-7. The conferees agree that all anti-trafficking policies, grants and grant policies shall be covered by the provisions of Section 406 of division B of Public Law 108-7. The conference agreement also includes language clarifying that the Senior Policy Operating Group and its chairman are the coordinating body (and official) accountable for Federal anti-trafficking policies, grants and grant policies. The language also makes clear that the coordinating responsibilities of the Operating Group are not intended to supercede the decision making authority of the constituent members of the Task Force to Monitor and Combat Trafficking in Persons, to whom Operating Group members continue to report. The Operating Group is, and was intended to serve as, the forum for interagency coordination of anti-trafficking policies, even as final decisions regarding any such policies are necessarily vested with the President and the senior officials who comprise the Task Force. The conferees agree that the Senior Operating Group and its chair have successfully performed the coordinating functions assigned to them.

The conference agreement includes section 405 concerning the Department's counterterrorism rewards program.

The conference agreement includes section 406 regarding the recording of place of birth on certain passport applications.

The conference agreement includes section 407 requiring the provision of certain information to the Committees on Appropriations.

The conference agreement includes section 408 establishing and describing the functions of the Office of the Coordinator for Reconstruction and Stabilization.

The conference agreement includes section 409 requiring the Secretary of State to review staffing at all overseas posts.

The conference agreement includes section 410 waiving certain authorization requirements.

The conference agreement includes section 411 adjusting the United States assessments for the United Nations Peacekeeping Missions.

The conference agreement includes section 412 updating and conforming the Senior Foreign Service pay system.

The conference agreement includes section 413 clarifying the Department's authority to enter into settlements of claims.

TITLE V—RELATED AGENCIES

ANTITRUST MODERNIZATION COMMISSION

SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The conference agreement includes $1,187,000 for the Antitrust Modernization Commission, instead of $1,200,000 as proposed by the House. The Senate did not fund this Commission.

COMMISSION FOR THE PRESERVATION OF AMERICA'S HERITAGE ABROAD

SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The conference agreement includes $499,000 for the Commission for the Preservation of America's Heritage Abroad as proposed by the House, instead of $491,000 as proposed by the Senate. The conference agreement will allow the Commission to fund its administrative expenses through appropriated funds while relying on other sources of funding for actual purchase and restoration of property.

The conference agreement includes, by reference, language in the House report under this heading.

COMMISSION ON CIVIL RIGHTS

SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The conference agreement includes $9,096,000 for the salaries and expenses of the Commission on Civil Rights, as proposed by both the House and Senate.

The conferees recommend language as included in previous years, which provides: (1) $50,000 to employ consultants; (2) a limitation of four full-time positions under schedule C of the Excepted Service, exclusive of one special assistant for each Commissioner; and (3) a prohibition against reimbursing Commissioners for more than 75 billable days, with the exception of the chairperson, who is permitted 125 billable days.

COMMISSION ON INTERNATIONAL RELIGIOUS FREEDOM

SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The conference agreement includes $3,000,000 for the Commission on International Religious Freedom, as proposed by the House. The Senate did not provide funding for this Commission. The conference agreement includes language providing authority for the Commission to procure temporary services for a study on the right to freedom of religion in North Korea.

The conference agreement includes, by reference, language in the House report under this heading.

COMMISSION ON SECURITY AND COOPERATION IN EUROPE

SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The conference agreement includes $1,831,000 for the Commission on Security and Cooperation in Europe as proposed by the House, instead of $1,598,000 as proposed by the Senate.

The conference agreement includes, by reference, language in the House report under this heading.

CONGRESSIONAL-EXECUTIVE COMMISSION ON THE PEOPLE'S REPUBLIC OF CHINA

SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The conference agreement includes $1,900,000 for the Congressional-Executive Commission on the People's Republic of China as proposed by the House, instead of $1,781,000 as proposed by the Senate. The amount provided includes $100,000 for the Political Prisoner Database as proposed by the House.

The conference agreement includes, by reference, language in the House report under this heading.

EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY COMMISSION

SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The conference agreement includes $331,228,000 for the salaries and expenses of the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) for fiscal year 2005, instead of $334,944,000 as proposed by the House and $327,511,000 as proposed by the Senate.

The conference agreement adopts the House report language regarding the Alternative Dispute Resolution program, litigation support and outreach, and the New Freedom Initiative to remove barriers faced by people with disabilities. The conference agreement includes language regarding staffing levels in the field.

The conference agreement includes language prohibiting the Commission from taking further action to implement workforce repositioning, restructuring, or reorganization unless the Committees on Appropriations have been notified in advance of such proposals, in accordance with the reprogramming procedures under section 605 of this Act. In this regard, the conference agreement includes the House report language regarding a spending plan. The conference agreement also adopts the House report language regarding the submission of quarterly status reports on projected and actual spending levels, by function, for repositioning, and the continued submission of quarterly reports on agency spending and staffing levels.

The conferees again encourage the EEOC to use the experience the Fair Employment Practices Agencies (FEPAs) have in mediation as the Commission continues to expand its Alternative Dispute Resolution programs. The conference agreement also includes language similar to that included in previous Appropriations Acts allowing non-monetary awards to private citizens. Finally, the conference agreement provides up to $2,500 for official reception and representation expenses.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION

SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The conference agreement includes $281,098,000 for the salaries and expenses of the Federal Communications Commission (FCC) for fiscal year 2005, instead of $279,851,000 as proposed by the House and $282,346,000 as proposed by the Senate. Of the amounts provided, $280,098,000 is to be derived from offsetting fee collections, resulting in a net direct appropriation of $1,000,000.

The conference agreement includes, by reference, language in the House report regarding travel payments and public notice requirements for broadcast applications. The conference agreement includes, by reference, language included in the Senate report on broadcast television standards.

The conference agreement allows the FCC to spend up to $85,000,000 to administer the spectrum auctions program. The conference agreement incorporates, by reference, House report language regarding the FCC's accounting system.

The conferees are aware that members of the armed services and their families make extensive use of prepaid phone cards to stay in contact. The FCC is considering subjecting these cards to increased regulation. The conferees direct the FCC not to take any action that would directly or indirectly have the effect of raising the rates charged to military personnel or their families for telephone calls placed using prepaid phone cards.

Within amounts provided for on-going life cycle replacement of technical equipment in fiscal year 2005, the conferees encourage the FCC to follow through on its plan to modernize its Radio Frequency Radiation monitoring equipment by purchasing Selective Radiation Meter (SRM) units and anticipates that future budget requests will address replacement of outdated equipment.

FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION

SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The conference agreement includes $205,430,000 for the Federal Trade Commission (FTC), instead of $203,430,000 as proposed by the House and $207,730,000 as proposed by the Senate. Of the amounts provided, $101,000,000 is derived from Hart-Scott-Rodino premerger filing fees, $21,901,000 is derived from Do-Not-Call fees, and $82,529,000 is derived from discretionary appropriations. The amount provided fully supports the budget request.

The conference agreement adopts by reference the Senate report language concerning the exposure of children to violent entertainment and on the Do-Not-Call program. The conference agreement also adopts by reference the Senate report language requiring a report on illegal pressure tactics applied to American fishermen who oppose mandatory country of origin labeling for seafood.

The conference agreement continues language that was included in the fiscal year 2004 bill regarding enforcement of certain provisions of the Federal Deposit Insurance Act.

HELP COMMISSION

SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The conference agreement includes $1,000,000 for necessary expenses of the Helping to Enhance the Livelihood of People (HELP) Around the Globe Commission.

LEGAL SERVICES CORPORATION
PAYMENT TO THE LEGAL SERVICES CORPORATION

The conference agreement includes $335,282,000 for the payment to the Legal Services Corporation, as proposed by the House, instead of $335,000,000 as proposed by the Senate. The conference agreement includes $1,833,000 to offset funding losses that have resulted from recent census-based reallocations. In addition to the amounts provided through the formula-based field grant program, the conferees direct LSC to distribute the additional $1,833,000 to the ten states that suffered the greatest losses from the census reallocation, in order to restore them to the funding level they would have received under the Senate bill.

ADMINISTRATIVE PROVISION

The conference agreement includes bill language to continue the terms and conditions included under this section in previous Appropriations Acts.

MARINE MAMMAL COMMISSION

SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The conference agreement includes $1,890,000 for the necessary expenses of the Marine Mammal Commission, as proposed by both the House and Senate.

NATIONAL VETERANS BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION

The conference agreement includes $2,000,000 for the National Veterans Business Development Corporation as proposed by the House and the Senate. The conference report includes, by reference, House report language encouraging the Corporation to make its operations self-sustaining.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The conference agreement includes $913,000,000 for the Securities and Exchange Commission, as proposed by the House and Senate.

Staffing.—In fiscal year 2003, the Commission received funding for 840 new positions to protect investors and implement the Sarbanes-Oxley Act. The conferees understand that the Commission has had difficulty hiring accountants and examiners and direct the Commission to continue to work to fill all of the previously funded 840 positions as well as the 106 newly funded positions as quickly as possible and to provide the Committees on Appropriations with quarterly staffing reports. By April 15, 2005, the SEC shall report to the Committees on any proposals, including legislative changes, that may further the SEC's ability to hire to authorized levels and to retain quality employees.

The conference agreement adopts by reference the Senate report language concerning pay parity, enforcement, and information technology. The conference agreement adopts by reference the Senate report language requiring a monthly report to the Senate Appropriations Committee listing the exercise of stock options by corporate officers and directors. The conference agreement includes language requiring a report to the Senate Appropriations Committee justifying the recent rule that directors of mutual funds be independent.

Within 90 days of enactment of this Act, the SEC shall provide a report to the Senate Appropriations Committee analyzing the impact upon individual and institutional investors and competing securities markets of the so-called "trade through" provisions of the proposed SEC Regulation New Market Structure (NMS). In formulating its report, the SEC should examine whether and how the adoption of the "trade through" provisions would affect investors' ability to select the market where their securities trades will be carried out. The report shall also examine the interaction of automated and non-automated orders under Regulation NMS and the impact this would have on individual and institutional investors.

The conferees are pleased that the SEC has recently established an Office of Global Security Risk within the Division of Corporation Finance. The SEC should inform the investment community of the existence and relevance of the new Office through the following actions: (1) announce the establishment of the Office on the SEC website; (2) issue a press release or send a letter to leading U.S. investment community members alerting them to the establishment of the Office; (3) convene a conference to address the various dimensions of global security risk and appropriate ways that the investment community might respond to it; and (4) establish an effective global security risk disclosure process. The conferees expect the SEC to continue to provide quarterly reports on the Office's activities.

SMALL BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

The conference agreement provides a total of $579,516,000 for the five appropriations accounts of the Small Business Administration (SBA). Detailed guidance for the five SBA appropriation accounts is contained in the following paragraphs.

SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The conference agreement includes $322,335,000 for the salaries and expenses account of the SBA instead of $315,362,000 as proposed by the House and $357,684,000 as proposed by the Senate. Of the amount provided under this heading, $186,772,000 is for operating expenses of the SBA. In addition, a total of $134,903,000 from other SBA accounts may be transferred to and merged with the salaries and expenses account resulting in a total availability of $321,675,000. The additional amount consists of $126,653,000 from the Business Loans Program account and $8,250,000 from the Disaster Loans Program account for the administrative expenses related to those accounts.

The conference agreement includes the full amount requested for Low Documentation Processing Centers and the conferees expect the SBA to continue to help small businesses adapt to a paperless procurement environment.

The conferees adopt by reference the House report language concerning the loan monitoring system. The conferees adopt by reference the requirement to provide a report on the e-gov program and the agency's efforts to increase efficiency and improve customer service.

Non-Credit Programs.—The conference agreement includes the following for the non-credit programs of the SBA:

|                                          |            |
|------------------------------------------|------------|
| National Ombudsman .....                 | $500,000  |
| Advocacy Research .....                  | 1,100,000  |
| Veterans Programs .....                  | 750,000    |
| 7(j) Technical Assistance Programs ..... | 1,500,000  |
| Small Business Development Centers ..... | 89,000,000 |
| SCORE .....                              | 5,000,000  |
| Women's Business Centers .....           | 12,500,000 |
| Women's Business Council .....           | 750,000    |
| Native American Outreach .....           | 1,000,000  |
| Drug-free Workplace Program .....        | 1,000,000  |
| Microloan Technical Assistance .....     | 14,000,000 |

PRIME Technical Assistance

|                            |           |
|----------------------------|-----------|
| ance .....                 | 5,000,000 |
| HUBZones .....             | 1,979,000 |
| US Export Assistance ..... | 1,484,000 |

|                                  |             |
|----------------------------------|-------------|
| Total, non-credit programs ..... | 135,563,000 |
|----------------------------------|-------------|

The SBA shall not reduce these non-credit programs to fund operating costs. The conferees adopt by reference the House and Senate report language regarding Native American Outreach. The conferees adopt by reference the Senate report language regarding the Small Disadvantaged Business Program. The conferees adopt by reference the House and Senate report language regarding Small Business Development Centers (SBDCs), including the House direction to work with the manufacturing sector and continue to support the defense transition program at no less than the fiscal year 2004 level. The conferees adopt by reference the Senate report language concerning HUBZones.

Of the amounts provided for the SBDC program, $500,000 shall be available for the South Carolina Women's Business Center (WBC).

The conference agreement includes language allowing WBCs in sustainability status to continue to receive grants and designates 48 percent of the total WBC funding for centers in sustainability status.

OFFICE OF INSPECTOR GENERAL

The conference agreement includes $13,014,000 for the Office of Inspector General of the Small Business Administration as proposed by the Senate instead of $14,500,000 as proposed by the House. The conference agreement includes language allowing $500,000 to be transferred to this account from the Disaster Loans Program for oversight costs related to that program. The conferees adopt by reference the Senate report language regarding reorganization.

SURETY BOND GUARANTEES REVOLVING FUND

The conference agreement includes $2,900,000 under this account, instead of $11,400,000 as provided by the Senate and $9,900,000 as provided by the House.

BUSINESS LOANS PROGRAM ACCOUNT

The conference agreement includes $128,108,000 under this account, consisting of $1,455,000 for subsidies for direct business loans and $126,653,000 for administrative expenses related to business loan programs. The amount provided for administrative expenses may be transferred to and merged with the appropriation for SBA salaries and expenses to cover the common overhead expenses associated with business loans. The conferees agree that, in the event of an economic downturn, the policy of zero subsidy for the 7(a) program shall be revisited.

DISASTER LOANS PROGRAM ACCOUNT

The conference agreement includes $113,159,000 for the Disaster Loans Program Account, instead of $195,887,000 as proposed by the House and $178,909,000 as proposed by the Senate. The conference agreement includes no new budget authority for the subsidy costs of disaster loans but includes $113,159,000 for administrative expenses of the disaster loan program.

Within the $113,159,000 provided for administrative expenses, $500,000 is available for the Office of Inspector General, $104,409,000 is available for direct administrative expenses of loan making and servicing, and $8,250,000 is available to be transferred to the Salaries and Expenses account for indirect costs of the program.

The conferees understand that the emergency appropriations provided in response to natural disasters at the end of fiscal year 2004 may exceed the actual need for loans to affected businesses and individuals. The conferees expect that the surplus of subsidy budget authority from emergency appropriations will be sufficient to cover an average annual loan program level. For this reason, the conference agreement does not provide an additional subsidy appropriation for fiscal year 2005. The conferees expect the SBA to continue to request regular discretionary appropriations to cover an average annual disaster loan program level in future budget requests. The conferees request that the SBA provide a monthly status report on disaster loan activity to the Committees on Appropriations.

By April 15, 2005, the SBA should also provide to the Committees on Appropriations a report describing various methodologies for calculating annual estimates of disaster loan volume. The report should explain the current rolling historical average methodology and also present other reasonable options to determine requirements in light of the recent years of low disaster activity. In addition, the report should include information on various methodologies to project loan volume once a disaster declaration has occurred.

ADMINISTRATIVE PROVISION—SMALL BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

The conference agreement includes bill language allowing transfers between accounts.

STATE JUSTICE INSTITUTE SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The conference agreement provides $2,613,000 for the State Justice Institute (SJI), instead of $2,227,000 as proposed by the House and $3,000,000 as proposed by the Senate. The conference agreement incorporates by reference the House report language regarding the Office of Justice Programs and sources of non-Federal funding.

UNITED STATES-CHINA ECONOMIC AND SECURITY REVIEW COMMISSION SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The conference agreement includes $3,000,000 as proposed by the House for the necessary expenses of the United States-China Economic and Security Review Commission, instead of $2,300,000 as proposed by the Senate. This level includes not more than $5,000 for the purpose of official representation. The conference agreement includes language making funding available until expended, as proposed by the Senate. The conference agreement also includes $1,000,000 for the expansion of the Commission's research programs and enhanced outreach efforts, as proposed by the House.

The conference agreement incorporates, by reference, the Senate report language directing the Commission to conduct certain research and provide a report no later than May 1, 2005.

UNITED STATES INSTITUTE OF PEACE OPERATING EXPENSES

The conference agreement includes $23,000,000 for the United States Institute of Peace. Within the amounts provided, including prior year funding, the Institute may use such funds as necessary for advance architectural work and planning related to a new headquarters facility.

In addition, the conferees direct the Institute to create a task force to study the United Nations' efforts to meet the goals of its charter as signed in June of 1945. This study should address obstacles to achieving such goals, especially the goal of maintaining international peace and security and the promotion of universal respect for and observance of human rights and fundamental freedoms. The conferees are deeply troubled by the inaction of the United Nations on many fronts, especially in regard to the genocide in Darfur, Sudan, and the allegations of corruption regarding the United Nations Oil-For-Food program. The task force should consist of experts from the following public policy forums: American Enterprise Institute, Brookings Institution, Council on Foreign Relations, Center for Strategic and International Studies, Hoover Institution, and Heritage Foundation. The conferees anticipate the task force would not include more than 12 members. The conferees expect the results of the study to be presented to the Committees on Appropriations within 180 days of the enactment of this Act.

UNITED STATES SENATE-CHINA INTERPARLIAMENTARY GROUP SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The conference agreement includes an appropriation of $100,000 for the salaries and expenses of the United States Senate-China Interparliamentary Group as proposed by the Senate. Funding for the Interparliamentary Group was not included in the House bill.

TITLE VI—GENERAL PROVISIONS (INCLUDING RESCISSIONS)

The conference agreement includes the following General Provisions:

Sec. 601. The conference agreement includes section 601 regarding the use of appropriations for publicity and propaganda purposes.

Sec. 602. The conference agreement includes section 602 regarding the availability of appropriations for obligation beyond the current fiscal year.

Sec. 603. The conference agreement includes section 603 regarding the use of funds for consulting purposes.

Sec. 604. The conference agreement includes section 604 providing that should any provision of the Act be held to be invalid, the remainder of the Act would not be affected.

Sec. 605. The conference agreement includes section 605 regarding the policy by which funding available to the agencies funded under this Act may be reprogrammed for other purposes.

Sec. 606. The conference agreement includes section 606 regarding the construction, repair, or modification of National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration vessels in overseas shipyards.

Sec. 607. The conference agreement includes section 607 prohibiting funds in the bill from being used to implement, administer, or enforce any guidelines of the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) similar to proposed guidelines covering harassment based on religion published by the EEOC in October 1993.

Sec. 608. The conference agreement includes section 608 regarding the purchase of American made products.

Sec. 609. The conference agreement includes section 609 prohibiting the use of funds for any United Nations peacekeeping mission that involves U.S. Armed Forces under the command or operational control of a foreign national unless the President certifies that the involvement is in the national security interest.

Sec. 610. The conference agreement includes section 610 that requires agencies to provide quarterly reports to the Committees on Appropriations regarding unobligated balances.

Sec. 611. The conference agreement includes section 611 that prohibits use of funds to expand the U.S. diplomatic presence in Vietnam beyond the level in effect July 11, 1995, unless the President makes a certification that several conditions have been met regarding Vietnam's cooperation with the United States on POW/MIA issues.

Sec. 612. The conference agreement includes section 612 requiring agencies and departments funded in this Act to absorb any necessary costs related to downsizing or consolidation within the amounts provided to the agency or department.

Sec. 613. The conference agreement includes section 613 regarding the sale or export of tobacco or tobacco products.

Sec. 614. The conference agreement includes section 614 extending the prohibition on the use of funds to issue a visa to any alien involved in extrajudicial and political killings in Haiti, including exemption and reporting requirements.

Sec. 615. The conference agreement includes section 615 that prohibits a user fee from being charged for background checks conducted pursuant to the Brady Handgun Control Act of 1993, and prohibits implementation of a background check system which does not require or result in destruction of certain information.

Sec. 616. The conference agreement includes section 616 regarding amounts available under the Crime Victims Fund.

Sec. 617. The conference agreement includes section 617 prohibiting the use of Department of Justice funds for programs that discriminate against, denigrate, or otherwise undermine the religious beliefs of students participating in such programs.

Sec. 618. The conference agreement includes section 618 prohibiting the use of funds appropriated or otherwise made available to the Department of State to process visas for citizens of countries that the Secretary of Homeland Security has determined deny or delay accepting the return of deported citizens.

Sec. 619. The conference agreement includes section 619 providing additional amounts for the Small Business Administration.

Sec. 620. The conference agreement includes section 620 regarding the Small Business Administration Disaster Loans Program.

Sec. 621. The conference agreement includes section 621 regarding transfers of funds.

Sec. 622. The conference agreement includes section 622 regarding the implementation of telecommuting programs.

Sec. 623. The conference agreement includes section 623 regarding the negotiation or reevaluation of international agreements.

Sec. 624. The conference agreement includes section 624 regarding firearms tracing studies.

Sec. 625. The conference agreement includes section 625 regarding international child abduction.

Sec. 626. The conference agreement includes section 626 regarding patents.

Sec. 627. The conference agreement includes section 627 regarding the United Nations.

Sec. 628. The conference agreement includes section 628 that requires the Department of Justice, the Department of Homeland Security, and the Department of State to jointly submit a report.

Sec. 629. The conference agreement includes section 629 regarding Capital Security Cost Sharing.

Sec. 630. The conference agreement includes section 630 regarding Capital Security Cost Sharing.

Sec. 631. The conference agreement includes section 631 requiring that the Secretary of State make a determination on recent events and support the investigation and prosecution of war crimes and crimes against humanity in the Darfur Region of Sudan.

Sec. 632. The conference agreement includes section 632 that prohibits the use of funds to support or justify the use of torture.

Sec. 633. The conference agreement includes section 633 that addresses the Drug Enforcement Administration's diversion control program.

Sec. 634. The conference agreement includes section 634 prohibiting the use of funds to change rules governing the Universal Service Fund.

Sec. 635. The conference agreement includes section 635 concerning certain unobligated balances.

Sec. 636. The conference agreement includes section 636 regarding the National Veterans Business Development Corporation.

Sec. 637. The conference agreement includes section 637 regarding Capital Security Cost Sharing.

Sec. 638. The conference agreement includes section 638 regarding Federal Communications Commission properties.

Sec. 639. The conference agreement includes section 639 prohibiting certain uses of funds.

Sec. 640. The conference agreement includes section 640 regarding amounts provided in this Act.

TITLE VII—RESCISSIONS
DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE
GENERAL ADMINISTRATION
WORKING CAPITAL FUND
(RESCISSION)

The conference agreement includes a rescission of $60,000,000 from unobligated balances in this account. The Senate proposed a $44,000,000 rescission for this account under Title VI.

LEGAL ACTIVITIES
ASSET FORFEITURE FUND
(RESCISSION)

The conference agreement includes a rescission of $61,800,000 from unobligated balances in this account. The Senate proposed a $30,000,000 rescission for this account under Title VI.

JUSTICE ASSISTANCE
(RESCISSION)

The conference agreement includes a rescission of $1,619,000 from this account. These balances result from deobligations of prior year grant funding. Amounts available for the Missing Children's Program, the National White Collar Crime Center and Regional Information Sharing System shall not be rescinded.

STATE AND LOCAL LAW ENFORCEMENT
ASSISTANCE
(RESCISSION)

The conference agreement includes a rescission of $29,380,000 from unobligated balances in this account, instead of $20,000,000 as proposed by the House. These balances result from deobligations of prior year grant funding. Amounts available for Tribal Courts and Indian Prison Construction shall not be rescinded.

COMMUNITY ORIENTED POLICING SERVICES
(RESCISSION)

The conference agreement includes a rescission of $99,000,000 from unobligated balances in this account, instead of $61,000,000 as proposed by the House. These balances result from deobligations of prior year grant funding.

JUVENILE JUSTICE
(RESCISSION)

The conference agreement includes a rescission of $3,500,000 from unobligated balances in this account. These balances result from deobligations of prior year grant funding. Amounts available for Tribal Youth and Alcohol Prevention shall not be rescinded.

DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE
NATIONAL INSTITUTE OF STANDARDS AND TECHNOLOGY
INDUSTRIAL TECHNOLOGY SERVICES
(RESCISSION)

The conference agreement includes a rescission of $3,900,000 from unobligated balances in this account. These balances are prior year Advanced Technology Program funds.

RELATED AGENCIES
FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION
SALARIES AND EXPENSES
(RESCISSION)

The conference agreement includes a rescission of $12,000,000 from unobligated balances under this heading. The conferees agree that this rescission represents an amount available from prior year excess fee collections.

TITLE VIII—PATENT AND TRADEMARK
FEES

The conference agreement includes language regarding patent and trademark fees.

TITLE IX—OCEANS AND HUMAN HEALTH
ACT

The conference agreement includes language regarding the oceans and human health.

CONFERENCE TOTAL—WITH COMPARISONS

The total new budget (obligational) authority for the fiscal year 2005 recommended by the Committee of Conference, with comparisons to the fiscal year 2004 amount, the 2005 budget estimates, and the House and Senate bills for 2005 follow:

DIVISION C—ENERGY AND WATER DEVELOPMENT APPROPRIATIONS ACT, 2005

TITLE I—DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE—
CIVIL

DEPARTMENT OF THE ARMY

CORPS OF ENGINEERS—CIVIL

The summary tables at the end of this title set forth the conference agreement with respect to the individual appropriations, programs and activities of the Corps of Engineers. Additional items of the conference agreement are discussed below. House report 108-554 is presumed to have effect unless contradicted by this statement of the managers.

CONTINUING CONTRACTS AND REPROGRAMMING

Construction of a single water resource project requires tremendous flexibility. Water resource projects are constructed in physically challenging locations. By their nature, these projects involve large mobilization costs and great uncertainties. The Corps of Engineers has been tasked with providing hundreds of water infrastructure projects in challenging locations throughout the country. Historically, the Corps has done an outstanding job of managing these great water resource projects and has provided the water infrastructure that has greatly contributed to our economic security.

The conferees recognize that one of the greatest tools that the Corps of Engineers has for managing its nationwide water resources infrastructure program is the ability to award multiyear continuing contracts. When an agency is managing, literally, hundreds of construction projects throughout the country, problems are inevitable. These can range from flood, to drought, to funding shortfalls, to unanticipated hazardous wastes encountered in the construction site, discovery of unanticipated cultural resources. Any one of these items can bring a project to a temporary halt or slow construction. By the same token, projects can be accelerated due to mild winters or below average flows on a river allowing a longer construction season and more work to be done and more funds to be utilized.

Continuing contracts allow the Corps to award large construction elements of a project to take advantage of the economies of scale available to construction contractors. Allowing these large construction elements to be managed over several years without requiring contracts to be fully funded before construction begins affords the Corps the ability to more efficiently manage multiple construction contracts. Multiyear funding, and the ability to reprogram funds, are tools that have allowed the Corps to maximize scarce resources to try to do as much as possible with the resources available to them; they also left the Corps open to charges that it has put contractors in charge of managing its funds.

The conferees have expressed concerns in the past that Corps of Engineers construction projects may have used the continuing contracts clause and the ability to reprogram funds to award some construction contracts that may not have been fiscally prudent, in light of current budget realities. However, many of these construction contracts were awarded when surplus funds were available allowing reprogramming of funds to make up for budget shortfalls. This process has resulted in most surplus funds being expended, leaving the Corps with very little flexibility to cover the financial obligations of the construction contracts. This has resulted in an increased number of reprogrammings necessary to satisfy as many of the Corps' financial obligations as possible.

The conferees believe that the Corps has made great strides in resolving these financial issues by applying more stringent controls on financial obligations allowed on multiyear contracts and will allow the Corps to continue to resolve this situation. However, the conferees caution the Corps that it must regain control of all aspects of program execution and execute the program appropriated to it. The use of continuing contracts and reprogramming of funds is a privilege afforded by this conference—a privilege that can be revoked. The House and Senate Appropriations Committees will continue to monitor this situation and require the Corps to provide quarterly written updates to the Committees on its efforts to better manage continuing contracts and to award contracts better suited to responsible management.

Due to the increased number of reprogrammings that are being undertaken by the Corps, the conferees believe new guidelines are needed to help monitor reprogramming of funds. The conferees recognize that the increase in reprogrammings is not entirely the fault of the Corps of Engineers. However, reprogramming guidelines have not been examined in many years, and the conferees believe that it would be prudent to reexamine this privilege. Therefore, the conferees are providing the following guidelines:

Reprogramming Authorities.—The conferees require the Corps to inform the Committees promptly and fully when a change in program execution and funding is required during the fiscal year. The following guidance is provided for Corps Civil Works programs and activities funded in the Energy and Water Development Appropriations Act.

Definition.—A reprogramming includes the reallocation of funds from one activity to another within an appropriation, or any significant departure from a program, project, or activity described in the agency's budget justifications presented to and approved by Congress. For construction projects, a reprogramming constitutes the reallocation of funds from one construction project or a significant change in the scope of an approved project.

General Criteria for Reprogramming.—Reprogramming is allowed only within an appropriation, with the exception, as now exists, that Flood Control and Coastal Emergency may be augmented when necessary from other Corps Civil Works appropriations. Reprogramming is allowed into only previously appropriated activities or those identified in a bill as "within available funds." Reprogrammings should not be employed to initiate new programs (unless specifically approved by both House and Senate Appropriations Committees) or to change program, project, or activity allocation in the Act or report. In cases where unforeseen events or conditions are deemed to require such changes, proposals shall be submitted in advance to the House and Senate Appropriations Committees and be fully explained and justified.

REPROGRAMMING GUIDANCE

General Investigations.—Reprogramming a cumulative total of up to 25 percent of the appropriated funding level between studies or programs under this heading without approval of either House of Congress, is permitted. However, the Chief of Engineers shall provide a quarterly report to both House and Senate Appropriations Committees of all reprogrammings in excess of $250,000 but less than $500,000 for individual studies or programs. Approval of both House and Senate Appropriations Committees is required for cumulative reprogrammings in excess of $500,000 for individual studies or programs. Restoration of prior year savings and slippage shall not count toward the cumulative total. The conferees do not object to reprogramming up to $50,000 to any continuing study or program that did not receive an appropriation or where the percentage limit is less than $50,000. All funds used to source reprogrammings described above should be surplus to current year needs for that effort.

Construction General.—Reprogramming a cumulative total of up to 15 percent of the appropriated funding level between projects or programs under this heading without approval of either House of Congress, is permitted. However, the Chief of Engineers shall provide a quarterly report to both House and Senate Appropriations Committees of all reprogrammings in excess of $4,000,000 but less than $7,000,000 for individual projects or programs. Approval of both House and Senate Appropriations Committees is required for cumulative reprogrammings in excess of $7,000,000 for individual projects or programs. Restoration of prior year savings and slippage shall not count toward the cumulative total. The conferees do not object to reprogramming up to $300,000 to any continuing project or program that did not receive an appropriation or where the percentage limit is less than $300,000. All funds used to source reprogrammings described above should be surplus to current year needs for that effort.

Operation and Maintenance.—Unlimited reprogramming authority is granted in order for the Corps to be able to respond to emergencies. The Chief of Engineers must notify the House and Senate Appropriations Committees as soon as practicable of these emergency situations. For all other reprogrammings, a cumulative total of up to 50 percent of the appropriated funding level between projects or programs under this heading without approval of either House of Congress, is permitted. However, the Chief of Engineers shall provide a quarterly report to both House and Senate Appropriations Committees of all reprogrammings in excess of $5,000,000 but less than $10,000,000 for individual projects or programs. Approval of both House and Senate Appropriations Committees is required for cumulative reprogrammings in excess of $10,000,000 for individual projects or programs. Restoration of prior year savings and slippage shall not count toward the cumulative total. The conferees do not object to reprogramming up to $300,000 to any continuing project or program that did not receive an appropriation or where the percentage limit is less than $300,000. All funds used to source reprogrammings described above should be surplus to current year needs for that effort.

Mississippi River and Tributaries.—The Corps should follow the same reprogramming guidelines for the General Investigations, Construction, and Operation and Maintenance portions of the Mississippi River and Tributaries Account as listed above.

GENERAL INVESTIGATIONS

The conference agreement appropriates $144,500,000 for General Investigations.

Floodplain Management Services.—The conferees have provided $6,813,000 for the Floodplain Management Services program, including $776,000 to complete the Geographic Information System for East Baton Rouge, Louisiana; $200,000 for a Blind Brook, City of Rye, New York, hydrological analysis; and $1,000,000 for the Hurricane preparedness Studies for the State of Hawaii and the U.S. Territories in the Pacific and the Caribbean.

Coastal Field Data Collection.—The conference agreement provides $4,875,000 for the Coastal Field Data Collection program. Funds are provided in the amount of $1,000,000 for the Southern California Beach Process Study, not less than $1,000,000 for continuation of the Coastal Data Information Program, and $1,000,000 for the State of Hawaii, the U.S. Territories in the Pacific and Caribbean, and $1,000,000 for the Pacific Island Ocean Typhoon Experiment [PILOT].

Research and Development.—Within the funds provided for the Corps of Engineers Research and Development Program, $2,000,000 is provided for innovative technology demonstrations for urban flooding and channel restoration. These demonstrations shall be conducted in close coordination and cooperation with the Urban Water Research Program of the Desert Research Institute of Nevada. In addition, within the funds provided for the Corps of Engineers Research and Development Program $500,000 is provided to undertake and fund a demonstration project utilizing the Rapid Environmental Decision Support Environment software to fill current technology gaps in the GIS-based approaches with respect to post-natural disaster analysis. The conferees have also included $1,000,000 to continue work in the area of Submerged Aquatic Vegetation or "seagrasses" and restoration efforts in the Chesapeake Bay, Maryland and Virginia.

Upper Trinity River Basin, Texas.—The conference report provides additional funding to proceed with Planning, Engineering and Design and continue preparation and coordination of an Environmental Impact Statement associated with the locally-preferred alternative for the Central City River Segment of the Trinity River Vision Master Plan dated April 2003.

Connecticut River Ecosystem Restoration, Vermont and New Hampshire.—The conference has provided $50,000 to initiate feasibility studies for the West and Ashuelot Rivers.

Other Coordination Programs.—The conferees have provided $4,300,000 for the Other Coordination Programs. Within the funds provided, $500,000 is to continue work associated with the Lake Tahoe Federal Inter-agency Partnership.

Planning Assistance to States.—The amount provided for the Planning Assistance to States Program includes $100,000 for the Arkansas River Corridor Master Plan; $100,000 to continue the Ingham County, Michigan, Geographic Information System Study; $100,000 to finish the Arkansas River Corridor Master Plan, Oklahoma; $100,000 to initiate geotechnical investigations of a proposed damsite near Mangum, Oklahoma; $250,000 to initiate a groundwater study for Greene County, Missouri; $134,000 to complete the Memphis Riverfront Development, Tennessee, study; $200,000 for Central Oahu, Hawaii; $500,000 for Lake Champlain, Vermont; $500,000 for remote sensing in New Mexico; $150,000 for Lake Rogers, North Carolina; and $150,000 to conduct an evaluation of recreation supply and demand in New Castle County, Delaware. Also included is $250,000 to continue a New Jersey Marine Fish Evaluation Study. The Corps of Engineers is urged to consider using the Fisheries Conservation Trust, formerly known as the Save the Fish Foundation, to carry out this investigation. Within funds provided for this program, the Corps is directed to work with the Chagrin River Land Conservancy to develop strategies for preserving, and acquisition of funding for preservation of the properties known as Wilde Fields and Mayer Preserve in Cuyahoga County, Ohio.

The conferees are aware of the potential benefits of incorporating modular plastic belting technology into fish screen devices. Accordingly, the conferees urge the Corps to consider deployment of this technology in the full range of viable fish screen configurations, including submersible traveling screens. Furthermore, the conferees look forward to reviewing the agency's assessment of the technology as compared to other available fish screen devices.

CONSTRUCTION, GENERAL

The conference agreement appropriates $1,796,089,000 for Construction, General.

Red River Below Denison Dam, Arkansas, Louisiana, Oklahoma, and Texas.—The conferees have provided $750,000 for levee rehabilitation in Arkansas and Louisiana.

American River Watershed (Folsom Dam Mini-Raise), California.—Within funds provided for the American River Watershed (Folsom Dam Mini-Raise), California, project, the Corps is directed to continue design of the Folsom Dam replacement road and permanent bridge to assure their completion at the earliest possible date consistent with the pace of the Mini-Raise project as a whole.

The conferees include language directing the Corps of Engineers to expend its full capability, up to $5,000,000, to advance the permanent bridge to replace Folsom Bridge Dam Road, Folsom, California, as authorized by the Energy and Water Development Appropriations Act, 2004 (P.L. 108-137) with all remaining funds devoted to the Mini-Raise. The conferees are aware of reports that there have been attempts to place obstacles in the way of this work, and insist that it be allowed to proceed, unimpeded.

Florida Keys Water Quality Improvements, Florida.—The conferees have provided $2,250,000 for the implementation of wastewater and stormwater improvements and believe these efforts should be carried out in coordination with the ongoing Everglades restoration work.

Olmsted Locks and Dam, Ohio River, Illinois & Kentucky.—None of the funds provided for the Olmsted Locks and Dam Project are to be used to reimburse the Claims and Judgment Fund.

J. Bennett Johnston Waterway, Louisiana.—The conferees have provided $13,000,000 for construction of navigation channel refinement features, land purchases and development for mitigation of project impacts, and construction of project recreation features and appurtenant features.

Chesapeake Bay Environmental Restoration and Protection Program, Maryland and Virginia.—The conference recommendation includes $1,500,000 for this project. Within the funds provided, $400,000 is provided to continue environmental studies of non-native oysters.

The conferees expect the Corps, in conducting the Environmental Impact Statement [EIS] for introducing non-native oyster species into the Chesapeake Bay, to consider all alternatives, including restoration of native oyster species. The conferees also expect that the EIS will address the research gaps identified in the National Research Council report titled "Non-native Oysters in the Chesapeake Bay" and the Chesapeake Bay Program Scientific and Technical Advisory Committee report on the same subject.

Rural Montana, Montana.—The conferees have provided $2,000,000 for the Rural Montana project. Within the funds provided the Corps is directed to give consideration to projects at Belgrade, Manhattan, Livingston, Butte, Helena, and Drummond, Montana. Other communities that meet the program criteria should be considered as funding allows.

Rural Nevada, Nevada.—The conferees have provided $20,000,000 for the Rural Nevada project. Within the funds provided the Corps is directed to give consideration to projects at Boulder City, Lyon County (Carson River Regional Water System), Gerlach, Incline Village, Lawton-Verdi, Esmeralda County, Churchill County, West Wendover, Searchlight, Yerington, Virgin Valley Water District, Lovelock, Carson City, Hemenway Valley Wastewater treatment and Huffaker Hills Reservoir Water Conservation Nevada. Other communities that meet the program criteria should be considered as funding allows.

Tropicana and Flamingo Washes, Nevada.—The conferees have provided $24,000,000 to continue construction of this flood control project. The conference recommendation includes $3,000,000 for work performed in accordance with Section 211 of Public Law 104-303.

Central New Mexico, New Mexico.—The conference has included $5,000,000 for this project which includes funding to continue the Black Mesa project begun in fiscal year 2004.

Middle Rio Grande Flood Protection, New Mexico.—The conferees have included $300,000 to continue the Belen, Mountainview, and Isleta General Reevaluation Report.

Fire Island Inlet to Montauk Point, New York.—The conferees have included additional funding for the continuation of the reformulation study.

Ohio Environmental Infrastructure, Ohio.—The bill contains $22,000,000 for the Ohio Environmental Infrastructure program authorized by section 594 of the Water Resources Development Act of 1999. The amount provided includes: $15,000 for the Jackson County water line project; $100,000 for the Morgan County, Bishopville, water project; $475,000 for the Morgan County, McConnellsville, storm water project; $1,000,000 for the Muskingum County, Zanesville, wastewater treatment facility; $25,000 for the Vinton County, Arbaugh/Hope water line extension; $350,000 for the Buckeye Lake, water line project; $500,000 for the Hancock County, Village of Janera, wastewater collection system; $1,000,000 for the Village of West Jefferson, water treatment facility; $1,000,000 for the City of Louisville, protection for wastewater treatment plant; $2,000,000 for the Stark County, Zimmer Ditch project; $500,000 for the Noble County, sewer system; $500,000 for the Youngstown, Orchard Meadow Combined Sewer Overflow project; $500,000 for the Lake County, Concord Township sanitary sewer line improvement; $100,000 for the Lake County, Perry Township, Shepard Road waterline extension; $900,000 for the Lake County, Village of Perry, Sanitary sewer system; $1,000,000 for the Toledo Combined Sewer Overflow project; $1,000,000 for the Tech Town Dayton Technology Campus water and sewer project; $2,500,000 for the University of Dayton, Brown and Stewart water and sewer project; $640,000 for the Clinton County, Clinton Massie School District sewer project; $1,500,000 for the Springfield Applied Research and Technology Park water and sewer project; $700,000 for the Clark County Southwest Regional Waste Water Treatment Plant expansion; $500,000 for Clark County, Village of Donnelsville sewer system project; $1,350,000 for the Fayette County, Village of Bloomingberg, Waste Water Treatment Plant; $100,000 for the Pickaway County, Harrison and Madison Township water and sewer project; $150,000 for the Village of Corning water and sewer project; $1,880,000 for the Scioto County, Minford Wastewater Treatment Facility; and $250,000 for the City of Dayton, Northeast Quadrant water and sewer infrastructure.

Columbia River Treaty Fishing Sites, Oregon and Washington.—The conferees have included $700,000 for facilities at White Salmon, WA.

Elk Creek Lake, Oregon.—Funds provided in this Act and funds previously appropriated for the Elk Creek Lake, Oregon, project are available to plan and implement long-term management measures at the project to maintain the project in an uncompleted state, including design and construction of a permanent trap-and-haul facility to replace the existing, interim facility. Funds may not be used for any further work on the Corps of Engineers proposal to remove a section of the dam for fish passage.

Cheyenne River Sioux Tribe, Lower Brule Sioux, South Dakota.—The conference notes that Title IV of the Water Resources Development Act of 1999, as amended, authorizes funding to pay administrative expenses, implementation of terrestrial wildlife plans, activities associated with land transferred or to be transferred, and annual expenses for operating recreational areas. The conferees have included $5,750,000 for this effort. Within the funds provided, the conference directs that not more than $1,000,000 shall be provided for administrative expenses, and that the Corps is to distribute the remaining funds as directed by Title IV to the State of South Dakota, the Cheyenne River Sioux Tribe and the Lower Brule Sioux Tribe.

Rural Utah, Utah.—The conference has provided $1,000,000 for this project and encourages the Corps to proceed with those projects which are eligible and are prepared to move forward.

Columbia River Fish Mitigation, Avian Predation, Columbia/Snake River Basin, Washington, Oregon, and Idaho.—The conferees are aware of the need to investigate the effect of avian predation on the survival of listed salmon and steelhead in the Columbia/Snake River Basin and directs the Secretary to provide up to $750,000, as needed, from the Columbia River Fish Mitigation project for this purpose. The conference expects the Corps of Engineers to coordinate with the Secretary of Commerce and the Secretary of the Interior to develop an implementation plan and initiate actions to reduce avian predation where such actions are determined to be biologically and cost effective.

Aquatic Plant Control Program.—The conferees have included $4,500,000 for the Aquatic Plant Control program's base research and development activities. In an effort to maximize limited funding for eradication and harvesting, the conference strongly recommends that these efforts be undertaken only where a local sponsor agrees to provide 50 percent of the cost of the work. Within the funds provided, $300,000 is for a cost shared effort with the State of South Carolina and $400,000 is for a cost shared effort with the State of Vermont and $100,000 is for the control of aquatic nuisance vegetation in the Potomac and Tributaries, Virginia, Maryland, and District of Columbia. The conference urges the Corps to establish a cost shared program with the State of Hawaii.

Beneficial Uses of Dredged Material.—The conference recommendation includes $6,000,000. Within the funds provided $3,000,000 is for Morehead City Harbor, NC.

Dam Safety and Seepage/Stability Correction Program.—The conference recommendation includes $10,500,000 for the program. Within the funds provided, $3,000,000 is provided for the Corps to complete work on Waterbury Dam in Vermont.

Shoreline Erosion Control and Development and Demonstration.—The conference recommendation includes $7,000,000. Within the funds provided $400,000 is provided for Sacred Falls, Hawaii.

Continuing Authorities Program (CAP).—The conference departs from its usual practice in the presentation of CAP projects chosen for funding. In previous conference reports, CAP funding for individual projects was presented in an unstructured text form. For fiscal year 2005, in order to increase uniformity and simplify use of the report, CAP funding will be shown in a table, with information limited to identification of the CAP authority under which the project is authorized, the name of the project, and the amount of funding provided.

The conferees are aware that many projects selected for funding under the Continuing Authorities Program have not received any funds due to overwhelming demand and limited funding authority within the Continuing Authorities Program. The conference directs that such projects should receive priority consideration for any available such funds, in fiscal 2005, and in the future.

The continuing project authorities listed below, allow the Corps great flexibility to respond to various, limited-scope, water resource problems facing communities throughout the Nation. This program has proven to be remarkably successful in providing a quick response to serious local problems. These problems range from flood control and navigation to bank stabilization and environmental restoration. The conferees have provided funds in excess of the budget request for virtually all of these accounts. As a general rule, once a project has received funds for the initial phases of any of these authorities, the project will continue to be funded as long as it proves to be environmentally sound, technically feasible, and economically justified, as applicable. With this in mind, the conference has chosen to limit explicit direction of these project authorities.

The conferees are aware that there are funding requirements for ongoing, continuing authorities projects that may not be accommodated within the funds provided for each program. It is not the conference's intent that ongoing projects be terminated. If additional funds are needed to keep ongoing work in any program on schedule, the conference urges the Corps to reprogram the necessary funds.

Small Flood Control Projects (Section 205).—Funding for the Zimmer Ditch, Stark County, Ohio project is now provided under the Ohio Environmental Infrastructure program. The conference is informed that $700,000 in funding was provided for Butler Lake, Illinois, in fiscal year 2004, most of which has not been expended, and directs that, if true, the Corps of Engineers utilize funding provided to initiate construction on an expedited basis.

Tribal Partnership Program.—The conferees acknowledge the serious impacts of coastal erosion and flooding due to continued climate change in Alaska. The conference expects the Corps to continue its work in this area and has included a total of $4,000,000, of which $2,000,000 is to combat erosion in Alaska.

A field hearing was held in Anchorage, Alaska on June 29 and 30, 2004, on the impacts of severe erosion and flooding on Alaska Native villages.

There is no Federal or State agency to coordinate and assist these communities in the relocation or in the interim provide preventative measures to slow the effects of the erosion and flooding. The conference finds there is a need for an Alaska erosion baseline study to coordinate and plan the appropriate responses and assistance for Alaska villages in the most need and to provide an overall assessment on the priority of which villages should receive assistance. Therefore, the conference has provided the $2,000,000 for this study.

In addition, the conferees have also included $150,000 for Idaho; $150,000 for Nevada to initiate cultural resource restoration on historic Washoe lands; and $150,000 for New Mexico to further the tribal assistance efforts by the Corps in these States.

MISSISSIPPI RIVER AND TRIBUTARIES

Atchafalaya Basin, Louisiana.—The conference has included $1,253,000 for the continued levee enlargement construction work.

