

served in 15 different programs; they have provided more than 2.5 million hours of service, and have earned over $4.7 million in education credits. In 2007, AmericaCorps programs contributed over 25,000 hours of service to Nevada, and members recruited over 3,300 community volunteers who then gave more than 23,000 hours of service.

With public need rising all across the country, we must do all we can to shore up volunteer programs and provide opportunities to those who want to be of service. By creating a National Service Reserve Corps, we will create an organized deployment system for those citizens who are ready to serve and are trained to do so.

We will also show volunteers and anyone who is considering a year of national service that we value their contributions and we will continue to honor it in the years to come. So I encourage my colleagues to support this amendment as well as final passage of the GIVE Act.

Mr. Chairman, I yield 2 minutes to the gentleman from Virginia (Mr. PERRIELLO).

Mr. PERRIELLO. Mr. Chairman, I rise today in support of this great national service bill, and specifically the Reserve Corps amendment. I rise also as a proud member of the community service generation. My generation, which was often given a hard time for not voting, was always volunteering in record numbers. We did believe in the idea of civic duty and community service that we had learned from our grandparents in the greatest generation, and we saw through the original AmericaCorps programs and others what a great idea service was. Not only was it a chance to help out those struggling in our community, but it was a chance to build our own character and our own sense of commitment to community and to country.

I come from the nonprofit sector. I spent most of the last decade before Congress in the nonprofit sector, and I have not had a day of that experience go by that I did not feel that I had benefited as much as I had helped. I have worked in West Africa, in Darfur, and in the communities with at-risk kids back here at home, and always enjoyed and celebrated that time.

There are a few things that I have learned from that time in the nonprofit sector that I believe have gone into this Reserve Corps amendment. First and foremost is the idea that once you get someone to volunteer for a little piece of time, you have turned them into a volunteer for life. Volunteering is a wonderful program, and where we can reach out and help people become volunteers we will see that continue to come back to our communities time and time again.

And this cannot be something that is only affordable to those with wealth. We have so many displaced workers who want to volunteer, senior citizens who want to volunteer, community and high school students. And we need to be celebrating and fostering that spirit of service.

Finally, we need to respect and understand the level of professionalism in our nonprofit and volunteer sector. People learn skills here that are incredibly valuable to our community, and this Reserve Corps is based on the idea that once we have made that investment in giving someone the skills to be a great high-level professional in their community, let's keep them on as a Reserve Corps so that we can call them up in times of great national emergency, like Hurricane Katrina, to help them rebuild levees, to help build low-income homes. Let's make volunteerism not something just to do for a summer, but something to do for a lifetime.

I believe this amendment reaches into the best of the American tradition of service and the best of our sense of this being not something that happens for one generation, but across generations, particularly at this time of economic crisis when we must all come together.

Mr. PLATTS. Mr. Chairman, I ask unanimous consent to claim the time in opposition to the amendment, although I am not opposed to the amendment.

The Acting CHAIR. Without objection, the gentleman is recognized for 5 minutes.

There was no objection.

Mr. PLATTS. Mr. Chairman, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

I rise in support of the amendment, and commend the gentlelady from Nevada and the gentleman from Virginia for their amendment and urge a "yes" vote.

I yield back the balance of my time. Ms. TITUS. Mr. Chairman, I yield back the balance of my time.

The Acting CHAIR. The question is on the amendment offered by the gentlewoman from Nevada (Ms. TITUS).

The question was taken; and the Acting Chair announced that the ayes appeared to have it.

Ms. TITUS. Mr. Chairman, I demand a recorded vote.

The Acting CHAIR. Pursuant to clause 6 of rule XVIII, further proceedings on the amendment offered by the gentlewoman from Nevada will be postponed.

Ms. FOXX. I am, Madam Speaker.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Clerk will report the motion to recommit.

The Clerk read as follows:

Ms. Foxx moves to recommit the bill, H.R. 1388, to the Committee on Education and Labor with instructions to report the bill back to the House forthwith with the following amendments:

Strike section 1304 of the bill and insert the following:

SEC. 1304. PROHIBITED ACTIVITIES AND INELIGIBLE ORGANIZATIONS.

Section 125 (42 U.S.C. 12575) is amended to read as follows:

“SEC. 125. PROHIBITED ACTIVITIES AND INELIGIBLE ORGANIZATIONS.