Yazoo Basin, Mississippi, Yazoo Backwater Project (Pumping plant and Nonstructural Features), Mississippi.—The conference has provided $12,000,000 and directive legislative language to maintain the schedule to complete the design, to initiate the pump supply contract, and to continue the real estate activities.

OPERATION AND MAINTENANCE

Mobile Harbor, Alabama.—The conferees have included an additional $1,000,000 to continue the Garrows Bend environmental restoration.

Tennessee—Tombigbee Waterway, Alabama & Mississippi.—The conference has included an additional $650,000 to perform additional maintenance dredging. Of the funds provided, up to $300,000 may be used for aquatic plant control activities.

Anchorage Harbor, Alaska.—The conferees have included an additional $2,000,000 for maintenance dredging of the harbor.

Chena River Lakes, Alaska.—The conferees have included an additional $775,000 for the additional deferred maintenance work of the Chena River Lakes project.

Nome Harbor, Alaska.—The conference has included an additional $1,000,000 for additional maintenance dredging of the harbor.

Cherry Creek, Chatfield, and Trinidad Lakes, Colorado.—The conferees have included an additional $1,549,000 for continued repairs at these three lakes. This action in no way is intended to alter the Corps of Engineers' lease and property accountability policies. It is the conference's understanding that the State of Colorado has agreed to cost share this project on a 50-50 basis. It is also the understanding of the conferees that the Secretary is not to assume, nor share in the future of the operation and maintenance of these recreation facilities. Of the funds provided, the Corps is directed to conduct a reallocation study for Chatfield Reservoir project.

Intracoastal Waterway, Delaware River to Chesapeake Bay, Delaware and Maryland.—The conference recommendation includes $14,400,000 for this project. Within the funds provided, $500,000 is included for maintenance costs of the SR-1 Bridge and $100,000 for plans and specifications for the Summit Bridge approaches.

Apalachicola, Chattahoochee and Flint Rivers, Georgia, Alabama, and Florida.—The conference has included an additional $5,231,000, which includes annual dredging of the river channel, annual operations and maintenance of the George W. Andrews Lock, spot dredging of shoals, continuation of slough mouth restoration, and routine operations and maintenance of the project.

Dworshak Dam and Reservoir, Idaho.—The conferees have included an additional $500,000 for site improvements and environmental compliance efforts.

Snake River Dredging, Idaho, Oregon, and Washington.—The conferees have recommended $250,000 for dredging completion of the Programmatic Dredged Material Management Plan/Supplemental Environmental Impact Statement and for maintenance dredging on the Snake River.

Ohio River Locks and Dams, Kentucky, Illinois, Indiana, and Ohio.—Within the funds provided, the Corps of Engineers is directed to utilize up to $2,500,000 in cooperation with Operation Respond, a non-profit organization, to implement a demonstration project collecting and integrating imagery of a selected segment of the Ohio Basin, gathering data from Federal and non-Federal interests, developing and testing software primarily for the use of emergency responders, and for stabilization measures for the Emery Lane bank failure at Indianapolis, Indiana.

Wolf Creek Dam, Lake Cumberland, Kentucky.—Additional funding includes $500,000 for parking improvements at Lee's Ford Marina, as well as additional funding for powerhouse-related repairs.

Mississippi River Between Missouri River and Minneapolis (MVR Portion), Illinois.—The conference recommendation includes $43,473,000. Within the funds provided, $1,000,000 is for continuation of the rehab of Lock and Dam 11.

Delaware River, Philadelphia to the Sea, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, and Delaware.—The conferees have included an additional $1,450,000 for completion of the Pea Patch Island project.

Council Grove Lake, Kansas.—The conference has included additional funding for the repair and upgrade of public use facilities.

Wilson Lake, Kansas.—The conference has provided additional funding for the Corps to conduct a reallocation study.

Barren River Lake, Kentucky.—The conferees have provided additional funding for the repair and upgrade of public use facilities.

J. Bennett Johnston Waterway, Louisiana.—The conference has included additional funding for bank stabilization repairs, dredging entrances to oxbow lakes, routine operation and maintenance activities, annual dredging requirements, and backlog maintenance.

Fort Peck Dam, Montana.—The conferees have included additional funds to complete the on-going construction work related to the site.

Cochiti Lake, New Mexico.—The conferees have provided additional funds for the continuation of studies that were initiated in fiscal year 2004, which include the proposed operational changes and gate automation and to begin the relocation of the Al Black area.

Garrison Dam and Lake Sakakawea, North Dakota.—The conference has provided additional funds for mosquito control and for deferred maintenance activities. The conference is aware that low lake levels on Lake Sakakawea, North Dakota have made the current marina located at Fort Stevenson unusable and expects the Army Corps to use funds within this account to relocate this marina to Garrison Bay.

Norfolk Harbor, Craney Island, Virginia.—The conference has provided additional funds in order to raise the containment dikes to provide the capacity needed for the Norfolk Harbor Deepening project.

Connecticut River Flood Control Dams, Vermont.—$250,000 has been provided for fish passage facilities at these projects.

Columbia & Lower Willamette River Below Vancouver, Washington and Portland, Oregon.—The conference recommendation includes $250,000 for the Astoria Boat Basin.

Regional Sediment Management Demonstration Program.—The conferees have provided $2,500,000 for this program. Within the funds provided, $500,000 is for the southeast coast of Oahu, Hawaii and $1,000,000 is for the Littoral Drift Restoration Program, Washington.

FORMERLY UTILIZED SITES REMEDIAL ACTION PROGRAM (FUSRAP)

The conferees provide $165,000,000 for the Formerly Utilized Sites Remedial Action Program (FUSRAP). The additional funds are to be used to accelerate cleanup of existing FUSRAP sites and to address potential new sites that may qualify as eligible FUSRAP sites, such as the former Sylvania nuclear fuel site located in Hicksville, New York.

OFFICE OF THE ASSISTANT SECRETARY OF THE ARMY (CIVIL WORKS)

The conferees provide $4,000,000 for the salaries and expenses of the Office of the Assistant Secretary of the Army (Civil Works). This office had previously been funded under the Operation and Maintenance, Army, appropriation.

TITLE II—DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIORCENTRAL UTAH PROJECT COMPLETION ACCOUNT

The conference agreement includes $48,009,000 for fiscal year 2005 to carry out the provisions of the Central Utah Project Completion Act. An appropriation of $30,806,000 has been provided for Central Utah project construction; $15,469,000 for fish, wildlife, and recreation, mitigation and conservation. The conference recommendation provides $1,734,000 for program administration and oversight.

BUREAU OF RECLAMATION

WATER AND RELATED RESOURCES

An appropriation of $859,481,000 is provided by the conferees for Water and Related Resources.

BUILDING AND SITE SECURITY

Security Costs and Allocations.—Following the attacks on September 11, 2001, the Bureau of Reclamation strengthened security at Federal dams and similar facilities and has undertaken but not completed extensive risk assessments for over 400 units throughout the West. Many of these are multi-purpose facilities providing flood control, water storage for contract irrigators, municipal and industrial water supplies, power generation, recreation and environmental mitigation benefits. The conference understands that beginning in fiscal year 2005, Reclamation will no longer make a distinction between pre-September 11, 2001, security costs and post-September 11, 2001, security costs. The conference recognizes that the security posture of Reclamation will likely not approach pre-September 11, 2001, levels for many years, if ever. The conference recognizes that project beneficiaries benefit from this enhanced security. However, the conference remains concerned about the reimbursability of increased security costs for Reclamation projects. Therefore, Reclamation shall provide a report to the conference, no later than, May 1, 2005, with a breakout of planned reimbursable and non-reimbursable security costs by project, by region. The conference directs the Commissioner not to begin the reimbursement process until the Congress provides direct instruction to do so.

Within the funds provided for the Central Valley Project, Colorado Front Work and Levee System, AZ. The conference has included additional funds to continue activities for water management reservoirs to be constructed along the All American Canal.

Central Valley Project.—A total of $7,500,000 has been provided under various divisions of the Central Valley Project in support of the California Bay-Delta Restoration. A description of the activities for which funds have been added follows.

CENTRAL VALLEY PROJECT

ENVIRONMENTAL WATER ACCOUNT

Miscellaneous Project Programs.—$1,000,000 is provided to acquire water and groundwater storage.

PLANNING AND MANAGEMENT ACTIVITIES

Delta Division Oversight.—$500,000 is provided to continue coordination, administration, planning, performance tracking and science activities in coordination with CALFED Program Implementation Plan.

STORAGE

Delta Division.—$1,000,000 is provided for Reclamation to continue participating in planning and study activities associated with enlarging Los Vaqueros reservoir.

Sacramento River Division.—$1,000,000 is provided to continue planning and study activities for Sites reservoir.

Shasta Division.—$1,000,000 is provided to continue evaluating the potential impacts of the proposed Shasta raise.

CONVEYANCE

Delta Division.—$1,000,000 is provided for the Tracy Test Fish facility.

Miscellaneous Project Programs.—$1,000,000 is provided for the continuation of feasibility levels studies and technical assistance to the State of California; $1,000,000 for the Bureau for the administration of storage, conveyance, water use efficiency, ecosystem restoration, science and water transfer.

Central Valley Project, Friant Division, California.—The conferees have provided an additional $1,000,000 for the Bureau of Reclamation to continue the Upper San Joaquin River Basin Storage investigation.

Middle Rio Grande Project, New Mexico.—The conferees are pleased with the increased progress of on-the-ground activities resulting from implementation of the Executive Committee of the Endangered Species Collaborative program. Of the total $6,150,000 provided for this effort, the Bureau of Reclamation is to fund the following activities: $2,000,000 for habitat restoration; $275,000 for water and minnow management improvement; $2,000,000 for water acquisition; $500,000 for science and monitoring; $750,000 for biological opinion monitoring; and $625,000 for program management. Prior to obligation of funds, the Bureau is to submit the funding levels for each category, accompanied by a detailed spending plan, to the House and Senate Appropriations Committees for approval. The Bureau will also submit to the Committees, concurrent with the President's funding request to Congress, a detailed spending plan for the 2006 fiscal year. The cost-share requirements for this program remain 75 percent Federal/25 percent non-Federal. Within the funds provided, the Bureau is directed to begin work on the models for the Silvery Minnow sanctuary.

Middle Rio Grande Project, Middle Rio Grande Levees, New Mexico.—The conference has provided an additional $5,000,000 for the continued repair of the Middle Rio Grande levees, on which work began in fiscal year 2003.

San Juan River Basin Investigations Program, New Mexico.—The conference has included additional funds for the Commissioner to begin the evaluation and initial work regarding the San Juan Chama, New Mexico, title transfer.

Oklahoma Investigations Project, Oklahoma.—The conferees have provided additional funds for the Bureau of Reclamation to continue studying ways to improve management of the Arbuckle-Simpson aquifer.

Klamath Project, Oregon and California.—The conferees recommend additional funds for the Klamath Project water bank program. From within available funds, the conferees direct that up to $1,000,000 be used for water quality multi-probe and flow measurement instrumentation.

Mni Wiconi Project, South Dakota.—The conference agreement provides $25,282,000 for this project. Within the funds provided, up to $160,000 may be used to replace water trucks for the Oglala Sioux Tribe. Reclamation and its tribal partners are cautioned that these water trucks should only be used for supplying water on a temporary short term critical need basis to areas that are part of the authorized Mni Wiconi project but are not yet served by the project. As more of the project is completed, the conference expects this water hauling operation to diminish. The Rosebud Sioux Rural Water System is authorized to utilize funds provided for the operation and maintenance of the Mni Wiconi Rural Water Project to contract with the town of White River to deliver water to tribal members located in White River, SD.

Washington State Investigations Program, Washington.—The conference has included additional funds for studies of the West Canal reach through Ephrata and for appraisal of the Odessa Subaquifer.

Departmental Irrigation Drainage Program.—The conferees have included additional funds for the Uncompahgre, Colorado selenium project.

Drought Emergency Assistance Program.—The conferees have provided additional funds for drought assistance and urge the agency to provide full and fair consideration of the request for drought assistance from the State of Hawaii. The conferees are aware of the impacts of the significant drought which has lasted several years in the West, and has provided $50,000 for drought assistance in an effort to mitigate some effects of the drought. Of the total funds provided, $250,000 is for Espanola, New Mexico and $200,000 is for Chimayo, New Mexico.

Water 2025.—The dire drought the West is currently experiencing, combined with an unprecedented number of water users and endangered species and related requirements, make water use efficiencies more critical than ever. The conference has provided $19,500,000 for this initiative proposed by the administration. The reduction does not reflect the conference's strong support for this effort. The initiative is an effort to enhance efficiency and performance in water and power delivery. Ultimately, the conference believes that the initiative, if successfully carried out, will result in enhanced efficiency in the operation of Reclamation programs and projects. Of the funds provided $2,000,000 is for the Desert Research Institute to address water quality and environmental issues in ways that will bring industry and regulators to mutually acceptable answers. The conference believes that the water resource and efficiency issues, combined with the drought and endangered species listings, make the Rio Grande River in New Mexico the embodiment of the Water 2025 initiative. Therefore, the conference has included $1,750,000 to provide for continued efficiency and water improvements related to the Middle Rio Grande Conservancy district, including a system evaluation, siphons, flow measurement gages, gates and the automation of diversions.

In addition, the conference has included $1,000,000 for work related to the Aamodt water rights settlement efforts.

The conference strongly encourages the Bureau to consider providing funding to the Rural Water Technology Alliance to implement low-cost remote sensing technologies and water conservation technologies in the West. The conferees have also provided additional funds for the Bureau of Reclamation to continue its successful alliance with the International Center for Water Resources Management at Central State University in Ohio, the Ohio View Consortium, and Colorado State University, for the development of advanced remote sensing technologies for use in operational decisionmaking to deal with the current drought conditions and with future constraining events. The conferees are also aware of the serious water shortage issues in Central Texas. There is significant potential to address these issues if salinity problems in the Lake Whitney watershed could be ameliorated. The Bureau is encouraged to work with local and State officials as well as researchers at Baylor University to address these problems.

Science and Technology, Desalination Research and Development Program.—The conferees have provided additional funds for desalination efforts for research and development of new, advanced technologies to create new additional water supplies using desalination and related technologies. The Commissioner is directed to assess the potential use of advanced water treatment technologies as a resource to create new net water supplies and to evaluate project benefits, economic values and environmental effects. Further, the Commissioner should identify resource needs that can be met through these technologies and inter-party transfers, and to identify obstacles to be overcome (physical, financial, institutional, and regulatory). In using the funds provided, the Bureau shall pay particular attention to research and development of shallow well pretreatment, brine disposal and recycling, micro-filtration and ultra-filtration, and water conditioning. Further, the conference continues to urge the Bureau of Reclamation to place a higher priority on desalination activities in future budgets given the importance of sustainable water supplies to the West and to other regions of the country. Of the funds provided, $3,500,000 is for the continuation of the project in Tularosa, New Mexico. The conference notes that, with regard to the Tularosa Basin National Desalination Research Center, section 7 of the Water Desalination Act of 1996 does not apply to the project because it is a joint Federal effort.

The conference has also included $3,000,000 in additional funding for the Water Reuse Foundation. These funds shall be available to support the Foundation's research priorities.

Wetlands Development.—The conferees have provided $500,000 for the Bureau of Reclamation to continue work on the East Wetlands Restoration project in Yuma, Arizona.

Title XVI, Water Reclamation and Reuse Program.—The conference agreement provides $1,655,000 for the Title XVI Water Reclamation and Reuse Program. Of this, $125,000 is provided for the Bureau to work with the Mission Springs, California, Water District to evaluate further the possibilities of using recycled water for groundwater recharge or other non-potable uses.

Water Management and Conservation Program.—Within the funds provided, the conferees direct that $700,000 be used to continue urban water conservation programs within the service area of the Metropolitan Water District of Southern California and $200,000 for the Bureau to continue a cost shared, industrial recirculation water efficiency effort related to recirculating water use by industries in Southern California to conserve water.

CENTRAL VALLEY PROJECT RESTORATION FUND

The conference agreement provides $54,695,000 for the Central Valley Project Restoration Fund.

POLICY AND ADMINISTRATION

The conference agreement provides $58,153,000 for general administrative expenses. The conferees expect the Bureau of Reclamation to continue to observe under-financing guidance provided in the fiscal year 2004 Energy and Water Appropriations Act.

TITLE III—DEPARTMENT OF ENERGY

The summary tables at the end of this title set forth the conference agreement with respect to the individual appropriations, programs, and activities of the Department of Energy. Additional items of conference agreement are discussed below.

CONGRESSIONAL DIRECTION

The conferees support the House language requiring the Secretary to submit to the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations, Subcommittee on Energy and Water Development, a quarterly report on the status of all projects, reports, fund transfers, and other actions directed in the House bill and report for the Energy and Water Development Appropriations Act for Fiscal Year 2005, and in this conference agreement.

FIVE-YEAR BUDGET PLANNING

The conferees agree with the House language regarding five-year budget planning.

NON-NNSA WORK AT NNSA FACILITIES

Within 90 days of enactment, the conferees direct the Secretary, working with the Administrator of the National Nuclear Security Administration (NNSA), to put in place written procedures for work taskings originating from non-NNSA program offices in DOE to NNSA laboratories that are consistent with the constraints of Section 3213 of Public Law 106-65, as subsequently modified by Section 3157 of Public Law 106-398, and follow the chain of command (i.e., through the Secretary of Energy and the Administrator of the NNSA to the NNSA field elements) that is clearly specified in those statutes.

LABORATORY DIRECTED RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT (LDRD)

The conferees recognize the value of conducting discretionary research at DOE's national laboratories. Such research provides valuable benefits to the Department and to other Federal agencies, and is useful for attracting and retaining scientific talent.

However, the conferees continue to have serious reservations about the financial execution of this program, specifically with how the Department's laboratories levy the LDRD "tax" on work being performed for other agencies (Work for Others). The conferees agree with the concerns detailed in the House report dealing with LDRD and work for others. Beginning with the enactment of this appropriation, DOE shall not advance funds for LDRD based upon work for others, but only provide the LDRD funds to the labs once the Department has received the fund transfers from other agencies to pay for the work.

REPROGRAMMING GUIDELINES

The conferees require the Department to inform the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations promptly and fully when a change in program execution or funding is required during the fiscal year. A reprogramming includes the reallocation of funds from one activity to another within an appropriation, or any significant departure from a program, project, or activity described in the agency's budget justification as presented to and approved by Congress. For construction projects, a reprogramming constitutes the reallocation of funds from one construction project identified in the justifications to another project or a significant change in the scope of an approved project.

A reprogramming should be made only when an unforeseen situation arises, and then only if delay of the project or the activity until the next appropriations year would result in a detrimental impact to an agency program or priority. The Department should not submit reprogrammings in the fourth quarter of the fiscal year unless necessitated by an unforeseeable change in external circumstances. Reprogrammings may also be considered if the Department can show that significant cost savings can accrue by increasing funding for an activity. Mere convenience or desire should not be factors for consideration.

Reprogrammings should not be employed to initiate new programs or to change program, project, or activity allocations specifically denied, limited, or increased by Congress in the Act or report. In cases where unforeseen events or conditions are deemed to require such changes, proposals shall be submitted in advance to the Committees and be fully explained and justified.

The conferees have not provided statutory language to define the reprogramming guidelines, but do expect the Department to follow the spirit and the letter of the guidance provided in this report. The Committees have not provided the Department with any internal reprogramming flexibility in fiscal year 2005, unless specifically identified in the House or conference reports. Any reallocation of new or prior year budget authority or prior year deobligations must be submitted to the Committees in writing and may not be implemented prior to approval by the Committees on Appropriations.

REDUCTIONS NECESSARY TO ACCOMMODATE SPECIFIC PROGRAM DIRECTIONS

The Department is directed to provide a report to the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations by March 30, 2005, on the actual application of any general reductions of funding or applications of prior year balances contained in this conference agreement. Such reductions are to be applied proportionately against each program, project, or activity. If necessary, the Department must submit a reprogramming to reallocate funds if the proportional reduction unduly impacts a specific program, project, or activity.

SMALL BUSINESS PROCUREMENTS

The conferees are concerned that the Department of Energy's current efforts at breaking out procurement requirements for small business contracts do not represent a systematic approach for consideration of small business statutory goals together with other legitimate acquisition objectives. The conference report includes statutory language (General Provisions 312 and 313) requiring the Department to undertake such a systematic approach by utilizing the appropriate consultative process set forth in the Federal Acquisition Regulation.

ENERGY SUPPLY

The conference agreement provides $946,272,000 for Energy Supply.

RENEWABLE ENERGY RESOURCES

The conference agreement provides $389,063,000 for renewable energy resources. As in fiscal year 2004, funds for renewable energy resources shall remain available until expended. The conferees provide $5,000,000 for the National Center on Energy Management and Building Technologies and direct that this project shall be subject to the cost sharing requirements of a research project rather than a demonstration project.

Biomass/biofuels.—The conference agreement includes $82,147,000 for biomass and bio-refinery systems research and development. The conference agreement includes $500,000 for the Oxydiesel demonstration program in California and Nevada; $500,000 for a bio-refinery at the Louisiana State University Agricultural Center; $500,000 for the ThermoEnergy research project at the University of Nevada-Reno; $500,000 for the Vermont Biomass Energy Center; $500,000 for the Vermont Biofuels Initiative; $500,000 for the National Ag-Based Industrial Lubricants Center at the University of Northern Iowa;

$500,000 for the Chariton Valley Biomass Project; $250,000 for the Eastern Nevada Landscape Coalition for biomass restoration and science-based restoration; $250,000 for the City of Wells, Nevada, Recycling for Energy Conservation Project; $1,000,000 for the Center for Biomass Utilization at the University of North Dakota; $500,000 for the Livingston Parish Alternative Fuel Plant Construction; $3,000,000 for the Consortium for Plant Biotechnology Research (CPBR); $200,000 for the Alaska Wood Biomass project; $3,000,000 for the Mississippi Technology Alliance Alternative Energy Enterprise Program; $1,500,000 for the Mississippi State University Biodiesel from Feedstocks project; $2,000,000 for the Kentucky Rural Energy Supply program; $1,500,000 to the South-Eastern and North-Central Regional Sun Grant Centers for purposes as authorized in H.R. 2673, the Consolidated Appropriations Act, 2004, which amended Title IX of the Farm Security and Rural Investment Act of 2002, for research, extension, and educational programs on biobased energy technologies and products; $500,000 for the Purdue-Midwest Consortium for Sustainable Biofuels; $1,000,000 for the Texas A&M Renewable Energy from Animal Biowaste project; $1,500,000 for the Biotech-to-Ethanol Project; $2,000,000 for the National Biofuel Energy Laboratory; $1,000,000 for the Research Triangle Biomass project in North Carolina; $2,000,000 for sugar-based ethanol biorefinery at Louisiana State University; $200,000 for the SUNY-Morrisville anaerobic digester project; $3,000,000 through NREL for demonstration for a small-scale biomass system (BioMax); $1,000,000 for research on anaerobic digestion by the Ohio Agricultural Research Development Center in cooperation with the City of Wooster. The conference agreement provides $500,000 for alternative fuel source study in Alabama, $1,500,000 is provided for a bio-refinery and hydrogen fuel cell research in Georgia.

The conferees believe that the Regional Biomass Energy Program (RBEP) has been a successful partnership and provide $4,000,000 for product development and State and Regional partnership activities.

Geothermal.—The conference agreement includes $25,800,000 for geothermal activities, the same as the budget request. Geopowering the West is funded at current year levels. The Department is directed to maintain funding for university research at the fiscal year 2004 funding level. The conference agreement includes $500,000 for the Full Circle Project in Lake County, California; $1,000,000 for geothermal research at the University of Nevada-Reno; $500,000 for the Tuscarora Geothermal Project; $300,000 for the Klamath and Lake Counties Geothermal-Agricultural Industrial Park in Oregon; $750,000 for the Geothermal Mill Redevelopment project in Massachusetts; and $196,000 for the University of Texas Permian Basin Center for Energy and Economic Diversification for geothermal research.

Hydrogen.—The conference agreement includes $95,325,000 for hydrogen activities. No funds are provided for the proposed effort on hydrogen education as these efforts are premature. The conference agreement includes $2,000,000 for the Fuel Cell Mine Loader and Prototype Locomotive; $1,000,000 for the Hawaii Hydrogen Center for Development and Deployment of Distributed Energy Systems; $5,000,000 for the University of Nevada-Las Vegas renewable hydrogen fueling station system; $3,000,000 for the University of Nevada-Las Vegas for hydrogen storage and fuel cells; $100,000 for the Zero Emission Bus Demonstration Program Evaluation; $1,000,000 for the hydrogen fuel cell project for the Regional Transportation Commission of Washoe County, Nevada; $1,100,000 for the Ohio Distributed Hydrogen Project; $2,000,000 for the Hydrogen Regional Infrastructure Program; $2,000,000 for the University of South Carolina Clean Energy Research program; $1,000,000 for the University of Toledo/Bowling Green Fuel Cell Research project; $5,000,000 for the California Hydrogen Infrastructure Project, including $1,000,000 for validation efforts within the Lake Tahoe basin; $500,000 for Startech plasma conversion technology; $3,000,000 for fuel cell research at the University of South Florida; $3,000,000 for the Edison Materials Technology Center to develop improved materials to support the hydrogen economy; and $2,000,000 for the Florida Hydrogen Initiative; $5,000,000 should be used to support a competitive solicitation for solid oxide fuel cell research under a cost-shared program to look at the application of solid oxide electrochemical technology for co-production of hydrogen and electricity and also for storage of electricity through closed and open system regenerative fuel cells.

The conferees strongly support the FreedomCar and Hydrogen Fuel initiatives.

Hydropower.—The conference agreement provides $5,000,000 for hydropower. As directed previously, the Department should focus its efforts on completing a limited program of testing and demonstration of new turbine technologies and then transfer these technologies to other Federal agencies and private sector firms for deployment. The proposed increase for advanced hydropower technology should be funded by the agencies that own and operate the Federal hydropower facilities, not by the Department of Energy.

Solar Energy.—The conference agreement includes $86,533,000 for solar energy programs. As in prior fiscal years, the conferees have combined the concentrating solar power, photovoltaic energy systems, and solar building technology subprograms into a single program for solar energy, with the control level at the solar energy program account level. The Southeast and Southwest photovoltaic stations are to be funded at current year levels and the conferees direct the Department to continue to support the public-private Million Solar Roofs program. The conferees include $6,000,000 from within available funds for concentrating solar power. The conference agreement includes $200,000 for Photovoltaic panels for the Mark Twain House and Museum; $750,000 for the Solar Technology Center at the University of Nevada-Las Vegas; $1,500,000 for Photonics Research and Development at the University of Nevada-Las Vegas; $4,500,000 for the evaluation of solar-powered thermo-chemical production of hydrogen for the University of Nevada-Las Vegas; $400,000 for the University of Louisville Sustainable Buildings project; $1,500,000 for the Conductive Coatings for Solar Cells project; and $250,000 for the Town of Yucca Valley solar energy project (CA).

Wind.—The conference agreement includes $41,600,000 for wind programs. The conference agreement includes $500,000 for the North Dakota Hydrogen Wind Pilot Project; $500,000 for the Great Plains Wind Energy Transmission Development Project; $1,500,000 for the Alaska Wind Energy project; $500,000 for the Renewable Energy for Rural Economic Development Program, Utah State University (UT); $500,000 for the Iowa Lakes Community College wind turbine project; and $525,000 for the St. Francis University (PA) wind farm project.

Intergovernmental Activities.—The conference agreement includes $17,000,000 for renewable support and implementation. This amount includes $6,500,000 for the international renewable energy program, including $2,000,000 for the International Utility Electricity Partnership (IUEP), $5,500,000 for tribal energy, and $5,000,000 for the Renewable Energy Production Incentive (REPI). The conference agreement includes $1,000,000 for the Pyramid Lake Paiute Tribe Renewable Energy Park; $1,000,000 for the Council of Renewable Energy Resource Tribes (CERT); and $600,000 for the Clean Energy Technology Exports (CETE) initiative. The funds for CETE are provided to the Office of International Energy Market Development in the Department of Energy to carry out a program in support of the multi-Agency Clean Energy Technology Exports Initiative.

Renewable Support and Implementation.—The conference agreement provides $4,967,000, including $1,967,000 for departmental energy management and $3,000,000 to continue the efforts of the National Renewable Energy Laboratory (NREL) to develop renewable energy resources uniquely suited to the Southwestern United States through its virtual site office in Nevada.

National Climate Change Technology Initiative.—The conferees provide no funds for this initiative.

Facilities and Infrastructure.—The conference agreement provides the requested amount of $4,800,000 for the National Renewable Energy Laboratory (NREL) and includes an additional $6,680,000 for construction of the new Science and Technology facility at NREL (project 02-E-001).

Program Direction.—The conference agreement includes $19,211,000 for program direction.

ELECTRICITY TRANSMISSION AND DISTRIBUTION

The conference agreement provides $121,155,000 for Electricity Transmission and Distribution. The conference agreement includes $5,000,000 to accelerate the operation of the national SCADA testbed at the Idaho National Laboratory. The conferees provide $5,500,000 for the GridWorks initiative and $6,500,000 for the GridWise initiative, which includes an additional $1,500,000 in GridWise for the Northwest Regional Demonstration project. The conference agreement includes: $750,000 for the Electric Utility Transmission and Distribution Line Engineering Project; $325,000 for the Pacific Northwest Bi-National Regional Energy Planning Initiative (AK); $3,000,000 for the Western Environmental Technology Office; $2,000,000 for the University of Missouri at Rolla electric transmission program; $1,000,000 for the Smart Energy Management Control Systems project in Alabama; $1,500,000 for the Northwest Indiana Electric Infrastructure project; $1,500,000 for the University of Notre Dame for research on ionic fluids for power distribution; $1,500,000 for the Center for Grid Modernization (PA); $1,000,000 for the Large Scale Energy Center in Michigan; $750,000 for research on advanced ceramic engines and materials for energy applications; $1,000,000 for the National Center for Reliable Electric Power Transmission to develop high power silicon-carbide based power electronics systems (AR); $2,000,000 to continue development of the bi-polar Ni-Mh wafer cell battery storage system; $1,500,000 for the Iowa Stored Energy Plant using an underground aquifer; $2,000,000 for research, development, and demonstration of advanced thermal energy storage technology integrated with renewable thermal energy technology; $5,000,000 for a Florida state-wide university research initiative on electric power infrastructure and security; $3,000,000 for research into lead carbon acid asymmetric supercapacitors; and $400,000 for Dine Power in New Mexico. The conference agreement provides $500,000 for alternative fuel source study in Alabama.

The conference agreement includes $10,500,000 for the National Energy Technology Laboratory (NETL) for energy assurance technology and electric grid modeling activities, including $3,000,000 for program direction, travel, and other related direct and indirect expenses. An additional $5,000,000 shall be for NETL to continue the planning, design, and construction of an energy information training facility at Camp Dawson. An additional $4,000,000 shall be available to continue physical improvements at the facility.

The conferees agree that the Office of Energy Assurance should be closed and that the functions of that office should be merged with the functions of the Office of Electricity Transmission and Distribution.

NUCLEAR ENERGY

The conference agreement provides a total of $513,271,000 for Nuclear Energy. The Office of Nuclear Energy, Science and Technology is the lead office with landlord responsibilities for the Idaho site. Because this site provides considerable support to defense activities and naval nuclear reactors, $114,347,000 of costs are allocated to other defense activities and $10,000,000 is allocated to Naval Reactors. Both programs are in the 050 budget function.

The conferees commend the State of South Carolina for recently creating one of the first new graduate nuclear engineering programs in the last 20 years. The conferees provide $1,500,000 from available funds to support this effort. The conferees also support the efforts of the University of Nevada-Las Vegas to launch a graduate nuclear engineering program and instruct the Department to support this worthy effort.

University reactor fuel assistance and support.—The conference agreement includes $24,000,000.

Research and development.—The conference agreement provides $172,000,000 for nuclear energy research and development activities. The conference agreement includes $2,500,000 for nuclear energy plant optimization (NEPO) to address the affects of aging on material in nuclear plants, $2,500,000 for the nuclear energy research initiative (NERI), $50,000,000 for Nuclear Power 2010, $40,000,000 for the Generation IV nuclear energy systems initiative, $9,000,000 for the nuclear hydrogen initiative, and $68,000,000 for the Advanced Fuel Cycle Initiative (AFCI). These NERI funds are in addition to funds included in the request for other nuclear research and development items.

For Nuclear Power 2010, the conferees direct the Department to focus the resources on the demonstration of the regulatory licensing processes of 10 CFR Part 52 for early site permits, design certifications, and combined construction and operating licenses. This is to be cost-shared with industrial and governmental entities.

Within the funding for Generation IV, the conferees direct that $25,000,000 be used for the Next Generation Nuclear Plant (NGNP) project. The conferees expect the Department to submit a budget in fiscal year 2006 that is consistent with the goal of demonstrating hydrogen production and electricity generation by 2015 at the Idaho National Laboratory.

Within the Nuclear Hydrogen Initiative, the conferees provide $4,000,000 to the UNLV Research Foundation to continue research and development of high temperature heat exchangers and chemical processing equipment to permit demonstration of nuclear-powered production of hydrogen from water.

Within the Advanced Fuel Cycle Initiative, the conferees direct $7,000,000 to the UNLV Research Foundation for continued research; of this amount, $3,000,000 is provided for collaborative studies of "deep burn" fuel cycles in advanced nuclear reactor designs. Also within available funds, $3,000,000 is provided for the Idaho Accelerator Center and $7,000,000 is provided to develop a Nuclear Energy Materials Test Station at the Los Alamos Neutron Science Center to advance the technology needed to support the materials and fuel experiments required by the Advanced Fuel Cycle and for the exploration of Generation IV fast neutron spectrum systems.

Radiological Facilities Management.—The Office of Nuclear Energy, Science and Technology operates a variety of facilities and equipment to support the needs of space, defense, and medical customers who obtain radiological materials from the Department of Energy on a reimbursable basis. The conference agreement provides $69,110,000 for this work.

Space and defense power systems infrastructure.—The conference agreement includes $33,800,000 to maintain the infrastructure necessary to support future national security needs and National Aeronautics and Space Administration missions.

Medical isotopes infrastructure.—The conference agreement includes $21,194,000 for the medical isotope program and $13,616,000 for construction of facility modifications for U-233 disposition at Oak Ridge National Laboratory.

Idaho Facilities Management.—The conference agreement provides $121,527,000 for Idaho National Laboratory operations and infrastructure. This funding covers activities previously funded separately in budget lines for ANL-West and INEEL. The conference agreement provides the requested amount of $1,523,000 for project 99-E-200, at the Test Reactor Area. Within available funds, $10,000,000 is provided for capital improvements and operational upgrades to the Advanced Test Reactor. Of these funds, $8,000,000 is designated for capital improvements, including the ATR Gas Loop and $2,000,000 is provided for operational systems and upgrades. The conferees provide $5,000,000 for critical infrastructure upgrades at Argonne National Laboratory-West.

Idaho Sitewide Safeguards and Security.—The conference agreement provides $58,103,000 for Idaho sitewide safeguards and security.

Spent Nuclear Fuel Management.—The conferees direct the Office of Nuclear Energy, Science and Technology to assume the responsibilities that were proposed for transfer to the Office of Civilian Radioactive Waste Management. The conference recommendation provides the requested amount of funding, $6,723,000. Within available funds, $1,500,000 is provided to inspect and repack the spent fuel stored at the Lynchburg Technology Center in Virginia.

Program direction.—The conference agreement includes $60,285,000 for program direction.

ENVIRONMENT, SAFETY, AND HEALTH (NON-DEFENSE)

The conference agreement provides $28,000,000 for non-defense environment, safety and health activities, which includes $20,000,000 for program direction. The conference agreement includes the transfer of $700,000 to the Occupational Health and Safety Administration (OSHA) for the costs of OSHA regulation of worker health and safety at DOE's non-nuclear facilities not covered under the Atomic Energy Act.

OFFICE OF LEGACY MANAGEMENT (NON-DEFENSE)

The conference agreement provides $31,130,000 for the Office of Legacy Management, the same as the budget request.

NON-DEFENSE SITE ACCELERATION COMPLETION

The conference agreement provides $151,850,000 for Non-Defense Site Acceleration.

2006 Accelerated Completions.—The conference agreement provides $45,435,000, the same as the budget request.

2012 Accelerated Completions.—The conference agreement provides $98,191,000, the same as the budget request.

2035 Accelerated Completions.—The conference agreement provides $8,224,000 for 2035 Accelerated Completions. The Conferees' recommendation includes the requested $7,773,000 to accelerate remediation of the former Atlas Mill Site in Moab, Utah.

NON-DEFENSE ENVIRONMENTAL SERVICES

The conference agreement provides $291,296,000 for non-defense environmental services.

Community and regulatory support.—The conference agreement provides $90,000, the same as the budget request.

Environmental cleanup projects.—The conference agreement provides $46,083,000, the same as the budget request.

Non-closure environmental activities.—The conference agreement provides $245,123,000, the same as the budget request. The conferees provide $100,000,000 for the Depleted Uranium Hexafluoride Conversion Project, Paducah, Kentucky and Portsmouth, Ohio (project 02-U-101), including an additional $7,400,000 to ensure that conversion and disposition of the accumulated DUF6 is carried out as soon as is safely possible.

URANIUM ENRICHMENT DECONTAMINATION AND DECOMMISSIONING FUND

The conference agreement provides $499,007,000 for activities funded from the Uranium Enrichment Decontamination and Decommissioning Fund.

The Conferees' recommendation provides a total of $112,178,000 for activities related to the Paducah Gaseous Diffusion Plant. The Conferees provide $19,421,000 in additional funds to accelerate characterization and disposal of legacy waste stored at the plant, including 50,000 tons of scrap metal and 41,000 drums of low-level waste at the Paducah Gaseous Diffusion Plant. The conferees provide $80,000,000 for uranium and thorium reimbursements.

The Conferees reiterate the fiscal year 2004 conference guidance regarding the barter arrangement.

SCIENCE

The Science account funds the Department's work on high energy physics, nuclear physics, biological and environmental sciences, basic energy sciences, advanced scientific computing, maintenance of the laboratories' physical infrastructure, fusion energy sciences, safeguards and security, science workforce development, and science program direction. The conference agreement provides $3,628,902,000. The conferees encourage the Department to request sufficient funds for the Office of Science in fiscal year 2006 to operate user facilities for as much time as possible, to enhance user support, and to upgrade essential equipment at the Department's Science user facilities.

The conferees reiterate their support for broader participation by universities in DOE's research programs, including existing user facilities and potential new user facilities. The conferees are aware of the Office of Science's strategy for future facilities. Where existing facilities provide capabilities critical to a new user facility, co-location is appropriate; where this is not the case, the location of new user facilities should be openly competed. Regardless of location, broad participation in design by staff from national laboratories, user faculty from colleges, universities, and industrial investigators and groups should be sought. All of these user groups must have access to these capabilities on a competitive basis.

High energy physics.—The conference agreement provides $741,629,000 for high energy physics research. The control level is at the High Energy Physics level. The conferees encourage the Department to proceed with the Dark Energy Mission even if the primary science of the mission and mission development must be pursued by the Department so as to avoid schedule delays resulting from implementing the mission jointly with NASA. International cooperation and appropriate launch arrangements should be pursued where appropriate. The conferees recognize that an excellent and energized science team has been assembled for this exciting mission. Within available funds, the conferees redirect $5,000,000 from the Science Laboratories Infrastructure construction funds at the Stanford Linear Accelerator Center MEL-001 Subproject 36 to the High Energy Physics account for the research program at SLAC.

Nuclear physics.—The conference agreement provides $408,040,000 for nuclear physics. An additional $5,000,000 is provided to continue research and development and initiate concept design activities for the Rare Isotope Accelerator, and an additional $7,000,000 is provided to increase utilization of the user facilities in the Nuclear Physics program.

Biological and environmental research.—The conference agreement includes $576,590,000 for biological and environmental research. The conference agreement provides an additional $10,000,000 to initiate Project Engineering and Design for the proposed new facility for the production and characterization of proteins and molecular tags. The Conferees do not agree with the Department's strategy of restricting competition for such a facility to only the DOE national laboratories. The Department should present in the fiscal year 2006 budget request an alternate procurement strategy for this and future Genomes to Life (GTL) facilities that will maximize rather than limit competition and will allow universities and other entities to compete with DOE national laboratories for these new GTL facilities. The Department is encouraged to consult with NASA, which for decades has conducted competitions for the development of research instrumentation among universities, NASA, DOE, and other government laboratories, and other entities including for-profit corporations.

The conference agreement includes $2,000,000 for a science building at Waubesa Community College in Illinois; $1,000,000 for digital playback hardware and software for Recording for the blind and dyslexic; $600,000 for All Children's Hospital in Florida; $300,000 for Eckerd College in Florida; $2,000,000 for Applied Research and Technology Park electrical and communication infrastructure improvements in Springfield, Ohio; $250,000 for a Multiple Sclerosis, Alzheimer's, Parkinson's, Lou Gehrig's Imaging System at the Cleveland Clinic in Ohio; $125,000 for Duchenne Muscular Dystrophy research-related equipment at Children's National Medical Center in the District of Columbia; $125,000 for Duchenne Muscular Dystrophy research-related equipment at the University of Washington-Seattle; $500,000 for the Northeast Regional Cancer Center in Scranton, Pennsylvania; $250,000 for Ohio State University for environmental research in cooperation with Earth University; $125,000 for the University of Akron, Ohio, Polymer Center; $125,000 for the Ohio Northern University, Ada, Ohio, Science and Pharmacy Building; $250,000 for the Alabama A&M University; $600,000 for University of Texas at Arlington optical medical imaging equipment; $1,000,000 for the Missouri Alternative and Renewable Energy Technology Center, Crowder College; $600,000 for the San Antonio, Texas, Cancer Research and Therapy Center; $250,000 for the University of South Alabama Cancer Center; $1,250,000 for the Virginia Commonwealth University Massey Cancer Center; $250,000 for the Saint Francis Hospital, Delaware, Cardiac Catheterization Lab; $450,000 for the Jacksonville University Environmental Science Center; $600,000 for the Houston, Texas, Alliance for Nanohealth; $250,000 for the Virginia Science Museum; $1,000,000 for the Polly Ryon Memorial Hospital, Texas; $250,000 for the St. Thomas University Minority Science Center, Miami, Florida; $500,000 for Project Intellicare, Roseville, California; $250,000 for the Virginia Polytechnic Institute Center for High-Performance Learning Environment; $500,000 for Georgia State University; $700,000 for the Michigan Research Institute for life science research; $700,000 for the University of Arizona Environment and Natural Resources Phase II Facility; $250,000 for the Children's Hospital of Illinois ambulatory care project; $700,000 for the Loma Linda University, California, Medical Center synchrotron expansion; $250,000 for the University of Dubuque, Iowa, Environmental Science Center; $250,000 for the Ball State University, Indiana, Bioenergetics Research Initiative; $600,000 for the Clearfield Area School District, Pennsylvania, Energy Initiative; $500,000 for Digital Cardiology equipment at Children's Hospital and Research Center, Oakland, California; $750,000 for the National Childhood Cancer Foundation; $250,000 for the Roswell Park Cancer Institute, New York, Center for Genetics and Pharmacology; $250,000 for Bucknell University, Pennsylvania, Materials Science Laboratory; $1,000,000 for the Science Center at Mystic Seaport, Connecticut; $250,000 for the Saratoga Hospital, New York, radiation therapy center; $600,000 for the San Joaquin Community Hospital, Bakersfield, California; $700,000 for the Syracuse University, New York, Environmental Systems Center; $600,000 for the University of Tennessee Sim Center; and $250,000 for the St. Mary's Hospital, Kankakee, Illinois.

The conference agreement includes $575,000 for the Derby Center for Science and Mathematics at Lyon College in Arkansas; $1,000,000 for the Rush Presbyterian St. Lukes Medical Center in Illinois; $1,000,000 for Medical Research and Robotics at the University of Southern California; $750,000 for the Advanced Building Efficiency Testbed at Carnegie Mellon University; $1,000,000 for DePaul University Biological Sciences; $500,000 for the Philadelphia Educational Advancement Alliance; $750,000 for Northwestern University Institute of Bioengineering and Nanoscience in Medicine; $500,000 for the Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute Center for Bioscience; $750,000 for St. Peter's Biotechnical Research in New Jersey; $160,000 for the Berkshire Environmental Center in Massachusetts; $500,000 for the Center for the Environment at the University of Massachusetts; $1,000,000 for technical upgrades at St. Joseph Hospital in Arizona; $515,000 for the Center for Science at the University of San Francisco in California; $1,000,000 for Augsburg College in Minnesota; $1,000,000 for the Bronx Community Center for Sustainable Energy; $500,000 for Marquette General Hospital in Marquette, Michigan; $1,500,000 for the Illinois Indiana Super-Grid Program connecting Argonne National Laboratory and Purdue and Notre Dame Universities; $1,000,000 for the Purdue Calumet Water Environmental Institute; $1,000,000 for the Multi-Discipline Engineering Institute at Notre Dame in Indiana; and $1,000,000 for the Energy Efficiency Project at Valparaiso University in Indiana.

The conference agreement provides $11,000,000 for the Mental Illness and Neuroscience Discovery Institute in New Mexico; $1,800,000 for Military Spirit in New Mexico; $2,000,000 for the Academic Center Sustainable Design Project at St. Francis College, New York; $3,000,000 for the University of Louisville Pediatric Clinical Proteomic Center; $2,000,000 for the University of Louisville Institute for Advanced Materials; $2,000,000 for the Advanced Bioreactor located in Butte, Montana; $1,200,000 to expand the Center for Integrated and Applied Environmental Toxicology at the University of Southern Maine; $500,000 for the University of Tennessee Cancer Institute; and $500,000 for St. Jude Children's Research Hospital in Tennessee.

The conference agreement includes $250,000 for the Huntsman Cancer Institute; $500,000 for the Mega-Voltage Cargo Imaging Development Applications for the Nevada Test Site; $500,000 for the California Hospital Medical Center PET/CT Fusion Imaging System; $500,000 for the Luci Curci Cancer Center Linear Accelerator; $500,000 for Project Intellicare in California; $750,000 for the University Medical Center in Las Vegas, Nevada; $500,000 for the Southern California Water Education Center; $500,000 for Live Cell Molecular Imaging System at the University of Connecticut; $500,000 for the St. Francis Hospital Wilmington, Delaware, MRI and Cardiac Catheterization Laboratory; $500,000 for the University of Delaware for the Delaware Biology Institute; $500,000 for the University of Nevada-Las Vegas School of Public Health; $250,000 for the Latino Development and Technology Center; $250,000 for the Swedish American Health Systems; $250,000 for DePaul University Chemistry Lab Renovation Project; $250,000 for the Edward Hospital Cancer Center; $500,000 for the Mary Bird Perkins Cancer Center; $500,000 for the Morgan State University Center for Environmental Toxicology; $500,000 for the Suburban Hospital in Montgomery County, Maryland; $500,000 for the University of Massachusetts at Boston Multidisciplinary Research Facility and Library; $500,000 for the Martha's Vineyard Hospital; $750,000 for the Nevada Cancer Institute; $500,000 for the Mercy Hospital Grayling, Michigan Rural Healthcare Advancement Initiative; $750,000 for the Health Sciences Complex at Creighton University; $500,000 for the Hackensack University Medical Center Women and Children's Pavilion; $500,000 for the Kennedy Health System Linear Accelerator; $750,000 for the University of Buffalo Center of Excellence in Bioinformatics; $500,000 for the Hospital for Special Surgery National Center for Musculoskeletal Research; $500,000 for the New University in New York City; $500,000 for the Radiochemistry research facility at the University of Nevada-Las Vegas; $250,000 for the Hauptman-Woodward Medical Research Institute; $1,000,000 for the Vermont Institute of Natural Science; and $750,000 for the Tahoe Center for Environmental Services.

Molecular Medicine.—The conferees continue to support research that brings together PET imaging, systems biology and nanotechnology to develop new molecular imaging probes. These probes should provide a biological diagnosis of disease that is informative of the molecular basis of disease and specific for guiding the development of new molecular therapies.

The conferees are concerned about consequence mitigation activities and public health impacts associated with the threat of any radiological event and strongly encourage the Department to develop therapeutic radiological countermeasures to protect against exposure to the effects of ionizing radiation. The conferees are aware of the potential of inositol radiation and encourages the Department to support research of this emerging technology. The conferees recommend that the Department fund medical therapy research and other treatment options to protect the public health against radiation exposure.

The conferees strongly support the Department's efforts to maintain the scientific infrastructure of the Nation's structural biology assets, and encourage the Department to work to address the needs within the broader community. The Department should continue to work constructively with the non-profit entity operating the X4A and X4C beamlines to fund state-of-the-art detectors, goniometers, and automated sample changing equipment, using available funds.

Basic energy sciences.—The conference agreement includes $1,113,530,000 for Basic Energy Sciences. The conference agreement includes $628,228,000 for materials sciences and engineering research, and $253,422,000 for chemical sciences, geosciences, and energy biosciences. For purposes of reprogramming during fiscal year 2005, the Department may allocate funding among all operating accounts within Basic Energy Sciences. The conference agreement also provides the request of $7,673,000 for the Experimental Program to Stimulate Competitive Research (EPSCoR).

Advanced scientific computing research.—The conference agreement includes $234,340,000 for advanced scientific computing research (ASCR), an increase of $30,000,000 over the budget request, with not more than $25,000,000 devoted to hardware. The conferees support the House Report language on ASCR.

Science laboratories infrastructure.—The conference agreement provides $42,336,000 for science laboratories infrastructure, including an additional $5,000,000 to correct safety deficiencies at Science laboratories, and $6,100,000 additional for excess facilities disposal.

The conference agreement provides the requested amounts of $1,766,000 for infrastructure support, $5,079,000 for Oak Ridge land-lord costs, and $24,391,000 for construction of various infrastructure projects (MEL-001). Of this increase, $5,000,000 additional is provided to continue infrastructure subproject 18 under MEL-001 to support continuing activities at the Pacific Northwest National Laboratory to replace the infrastructure being displaced by the closure of the 300 Area at the Hanford site.

Fusion energy sciences.—The conference agreement includes $276,110,000 for fusion energy sciences, an increase of $12,000,000 over the budget request. The additional $12,000,000 is to be used to increase the utilization of existing large and small experiments; further work in inertial fusion technology; take advantage of opportunities in High Energy Density Physics, including research on fast ignition, and large-scale scientific computing; and provide for cost-effective construction and development of the National Compact Stellarator Experiment. The conference notes the delay in site selection for the International Thermonuclear Experimental Reactor (ITER) and directs the Department to reduce its planned expenditures on ITER in fiscal year 2005 in consideration of this delay.

Safeguards and security.—The conference agreement includes $73,315,000 for safeguards and security activities at laboratories and facilities managed by the Office of Science.

Science workforce development.—The conference agreement provides the requested amount of $7,660,000 for science workforce development. The conferees encourage the Department to provide funds and technical expertise for high school students to participate in the For Inspiration and Recognition of Science and Technology (FIRST) robotics competition.

Science program direction.—The conference agreement includes $155,268,000 for science program direction. This amount includes $89,341,000 for field offices and $65,927,000 for headquarters. The control level for fiscal year 2005 is at the program account level of Science Program Direction.

Funding adjustments.—The conference agreement includes an offset of $5,605,000 for the safeguards and security charge for reimbursable work, as proposed in the budget request. The conference agreement also includes the use of $5,062,000 of prior year balances.

NUCLEAR WASTE DISPOSAL

The conference agreement provides $346,000,000 for Nuclear Waste Disposal. When combined with the $231,000,000 appropriated from the Defense Nuclear Waste Disposal account, a total of $577,000,000 will be available for program activities in fiscal year 2005. The conferees have provided $2,000,000 for the State of Nevada and $8,000,000 for the Affected Units of Local Government (AULG) for project oversight.

DEPARTMENTAL ADMINISTRATION (INCLUDING TRANSFER OF FUNDS)

The conference agreement provides $332,866,000 for Departmental Administration expenses. Including a transfer of $92,440,000 from Other Defense Activities, and revenues of $122,000,000, the same as estimated by the Congressional Budget Office, this results in a net appropriation of $118,426,000.

Specific funding levels for each Departmental organization are provided in the accompanying table.

Reprogramming guidelines.—The conference agreement provides reprogramming authority of $1,000,000 or 10 percent, whichever is less, within the Departmental Administration account without prior submission of a reprogramming to be approved by the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations. No individual program account may be increased or decreased by more than this amount during the fiscal year using this reprogramming authority. Congressional notification within 30 days of the use of this reprogramming authority is required. Transfers which would result in increases or decreases in excess of $1,000,000 or 10 percent to an individual program account require prior notification and approval.

OFFICE OF THE INSPECTOR GENERAL

The conference agreement provides $41,508,000 for the Inspector General.

ATOMIC ENERGY DEFENSE ACTIVITIES

NATIONAL NUCLEAR SECURITY ADMINISTRATION

WEAPONS ACTIVITIES

(INCLUDING TRANSFER OF FUNDS)

The National Nuclear Security Administration (NNSA), a semi-autonomous agency within the Department of Energy, manages the Nation's nuclear weapons, nuclear non-proliferation, and naval reactors activities.

The conference agreement provides $6,526,471,000 for Weapons Activities.

Availability of funds.—The conference agreement makes funds available until expended.

Directed stockpile work (DSW).—The conference agreement includes $1,316,936,000 for directed stockpile work. The conference agreement provides $460,754,000 for DSW Life Extension Programs. The conference agreement provides $511,095,000 for DSW Stockpile Systems and $75,000,000 for DSW Retired Warheads Stockpile systems. The conferees do not provide $9,000,000 for advanced concepts research on new weapons designs, but the same amount is made available for the Reliable Replacement Warhead program to improve the reliability, longevity, and certifiability of existing weapons and their components. The conference agreement provides $270,087,000 for DSW Stockpile services.

No funds have been provided for the Robust Nuclear Earth Penetrator (RNEP).

The Conferees support a degree of flexibility in executing this budget by providing limited reprogramming authority within Directed Stockpile Work [DSW]. The control levels for the DSW program are:

- (1) Life Extension Programs;
- (2) Stockpile Systems;
- (3) Retired Warhead Stockpile Systems; and
- (4) Stockpile Services.

Campaigns.—Funding for individual campaigns is shown on the accompanying table. From within funds provided for the various campaigns, $4,350,000 is provided for the University Research Program in Robotics.

For science campaigns, the conference agreement provides $279,462,000. The conference agreement provides $73,973,000 for primary assessment technologies; $86,521,000 for dynamic materials properties program and $55,371,000 for the advanced radiography program. The conferees provided $63,597,000 for secondary assessment technologies.

Within available funds, the conferees provide $7,500,000 to support Dynamic Materials Properties at the Nevada Test Site [NTS], experiments on dynamic materials properties at the Atlas facility and plutonium experiments at the Joint Actinide Shock Physics Experimental facility [JASPER].

Within available funds, the Department is directed to work with the UNLV Research Foundation to organize and lead a consortium of universities to design, prepare, and conduct experiments on the Atlas Machine.

Within Primary Assessment Technologies, NNSA is directed to fund the Nevada Test Site [NTS] to maintain the critical personnel skills and institutional viability in direct support of the subcritical experiment program.

The conference agreement provides $260,830,000 for engineering campaigns. The conference agreement for the enhanced surety campaign is $33,121,000. The conference agreement for the weapons system engineering assessment technology is $27,270,000. The conference agreement for nuclear survivability is $9,460,000 and the conference recommendation for enhanced surveillance campaign is $99,879,000.

Engineering campaign construction projects.—The conference agreement provides $86,500,000 for Project 01–D–108, Microsystem and engineering science applications (MESA) at Sandia, in New Mexico.

Inertial Confinement Fusion Ignition and High Yield.—The conferee agreement includes $541,034,000 for the inertial confinement fusion ignition and high yield program. This represents a $25,000,000 cut of the NIF project baseline. An additional $46,000,000 is provided to support expanded research in non-NIF related ICF research including petawatt and high-energy petawatt laser development. Funding also enables continued development of the beryllium shell targets currently envisioned for ignition demonstrations in 2010. This target, if successful, may enable advancement of the 2014 date for ignition specified in the budget request documentation, a date which represents a 4 year slip from the original goal of 2010. Since demonstration of ignition by 2010 was the rationale provided for construction of NIF under the current baseline funding, the conference is extremely concerned with suggestions of major delay in that date and requires that effort focus on achieving that goal on the timescale originally proposed. Until very recently, the beryllium shell and fill tube design was not considered viable, but it is now viewed by the program managers as the best option for regaining the 2010 ignition goal. Significant risks are associated with this design however, which is why this target design was not considered earlier in the program. To estimate the probability of success for this new target design, the conference mandates that a full review of NIF progress and the use and promise of this target be accomplished by an outside panel of experts, the JASONS, to validate the current NIF construction baseline and the outlook for ignition with this target design. As part of this validation, experiments should be designed and completed on alternative drivers, such as LLE at the University of Rochester and the Z machine at Sandia National Laboratories, to increase confidence in the performance of this target. The conference further requires that these experiments, as well as the JASON review, be used to develop a position paper authored by the NNSA Laboratory and LLE Directors by June 2005, discussing the promise of this target design to achieve ignition on the original schedule of 2010, 4 years ahead of the date specified in the current Budget. The conference is also aware that the laser glass used in the Japanese GEKKO program, which is identical to the optics used in the NIF project, has significantly degraded in efficiency over time. The conference requests the JASONS undertake a study utilizing the Japanese laser optic operations as a measure to determine if the NIF laser optics are performing as originally estimated and what impact this will have on the project, the ability to achieve ignition by 2010 and the overall lifecycle costs of replacing the optics more frequently. The conference provides $5,000,000 for the development of advanced target fabrication and diagnostic techniques required to support experiments at Omega, Z machine and NIF employing advanced materials. Target fabrication and manufacturing capabilities are critical in fielding increasingly sophisticated experiments.

Petawatt Lasers.—The conference recommendation includes an additional $6,000,000 for university grants and other support. Of this amount, $3,000,000 is provided for continued development of the petawatt laser at the University of Texas at Austin; $1,000,000 is provided for an optical parametric chirped pulse amplifier upgrade and associated operations of the short pulse laser at the University of Nevada, Reno; $1,000,000 is provided to the University of Nevada, Reno to continue its collaboration with Sandia National Laboratories on highly diagnosed studies of exploding wire arrays and implosion dynamics; and $1,000,000 is provided for research using the Z-Beamlet laser at Sandia National Laboratories under the Z-Petawatt Consortium that includes the University of Texas at Austin, the University of California, San Diego, the University of California, Davis, the University of Nevada, Reno, the University of Michigan, the University of Rochester, Ohio State University and the General Atomics Corporation.

Inertial Fusion Technology.—The conferees also include $25,000,000 to continue development of high average power lasers and supporting science and technology, the budget request for the Naval Research Laboratory, and $73,469,000 for the University of Rochester, an increase of $28,000,000 over the budget request. The additional funding is provided to the University of Rochester's Laboratory for Laser Energetics for the OMEGA Extended Performance (EP) Facility in support of the nation's stockpile stewardship program. The conference recommendation includes $9,000,000 to initiate double-shift operations and assessments and initial development and testing of Z-pinch inertial fusion energy. The conference recommendation includes $1,000,000 to the University of Nevada-Reno for magnetized plasma/laser interaction studies at the Nevada Terawatt Facility, using the Zebra pulse power machine and the Leopard short pulse laser system.

National Ignition Facility.—Within the funds provided, $130,000,000 is for National Ignition Facility (NIF) construction, Project 96-D-111.

Advanced Simulation and Computing.—The conference agreement provides $703,760,000. From within available funds for advanced simulation and computing, $10,000,000 is provided for the Ohio Supercomputing Center high-end computer network at its Springfield, Ohio site; $2,500,000 is provided to complete Phase I of the demonstration project of three-dimensional chip scale packaging integrated with spray cooling at Pacific Northwest National Laboratory. The conferees direct the University Partnerships program be funded at the budget request.

For the pit manufacturing and certification campaign, the conference agreement provides $265,671,000. The conference agreement provides $132,005,000 for W88 pit manufacturing and $60,960,000 for W88 pit certification, the same as the budget request. Providing the requested level of funding will ensure that the NNSA maintains its commitment to produce a certified W88 pit by 2007. The conference agreement provides $13,500,000 for Pit Manufacturing Capability and $7,000,000 for Modern Pit Facility. The conferees agree that funding for Modern Pit Facility cannot be used to select a construction site in fiscal year 2005.

For readiness campaigns, the conference agreement provides $272,627,000. The conference agreement provides $45,812,000 for the Stockpile readiness campaign. High explosives weapons operations is funded at $34,220,000. The conference agreement provides $32,957,000 for the non-nuclear readiness campaign. The conference agreement provides $79,788,000 for the advanced design and production technologies campaign. Funding for the tritium readiness campaign is the same as the budget request. The conferees are aware of the successful partnership between the NNSA and the University of Nevada-Las Vegas and the University of Nevada-Reno that have been fostered through a series of cooperative agreements. The Department is encouraged to renew these agreements at higher levels as appropriate.

Readiness in technical base and facilities.—For readiness in technical base and facilities, the conference agreement provides $1,121,557,000 for operations of facilities.

Within funds provided for operations of facilities, the conferees provide an additional $45,000,000 for the Pantex Plant in Texas; and an additional $50,000,000 for the Y-12 Plant in Oak Ridge, Tennessee; and an additional $5,000,000 for the Kansas City Plant. For Program Readiness, the conference agreement provides $106,204,000.

Within available funds, an additional $5,000,000 is provided to support the operation for the facilities at the Nevada Test Sites, including the Device Assembly Facility, the Joint Actinide Shock Physics Experimental facility, operations associated with the Atlas relocation project, U1a operations, general plant projects and other NTS support facilities. Finally, the conferees provide an additional $1,000,000 to the Nevada Site Office for testing and enablement of water filters to mitigate consequences of radionuclides in drinking water. The conference agreement includes an additional $13,000,000 within the funds provided for modification of the Z-Beamlet laser at the Z Pinch at Sandia National Laboratory.

For continued facility upgrades, refurbishments, operation and maintenance costs associated with and for the National Center for Combating Terrorism [NCCT] at the Nevada Test Site, an additional $25,000,000 is provided. Within the funds provided for NCCT, the conference agreement includes $2,500,000 to the UNLV Research Foundation to support the ongoing programs of the Institute for Security Studies including research and development, training and collaborative activities related to combating terrorism, emergency response and consequence management. The recommendation also includes, within funds provided, $2,500,000 for the UNR Fire Sciences Academy.

For Special Projects, the conference agreement provides $41,500,000. Within the available funds, $3,000,000 for magnetized high energy density matter research at the Nevada Terawatt facility at the University of Nevada-Reno; and $1,000,000 to continue the ongoing administration infrastructure support grant for the UNLV Research Foundation; $750,000 to the UNLV Research Foundation to establish and certify a radioanalytical services laboratory to support emergency management training activities and actual radiological events; $10,000,000 for settlement of claims for the Pajarito Plateau homesteaders pertaining to acquisition of their lands and property during the Manhattan Project; and $8,000,000 for Los Alamos County Schools Program.

From within available funds, $5,000,000 for National Energy Technology Laboratory to use the Plasma Separation Process to develop high energy isomers and isotopes for energy storage and utilization. From within available funds, the conferees provide $2,000,000 for the Airborne Particulate Threat Assessment program; $2,000,000 for the Secure Wireless Technology Program; $1,000,000 for the Total Asset Management (TAMS) program; $2,000,000 for Integrated Collaborative Prototyping for Y-12; and $2,000,000 for development of multi-platform dosimeter Radiation Detection devices. The conference provides $2,000,000 for the National Center for Biodefense at George Mason University in Virginia.

The conference agreement includes $86,965,000 for materials recycle and recovery, the same as the budget request. The conferees continue to be concerned about the fire station support at the Nevada Test Site and are pleased by the decision to use a design-build acquisition strategy for the fire station and encourage completion at the earliest possible time within the funding that has been provided. The conference agreement also includes an additional $16,000,000 for the Los Alamos National Laboratory for the CMR Building 04-D-125.

The conference agreement includes the budget request of $17,910,000 for containers and $18,982,000 for storage.

Construction projects.—

Project 05-D-140, Project engineering and design (PED)—RTBF, various locations. The conferees provide $16,600,000, an increase of $5,000,000. The additional PED funds are provided to begin planning for impact-resistant bunkers for additional warhead storage facilities for nuclear warheads with conventional high explosives at the Pantex Plant in Texas.

Project 04-D-125, Chemistry and Metallurgy Research Facility Replacement (CMRR)—LANL. The conference provides $40,000,000 for the CMRR project.

Project 01-D-124, Highly Enriched Uranium Materials Facility, Y-12 National Security Complex, Oak Ridge, TN. The conference provides $114,000,000, an increase of $50,000,000 over the budget request.

Facilities and Infrastructure Recapitalization.—The conference agreement includes $316,224,000 for the facilities and infrastructure (F&I) recapitalization program.

Secure Transportation Asset.—The conference agreement provides $201,300,000 for secure transportation asset. The conference agreement provides $57,427,000 for STA program direction. Consistent with the new triad as outlined in the Nuclear Posture Review, NNSA is working to create a responsive infrastructure to deliver needed facilities at lower cost and with greater speed. The conference encourages NNSA to explore opportunities for third party financing where appropriate.

Nuclear Weapons Incident Response.—The conference agreement provides $99,209,000 for nuclear weapons incident response.

Safeguards and Security.—The conference agreement includes $757,678,000, for safeguards and security activities at laboratories and facilities managed by the National Nuclear Security Administration. The conferees provide an additional $30,000,000 at the Y-12 plant in Tennessee to accelerate security infrastructure upgrades and consolidate the facility footprint. The conferees provide an additional $20,000,000 for the expansion of the red network at Los Alamos National Laboratory to reduce the necessity for CREM.

Funding Adjustments.—The conference agreement includes an adjustment of $30,000,000 for a security charge for reimbursable work, as proposed in the budget, and the use of $86,000,000 in prior year balances.

DEFENSE NUCLEAR NONPROLIFERATION

The conference agreement provides $1,420,397,000 for Defense Nuclear Nonproliferation.

Nonproliferation and Verification Research and Development.—The conference agreement provides $225,750,000 for nonproliferation and verification research and development. The conference agreement includes $20,000,000 for ground-based systems for treaty monitoring.

The conferees provide an additional $5,000,000 within Supporting Activities to support the ongoing regulatory and environmental activities for 300 Area replacement at Pacific Northwest National Laboratory that will allow PED to occur on an accelerated schedule. The conferees direct the Office of Nuclear Nonproliferation to coordinate closely with the Office of Science on the transition schedule and construction plans to maintain the national security capabilities resident at PNNL. From within available funds, the conferees provide $2,000,000 for testing of high-pressure xenon radiation detectors at the Brookhaven National Laboratory Rad-Tech facility for portal applications. From within the funds provided, the conference recommendation includes $3,500,000 for the University of Nevada-Reno for the development of state-of-the-art chemical, biological, and nuclear detection sensors. The conference recommendation includes the $2,000,000 for the UNLV research Foundation to continue to establish and operate within the Institute for Security Studies and applied research and technology capability in support for the effort to combat terrorism. An additional $500,000 is provided to support nanomaterial research related to sensor applications. The conference recognizes the unique mission capability the Los Alamos National Laboratory possesses through work performed at Technical Area 18 [TA-18] in areas of nuclear threat detection and response. In light of these important national security activities, the conferees direct the Secretary to perform an assessment as to the LANL role in managing the future CAT III/IV mission.

Nonproliferation and International Security.—The conference agreement provides $154,000,000 for nonproliferation and international security. The conferees include $20,000,000 for the Global Threat Reduction Initiative. The conferees provide $10,000,000 for initiatives focused on removing nuclear weapons-usable materials from vulnerable sites around the world. These activities are essential to prevent terrorist groups or states hostile to the United States from acquiring destructive nuclear capabilities. The Administrator, working with the Secretary, must utilize the NNSA's strength in the inter-agency process to become the lead agency for all such government activities worldwide. From within available funds, the conference agreement provides $150,000 to continue the collaboration between Texas A&M and Russian universities on nuclear facilities safety and decontamination and decommissioning technologies.

NON-PROLIFERATION PROGRAMS WITH RUSSIA

The conferees are disappointed the Administration has failed to negotiate an acceptable solution for liability to allow the MOX program to move forward this year. As a result, another construction season will be missed in Russia. Not only does this raise serious concern from a national security standpoint, but it will also have serious repercussions here in the United States as a result of maintaining parity of the two construction schedules. The conferees strongly urge the Administration to find an acceptable solution in the near term in order to successfully complete negotiations and allow construction of both the Russian and United States mixed oxide fuel fabrication facilities to begin.

International Materials Protection, Control and Cooperation (MPC&A).—The conference recommendation is $322,000,000 for the MPC&A program, an increase of $84,000,000 over the budget request. The Conferees provide additional funds for MPC&A to accelerate securing nuclear warhead sites in Russia, begin MPC&A upgrades at the Russian Federation serial production enterprise sites and provide additional resources for the Second Line of Defense program to accelerate installation activities in the Baltic and Caucasus regions and other critical border activities. The conference provides the budget request within the Second Line of Defense program for the MegaPorts initiative. An increase of $50,000,000 is provided for other high priority MPC&A activities, to include countries outside the FSU.

Russian Transition Initiatives.—The conference agreement provides $41,000,000, for the Initiatives for Proliferation Prevention (IPP) program and the Nuclear Cities Initiative (NCI).

HEU Transparency Implementation.—The conference agreement provides $20,950,000, the same as the budget request.

Elimination of Weapons-Grade Plutonium Production.—The conference agreement includes $40,097,000 for the elimination of weapons-grade plutonium production program.

Fissile Materials Disposition.—The conference agreement provides $624,000,000 for fissile materials disposition, the same level authorized in the fiscal year 2005 defense authorization bill. Funding of $159,700,000 is provided for U.S. surplus materials disposition and $64,000,000 for the Russian plutonium disposition program.

Construction Projects.—The conference recommendation includes $368,000,000 for Project 99-D-143, the Mixed Oxide Fuel Fabrication facility project. Funding of $32,300,000 is provided for Project 99-D-141, the Pit Disassembly and Conversion Facility project.

Off-Site Source Recovery Project.—The conference agreement provides $7,600,000 for Off-Site Source Recovery Project. The conferees provide an additional $2,000,000 for the Nuclear and Other Hazardous Materials Transportation Research Project at South Carolina State University's Transportation Center.

NAVAL REACTORS

The conference agreement provides $807,900,000 for Naval Reactors, an increase of $10,000,000 over the budget request. The conferees agree to transfer the additional $10,000,000 to the Office of Nuclear Energy to support the Idaho National Laboratory's Advanced Test Reactor.

OFFICE OF THE ADMINISTRATOR

The conference agreement provides $356,200,000 for the Office of the Administrator, $22,500,000 above the request.

The conference recommendation provides $12,000, the same as the budget request, for official reception and representation expenses for the NNSA.

Within the Office of the Administrator, the conferees provide $22,500,000 to support the Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCUs) scientific and technical programs. The conferees concur with the House language directing the HBCUs and Hispanic Serving Institutions (HSIs) receive financial support in rough parity on a year-to-year basis. The conference recommendation includes $2,000,000 each for Wilberforce University and Central State University in Wilberforce, Ohio; and $2,000,000 each for Claflin College in Orangeburg, SC and Allen University in Columbia, SC; $500,000 each for Morris College in Sumter, SC and Benedict College in Columbia, SC; and $1,000,000 for Voorhees College in Denmark, SC and $2,000,000 for Morehouse College Dansby Hall Minority Science Center.

ENVIRONMENTAL AND OTHER DEFENSE ACTIVITIES

DEFENSE ENVIRONMENTAL MANAGEMENT

The conference agreement for Defense Environmental Management totals $7,034,405,000. The conferees are aware that the Department of Defense has utilized guaranteed fixed price remediation (GFPR) to remediate contaminated properties. The conferees note the significant cost-savings experienced by the Department of Defense using GFPR, and believe that the Department of Energy may be able to achieve similar savings and benefits. In order to better assess the opportunity for cost savings by the Department of Energy, the conferees direct the Department to submit to the Committees on Appropriations of the House and Senate, by May 1, 2005, a report as to the feasibility of applying GFPR to remediation activities undertaken or planned by the Department.

DEFENSE SITE ACCELERATION COMPLETION

The conference agreement for Defense Site Acceleration Completion in fiscal year 2005 is $6,096,429,000.

Accelerated Completions, 2006.—The conference agreement provides $1,264,999,000. This funding supports the closure by the year 2006 of the Rocky Flats, West Jefferson, Fernald, Miamisburg, and Ashtabula sites, and the completion of significant cleanup projects at various other sites such as Melton Valley, Kansas City, and Savannah River. The additional $13,200,000 is provided to accelerate low-level waste shipments during fiscal year 2005 from the Miamisburg Closure Project.

Accelerated Completions, 2012.—The conference agreement provides $2,150,641,000.

Accelerated Completions, 2035.—The conference agreement provides $1,904,339,000. This amount includes the requested funding of $43,827,000 for construction of the Glass Waste Storage Building #2 at SRS (project 04-D-408) and the requested funding for the Waste Isolation Pilot Plant, the Idaho Cleanup Project, the Y-12 and Oak Ridge National Laboratory sites, Hanford and the Office of River Protection, Savannah River, Los Alamos National Laboratory, Nevada Test Site, and various other sites and facilities. From within available funds, the conferees provide $2,000,000 for the Hanford Tank Waste Operations Simulator (HTWOS); $2,000,000 for the Modular Phase Low Cost Nano-particle at Idaho National Lab; and $1,000,000 for the Mid-Atlantic Recycling Center for End of Life Electronics.

Waste Incidental to Reprocessing.—The conference agreement provides $162,600,000 for the Savannah River site, $97,300,000 for the Idaho site and $32,050,000 for the Hanford site. The conference agreement provides $26,000,000 for Project 05-D-405 Salt Waste Processing Facility for long lead procurement activities.

Safeguards and Security.—The conference agreement provides $265,059,000, the same as the budget request.

Technology Development and Deployment.—The conference agreement provides $60,142,000. From within available funds, the conferees direct the Department to use not less than $10,000,000 to conduct a competitive evaluation of the various advanced remediation technologies available in the private sector. Within remaining available funds, the conferees provide $5,000,000 to continue the five-year international agreement with AEA Technology, and $7,000,000 to continue the five-year agreement with Florida International University's Hemispheric Center for Environmental Technology.

Within available funds, the conferees provide $3,000,000 for Advanced Monitoring Systems Initiative at the Nevada Test Site, to continue micro-sensing technology development and prototype deployment of remote monitoring systems for the underground test area; $2,400,000 for the Management of Nevada Natural Resources with Remote Sensing Systems program; $1,000,000 for nanotube research and development at the Materials Reliability Center at the University Research Programs in Robotics. The Department is directed to renew its cooperative agreements with the University of Nevada-Las Vegas and the University of Nevada-Reno.

Within available funds, $3,000,000 is provided to continue the development of an electrochemical system utilizing ceramic ionic transport membranes for the recycling and disposal of radioactive sodium ion waste. The conference also provides $4,000,000 for work on the subsurface science research institute by Idaho National Laboratory and the Inland Northwest Research Alliance institutions. The Department shall continue its support of the Tribal Colleges Initiative grant, involving Crownpoint Institute of Technology, Dine College, and Southwestern Indian Polytechnic Institute, to develop high-quality environmental programs at tribal colleges.

DEFENSE ENVIRONMENTAL SERVICES

The conference recommendation for Defense Environmental Services in fiscal year 2005 is $937,976,000.

Community and Regulatory Support.—The conference agreement is $60,547,000. From within available funds, $500,000 shall be used to support the Energy and Environmental Hispanic Community Participation project of the Self Reliance Foundation needed to increase Hispanic community understanding of and participation in environmental management initiatives of the Department.

Federal Contribution to Uranium Enrichment Decontamination and Decommissioning Fund.—The Energy Policy Act of 1992, Public Law 102-486, created the Uranium Enrichment Decontamination and Decommissioning Fund to pay for the cost of cleanup of the gaseous diffusion facilities located in Oak Ridge, Tennessee; Paducah, Kentucky; and Portsmouth, Ohio. The conference agreement includes the budget request of $463,000,000 for the Federal contribution to the Uranium Enrichment Decontamination and Decommissioning Fund.

Non-Closure Environmental Activities.—The conference agreement is $146,038,000. Within available funds, the conference agreement directs the Department to provide $10,000,000 for the Hazardous Waste Worker Training Program and $8,000,000 for the Volpentest Hazardous Materials Management and Emergency Response (HAMMER) training and education center.

The conference agreement includes $2,000,000 for the Desert Research Institute's Environmental Monitoring Program; $750,000 for the University of Nevada-Reno to conduct research in the areas of materials evaluation, fundamental studies on nuclear degradation mechanisms, alternate materials and design, and computational and analytical modeling; $1,000,000 for the Nye County Groundwater Evaluation Program; $2,000,000 for the Defense and Security Research Center; $1,000,000 for the Amargosa Valley Science and Technology Park; $1,000,000 for the Hazardous Material Truck Tracking Facility; and $1,000,000 for the Research Foundation at the University of Nevada-Las Vegas to assess earthquake hazards and seismic risk in Southern Nevada; $100,000 for the Perchlorate Characterization study for the City of Simi Valley; and $6,000,000 for the Western Environmental Technology Office.

Spent Nuclear Fuel Management.—The Department proposed to transfer responsibility for the management and operation of the DOE national spent fuel program, the foreign research reactor spent nuclear fuel acceptance program, and the management of chemical processing plant 666 at Idaho from the Office of Environmental Management to the Office of Civilian Radioactive Waste Management. The conference agreement includes the requested amounts of $8,217,000 for the DOE national spent fuel program, $8,055,000 for management of chemical processing plant 666, and $1,060,000 for associated program direction costs. It is the conferees' expectation that these activities will continue to be managed at the Idaho site.

Program Direction.—The conference agreement for program direction is $271,059,000, the same as the budget request.

Funding adjustments.—The conference agreement includes an offset of $143,000 the same as the budget request, for the security costs associated with reimbursable work. The conference agreement includes the use of $2,000,000 of prior year balances.

OTHER DEFENSE ACTIVITIES

The conference agreement provides $692,691,000 for Other Defense Activities.

ENERGY SECURITY AND ASSURANCE

The conference agreement funds these programs under the Office of Electricity Transmission and Distribution.

OFFICE OF SECURITY

The conference agreement provides $298,506,000. $193,904,000 is provided for nuclear safeguards and security; $49,880,000 is provided for security investigations; and $54,722,000 is provided for program direction.

INDEPENDENT OVERSIGHT AND PERFORMANCE ASSURANCE

The conference agreement provides $24,669,000, the same as the budget request, for the independent oversight and performance assurance program.

ENVIRONMENT, SAFETY AND HEALTH (DEFENSE)

The conference agreement provides $129,519,000 for defense-related environment, safety and health activities, including $20,414,000 for program direction. The conferees disagree with the Administration's decision to cut funding for the Radiation Effects Research Foundation. Within available funds, the conference agreement provides $14,000,000, an increase of $10,000,000 above the request for the Foundation. This funding is critical in carrying out the scientific work, which the United States has funded since 1947, to study the health effects associated with the atomic blasts above Hiroshima and Nagasaki.

The conference agreement includes $2,000,000 for the Marshall Island program to meet the core health and environmental monitoring mission in order to reassure the communities of safe habitation and resettlement. The conference agreement also includes $5,000,000 to continue the DOE Worker Records Digitization project in Nevada. These funds are to be administered by the Nevada Site Office. The conferees provide $4,100,000 for the medical monitoring at the gaseous diffusion plants at Paducah, Kentucky, Portsmouth, Ohio, and Oak Ridge, Tennessee. The conferees support the continued use of helical low-dose CAT scanning for early lung cancer detection in workers with elevated risks of lung cancer. The conferees direct the Department to establish an employee field resource center in the State of New York.

Former Worker Medical Screening.—The conference agreement includes $300,000 within the Former Workers Health Program for the Iowa Army Ammunition Plant for ongoing assistance in collecting requisite medical records and completing claims forms for workers and retirees and $250,000 for the ongoing beryllium screening and outreach program for workers employed at vendors in the Worcester, Massachusetts, area who supplied beryllium to the Atomic Energy Commission.

The conferees support and are pleased with the Department's efforts to expand the Voluntary Protection Program and other voluntary cooperative programs. The conference agreement includes $790,000 for the University of Washington's Former Hanford Production Workers Medical Screening Program and to initiate medical screening for current tank farm workers consistent with the July 2004 NIOSH Health Hazard Evaluation Report.

Energy Employees Compensation Initiative.—The conferees note the transfer of responsibility for processing the Subtitle D claims from the Department of Energy to the Department of Labor.

LEGACY MANAGEMENT

The conferees support the established mission of the office of legacy management to manage the long-term stewardship responsibilities at the Department's cleanup sites. The conference agreement provides a total of $46,895,000 for the office of legacy management of which $13,201,000 is provided for program direction. Within available funds, the conferees provide $8,000,000, to remain available until expended, for planning, design, construction, and land acquisition, if necessary, to establish a records management facility centrally located near sites transferring into Legacy Management status, and in close proximity to the Office of Legacy Management's records management capability. The conferees urge the Department to accelerate these activities with the goal of such a facility being operational by early fiscal year 2007. From within available funds, the conference agreement provides $1,200,000 to complete transition of the STAR Center in Pinellas County, Florida and $4,000,000 for the final payment, subject to the existing requirement for matching funds, to the Miamisburg Mound Community Improvement Corporation. From available funds, $500,000 is provided to establish a Local Stakeholder Post-Closure organization in the State of Colorado.

FUNDING FOR DEFENSE ACTIVITIES IN IDAHO

The conference agreement provides $114,347,000 for defense-related activities at the Idaho National Laboratory (INL) and associated Idaho cleanup sites.

DEFENSE RELATED ADMINISTRATIVE SUPPORT

The conference agreement provides $92,440,000 as proposed by the House for national security programs administrative support.

OFFICE OF HEARINGS AND APPEALS

The conference agreement provides $4,318,000 for the Office of Hearings and Appeals, the same as the budget request.

OFFICE OF FUTURE LIABILITIES

The conferees do not support the creation of a redundant Departmental office to address the planning function for long term environmental cleanup liabilities. The conference agreement provides no funds for the Office of Future Liabilities.

DEFENSE NUCLEAR WASTE DISPOSAL

The conference agreement provides $231,000,000 for the defense contribution to the nuclear waste repository program. The Conferees are aware that the Department formally approved, in 1995, the right of the Affected Units of Local Government and the State of Nevada to retain interest earned on unexpended balances in their oversight accounts. The conferees reaffirm that this policy reflects the intent of Congress and should be maintained by the Department.

POWER MARKETING ADMINISTRATIONS

OPERATION AND MAINTENANCE, SOUTHEASTERN POWER ADMINISTRATION

The conference agreement includes $5,200,000, the same as the budget request, for the Southeastern Power Administration. The conference agreement provides $34,000,000 for purchase power and wheeling in fiscal year 2005.

OPERATION AND MAINTENANCE, SOUTHWESTERN POWER ADMINISTRATION

The conference agreement includes $29,352,000, the same as the budget request, for the Southwestern Power Administration. The conference agreement provides $2,900,000 for purchase power and wheeling in fiscal year 2005. The conference recommendation also provides authority for Southwestern to accept advances from non-Federal entities to provide interconnections to Southwestern's transmission system.

CONSTRUCTION, REHABILITATION, OPERATION AND MAINTENANCE, WESTERN AREA POWER ADMINISTRATION

The conference agreement provides $173,100,000, for Western Area Power Administration. The conference agreement provides $227,600,000 for purchase power and wheeling in fiscal year 2005. Within available funds, the conference recommendation includes $6,000,000 for Topock-Davis-Mead Transmission Line Upgrades to provide additional transmission capacity by using aluminum matrix composite conductor technology.

Utah Mitigation and Conservation Fund.—The conference report does not contain the change in law sought by the Administration concerning the transfer of this fund from the Secretary of Energy to the Secretary of the Interior.

Within available funds, $500,000 is provided on a non-reimbursable basis for a transmission study on the placement of 500 MW of wind energy in North Dakota and South Dakota.

FALCON AND AMISTAD OPERATING AND MAINTENANCE FUND

The conference agreement includes $2,827,000, the same as the budget request, for the Falcon and Amistad Operating and Maintenance Fund.

FEDERAL ENERGY REGULATORY COMMISSION
SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The conference agreement includes $210,000,000 for the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission (FERC). Revenues for FERC are set at an amount equal to the budget authority, resulting in a net appropriation of $0.

On March 24, 2004, FERC issued a declaratory order asserting exclusive jurisdiction over the approval and siting of liquefied natural gas (LNG) terminals. FERC concluded that LNG terminals are engaged in foreign commerce and, as such, fall clearly within the authority granted to the FERC under Section 3 of the Natural Gas Act of 1938. The conferees agree on this point and disagree with the position of at least one State government agency that it should be the authority responsible for LNG terminal siting within its boundaries, rather than the FERC.

The Natural Gas Act clearly preempts States on matters of approving and siting natural gas infrastructure associated with interstate and foreign commerce. These facilities need one clear process for review, approval, and siting decisions. Because LNG terminals affect both interstate and foreign commerce, LNG facility development requires a process that also looks at the national public interest, and not just the interests of one State.

The conferees recognize that, as a matter of energy supply, the nation will need to expand its LNG infrastructure over the decades to come to satisfy natural gas demand. Any dispute of LNG siting jurisdictional authority now will be counterproductive to meeting our natural gas needs in the future.

ENERGY

Sec. 301. The conference agreement includes language regarding contract competition.

Sec. 302. The conference agreement includes a provision that none of the funds may be used to prepare or implement workforce restructuring plans or provide enhanced severance payments and other benefits and community assistance grants for Federal employees of the Department of Energy under section 3161 of the National Defense Authorization Act of Fiscal Year 1993, Public Law 102-484. This provision has been carried in previous Energy and Water Development Appropriations Acts.

Sec. 303. The conference agreement includes a provision that none of the funds may be used to augment funds made available for obligation for severance payments and other benefits and community assistance grants unless the Department of Energy submits a reprogramming request subject to approval by the appropriate Congressional committees. This provision has been carried in previous Energy and Water Development Appropriations Acts.

Sec. 304. The conference agreement includes a provision that none of the funds may be used to prepare or initiate Requests for Proposals for a program if that program has not been funded by Congress in the current fiscal year. This provision also precludes the Department from initiating activities for new programs which have been proposed in the budget request, but which have not yet been funded by Congress. This provision has been carried in previous Energy and Water Development Appropriations Acts.

(TRANSFERS OF UNEXPENDED BALANCES)

Sec. 305. The conference agreement includes a provision that permits the transfer and merger of unexpended balances of prior appropriations with appropriation accounts established in this bill. This provision has been carried in previous Energy and Water Development Appropriations Acts.

Sec. 306. The conference agreement includes a provision prohibiting the Bonneville Power Administration from performing energy efficiency services outside the legally defined Bonneville service territory unless the Administrator certifies in advance that such services are not available from private sector businesses. This provision has been carried in previous Energy and Water Development Appropriations Acts.

Sec. 307. The conference agreement includes a provision establishing certain notice and competition requirements for Department of Energy user facilities. This provision has been carried in previous Energy and Water Development Appropriations Acts.

Sec. 308. The conference agreement includes a provision allowing the Administrator of the National Nuclear Security Administration to authorize certain nuclear weapons production plants, including the Nevada Test Site, to use not more than 2 percent of available funds for research, development and demonstration activities. This provision has been carried in previous Energy and Water Development Appropriations Acts.

Sec. 309. The conference agreement includes a provision which would authorize intelligence activities of the Department of Energy for purposes of section 504 of the National Security Act of 1947 until enactment of the Intelligence Authorization Act for fiscal year 2005.

Sec. 310. The conference agreement includes a provision that requires that waste characterization at WIPP be limited to determining that the waste is not ignitable, corrosive, or reactive. This confirmation will be performed using radiography or visual examination of a representative subpopulation of the waste. The language directs the Department of Energy to seek a modification to the WIPP Hazardous Waste Facility Permit to implement the provisions of this section.

Sec. 311. The conference agreement includes language regarding disposition of depleted Uranium Hexafluoride.

Sec. 312. The conference agreement includes a provision regarding the use of funds in this Act for some procurement actions by the Department of Energy.

Sec. 313. The conference agreement includes a provision prohibiting the use of funds in this Act for procurements to increase the dollar value of prime contracts awarded directly by the Department to small business.

Sec. 314. The conference agreement includes a provision limiting the types of waste that can be disposed of in the Waste Isolation Pilot Plant in New Mexico. None of the funds may be used to dispose of transuranic waste in excess of 20 percent plutonium by weight for the aggregate of any material category. At the Rocky Flats site, this provision includes ash residues; salt residues; wet residues; direct repackage residues; and scrub alloy as referenced in the "Final Environmental Impact Statement on Management of Certain Plutonium Residues and Scrub Alloy Stored at the Rocky Flats Environmental Technology Site". This provision has been carried in previous Energy and Water Development Appropriations Acts.

CONFERENCE RECOMMENDATIONS

The conference agreement's detailed funding recommendations for programs in title III are contained in the following table.

TITLE IV—INDEPENDENT AGENCIES

APPALACHIAN REGIONAL COMMISSION

The conference agreement provides $66,000,000 for the Appalachian Regional Commission. Within available funds, the conferees direct the Commission to provide $1,000,000 to facilitate construction of the Farmers' Ethanol biorefinery and supporting infrastructure in Perry County, Ohio. The conferees support the Appalachian-Turkish Trade Project to promote trade and investment opportunities.

DEFENSE NUCLEAR FACILITIES SAFETY BOARD
SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The conference agreement provides $20,268,000 for the Defense Nuclear Facilities Safety Board, the same as the request.

DELTA REGIONAL AUTHORITY
SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The conference agreement appropriates $6,048,000 for the Delta Regional Authority. The conferees direct the Authority to submit to the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations quarterly financial reports providing detailed accounting data on the expenditures of funds during fiscal year 2005. The conferees also expect the Authority to submit a detailed budget justification for the fiscal year 2006 budget.

DENALI COMMISSION

The conference agreement appropriates $67,000,000 for the Denali Commission. The conferees renew the direction to the Commission to submit a detailed budget justification for fiscal year 2006.

NUCLEAR REGULATORY COMMISSION
SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The conference agreement includes $662,777,000, to be offset by revenues of $534,354,000, for a net appropriation of $128,423,000. This reflects the statutory language adopted by the conference in fiscal year 2001 to reduce the fee recovery requirement to 90 percent in fiscal year 2005.

In fiscal year 2004, the conferees directed the Nuclear Regulatory Commission to contract with the National Academy of Sciences for a study of spent nuclear fuel storage at commercial reactor sites. The National Academy completed this study and found a number of areas in which the NRC could improve its modeling of the risks to spent fuel storage and the mitigation of such risks. The conferees expect the NRC to take the necessary steps to improve its analyses, including the preparation of site-specific models, and to work with the utilities to ensure timely application of this information to mitigate risks.

OFFICE OF INSPECTOR GENERAL

The conference agreement includes $7,518,000, to be offset by revenues of $6,766,200, for a net appropriation of $751,800. This reflects the statutory language adopted by the conference in fiscal year 2001 to reduce the fee recovery requirement to 90 percent in fiscal year 2005.

NUCLEAR WASTE TECHNICAL REVIEW BOARD
SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The conference agreement provides $3,177,000, the same as the budget request.

TITLE V—GENERAL PROVISIONS

Sec. 501. The conference agreement includes language directing that none of the funds appropriated in this Act may be used in any way, directly or indirectly, to influence congressional action on any legislation or appropriation matters pending before Congress except to communicate to Members of Congress.

Sec. 502. The conference agreement includes language regarding the transfer of funds made available in this Act to other departments or agencies of the federal government.

Sec. 503. The conference agreement includes language regarding the public release of documents concerning energy markets.

Sec. 504. The conference agreement includes language regarding the extension of the prohibition of oil and gas drilling in the Great Lakes through 2007.

Sec. 505. The conference agreement includes language authorizing the Secretary of the Army to transfer and advance funds to the Administrator of the Bonneville Power Administration to carry out activities in connection with Section 2406 of the Energy Policy Act of 1992.

Sec. 506. The conference agreement includes language concerning the voting methods for the Delta Regional Authority.

TITLE VI

The conference agreement includes language changing the composition, operation, and duties of the Board of Directors of the Tennessee Valley Authority.

CONFERENCE TOTAL—WITH COMPARISONS

The total new budget (obligational) authority for the fiscal year 2005 recommended by the Committee of Conference, with comparisons to the fiscal year 2004 amount, the 2005 budget estimates, and the House and Senate bills for 2005 follow:

DIVISION D—FOREIGN OPERATIONS, EXPORT FINANCING, AND RELATED PROGRAMS APPROPRIATIONS ACT, 2005

The statement of the managers remains silent on provisions that were in both the House and Senate bills that remain unchanged by this conference agreement, except as noted in this statement of the managers. The House and Senate report language that is not changed by the conference is approved by the committee of conference. The statement of the managers, while repeating some report language for emphasis, does not intend to negate the language referred to above unless expressly provided herein.

TITLE I—EXPORT AND INVESTMENT ASSISTANCE

EXPORT-IMPORT BANK OF THE UNITED STATES

The conference agreement appropriates $59,800,000 for the subsidy appropriation instead of $125,700,000 as proposed by the House and $115,700,000 as proposed by the Senate. The managers expect that there will be no reduction in Export-Import Bank activity levels due to the extraordinarily high level of carryover balances in fiscal year 2005, which total approximately $444,000,000.

The conference agreement appropriates $73,200,000 for administrative expenses for the Export-Import Bank as included in the House bill and Senate amendment.

The conference agreement does not include a first-time appropriation for an Office of Inspector General. The managers note that the Export-Import Bank already has an audit committee and other regimes in place, including independent auditors that provide financial oversight to its operations.

The conference agreement includes Senate language that requires the Export-Import Bank to provide a report on the economic effect of an ethanol dehydration plant in Trinidad and Tobago within 30 days of enactment of this Act. The conference agreement does not include Senate language that would have required prior consultation with the Senate Finance Committee and the Committees on Appropriations prior to extending credit support to establish or expand the production of indigenous products by a beneficiary country pursuant to section 423 of the Tax Reform Act of 1986. The managers are concerned by the precedent this provision may establish within the Act, and believe this matter is better addressed by the relevant authorizing committees.

OVERSEAS PRIVATE INVESTMENT CORPORATION

The managers direct the President of OPIC to continue current policy and consult with the Committees on Appropriations before any future financing for nongovernmental organizations or private and voluntary organizations is approved.

The conference agreement includes Senate language that allows OPIC to operate in Iraq for fiscal year 2005. The House bill did not address this matter.

TRADE AND DEVELOPMENT AGENCY

The conference agreement appropriates $51,500,000 for the Trade and Development Agency (TDA) as proposed by the House instead of $49,000,000 as proposed by the Senate. The managers have provided $1,500,000 for TDA to conduct a development and training program to assist countries with meeting their obligations for international aviation security and safety standards.

TITLE II—BILATERAL ECONOMIC ASSISTANCE

UNITED STATES AGENCY FOR INTERNATIONAL DEVELOPMENT

CHILD SURVIVAL AND HEALTH PROGRAMS FUND

The conference agreement appropriates $1,550,000,000 for the Child Survival and Health Programs Fund as proposed by the Senate instead of $1,648,500,000 as proposed by the House. The managers make funding in this account available until September 30, 2006, as proposed by the House, rather than September 30, 2007, as proposed by the Senate.

As in previous years, the conference agreement includes language allocating the Child Survival and Health Programs Fund among six program categories. For child survival and maternal health, including vaccine-preventable diseases such as polio, the conference agreement allocates $345,000,000 as proposed by the Senate instead of $330,000,000 as allocated by the House. For vulnerable children (not including children affected by HIV/AIDS), the conference agreement allocates $30,000,000 as proposed by the Senate instead of $28,000,000 as allocated by the House. For HIV/AIDS, including children orphaned by HIV/AIDS and otherwise affected by the disease, the conference agreement allocates $350,000,000 instead of $330,000,000 as allocated by the House or $600,000,000 as allocated by the Senate. For other infectious diseases, including TB and malaria, the conference agreement allocates $200,000,000 as proposed by the Senate instead of $185,000,000 as allocated by the House. For reproductive health/family planning, the conference agreement allocates $375,000,000 as allocated by the Senate; and for the Global Fund to Fight AIDS, Tuberculosis and Malaria (Global Fund), the conference agreement allocates $250,000,000 as proposed by the Senate (not including $150,000,000 of emergency funding) instead of $400,000,000 as allocated by the House. The allocation for the Global Fund also includes $87,800,000 in prior year funds, bringing the total allocation to $337,800,000.

The managers expect that any change proposed subsequent to the allocation as directed in bill language will be subject to the requirements of section 515 of this Act. A definition of program categories and their components can be found on pages 9 through 11 of House Report 107-142 and under the heading "Family Planning/Reproductive Health" on page 12 of Senate Report 107-58.

The conference agreement includes a total of $337,800,000 for the Global Fund. The managers note that other donors have not contributed adequate matching funding to make available all of the potential United States fiscal year 2004 contribution to the Fund of $547,000,000. The managers have carried over the amount that could not be made available, $87,800,000, for inclusion in the fiscal year 2005 Global Fund contribution. Absent this action by the Congress, these funds would have been used for purposes other than a contribution to the Global Fund.

The managers provide that up to 5 percent of funds made available for a United States contribution to the Global Fund may be made available to USAID for technical assistance related to Global Fund activities, similar to a House provision. Priority should be given to assistance that speeds the distribution of Global Fund grants and improves the accountability and efficiency of their use, rather than increases the pipeline of undisbursed funding.

As in previous years, the managers specify that funding for family planning/reproductive health should also be spent in areas where population growth threatens biodiversity or endangered species, as recommended by the Senate. The House bill did not address this matter.

The conference agreement includes $30,000,000 to support research on and the development of microbicides as a means for combating HIV/AIDS, instead of $32,000,000 as proposed by the Senate. The House bill did not address this matter. The managers endorse Senate report language recommending up to $2,000,000 for the International Partnership for Microbicides.

The conference agreement includes $27,000,000 for the International AIDS Vaccine Initiative, instead of $28,000,000 as proposed by the Senate. The House bill addressed this matter under the heading "Global HIV/AIDS Initiative".

The managers do not include a provision providing funds under this heading for the Joint UN Programme on HIV/AIDS (UNAIDS), as proposed by the Senate. Instead, the managers provide such funds from the heading "Global HIV/AIDS Initiative".

To simplify accounting and improve transparency, no funding is appropriated in this account for HIV/AIDS programs in the 15 Emergency Plan for AIDS Relief "focus" countries. Funding for the "focus" countries is appropriated under the heading "Global HIV/AIDS Initiative".

The managers note that, of the funding pledged thus far by the Global Fund to recipient countries, approximately 56 percent would be for HIV/AIDS interventions, 31 percent for malaria interventions, and 13 percent for tuberculosis (TB) or combined TB/AIDS interventions. The managers have used these percentages to estimate the portion of the United States contributions to the Global Fund that is likely to be attributed for each disease. The narrative for HIV/AIDS funding is under the heading "Global HIV/AIDS Initiative".

The conference agreement provides a total of $132,500,000 for TB assistance. Of this amount, $80,000,000 is funded through the "other infectious diseases" allocation in this account, an estimated $8,500,000 from other bilateral accounts, and $44,000,000 through the contribution to the Global Fund.

For malaria, the conference agreement provides a total of $203,700,000. Of this amount, it is expected that $104,700,000 of the contribution to the Global Fund will fund malaria programs, $90,000,000 is funded through the "other infectious diseases" allocation in this account, and an estimated $9,000,000 is provided from other bilateral accounts.

The managers note with concern the reductions made in the fiscal year 2005 budget request for a number of African countries. The conference agreement contains funding levels for both "Child Survival and Health Programs Fund" and "Development Assistance" that significantly exceed the amounts requested. The managers therefore expect USAID to restore cuts in African country allocations in those accounts to their fiscal year 2004 levels, consistent with proper programmatic considerations. The managers expect that the Committees on Appropriations will be fully consulted prior to the release of section 653(a) allocations for fiscal year 2005.

The managers endorse House report language urging USAID to increase its support for obstetric fistula prevention and repair. The managers also intend that $32,000,000 be made available to support the multilateral campaign to combat polio.

The managers note the policy and technical analysis and educational programs of the Global Health Council and recommend funding for the Council for such activities in fiscal year 2005.

The managers direct USAID to provide the Committees with a detailed report not later than March 31, 2005, on the programs, projects, and activities undertaken by the Child Survival and Health Programs Fund during fiscal year 2004.

The managers note the growing demand for health-related research and development from this and other accounts in this Act. Therefore, the managers request USAID to provide a report not later than 180 days after enactment of this Act describing efforts made to coordinate USAID's health-related research and development activities with those of the Department of Health and Human Services, the Department of Defense, and other agencies as appropriate. The report should focus on the research, development, and application cycle and outline USAID's appropriate role in that process. The report should also include amounts spent by USAID for research and development, with a breakdown by health issue or disease, recipient, and stage of research or development funded. The managers request USAID to consult regularly with the Committees while developing this report.

Funds appropriated for the Child Survival and Health Programs Fund are appropriated for programs, projects and activities. Funds for administrative expenses to manage Child Survival and Health Programs Fund activities are provided in a separate USAID Operating Expenses account, with two exceptions included in the conference agreement: authority for USAID's central and regional bureaus to use up to $250,000 from program funds for Operating Expense-funded personnel to better monitor and provide oversight of the Child Survival and Health Programs Fund, and section 522, which includes authority to use up to $13,500,000 to reimburse other government agencies and private institutions for professional services.

DEVELOPMENT ASSISTANCE

The conference agreement appropriates $1,460,000,000 for "Development Assistance" as proposed by the Senate instead of $1,429,000,000 as proposed by the House.

The conference agreement includes $194,000,000 for trade capacity building under this heading, the same as the level in the House bill. The Senate amendment did not address this matter. Trade capacity building is further addressed in section 570 of the general provisions.

The managers have agreed to provide $300,000,000 for basic education, including adult literacy programs, under this heading. Additionally, the conference agreement addresses this matter further in section 567 of the general provisions. The Senate amendment addressed this matter in the general provisions, not under this heading.

The managers note that both the House and Senate reports direct USAID to design and fund a $15,000,000 program in Africa with the aim of eliminating school fees. The managers endorse the instructions included in the House report stipulating that this program address the issue of eliminating school fees in a holistic manner, with attention paid to increasing host country investment in education, increasing parent and community involvement, and ensuring sufficient infrastructure for both male and female students. The managers understand that eliminating school fees, even in one country, could cost hundreds of millions of dollars, and that the pilot project undertaken with the funds provided will necessarily be smaller in scope. The managers also direct that the strategies requested in both the House and Senate reports be combined and transmitted together to the Committees on Appropriations no later than 180 days after enactment of this Act.

The conference agreement provides $15,000,000 for programs to improve women's leadership capacity in recipient countries as included in the House bill. The Senate amendment did not address this matter.

The conference agreement provides $2,000,000 for clean water treatment activities in developing countries. The House bill did not address this matter. The managers recommend consideration of up to $2,000,000 for Water Missions International assuming satisfaction of normal requirements for project technical merit and financial accounting system standards.

The conference agreement includes Senate language that provides $100,000,000 from all funds appropriated by this Act shall be made available for drinking water supply projects and related activities. The House bill did not address this matter. The Committee expects USAID to report no later than 90 days after enactment of this Act on funding and implementation of its water projects, including the number and location of wells drilled, and the cost per well.

The conference agreement does not include the Senate requirement that funds for the Global Development Alliance are subject to notification. However, the managers request USAID to present to the Committees its financial plan for continued implementation of the Global Development Alliance. The House did not address this matter.

The managers support the fertilizer-related research and development being conducted by the International Fertilizer Development Center (IFDC) and urge USAID to make at least $4,000,000 available to IFDC, including not less than $2,300,000 for its core grant, as provided under the Senate amendment. The House bill did not address the matter.

The conference agreement provides $20,000,000 for American Schools and Hospitals Abroad. The Senate provided $22,000,000. The House bill did not address this matter. The managers endorse House report language concerning medical simulation technology.

The managers direct that not less than $1,000,000 be made available to the U.S. Telecommunications Training Institute, a non-profit joint venture program between the public and private sectors that provides tuition free communications and broadcasting training to professionals around the world. The Senate amendment included bill language mandating that such funds be made available for this purpose. The House bill did not address this matter.

The managers understand that USAID has reached a three-year, $3,000,000 agreement with the International Real Property Foundation (IRPF). The managers support the work of the IRPF, which provides field volunteers to developing countries to help make their real estate markets more open and professional. The managers expect USAID to provide $1,000,000 to the IRPF from funds made available under this heading.

The conference agreement includes a modified Senate provision directing that "Development Assistance" funds should be used for programs in sub-Saharan Africa to address sexual and gender-based violence. The House bill did not address this matter. The managers recognize the importance of these programs and expect USAID to increase funding above the current level.

The managers endorse Senate report language concerning Laos and expect that a total of $2,000,000 from "Development Assistance" and the "Child Survival and Health Programs Fund" will be used to continue ongoing programs in that country. The managers continue to strongly support programs, funded under the "Nonproliferation, Anti-Terrorism, Demining and Related Programs" account, to clear unexploded ordnance in Laos and expect that at least $2,500,000 will be made available for this purpose in fiscal year 2005.

The conference agreement does not include a Senate provision that $8,000,000 in development assistance funds should be made available for assistance to Liberia. The House bill did not address this matter. However, the managers believe that additional funds are urgently needed for a variety of activities in Liberia, especially drug rehabilitation of former combatants, and expect USAID to provide $6,000,000 in development assistance funds for Liberia. The managers endorse the budget request for Liberia except where otherwise noted in the conference agreement or statement of managers.

The managers recommend $10,000,000 from "Development Assistance" and "Economic Support Fund" to assist victims of torture. The House bill did not address this matter.

The managers support microenterprise development programs for the poor, especially women, and urge USAID to achieve a level of $200,000,000 for these programs in fiscal year 2005. The managers also recommend $30,000,000 be available to USAID's Office of Microenterprise through a central funding or other appropriate mechanism for contracts, cooperative agreements and grants.

The managers also urge USAID to take steps to preserve the viability of leading NGO microfinance networks and to consult with the Committees on Appropriations on these measures.

The managers strongly support the work of volunteers with experience in the private sector in developing countries. In that regard, the managers endorse the House report language regarding the Financial Services Volunteer Corps (FSVC) and the Citizens Development Corps (CDC), and Senate language that endorses the International Executive Service Corps (IESC). The FSVC can make an important contribution to reconstruction in Iraq and Afghanistan. The managers strongly support these institutions and direct the State Department and USAID to seek ways to use them to full effect.

The managers direct the State Department and USAID to report to the Committees on Appropriations not later than 90 days after enactment of this Act on how funding made available in this Act will be used by the FSVC.

The managers endorse the list of university proposals in the Senate and House reports. In addition, the managers recommend consideration of proposals in support of the Norman E. Borlaug International Science and Technology Fellows Program, coordinated by Texas A&M University and other partnering universities and agencies.

The conference agreement does not include Senate language that would direct $40,000,000 appropriated under title II of this Act be made available to the Office of the Higher Education Community Liaison within USAID. The managers affirm the principle of rigorous competitive selection of proposals on technical merit. On a highly exceptional basis, the Committees may request USAID to consult them on behalf of proposals deemed meritorious.

INTERNATIONAL DISASTER AND FAMINE ASSISTANCE

The conference agreement appropriates $370,000,000 for "International Disaster and Famine Assistance", instead of $355,500,000 as proposed by the House and $385,500,000 as proposed by the Senate.

Of this amount, $34,500,000 is made available specifically for assistance for famine prevention and relief, instead of $20,000,000 as proposed by the House and $50,000,000 as proposed by the Senate.

TRANSITION INITIATIVES

The conference agreement appropriates $49,000,000 to support transition to democracy and long-term development of countries in crisis, instead of $47,500,000 proposed by the House and $50,000,000 proposed by the Senate.

DEVELOPMENT CREDIT AUTHORITY (INCLUDING TRANSFER OF FUNDS)

The conference agreement provides $21,000,000 via transfer authority for micro and small enterprise programs, urban programs and other credit programs as proposed by the House and the Senate. The conference agreement does not include a Senate limitation of $700,000,000 on loan principal any part of which is to be guaranteed. The House bill did not address this matter.

CAPITAL INVESTMENT FUND

The conference agreement appropriates $59,000,000 for USAID's Capital Investment Fund as proposed by the Senate, instead of $64,800,000 as proposed by the House.

The conference agreement does not include Senate language that would have required the USAID Administrator to assess rental assessments on other agencies in buildings constructed with funds under this title. The conference agreement does not include House language that would have made USAID funds available for contribution to the Capital Security Cost Sharing Program managed by the State Department only if all other agencies that have agreed to participate in the program are making their contribution. The conference agreement makes available not to exceed $19,709,000 for USAID's contribution to the Capital Security Cost Sharing Program.

OTHER BILATERAL ECONOMIC ASSISTANCE

ECONOMIC SUPPORT FUND

The conference agreement appropriates $2,482,500,000 for the Economic Support Fund.

Funds in this account are allocated in the following table and, as stipulated in section 595, any change to these allocations is subject to the regular reprogramming procedures of the Committees on Appropriations:

The conference agreement provides $360,000,000 for Israel and language requiring disbursement of funds within 30 days of enactment of this Act. The conference agreement provides not less than $535,000,000 for Egypt as proposed by both the House and Senate.

The conference agreement includes language similar to that of the Senate amendment that provides that $200,000,000 should be provided for Commodity Import Program assistance for Egypt. The House bill did not address this matter.

The conference agreement does not include language, proposed by the Senate, that assistance be provided for Egypt with the understanding that the Government of Egypt (GoE) will undertake significant political reforms in addition to those undertaken in previous years. The House bill did not address this matter.

The conference agreement includes language, proposed by the Senate, that democracy and governance activities shall not be subject to the prior approval of the GoE. The managers intend this language to include nongovernmental organizations and other segments of civil society that may not be registered with, or officially recognized by, the GoE. However, the managers understand that the GoE should be kept informed of funding provided pursuant to these activities.

The conference agreement does not include a Senate provision to make funds from this account available to USAID for administrative costs for regional programs in Asia and the Near East regions. The House bill did not address this matter.

The conference agreement includes language similar to that proposed by the House and the Senate providing that not less than $13,500,000 shall be made available for assistance for Cyprus.

The conference agreement includes language that provides that not less than $250,000,000 should be made available for assistance for Jordan, as proposed by the House. The Senate language would have mandated this level of support.

The conference agreement includes language similar to that in the House bill that provides that not less than $35,000,000 shall be made available for assistance for Lebanon, of which not less than $4,000,000 should be made available for scholarships and direct support of American educational institutions in Lebanon.

The conference agreement provides $22,000,000 for assistance for East Timor (Timor-Leste) as proposed by the Senate. The House bill had similar language. The conference agreement provides that of the funds for East Timor, $1,000,000 may be made available for administrative expenses of USAID, as proposed by the Senate.

The conference agreement does not include a House provision providing $50,000,000 for assistance for Haiti. The conference agreement provides $85,000,000 in assistance for Haiti as specified in section 549 of this Act, including $40,000,000 in the Economic Support Fund.

The managers include prior year language authorizing non-lethal assistance to the National Democratic Alliance of Sudan to protect its civilians from attack. The Senate did not address this matter.

The conference agreement provides that $3,000,000 should be made available to promote freedom of the media in Indonesia. The managers expect these funds will support ongoing programs and activities, including those conducted by Internews.

The conference agreement does not include a Senate provision that $2,000,000 shall be made available for economic development programs conducted by Indonesian universities. However, the managers expect funding should be provided for this purpose.

The managers expect USAID to provide sufficient funding for democracy building activities in Indonesia, and request USAID to consult with the Committees on this matter.

The managers also expect currently unobligated funds for police training in Indonesia to be fully utilized before fiscal year 2005 Economic Support Fund resources are used for that purpose.

The conference agreement does not include Senate language providing assistance to the Rosary Sisters Hospital in Jordan. The managers understand the concerns of the Government of Jordan regarding the impact this proposed activity would have on the assistance program for Jordan and recommend that USAID and the Department of State review a proposal from the hospital for possible funding from other sources within this Act. The House bill did not address this matter.

The conference agreement does not include Senate language that would have authorized up to $4,500,000 for scholarship programs for students from countries with significant Muslim populations at accredited American institutions of higher education. The House bill did not address this matter. The managers note that sufficient authority exists to fund such scholarships at the present time, and endorse the House report language on this matter. The managers direct the Department of State to review such a proposal and, based on such review, to recommend, as part of the President's fiscal year 2006 budget request, how such a program (including elementary and secondary school students) could be most effectively funded and managed by the United States Government.

The conference agreement does not include $2,500,000 for technical assistance to implement the Kimberley Process Certification Scheme. However, $1,750,000 should be made available for this purpose, as identified in the table establishing funding levels for this account.

The conference agreement does not include Senate language providing funding for environment initiatives in the East Asia and Pacific region. However, $1,750,000 should be made available for this purpose as indicated in the table establishing funding levels for this account. The House bill did not address this matter.

The conference agreement does not include Senate provisions providing specific funding levels for Kenya and Liberia. Amounts for these countries are identified in the table establishing funding levels for this account. The House bill did not address this matter.

The conference agreement does not include a Senate provision that directed not less than $500,000 should be made available for the Commission to Investigate Illegal Groups and Clandestine Security Apparatus in Guatemala (CICIACS). However, the managers intend that if CICIACS is established not less than $500,000 should be made available to support the Commission. The House bill did not address this matter.

The conference agreement does not include Senate language providing funding for the Foundation for Security and Sustainability. The managers provide $3,000,000 for the Foundation as identified in the table establishing funding levels for this account. The House bill did not address this matter.

The conference agreements includes $5,000,000 for the provisions of wheelchairs for needy persons in developing countries instead of $10,000,000 as proposed by the Senate. The House bill did not address this matter.

INTERNATIONAL FUND FOR IRELAND

The conference agreement appropriates $18,500,000 as proposed by the House. The Senate did not address this matter.

ASSISTANCE FOR EASTERN EUROPE AND THE BALTIC STATES

The conference agreement appropriates $396,600,000 instead of $410,000,000 as proposed by the Senate and $375,000,000 as proposed by the House.

Funds in this account are allocated in the following table and, as stipulated in section 595, any change to these allocations is subject to the regular reprogramming procedures of the Committees on Appropriations:

Assistance for Eastern Europe and the Baltic States

The conference agreement contains language similar to that in the Senate amendment that provides that $2,000,000 should be made available to enhance safety at nuclear power plants. The managers understand that additional funding for this purpose will not be required in subsequent fiscal years.

The conference agreement does not include language proposed by the Senate to reduce assistance for Serbia by an amount equal to the amount of financial and other support that Serbia has provided to Slobodan Milosevic and other indicated war criminals and their families during calendar year 2004. The managers request the State Department to promptly consult with the Committees on the amounts, if any, Serbia has provided to these individuals. The House bill did not address this matter.

The conference agreement does not include a House provision requiring the Administrator of USAID to provide prior written approval for grants and loans for the economic revitalization program in Bosnia and Herzegovina. The Senate did not address this matter.

The conference agreement includes House language that requires separate accounts for local currencies and cash transfers made available under this heading. The Senate did not address this matter.

The managers have included House language authorizing the President to withhold funds for Bosnian economic revitalization if Bosnia is not in compliance with article III of annex 1-A of the Dayton Accords and has not terminated intelligence cooperation with state sponsors of terrorism and terrorist organizations.

The managers note the language of both the House and Senate reports endorsing the American Bar Association's rule of law programs, and also support implementing them through cooperative agreements.

The managers recommend funding for the Russian, Eurasian, and East European Research and Training Program (Title VIII) at the fiscal year 2004 level. The managers also encourage the use of Title VIII funds to include comparative research and language training concerning Eurasian countries critical in the war on terrorism.

The managers note that USAID, the Kosovo Business Finance Fund, and the American Council for International Education have recently entered into a partnership to expand professional educational opportunities in Kosovo. Given the static or declining aid levels for Eastern Europe and Eurasia, the managers encourage the State Department and USAID to work with various Enterprise Funds to develop further post graduate partnership programs and opportunities for professional education.

ASSISTANCE FOR THE INDEPENDENT STATES OF THE FORMER SOVIET UNION

The conference agreement appropriates $560,000,000 as proposed by the Senate, instead of $550,000,000 as proposed by the House.

Funds in this account are allocated in the following table and, as stipulated in section 595, any change to these allocations is subject to the regular reprogramming procedures of the Committees on Appropriations:

Assistance for the Independent States of the Former Soviet Union

| Regional Programs .....     | 45,000         |
| Total .....          | 560,000 |

The conference agreement includes $3,859,000 for health and other assistance needs of victims of trafficking in persons, instead of $1,500,000 as proposed by the House and $8,000,000 as proposed by the Senate.

The conference agreement includes language providing not less than $17,500,000 for the Russian Far East, instead of $20,000,000 as proposed by the Senate. The managers endorse Senate report language recognizing the important contributions to development activities in this region by the University of Alaska.

The conference agreement does not include a Senate provision making available assistance for an emergency operations center in Kazakhstan.

The conference agreement provides that of the funds made available for assistance for Ukraine, $5,000,000 should be made available for nuclear reactor safety initiatives. The managers expect that of this amount, $3,000,000 should be provided for simulator-related projects. The Senate amendment included a similar provision. The House bill did not address this matter.

The conference agreement includes not less than $55,000,000 for child survival, environmental and other health activities, and programs to reduce the incidence of HIV/AIDS, tuberculosis, and other infectious diseases. The House bill would have provided $57,000,000 for these purposes. The Senate amendment did not address this matter.

The managers do not include a Senate provision specifying funding for the Russia programs of the National Endowment for Democracy or for democracy, human rights, and rule of law programs in Belarus. The House bill did not address these matters. The managers request that of the funds provided for assistance for Russia, $3,500,000 should be made available to the National Endowment for Democracy for democracy and human rights activities in Russia, including political party development programs.

The conference agreement assumes $6,500,000 for assistance for Belarus, which should be used to implement programs and activities authorized under the Belarus Democracy Act of 2004. Funds may also be used for anti-trafficking programs and programs to combat HIV/AIDS.

The conference agreement assumes that of the funds allocated for regional programs, at least $3,000,000 should be provided to address ongoing humanitarian needs in Nagorno-Karabakh.

INDEPENDENT AGENCIES

INTER-AMERICAN FOUNDATION

The conference agreement appropriates $18,000,000 instead of $19,000,000 as proposed by the Senate and $16,238,000 as proposed by the House.

AFRICAN DEVELOPMENT FOUNDATION

The conference agreement appropriates $19,000,000 instead of $20,000,000 as proposed by the Senate and $18,579,000 as proposed by the House.

PEACE CORPS

The conference agreement appropriates $320,000,000, instead of $330,000,000 as proposed by the House and $310,000,000 as proposed by the Senate. The managers encourage the Peace Corps to consider new programs in Cambodia and elsewhere in Asia, provided sufficient funds are available.

MILLENNIUM CHALLENGE CORPORATION

The conference agreement appropriates $1,500,000,000 for the Millennium Challenge Corporation (MCC) instead of $1,250,000,000 as proposed by the House and $1,120,000,000 as proposed by the Senate.

The conference agreement makes available up to $50,000,000 for administrative expenses instead of $30,000,000 as proposed by the House. The Senate amendment did not address this matter. Additionally, the managers include House language providing up to 10 percent of funds for the threshold countries. The Senate included similar language in section 5093 of the Senate amendment.

The conference agreement includes a number of provisions in the House bill that were not addressed by the Senate amendment including: Requirement for a written justification before funds are made available, requesting a report on the threshold country program, extension of section 605(e)(4) of the Millennium Challenge Act of 2003, and requiring that the MCC fully fund multi-year compacts for fiscal years 2004 and 2005.

The conference agreement includes in section 534 of the general provisions a provision similar to the Senate amendment that amends the eligibility criteria of the MCC. The managers have included a definition of the "investments in the people" criteria that is inclusive of government policies of a potentially eligible country that promote the health, education, and other factors that contribute to the well-being and productivity of their people, such as decent, affordable housing.

The managers direct the MCC to consult with the Committees on Appropriations and other appropriate committees if the MCC plans to propose an expansion of the "investment in the people" criteria beyond the areas of health and education for purposes of country eligibility. In the event of such a proposed expansion, the managers direct the MCC to provide this consultation not later than 21 days prior to the release of the report on the criteria and methodology for determining eligibility. The consultation shall include a justification, including supporting documents, that the proposed expansion will meet requirements and expectations of country coverage, transparency and availability, objectivity and reliability, an appropriate inclusion in the eligibility methodology, and a link to economic growth and poverty reduction that merits the provision of eligibility incentives.

DEPARTMENT OF STATE

GLOBAL HIV/AIDS INITIATIVE

The conference agreement appropriates $1,385,000,000 for the Global HIV/AIDS Initiative instead of $1,450,000,000 as proposed by the Senate and $1,260,000,000 as proposed by the House. The managers include a total of $2,296,300,000 for HIV/AIDS, tuberculosis, and malaria, $99,300,000 over the President's request and $690,145,000 over the fiscal year 2004 level. This figure does not include significant funding anticipated to be appropriated for the Department of Health and Human Services.

HIV/AIDS, TB, and Malaria, fiscal year 2005

(Budget Authority in thousands of dollars)

| Conference Agreement                              |                  |
|----------------------------------------------------------|------------------|
| Child Survival and Health Programs Fund (CSH) ....       | 867,800          |
| HIV/AIDS .....                                           | (350,000)        |
| Other Infectious Diseases (TB & malaria) .....           | (170,000)        |
| Global ATM Fund .....                                    | (337,800)        |
| Global HIV/AIDS Initiative .....                         | 1,385,000        |
| Other bilateral accounts for HIV/AIDS, TB, malaria ..... | 53,500           |
| Total .....                                       | 2,296,300 |

The conference agreement provides, of the $2,296,300,000 included for HIV/AIDS, TB, and malaria in this Act, not less than $1,960,100,000 for programs for the prevention and treatment of HIV/AIDS, and for care and support of those infected and affected by the disease. $1,385,000,000 for HIV/AIDS is included in the Global HIV/AIDS Initiative account. An additional $539,100,000 is funded through the Child Survival and Health Programs Fund, including $189,100,000 as a conservative estimate of the amount from this Act that will be allocated for HIV/AIDS by the Global Fund using historic Fund disbursement trends. An estimated $36,000,000 is provided through other accounts, such as the Economic Support Fund, International Disaster and Famine Assistance, Foreign Military Financing, and regional accounts for Eastern Europe and the former Soviet Union. The estimate of $1,960,100,000 for HIV/AIDS does not include the United States share of HIV/AIDS assistance through the World Bank Group.

The managers note that all funding for the 15 Global HIV/AIDS Initiative “focus” countries is appropriated in this account. The managers strongly encourage the Office of the Global AIDS Coordinator to continue its policy of providing additional funding to “non-focus” countries. The managers also support the procurement of cost-effective commodities that are appropriate for use in developing and least developed countries, including rapid strip-based HIV tests that address the threat of all strains of HIV, including Group O.

The conference agreement does not include a Senate provision regarding capacity building for nongovernmental organizations and governments. The House bill did not address this matter.

The managers request the Office of the Global AIDS Coordinator to submit a report not later than 180 days following enactment of this Act describing efforts to build the capacity of focus-country governments and nongovernmental organizations in those countries to develop and implement sustainable HIV/AIDS programs. The report should detail efforts, with funding allocations, to train local health care personnel, including nurses, and to build the infrastructure necessary for effective prevention, care and treatment programs. The report should describe how these programs fit into the country's national health care system and, if relevant, national HIV/AIDS plan. The report should also describe efforts undertaken by the Office of the Global AIDS Coordinator and other parts of the Global HIV/AIDS Initiative to coordinate capacity building efforts with other relevant initiatives and organizations, such as the Global Fund, the World Bank, and the World Health Organization. The managers encourage the Office of the Global AIDS Coordinator to consolidate reports requested under this title, as appropriate.

Funding for the United States contribution to the Global Fund has been included in two places within the President's annual budget submission: The request for USAID and the request for the Department of Health and Human Services. The managers request the Office of the Global AIDS Coordinator to provide a detailed and consolidated description of United States participation in and coordination with the Global Fund. This description should include the levels of United States government contributions to the Global Fund, efforts to coordinate United States government and Global Fund efforts in “focus” countries, and cost estimates of future Global Fund operations, including projections of the cost of grant renewals versus new grants. At a minimum, the forecast should break out these estimated costs for fiscal years 2006, 2007, and 2008 and describe how the Administration is working with the international community to garner support for the Fund.

The conference agreement does not include a Senate provision making funds available for a specific HIV/AIDS education and outreach program. The House bill did not address this matter. The managers endorse Senate report language regarding Voice for Humanity.

The managers recommend $53,500,000 in this Act from the Economic Support Fund, Foreign Military Financing, and regional accounts for Eastern Europe and the Baltic States and the former Soviet Union, for HIV/AIDS, TB, and malaria programs. The conference agreement does not include a Senate provision making available from specified regional and programmatic accounts $42,000,000 for HIV/AIDS, TB, and malaria programs. The House bill did not address this matter.

The managers include not less than $27,000,000 from this account for the Joint United Nations Programme on HIV/AIDS (UNAIDS). The Senate amendment included funding for UNAIDS in the Child Survival and Health Programs Fund, and the House bill did not address this matter.

The conference agreement does not include a House provision providing $26,000,000 for the International AIDS Vaccine Initiative (IAVI). The managers include funding for IAVI under the heading “Child Survival and Health Programs Fund”, similar to a Senate provision.

INTERNATIONAL NARCOTICS CONTROL AND LAW ENFORCEMENT

The conference agreement appropriates $328,820,000 for International Narcotics Control and Law Enforcement (INCLE), the same level as proposed by the House and the Senate.

The conference agreement provides $40,000,000 for assistance to Mexico and $10,500,000 for ongoing programs in Africa. Additionally, the conference agreement provides $10,000,000 for demand reduction programs, similar to the House bill. The Senate did not address this matter.

The conference agreement provides $3,000,000 for the purchase of helicopters for Malta, as proposed by the Senate. The House did not address this matter.

The conference agreement includes a modified Senate provision that makes $4,000,000 available under this heading for the Philippines. The managers recognize the importance of the United States-Philippines relationship and support an increase in funding for the Philippines above the requested level under “Child Survival and Health Programs Fund”, “Development Assistance”, “Anti-Terrorism Assistance” and “International Military Education and Training”. The managers expect to be consulted on assistance for the Philippines not later than 60 days after enactment of this Act.

The conference agreement provides $11,900,000 for the International Law Enforcement Training Academies (ILEA), and the managers expect the academies, with the exception of ILEA/Latin America, to be funded at the budget request. The managers request the State Department to consult with the Committees on plans to establish an academy in the Middle East.

The conference agreement does not include a provision providing $15,000,000 for anti-trafficking programs as proposed by the Senate. The managers expect that $5,000,000 of funds under this heading will be used for this purpose.

The managers do not include funds for police training in Indonesia under this heading and expect the State Department to consult with the Committees prior to using ESF funds in this or prior year Acts for these purposes. The managers request the State Department to submit a report to the Committees not later than 180 days after enactment of this Act on current and planned police training activities in Indonesia, including funding sources, obligations, and expenditures.

The conference agreement does not include $1,000,000 for police training in Timor-Leste as proposed by the Senate. However the managers expect that under the heading “Economic Support Fund”, of the $22,000,000 provided for Timor-Leste, that not less than $1,000,000 will be used for these purposes.

The conference agreement makes available $30,300,000 for administrative expenses instead of $26,117,000 as proposed by the House and the Senate.

The conference agreement does not include an amendment, proposed by the Senate, providing $1,500,000 to the International Foundation of Hope (IFH) for alternative crop development programs in Nangarhar Province, Afghanistan. The managers recognize the security threat posed by narcotics production in Afghanistan and recommend the State Department consider funding the IFH program.

The conference agreement does not include a Senate provision that $5,000,000 be made available to combat the piracy of United States intellectual property. The managers commend the work of the State Department on this issue, expect $3,000,000 to be made available in fiscal year 2005, and urge the State Department to request funds for this purpose next year. The managers support the reporting requirement concerning this program contained in the Senate report.

The managers endorse House report language on “Anti-Corruption Compacts” and expect the Department of State to work with the MCC to identify possible threshold country program funding for this purpose.

ANDEAN COUNTERDRUG INITIATIVE

The conference agreement appropriates $731,000,000 for the Andean Counterdrug Initiative as proposed by the House and the Senate. The managers emphasize that there are other funds for Andean nations in this Act.

The conference agreement provides that not less than $264,600,000 shall be made available for alternative development and institution building activities by USAID, the Department of Justice, and the Department of State of which $237,000,000 shall be directly apportioned to USAID, including $125,700,000 for Colombia.

The conference agreement provides that not less than $6,000,000 should be made available for judicial reform in Colombia, not less than $6,000,000 shall be made available to USAID for organizations and programs to protect human rights and $2,000,000 should be made available for biodiversity and indigenous reserves protection in Colombia.

The conference agreement again includes conditions, similar to current law and the same as the Senate bill, on aerial spraying. The House bill did not address this matter.

The conference agreement includes the House language prohibiting funds for the resumption of flights in support of a Peruvian air interdiction program until a system of enhanced safeguards are in place. The Senate did not address this matter.

The conference agreement includes Senate language providing that assistance should be made available to the Bolivian military and police only if the Bolivian military and police are respecting human rights and cooperating with investigations and prosecutions of alleged violations of human rights.

The conference agreement does not include Senate conditions on assistance to support the demobilization of illegal armed groups in Colombia. The managers are aware that the Colombian Government is engaged in demobilization negotiations with such groups, which have been designated foreign terrorist organizations (FTOs) by the State Department. Leaders of these FTOs have been indicted by the Justice Department for drug trafficking and these groups have been implicated in widespread human rights violations. The managers note that according to the Justice Department, United States law forbids the provision of United States assistance to members of terrorist organizations. The managers further note that USAID included $3,250,000 in its fiscal year 2005 budget justification for “Peace Initiatives” in Colombia, including demobilization/integration. The conference agreement requires consultation with and notification to the Committees prior to the obligation of fiscal year 2005 funds for such activities. The managers believe that the costs of demobilizing illegal armed groups should be borne by the Colombian Government, not the United States. The managers are concerned that the demobilization process is being undertaken without adequate safeguards to ensure the dismantling of such FTOs, to deter members of such groups from resuming illegal activities, or to prosecute and punish those involved in drug trafficking and human rights violations.

The managers do not believe the Administration should request funds in fiscal year 2006 for the demobilization/reintegration of members of such FTOs unless it is for limited activities that are determined by the Justice Department to be consistent with United States anti-terrorism laws, and the following conditions can be met: (1) The FTO is respecting a ceasefire and the cessation of illegal activities; (2) the Government of Colombia has not adopted any law or policy inconsistent with its obligations under the United States-Colombian treaty on extradition, and has committed to the United States that it will continue to extradite Colombian citizens to the United States, including members of such illegal armed groups, in accordance with that treaty; (3) the Colombian legal framework governing the demobilization of such groups provides for prosecution and punishment, in proportion to the crimes committed, of those responsible for gross violations of human rights, violations of international humanitarian law, and drug trafficking, for reparations to victims, and for the monitoring of demobilized individuals; (4) the Government of Colombia is implementing a policy of effectively dismantling such groups, including the seizure of financial and property assets; and (5) the Government of Colombia is taking actions to enable the return of stolen assets, including real property, to their original owners.

The managers are also aware that the Administration has used fiscal year 2004 funds to support the Organization of American States (OAS) Mission in Colombia. The managers request that, prior to the provision of additional funds to the OAS for this purpose, the Secretary of State report to the Committees that the OAS Mission is strictly adhering to its verification role, FTOs are concentrated in zones for demobilization, the legal framework governing the demobilization conforms with (3) above, and the Inter-American Commission for Human Rights is providing advice to the OAS Mission.

The conference agreement makes available $16,285,000 from this account for administrative expenses of the Department of State as proposed by the House and the Senate and $7,800,000 for administrative expenses of USAID instead of $4,500,000 as proposed by the House and the Senate.

The conference agreement includes a provision proposed by the Senate that requires that the Administrator of USAID, in consultation with the Assistant Secretary of State for International Narcotics and Law Enforcement Affairs, shall have responsibility for the use of funds under this heading that are directly apportioned to USAID. The conference agreement does not include a provision in section 515 of the general provisions, as proposed by the Senate, requiring that all reprogrammings of funds under this and the previous heading shall be subject to review and approval by the Deputy Secretary of State. The House did not address either matter.

Funds in this account are allocated in the following table and, as stipulated in section 595, any change to these allocations is subject to the regular reprogramming procedures of the Committees on Appropriations:

MIGRATION AND REFUGEE ASSISTANCE

The conference agreement appropriates $770,000,000 for the Migration and Refugee Assistance account (MRA) instead of $756,000,000 as proposed by the House and $775,000,000 as proposed by the Senate.

The conference agreement makes available $22,000,000 for administrative expenses as proposed by the Senate instead of $21,000,000 as proposed by the House. The managers expect the additional administrative funds to be used for refugee admissions and emergency situations.

The conference agreement also includes Senate language providing not less than $50,000,000 for refugees from the former Soviet Union and Eastern Europe and other refugees resettling in Israel. The House bill did not address this matter.

The conference agreement does not include a Senate provision that makes funds available for assistance for international organizations for refugees from North Korea. The House did not address this matter. The managers strongly support the provision of funds for such purposes, and request the State Department to review methods to provide sufficient assistance to safeguard the human rights and dignity of North Korean refugees. The managers request the State Department to report to the Committees not later than 90 days after enactment of this Act on programs and activities regarding North Korean refugees supported during calendar years 2003 and 2004.

The conference agreement does not include Senate language providing that funds under this and the following heading be made available to NGOs located in Thailand for humanitarian assistance inside Burma. The managers expect NGOs working in Thailand on Burmese refugee issues to be funded at amounts above the fiscal year 2004 level from these accounts. The managers endorse Senate report language regarding funding levels for the Burma Border Consortium.

The managers are deeply concerned with reports of the misuse of facilities managed by the United Nations Relief and Works Agency for Palestine Refugees in the Near East (UNRWA) and UNRWA-owned vehicles for terrorist activities and the recent statement by UNRWA's Commissioner General that the agency employs members of the terrorist organization Hamas. The managers note that continued United States support for UNRWA depends on its compliance with United States law prohibiting assistance to terrorist organizations. The managers direct the State Department to work closely with the United Nations and UNRWA to develop effective standards and practices to ensure that UNRWA resources are not diverted for terrorist purposes, and that the agency is not employing terrorists. The managers direct the Secretary of State to transmit a report on these new standards to the Committees on Appropriations no later than 180 days after the enactment of this Act.

The managers are aware of potential tensions between Sudanese refugees in Chad and the citizens of Chad. The managers recommend funding for programs to mitigate conflict between refugees and hosting communities and to provide technical assistance to local organizations for assistance to refugees, including refugee registration and protection.

UNITED STATES EMERGENCY MIGRATION AND REFUGEE ASSISTANCE FUND

The conference agreement appropriates $30,000,000 for the United States Emergency Migration and Refugee Assistance Fund (ERMA), instead of $20,000,000 as proposed by the House and $50,000,000 as proposed by the Senate.

The conference agreement includes language from the Senate amendment that provides the funds notwithstanding section 2(c)(2) of the Migration and Refugee Assistance Act of 1962.

NONPROLIFERATION, ANTI-TERRORISM, DEMINING AND RELATED PROGRAMS

The conference agreement appropriates $402,000,000 for Nonproliferation, Anti-terrorism, Demining and Related Programs, instead of $382,000,000 as proposed by the House and $415,200,000 as proposed by the Senate.

Funds in this account are allocated in the following table and, as stipulated in section 595, any change to these allocations is subject to the regular reprogramming procedures of the Committees on Appropriations:

Nonproliferation, Anti-Terrorism, Demining and Related Programs

| International Trust Fund for Demining .....                     | 10,000   |
| Small Arms/Light Weapons Destruction .....                      | 7,000    |
| NADR Total .....                                                | 402,000  |

The conference agreement does not contain language from the Senate amendment that would have authorized not to exceed $250,000 for the support of public-private partnerships for mine action by grant, cooperative agreement, or contract. Language authorizing these activities for fiscal year 2004 and subsequent years was contained in Public Law 108-199. The House bill did not address this matter.

The conference agreement contains Senate language that provides that funds available for the CTBT Preparatory Commission that are not necessary to make the United States contribution to the Commission shall be made available to the International Atomic Energy Agency and shall be available until September 30, 2006.

The conference agreement does not include a Senate provision providing that $10,000,000 be made available to destroy MANPADS. The House bill did not address this matter. The managers support efforts to curtail the proliferation of MANPADS and note that more than $10,000,000 from this and other appropriations Acts is being made available to achieve this objective.

The conference agreement does not contain Senate language that would have authorized $10,000,000 for mobile combat systems and radiation detection technology to combat international terrorism. While this appropriation account is not the appropriate place to fund such activities, the managers support efforts to develop such systems and note that more than $10,000,000 from other appropriations Acts is being made available to achieve this objective.

The conference agreement contains Senate language that provides 2-year availability of funds appropriated for anti-terrorism assistance and export control and border security.

CONFLICT RESPONSE FUND

The conference agreement does not include Senate language authorizing activities under the Conflict Response Fund, or $20,000,000 for the Fund, as proposed by the Senate. The House bill did not address this matter.

DEPARTMENT OF THE TREASURY INTERNATIONAL AFFAIRS TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE

The conference agreement appropriates $19,000,000 for the International Affairs Technical Assistance program of the Department of the Treasury as proposed by the House instead of $17,500,000 as proposed by the Senate.

DEBT RESTRUCTURING

The conference agreement appropriates $100,000,000 for Debt Restructuring, instead of $105,000,000 as proposed by the House and $95,000,000 as proposed by the Senate. The conference agreement provides $20,000,000 for the Tropical Forest Conservation Act Program, and at least $10,000,000 for bilateral debt relief for the Democratic Republic of Congo and the flexibility to provide more from available funds if necessary.

The conference agreement includes House language limiting the use of the United States contribution to the HIPC Trust Fund and endorses the House report language on this issue. The managers note that the fiscal year 2004 and 2005 funds are subject to the regular notification procedures of the Committees on Appropriations.

TITLE III—MILITARY ASSISTANCE

INTERNATIONAL MILITARY EDUCATION AND TRAINING

The conference agreement provides that funding for Nigeria, Haiti, and the Democratic Republic of Congo shall be subject to the regular notification procedures of the Committees on Appropriations. The House bill would have required notification for Nigeria and Guatemala, while the Senate amendment would have required notification for Cambodia, Haiti, the Democratic Republic of Congo, Nigeria, and Guatemala.

The conference agreement does not include $2,000,000 in International Military Education and Training (IMET) assistance for Greece, as proposed by the Senate. However, the managers request the Secretary of State to consider providing up to $2,000,000 in IMET assistance for Greece. The House bill did not address this matter.

In order to increase cooperation in the war on international terrorism, the managers support additional funding above the budget request in IMET assistance for Egypt.

FOREIGN MILITARY FINANCING PROGRAM

The conference agreement appropriates $4,783,500,000 for the Foreign Military Financing Program.

The managers have included language providing $2,220,000,000 for Israel and $1,300,000,000 for Egypt as proposed in both the House and Senate bills. The conference agreement includes language similar to that proposed in the Senate amendment that provides that $206,000,000 should be made available for assistance for Jordan.

Funds in this account are allocated in the following table and, as stipulated in section 595 any change to these allocations is subject to the regular reprogramming procedures of the Committees on Appropriations:

The conference agreement provides that not less than $580,000,000 shall be made available for procurement in Israel of defense articles and services, as proposed by the House. The Senate proposed similar language.

The conference agreement does not include language proposed by the Senate that would have allowed for the transfer of up to $5,000,000 to "Nonproliferation, Anti-Terrorism, Demining and Related Programs". The House bill did not address this matter.

The conference agreement includes $400,000,000 in military assistance for Afghanistan.

The conference agreement stipulates that not less than $206,000,000 should be provided from this account for assistance to Jordan, similar to a Senate provision. The House bill did not address this matter.

The managers have not included Senate provisions specifying funding levels for Tunisia, Armenia, Liberia, and Georgia. Information on funding levels as a basis for notification for these and other countries and programs is found in the table included in the Statement of Managers.

The conference agreement includes a provision, similar to Senate language, which conditions up to $2,000,000 in assistance for Uganda on progress by the Government of Uganda in human rights, the protection of civilians, and the professionalization of Ugandan armed forces. The House bill did not address this matter.

The conference agreement includes a House provision that permits up to $150,000,000 from prior year Foreign Military Financing Program and Economic Support Fund accounts to be transferred to the FMF account in this Act for assistance to Pakistan. The Senate included similar language, but did not designate Pakistan as the recipient of the transferred funds.

The conference agreement includes Senate language prohibiting funding from this account for Sudan and Guatemala. The House bill also included Indonesia in the funding prohibition.

The conference agreement includes Senate language that requires a notification for assistance for Haiti. The House bill did not address this matter.

The conference agreement does not include a House provision prohibiting funding from this account for activities related to the clearance of unexploded ordnance from United States Armed Forces testing or training centers, except on San Jose Island, Republic of Panama. The Senate amendment did not address this matter.

PEACEKEEPING OPERATIONS

The conference agreement does not include a Senate provision authorizing the transfer of funding from the Department of Defense to the Department of State for military or security assistance to enhance the capability of foreign countries to participate in international peacekeeping or peace enforcement operations. The House bill did not address this matter.

TITLE IV—MULTILATERAL ECONOMIC ASSISTANCE

INTERNATIONAL FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS GLOBAL ENVIRONMENT FACILITY

The conference agreement appropriates $107,500,000 for the Global Environment Facility as proposed by the House instead of $120,678,000 as proposed by the Senate.

CONTRIBUTION TO THE INTERNATIONAL DEVELOPMENT ASSOCIATION

The conference agreement appropriates $850,000,000 for the International Development Association, the concessional lending facility of the World Bank, as proposed by the House instead of $820,000,000 as proposed by the Senate.

The managers note that the World Bank promised $313,000,000 in grant assistance and $3,000,000,000 in loans to the people of Iraq. Of this commitment, only one training program totaling $3,600,000 has been completed, which represents less than .01 percent of total funds pledged. The managers request the Secretary of Treasury to submit a report not later than January 1, 2005 on World Bank loan disbursement and the deployment of World Bank international staff to Iraq.

CONTRIBUTION TO THE ENTERPRISE FOR THE AMERICAS MULTILATERAL INVESTMENT FUND

The conference agreement appropriates $11,000,000 for past due payments by the United States to the Multilateral Investment Fund instead of $25,000,000 as proposed by the House and $15,000,000 as proposed by the Senate.

CONTRIBUTION TO THE ASIAN DEVELOPMENT FUND

The conference agreement appropriates $100,000,000 for the United States contribution to the Asian Development Fund, instead of $112,212,465 as proposed by the House and $59,691,000 as proposed by the Senate.

CONTRIBUTION TO THE AFRICAN DEVELOPMENT BANK

The conference agreement appropriates $4,100,000 for the African Development Bank instead of $5,100,000 as proposed by the House and $1,100,000 as proposed by the Senate.

CONTRIBUTION TO THE AFRICAN DEVELOPMENT FUND

The conference agreement appropriates $106,000,000 for the African Development Fund instead of $118,000,000 as proposed by the House and $67,000,000 as proposed by the Senate.

INTERNATIONAL ORGANIZATIONS AND PROGRAMS

The conference agreement appropriates $328,394,000 for voluntary contributions to International Organizations and Programs instead of $323,450,000 as proposed by the House and $328,925,000 as proposed by the Senate.

The managers continue to support the work of the World Food Program and have provided $6,000,000 for a voluntary contribution under section 534 of this Act as included in the House bill and the Senate amendment.

The managers expect that of funds under this heading subject to section 307(a) of the Foreign Assistance Act of 1961, an additional $350,000 will be made available for United Nations Center for Human Settlements for a total of $500,000 in fiscal year 2005. As with all funds subject to section 307(a), these funds are subject to notification.

Funds in this account are allocated in the following table and, as stipulated in section 595, any change to these allocations is subject to the regular reprogramming procedures of the Committees on Appropriations:

TITLE V—GENERAL PROVISIONS

(Note.—If House and Senate language is identical except for a different section number or minor technical differences, the section is not discussed in the Statement of Managers.)

Sec. 505. Limitation on Representational Allowances

The conference agreement includes limitations similar to the House bill of $4,000 for Foreign Military Financing for entertainment expenses and $130,000 for representation allowances; $55,000 for International Military Education and Training for entertainment; $4,000 for representation and entertainment expenses for the Trade and Development Agency; and $115,000 for the Millennium Challenge Corporation (MCC). The House bill included $130,000 for the MCC, and the Senate amendment included $2,000 and $125,000 for Foreign Military Financing for entertainment and representation allowances, respectively; $50,000 for International Military Education and Training; $2,000 for the Trade and Development Agency; and $100,000 for the MCC.

Sec. 515. Notification Requirements

The conference agreement does not include a Senate provision requiring that the International Narcotics Control and Law Enforcement and Andean Counterdrug Initiative accounts be subject to the same reprogramming oversight procedures as the Economic Support Fund account. The House bill did not address this provision.

Sec. 517. Independent States of the Former Soviet Union

Similar to the Senate amendment, the conference agreement does not include House subsection (a) restricting assistance to the governments of certain countries unless they are making progress in implementing economic reforms, and if these governments used United States assistance to facilitate the expropriation or seizure of assets.

Sec. 520. Special Notification Requirements

The conference agreement adds "Pakistan" and "Cambodia" to the list of countries proposed by the House to be subject to the special notification procedures of this section, similar to language proposed by the Senate. Compared to current law, the conference agreement deletes the Democratic Republic of the Congo.

Sec. 522. Child Survival and Health Activities

The conference agreement makes available not less than $441,000,000 for family planning and reproductive health activities from funds appropriated under title II of this Act, rather than $450,000,000 as proposed by the Senate amendment. The House addressed this matter in the House report and included a level of $432,000,000.

Sec. 523. Afghanistan

The conference agreement provides that not less than $980,000,000 of the funds appropriated by titles II and III should be made available for humanitarian, reconstruction, and related assistance for Afghanistan. The House bill included $977,000,000 for such activities. The Senate amendment provided not less than $504,450,000 for humanitarian and reconstruction assistance from this Act.

The conference agreement does not include Senate language that would have directed that not less than $225,000,000 be made available for Afghanistan from the Economic Support Fund. The House bill did not address this matter.

The conference agreement contains language, similar to a Senate provision, providing that not less than $2,000,000 should be made available for the Independent Human Rights Commission and other human rights groups. The House bill did not address this matter.

The conference agreement contains language, similar to that contained in the Senate amendment, which provides that funds for the Afghan National Army should be provided dependent on the vetting of members for involvement in a variety of illicit activities. The House bill did not address this matter.

The conference agreement includes Senate language that provides that not less than $2,000,000 should be provided for reforestation activities in Afghanistan, and these funds would be matched, to the maximum extent possible. The House bill did not address this matter.

The conference agreement contains language, similar to that in both the House bill and the Senate amendment, that provides that $50,000,000 should be made available to support programs that directly address the needs of Afghan women and girls, of which not less than $7,500,000 shall be made available for small grants to improve the capacity of women-led Afghan nongovernmental organizations.

The conference agreement does not include a Senate provision that not less than $2,000,000 should be made available for assistance for Afghan communities and families that have suffered losses as a result of the military operations. However, the managers support this program and expect not less than $2,000,000 to be made available for medical, rehabilitation, reconstruction, and other appropriate assistance to Afghan communities and families to mitigate such losses. The House bill did not address this matter.

Sec. 525. HIV/AIDS

The conference agreement includes a general provision, "HIV/AIDS", combining elements of section 525 of the House bill and section 5025 of the Senate amendment. The new general provision conditions 25 percent of the appropriation to the Global Fund to Fight AIDS, Tuberculosis and Malaria, subject to a waiver, on managerial and process changes at the Fund to improve its efficiency and transparency. The managers have also included language authorizing a "Working Capital Fund" to strengthen the ability of the Office of the Global AIDS Coordinator, USAID, and other agencies of the United States Government to negotiate the lowest possible prices for safe, effective pharmaceuticals and commodities.

Sec. 526. Democracy Programs

The conference agreement provides $19,000,000 under the Economic Support Fund for activities to support democracy, human rights and the rule of law in the People's Republic of China and Hong Kong, instead of $35,000,000 as proposed by the Senate, of which $15,000,000 is provided to the State Department's Human Rights and Democracy Fund (HRDF) and $4,000,000 to the National Endowment for Democracy (NED). Subject to a matching requirement, funds are made available for the conduct of such programs in Taiwan.

The conference agreement provides $15,000,000 under the ESF account, instead of $25,000,000 as proposed by the Senate, for programs to foster democracy, human rights, and other programs in countries with significant Muslim populations and where such programs would be important to respond to, deter, or prevent acts of international terrorism. Of this amount, $11,000,000 is provided to the HRDF and $4,000,000 to the NED. The agreement provides $3,000,000 for programs that provide professional training for journalists, including organizations such as Internews, and $3,000,000 for activities to advance democracy and human rights in Iran. The managers support the use of funds for a conference to bring together Iranian dissidents and advocates of freedom and justice in Iran to explore opportunities for furthering democracy in that country. Authority is provided to conduct such programs for Syria.

The conference agreement provides $4,500,000 to support NED programs in sub-Saharan Africa, $500,000 less than the level proposed by the Senate.

The conference agreement does not include a provision proposed by the Senate that provides $10,000,000 to American educational institutions for programs in China relating to environment, democracy and the rule of law. This matter is addressed in section 534.

Assistance provided under this section is subject to regular notification procedures.

The managers request the State Department, in consultation with USAID, to submit a report to the Committees not later than 90 days after enactment of this Act on: the standard definition of "democracy and governance programs" funded by the United States Government; a summary, including budgetary totals, of USAID's democracy and governance programs categorized by grants, cooperative agreements and contracts in fiscal years 2003 and 2004; and, additional information on how the proposed United Nations Democracy Fund could complement ongoing, United States-funded democracy building activities.

The conference agreement addresses Tibet in section 581, in a separate general provision as proposed by the Senate. The House bill addressed Tibet under this section.

Sec. 531. Burma

The conference agreement includes in this section a requirement, as proposed by the Senate, to instruct the United States Executive Directors to the international financial institutions to oppose loans and assistance for Burma. The House did not address this matter.

Additionally, the conference agreement includes a provision, similar to the Senate amendment, providing $8,000,000 under the heading "Economic Support Fund" for democracy and other activities in Burma and along the Burma-Thailand border.

The conference agreement includes a provision similar to the Senate amendment providing in addition to funds from "Migration and Refugee Assistance" not less than $4,000,000 to USAID for humanitarian assistance for displaced Burmese and host communities in Thailand. The House did not address this matter.

The conference agreement does not include a Senate proposed requirement that none of the funds appropriated by this Act may be made available to the central government of any country that is a major provider of weapons to the State Peace and Development Council (SPDC). The House did not address this matter.

The managers express their concern for the safety and welfare of Burmese democracy leaders Aung San Suu Kyi, U Tin Oo, and other members of the National League for Democracy. The managers call for the immediate, unconditional and safe release of Suu Kyi, as well as all other political prisoners in Burma.

The conference agreement also includes language, similar to section 5097 of the Senate amendment, that provides that contributions from the Global Fund to Fight AIDS, Tuberculosis and Malaria to the SPDC and its affiliate organizations will be withheld according to the provisions of section 202 of Public Law 108-25. The House did not address this matter.

Sec. 534. Special Authorities

In subsection (a), the conference agreement includes House language providing certain authority for assistance for Afghanistan, Pakistan, and Montenegro, assistance to victims of war, and displaced Burmese. The conference agreement adds Lebanon to that list of countries, as in the Senate amendment, but does not include Senate language regarding Iraq and programs to address sexual and gender-based violence. The managers have included such language in section 564, "Community-Based Police Assistance".

In subsection (f), the conference agreement increases the funding ceiling of $25,000,000 in section 451(a) of the Foreign Assistance Act of 1961 to $45,000,000, instead of $50,000,000 as in the Senate amendment.

The conference agreement does not include subsection (j) of the Senate amendment defining "areas outside of the control of the Government of Sudan". The managers have included similar language in section 569, "Sudan".

The managers have included subsection (k) of the Senate amendment, addressing the adjudication of applications from parolees from Indochina.

The conference agreement includes language, similar to subsection (m) as proposed by the Senate, providing $2,000,000 for an endowment to document genocide and crimes against humanity in Cambodia, and $3,750,000 for an endowment to sustain rehabilitation programs for persons suffering from physical disabilities in that country. The conference agreement eliminates language contained in the Senate amendment authorizing funds from future appropriations Acts to be used in these endowments. The managers intend that prior year funds may also be used to support these endowments, and the managers understand that with respect to the endowment to document genocide, an additional $2,000,000 may be made available from fiscal year 2003 funding for a combined total of $4,000,000. The managers request that USAID provide signed copies of the endowment agreements to the Committees on Appropriations and request that the agreements include a disposition of funds upon future liquidation of the endowments. The House bill did not address this matter.

The conference agreement does not include subsection (n) of the Senate amendment making foreign extinction lists applicable to United States fish and wildlife regulations and law. The House bill did not address this matter.

The conference agreement includes subsection (o) of the Senate amendment extending the availability of loan guarantees to Israel from September 30, 2005, to September 30, 2007. The House bill did not address this matter.

The conference agreement includes section (c) of section 5109 of the Senate amendment, "United Nations Resolutions on Israel", requiring the Secretary of State to report how governments vote at the United Nations on resolutions regarding Israel that are opposed by the United States. The House bill did not address this matter.

Subsection (p) of the Senate amendment regarding affordable housing and the MCC is discussed under the heading "Millennium Challenge Corporation".

The managers provide authority for USAID, notwithstanding any other provision of law and subject to the regular notification procedures of the Committees, to provide Development Assistance funds to American educational institutions for programs and activities in the People's Republic of China relating to the environment, democracy, and the rule of law.

Sec. 543. Withholding of Assistance for Parking Fines and Real Property Taxes Owed By Foreign Governments

The conference agreement includes language similar to that proposed by the Senate, which requires withholding of United States assistance to central governments of countries with adjudicated unpaid real property taxes and parking fines in the United States. The House bill did not address the issue of property taxes.

Sec. 547. War Crimes Tribunals Drawdown

The conference agreement includes House language authorizing up to $30,000,000 in drawdowns of commodities or services for the United Nations War Crimes Tribunal for the former Yugoslavia or other future tribunals. The Senate amendment included $32,000,000 for such purposes.

Sec. 549. Haiti

The conference agreement appropriates funding for Haiti at a level not less than $85,000,000 from Child Survival and Health Programs Fund, Development Assistance, and Economic Support Funds, which is $60,512,000 above the budget request. The managers endorse the budget request for Haiti under Peace Corps and Foreign Military Financing and note additional assistance for Haiti is contained in the Global HIV/AIDS Initiative and the Military Construction Appropriations and Emergency Hurricane Supplemental Appropriations Act, 2005.

The managers recognize that improving the health of the Haitian people will necessitate investments in prevention activities, such as health outreach and behavioral change, in order to stem the spread of illness and disease. The managers note the pioneering work of Zanmi Lasante and direct that $2,000,000 should be provided from this account to strengthen and expand that organization's maternal child health activities in Haiti's Central Plateau region. This amount is in addition to other amounts that are provided by USAID to Zanmi Lasante for HIV/AIDS activities under this account, and other headings in the Act.

The conference agreement does not provide $2,000,000 for the Hillside Agriculture Production program. The managers understand that USAID is considering funding this activity at nearly $1,000,000 in FY 2005, and support follow on activities which broaden the program to include both agriculture and environment.

The conference agreement does not provide funding under the INCLE account for police training activities. The managers recommend ESF funding for these purposes. The managers support judicial reform programs to strengthen rule of law in Haiti.

The managers strongly support the holding of credible, inclusive elections in Haiti in 2005, and direct that sufficient funds be made available for election-related activities through the Organization of American States. The managers request the State Department to consult with the appropriate committees on plans to support these elections.

The conference agreement does not include a Senate provision requiring a plan for reforestation in Haiti. However, concerns with deforestation in Haiti were reinforced by the May 2004 mudslides that caused widespread death and destruction. The managers request the Administrator of USAID to consult with the Secretaries of State, Agriculture, and Energy, with Haitian officials, nongovernmental organizations and communities, and with appropriate international donor agencies, to devise a reforestation strategy for areas that are vulnerable to erosion. The managers request the Administrator of USAID submit a report not later than 180 days after enactment of this Act containing such a strategy including funding requirements.

The managers also request that the Secretary of State submit a report within 90 days after enactment of this Act containing a multi-year assistance strategy for Haiti, with a focus on security, employment, elections, health, education, and the rule of law.

The managers were disappointed by the Haitian Government's mishandling of the trial of Louis Jodel Chamblain and note with growing concern the deteriorating security and human rights situation in Haiti.

The managers support the work of the Cooperative Association of States for Scholarships program and recommend additional funding to expand its activities in Haiti.

Sec. 554. Cambodia

The conference agreement includes a provision, similar to a Senate amendment, regarding assistance for Cambodia. The managers remain concerned with the slow pace of political, legal and economic reforms in that country, and the absence of transparency and accountability on behalf of the Royal Government of Cambodia (RGC).

The managers commend a recent USAID-funded assessment of corruption in Cambodia, and are troubled by the lack of political will demonstrated by the RGC and the Cambodian People's Party in tackling the issues of lawlessness and impunity in that country. The conference agreement provides that $4,000,000 may be made available for activities to support democracy in that country, and the managers have included an exception for rule of law programs.

The conference agreement provides $1,000,000 in FMF assistance for Cambodia, and conditions IMET assistance on the provision of a list to the Committees, compiled by the Secretary of State, of those individuals who have been credibly alleged to have ordered or carried out the attack against the Khmer Nation Party in 1997. This list may be provided in classified form, if necessary. The managers expect FMF assistance to strengthen border control and counterterrorism efforts in Cambodia, and request that the Committees be consulted prior to initiating any FMF related activities. The managers recommend that the Secretary of State consult with relevant United States Government agencies and international nongovernmental organizations in compiling the IMET-required list.

The conference agreement provides that assistance may be made available for a Khmer Rouge genocide tribunal if the Secretary of State makes a number of determinations regarding the credibility and independence of Cambodia's judicial system and the proposed tribunal.

Sec. 555. Palestinian Statehood

The conference agreement includes language similar to that proposed by the House providing Presidential waiver authority in circumstances "vital" to national security. The Senate amendment would have provided such waiver authority in circumstances "important" to national security.

Sec. 556. Colombia

The conference agreement includes a provision similar to current law that conditions the provision of assistance to the Colombian Armed forces, but includes a Senate proposed change in subsection (2)(E) requiring a certification that the Colombian Government is dismantling paramilitary leadership and financial networks. The House bill and current law required the Colombian Armed Forces to meet this condition.

The conference agreement does not include a Senate provision requiring prior consultation with the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights in Colombia, with the International Committee of the Red Cross, and with the appropriate congressional committees. The managers expect the Secretary of State, prior to making the certifications required by this section, to consider the opinion of the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights in Colombia regarding the conditions in section 556(2)(A) through (E) of this Act and to consult with the Committees on Appropriations.

Sec. 559. West Bank and Gaza Program

The conference agreement does not include a Senate provision creating a new subsection "Certification". The agreement does include a new Senate subsection "Prohibition" that prohibits funds under this program from recognizing or honoring individuals who commit acts of terrorism. The House did not address either of these matters.

Sec. 560. Contribution to the United Nations Population Fund

The conference agreement provides $34,000,000 for the UN Population Fund (UNFPA) for fiscal year 2005, as recommended by the Senate. Of this amount, $25,000,000 is to be made available from funds appropriated under "International Organizations and Programs" (designated in the table as "Reserve to be allocated") and the balance of $9,000,000 is to be made available from funds appropriated under "Child Survival and Health Programs Fund".

The conference agreement includes language that mandates the reprogramming of $12,500,000 in fiscal year 2004 funds, originally appropriated under "International Organizations and Programs" in P.L. 108-199 for UNFPA, for anti-trafficking programs and $12,500,000 in fiscal year 2004 funds, originally appropriated under "International Organizations and Programs" in P.L. 108-199 for UNFPA, for family planning, maternal, and reproductive health activities.

The conference agreement also includes language similar to a Senate provision which requires that funds appropriated under "International Organizations and Programs" in this Act that are available for UNFPA (designated in the table as "Reserve to be allocated"), that are not made available for UNFPA because of the operation of any provision of law, shall be transferred to "Child Survival and Health Programs Fund" and shall be made available for family planning, maternal, and reproductive health activities. If transferred to "Child Survival and Health Programs Fund", these funds would be administered by USAID subject to the Committees' regular notification procedures. The purpose of this provision is to eliminate any ambiguity regarding the managers' intent that funds appropriated for UNFPA that are not provided to UNFPA as a result of the operation of any provision of law are to be made available to USAID for family planning, maternal, and reproductive health activities.

Sec. 563. Funding for Serbia

The conference agreement includes Senate language that conditions assistance for the central government of Serbia, after May 31, 2005, on certain specified conditions. The House bill contained current law on this matter.

Sec. 564. Community-Based Police Assistance

The managers have included a general provision similar to Senate proposed language expanding the authorities in current law to allow USAID to participate in programs that improve community policing. The House bill limited the authority to Jamaica and El Salvador, the same as current law. The expanded authorities in this section are limited to improving the effectiveness and accountability of civilian police authority through training and technical assistance in human rights, the rule of law, strategic planning, and through assistance to foster civilian police roles that support democratic governance. The section includes a consultation requirement that the managers expect to be invoked at the preliminary planning stages of such programs. The section further provides that the notification of the Committees on Appropriations is required before any obligation of funds using the authority of this section. The House bill included a provision similar to current law.

Sec. 565. Special Debt Relief for the Poorest

The conference agreement includes language similar to the Senate amendment providing the President authority to reduce debt owed to the United States as a result of obligations to pay for purchases of United States agricultural commodities under export credit guarantee programs. The House bill did not include this authority.

Sec. 567. Basic Education

The conference agreement includes language proposed by the House that provides not less than $400,000,000 for basic education from title II of this Act shall be available. The Senate amendment would have provided that not less than $335,000,000 from title II of this Act should be for such purposes.

Sec. 568. Reconciliation Programs

The conference agreement provides $12,000,000 from the Economic Support Funds account for such programs similar to the House bill. The Senate amendment provided $15,000,000 for such purposes.

Sec. 569. Sudan

The conference agreement includes a new provision, similar to section 531 of the House bill, that provides not less than $311,000,000 from this Act for Sudan. As in the House bill, no funds from this Act may be available for assistance for the Government of Sudan or to alleviate the sovereign debt of that government unless specific steps are taken to improve security and humanitarian assistance in Darfur. In addition to the notification procedures required for Sudan in section 520, this general provision limits the amount of "International Disaster and Famine Assistance" and "Transition Initiatives" funds that may be spent without notification outside of Darfur to $45,000,000. The section also provides the Administration the authority to continue current projects and programs in Sudan.

This section also includes modified language from sections 5103 and 5105 of the Senate amendment providing $75,000,000 in emergency appropriations for "Peacekeeping Operations" to support peace and humanitarian intervention operations for Sudan, and an additional $18,000,000 for "International Disaster and Famine Assistance" for humanitarian assistance and related activities for Sudan. The managers intend that the additional Peacekeeping Operations funding will be used to support the African Union operation in Darfur.

Language is included designating the entire amount as an emergency. The Secretary of State is instructed to consult with the Committees on Appropriations regarding the proposed uses of these funds within 30 days of enactment of this Act.

For purposes of Section 402(a)(2) of S. Con. Res. 95 (108th Congress), as made applicable to the House of Representatives by H. Res. 649 (108th Congress), funds made available pursuant to this section are provided in response to a situation which poses a direct threat to life and property, is sudden, is an urgent and compelling need, is unpredictable, and is not permanent in nature.

Sec. 570. Trade Capacity Building

The managers recommend that not less than $507,000,000 should be made available for trade capacity building assistance from several accounts in title II of this Act. The House bill recommended $517,000,000 for this purpose and the Senate did not address this matter.

In this section, the conference agreement provides $20,000,000 for capacity building activities under "Economic Support Fund" related to the free trade agreement between the United States and the countries of Central America and the Dominican Republic. The managers expect that such activities should include labor cooperation, capacity building priorities on fundamental labor rights and the elimination of child labor, and improvements in labor administration. Additionally, the managers note that these activities should also include programs relating to the environment, specifically technical assistance on the development and enforcement of environmental laws and regulations, environmental management systems, partnerships to enhance environmental efforts, and market-related and economically sustainable conservation programs. Prior to the obligation of funds for these purposes, the managers request that the Department of State consult with the Committees on Appropriations.

Sec. 572. Indonesia

The conference agreement includes language similar to that of the Senate amendment regarding assistance for Indonesia under the accounts "International Military Education and Training" (IMET) and "Foreign Military Financing Program" (FMF).

The managers note the recent election of Indonesia President Susilo Bambang Yudhoyono and look forward to a cooperative relationship on a broad range of issues including anti-terrorism and military reform. The managers note the opportunity for improved and enhanced military-to-military relations.

However, the managers remain concerned with the slow pace of military reforms in that country, and that members of the Indonesian Armed Forces continue to avoid justice in cases involving gross violations of human rights, including those committed in East Timor. The managers condition FMF assistance and licenses for the export of lethal defense articles on a certification by the Secretary of State.

The conference agreement again conditions IMET assistance on the Indonesian Armed Forces cooperation with the FBI's investigation into the August 31, 2002 murders of two American citizens and one Indonesian citizen. Expanded IMET assistance is not subject to this condition. The managers strongly encourage the Indonesian Government to redouble efforts to resolve this case in a credible and professional manner.

The House bill included language similar to that of the Senate on the provision of IMET assistance. The House bill did not address the issue of FMF assistance for Indonesia in this section, but prohibited assistance in the bill language under that account.

Sec. 573. Limitation on Contracts

The conference agreement includes language, similar to that in the House bill, which prohibits funds from this Act from being used to fund any contract contravening section 8(d)(6) of the Small Business Act, which requires certain reporting and certification requirements from government subcontractors. The Senate did not address this matter.

Sec. 574. Limitation on Economic Support Fund Assistance for Certain Foreign Governments that are Parties to the International Criminal Court

The conference agreement includes language in subsection (a) prohibiting the use of funds appropriated under the Economic Support Fund for assistance to any government of a country that is a party to the International Criminal Court (ICC) and has not entered into an agreement with the United States pursuant to Article 98 of the Rome Statute preventing the ICC from proceeding against United States personnel present in such country.

In subsection (b), the President is given the authority, without prior notice to Congress, to waive the prohibition of subsection (a) with respect to a North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO) member country, a major non-NATO ally (as specified in this subsection), or Taiwan if he determines and reports to the appropriate congressional committees that it is important to the national security interests of the United States.

In subsection (c), the President is given the authority, without prior notice to Congress, to waive the prohibition in subsection (a) for a particular country if he determines and reports to the appropriate congressional committees that such country has entered into an agreement with the United States pursuant to Article 98.

In subsection (d) language is included that exempts assistance under the Millennium Challenge Act from the prohibition of this section, notwithstanding section 606(a)(2)(B) of such Act.

The House bill included the same language as contained in subsection (a). The Senate amendment did not address this matter.

Sec. 575. Prohibition against Direct Funding for Saudi Arabia

The conference agreement includes language that prohibits assistance to Saudi Arabia, but allows for assistance to be provided if the President certifies to the Committees on Appropriations, 15 days prior to the obligation of funds for assistance for Saudi Arabia, that Saudi Arabia is cooperating with efforts to combat international terrorism and that the proposed assistance will help facilitate that effort. The House bill did not contain a waiver provision. The Senate amendment did not address this matter.

Sec. 576. Environment Programs

The conference agreement provides that $165,000,000 in development assistance shall be made available for biodiversity programs, of which $8,000,000 should be made available to implement a new regional strategy for biodiversity conservation in countries comprising the Amazon basin of South America, which is additional to the amounts requested for biodiversity activities in the Amazon basin in fiscal year 2005. The Senate proposed $15,000,000. The managers note that $7,000,000 in unobligated fiscal year 2004 funds are also available for this purpose. The managers request to be consulted prior to the obligation of funds.

The conference agreement does not include a Senate provision that not less than $17,500,000 should be made available for the Congo Basin Forest Partnership, of which not less than $2,500,000 should be made available for the Great Apes Conservation Fund administered by the United States Fish and Wildlife Service for use in Central Africa. However, the managers support these conservation programs and expect these amounts to be made available for these purposes.

The conference agreement includes language similar to a Senate provision making $180,000,000 available for clean energy and other climate change policies and programs in developing countries. Of this amount, $100,000,000 should be made available to promote and deploy energy conservation, energy efficiency, and renewable and clean energy technologies. The managers are concerned that funding for these energy activities, and for USAID's Office of Energy and Information Technology, has decreased in recent years, and have therefore provided $15,000,000 above the amount allocated by USAID in fiscal year 2004 for these purposes. The managers request USAID to submit a report not later than 90 days after enactment of this Act, describing activities funded and funding amounts for each type of energy program. The managers request that the Caribbean be considered by USAID for support for solar, hydro and other renewable energy technologies, in addition to the regions listed in the Senate report.

The conference agreement includes in this section the same language as Senate section 5101 that requires the Secretary of Treasury to inform the international financial institutions (IFIs) that it is United States policy not to provide assistance for natural resource extraction and export until a number of transparency guidelines are met with respect to revenues and expenditures. Additionally the section requires a report describing assistance by the IFIs for natural resource extraction and export. The House did not address this matter.

Sec. 577. Uzbekistan

The conference agreement contains language proposed by the Senate that provides that assistance to the Government of Uzbekistan may be made available only if the Secretary of State determines and reports that the Government is making substantial progress in meeting its bilateral commitments in the Declaration of Strategic Partnership with the United States. The House bill did not address this matter.

Sec. 578. Central Asia

The conference agreement contains language proposed by the Senate that provides that assistance to the Government of Kazakhstan may be made available upon a determination and report by the Secretary of State that Kazakhstan has made significant improvements in the protection of human rights during the preceding six months. The Senate provision includes a national security waiver. It also requires the Secretary of State to submit periodic reports on the provision of defense articles, services, and financial assistance to the countries of Central Asia. The House bill did not address this matter.

Sec. 579. Disability Programs

The managers strongly support the rights of people with disabilities and direct funding be made available to support policies and programs on behalf of people with disabilities in developing countries. The managers note that USAID has already designated a Disability Coordinator, and expect the USAID Disability Coordinator and the State Department to work together to devise a plan for their respective roles in administering these funds, in consultation with the Committees on Appropriations.

The managers have provided authority to use a portion of the funds for an international conference on the needs of people with disabilities, including disability rights, advocacy and access. USAID and the Department of State are to consult with the Committees on Appropriations regarding any plan to sponsor such a conference.

Sec. 580. Zimbabwe

The conference agreement includes language the same as current law and similar to section 5073 of the Senate amendment that requires the Secretary of the Treasury to take certain punitive measures against the Government of Zimbabwe. The House bill did not address this matter.

Sec. 581. Tibet

The conference agreement contains language similar to that contained in the House bill in section 526, and in the Senate amendment in section 5074, that provides that of the funds appropriated to the Economic Support Fund, not less than $4,000,000 should be made available to nongovernmental organizations which preserve cultural traditions and promote sustainable development and environmental conservation in Tibetan communities. In addition, the conference agreement provides that $250,000 should be made available for human rights and democracy programs through the National Endowment for Democracy.

Sec. 582. Nigeria

The conference agreement includes Senate language requiring a report (which should be provided within 90 days of enactment) on the involvement of the Nigerian Armed Forces in an incident in Benue State, the steps being taken to prosecute those involved, and whether such units have received United States assistance. The House bill did not address this matter.

Sec. 583. Discrimination against Minority Religious Faiths in the Russian Federation

The conference agreement includes Senate language prohibiting any funds from this Act for the Government of the Russian Federation after 180 days from enactment of this Act, unless the President determines and certifies that the Government of the Russian Federation has implemented no government action discriminating against religious groups or communities. The House bill did not address this matter.

Sec. 584. Central America

The conference agreement includes a new general provision providing funds for countries of Central America. Subsection (a) provides that of the funds appropriated by this Act under the headings "Child Survival and Health Programs Fund" and "Development Assistance", not less than the amount of funds initially allocated pursuant to section 653(a) of the Foreign Assistance Act of 1961 for fiscal year 2004 should be made available for El Salvador, Guatemala, Nicaragua and Honduras. The managers note that the total funding levels for these countries are as follows: $35,755,000 for El Salvador, $22,499,000 for Guatemala, $35,144,000 for Honduras, and $35,011,000 for Nicaragua. The House bill did not address this matter, and the Senate amendment addressed only Nicaragua and Guatemala.

Subsection (b) includes a provision similar to the Senate amendment conditioning $3,227,000 of funds provided in prior years Acts for the Guatemala Military Assistance Program. The House did not address this matter.

Subsection (c) includes a provision identical to Senate section 5088 that amends section 527 of the Foreign Relations Authorization Act for fiscal years 1994 and 1995 to exempt the government of Nicaragua from sanctions as a result of expropriation of property claims after a certain date set by the Secretary of State.

The managers note that the Procuraduria de la Republica in Nicaragua and the Fiscalia de Anti-corruption in Guatemala have played leading roles in the fight against corruption in Central America. Both have assembled impressive track records of investigations, arrests and convictions involving the misuse of government funds that are unprecedented in each country. The managers endorse Senate report language recommending $250,000 for the Procuraduria and $250,000 for the Fiscalia in fiscal year 2005.

Sec. 585. War Crimes in Africa

The conference agreement includes a Senate provision conditioning funding to the central government of any country where specific war criminals are living on a determination by the Secretary of State that such government is making efforts to cooperate with specified criminal tribunals and special courts. Funding for "Peacekeeping Operations" and projected economic assistance are exempt from this restriction.

Sec. 586. Admission of Refugees

The conference agreement provides language similar to section 5081 of the Senate amendment that advises the Secretary of State to use private voluntary organizations with relevant expertise in the processing, identification, and referral of refugees and advises the Secretary of State to develop a system for accepting referrals from local private, voluntary organizations, and outlines categories of special consideration for admission. The provision does not include a report required in the Senate language. The House bill did not address this matter.

Sec. 587. Code of Conduct

The conference agreement continues previous year language that prohibits refugee and humanitarian assistance funding under the heading "Migration and Refugee Assistance" and "Office of Transition Initiatives" to an organization that has not adopted a code of conduct consistent with the Inter-Agency Standing Committee Task Force on Protection From Sexual Exploitation and Abuse in Humanitarian Crises six core principles. Additionally the provision advises the Secretary of State and the Administrator of USAID to incorporate policies and programs to identify the needs of, and threats to, women and children at the various stages of a complex humanitarian emergency. The provision is similar to the Senate amendment. The House bill did not address this matter.

Sec. 588. United States Agency for International Development Hiring Authority

The conference agreement provides authority for USAID to use up to $37,500,000 to hire 175 Foreign Service Limited employees. The Senate provided $25,000,000 for an USAID pilot management initiative and $12,500,000 in hiring authority. For many years, USAID has used multiple personnel authorities, such as Personal Services Contracts (PSCs), Participating Agency Service Agreements (PASAs), Resources Support Service Agreements (RSSAs) and other mechanisms to obtain the services of individuals necessary to carry out USAID's programs.

Many of these individuals have unique skills that USAID will require only for a limited duration, although in most other respects these individuals are indistinguishable from USAID employees. USAID estimates it has over 800 of these individuals now working in Washington and in overseas missions. The salary and support costs of these individuals are currently included in appropriations for program accounts.

Prior to using the authority, USAID must meet several conditions, including: a comprehensive work force analysis and a one for one reduction in the number of PSCs, PASAs, RSSAs and other staff. The managers expect this authority to help rationalize USAID's personnel practices and make more transparent the costs of program implementation. It will lead to budget savings as USAID is now required to pay other agencies and entities overhead costs of as much as 30 and 40 percent when it uses outside staff.

The conference agreement includes language under this section similar to section 5083 of the Senate amendment, which allows USAID to use program funds to cover the costs of staff working to mitigate the effects of natural disasters. The managers note that this authority should be used sparingly and only when necessary to enable USAID to cope with the consequences of natural disasters, such as those on the scale of Hurricane Mitch in Central America in 1999.

Sec. 589. Overseas Private Investment Corporation and Export-Import Bank Restrictions

The conference agreement includes a provision identical to the Senate amendment and current law that prohibits the use of funds by OPIC and the Export-Import Bank to finance investments in connection with a project involving diamonds in a country that is not implementing the requirements developed by the Kimberley Process, or is not undertaking other measures that the Secretary of State determines to contribute to the elimination of the trade in conflict diamonds.

Sec. 590. Security in Asia

The conference agreement does not include Senate language that would have specified military assistance for a number of countries in Asia. Funding for these countries is addressed in the Statement of the Managers in the table under the heading "Foreign Military Financing Program". The House bill did not address these matters.

The conference agreement provides FMF assistance to a number of Asian countries not included in the 2005 budget request, including Cambodia, Indonesia, Fiji, Tonga, and Bangladesh, and additional assistance above the request for Mongolia, Thailand and Nepal. The managers endorse Senate report language regarding terrorism in Southeast Asia.

The conference agreement provides FMF assistance for the Indonesian navy in order to enhance maritime security, subject to a report by the Secretary of State that the navy is not violating human rights and is cooperating with civilian judicial authorities on cases involving human rights violations. The provision of such assistance is subject to notification.

The conference agreement also provides that FMF assistance for Cambodia may be made available notwithstanding section 554 of this Act, subject to notification.

The managers deplore and condemn atrocities committed by Maoist insurgents in Nepal, and commend the Government of Nepal for recognizing the need for a political solution to this conflict. The conference agreement conditions FMF assistance on a number of determinations by the Secretary of State regarding the Government of Nepal's efforts to promote and protect human rights, and includes a national security waiver.

Sec. 591. HIPC Debt Reduction and Trust Fund

The conference agreement includes a section identical to Senate section 5093 that authorizes not more than $150,000,000 for contributions to the HIPC Trust Fund. The House did not address this matter.

Sec. 592. Compliance with the Algiers Agreement

The conference agreement includes language similar to a Senate provision restricting United States assistance, with certain exceptions and a waiver provision, to the central governments of Ethiopia or Eritrea unless the Secretary of State certifies that such governments are taking steps to comply with the Algiers Agreements. The House did not address this matter.

Sec. 593. Administrative Provisions Related to Multilateral Development Banks

The conference agreement includes language similar to Senate section 5099 related to a number of environmental provisions for the multilateral development banks. The House did not address this matter.

Sec. 594. Vietnamese Refugees

The conference agreement includes language similar to section 5100 of the Senate amendment which makes certain potential Vietnamese refugees eligible to be considered refugees "of special humanitarian concern" and to be resettled in the United States.

Sec. 595. Joint Explanatory Statement

The conference agreement includes a new general provision requiring that funds in the following accounts be allocated as indicated in the respective tables in the statement of the managers accompanying this Act: Economic Support Fund, Assistance to Eastern Europe and the Baltic States, Assistance for the Independent States of the Former Soviet Union, Nonproliferation, Anti-terrorism, Demining and Related Programs, Andean Counterdrug Initiative, Foreign Military Financing Program, and International Organizations and Programs. Any change to these allocations is subject to the regular reprogramming procedures of the Committees on Appropriations.

PROVISIONS NOT ADOPTED BY THE CONFEREES:

The conference agreement does not include section 5025 of the Senate bill, "HIV/AIDS Working Capital Fund". The contents of the section are included in section 525 of the conference agreement "HIV/AIDS". The House did not address this matter.

The conference agreement does not include section 569 of the House bill or section 5095 of the Senate amendment, "Debt Restructuring Authority" authorizing funds from the Iraq Relief and Reconstruction Fund to be used for the costs of debt relief for Iraq or Senate language amending the sectoral allocations for the Iraq Relief and Reconstruction Fund as specified in the fiscal year 2004 Emergency Supplemental for Iraq and Afghanistan. The provisions of this section were enacted in Public Law 108-309, the continuing resolution for fiscal year 2005. Senate language in this section providing the Overseas Private Investment Corporation authorization to work in Iraq during fiscal year 2005 is included under title I of this Act.

The conference agreement does not include section 572 of the House bill or section 5091 of Senate amendment, each regarding Cuba.

The conference agreement does not include section 573 of the House bill, "Office of the Inspector General of the CPA". A similar provision was enacted in Public Law 108-375, the Defense Authorization Act, 2005. The Senate amendment did not address this matter.

The conference agreement does not include section 574 of the House bill, "Oversight of Iraqi Reconstruction". The provisions of this section were enacted in Public Law 108-309, the continuing resolution for fiscal year 2005. The Senate amendment did not address this matter.

The conference agreement does not include section 576 of the House bill, "Limitation on Attendance at Conferences Outside the United States". The Senate amendment did not address this matter.

The conference agreement does not include section 5076 of the Senate amendment, "University Programs". The House bill did not address this matter.

The conference agreement does not include section 578 of the House bill, "Prohibition on Use of Funds for Certain Purposes". The Senate amendment did not address this matter.

The conference agreement does not include section 579 of the House bill, "Prohibition on Use of Funds to Request the United Nations to Assess the Validity of Elections in the United States". The Senate amendment did not address this matter.

The conference agreement does not include section 580 of the House bill, "Limitation on Provision by the Export-Import Bank of Credit to Entities Reincorporating Overseas". The Senate amendment did not address this matter.

The conference agreement does not include section 5083 of the Senate amendment regarding "Disaster Surge Capacity". This matter is addressed in section 588, "USAID Hiring Authority". The House bill did not address this matter.

The conference agreement does not include Senate section 5084 requiring a report by the Secretary of State setting forth procedures and guidelines for (1) implementing the President's Proclamation dated January 12, 2004, which established a policy of denying entry into the United States to corrupt current and former public officials and certain members of their families; and (2) for making public the names of those individuals who have been denied entry as a result of such Proclamation. However, the managers request the Secretary of State to submit this report to the Committees on Appropriations not later than 60 days after enactment of this Act.

The conference agreement does not include section 5085 of the Senate amendment regarding "Assistance for Victims of Torture". This matter was addressed in the House report.

The conference agreement does not include section 5086 of the Senate amendment regarding "United States Agency for International Development Pilot Management Initiative". This matter is addressed in section 588 "USAID Hiring Authority". The House bill did not address this matter.

The conference agreement does not include section 5088 of the Senate amendment regarding "Certain Claims for Expropriation by the Government of Nicaragua" but the contents of the section are included in section 584 "Central America". The House bill did not address this matter.

The conference agreement does not include section 5093 of the Senate amendment regarding "Assistance to Millennium Challenge Candidate Countries". This matter is addressed under the heading "Millennium Challenge Corporation" where the House bill addresses this matter.

The conference agreement does not include section 5094 of the Senate amendment regarding the "Chernobyl Nuclear Power Plant". The House did not address this matter. The managers expect the Government of the Russian Federation to pledge and contribute funds for the construction of a new shelter over the Chernobyl nuclear power plant, and will continue to closely follow developments in this matter.

The conference agreement does not include section 5097 of the Senate amendment regarding "North Korea and Burma". The provisions regarding Burma are addressed in section 531, "Burma", of the conference agreement. The House bill did not address this matter.

The conference agreement does not include section 5098 of the Senate amendment regarding "Thailand". The House bill did not address this matter. The managers urge the Government of Thailand to promote reconciliation and peace in Burma and to respect the human rights and dignity of Burmese refugees and displaced persons residing in Thailand. The managers also request the Government of Thailand to address the situation in southern Thailand in a manner consistent with Thai laws and international obligations, including those ensuring the protection of human rights. The conference agreement provides $1,000,000 in ESF for programs to promote democracy and press freedoms. The managers request the State Department to consult with the Committees on the use of these funds.

The conference agreement does not include section 5102 of the Senate amendment regarding "Assistance for Foreign Nongovernmental Organizations". The House bill did not address this matter.

The conference agreement does not include section 5104 of the Senate amendment regarding "Additional Funds for the Global Fund to Fight AIDS, Tuberculosis and Malaria". The conference agreement appropriates funding for a contribution to the Global Fund under the heading "Child Survival and Health Programs Fund", as in the House bill.

The conference agreement does not include section 5105 of the Senate amendment regarding "Support for African Union Mission in Darfur, Sudan". The conference agreement addresses this issue in section 569, "Sudan". The House bill did not address this issue.

The conference agreement does not include section 5106 of the Senate amendment regarding "Improving Security in Haiti". The conference agreement addresses Haiti in section 549, as in the House bill.

The conference agreement does not include section 5107 of the Senate amendment regarding "Report on Global Poverty and National Security". The House did not address this matter. The managers direct the Secretary of State, in consultation with other relevant agencies, to fulfill the reporting requirements of this provision not later than 180 days after enactment of this Act.

The conference agreement does not include section 5108 of the Senate amendment regarding "Report on Education Reform in Pakistan". The House did not address this matter. The managers direct the Secretary of State to fulfill the reporting requirements of this provision not later than 90 days after enactment of this Act.

The conference agreement does not include section 5109 of the Senate amendment regarding "United Nations Resolutions on Israel". The conference agreement includes language under section 534 requiring the Secretary of State to report how governments vote at the United Nations on resolutions related to Israel that are opposed by the United States. The House bill did not address this matter.

The conference agreement does not include section 5110 of the Senate amendment regarding "Sense of the Senate on Violations of Religious Freedom in Saudi Arabia". The House bill did not address this matter.

The conference agreement does not include section 5111 of the Senate amendment regarding "Support for the Political Independence of Lebanon". The House bill did not address this matter.

DIVISION E—DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR AND RELATED AGENCIES APPROPRIATIONS ACT, 2005

The conference agreement on the Department of the Interior and Related Agencies Appropriations Act incorporates some of the provisions of both the House passed and the Senate reported versions of the bill. Report language and allocations set forth in either House Report 108-542 or Senate Report 108-341 that are not changed by the conference are approved by the committee of conference. The statement of the managers, while repeating some report language for emphasis, does not negate the language referenced above unless expressly provided herein.

TITLE I—DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR

BUREAU OF LAND MANAGEMENT MANAGEMENT OF LANDS AND RESOURCES

The conference agreement provides $848,939,000 for management of lands and resources instead of $840,401,000 as proposed by the House and $855,689,000 as proposed by the Senate.

Land Resources.—Changes to the House level for land resources include increases of $500,000 for the National Center for Invasive and Plant Management and $500,000 for Idaho weed control, and a reduction of $3,947,000 to reflect a transfer to the wild horse and burro program.

Wildlife and Fisheries.—The change to the House level for wildlife and fisheries is a reduction of $603,000 to reflect a transfer to the wild horse and burro program. The managers agree to the House-proposed funding level for the National Fish and Wildlife Foundation and direct the Foundation to use the funding increase above fiscal year 2004 for projects that support sagebrush ecosystem conservation on public and private lands.

Threatened and Endangered Species.—The change to the House level for threatened and endangered species is a reduction of $576,000 to reflect a transfer to the wild horse and burro program.

Recreation Management.—Changes to the House level for recreation management include an increase of $1,000,000 for the Undaunted Stewardship Program and decreases of $1,000,000 for nationwide recreation management, and $1,039,000 to reflect a transfer to the wild horse and burro program. The managers urge the Bureau to comply with the provisions of the Steens Act and allow landowner, lessee and inholder access to their property within the boundary of the Steens Mountain Cooperative Management and Protection Area. Unless funding is provided for land acquisitions or exchanges, landowners should be afforded full access to their property.

Energy and Minerals.—Changes to the House level for energy and minerals include an increase of $1,000,000 for oil and gas management and $250,000 for coal management.

Alaska Minerals.—The change to the House level for Alaska minerals is an increase of $1,768,000.

Realty Ownership and Management.—Changes to the House level for realty and ownership management include increases of $9,500,000 for Alaska conveyance, $300,000 for GIS mapping in Utah, $750,000 for the Alaska public lands database, and $1,000,000 for recordable disclaimer applications in Alaska, and a decrease of $144,000 to reflect a transfer to the wild horse and burro program.

Resource Protection and Maintenance.—Changes to the House level for resource protection and maintenance include an increase of $1,500,000 for monitoring, and decreases of $600,000 for nationwide law enforcement and $1,309,000 to reflect a transfer to the wild horse and burro program.

Transportation and Facilities Maintenance.—Changes to the House level for transportation and facilities maintenance are an increase of $1,500,000 for capping oil wells in the National Petroleum Reserve Alaska, and a decrease of $2,145,000 to reflect a transfer to the wild horse and burro program. The managers agree to the House level on deferred maintenance, which shifts the funding for the infrastructure improvement program into the deferred maintenance program. These two funding sources address identical project types and this shift will consolidate and streamline maintenance budget activities in the Bureau.

Land and Resource Information Systems.—The change to the House level for land and resource information systems is a decrease of $493,000 to reflect a transfer to the wild horse and burro program.

Workforce and Organizational Support.—Changes to the House level for workforce and organizational support include increases of $583,000 for e-government initiatives, $208,000 for Quickhire, and $570,000 for competitive sourcing, and decreases of $291,000 for Safecom and $244,000 to reflect the transfer to the wild horse and burro program.

Challenge Cost Share.—The managers agree to the House level for the challenge cost share program.

Bill Language.—The conference agreement does not include language carried in previous years concerning the management of wild horses and burros.

WILDLAND FIRE MANAGEMENT

The conference agreement provides $743,099,000 for wildland fire management as proposed by both the House and the Senate.

Hazardous Fuels.—The change to the House level for hazardous fuels is a decrease of $5,000,000.

State and Local Fire Assistance.—The change to the House level for State and local fire assistance is an increase of $5,000,000.

The managers note that the conference agreement provides an additional $100,000,000 in Title IV of this bill for urgent wildfire suppression activities.

The managers remain concerned about the need to control suppression costs. The managers are concerned that effective performance measures are not in place on an inter-agency basis to report on suppression costs. It is imperative that the Secretaries establish appropriate performance metrics promptly. This includes the integration of reporting systems, implementation of policies through the Wildland Fire Leadership Council for cost reporting, and responding to findings of the independent cost control review panel established under Public Law 108-287. The managers direct the Secretaries to submit a report no later than June 30, 2005, on performance measures planned for implementation in fiscal year 2006 to be used on an inter-agency basis.

The managers direct the Bureau to continue the native plant materials development effort at the fiscal year 2004 level.

CENTRAL HAZARDOUS MATERIALS FUND

The conference agreement provides $9,855,000 for the central hazardous materials fund as proposed by the House and the Senate. The managers do not agree with the budget proposal to transfer unobligated funds to the EPA. The managers reiterate that the Bureau's liability does not extend beyond past payments.

CONSTRUCTION

The conference agreement provides $11,500,000 for construction instead of $15,000,000 as proposed by the House and $8,976,000 as proposed by the Senate.

Changes to the House level for construction include increases of $1,500,000 for construction of the California Trail Interpretive Center in Nevada, which completes the Department of the Interior's contribution to this project, $750,000 for the Sand Hollow Recreation MOU with the State of Utah, and $750,000 for the White Sandy Beach on Houser Lake in Montana, and a decrease of $6,500,000 for general construction projects.

The managers are concerned about the relatively low level of construction funding provided to the Bureau compared to other land management agencies and urge the Administration to place more emphasis on providing adequate funding for large deferred maintenance construction projects on public lands.

LAND ACQUISITION

The conference agreement provides $11,350,000 for land acquisition instead of $4,500,000 as proposed by the House and $22,850,000 as proposed by the Senate.

The managers agree to the following distribution of funds:

| Area (State)                                              | Amount      |
|-----------------------------------------------------------|-------------|
| Blackfoot River Watershed (MT) .....                      | $5,000,000 |
| Boise Front ACEC (ID) .....                               | 1,000,000   |
| California Wilderness (CA) .....                          | 750,000     |
| Chain-of-Lakes RMA/Lewis and Clark NHT (MT) .....         | 3,500,000   |
| Colorado Canyons NCA (CO) .....                           | 1,500,000   |

| Snake River Breaks ERMA (Swede's Landing) (OR) ..         | 150,000     |
| Henrys Lake ACEC (ID) .....                               | 750,000     |
| Rio Grande Natl. Wild & Scenic River (NM) .....           | 2,700,000   |
| Sandy River/Oregon NHT (OR) .....                         | 1,000,000   |
| Use of unobligated balances .....                         | -10,000,000 |
| Subtotal .....                                            | 6,850,000   |
| Acquisition Management ..                                 | 3,000,000   |
| Emergency/Inholdings .....                                | 1,500,000   |
| Land Exchange Equalization Payment .....                  | 0           |
| Total .....                                               | 11,350,000  |

The managers expect the Bureau to ensure that acquisitions associated with the Blackfoot Challenge are consistent with Federal appraisal standards. The Bureau should not pay more than the fair market value determined by those appraisals.

OREGON AND CALIFORNIA GRANT LANDS

The conference agreement provides $109,057,000 for Oregon and California grant lands instead of $111,557,000 as proposed by the House and $113,558,000 as proposed by the Senate. The change to the House level is a decrease of $2,500,000 for judgment fund repayment.

RANGE IMPROVEMENTS

The conference agreement provides an indefinite appropriation for range improvements of not less than $10,000,000 as proposed by both the House and the Senate.

SERVICE CHARGES, DEPOSITS, AND FORFEITURES

The conference agreement provides an indefinite appropriation for service charges, deposits, and forfeitures, which is estimated to be $24,490,000 by both the House and the Senate.

MISCELLANEOUS TRUST FUNDS

The conference agreement provides an indefinite appropriation of $12,405,000 for miscellaneous trust funds as proposed by both the House and the Senate.

UNITED STATES FISH AND WILDLIFE SERVICE RESOURCE MANAGEMENT

The conference agreement provides $977,205,000 for resource management instead of $970,494,000 as proposed by the House and $966,265,000 as proposed by the Senate. The changes described below are to the House recommended funding level.

Ecological Services.—Changes to ecological services programs, including Endangered Species Act programs and habitat conservation programs, are detailed below.

In Endangered Species Act candidate conservation, there are increases of $150,000 for Kootenai River burbot and $10,000 for slickspot peppergrass, and a decrease of $750,000 for Alaska sea otter, which is addressed under the recovery program.

In the Endangered Species Act listing program, there is a decrease of $726,000; however, the number that appears in bill language is higher to reflect the recent changes to the Service's cost allocation methodology as explained below.

In Endangered Species Act consultation, there is a decrease of $750,000 for the natural communities conservation planning program in California.

In Endangered Species Act recovery, there are increases of $2,000,000 for Atlantic salmon grants administered by the National Fish and Wildlife Foundation, $500,000 for Lahonton cutthroat trout, $350,000 for White Sulphur Springs NEH, WV, freshwater mussel recovery, $1,800,000 for eider and sea otter recovery at the Alaska SeaLife Center, and $250,000 for concho water snake delisting efforts in Texas. Decreases include $500,000 in base program funding and $300,000 in wolf monitoring. The Service should use the distribution of wolf monitoring funds proposed by the Senate.

In habitat conservation, changes to the House passed level for partners for fish and wildlife projects are as follows:

| Conservation/restoration work at Don Edwards NWR, CA .....                                 | +540   |

In project planning, increases include $550,000 for the Middle Rio Grande (Bosque) research program and $400,000 for Montana wildlife conservation plan development. There is also a decrease of $300,000 for the metropolitan greenspaces program.

In coastal programs, there is a general program decrease of $1,500,000, which still provides an increase above the fiscal year 2004 level.

Refuge Operations and Maintenance.—In refuge operations, there is an increase of $2,500,000 to provide for the Service's share of the costs associated with the Midway Atoll NWR common infrastructure and airport (the balance of infrastructure and airport operating funds should be borne by the Federal Aviation Administration and other benefiting parties), and decreases of $1,000,000 for competitive projects on invasive species control (non-specific) and $1,000,000 for invasive species control at Loxahatchee NWR, FL. In refuge maintenance, there is an increase of $500,000.

Law Enforcement Operations.—In law enforcement operations, increases include $450,000 for the Memphis, TN port of entry and $315,000 for space costs at the Atlanta, Louisville and Memphis ports of entry. There are also decreases of $450,000, which negates the general increase proposed by the House, and $450,000 for vehicle replacement.

Fisheries.—In fish and wildlife management, increases include $800,000 for whirling disease research by the National Partnership on the Management of Wild and Native Coldwater Fisheries, for a total of $1,000,000 for the partnership, $350,000 for the Whirling Disease Foundation, $400,000 for the Wildlife Health Center in Montana, and $400,000 for Yukon River Treaty implementation. These increases are partially offset by a decrease of $1,000,000 for non-partner specific whirling disease research. In marine mammals, there is an increase of $1,300,000 and the Service should use the distribution of marine mammal funding proposed by the Senate. Finally, there is an increase of $885,000 to address partially operational shortfalls in the fisheries program. These funds should be reprogrammed to the appropriate line items in the budget and should remain in the base budget for fiscal year 2006 and beyond.

General Administration.—In general administration, there is a decrease of $130,000 for the National Fish and Wildlife Foundation; increases of $750,000 for training activities at the National Conservation Training Center and $387,000 for NCTC maintenance; and an increase of $400,000 for the Caddo Lake Ramsar Center in Texas.

Bill Language.—The conference agreement includes statutory language earmarking $1,000,000 for Natural Community Conservation Planning in California. Language also is included earmarking $16,175,000 for the endangered species listing program instead of $16,226,000 as proposed by the House and $15,500,000 as proposed by the Senate. This earmark reflects the Senate proposed level adjusted upward for $675,000 in space rental costs associated with the recent changes to the Service's cost allocation methodology.

The managers agree to the following:

1. The Service should realign its fiscal year 2005 budget to agree with the recent changes to the Service's cost allocation methodology.

2. Fiscal year 2005 represents the final year of a statutory earmark for Natural Communities Conservation Planning in California. This program is eligible to compete with other programs for funding in future years and for additional funding in fiscal year 2005.

3. The Service should move as quickly as possible to delist the concho water snake. The managers addressed this issue 5 years ago and are dismayed that the Service has yet to resolve it.

4. Additional funds required for invasive species control programs at Loxahatchee NWR, FL, should be addressed in the fiscal year 2006 budget request.

5. The Peregrine Fund activities should be funded at $400,000 in fiscal year 2005.

6. The Department should carefully review the budget requirements for the fisheries program in its fiscal year 2006 request. The managers are concerned that the fiscal year 2005 request did not accurately reflect program shortfalls and consequences associated with fixed cost absorption and proposed program reductions.

7. The Service should reprogram $4,000,000 in the fisheries program from the deferred maintenance account to the annual maintenance account. This reprogramming is necessary to address operational shortfalls.

8. The managers have provided funds in the law enforcement program to provide full staffing at the ports of entry at the Atlanta, Louisville, and Memphis airports. The managers note that, because of the large volume of cargo flowing through these airports, particularly at Louisville and Memphis, these ports of entry are staffed at significantly higher levels than most other ports around the country. The managers have also provided $315,000 specifically for unanticipated space rental costs at these three ports of entry. The funds for additional space needs should be allocated to these three ports of entry, and the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations should be notified as to the distribution of funds. The additional space funds, along with the annual operating funds, should be retained in the base budget for these three ports of entry for fiscal year 2006 and beyond.

9. The funds provided for the Caddo Lake Ramsar Center in Texas are for conservation and education programs directly related to Caddo Lake and may not be used for infrastructure, construction-related projects, legal or management fees, or any other purposes.

10. Funding for E-Training and E-Rule-making activities are retained. Funds budgeted for Safecom and Disaster Management should be reprogrammed to cover equitably fixed cost increases not funded in the budget request.

11. The managers are concerned by the recent discoveries of the northern snakehead in the Potomac River and its potential impact on native fish populations through predation, food and habitat competition, and the introduction of diseases and parasites. The Service should submit a report to the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations, no later than 180 days after enactment of this Act, on the steps it is taking to identify, contain, and eradicate this species.

CONSTRUCTION

The conference agreement provides $53,400,000 for construction instead of $48,400,000 as proposed by the House and $37,136,000 as proposed by the Senate.

The managers agree to the following distribution of funds:

Bill Language.—The conference agreement includes statutory language allowing for a single contract for the full scope of the Clark R. Bavin Forensics Laboratory, OR renovation.

The managers agree to the following:

1. The Service should develop standardized designs for maintenance facilities so that requirements like that at ACE Basin NWR, SC and other NWRs can be categorized, priorities can be established, and the most critical needs can be funded.

2. The administrative building/visitor center proposal for Bombay Hook NWR, DE should be incorporated into the Service's priority system and, as appropriate, should be considered within the visitor contact facilities fund.

3. Funding for the Hanford Reach NM, WA, visitor center is provided with the understanding that the Service's total contribution to this effort will not exceed $3,000,000.

4. The managers are concerned with the lack of progress in locating a site and commencing construction of the administrative/visitor center for the Kodiak NWR, AK. The Service should expedite this process in fiscal year 2005 and provide a definitive cost estimate to complete this project.

5. Funding for large game guzzlers at Nevada refuges should be addressed using refuge operations and maintenance funding.

6. Funds for raceway rehabilitation and tank installation at the Northeast Fishery Center, PA, should be supplemented with cost sharing from other benefiting parties.

7. Funding for field and laboratory testing of fishway designs is not included. The Service should work with the U.S. Geological Survey to determine the appropriate bureau and the appropriate means to fund this effort.

8. Funding for the Sevilleita NWR, NM laboratory, construction should not exceed $6,600,000. With the funds provided for fiscal year 2005, the Service will have received $4,500,000.

9. Funds provided for the World Birding Center, TX, represent the second of three payments for this program. The managers understand that the remaining amount for this project will not exceed $1,100,000.

10. Funds are provided for planning and design of a visitor center at Togiak NWR in Dillingham, AK. The managers expect that this facility will be located adjacent to the airport to maximize contact with the public. This center should be a similar size as the visitor center operated by the Service in King Salmon, Alaska.

LAND ACQUISITION

The conference agreement provides $37,526,000 for land acquisition instead of $12,500,000 as proposed by the House and $49,864,000 as proposed by the Senate.

The managers agree to the following distribution of funds:

| Area (State)                                      | Amount     |
|---------------------------------------------------|------------|

| Total .....                                       | 37,526,000 |

Bill Language.—The conference agreement makes a technical modification to the language proposed in the Senate bill earmarking $750,000 for the Yukon Flats NWR (AK)/ Doyon land exchange. The conference agreement retains the language proposed in the Senate bill providing that none of the funds in this or any other Act may be used for acquisition of land to be part of Deep Fork NWR (OK).

The managers agree to the following:

1. Acquisitions proposed in the budget requests for the Alaska Peninsula NWR (AK), Canaan Valley NWR (WV), Cypress Creek NWR (IL), and Red River NWR (LA) shall be funded out of the inholdings account.

2. Lands acquired for the James Campbell NWR (HI) must be within the authorized refuge boundary.

LANDOWNER INCENTIVE PROGRAM

The conference agreement provides $22,000,000 for the landowner incentive program instead of $15,000,000 as proposed by the House and $29,000,000 as proposed by the Senate.

PRIVATE STEWARDSHIP GRANTS

The conference agreement provides $7,000,000 for private stewardship grants instead of $5,000,000 as proposed by the House and $7,500,000 as proposed by the Senate.

Bill Language.—The conference agreement includes bill language, as proposed by the House providing for the merger of funds previously appropriated under the “Stewardship Grants” heading. The Senate had no similar provision.

COOPERATIVE ENDANGERED SPECIES FUND

The conference agreement provides $81,596,000 for the cooperative endangered species fund as proposed by the House instead of $82,600,000 as proposed by the Senate.

Bill Language.—The conference agreement earmarks $32,212,000 to be derived from the Cooperative Endangered Species Fund instead of $49,384,000 as proposed by the House and $32,600,000 as proposed by the Senate. The amount derived from the Land and Water Conservation Fund is $49,384,000 as proposed by the House instead of $50,000,000 as proposed by the Senate.

NATIONAL WILDLIFE REFUGE FUND

The conference agreement provides $14,414,000 for the national wildlife refuge fund as proposed by both the House and the Senate.

NORTH AMERICAN WETLANDS CONSERVATION FUND

The conference agreement provides $38,000,000 for the North American wetlands conservation fund as proposed by both the House and the Senate.

NEOTROPICAL MIGRATORY BIRD CONSERVATION

The conference agreement provides $4,000,000 for neotropical migratory bird conservation as proposed by the Senate instead of $4,400,000 as proposed by the House.

MULTINATIONAL SPECIES CONSERVATION FUND

The conference agreement provides $5,800,000 for multinational species conservation fund programs instead of $5,900,000 as proposed by the House and $5,700,000 as proposed by the Senate. Changes to the House recommended level include decreases of $50,000 for African elephants, $50,000 for rhinoceros and tigers, $50,000 for Asian elephants, and $50,000 for great apes, and an increase of $100,000 to initiate the newly authorized marine turtles program. The managers expect the Service to keep the funding for marine turtles in the base budget and to increase funding, as appropriate, for this program in future budget requests.

Bill Language.—The conference agreement includes the statutory citation for the Marine Turtle Conservation Act of 2004.

STATE AND TRIBAL WILDLIFE GRANTS

The conference agreement provides $70,000,000 for State and tribal wildlife grants instead of $67,500,000 as proposed by the House and $75,000,000 as proposed by the Senate. The managers reiterate the importance of comprehensive wildlife conservation strategies toward the conservation of each State's full array of wildlife and their habitats. The strategies, produced in each State and territory plan, are expected to be complete by October 1, 2005. Emphasis should be on those habitats and conservation actions that support the species of greatest conservation need. Program funds should be directed to those actions and habitats that will best implement the comprehensive wildlife conservation strategies and preclude the need to list many more species as threatened or endangered under the Endangered Species Act.

Bill Language.—The conference agreement includes bill language, as proposed by the House, providing for the merger of funds previously appropriated under the “State Wildlife Grants” heading. The Senate had no similar provision.

NATIONAL PARK SERVICE

OPERATION OF THE NATIONAL PARK SYSTEM

The conference agreement provides $1,707,282,000 for operation of the national park system instead of $1,686,067,000 as proposed by the House and $1,688,915,000 as proposed by the Senate.

The managers have provided an additional $52,654,000 for park base operations. Combined with the $22,012,000 in specific park operating increases in the budget request, the parks will have an additional $74,666,000 in park programmatic increases for fiscal year 2005. This is the largest park base programmatic increase ever for the National Park Service and in keeping with the large increases in operating funds provided by the Congress over the past 10 years.

The Administration's budget requests for parks in recent years have not sufficiently addressed growing shortfalls in core operating programs at the parks. Recent budgets have seen increasing emphasis placed on expanding law enforcement and security, facility maintenance, information technology, and natural resource data gathering. Core park operations have also been impacted by the absorption of pay costs within budget requests, Congressionally mandated pay increases in excess of budget requests, and storm damage. New security and anti-terrorism requirements and other new mandates and responsibilities have also been assigned by the Department and the Office of Management and Budget. The managers have been supportive of these requirements and have provided significant increases for security at icon and border parks while consistently including additional park maintenance funding to ensure the maintenance backlog reduction efforts continue on track. However important these new responsibilities, the budget of the National Park Service cannot continue to be limited to a few parks and purposes while core visitor service requirements are going unmet nationwide. All parks need to remain open and accessible to visitors and basic visitor services need to be available at all parks across the system.

Of the additional amount provided for park base operations, $40,000,000 should be distributed to all park units as an across-the-board increase in all budget subactivities within park management to help offset the impact of recent absorptions. This will provide each unit with a minimum increase of approximately 5 percent above their fiscal year 2004 level. Also, $500,000 of the additional amount should be distributed to national trails on a priority basis. The remaining balance of $12,154,000 for additional park operations funding shall be used solely to restore basic visitor services and address resource preservation needs in accordance with National Park Service priorities.

The conference agreement provides $342,967,000 for resource stewardship. Changes to the House level include a reduction of $1,000,000 for inventory and monitoring and an increase of $500,000 for Vanishing Treasures.

The conference agreement provides $326,856,000 for visitor services, the same as the House level.

The conference agreement provides $573,178,000 for maintenance, the same as the House level.

The conference agreement provides $285,946,000 for park support. Changes to the House level include an additional $871,000 for e-government initiatives, $250,000 for wild and scenic rivers, $500,000 for the traditional challenge cost share program and $94,000 for the Lewis and Clark program. The House position on the CCI challenge cost share program is adopted.

Bill language.—The conference agreement retains the House language regarding one year funding for repair and rehabilitation funds. The conference agreement earmarks $2,000,000 for the YCC program.

Report language.—Earmarks within the repair and rehabilitation program are as follows: $450,000 for 26 Williams Street at Dayton Aviation Heritage NHP; $306,000 for rehab of Porter Beach restrooms at Indiana Dunes NL; $500,000 for boat launch ramps at Lake Mead NRA; $300,000 for signage repairs at Fort Stanwix NM; $388,000 for dock, signage and lighting repairs at Amistad NRA; $300,000 to continue cultural landscaping improvements at Gettysburg NMP; $400,000 for Natchez Trace Parkway; $325,000 for rehab of Fort Piute at Mojave National Preserve; $400,000 for rehab of structures at Stiltsville in Biscayne NP; and $200,000 for restoration at International Peace Garden, ND.

The conference agreement continues to earmark one-third of the challenge cost share program for the National Trails System. The managers have retained the House language concerning National Park Service travel. Foreign travel must be pre-approved by the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations.

The managers recognize the successful partnership between the National Park Service and Southeast Community College, KY, in providing important employee training. The managers encourage the Service to consider additional training opportunities with the college.

UNITED STATES PARK POLICE

The conference agreement provides $81,204,000 for the United States Park Police as proposed by the House and the Senate.

It has been three years since the National Academy of Public Administration's comprehensive financial and management review of the U.S. Park Police. As of two months ago, NAPA reported that none of the major reforms had been implemented. The managers expect the Secretary and the Director of the National Park Service to implement fully the major reforms and be prepared to discuss those changes at the fiscal year 2006 hearings.

NATIONAL RECREATION AND PRESERVATION

The conference agreement provides $61,832,000 for national recreation and preservation, instead of $53,877,000 as proposed by the House and $63,023,000 as proposed by the Senate.

The conference agreement provides $551,000 for recreation programs, the same as the House and Senate. Also included is $11,018,000 for natural programs. Changes to the House level include an additional $300,000 for the rivers and trails program. The managers expect that the reforms made to the strategic plan will be closely followed. This is a technical assistance program. Direct grants are not authorized.

The conference agreement provides $20,214,000 for cultural programs. Changes to the House level include increases of $100,000 for the Louisiana Creole Heritage Center and $300,000 for a National Underground Railroad Network grant program, which is authorized.

The conference agreement provides $1,616,000 for International park affairs, the same as the House and Senate.

The conference agreement provides $397,000 for environmental and compliance review, the same as the House and Senate.

The conference agreement provides $1,892,000 for grant administration, the same as the House level.

The conference agreement provides the $500,000 requested in the budget for the partnership office. The managers intend to continue support for the work of NPS regional office partnership and volunteers-in-the-parks coordinators. Funds are to be provided equally to each of the seven regions to supplement existing regional office and park partnership activities, services, and events consistent with identified regional priorities and mission goals.

The conference agreement provides $14,785,000 for nationally designated heritage areas. Included in this amount is $122,000 for administration and $500,000 for heritage areas authorized after enactment of this Act. Individual projects are as follows:

| Project                                                        | Amount |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------|
| America's Agricultural Heritage Partnership (Silos & Smokestacks) ... | $750,000     |

The conference agreement includes $400,000 for the Sewall-Belmont House. The managers are concerned that the Service has taken too long to determine an appropriate solution to making the facility handicapped accessible. The managers direct the Service to report to the Committees no later than April 1, 2005, on a final recommendation.

Bill language.—The conference agreement provides $700,000 for a feasibility study for the Train to the Mountain project.

The conference agreement includes the Senate language on the use of funds for the Rivers and Trails program.

The conference agreement has included bill language to change the matching requirements at Keweenaw NHP to 1/1 for one year only.

Report language.—The conference agreement provides $100,000 within available funds to the National Center for Preservation Technology and Training for continued support of the successful competitive heritage education grants program to schools in Louisiana. No more than fifteen percent of this amount may be used to administer the program.

HISTORIC PRESERVATION FUND

The conference agreement provides $72,750,000 for the historic preservation fund instead of $71,533,000 as proposed by the House and $71,250,000 as proposed by the Senate. Changes to the House level include an increase of $1,430,000 for grants-in-aid to States and Territories and an increase of $287,000 for grants-in-aid to Indian Tribes. The conference agreement provides $3,500,000 for Historically Black Colleges and Universities, instead of $4,000,000 as proposed by the House.

Of the $30,000,000 provided for Save America's Treasures, $15,000,000 is for competitive grants. The balance of the funds are to be distributed as follows:

Bill language.—House language on partnership projects has been slightly modified to remove the requirement for “written” approval from the Committees. Approval of the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations still applies.

The conference agreement includes the following: (1) House provision regarding Flight 93 NMem; (2) Senate provision regarding how funds are provided for the Modified Water Deliveries project; (3) Senate provision earmarking funds for the L.Q.C. Lamar House NHL from the Historic Preservation Fund (funds must be matched); and (4) Senate provision regarding construction at Old Rag Mountain trail in Shenandoah Mountain NP.

Partnerships.—The managers reiterate the concerns voiced by both the House and Senate regarding the management of partnership construction projects. The National Park Service has developed interim guidance to govern the development of partnership construction proposals and the managers expect all levels of the Service to comply with the new procedures. The managers expect the Service and its partners to work collaboratively on the appropriateness, scope, and costs of contemplated projects, with careful consideration given to both the capital development and long-term operational and life-cycle costs. At a time of increased attention and emphasis on park operation budgets, the Service and its partners must not pursue new facility investments that are unrealistic and unachievable in their expectations. The managers expect the Service's review of all partnership construction proposals to make difficult decisions, where necessary, to defer or suspend a project that is not the right project, for the right reason, at the right size, and at the right time. Additionally, any partnership construction project for which there is to be a Federal contribution towards the cost must be budgeted for and included in the Service's five-year construction program. In the event a partnership construction proposal assumes funding from another Federal agency, the Service must seek the agreement of the appropriate agency including funding in the agency's budget request. The managers expect the Service to provide a status report regarding partnership construction projects no later than February 15, 2005.

Language regarding partnership projects at Moccasin Bend NAD, Great Smoky Mountains NP (Tremont), Delaware Water Gap NRA (Pocono Environmental Education Center), Flight 93 NMem, and Dayton Aviation NHP (Wright Dunbar Plaza) was included in the House and Senate committee reports, and is reinforced by the managers. Partnership construction projects that have not followed the interim guidance, the requirements of Director's Order 21, or been reviewed by the Development Advisory Board, will not be considered for approval by the Committees.

Funds provided for the Cane River Creole NHP are to initiate pre-design and planning for a curatorial storage facility. The managers understand that this facility will be for Service collections, and will be constructed and managed by the Service. The scope and cost of this facility are subject to further refinement using the Service's planning model, but are expected to be less than the $3 million project previously proposed as a partnership with the university.

The conference agreement provides $700,000 for cabin restoration at the Delaware Water Gap NRA, consistent with the direction provided in the House report. The funds are to be used for cabin restoration, or replacements in kind, consistent with the programming levels allowed in the General Management Plan. As discussed in the House Report, the Service needs to complete the site plan and value analysis requested in fiscal year 2004. The park and the partner are reminded that any significant facility investments that go beyond existing program levels must follow the interim guidance regarding partnership construction projects. The managers expect the Service to report by February 1, 2005, on a plan and schedule for the expenditure of the funds for fiscal year 2005. The managers are very concerned that the Service has not followed directions in previous conference reports.

Funding has not been provided to the following projects due to various delays in awarding contracts: C&O Canal NHP, Saugus Iron Works NHS, Yellowstone NP (Madison wastewater facility), and Fire Island NS (west ranger station). The Pinnacles NM project was supplanted by an urgent land acquisition need. Boston Harbor NRA, Fort Larned NHS and Point Reyes NS are strongly encouraged to resubmit in the next fiscal year's budget.

Report language.—The managers direct the Service to initiate the Waco Mammoth site and the Manhattan Project new area studies, which are authorized.

The managers expect the Service to initiate a preliminary resource assessment of Tunica River Park, MS and the surrounding area, and to provide technical assistance as necessary to cooperating entities.

Funds for the Natchez Trace Parkway, MS, have been removed from construction and addressed in park operations.

LAND AND WATER CONSERVATION FUND (RESCISSION)

The conference agreement rescinds the contract authority provided for fiscal year 2005 by 16 U.S.C. 460l-10a as proposed by both the House and the Senate.

LAND ACQUISITION AND STATE ASSISTANCE (INCLUDING TRANSFER OF FUNDS)

The conference agreement provides $148,411,000 for land acquisition and State assistance instead of $107,500,000 as proposed by the House and $155,831,000 as proposed by the Senate.

The managers agree to the following distribution of funds:

| Area (State)                                                 | Amount      |

Bill Language.—The conference agreement retains the language proposed by the Senate providing that, in lieu of State assistance program indirect costs (as described in OMB Circular A-87), not to exceed five percent apportionments under the State assistance program may be used by States, the District of Columbia, and insular areas to support program administration costs. The conference agreement retains the language proposed in the Senate bill providing that $250,000 provided for Civil War battlefield protection be available for transfer to the National Recreation and Preservation account.

Report Language.—The managers support land acquisition efforts at Jean Lafitte National Historical Park and Preserve in Louisiana, but understand that there are not purchases currently ready for completion. The managers will look favorably upon future acquisitions at the park, should parcels become available.

The Committee is anxious to see progress on efforts to locate and build a boathouse with access to the Potomac River near the George Washington Memorial Parkway in Arlington, Virginia. The Committee encourages the Service to continue exploring options that would facilitate the possible acquisition of suitable land by Arlington County to construct the boathouse.

ADMINISTRATIVE PROVISIONS

Bill language.—The conference report includes statutory language, with minor modifications, regarding concession contracts. This language was originally included in the House bill.

UNITED STATES GEOLOGICAL SURVEY SURVEYS, INVESTIGATIONS, AND RESEARCH

The conference agreement provides $948,921,000 for surveys, investigations, and research instead of $944,498,000 as proposed by the House and $939,486,000 as proposed by the Senate.

Mapping, Remote Sensing and Geographic Investigations.—The change to the House level for mapping, remote sensing and geographic investigations is a decrease of $2,355,000 for

The National Map. The managers understand that this decrease will be partially offset by anticipated buyout savings. The managers expect that the Alaska digital data mapping program will continue from within base funding at no less than the fiscal year 2004 enacted level.

The managers reiterate their concern with the equipment failure on the Landsat 7 satellite, which occurred well over a year ago, and the issues that have arisen as a result. Despite repeated requests from both the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations, a clear plan has yet to be submitted by the Administration regarding long term USGS satellite operations, nor has an interim solution been offered to address the current funding issues surrounding Landsat 7. The managers are dismayed that the Administration has been unable to provide specific guidance and coordination on an issue that crosses multiple agencies and jurisdictions. Further, the managers object to the notion of continuing to redirect funds from other valuable Survey activities in order to maintain the status quo for a program that is no longer fully functional. The managers expect to see a fiscal year 2006 budget submission that contains a detailed proposal to address the Landsat issue. If, however, a clear plan regarding mission and funding options is not received by June 30, 2005, the managers direct the Department of the Interior to submit a plan for shutdown of the Landsat program. In the meantime, to the extent that buyout savings may be required to contribute to EROS Data Center operations during fiscal year 2005, the mapping program should reserve these funds to do so. The managers expect the Survey to be extremely cautious in expanding its mapping programs or entering into additional cooperative agreements with these monies until it is clear how the Landsat issue will be resolved.

The managers agree that long-term remote sensing data is vital to many aspects of the government and private sector in the nation. Once again, the managers encourage the Administration to work with NASA and other Federal agencies to place the next generation Landsat sensor in orbit as soon as possible to reduce future gaps in data.

Geologic Hazards, Resources and Processes.—Changes to the House level for geologic hazards, resources and processes include increases of $3,242,000 for the base volcano monitoring program, $1,150,000 for the Alaska mineral resource assessment program, and $100,000 for the Alaska Geological Materials Center and decreases of $500,000 for the Advanced National Seismic System program, $400,000 for the earth observation monitoring program, $1,482,000 for the Alaska minerals-at-risk project that has been completed, $250,000 for the landslide hazards program, and $250,000 for geothermal assessments. Other projects that are continued in fiscal year 2005 at their fiscal year 2004 funding levels include a North Carolina coastal erosion study, South Carolina/Georgia coastal erosion and monitoring studies, and subsidence studies at the University of New Orleans.

The managers agree that the volcano monitoring program is vital to both the safety of citizens living near these areas and the protection of commercial aircraft. Within the funds provided in the conference agreement, the Survey shall continue its ongoing volcanic research and monitoring activities at no less than the fiscal year 2004 enacted level, and should direct increased funding to areas of recent and imminent volcanic activity.

The managers agree that the amount of funding provided for conducting inquiries into the economic conditions affecting mining and materials processing industries is $15,499,000. This number will no longer appear in bill language.

Water Resources Investigations.—Changes to the House level for water resources investigations include increases of $1,481,000 for collaborative research with the University of Oklahoma, $518,000 for the toxic substances hydrology program, $50,000 for the Potomac river groundwater assessment study, $198,000 for the Berkeley Pit study with Montana Tech, $295,000 for Lake Champlain basin toxic materials, $444,000 for monitoring water resources in Hawaii, and $889,000 for the coal bed methane study of the Tongue river, and decreases of $400,000 for the water availability pilot project and $400,000 for the Klamath basin study. Funds remain in the base to continue the US/Mexico border initiative at the fiscal year 2004 level. The managers agree that, from within base funds, up to $889,000 may be designated for the Survey's continued participation in the Long Term Estuary Assessment program. The managers agree that the reduction to the Klamath basin funding will be offset by an internal reprogramming in the current fiscal year. The managers agree that the Potomac river groundwater assessment projects in the House and Senate bills address similar issues and they have been combined into one project.

Biological Research.—Changes to the House level for biological research include increases of $250,000 for northern prairie carbon sequestration, $741,000 for the Mark Twain National Forest mining study, $790,000 for molecular biology at Leetown Science Center, $300,000 for pallid sturgeon research, $198,000 for a diamondback terrapin study, $988,000 to complete the Northern Continental Divide Ecosystem study in Montana, $296,000 for a multi-disciplinary water resource study at Leetown Science Center, $250,000 for the Delaware River Basin Study, and decreases of $250,000 for ecological systems mapping, $250,000 for the deepwater fisheries vessel program, $500,000 for invasive species, $400,000 for Klamath basin studies, $170,000 for equipment at the Anadromous Fish Research Center, and $250,000 for cooperative research units. The managers understand that the reduction to the Klamath basin study is offset by an internal reprogramming in the current fiscal year. The managers direct the Survey to continue to pursue ongoing chronic wasting disease research nationwide and to continue to work with the Southeastern Cooperative Wildlife Disease Study. Within the funds available for invasive species studies, the managers expect the Survey to continue its cooperative program with Mississippi State University at no less than the fiscal year 2004 enacted level.

Enterprise Information.—Changes to the House level for enterprise information include increases of $500,000 for certification and accreditation of information technology systems, $300,000 for accessible data transfer and $50,000 for the enterprise services network.

Science Support.—The change to the House level for science support is a decrease of $1,000,000 for financial management improvements.

Facilities.—There are no changes to the House funding level for facilities activities. The conference agreement also retains language proposed in the House bill designating $1,600,000 from within amounts provided to remain available until expended for deferred maintenance and capital improvement projects exceeding $100,000. The managers have not agreed to provide base funding to the Lake Ponchartrain restoration project.

Other.—The managers note that, unless otherwise specified, funding levels for ongoing projects included in the conference agreement as proposed by the Senate should reflect reductions that resulted from fiscal year 2004 rescissions.

ADMINISTRATIVE PROVISIONS

The conference agreement includes language proposed by the House that provides work injury and travel benefits to students.

MINERALS MANAGEMENT SERVICE ROYALTY AND OFFSHORE MINERALS MANAGEMENT

The conference agreement provides $169,175,000 for royalty and offshore minerals management instead of $171,575,000 as proposed by the House and $171,175,000 as proposed by the Senate. The managers agree to the following changes to the House recommendations:

1. The leasing and environmental program includes an earmark of $150,000 within available funds for the Alaska Whaling Commission as proposed by the Senate.

2. Resource evaluation includes increases of $900,000 for the Center for Marine Resources, MS and $900,000 for the Marine Mineral Technology Center, AK as proposed by the Senate.

3. The regulatory program includes an increase of $600,000 as proposed by the Senate for the Offshore Technology Research Center, TX, and $1,000,000 for hurricane related studies and for extra expenses of deepwater helicopter operations.

4. Compliance and asset management is reduced by $5,800,000. The managers understand that the agency will realize savings in this program for fiscal year 2005 such that this reduction will not reduce program capability. Compliance and asset management is reduced accordingly, but approximately $1,000,000 should be designated for section 202/205 cooperative audits with the States.

5. The MMS should reprogram funds for e-government initiatives relating to disaster management and "SAFECOM" to the environmental studies program to help fund fixed costs.

Bill Language.—The managers accept the Senate proposed bill language which deletes "pilot" in referring to the royalty-in-kind program, allows payments to States under the Mineral Leasing Act, and allows the MMS to recover certain portions of the royalty-in-kind sales for costs directly related to this program.

OIL SPILL RESEARCH

The conference agreement provides $7,105,000 for oil spill research as proposed by both the House and the Senate.

OFFICE OF SURFACE MINING RECLAMATION AND ENFORCEMENT

REGULATION AND TECHNOLOGY

The conference agreement provides $109,905,000 for regulation and technology as proposed by the Senate instead of $108,905,000 as proposed by the House. This total includes an indefinite appropriation estimated to be $100,000. The agreement includes $1,000,000 as proposed by the Senate to contract with the National Research Council for a review of coal reserves, research, and technologies. The agreement also directs the OSM to reprogram funds for e-government initiatives relating to disaster management and "SAFECOM" to help fund fixed costs.

ABANDONED MINE RECLAMATION FUND

The conference agreement provides $190,863,000 for the abandoned mine reclamation fund as proposed by the Senate instead of $194,106,000 as proposed by the House. The agreement directs the OSM to reprogram funds for e-government initiatives relating to disaster management and "SAFECOM" to help fund fixed costs. The managers note that bill language within Title I, general provisions, provides an extension until June 30, 2005, of the Secretary's authority to collect fees pursuant to the Surface Mining Control and Reclamation Act.

ADMINISTRATIVE PROVISION

The conference agreement includes bill language recommended in the request which allows funds available for the technical innovation and professional services program to be used to transfer title for certain computer devices to State and Tribal regulatory and reclamation programs.

BUREAU OF INDIAN AFFAIRS
OPERATION OF INDIAN PROGRAMS

The conference agreement provides $1,955,047,000 for the operation of Indian programs instead of $1,935,033,000 as proposed by the House and $1,951,798,000 as proposed by the Senate.

Tribal Priority Allocations.—Changes to the House level for tribal priority allocations include increases of $3,000,000 for contract support costs and $2,000,000 for welfare assistance.

Other Recurring Programs.—Changes to the House level for other recurring programs include increases of $10,500,000 for tribally controlled community colleges, $98,000 for the Alaska Sea Otter Commission, $790,000 for the Bering Sea Fishermen's Association, $87,000 for the Intertribal Bison Council, $346,000 for the Chugach Regional Resources Commission, and a decrease of $2,000,000 for the administrative cost grant fund.

Non-recurring Programs.—Changes to the House level for non-recurring programs include increases of $500,000 for the Rocky Mountain Technology Foundation, $750,000 for the rural Alaska fire program, $1,250,000 for the Salish and Kootenai College nursing program (housing project), $392,000 for Alaska legal services, and $1,000,000 for the Denali Commission.

Central Office Operations.—Changes to the House level for central office operations include decreases of $2,000,000 for the workforce initiative and $1,000,000 for information resources technology.

Special Programs and Pooled Overhead.—Changes to the House level for special programs and pooled overhead include increases of $500,000 for the United Tribes Technical College, $450,000 for the United Sioux Tribes Development Corporation, $442,000 for the Crownpoint Institute, $1,250,000 for the Western Heritage Center distance learning program, $750,000 for the Alaska native aviation program, and $409,000 for e-government initiatives, and $500,000 for the enterprise services network.

Bill Language.—There is a statutory earmark of $1,000,000 for administrative cost grants to tribes for transitional costs instead of $3,000,000 as proposed by the House and no funding as proposed by the Senate.

CONSTRUCTION

The conference agreement provides $323,626,000 for construction instead of $348,626,000 as proposed by the House and $283,126,000 as proposed by the Senate. Changes to the House level include increases of $2,500,000 for the tribal school demonstration program, $2,500,000 for facilities maintenance of detention centers and a decrease of $30,000,000 for school replacement construction.

The managers have included bill language directing the Bureau to provide $4,500,000 to the Eastern Band of Cherokee education facility at the Ravensford tract, $4,000,000 for the Sac and Fox Meskwaki settlement school and $4,000,000 for the Twin Buttes elementary school on the Fort Berthold Reservation within the Tribal School Demonstration Program.

The managers have retained language included in the Senate bill that allows the Secretary of the Interior to assume control of construction projects if the tribes have not completed planning, design, and initial construction within 18 months of the appropriation of funds.

The managers have included bill language that allows the Office of Special Trustee for American Indians to reimburse the appropriate share of construction costs for space expansion needs identified as a result of trust reform implementation.

The managers are aware of the significant problems with Bureau owned detention centers, and have provided additional funding for facilities and deferred maintenance of these facilities. The managers urge the Department to address the operations and maintenance of detention centers in future budget submissions.

INDIAN LAND AND WATER CLAIM SETTLEMENTS AND MISCELLANEOUS PAYMENTS TO INDIANS

The conference agreement provides $44,771,000 for Indian land and water claim settlements and miscellaneous payments to Indians as proposed by the House instead of $34,771,000 as proposed by the Senate.

The managers have agreed to $10,032,000 for the Quinault Indian Nation settlement. The managers have retained the Senate bill language which contained minor technical differences from the House.

The managers recognize that the Department of the Interior is working with Northwest Indian tribes and the shellfish industry to complete the historic Washington State shellfish settlement agreement and secure funding for it. This agreement represents nine years of hard, cooperative work by the Tribes and the shellfish industry. The managers support this effort and encourage the Department and all parties to continue working together to finalize the settlement in a timely manner. The managers agree that the Administration should provide funding for settlements such as these in the annual budget submission as the managers do not foresee having funds above the requested level for new settlements.

INDIAN GUARANTEED LOAN PROGRAM ACCOUNT

The conference agreement provides $6,421,000 for the Indian guaranteed loan program as proposed by both the House and the Senate. The managers have retained the House bill language which contained minor technical differences from the Senate.

ADMINISTRATIVE PROVISIONS

Bill Language.—The conference agreement includes language that allows certain tribes to continue to receive contract support as a supplement to administrative cost grants.

DEPARTMENTAL OFFICES

INSULAR AFFAIRS

ASSISTANCE TO TERRITORIES

The conference agreement provides $76,255,000 for assistance to territories instead of $74,935,000 as proposed by the House and $74,255,000 as proposed by the Senate. Changes in funding levels from the House recommendation include the Senate recommendations for an additional $320,000 to continue judicial, court education, and court administration training, and $1,000,000 for Marshall Islands health care. The managers agree to the following:

1. Although the agreement does not include bill language proposed by the Senate designating a specific funding level for a grant to the Close Up Foundation, the managers do support this effort and expect the Secretary to designate approximately $750,000 for this program.

2. The OIA should reprogram funds for e-government initiatives relating to disaster management and "SAFECOM" to help fund fixed costs.

3. The conference agreement includes $1,000,000 for payments to replace the Prior Service Trust Fund as proposed by the House. The managers direct the Department to work with the Prior Service Benefits Board of Directors to reach an agreement as soon as possible, but no later than October 1, 2005, to replace the Prior Service Trust Fund. Such agreement shall provide for: (a) the pension systems of Palau, CNMI, RMI and FSM to assume responsibility for the enrollees of the Prior Service Benefits Trust Fund; (b) the allocation of potential future

U.S. funding, if appropriated, among these four pension systems and payment of their benefits; (c) a reasonable transition overhead rate; (d) appropriate changes in benefits, if any; and (e) for the termination of certification and enrollment of new beneficiaries by March 31, 2005. The managers also direct that this $1,000,000 in funding should be reprogrammed for general technical assistance uses if no agreement can be reached.

4. The conference agreement includes $1,000,000 to assist health care programs on the Marshall Islands as proposed by the Senate. These instructions replace the Senate direction. These funds shall first be used to provide primary health care to members of the Enewetak, Bikini, Rongelap and Utrik communities who currently reside on Enewetak Atoll, Kili island, Mejetto island, Rongelap Atoll following resettlement, and Utrik Atoll. Such primary medical care shall consist of a clinic with at least one doctor and an assistant, and necessary supplies and logistical support. If excess funds are available, these funds may be used to augment primary healthcare for members of these communities who get primary healthcare services from the facilities in Ebeye and Majuro.

5. The managers have included $1,000,000 to continue work on water system rehabilitation in the CNMI. The managers note that the Army Corps of Engineers has completed a comprehensive water infrastructure study that has identified and prioritized over $200,000,000 in essential needs. The magnitude of this need far exceeds any possible resolution from funds made available to the Interior and Related Agencies Subcommittee on Appropriations. Existing programmatic expertise of other Federal agencies is not being used fully, as evidenced in the delays in completing the Kagman water project by the Department of Agriculture. Accordingly, the managers direct the Secretary of the Interior to prepare, in consultation with the Interagency Group on Insular Areas, a comprehensive, coordinated and detailed implementation program for the plans developed by the Army Corps of Engineers by July 31, 2005. To develop this program the Secretary shall look to authorities of the Corps of Engineers under the Secretary of the Army, the Bureau of Reclamation within the Department of the Interior, the various programs under the Secretary of Agriculture, authorities available to the Administrator of the Environmental Protection Agency, and authorities available under any other agency dealing with water infrastructure. The Secretary shall provide the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations with an implementation plan that fully utilizes and coordinates those authorities to ensure that the goals of the plan are achieved in a timely, cost-effective manner. The managers expect the implementation plan to identify projects, responsible agency, funding needs, implementation schedule, any statutory or other changes necessary to implement the program, and a specific time table for full completion.

COMPACT OF FREE ASSOCIATION

The conference agreement provides $5,499,000 for the compact of free association as proposed by the House instead of $5,400,000 as proposed by the Senate. The conference agreement follows the funding recommendations made by the House.

DEPARTMENTAL MANAGEMENT

SALARIES AND EXPENSES

(INCLUDING TRANSFER OF FUNDS)

The conference agreement provides $90,855,000 for departmental management instead of $79,551,000 as proposed by the House and $81,608,000 as proposed by the Senate.

The changes described below are to the House recommended funding level.

Management and Coordination.—Increases include $750,000 for the financial and business management system, $10,500,000 to restore partially funds cut on the House floor for motor vehicle lease, purchase or services costs, and $54,000 for E-government initiatives.

Bill Language.—The conference agreement retains the language proposed in the Senate bill directing the transfer of $13,500,000 from unobligated balances in the Central Hazardous Materials Fund. The conference agreement modifies the language proposed in the House bill reducing amounts otherwise appropriated for motor vehicle lease, purchase or service costs. The modification changes $13,500,000 to $3,000,000.

PAYMENTS IN LIEU OF TAXES

The conference agreement provides $230,000,000 for payments in lieu of taxes as proposed by the Senate instead of $226,000,000 as proposed by the House.

OFFICE OF THE SOLICITOR

SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The conference agreement provides $52,384,000 for the office of the solicitor instead of $51,356,000 as proposed by the House and $53,053,000 as proposed by the Senate. The changes described below are to the House recommended funding level.

Legal Services.—Increases include $446,000 for paralegal and support positions, $300,000 for legal staff support, and $186,000 for uncontrollable fixed costs.

General Administration.—Increases include $15,000 for E-government initiatives and $78,000 for fixed costs.

Ethics Office.—Increases include $3,000 for fixed costs.

OFFICE OF INSPECTOR GENERAL

SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The conference agreement provides $37,800,000 for office of inspector general, instead of $37,655,000 as proposed by the House and $38,100,000 as proposed by the Senate. The changes described below are to the House recommended funding level.

Audits.—Changes include an increase of $237,000 for fixed costs and a decrease of $100,000 for non-traditional audit staff.

Investigations.—Changes include an increase of $165,000 for fixed costs and a decrease of $172,000 for law enforcement equipment replacement.

Administrative Services and Information Management.—Changes include increases of $105,000 for fixed costs and $10,000 for E-government initiatives, and a decrease of $100,000 for IT standardization.

OFFICE OF SPECIAL TRUSTEE FOR AMERICAN INDIANS

FEDERAL TRUST PROGRAMS

The conference agreement provides $196,267,000 for Federal trust programs as proposed by both the House and the Senate. The managers have retained language contained in the Senate bill that caps the amount of funding that can be used for historical accounting activities at $58,000,000.

INDIAN LAND CONSOLIDATION

The conference agreement provides $35,000,000 for Indian land consolidation programs instead of $42,000,000 as proposed by the House and $50,000,000 as proposed by the Senate. The managers are concerned about recent events in the courts that will likely slow the process of Indian land consolidation and reduce the ability of the Department of the Interior to obligate funds for acquisition of lands. The land consolidation program has the potential to resolve many of the contentious issues surrounding Indian trust management. The actions of the court concerning notifying Indian landowners of ongoing litigation will undoubtedly slow the process of consolidation of lands.

Bill Language.—The managers have retained bill language included by the Senate that allows Indian land consolidation funds to be transferred to the Bureau of Indian Affairs and Departmental Management accounts. The House had no similar provision.

NATURAL RESOURCE DAMAGE ASSESSMENT AND RESTORATION

NATURAL RESOURCE DAMAGE ASSESSMENT FUND

The conference agreement provides $5,818,000 for the natural resource damage assessment fund as proposed by both the House and the Senate.

GENERAL PROVISIONS, DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR

Sec. 101. The conference agreement modifies the text of Senate section 101 correcting the reference to the budget agreement in providing Secretarial authority to transfer program funds for emergencies. The House had a similar provision in section 101 of the House bill.

Sec. 102. The conference agreement modifies the text of Senate section 102 correcting the reference to the budget agreement in providing for expenditure or transfer of funds by the Secretary for natural disasters. The House had a similar provision in section 102 of the House bill.

Sec. 103. The conference agreement retains the language proposed in section 103 of the House bill providing for use of appropriated funds for operation of garages, shops, warehouses, and similar facilities. The Senate had a similar provision in section 103 of the Senate bill.

Sec. 104. The conference agreement retains an identical provision in section 104 of both the House and Senate bills, providing for vehicle and other services.

Sec. 105. The conference agreement retains the language proposed in section 105 of the House bill making permanent the use of appropriated funds to purchase uniforms or to provide a uniform allowance. The Senate had a similar provision in section 105 of the Senate bill.

Sec. 106. TITLE II—RELATED AGENCIES
DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE
FOREST SERVICE
FOREST AND RANGELAND RESEARCH

The conference agreement provides $280,278,000 for forest and rangeland research instead of $280,654,000 as proposed by the House and $279,883,000 as proposed by the Senate. The managers agree to the following changes to recommendations that were proposed by the House:

The managers also agree to the following:

1. The Forest Service should clearly display in future budget justifications the funding provided for various Congressional priorities, and display what part of the request includes funding for these items.

2. The funding for emerald ash borer research shown in the table above, $250,000, should be utilized in Ohio, and should be in addition to other funding in the budget for ongoing research on this pest at other locations.

3. The funding remaining for the watershed condition initiative should be reprogrammed for other, higher priority fundamental research efforts, not including the FIA program.

4. The previous table provided above supercedes the Senate report instruction concerning funding levels and the across the board cuts.

5. The managers support funding, to the extent practicable, for implementation of the rules and protocols for carbon accounting as part of the climate change initiative.

STATE AND PRIVATE FORESTRY

The conference agreement provides $296,626,000 for State and private forestry instead of $282,446,000 as proposed by the House and $291,169,000 as proposed by the Senate. Funding for this appropriation should follow the House recommendations unless otherwise instructed herein.

Forest Health Management.—The conference agreement provides $55,000,000 for Federal lands forest health management as proposed by the House instead of $46,012,000 as proposed by the Senate. The conference agreement includes $48,300,000 for cooperative lands forest health management instead of $48,000,000 as proposed by the House and $35,214,000 as proposed by the Senate. The change from the House recommendation is the addition of $300,000 for Vermont forest monitoring as proposed by the Senate.

The managers do not agree to the specific allocation providing funding for newly found pests or pathogens which was proposed by the Senate. The managers agree that the Forest Service should withhold a portion of forest health funding from immediate distribution so it is available later in the year to address new problems that may emerge. The managers recommend that the Administration stop proposing an emerging pest fund. The managers strongly encourage the Administration to use the Secretary's authority under Public Law 97-46 to fund the survey, evaluation, control and management of unplanned, emerging pest occurrences from funds available to the agencies or corporations of the Department of Agriculture. This approach has been used in the past for the Forest Service and has been used in previous years for emergency pest projects by the Animal and Plant Health Inspection Service.

Cooperative Fire Assistance.—The conference agreement includes $33,384,000 for State fire assistance instead of $36,384,000 as proposed by the House and $30,000,000 as proposed by the Senate. This allocation includes $5,000,000 as proposed by the House for urgent work near the San Bernardino National Forest and a general program increase of $2,000,000 above the House level. The managers do not agree to the specific allocation proposed by the House for community wildfire protection plans, but the managers do agree that this approach is of utmost importance and urge the Forest Service and the States to give this effort a very high priority.

The conference agreement includes $6,000,000 for volunteer fire assistance as proposed by the Senate instead of $5,443,000 as proposed by the House. The conference agreement also includes additional funds for State fire and volunteer fire assistance as part of the national fire plan funding within the wildland fire management account.

Forest Stewardship.—The conference agreement includes $32,775,000 for forest stewardship instead of $37,000,000 as proposed by the House and $33,000,000 as proposed by the Senate. Changes from the House recommendations include a reduction of $275,000 for Chesapeake Bay forestry for a total of $1,225,000, a reduction of $3,000,000 for community wildfire plans as proposed by the Senate, and a general decrease of $950,000 as proposed by the Senate. Although there is no specific allocation for community wildfire plans, the managers strongly support this activity and encourage the Forest Service and the States to pursue this work. The managers have provided adequate funds within the forest stewardship program to begin an update of the Highlands Regional Study in order to identify high priority areas, including important conservation areas in Pennsylvania, to help ensure the health and sustainability of these sites through management, protection and wise use. The managers note that there is no funding for a grant for the Downeast Lakes forestry partnership and that forest stewardship funds should never be used for land acquisition or acquisition of interests in lands.

Forest Legacy Program.—The conference agreement includes $57,939,000 for the forest legacy program instead of $43,119,000 as proposed by the House and $76,329,000 as proposed by the Senate. These funds are derived from the Land and Water Conservation Fund. The conference agreement includes the following distribution of funds for the forest legacy program:

| State and project                                                                                   | Conference  |

The conference agreement retains bill language proposed by the House requiring notification of the Committees on Appropriations when the Forest Service makes funds available for specific forest legacy projects. The managers note that funds are not provided within the forest legacy program for the Senate proposed Mirror Lake project, NH. However, within the economic action program the conference agreement includes a grant to the Hubbard Brook Foundation to help conserve this area.

Urban and Community Forestry.—The conference agreement includes $32,400,000 for the urban and community forestry program instead of $32,000,000 as proposed by the House and $33,111,000 as proposed by the Senate. Changes from the House recommendation for this activity include a decrease of $100,000 for northeast PA community forestry for a total of $500,000, and inclusion of Senate proposals of $350,000 for the Chicago wilderness program, $150,000 for the urban watershed forestry research and demonstration cooperative in Baltimore, MD, and a $411,000 general program decrease.

The conference agreement replaces instructions in both the House and the Senate committee reports concerning the urban and community forestry allocation methodology. The managers have reviewed the allocation methodology for the urban and community forestry program proposed by the Forest Service in its report to the Committees on Appropriations. The managers have been addressing this issue for several years and are displeased with the slow rate of progress at implementing a better performance based allocation method which also includes a more fair assessment of State program needs and capability. The managers understand that the timing of this appropriation makes it more difficult for the Forest Service to fully implement a performance based system in FY 2005. Therefore, the managers direct the Forest Service to provide quarterly updates to the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations regarding the establishment of a performance based allocation for the distribution of funds to the regions, and that the new allocation methodology with this modification be fully implemented in fiscal year 2006. The managers expect allocations for fiscal year 2005 to the States to remain at the levels as recommended in the agency's report.

Economic Action Programs.—The conference agreement includes $19,300,000 for the economic action programs instead of $10,000,000 as proposed by the House and $19,975,000 as proposed by the Senate. The managers have provided $500,000 for the Hinkle Creek project, OR, with the understanding that no further funding will be made available for this program. The conference agreement includes bill language concerning a $2,000,000 direct payment for the Kake land exchange, AK and a direct payment of $1,500,000 to Canton, NC for wood products wastewater repairs. The funds for the education and research consortium of western North Carolina should include the Pisgah Forest Institute, and allow expansion of the education initiative to appropriate institutions with natural resources expertise in Pennsylvania and northern California. The conference agreement includes the following distribution of funds:

Forest Resource Information and Analysis.—The conference agreement includes $5,028,000 for forest resource information and analysis as proposed by the Senate instead of $9,000,000 as proposed by the House. Additional information concerning the FIA program is under the forest and rangeland research heading.

International Program.—The conference agreement includes $6,500,000 for the International program as proposed by both the House and the Senate. The managers agree with the Senate comments on forest sustainability and certification, but clarify that the Forest Service is encouraged to fund projects which promote overall environmental benefits provided by the use of credible, sustainable forest management and forest certification programs, and the Forest Service should not give a specific preference for any particular certification program.

NATIONAL FOREST SYSTEM

The conference agreement provides $1,400,260,000 for the national forest system instead of $1,399,599,000 as proposed by the House and $1,387,149,000 as proposed by the Senate.

Funds should be distributed as follows:

|                                             |                      |

| Total .....                          | 1,400,260,000 |

The following discussion describes funding changes from the House passed bill.

Land Management Planning.—This activity includes $400,000 for the environmental training program proposed by the Senate and the Senate proposed general decrease of $400,000.

Inventory and Monitoring.—The agreement does not include a special allocation for multi-party monitoring, although the managers do support this activity. The managers encourage various groups to participate in collaborative planning and engage in monitoring and note that fund transfers for monitoring are not limited to groups which were participants in the planning process.

Recreation, Heritage, and Wilderness Management.—The conference agreement includes a decrease of $1,375,000 below the House recommended level, which is an increase of $3,625,000 above the request and the Senate recommendation. The managers note that the current eruptive activity at Mt. St. Helens National Volcanic Monument has greatly increased the need for visitor services as well as media and science program support and emergency readiness. In addition, the managers note that May 18, 2005, will be the 25th anniversary of the catastrophic blast. The managers encourage the Forest Service to consider the use of $2,000,000 of the increased funding above the request for this activity to support activities at the Monument. The Forest Service should use emergency incident funding sources when needed during eruptive episodes to assure proper and safe management of the public.

Wildlife and Fish Habitat Management.—This activity includes the Senate proposed increase of $250,000 for the Batten Kill River, VT, and a general program decrease of $125,000.

Forest Products.—The managers agree to the Senate proposed earmark in bill language of $5,000,000 for Tongass national forest timber sales preparation. The agreement does not include a special allocation for restoration projects as proposed by the Senate, although the managers agree that this is a very important use of funds and have included an increase above the request which may be used for such purposes. The managers clarify that the required report on timber sale claims proposed by the Senate should deal with those years where the data are available. The managers agree that the forestry work on the Lincoln NF, NM should be done cooperatively with the Mescalero Apache tribe when practicable and consistent with national forest system regulations and procedures.

Vegetation and Watershed Management.—The managers include a total of $1,000,000 for Wayne NF, OH watershed recovery but do not agree with the Colville NF allocation. The agreement includes Senate proposed funding of $1,000,000 for the Tongass national forest, AK, pre-commercial thinning, $350,000 for leafy spurge eradication in North Dakota, and a general decrease of $2,500,000. No specific appropriated allocation is designated for the Lake Tahoe basin.

Law Enforcement.—This activity includes a decrease of $100,000 for Daniel Boone NF, KY, drug control.

Valles Caldera National Preserve.—The conference agreement includes the funding level and bill language as proposed by the Senate. The managers direct the Forest Service and the board of the preserve to provide the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations with an annual report depicting operations, deferred maintenance, and capital infrastructure needs over a 5-year time frame. This should be prioritized, and should explain how the individual projects relate to health and safety and to other aspects of the preserve's goals. The first report should be presented by April 30, 2005, and thereafter, reports should be included in the annual budget justifications, and the reports should include annual summaries of past accomplishments.

WILDLAND FIRE MANAGEMENT

The conference agreement provides $1,727,008,000 for wildland fire management instead of $1,734,865,000 as proposed by the House and $1,703,897,000 as proposed by the Senate. The managers note that Title IV also includes a special allocation of $400,000,000 for urgent wildfire suppression under certain circumstances.

Wildfire Preparedness.—The agreement includes $686,000,000 for preparedness as proposed by the Senate instead of $693,627,000 as proposed by the House. The managers reiterate the direction contained in the House and Senate reports regarding the need to maintain the level of fire readiness accomplished in fiscal year 2004. The managers note that the grounding of large airtankers this past season, and the need to assure the availability of effective aviation firefighting assets in fiscal year 2005 and beyond creates additional demands on limited wildfire preparedness and suppression funding. Accordingly, in order to assure a preparedness level equal to that attained in fiscal year 2004, the managers direct the Forest Service to charge expenses to wildfire suppression for unplanned costs related to the grounding of airtankers, and for the unplanned additional costs necessary to assure sufficient aviation resources are available to maintain initial attack capability and suppress wildfires.

Wildfire Suppression Operations.—The conference agreement includes $658,000,000 for suppression operations as proposed by the House instead of $658,400,000 as proposed by the Senate. The managers have provided the full amount of the ten year average cost of wildfire suppression, an increase of $60,870,000 above the fiscal year 2004 funding level.

The managers concur with concerns expressed in the House and Senate reports regarding the need to control suppression costs. The managers are concerned that effective performance measures are not in place on an inter-agency basis to report on suppression costs. It is imperative that the Secretaries establish appropriate performance metrics promptly. This includes the integration of reporting systems, implementation of policies through the Wildland Fire Leadership Council for cost reporting, and responding to findings of the independent cost control review panel established under Public Law 108-287. The managers direct the Secretaries to submit a report no later than June 30, 2005, on performance measures planned for implementation in fiscal year 2006 to be used on an inter-agency basis. In the interim, the managers have modified language for reporting wildfire suppression costs in fiscal year 2005 as follows: (1) Average cost per fire using a statistically representative sample, stratified as follows: small (<300 acres), medium (300-20,000 acres), and large (>20,000 acres) fires not contained in initial attack; (2) cost per acre burned, using a statistically representative sample for fires not contained in initial attack stratified by small, medium, and large; and (3) the percentage of fires, using a statistically representative sample, not contained in initial attack that exceed a "stratified fire cost index." This index would take into account known fire characteristics that affect expenditures; specifically, fire intensity, size, Forest Service region and proximity to communities, using historical cost per acre as a basis. In addition, the managers direct the Forest Service to develop and implement direction for identifying a "most cost effective" wildland fire situation analysis alternative no later than October 1, 2005, and report the percentage of fire events that adopt this alternative under the wildland fire situation analysis computer decision support system beginning in fiscal year 2006.

The managers concur with the Senate direction concerning the preparation of a strategic plan for fire and aviation resources. The managers expect that the plan will indicate the costs associated with determining the useful life of the P-2V air tanker.

Other Wildfire Operations.—The conference agreement includes $383,008,000 for other fire operation activities instead of $383,238,000 as proposed by the House and $359,497,000 as proposed by the Senate. The allocation of this funding is as follows:

| Program                                      | Amount             |
|----------------------------------------------|--------------------|
| Hazardous fuels .....                        | $266,238,000      |
| Rehabilitation & restoration .....           | 13,000,000         |
| Research & development ...                   | 22,025,000         |
| Joint fire science .....                     | 8,000,000          |
| Forest health management—Federal .....       | 15,000,000         |
| Forest health management—cooperative .....   | 10,000,000         |
| State and community fire assistance .....    | 40,745,000         |
| Volunteer fire assistance ...                | 8,000,000          |
| Total other wildfire operations ..... | 383,008,000 |

The conference agreement includes $266,238,000 for hazardous fuels treatments as proposed by the House and the Senate, an increase of $32,758,000 over the fiscal year 2004 level. This allocation includes the Senate proposals of $1,000,000 for the Chugach NF, AK and $1,500,000 for the Santa Fe watershed, NM. The managers have not included a specific amount for the Lake Tahoe basin. The managers have not included a specific allocation for the Ecological Restoration Institute, AZ, but the managers understand that the Forest Service plans to work with the Institute on a variety of projects. The managers have included bill language making up to $5,000,000 of hazardous fuels funds available for making grants to promote the economical removal of biomass from national forest lands. The managers direct the Forest Service to develop this program with the clear intent to make grants that will result in increased commercial use of biomass products, and which will thereby result in reduced overall hazardous fuels program costs. The managers further direct that a report detailing the progress of this effort shall be submitted to the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations no later than six months after the enactment of this Act. Bill language proposed by the House concerning hazardous fuels contracting authorities is deleted as recommended by the Senate because these authorities are contained within a Title III general provision.

The conference agreement includes $13,000,000 for rehabilitation and restoration activities as proposed by the House. The managers direct that $2,000,000 be made available to the native plant materials program to be used in conjunction with the similar effort at the Department of the Interior under the joint guidance of the inter-agency plant conservation alliance.

The conference agreement includes $22,025,000 for research and development activities. Changes from the House proposal include increases of $1,300,000 for the University of Montana landscape analysis center and $200,000 for the related University of Idaho project and a $2,475,000 general program decrease.

The conference agreement includes $15,000,000 for Federal forest health activities and $10,000,000 for cooperative forest health activities as proposed by the House. These funds should be used for high priority work, as part of the national fire plan, to implement activities which restore forests and reduce wildfire danger to natural resources and communities.

The managers have included $40,745,000 for State and community fire assistance. Changes from the House recommendation include increases of $2,100,000 for the Alaska Kenai Peninsula Borough, $1,500,000 to the Municipality of Anchorage, $1,600,000 for the Matanuska-Susitna Borough, AK, $1,000,000 for the Fairbanks North Star Borough, AK, and $300,000 for the Cook Inlet tribal council, AK and a general program decrease of $5,755,000 below the House level as proposed by the Senate. Of the amount provided to the Municipality of Anchorage, $1,000,000 shall be for the Anchorage Soil and Water District for its Firewise program, to be used solely for the removal of dead and dying trees and to the maximum extent possible, local contractors should be used. Each of the amounts in this paragraph shall be distributed in the form of an advance direct lump sum payment.

Within the funds for State fire assistance, $200,000 should be provided to Lincoln County, NV. The volunteer fire assistance allocation is $8,000,000 as proposed by the House and the Senate.

CAPITAL IMPROVEMENT AND MAINTENANCE

The conference agreement provides $521,952,000 for capital improvement and maintenance instead of $522,940,000 as proposed by the House and $516,169,000 as proposed by the Senate. The conference agreement provides for the following distribution of funds:

| Activity/Project                                               | Amount             |

Total, Capital Improvement and Maintenance 521,952,000

The managers agree with the overall program direction for this account provided by both the House and the Senate. The funds provided for the Allegheny NF include $230,000 for the Kiasutha campground, $1,085,000 for Kinzua wolf run marina, $285,000 for the Willow Creek ATV site, $200,000 for Marienville district displays, and $1,000,000 for the Bradford administrative site. The funds included for the Daniel Boone NF are for the London Dock boat ramp and completion of the Craigs Creek campground. The North Carolina national forests funding includes $1,000,000 for the Santeetlah phase III project, $500,000 for the Cradle of Forestry roof repairs, and $1,000,000 for the Curtis Creek recreation area, Wilson Creek access project. The Cherokee NF funding includes $400,000 for Chilhowee campground improvements, $350,000 for the Ocoee Whitewater Center maintenance and interpretive upgrades, and $150,000 to complete a management plan, with public involvement, for the Ocoee and Hiwassee Corridor. The funding for the San Bernardino NF is intended for the supervisor's office. The Forest Service should contract with Cook Inlet Regional Corporation, for work on the Russian river interagency center.

The managers expect that the specific allocations provided for the National scenic and historic trails will become part of the base budgets for the forests and the regions which host these important resources so that this detailed level of Committee oversight should not be required in future years. The service should continue annual displays of funding needs and accomplishments of these trails in the budget justification.

The managers note that in several cases specific congressional priority projects involve maintenance, improvement, and construction of a combination of facilities, roads, and trails. Although such congressional priorities are reflected in a single budget line item, the managers expect the agency to comply with congressional intent for completion of the entire project and authorize the agency to move funds between budget lines within the account to complete projects as intended while accurately reflecting project costs.

LAND ACQUISITION

The conference agreement provides $61,866,000 for land acquisition instead of $15,500,000 as proposed by the House and $82,524,000 as proposed by the Senate.

The managers agree to the following distribution of funds:

| Area (State)                                                        | Amount |

| Total .....                                     | 61,866,000    |

The managers expect the Forest Service to ensure that acquisitions associated with the Blackfoot Challenge are consistent with Federal appraisal standards. The Forest Service should not pay more than the fair market value determined by those appraisals.

ACQUISITION OF LANDS FOR NATIONAL FORESTS SPECIAL ACTS

The conference agreement provides $1,069,000 for the acquisition of lands for national forests special acts as recommended by both the House and the Senate.

ACQUISITION OF LANDS TO COMPLETE LAND EXCHANGES

The conference agreement provides an indefinite appropriation estimated to be $234,000 for the acquisition of lands to complete land exchanges as proposed by both the House and the Senate.

RANGE BETTERMENT FUND

The conference agreement provides an indefinite appropriation estimated to be $3,064,000 for the range betterment fund as proposed by both the House and the Senate.

GIFTS, DONATIONS AND BEQUESTS FOR FOREST AND RANGELAND RESEARCH

The conference agreement provides $65,000 for gifts, donations and bequests for forest and rangeland research as proposed by both the House and the Senate.

MANAGEMENT OF NATIONAL FOREST LANDS FOR SUBSISTENCE USES

The conference agreement provides $5,962,000 for management of national forest system lands for subsistence uses in Alaska as proposed by both the House and the Senate.

ADMINISTRATIVE PROVISIONS, FOREST SERVICE

The managers agree to the following changes to the House recommendations:

1. The Senate language concerning abolishing or moving a regional office is included as in previous years.
2. The House and Senate bill language is deleted which prevented funds from this Act to be used for implementing section 8002 of the Farm Security and Rural Investment Act of 2002 (the Forest Land Enhancement Program). The conference agreement cancels $20,000,000 from this activity instead of no cancellation as proposed by the House and the Senate proposed cancellation of $40,000,000.
3. The Senate proposed language concerning sale of facilities and use of receipts on the Green Mountain NF, VT is included although authority is provided for 2 years.
4. The Senate language is included limiting Older Americans Act staff treatment as Federal employees to December 31, 2005.
5. The Senate language is included concerning school payments for certain dependents of agency personnel in Puerto Rico.
6. The Senate proposal concerning sale of excess buildings on the Wasatch-Cache NF, UT is included but provided for two years.
7. A technical change to the aircraft authority is included which allows leasing of certain firefighting aircraft.

Funds in the budget request for the e-government initiatives "SAFECOM" and disaster management should be reprogrammed to cover fixed costs not funded in the budget.

The managers direct the Secretaries of Agriculture and the Interior to continue the ongoing research on the success of the Resource Advisory Councils established under the 2000 Secure Rural Schools and Community Protection Act.

DEPARTMENT OF ENERGY

CLEAN COAL TECHNOLOGY

(DEFERRAL)

The conference agreement defers the availability of $257,000,000 in clean coal technology funds until October 1, 2005, as proposed by the Senate instead of a deferral of $237,000,000 as proposed by the House. The FutureGen program is not funded in this account, as proposed by the House, but is funded in the fossil energy research and development account.

The managers expect the Department to include a table on the FutureGen program, as outlined in the House Report 108-542, in future budget requests for fossil energy research and development account. The managers make no assumptions on the future use of deferred clean coal technology funds.

FOSSIL ENERGY RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT

The conference agreement provides $579,911,000 for fossil energy research and development instead of $601,875,000 as proposed by the House and $542,529,000 as proposed by the Senate. The changes described below are to the House recommended funding level.

FutureGen.—There is an increase of $18,000,000 for the FutureGen power plant initiative.

Clean Coal Power Initiative.—There is a decrease of $55,000,000 for the clean coal power initiative. The managers note that funding will need to be increased substantially in fiscal year 2006 if the program is to remain on a schedule consistent with the President's clean coal initiative.

Innovations for Existing Plants.—There is an increase of $1,300,000 for innovations for existing plants of which $800,000 is for the Research Partnership to Secure Energy for America for domestic fossil fuel research, including a thermoenergy integrated power system to achieve an advanced level of clean, economical power generation from coal, and other exploration and production technologies.

Advanced Systems.—There is a decrease of $2,000,000 for gasification systems technology and an increase of $800,000 for combustion systems to complete the Environmental Control Technology Laboratory project at Western Kentucky University, including research leading to zero emissions for combustion systems.

Fuels.—In transportation fuels and chemicals, there is an increase of $1,000,000 in the coal to liquids program to expand small footprint plant conversion technology and an increase of $3,000,000 in the solid fuels and feedstocks program to build on hydrogen from coal efforts with the University of North Dakota Energy and Environmental Research Center. There is also a general program decrease of $1,500,000 for hydrogen from coal research. In advanced fuels research, there is a decrease of $500,000 for C-1 chemistry.

Advanced Research (Coal).—In coal utilization science, there are increases of $4,000,000 for the Center for Zero Emissions Coal Research, and $1,000,000 for the Arctic Energy Office, which continues that program at last year's level.

Distributed Generation Systems/Fuel Cells.—In advanced research, there is an increase of $5,000,000 for HITEC, and a general reduction of $3,000,000 below the House proposed level. In systems development, there is a decrease of $2,700,000. Funding provided in systems development completes the molten carbonate fuel cell/hybrid project. In vision 21 hybrids, this will be the last year of funding for the tubular solid oxide fuel cell program. In innovative concepts, there is a $5,000,000 increase to initiate a competitively awarded turbine hybrid integration program.

Natural Gas Exploration and Production.—In natural gas exploration and production, there are increases of $1,500,000 for national laboratory/industry partnerships and $4,000,000 for the Arctic Energy Office (an increase of $1,000,000 above last year's level), and decreases of $3,000,000 for advanced drilling completion and stimulation and $1,000,000 for liquefied natural gas research.

Natural Gas Infrastructure.—In natural gas infrastructure, there is an increase of $1,371,000 for delivery reliability research.

Effective Environmental Protection (Natural Gas).—In effective environmental protection, there is an increase of $1,000,000 to continue and expand research on coal bed methane, including produced water research.

Oil Technology/Exploration and Production.—In oil technology exploration and production, there is an increase of $1,500,000 for national laboratory/industry partnerships and a decrease of $500,000 for reservoir efficiency. The managers note that the Arctic Energy Office is funded at last year's level of $2,000,000.

Reservoir Life Extension.—There is a decrease of $1,000,000 for domestic resource conservation in the reservoir life extension program.

Effective Environmental Protection (Oil).—There is a decrease of $300,000 for environmental science in the effective environmental protection program.

Other Programs.—In cooperative research and development, there is an increase of $1,065,000. In environmental restoration, there is a decrease of $1,000,000.

Bill Language.—Bill language is included providing for the use of $18,000,000 for the FutureGen program as proposed by the Senate. The House included language under the clean coal technology account.

Language also is included earmarking $50,000,000 for the clean coal power initiative as proposed by the Senate instead of $105,000,000 as proposed by the House. The managers note that funding for the clean coal power initiative will need to be increased substantially in fiscal year 2006 to keep this initiative on schedule.

The managers agree to the following:

1. The table required by the House (under the clean coal technology heading) detailing the history and annual budget request for FutureGen should be included in future budget requests for fossil energy research and development.

2. Within available funds, the director of the National Energy Technology Laboratory, in cooperation with the heads of the Strategic Petroleum Reserve and the Naval Petroleum and Oil Shale Reserves, should evaluate the viability of developing oil shale reserves, with emphasis on available technologies, and on cost and environmental impacts, and report the findings to the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations no later than May 1, 2005.

3. Within the funds provided for sequestration research and development, the Department should consider oxygen fuel technology currently being tested by DOE's Albany Research Center.

4. Research efforts through the National Science Foundation industry-university cooperative research center for fuel cell research, SC, should be considered in the energy conservation account.

NAVAL PETROLEUM AND OIL SHALE RESERVES

The conference agreement provides $18,000,000 for naval petroleum and oil shale reserves as proposed by both the House and the Senate.

ELK HILLS SCHOOL LANDS FUND

The conference agreement provides $36,000,000 to become available on October 1, 2005, for the 7th payment to the Elk Hills School Lands Fund as proposed by both the House and the Senate.

Bill Language.—Bill language is included referencing the settlement agreement of October 11, 1996, between the State of California and the Department of Energy as proposed by the House. The Senate did not reference the specific agreement.

ENERGY CONSERVATION

The conference agreement provides $649,092,000 for energy conservation instead of $656,071,000 as proposed by the House and $854,299,000 as proposed by the Senate. The House bill did not include funding for the weatherization assistance program because funding and jurisdiction for that program were transferred to the Appropriations Subcommittee on Labor, Health and Human Services, Education and Related Agencies in the House of Representatives. The changes described below are to the House recommended funding level.

Vehicle Technologies.—In simulation and validation, there is a decrease of $200,000. In advanced power electronics, there is a decrease of $400,000. In the advanced combustion engine program, there is a decrease of $1,000,000 for combustion and emission control, an increase of $2,300,000 for heavy truck engine research, and an increase of $2,000,000 for turbocharger research in the waste heat recovery program. In materials technology, there is a decrease of $500,000 for the Vulcan Beam Line payment as part of the high temperature materials laboratory program. In fuel technology, there is a decrease of $1,000,000 for advanced petroleum based fuels and, in the non-petroleum fuels and lubes program, there is an increase of $2,400,000 for renewable and synthetic fuels and a decrease of $700,000 for heavy truck research. There is also a decrease of $1,000,000 in the environmental impacts program.

Fuel Cell Technologies.—In distributed energy systems, there is a decrease of $500,000. In stack component research and development, there is a decrease of $1,500,000 for catalyst-specific research and an increase of $7,000,000 for other stack component research.

Weatherization and Intergovernmental Assistance.—There is a decrease of $300,000 for State energy program grants. In gateway deployment, there are decreases of $1,000,000 for Rebuild America and $1,000,000 for building codes training and technical assistance, and an increase of $250,000 for the energy star program.

Funding for the weatherization assistance program is addressed in a separate portion of this Act.

Distributed Energy Resources.—In distributed energy resources, there are decreases of $500,000 for microturbines, $200,000 for advanced materials and sensors, and $800,000 for thermally activated technology. In applications integration, there is a decrease of $500,000 for fuel flexibility in distributed generation systems, with the understanding that the balance of the funding will be used for combustion work, and an increase of $1,000,000 for the national accounts energy alliance.

Building Technologies.—In residential buildings integration, there is an increase of $1,000,000 for the Building America program and a decrease of $250,000 for residential building energy codes. In commercial buildings integration, there is a decrease of $250,000 for commercial building energy codes. In emerging technologies, there is an increase of $1,500,000 for the solid state lighting initiative and a decrease of $400,000 for space conditioning and refrigeration, and, in the building envelope program, there is a decrease of $400,000 for thermal insulation and building materials and an increase of $750,000 for windows research. In equipment and analysis, there is an increase of $750,000 for appliance standards. There is also an increase of $500,000 for oil heat research.

Industrial Technologies.—In industries of the future (specific), decreases include $1,700,000 for forest and paper products, $1,000,000 for steel, $1,000,000 for aluminum, $52,000 for metal casting, $700,000 for glass, $2,800,000 for chemicals, $700,000 for mining, and $27,000 for supporting industries. In industries of the future (crosscutting) there is a decrease of $550,000 for industrial assessment centers.

Biomass and Biorefinery Systems.—In biomass and biorefinery systems, there is a decrease of $5,000,000 for gasification programs.

Federal Energy Management Program.—There is an increase of $500,000 for the Federal Energy Management Program.

Other.—There is a decrease of $1,000,000 for cooperative programs with States. The managers expect that management of the Rebuild America program will be assumed by the State Technologies Advancement Collaborative in fiscal year 2005 and anticipate that there will be synergies between these programs.

Bill Language.—The conference agreement earmarks $44,798,000 for State energy conservation grants instead of $45,098,000 as proposed by the House and $43,798,000 as proposed by the Senate.

The managers agree to the following:

1. Within the funds provided for fuel cell technology, the Department should consider expanding the Porvair project.

2. The managers are aware of positive test results, provided to the Department, on a non-precious metal, tungsten oxide, PEM fuel cell, cathode catalyst. These results are promising from the standpoints of performance and non-degradation. The Department is strongly encouraged to fund further characterization and optimization of this cathode catalyst.

3. In distributed energy resources, the funding provided for thermally activated technology is to complete the existing residential generator absorber heat exchanger heat pump program.

4. The Rebuild America program is to be managed by the State Technologies Advancement Collaborative. The Department should move quickly to facilitate the transfer of administrative management for this program to STAC. The managers are pleased with STAC's management of the cooperative programs with the States and believe that the Rebuild America program will benefit from STAC management. The Department should examine other programs for potential STAC involvement in fiscal year 2005.

5. The new solicitation for off-highway research is not meant to eliminate funding for cooperative research and development agreements. The Department should consult with the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations on the appropriate distribution of funds between the new solicitation and CRADAs.

6. Within the funds provided for materials technology in the vehicle technologies program, research should be continued and expanded on thermoplastic composite materials and manufacturing infrastructure.

7. In the industrial materials for the future program, $1,000,000 should continue to be provided to the Metals Processing Laboratory Users Facility.

8. The managers understand that the Department will soon issue an Exceptional Circumstances Determination with regard to solid state lighting core technology research, with the purpose of facilitating favorable access to the resulting intellectual property by members of the Next Generation Lighting Industry Alliance. This access is in exchange for the active work for the Alliance in using its experience and expertise to bring a manufacturing and commercial focus to the solid state lighting project portfolio, as stipulated in the competitive solicitation by which the Alliance was selected. The managers support this arrangement and believe it will facilitate the deployment of solid state lighting technologies and accelerate reductions in electrical energy consumption.

9. The managers support the reprogramming of necessary funds to support program administration costs at the National Energy Technology Laboratory. The Committees approved a reprogramming for this purpose in 2004 and realize that further internal reprogrammings will be necessary in 2005. The Committees expect the Department to realign its budget to reflect the appropriate levels of funding for this purpose in the 2005 funding column of the fiscal year 2006 budget request. The Department should consult with the Committees prior to the budget submission.

STRATEGIC PETROLEUM RESERVE

The conference agreement provides $172,100,000 for the strategic petroleum reserve as proposed by both the House and the Senate.

NORTHEAST HOME HEATING OIL RESERVE

The conference agreement provides $5,000,000 for the northeast home heating oil reserve as proposed by both the House and the Senate.

ENERGY INFORMATION ADMINISTRATION

The conference agreement provides $85,000,000 for the energy information administration as proposed by the House instead of $84,000,000 as proposed by the Senate.

ADMINISTRATIVE PROVISIONS, DEPARTMENT OF ENERGY

The conference agreement retains the House bill language dealing with the use of receipts by the Department of Energy.

DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES

INDIAN HEALTH SERVICE

INDIAN HEALTH SERVICES

The conference agreement provides $2,633,072,000 for Indian health services instead of $2,628,322,000 as proposed by the House and $2,633,624,000 as proposed by the Senate. The changes described below are to the House recommended funding level.

Hospital and Health Clinic Programs.—In hospital and clinic programs, there is a decrease of $3,750,000 for the Indian health care improvement fund and an increase of $500,000 for staffing at the King Cove, AK, clinic.

Contract Health Care.—There is an increase of $8,000,000 for contract health care.

Bill Language.—The conference agreement earmarks $487,085,000 for contract health care instead of $479,085,000 as proposed by the House and $491,085,000 as proposed by the Senate. The conference agreement modifies language, proposed by the Senate, earmarking funds for alcohol control, enforcement, prevention, treatment, sobriety and wellness, and education programs in Alaska. The modification provides $15,000,000 for these programs instead of $16,000,000 and permits the use of 15 percent of funds for administrative overhead instead of 10 percent. The House had no similar provision. The distribution of funds proposed by the Senate is modified to provide $8,000,000 to Alaska Native regional organizations, with $2,000,000 (rather than $3,000,000) to be divided among the remaining organizations as specified in item

(5) in the Senate report. Item (a) in the Senate report is revised as follows: (a) $2,000,000 shall be provided as a direct lump sum payment to the State of Alaska Department of Public Safety to distribute on a timely basis to Alaska Native non-profit corporations to operate the Village Public Safety Officer Program.

The managers agree to the following:

1. The Service should reprogram the increases provided for pay cost increases so that there is an equitable distribution across all Federal and tribal programs.

2. The Recruitment of American Indians into Nursing program at the University of North Dakota is funded at last year's level, which includes the $95,000 provided in fiscal year 2003.

3. The Service should provide a report on the use of funds to date for the special alcohol and substance control, enforcement, prevention, treatment, sobriety and wellness, and education programs in Alaska. The report should be provided no later than 60 days after enactment of this Act. This progress report was due to the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations on January 15, 2004, and the managers find the Service's lack of response totally unacceptable.

4. The Alaska Federal Health Care Access Network is funded at last year's level.

INDIAN HEALTH FACILITIES

The conference agreement provides $394,048,000 for Indian health facilities instead of $405,048,000 as proposed by the House and $364,148,000 as proposed by the Senate.

The managers agree to the following distribution of funds:

| Project                                           | Amount      |
|---------------------------------------------------|-------------|

| Total .....                                       | 394,048,000 |

Bill Language.—The conference agreement includes language proposed by the Senate permitting the use of funds for the purchase of land for replacement of the health care facility in Barrow, Alaska. The House had no similar provision.

The conference agreement modifies language proposed by the House permitting the use of funds to purchase land for the northern and southern California youth regional treatment centers for alcohol and substance abuse. The modification specifies that such land should be purchased using prior year unobligated funds. The Senate had no similar provision.

Bill language, proposed by the Senate, authorizing the construction of a replacement health care facility in Nome, Alaska is not included but the managers note that this project should be considered in future budget requests.

The managers agree to the following:

1. The funds provided for the Barrow, AK hospital are for land acquisition and planning. The total estimated cost of the facility is $125 million.

2. The Service should finalize the site selections for the northern and southern California youth regional treatment centers for alcohol and substance abuse and, after the sites are selected, include funds in the budget request for construction of these facilities.

3. The funds included for the Eagle Butte, SD, clinic are for site preparation.

4. The total estimated cost of the Fort Belknap, MT, staff quarters project is $8,300,000. The $5,000,000 provided for fiscal year 2005 should be used to construct staff quarters in Harlem, MT. Funding for staff quarters in Hayes, MT, should be included in the fiscal year 2006 budget request.

5. Funds for the Phoenix Indian Medical Center, AZ, are for the design of a southwest clinic and a southeast clinic.

6. The funds for new health clinic planning and design are to initiate design of the San Carlos, AZ, clinic and the Kayenta, AZ, clinic. The Service recently approved the program justification documents for these two facilities.

7. The Service should move quickly to issue a new solicitation for small ambulatory care facilities. There should be a 30-day tribal comment period prior to issuance of the final solicitation.

8. The Service has informed the Committees that the funds provided for the Sisseton, SD, clinic should be sufficient to complete this project.

ADMINISTRATIVE PROVISIONS, INDIAN HEALTH SERVICE

The conference agreement continues language, included in the fiscal year 2004 appropriation, as proposed by the House, prohibiting the imposition of certain staffing restrictions on the Indian Health Service.

The conference agreement modifies language proposed by the House, permitting the use of third party collections for the purchase of land for expansion of the IHS hospital in Tahlequah, OK subject to advance approval by the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations. The modification retains the original text and adds language authorizing permanent service unit status for the Tulsa and Oklahoma City pilot health programs.

OTHER RELATED AGENCIES

OFFICE OF NAVAJO AND HOPI INDIAN RELOCATION

SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The conference agreement provides $5,000,000 for salaries and expenses of the Office of Navajo and Hopi Indian Relocation as proposed by the Senate instead of $11,000,000 as proposed by the House. The managers understand that there are large carryover balances in this program that can be used to continue the program in fiscal year 2005.

INSTITUTE OF AMERICAN INDIAN AND ALASKA NATIVE CULTURE AND ARTS DEVELOPMENT

PAYMENT TO THE INSTITUTE

The conference agreement provides $6,000,000 for payment to the institute as proposed by both the House and the Senate.

Bill Language.—The conference agreement retains Senate language that allows up to $1,000,000 of the funding to be used for the institute's learning center.

SMITHSONIAN INSTITUTION

SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The conference agreement provides $495,925,000 for salaries and expenses of the Smithsonian Institution instead of $496,925,000 as proposed by the House and $490,125,000 as proposed by the Senate. The change to the House level is the result of a reduction to the proposed increase of $1,000,000 for program support and major scientific instrumentation.

FACILITIES CAPITAL

The conference agreement provides $127,900,000 for facilities capital instead of $122,900,000 as proposed by the House and $136,900,000 as proposed by the Senate. The change to the House level is the result of an increase of $5,000,000 for revitalization work at the National Zoological Park. The managers understand that most, if not all, of these funds will be used for the Asia Trail exhibit. Language included in the House bill allowing for the transfer of funds from the former construction and repair, restoration and alteration of facilities accounts to the facilities capital account has been removed in the assumption that all such transfers have been made and the language is no longer necessary.

ADMINISTRATIVE PROVISIONS, SMITHSONIAN INSTITUTION

The conference agreement continues the administrative provisions included in the House bill that place restrictions on the use of funds for (1) the design of new or expanded facilities; (2) Holt House; (3) the purchase of buildings; and (4) compliance with reprogramming procedures. The House provision regarding changes to the Smithsonian's science programs has been amended by omitting reference to the Science Commission's recommendations, which were approved by the Board of Regents, and including a requirement of advance approval from the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations in agreement with current reprogramming guidelines.

NATIONAL GALLERY OF ART

SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The conference agreement provides $93,000,000 for salaries and expenses of the National Gallery of Art as proposed by the House instead of $92,119,000 as proposed by the Senate.

REPAIR, RESTORATION AND RENOVATION OF BUILDINGS

The conference agreement provides $11,100,000 for repair, restoration and renovation of buildings as proposed by the House instead of $11,000,000 as proposed by the Senate.

JOHN F. KENNEDY CENTER FOR THE PERFORMING ARTS

OPERATIONS AND MAINTENANCE

The conference agreement provides $17,152,000 for operations and maintenance of the Kennedy Center as proposed by both the House and the Senate.

Based on recent recommendations from the General Accounting Office, the managers direct the Kennedy Center to annually update the comprehensive building plan as required by the John F. Kennedy Center Act Amendments of 1994 and include the prioritization of projects, individual project status, and detailed budget information for both planned and ongoing projects. The plan has not been updated since 2002.

The requirement to develop and annually update a comprehensive building plan was intended to help improve management of the Kennedy Center's capital projects, help reduce the public costs of operating and maintaining the facility, and ensure accountability for the cost and schedule of the projects.

CONSTRUCTION

The conference agreement provides $16,334,000 for construction as proposed by the Senate instead of $10,000,000 as proposed by the House.

WOODROW WILSON INTERNATIONAL CENTER FOR SCHOLARS

SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The conference agreement provides $8,987,000 for salaries and expenses of the Woodrow Wilson International Center for Scholars as proposed by both the House and the Senate.

NATIONAL FOUNDATION ON THE ARTS AND THE HUMANITIES

NATIONAL ENDOWMENT FOR THE ARTS

GRANTS AND ADMINISTRATION

The conference agreement provides $122,972,000 for grants and administration of the National Endowment for the Arts instead of $130,972,000 as proposed by the House and $120,972,000 as proposed by the Senate. The agreement provides $2,000,000 for the new American Masterpieces initiative.

NATIONAL ENDOWMENT FOR THE HUMANITIES

GRANTS AND ADMINISTRATION

The conference agreement provides $123,877,000 for grants and administration of the National Endowment for the Humanities, instead of $125,877,000 as proposed by the House and $119,386,000 as proposed by the Senate. The change to the House recommended level is a decrease of $2,000,000 to the We the People initiative. When combined with amounts provided within the Matching Grants account that follows, the total recommended funding level for the NEH for fiscal year 2005 is $139,999,000, an increase of $4,689,000 above the current year enacted level.

MATCHING GRANTS

The conference agreement provides $16,122,000 for matching grants as proposed by the House instead of $15,924,000 as proposed by the Senate.

COMMISSION OF FINE ARTS

SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The conference agreement provides $1,793,000 for salaries and expenses of the Commission of Fine Arts as proposed by the House and the Senate.

NATIONAL CAPITAL ARTS AND CULTURAL AFFAIRS

The conference agreement provides $7,000,000 for national capital arts and cultural affairs as proposed by the House instead of $6,000,000 as proposed by the Senate.

ADVISORY COUNCIL ON HISTORIC PRESERVATION

SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The conference agreement provides $4,600,000 for salaries and expenses of the Advisory Council on Historic Preservation as proposed by both the House and the Senate.

NATIONAL CAPITAL PLANNING COMMISSION

SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The conference agreement provides $8,000,000 for salaries and expenses of the National Capital Planning Commission as proposed by the Senate instead of $7,999,000 as proposed by the House.

UNITED STATES HOLOCAUST MEMORIAL MUSEUM

HOLOCAUST MEMORIAL MUSEUM

The conference agreement provides $41,433,000 for the Holocaust Memorial Museum as proposed by the House and the Senate.

PRESIDIO TRUST

PRESIDIO TRUST FUND

The conference agreement provides $20,000,000 for the Presidio Trust Fund as proposed by both the House and the Senate.

TITLE III—GENERAL PROVISIONS

The conference agreement retains identical provisions in sections 301–309 of both the House and Senate bills.

Sec. 310. The conference agreement retains the language proposed in section 310 of the Senate bill providing one-year authority, as in past years, for the collection and use of private funds by the National Endowment for the Arts and the National Endowment for the Humanities. The House had a similar provision in section 310 of the House bill but it extended through 2009.

Sec. 311. The conference agreement retains the one-year authority, similar to previous years, proposed in section 311 of the Senate bill directing the National Endowment for the Arts on funding distribution. The House had a similar provision in section 311 of the House bill but it extended through 2009.

The conference agreement retains identical provisions in sections 312–316 of both the House and Senate bills.

Sec. 317. The conference agreement continues the provision in section 317 of the Senate bill addressing timber sales involving Alaska western red cedar for one year as was done previously. The House had no similar provision.

Sec. 318. The conference agreement modifies language proposed in section 317 of the House bill and in section 332 of the Senate bill concerning the Forest Service reforestation fund. The conference agreement does not contain bill language stating that the four purposes of the reforestation fund are of equal priority but the Forest Service should not give overall priority to one particular purpose over the others. The managers note that the Knutson-Vandenberg Act was amended in 1976 to allow the use of timber purchaser funds for: (1) planting trees, (2) sowing with tree seeds, (3) cutting or removing undesirable trees or other growth to improve future timber growth, and (4) protecting and improving the future productivity of the renewable resources of the forest land, including sale area improvement operations maintenance and construction, reforestation, and wildlife habitat management. The managers stress that, in selecting activities to be funded using the KV fund, the Secretary shall give, to the maximum extent practicable, equal importance to all four of these purposes. The Forest Service should not withhold funding for one or another of these purposes, but rather, decisions should be made forest by forest and project by project as to what are the most important conservation efforts.

Sec. 319. The conference agreement retains a provision in section 318 of the House bill continuing a provision prohibiting the Forest Service from using projects under the recreation fee demonstration program to supplant existing concessions. The Senate had an identical provision in section 318 of the Senate bill.

Sec. 320. The conference agreement retains the language proposed in section 319 of the Senate bill, as was in previous Acts, regarding the Forest Service land management planning revision requirements. The House had a similar provision in section 319 of the House bill.

Sec. 321. The conference agreement retains a provision in section 320 of the House bill continuing a provision limiting preleasing, leasing, and related activities within the boundaries of national monuments. The Senate had an identical provision in section 320 of the Senate bill.

Sec. 322. The conference agreement retains the language proposed in section 321 of the Senate bill extending the Forest Service Conveyances Pilot Program for two more years. The House had a similar provision in section 321 of the House bill. The managers are pleased with the operation of this program by the Forest Service and request that its management continue as in the past.

Sec. 323. The conference agreement replaces a provision in sections 322 of both the House and Senate bills. The new provision makes a technical correction to the Harriet Tubman Special Resource Study Act.

Sec. 324. The conference agreement retains a provision in section 323 of the House bill continuing a provision providing the Secretary of the Interior and the Secretary of Agriculture the authority to enter into reciprocal agreements with foreign nations concerning the personal liability of firefighters. The Senate had an identical provision in section 323 of the Senate bill.

Sec. 325. The conference agreement retains a provision in section 324 of the House bill allowing the Eagle Butte Service Unit of the Indian Health Service to utilize health care funding in a more efficient manner. The Senate had an identical provision in section 324 of the Senate bill.

Sec. 326. The conference agreement retains a provision in section 325 of the House bill continuing a provision prohibiting the transfer of funds to other agencies other than as provided in this Act. The Senate had an identical provision in section 325 of the Senate bill.

Sec. 327. The conference agreement retains a provision in section 326 of the House bill carried in previous years limiting funds for oil or gas leasing or permitting on the Finger Lakes National Forest, NY. The Senate had no similar provision.

Sec. 328. The conference agreement retains the language proposed in section 326 of the Senate bill allowing the Secretary of Agriculture and the Secretary of the Interior to consider local contractors when awarding contracts for certain activities on public lands. The House had a similar provision in section 328 of the House bill.

Sec. 329. The conference agreement retains a provision in section 329 of the House bill continuing a provision which limits the use of funds for filing declarations of taking or condemnations. This provision does not apply to the Everglades National Park Protection and Environmental Act. The Senate had an identical provision in section 327 of the Senate bill.

Sec. 330. The conference agreement modifies a provision in section 328 of the Senate bill concerning judicial review of timber sales in Region 10 of the Forest Service; this authority is provided for one year. The House had no similar provision.

Sec. 331. The conference agreement retains a provision in section 330 of the House bill restricting the Forest Service use of the Recreation Fee Demonstration program to certain developed sites. The Senate had no similar provision.

Sec. 332. The conference agreement modifies the language proposed in section 331 of the House bill providing guidance on competitive sourcing activities and clarifying annual reporting requirements to specify the reporting of the full costs associated with sourcing studies and related activities. The Senate had a similar provision in section 329 of the Senate bill.

Sec. 333. The conference agreement retains a provision in section 332 of the House bill requiring overhead charges, deductions, reserves or holdbacks to be presented in annual budget justifications, with changes presented to the Appropriations Committees for approval. The Senate had an identical provision in section 330 of the Senate bill.

Sec. 334. The conference agreement modifies a provision in section 331 of the Senate bill prohibiting the transfer of funds for SAFECOM and Disaster Management projects. The House had a more restrictive provision in section 333 of the House bill.

Sec. 335. The conference agreement retains a provision in section 334 of the House bill, with a minor technical modification, authorizing the conveyance of land within the San Bernardino National Forest, CA. The Senate had no similar provision.

Sec. 336. The conference agreement retains a provision in section 335 of the House bill encouraging cooperative hazardous fuels projects with the State of Colorado and the Forest Service, and extending this authority to the Bureau of Land Management. The Senate had no similar provision.

Sec. 337. The conference agreement retains a provision in section 333 of the Senate bill allowing the State of Utah, through contracts or cooperative agreements with the Forest Service, to perform certain activities on Forest Service lands. The House had no similar provision.

Sec. 338. The conference agreement modifies a provision in section 335 of the Senate bill requiring that contact centers associated with the national recreation reservation service be located within the United States. The House had no similar provision.

Sec. 339. The conference agreement modifies a provision in section 339 of the Senate bill allowing categorical exclusions for certain Forest Service grazing allotments. The House had no similar provision.

Sec. 340. The conference agreement retains a provision in section 340 of the Senate bill amending Public Law 90-542 regarding certain hunting camps on the Salmon River. The House had no similar provision. The managers note that this provision establishes use and occupancy as of June 6, 2003, for three special use permits. The purpose of this language is to clarify the legislative intent of the Central Idaho Wilderness Act and the inclusion of the three hunting camps as an existing use. The managers understand that all future modifications to these camps will be such that the camps retain their basic characteristics and the modifications do not substantially alter the existing scope of use.

Sec. 341. The conference agreement retains a provision in section 341 of the Senate bill allowing the Eastern Nevada Landscape Coalition to enter into agreements with the Department of the Interior and the Department of Agriculture. The House had no similar provision.

Sec. 342. The conference agreement retains a provision in section 342 of the Senate bill conveying certain lands in the Tongass National Forest to the Community of Elfin Cove, Alaska. The House had no similar provision.

Sec. 343. The conference agreement modifies a provision in section 343 of the Senate bill providing a three-year (versus a permanent) extension of a prohibition on Alaska Native villages assuming administration of health services contracts, and clarifying that Eastern Aleutian Tribes, Inc. be considered an Alaska Native regional health entity for purposes of disbursement of funds. The House had no similar provision.

Sec. 344. The conference agreement modifies a provision in section 344 of the Senate bill providing for the use of previously appropriated funds for the acquisition of lands for the construction of the Seward, Alaska Interagency Center.

Sec. 345. The conference agreement includes a new provision to extend the Forest Service rights-of-way cost recovery authority originally provided in fiscal year 2000.

Sec. 346. The conference agreement includes a new provision to provide for the conveyance of the Sandpoint Federal Building and associated land in Sandpoint, Idaho.

Sec. 347. The conference agreement includes a new provision authorizing the Secretary of Agriculture to carry out a national forest land exchange in the State of Florida.

Sec. 348. The conference agreement includes a new provision designating the Grey Towers National Historic Site in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Sec. 349. The conference agreement includes a new provision to adjust the boundaries of the Helena, Lolo, and Beaverhead-Deerlodge National Forests in the State of Montana.

Sec. 350. The conference agreement includes a new provision for a $5,000,000 grant to Kendall County, Illinois.

The conference agreement does not include a provision proposed in section 327 of the House bill limiting the use of funds for the planning, design, or construction of improvements to Pennsylvania Avenue in front of the White House.

The conference agreement does not include a provision proposed in section 334 of the Senate bill exempting certain local residents from paying fees under the Recreation Fee Demonstration program on the White Mountain National Forest.

The conference agreement does not include a provision proposed in section 336 of the Senate bill amending the Alaska National Interest Lands Conservation Act to allow for fishery management and enhancement projects in additional wilderness areas in Alaska.

The conference agreement does not include a provision proposed in section 337 of the Senate bill allowing Alaska residents with subsistence rights who are aged, infirm, or disabled to designate another individual to engage in subsistence activities for them and to reimburse such designated person.

The conference agreement does not include a provision on Missouri River water levels proposed by the Senate in section 338 of the Senate bill.

TITLE IV—SUPPLEMENTAL APPROPRIATIONS FOR URGENT WILDLAND FIRE SUPPRESSION ACTIVITIES

The conference agreement includes supplemental appropriations for the Department of the Interior and the Forest Service that provide an additional $500,000,000 in wildland fire suppression funds. This includes $100,000,000 for the Department of the Interior and $400,000,000 for the Department of Agriculture.

The conference agreement does not include the provisions included in Title IV, Chapter 1 of the House bill that provided supplemental appropriations for the Department of the Interior and the Forest Service in fiscal year 2004. These funds were included in the fiscal year 2005 Department of Defense appropriation passed earlier this year (P. L. 108-287, Title X, Chapter 3).

The purpose of this account is to provide funds so firefighting can continue during a severe fire season without the need to borrow from other land management accounts to pay for wildfire suppression. The conference agreement still contains authority for each Secretary, as appropriate, to utilize funds from other accounts under their jurisdiction, if all firefighting funds are exhausted.

The conference agreement retains language from the Senate bill providing that these funds will become available only if the funds provided in Titles I and II of this Act will be exhausted imminently and the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations and the Budget are notified. The managers understand that the urgent wildland fire suppression funding is only available because the conference agreement provides the full 10-year average cost of fire suppression in Titles I and II.

The conference agreement modifies language contained in the House bill that allows funds in this title to be transferred to other Interior and Forest Service accounts, as appropriate, to repay amounts that have been borrowed during wildland fire suppression crises.

The managers are very concerned about the high cost of fire suppression and have included a number of cost containment measures in this Act. The conference agreement modifies language included in the House bill that directs the Secretary of the Interior and the Secretary of Agriculture to submit a report that outlines the specific cost containment measures that are being implemented to contain wildland fire suppression costs. The managers expect to receive a single, joint report from both Secretaries.

The conference agreement allows unused funds from each Department's fiscal year 2004 wildland fire management appropriation to be used in subsequent years for future urgent wildfire suppression activities.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR

BUREAU OF LAND MANAGEMENT

WILDLAND FIRE MANAGEMENT

The conference agreement provides an additional amount of $100,000,000 for Wildland

Fire Management, for urgent wildfire suppression activities as described above.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

FOREST SERVICE

WILDLAND FIRE MANAGEMENT

The conference agreement includes an additional amount of $400,000,000 for Wildland Fire Management, for urgent wildfire suppression activities as described above.

The conference agreement includes language contained in the Senate bill that establishes an independent cost-control review panel for individual wildfire incidents exceeding $10,000,000 in suppression costs. The conference agreement modifies language contained in the Senate bill that directed the transfer of funds from unobligated balances in the wildland fire management account to the U.S. Treasury if the independent cost-control review panel finds that appropriate actions were not taken to control suppression costs.

TITLE IV—GENERAL PROVISIONS

The conference agreement does not include a provision proposed in section 401 of the House bill prohibiting the use of recreational fee funds for biological monitoring of species listed under the Endangered Species Act. The Department of the Interior has assured the managers that this practice will not be pursued.

The conference agreement does not include a provision proposed in section 402 of the House bill prohibiting the use of funds for the planning, design, study, or construction of forest development roads in the Tongass National Forest for the purpose of private harvest.

The conference agreement does not include a provision proposed in section 403 of the House bill directing the Department of the Interior to submit a report on public access to the Statue of Liberty.

TITLE V—ACROSS-THE-BOARD RESCISSIONS

Sec. 501. The conference agreement includes an across the board reduction of 0.594 percent. This reduction should be applied to each program, project, and activity, except for Miscellaneous Payments to Indians, which has a different application of the rescission as specified in the statutory language.

DIVISION F—LABOR, HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES, AND EDUCATION, AND RELATED AGENCIES APPROPRIATIONS 2005

In implementing this agreement, the Departments and agencies should be guided by the language and instructions set forth in House Report 108-636 accompanying the bill H.R. 5006 and Senate Report 108-345 accompanying the bill, S. 2810.

In the cases where the language and instructions in either report specifically address the allocation of funds, each has been reviewed by the conferees and those that are jointly concurred in have been endorsed in this joint statement.

In the cases in which the House or the Senate have directed the submission of a report, such report is to be submitted to both the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations.

The conferees note that section 518 sets forth the reprogramming requirements and limitations for the Departments and agencies funded through this Division, including the requirement to make a written request to the chairmen of the Committees 15 days prior to reprogramming, or to the announcement of intent to reprogram, funds in excess of 10 percent, or $500,000, whichever is less, between programs, projects and activities.

Finally, the conferees request that statements on the effect of this appropriation Act on the Departments and agencies funded in this Division be submitted to the Committees within 45 days of enactment of this Act. The conferees expect that these statements will provide sufficient detail to show the allocation of funds among programs, projects and activities, particularly in accounts where the final appropriation is different than that of the budget request. Furthermore, the conferees request the statements to also include the effect of the appropriation on any new activities or major initiatives discussed in the budget justifications accompanying the fiscal year 2005 budget.

The Departments of Labor, Health and Human Services, and Education, and Related Agencies Appropriations Act, 2005, put in place by this bill, incorporates the following agreements of the managers:

TITLE I—DEPARTMENT OF LABOR
EMPLOYMENT AND TRAINING
ADMINISTRATION

TRAINING AND EMPLOYMENT SERVICES

The conference agreement includes $5,361,957,000 for training and employment services, instead of $5,112,728,000 as proposed by the House and $5,377,662,000 as proposed by the Senate. Of the amount appropriated, $2,463,000,000 is an advance appropriation for fiscal year 2006, as proposed by the House and the Senate.

The Secretary of Labor shall take no action to amend, through regulatory or administration action, the definition established in 20 CFR 667.220 for functions and activities under title I of the Workforce Investment Act until such time as legislation reauthorizing the Act is enacted.

For Adult Employment and Training Activities, the conferees provide $898,107,000 as proposed by the Senate, instead of $900,000,000 as proposed by the House.

For Youth Training, the conferees provide $994,242,000 as proposed by the Senate instead of $1,000,965,000 as proposed by the House.

The conference agreement includes $1,479,419,000 for the Dislocated Worker program, as proposed by both the House and the Senate. The conferees override the formula that provides that 80 percent of the funds provided will be used for State formula grants and 20 percent in a National Reserve Account. For fiscal year 2005 the conferees provide $1,196,048,000 for the State formula grants and $283,371,000 for the National Reserve Account.

The conference agreement includes bill language giving the Secretary of Labor authority to use dislocated worker national reserve funds to provide assistance to a State for statewide or local use in order to address cases where there have been worker dislocations across multiple sectors or across multiple local areas. The conferees urge the Secretary, when determining competitive awards under this authority, to give favorable consideration to the applications of assistance to States that have sustained worker dislocation in such a manner and can demonstrate the capacity to respond effectively in a coordinated fashion across multiple sectors or local areas.

The conferees concur with language in the Senate report regarding the length of time it takes for the Department to approve applications for National Emergency Grants. The conferees request that the Government Accountability Office examine the administration of this program, and make recommendations for improvement.

The conference agreement includes $54,675,000 for Native Americans as proposed by the House instead of $55,000,000 as proposed by the Senate.

The conference agreement includes $1,559,804,000 for Job Corps. Within the total, $1,443,483,000 is provided for continuing operations of the program and $116,321,000 is for renovation and construction of Job Corps centers. The conference recommendation includes an increase of $10,000,000 over the budget request to begin the process of establishing additional Job Corps centers, following up on directions contained in the conference report accompanying Public Law 108-199.

The conference recommendation includes funding to support a demonstration partnership with the Transportation Security Administration (TSA) at multiple Job Corps sites so that the Job Corps can help to fill unmet needs by providing TSA access to an expanded pool of job applicants. This funding will pay costs of both parties. The Department of Labor and the Department of Homeland Security are encouraged to develop a cooperative agreement that would help to leverage Federal resources, to provide TSA with an expanded pool of potential job applications and to utilize Job Corps facilities as appropriate to support the needs of TSA, including those of qualified private screening companies under contract to TSA.

The conferees note that Section 171 of the Workforce Investment Act requires the Secretary, every two years, to publish a plan that describes the demonstration and pilot project priorities of the Labor Department, and expects the next such plan to be completed and published by March 31, 2005.

The conferees further direct that the Department submit an operating plan that outlines the planned allocation by major project and activity (excluding Congressionally-directed projects) of fiscal year 2005 funds for pilots, demonstrations, and research. This plan should be provided to the House and Senate Appropriations Committees no later than May 31, 2005.

The conferees recognized the effectiveness of the Family Enrichment Center in Chicago, Illinois and encourages the Department of Labor to continue its partnership with Haymarket Center in order to enhance efforts to train individuals with severe employment barriers.

With respect to the projects listed below for pilots and demonstrations, the conferees encourage the Department to ensure that these projects are coordinated with local Workforce Investment Boards. The conferees also encourage the Department to ensure that project performance is adequately documented and evaluated. The conference agreement includes the following amounts for the following projects and activities:

Of this amount, bill language provides that $125,000,000 is to be allocated from National Emergency Grant funds available under section 132(a)(2)(A) of the Workforce Investment Act, overriding the limitation otherwise imposed under section 171(d). The Secretary is expected to initially use resources from the National Emergency Grants account for these awards that are designated for non-emergencies under sections 171(d) and 170(b) of the Workforce Investment Act. Community-Based Job Training Grant awards will also be subject to the limitations of sections 171(c)(4)(A) through 171(c)(4)(C) of the Workforce Investment Act to ensure that these grants are awarded competitively. Funds used for this initiative should strengthen partnerships between workforce investment boards, community colleges, and employers, to train workers for high growth, high demand industries in the new economy. |         | proposed by the Senate, instead of $67,000,000 as proposed by the House.

PROGRAM ADMINISTRATION

The conference agreement appropriates $171,473,000 for Program Administration, instead of $168,854,000 as proposed by the House and $177,615,000 as proposed by the Senate. The detailed table at the end of this joint statement reflects the activity distribution agreed to by the conferees.

EMPLOYMENT STANDARDS ADMINISTRATION SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The conference agreement includes $404,345,000 for the Employment Standards Administration, salaries and expenses, instead of $402,818,000 as proposed by the House and $405,870,000 as proposed by the Senate. The detailed table at the end of this joint statement reflects the activity distribution agreed to by the conferees.

OCCUPATIONAL SAFETY AND HEALTH ADMINISTRATION SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The conference agreement includes $468,109,000 for the Occupational Safety and Health Administration instead of $461,599,000 as proposed by the House and $468,645,000 as proposed by the Senate. The detailed table at the end of this joint statement reflects the activity distribution agreed to by the conferees.

The conferees concur with the House bill and report language regarding OSHA's enforcement of the Respiratory Standard as it applies to tuberculosis. The conferees advise OSHA to take no further action with regard to respiratory protection for occupational exposure to TB until such time as the CDC has completed the ongoing revisions of its TB guidelines.

The conferees concur with the Senate bill and report language that not less than $3,200,000 is to be used to extend funding for the Institutional Competency Building training grants provided that a grantee has demonstrated satisfactory performance.

MINE SAFETY AND HEALTH ADMINISTRATION SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The conference agreement includes $281,535,000 for the Mine Safety and Health Administration instead of $275,567,000 as proposed by the House and $280,002,000 as proposed by the Senate. The detailed table at the end of this joint statement reflects the activity distribution agreed to by the conferees.

Within the total, the conference agreement includes $2,000,000 to be available for mine rescue and recovery activities on a non-contingency basis as proposed by the Senate.

The conferees expect the Mine Safety and Health Administration to keep it fully and currently informed of A-76 competitions, and that any competitions will be conducted fairly and equitably and will result in significant savings and the improvement in the quality of services to taxpayers. The Conferees urge all possible diligence to ensure that inherently governmental functions are not subject to A-76 competitions. The conference agreement includes the following amounts for the following projects and activities:

|                                                                                                                          |             |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------|
| Infrastructure improvements at the Mine Academy in Beckley, West Virginia .....                                          | $750,000   |
| Wheeling Jesuit University for the National Technology Transfer Center for a coal slurry impoundment pilot project ..... | $3,000,000 |

BUREAU OF LABOR STATISTICS SALARIES AND EXPENSES

Within the total for the Employment and Unemployment Statistics activity, $5,000,000 is for the Mass Layoff Statistics program as proposed in the Senate bill.

OFFICE OF DISABILITY EMPLOYMENT POLICY SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The conferees commend ODEP for their efforts to enhance telework opportunities for severely disabled individuals. To build on ODEP's efforts to increase telework opportunities in the federal government, the conferees direct that $1,000,000 be transferred from ODEP to the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services (CMS) to build on a previous pilot between ODEP and CMS.

The conferees are pleased that CMS has piloted the performance of CMS call center work by individuals with severe disabilities working from home-based workstations. This model has the potential to be expanded within CMS and replicated outside of CMS by government agencies and others interested in following CMS's lead.

The conference agreement provides such transfer to expand and refine the existing CMS model in conjunction with National Telecommuting Institute, Inc., as well as disseminate information about this telework model to other agencies.

DEPARTMENTAL MANAGEMENT SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The conference agreement includes $323,422,000 for Departmental Management, salaries and expenses, instead of $264,967,000 as proposed by the House bill and $357,050,000 as proposed by the Senate. The detailed table at the end of this joint statement reflects the activity distribution agreed to by the conferees.

The conference agreement includes $94,000,000 for the Bureau of International Labor Affairs (ILAB). Within the total provided, $79,000,000 is to assist developing countries with the elimination of child labor. Of this amount, $45,000,000 is for the International Labor Organization's International Programme for the Elimination of Child Labor and $34,000,000 is provided for bilateral assistance to improve access to basic education in international areas with a high rate of abusive and exploitative child labor. In addition, the conference agreement includes $2,000,000 for ILAB to build its own permanent capacity to monitor and report regularly and in-depth to the Congress on the extent to which foreign countries with trade and investment agreements with the United States respect internationally-recognized worker rights and effectively promote core labor standards. The conference agreement also includes $11,000,000 for Federal administration and other ILAB programs.

The conference agreement includes $2,000,000 for the purpose of assisting the International Labor Organization in implementing a program to confront HIV/AIDS in the workplace. The primary purpose of this program shall be to promote workplace policies which combat HIV-related stigma and discrimination, and promote prevention on the basis of tripartite partnerships among workers, employers and governments around the world.

The conferees are disturbed that the Department of Labor transferred fiscal year 2004 funds to augment activities for which funds were previously denied and to initiate new activities for which both the House and Senate Appropriations Committees denied funding. The Appropriations Committees have provided authority to reprogram and transfer funds in order to provide flexibility to the Department to address unforeseen needs and emergencies. However, the Department, instead, has used these flexibilities to circumvent funding decisions made by the Congress. Therefore, the conferees have included bill language to clarify reprogramming and transfer procedures.

VETERANS EMPLOYMENT AND TRAINING

The conference agreement includes $224,648,000 for Veterans Employment and Training instead of $225,648,000 as proposed by the House and $226,781,000 as proposed by the Senate. The detailed table at the end of this joint statement reflects the activity distribution agreed to by the conferees.

The conference agreement includes $13,198,000 for activities under the Uniformed Services Employment and Reemployment Rights Act. The conferees intend that the additional resources over FY 2004 be used for additional investigations and educational outreach to employers about reemployment rights of uniformed service members departing from and returning to work.

WORKING CAPITAL FUND

The conference agreement includes $10,000,000 for the Working Capital Fund the same as proposed by the House instead of $15,000,000 as proposed by the Senate.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

ONE PERCENT TRANSFER AUTHORITY

The conference agreement modifies a provision proposed by the Senate limiting the authority to transfer funds between a program, project or activity and requiring a 15 day notification of any transfer.

EXECUTIVE ORDER 13126

The conference agreement includes a provision proposed by the Senate that none of the funds appropriated in this Act shall be obligated or expended for the procurement of goods produced by forced or indentured child labor. The House bill contained no similar provision.

DENALI COMMISSION

The conference agreement includes a provision proposed by the Senate that authorizes to be appropriated such sums as may be necessary to the Denali Commission to conduct job training where Denali Commission projects will be constructed. The House bill contained no similar provision.

TRANSIT SUBSIDY

The conference agreement includes a provision directing the Secretary to provide, within 45 days, to the Department of Labor employees in the National Capital Region the full transit subsidy that they are eligible to receive.

CONGRESSIONAL JUSTIFICATIONS

The conference agreement includes bill language requiring the Department of Labor to submit its fiscal year 2006 congressional budget justifications in the traditional budget structure rather than in a "performance" budget structure. The Department is directed to return to preparing the traditional congressional justifications as they were prepared prior to fiscal year 2003, with separate sections for each appropriations account, providing detailed information on the prior year, current year, and requested budget year funding and Federal staffing levels for each program, project, or activity funded within each account; a detailed narrative description of each program, project, or activity; and budget and measurement information should be submitted as a separate appendix in the budget justification material.

The conferees support the Department's effort to integrate program performance more prominently into its budget formulation and to display that information more thoroughly in the justification, but the conferees direct that technical account and program information be prominent in each agency's budget justifications similar to the Department's budget justifications prior to fiscal year 2003 so that information can be found easily and quickly. The Department is directed to delineate materials by appropriation account, providing detailed information on the prior year, current year, and requested budget year funding and Federal staffing levels for each program, project, or activity funded within each account; a narrative description of each program, project, or activity; and any proposed changes to such program, project, or activity. The Department is encouraged to continue using outcome and performance measures as the primary management tool for resource allocation and the evaluation of programs and individuals.

OVERTIME REGULATION

The conference agreement deletes without prejudice language proposed by the House and Senate stating that none of the funds provided may be used to implement or administer any changes to regulations regarding overtime compensation in effect on July 14, 2004.

TITLE II—DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES

HEALTH RESOURCES AND SERVICES
ADMINISTRATION

HEALTH RESOURCES AND SERVICES

The conference agreement includes $6,881,624,000 for health resources and services, of which $6,856,624,000 is provided as budget authority and $25,000,000 is made available from the Public Health Service policy evaluation set-aside, instead of $6,330,333,000 as proposed by the House and $6,966,280,000 as proposed by the Senate.

The conference agreement includes resolution of two technical bill language differences: the Social Security Act is cited once as proposed by the House rather than twice as proposed by the Senate; the citation of the Poison Control Center Act is expanded as proposed by the Senate.

The conference agreement includes bill language providing $484,629,000 for construction and renovation (including equipment) of health care and other facilities and other health-related activities. The Senate included bill language providing $371,536,000 for this purpose; no funding was provided by the House. These funds are to be used for the following projects:

The conference agreement includes bill language designating $119,158,000 of the funds provided for the maternal and child health block grant for special projects of regional and national significance (SPRANS), as provided by the House. The Senate bill provided $122,530,000 for this purpose. It is intended that $4,000,000 of the SPRANS amount will be used to continue the sickle cell newborn screening program and its locally based outreach and counseling efforts. In addition, $5,000,000 of the SPRANS amount will be used to continue the oral health demonstration programs and activities in the States. The conference agreement also includes within the SPRANS set-aside $1,600,000 to continue mental health programs and activities in the States, $3,000,000 to continue the epilepsy demonstration, and $2,000,000 to continue newborn and child screening for heritable disorders.

The conference agreement includes $200,000 for grants to establish a demonstration program and a National Coordinating Center to develop systemic mechanisms for the prevention and treatment of sickle cell disease as authorized in Section 712 of Public Law 108–357. The Sickle Cell Demonstration Program is designed to improve and expand patient and provider education and the continuity and coordination of service delivery for individuals with sickle cell disease through grants to eligible entities as provided for in the legislation. The conferees encourage HRSA to work with patient and provider organizations to develop these programs and prepare a program plan for fiscal year 2006 within six months of enactment.

The conference agreement includes bill language providing $40,000,000 to the Denali Commission as a direct lump payment pursuant to P.L. 106–113, of which $10,000,000 is for a psychiatric treatment facility in Bethel, Alaska, $10,000,000 is for residential and supportive housing for elders, $2,500,000 is for medical and dental equipment for rural clinics, and $5,000,000 is for upgrade and construction of shelters for victims of domestic violence and child abuse. The Senate provided $41,794,000 for the Denali Commission. The House did not include funding for the Commission. These funds support construction and renovation of health clinics, hospitals and social service facilities in rural Alaska as authorized by Public Law 106–113. Provision of the funding will help remote communities in Alaska develop critically needed health and social service infrastructure for which no other funding sources are available. The conferees expect the Denali Commission to continue its support of joint venture projects to replace the aging hospitals in Nome and Barrow.

The conference agreement provides $14,000,000 for Native Hawaiian health care activities within the consolidated health centers program instead of $15,000,000 as provided by the Senate. The House did not identify specific funding for Native Hawaiian activities.

The conferees continue to support the technical assistance provided to community health centers through the current state and national cooperative agreements, in order to sustain the continued expansion of the health centers program.

The conferees urge HRSA to give preference for funding to section 330 applications submitted within States that have made recent and significant investments to develop new health center sites and services.

The conference agreement provides $87,078,000 for National Health Service Corps recruitment. Although this level is a reduction compared to fiscal year 2004, it is not expected to trigger a decrease in the number of scholarships and loan repayments that can be supported. The recently enacted American Jobs Creation Act of 2004 exempts NHSC loan repayments from taxation as income. This legislative change will permit HRSA to make approximately forty percent more awards under the loan repayment program at any given funding level than in fiscal year 2004 because HRSA will no longer have to reimburse loan recipients for the tax payment. The conference agreement includes $2,000,000 for the demonstration program which allows chiropractors to participate in the NHSC loan forgiveness program.

The conferees do not approve the President's request to use Healthy Community Access program funds for health care networks or for chronic disease management activities.

Within the total for Ryan White AIDS programs, no less than the amount provided in fiscal year 2004 is included for AIDS activities that are targeted to address the growing HIV/AIDS epidemic and its disproportionate impact upon communities of color, including African Americans, Latinos, Native Americans, Asian Americans, Native Hawaiians, and Pacific Islanders.

The conference agreement includes $9,000,000 for rural and community access to emergency devices. Of this amount, $8,000,000 is for the rural program under section 413 of the Public Health Service Act and $1,000,000 is for the community access demonstration under section 313 of the Act.

The conferees are concerned about reports that grant reviewers for the health careers opportunity program (H-COP) have not recognized the guidance in House and Senate appropriations report language over the past several years. That report language consistently urged HRSA to give priority consideration for H-COP grants to historically minority health professions schools. Yet, several proposals for initial or competitive renewal grants from these institutions were not funded in the 2003–2004 grant cycle; the reviewer comments did not seem to acknowledge important elements of the applications demonstrating the accomplishments of these schools. The conferees direct the Government Accountability Office to study the H-COP grant review process over the past two years to determine if the grant reviewers correctly interpreted and scored the applications from historically minority health professions schools. The review should include the appropriateness of the criteria used to score the application and the degree to which they reflected appropriations report language guidance. The report should be delivered to the House and Senate Appropriations Committees by June 1, 2005.

The conferees encourage HRSA to provide funding for baccalaureate-prepared registered nurses to obtain advanced nursing education (master's degrees) in psychiatric mental health nursing. The conferees further encourage HRSA to provide funding for post-masters certification training in psychiatric mental health nursing for masters-prepared nurses already trained in other specialties.

The conferees recognize the problem of a growing shortage of nursing faculty and that potential nursing students are being turned away from nursing schools because faculty are not available. For example, a lack of qualified faculty is a principal reason for not admitting more students into some Tennessee nursing programs, and Tennessee is one of six states expected to have a critical shortage of nursing faculty within the next five years. The conferees support efforts to address the nursing school faculty shortage through the development of strategic partnerships between health care providers and educational institutions.

The conferees concur in the House report language allocating funding within allied health at the fiscal year 2004 level for graduate psychology education and geropsychology. The conferees also concur in House report language allocating the same funding as in fiscal year 2004 for geriatric education centers, geriatric training, and geriatric academic career awards. The conferees concur in Senate report language allocating funding at least at the fiscal year 2004 level for the pediatric dental program and providing continued funding for the chiropractic-medical school demonstration grant program.

The conferees continue to be concerned about the health care needs of those in the Mississippi River Delta region. The conferees provide $5,200,000 for rural health outreach to continue the ongoing initiative in eight States. These grants provide funding and technical assistance to help underserved rural communities identify and better address their health care needs and to help small rural hospitals improve their financial and operational performance. The conferees further recommend that HRSA consult with the Delta Regional Authority and the Delta Health Alliance, given their ongoing relationships with communities in the Delta.

The conferees concur in language in the Senate report identifying $3,000,000 within traumatic brain injury funding for protection and advocacy services. The House report did not have similar language.

The conferees concur in language included in the Senate report regarding the distribution of family planning grants. The House report did not include similar language.

The conference agreement includes $148,533,000 for program management as provided by the Senate instead of $151,317,000 as provided by the House. The conferees expect HRSA to use no more than one percent of the funds allocated for projects for agency administrative expenses.

CENTERS FOR DISEASE CONTROL AND PREVENTION

DISEASE CONTROL, RESEARCH, AND TRAINING

The conference agreement includes $4,533,911,000 for disease control, research, and training at the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), instead of $4,228,778,000 as proposed by the House and $4,538,592,000 as proposed by the Senate. In addition, $265,100,000 is made available under section 241 of the Public Health Service Act. The House bill proposed that $249,100,000 and the Senate bill proposed that $269,100,000 be derived from section 241 authority.

The conference agreement adopts the revised account structure proposed by the Senate. The new structure includes both account changes that result from the CDC Director's Futures Initiative and revisions made by the Senate regarding the treatment of CDC overhead, personnel, and business expenses. Accordingly, all House bill numbers referenced below are adjusted for comparability.

The conference agreement includes bill language earmarking $272,000,000 for equipment, construction, and renovation of facilities, including the new data center and recovery site to ensure availability of critical systems and data supporting CDC's homeland security and public health emergency responsibilities, instead of $81,500,000 as proposed by the House and $294,500,000 as proposed by the Senate. Within this total, $250,000,000 is for continuation of CDC's program to upgrade and replace facilities in Atlanta and $22,000,000 is to continue construction and purchase equipment for the replacement of CDC's infectious disease laboratory in Fort Collins, Colorado. The conferees support the implementation of CDC's Buildings and Facilities Master Plan and are pleased with the progress made to date.

The conference agreement includes bill language carried in prior years to allow the CDC to enter into a single contract or related contracts for the full scope of development and construction of facilities as proposed by both the House and the Senate. The conference agreement also includes bill language to allow funds appropriated to the CDC to be used to enter into a long-term ground lease for construction on non-Federal land, in order to replace their laboratory in the Fort Collins, Colorado area as proposed by both the House and Senate.

The conference agreement includes bill language to earmark $124,882,000 for international HIV/AIDS, instead of $142,808,000 as proposed by the House and $118,842,000 as proposed by the Senate. The conference agreement reflects the result of the CDC account restructuring and not a difference in the international HIV/AIDS program operation level.

The conference agreement includes bill language similar to that proposed by the Senate designating that the following amounts shall be available under section 241 (Public Health Service Act evaluation set-aside) for the specified activities:

$109,021,000 National Center for Health Statistics Surveys;

$12,794,000 National Immunization Surveys;

$24,751,000 Information Systems Standards Development and Architecture and Applications-based Research Used at Local Public Health Levels;

$87,071,000 Research Tools and Approaches within the National Occupational Research Agenda;

$31,000,000 Public Health Research; and $463,000 Health Marketing evaluations.

The conference agreement does not include language proposed by the Senate providing authority to the Director to direct up to 1 percent of the amount made available for any program, project, or activity in this Act to the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention to programs, projects, and activities the Director may so designate. The conferees instead encourage the Director to utilize available reprogramming authority to assist in the implementation of the Futures Initiative.

The conference agreement includes modified bill language proposed by the Senate to permit the Director to use up to $10,000 provided under this heading for representational expenses. The Senate bill included similar authority as a general provision. The House bill had no similar provision.

INFECTIOUS DISEASES

The conference agreement includes $1,666,455,000 for Infectious Diseases, instead of $1,660,599,000 as proposed by the House and $1,675,800,000 as proposed by the Senate. In addition, $12,794,000 is available to carry out National Immunization Surveys to be derived from section 241 evaluation set-aside funds.

Infectious Disease Control

Within the total for Infectious Diseases, the conference agreement includes $227,521,000 for infectious disease control activities instead of $224,288,000 as proposed by the House and $232,731,000 as proposed by the Senate.

Within the total provided, $1,291,000 above fiscal year 2004 is provided for areas of highest scientific and programmatic priority for preparing and responding to present and emerging infectious disease threats.

Within the total provided, $3,500,000 above fiscal year 2004 is to augment CDC's resources for supporting States in developing and implementing effective surveillance, prevention, and mosquito control to effectively combat West Nile Virus and support research on the biology of the disease.

Within the total provided, $1,000,000 above fiscal year 2004 is to expand and improve surveillance, research, and prevention activities on prion disease. The conferees intend the CDC allocate a portion of the increase provided to expand the work of the National Prion Disease Pathology Surveillance Center and to augment state and local disease surveillance activities.

HIV/AIDS, STD and TB Prevention

Within the total for Infectious Diseases the conference agreement includes $968,938,000 for HIV/AIDS, STD and TB prevention instead of $970,590,000 as proposed by the House and $967,075,000 as proposed by the Senate.

Included is $667,938,000 for domestic HIV/AIDS activities; $161,000,000 for STD activities; and $140,000,000 for TB activities.

Within the total for HIV/AIDS, the conferees intend that the activities that are targeted to address the growing HIV/AIDS epidemic and its disparate impact on communities of color, including African Americans, Latinos, Native Americans, Asian Americans, Native Hawaiians, and Pacific Islanders be supported at not less than $97,818,000, the fiscal year 2004 level. The conferees intend that CDC follow the report accompanying the Labor, HHS and Education and Related Agencies Appropriations Act, 2002 regarding the disbursement of these funds, including continuing support for the Directly Funded Minority Community Based Organization Program.

The conference agreement provides an increase of $2,420,000 to expand the infertility prevention program to provide screening and testing technologies for STDs and HIV, as well as other women's health services that are provided by recipients of these funds.

The conferees concur with language in the Senate report encouraging CDC to maximize the percentage of TB control funds made available on a per case basis while ensuring that no state receives less funding than it received in fiscal year 2004.

Immunization

Within the total for Infectious Diseases, the conference agreement includes a discretionary program level total of $469,995,000 for immunization, instead of $465,721,000 as proposed by the House and $475,995,000 as proposed by the Senate. In addition, $12,794,000 is for national immunization surveys to be derived from section 241 evaluation set-aside funds, the same as proposed by the Senate and the House.

In addition, the Vaccines for Children (VFC) program funded through the Medicaid program includes $1,208,296,000 in vaccine purchases and distribution support in fiscal year 2005, for a total immunization program level of $1,678,291,000.

Included in the amount provided is $414,796,000 for the section 317 program, and $67,993,000 for immunization program operations, including $5,000,000 to continue and expand the Surveillance, Preparedness, Awareness, and Response System.

HEALTH PROMOTION

The conference agreement includes $1,032,802,000 for Health Promotion, instead of $993,802,000 as proposed by the House and $988,090,000 as proposed by the Senate.

Chronic Disease Prevention, Health Promotion, and Genomics

Within the amount for Health Promotion, the conference agreement includes $907,159,000 for chronic disease prevention and health promotion instead of $873,936,000 as proposed by the House and $864,195,000 as proposed by the Senate. Programs within this account are funded at the following amounts:

$45,000,000 for Heart Disease and Stroke, $3,372,000 over fiscal year 2004;

$312,357,000 for Cancer Prevention and Control, $18,532,000 over fiscal year 2004;

$64,000,000 for Diabetes activities, $4,043,000 over fiscal year 2004;

$22,680,000 for Arthritis and Other Chronic Diseases, $658,000 over fiscal year 2004;

$105,239,000 for Tobacco activities, an increase of $15,000,000 to sustain the same program level as fiscal year 2004;

$42,289,000 for Nutrition/Physical Activity, $3,000,000 over fiscal year 2004;

$21,820,000 for Community Health Promotion, $1,200,000 over fiscal year 2004;

$57,232,000 for School Health, the same as fiscal year 2004;

$45,121,000 for Safe Motherhood/Infant Health, the same as fiscal year 2004;

$11,300,000 Oral Health, $657,000 over fiscal year 2004;

$59,298,000 for the Childhood Obesity Prevention Program, Verb;

$29,944,000 for Prevention Centers, $5,000,000 over fiscal year 2004; and $47,000,000 for the Steps to a Healthier U.S., $5,739,000 over fiscal year 2004.

In addition, the agreement includes the following amounts for the initiatives below as outlined in the Senate report:

$1,600,000 for Alzheimer's Disease activities;

$750,000 for Inflammatory Bowel Disease activities;

$700,000 for Interstitial Cystitis activities; and

$1,500,000 for Pioneering Healthy Communities.

Within the amount provided for Cancer Prevention and Control the following is provided above the fiscal year 2004 level:

$9,000,000 for the Breast and Cervical Cancer Screening Program;

$2,476,000 for Cancer Registries;

$1,000,000 for Colorectal Cancer;

$4,855,000 for Comprehensive Cancer;

$100,000 for Ovarian Cancer;

$100,000 for Prostate Cancer;

$100,000 for Skin Cancer, and $900,000 for cancer survivorship as outlined in the Senate report.

The conference agreement also includes $4,625,000 for the Geraldine Ferraro Cancer Education Program.

The conferees are agreed that the ratio of funds spent on activities authorized as part of the Breast and Cervical Cancer Screening Program should continue in the manner consistent with the ratio applicable in fiscal year 2004.

Within the amounts available for Arthritis and Other Chronic Diseases, the agreement provides an increase over fiscal year 2004 of $405,000 for the expansion of State-based arthritis programs and collaborations with the relevant voluntary health organizations and of $253,000 to enhance epilepsy efforts, in partnership with a national non-profit organization that works on behalf of children and adults affected by seizures. In addition, $950,000 is available within Arthritis and Other Chronic Diseases to continue support for the National Lupus Patient Registry.

Within amounts provided for Community Health Promotion: $7,707,000 is available to support and expand the Behavioral Risk Factor Surveillance Systems, as outlined in the Senate report; $6,037,000 is for health promotion; $3,586,000 ($250,000 above fiscal year 2004) is provided for continuing and expanding a model project that is testing and evaluating the efficacy of glaucoma screening using mobile units; $2,516,000 ($250,000 above fiscal year 2004) is for the national vision screening and education program; and $1,974,000 is for the Mind-Body Medical Institute in Boston, Massachusetts to continue practice-based assessments, identification, and study of promising and heavily-used mind/body practices.

The conferees applaud the CDC's commitment to continuing partnership with the Dr.

James West Health Clinic in Chicago, IL in order to measure the effectiveness of integrating a chronic disease management model within a substance abuse treatment program.

Within the increase of $5,000,000 provided for Prevention Research Centers, the conferees intend that CDC ensure that all centers funded in fiscal year 2004 will continue to receive funding in fiscal year 2005.

The conferees commend CDC on its efforts to promote physical activity among children. In addition to regular physical activity, sound nutrition and healthy eating are important components of good health. The conferees encourage CDC to examine its current activities focused on children and develop options for expanding work related to promoting better nutrition and healthy eating among children. The conferees request that the CDC be prepared to report its findings during the fiscal year 2006 budget hearings.

Birth Defects

Within the amount available for Health Promotion, the conference agreement includes $125,643,000 for birth defects, developmental disabilities, disability and health instead of $119,866,000 as proposed by the House and $123,895,000 as proposed by the Senate.

Within the total, the following amounts are provided for the specified activities above the comparable amount for fiscal year 2004:

- $1,758,000 to expand autism surveillance and education activities;

- $250,000 to expand activities related to Fetal Alcohol Syndrome;

- $250,000 to expand activities related to Folic Acid;

- $657,000 to expand the National Spina Bifida program, including $200,000 to create a National Spina Bifida Clearinghouse and Resource Center;

- $500,000 to expand the CDC's public health education and research partnership with the Tourette Syndrome Association;

- $1,500,000 to expand surveillance and epidemiological efforts of Duchenne and Becker muscular dystrophy, including $500,000 to begin a coordinated education and outreach initiative through the Parent Project Muscular Dystrophy;

- $1,394,000 to expand support for the Special Olympics Healthy Athletes Initiative;

- $819,000 to continue and expand programs that translate clinical rehabilitation programs, including $500,000 to increase demonstration programs with the Christopher Reeve Paralysis Foundation;

- $1,000,000 to expand the work of the Centers for Birth Defects Research and Prevention and the National Foundation for Facial Reconstruction related to craniofacial malformation;

- $99,000 to expand the activities related to thalassemia blood safety surveillance; and

- $170,000 to expand the work of the Attention Deficit Resource Centers.

In addition, the agreement includes the following amounts for the new initiatives below as outlined in either the House or Senate reports:

- $1,000,000 to expand and support studies related to Down Syndrome;

- $900,000 to expand activities related to Fragile X;

- $900,000 to support the development of pilot projects to expand existing birth defect surveillance systems to include fetal death data at the Iowa Department of Health and the Metropolitan Atlanta Congenital defects Program; and

- $550,000 to establish a public health outreach and surveillance program for Diamond Blackfan anemia.

HEALTH INFORMATION AND SERVICE

The conference agreement includes $95,247,000 for Health Information and Service, instead of $96,523,000 as proposed by the House and $96,449,000 as proposed by the Senate. In addition, $134,235,000, to be derived from section 241 evaluation set aside funds, is included to carry out National Center for Health Statistics surveys, Public Health Informatics evaluations, and health marketing evaluations.

Within the amount provided, the conference agreement includes $109,021,000 for the National Center for Health Statistics.

ENVIRONMENTAL HEALTH AND INJURY PREVENTION

The conference agreement includes $288,168,000 for Environmental Health and Injury Prevention activities, instead of $287,327,000 as proposed by the House and $290,126,000 as proposed by the Senate.

Environmental Health

Within the funds available for Environmental Health and Injury Prevention, the conference agreement includes $148,747,000 for environmental health instead of $148,859,000 as proposed by the House and $148,958,000 as proposed by the Senate.

Within the total:

- $27,800,000 is for the environmental health laboratory, $690,000 above fiscal year 2004;

- $51,461,000 is for environmental health activities (including an increase over fiscal year 2004 of $500,000 for both the Environmental and Health Outcome Tracking Network and the physician education and public awareness program for primary immune deficiency disease as implemented by the Jeffrey Modell Foundation);

- $32,700,000 is for asthma, $599,000 over fiscal year 2004; and

- $36,786,000 is for childhood lead poisoning, the same as fiscal year 2004.

Injury Control

Within the funds provided for Environmental Health and Injury Prevention, the conference agreement includes $139,421,000 for injury control, instead of $138,468,000 as proposed by the House and $141,168,000 as proposed by the Senate.

Within the total provided:

- $104,021,000 is for intentional injury prevention activities, including increases above fiscal year 2004 of: $342,000 to extend implementation of the National Violent Death Reporting System, $466,000 to expand child maltreatment prevention activities, $1,000,000 to expand rape prevention and education activities, including funding for the National Resource Center on Sexual Assault at the statutory maximum, and $479,000 to increase support for other intentional injury programs; and

- $35,400,000 is for unintentional injury prevention activities, including an increase over fiscal year 2004 of $515,000 for the Traumatic Brain Injury prevention program. In addition, sufficient funds are included to continue support for all existing Injury Control Research Centers.

OCCUPATIONAL SAFETY AND HEALTH

The conference agreement provides a total program level of $287,745,000 for occupational safety and health, instead of $280,186,000 as proposed by the House and $294,587,000 as proposed by the Senate. Within that amount, $87,071,000 is available to carry out research tools and approaches activities within the National Occupational Research Agenda (NORA) to be derived from section 241 evaluation set-aside funds.

The conferees concur in the directives in the Senate report regarding the NIOSH reporting relationship with the Director of CDC, their operating procedures, and organizational structure.

Within the total provided:

- $1,500,000 above the fiscal year 2004 level is for the Education and Research Centers to expand research activities in support of implementation of NORA;

- $1,400,000 above the fiscal year 2004 level is for the National Personal Protective Technologies Laboratory;

- $4,258,000 above the fiscal year 2004 level is for the NIOSH in-house mining research program; and

- $2,000,000 above the fiscal year 2004 level is for the National Occupational Research Agenda (NORA).

The conferees recognize the important role of the sixteen Education and Research Centers in providing research training for occupational health and safety professionals and do not believe that funds should be diverted from training activities to support other research.

GLOBAL HEALTH

The conference agreement provides $296,380,000 for Global Health activities, instead of $302,051,000 as proposed by the House and $305,239,000 as proposed by the Senate.

Within the total:

- $124,882,000 is for Global HIV/AIDS, the same comparable amount as fiscal year 2004;

- $138,300,000 is for Global Immunization, including an increase over fiscal year 2004 of $262,000 for Polio Eradication and $135,000 for other global immunization activities; and

- $21,609,000 is for Global Disease Detection, an increase of $10,000,000 over fiscal year 2004.

The conferees encourage the Director to review the proposals submitted in response to CDC's program announcement regarding the Rapid Expansion of Antiretroviral Therapy Programs for HIV-Infected Persons in Selected Countries in Africa and the Caribbean under the President's Emergency Plan for AIDS Relief and consider giving priority to those applications deemed meritorious, but which did not receive funding in fiscal year 2004, when awarding funds in fiscal year 2005.

PUBLIC HEALTH RESEARCH

The conference agreement includes $31,000,000, to be derived from section 241 evaluation set-aside funds, for Public Health Research, instead of $29,583,000 as proposed by the House and $35,000,000 as proposed by the Senate.

The conferees intend that funds within public health research be made available to cover fiscal year 2005 continuation costs associated with the extramural prevention research program.

PUBLIC HEALTH IMPROVEMENT AND LEADERSHIP

The conference agreement includes $269,145,000 for Public Health Improvement and Leadership instead of $199,775,000 as proposed by the House and $261,858,000 as proposed by the Senate.

Within the total, $8,000,000 is included for a Director's Discretionary Fund to support activities deemed by the Director as having high scientific and programmatic priority and to respond to emergency public health requirements. The conferees concur with language in the Senate report regarding the Director's authority to reallocate management savings to the Director's Discretionary Fund upon notification of the Committees on Appropriations in the House and Senate.

The conference agreement includes $180,114,000 for Leadership and Management, instead of $179,682,000 as proposed by the House and $179,977,000 as proposed by the Senate.

The conference agreement includes $1,000,000 for the Institute of Medicine to conduct a study that includes recommendations regarding appropriate nutritional standards for the availability, sale, content, and consumption of food at school, with particular attention given to foods offered in competition with federally-reimbursed meals and snacks.

The conference agreement includes $500,000 to continue the Comprehensive Assessment of Rural Health in Iowa (CARHI), in conjunction with the Iowa Department of Public Health.

The conference agreement includes the following amounts for the following projects and activities in fiscal year 2005:

|                                                                                                                                                                                              |           |                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |           |                                                                                                                                                                                |           |