“(3) Organizations that have been indicted for voter fraud.

“(c) NONDISPLACEMENT OF EMPLOYED WORKERS OR OTHER VOLUNTEERS.—A participant in an approved national service position under this subtitle may not perform any services or duties or engage in activities which—

“(1) would otherwise be performed by an employed worker as part of his or her assigned duties as an employee or by another volunteer who is not a participant in an approved national service position; or

“(2) will supplant the hiring of employed workers or work of such other volunteers.”

Amend the table of contents in section 1(b) by striking the item relating to section 1304 and inserting the following:

Sec. 1304. Prohibited activities and ineligible organizations.

Amend the table of contents of the National and Community Service Act of 1990 (as proposed to be amended by section 4101 of the bill) by striking the item relating to section 125 and inserting the following:

“Sec. 125. Prohibited activities and ineligible organizations.”

Ms. FOXX (during the reading). I ask unanimous consent to dispense with the reading.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentlewoman from North Carolina?

There was no objection.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentlewoman from North Carolina is recognized for 5 minutes.

Ms. FOXX. Madam Speaker, this motion to recommit codifies current regulations with regard to activities and organizations ineligible for grants from the Corporation for National and Community Service and AmeriCorps volunteers.

The activities include lobbying, protesting, union organizing, engaging in partisan political activities or religious instruction, conducting voter registration, or providing direct benefits to for-profit businesses, labor unions or political parties.

It also adds to the list of organizations, those that promote or provide abortions, as well as for-profit organizations, political parties, labor organizations, lobbyists, and those indicted for voter fraud. Organizations are also prohibited from receiving funds under these instructions if they are also co-located with an organization that engages in prohibited activities.

Finally, no organization that receives funds under this bill may displace current employed workers or volunteers.

Madam Speaker, the overriding principle here is that money is fungible. Funds must be used for the purpose of service and encouraging others to serve within their communities. They must not be allowed to be used for prohibited activities.

Groups that might be eligible for these grants and volunteers, if this motion to recommit were not to pass, include a laundry list of organizations that engage in activities that many Americans do not support.

For example, ACORN employees and supervisors have been indicted for voter fraud in recent history. During the 2008 election, proof surfaced that voter registration by the group was, in the words of the New York Times, “vastly overstated,” including registrations for Disney characters and Dallas Cowboy football players. Experts say that instances of inaccurate registration and fraud are greater when volunteers receive payment for their services. The American taxpayer should not be forced to pay for fraudulent behavior in the name of promoting community service.

For the current 2008–2009 AmeriCorps service year, Oregon Planned Parenthood has listed position for a paid volunteer. This AmeriCorps volunteer would be responsible for “providing, promoting and protecting access to reproductive sexual health care for the women, men, and teens.”

While individuals should be aware of how to access health care services within their communities, the Federal Government prohibits use of Federal funds to be used for abortion as a form of family planning. Planned Parenthood is the largest abortion provider in the U.S. Federal taxpayer dollars should not be used to fund volunteers at organizations such as this.

Volunteerism plays a critical role in meeting many needs in our society. However, the Federal Government should not be paying individuals to volunteer their time at locations that are prohibited from receiving taxpayer dollars, especially when Americans are already facing budget constraints from all the demands they face. This is not acceptable.

This motion to recommit ensures that taxpayer dollars are not directed toward programs that are politically divisive and morally objectionable. It also ensures that AmeriCorps volunteers and recipients of corporation grants do not disrupt current volunteer activities and employee responsibilities.

I yield back the balance of my time.

Mr. GEORGE MILLER of California. Madam Speaker, I am against it, but I will not oppose it.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman from California is recognized for 5 minutes.

Mr. GEORGE MILLER of California. Members of the House, I want to begin by thanking all of you for your support for this legislation, for the bipartisan support we have received throughout the committee deliberations in our committee, and the support that we received both in the Rules Committee and on the floor today.

As we went through the amendment process, Members of Congress from both sides of the aisle spoke in favor of this most important American value, and that is service to our country, service to our neighbors, service to our communities, and that’s what’s reflected in this legislation. It is a rather remarkable mosaic of organizations and individuals from every corner of this country, from large cities to small rural towns that have responded to the needs of others, and they have responded without question. They have responded with their skills, their talents, and they have come forth to build a stronger America and a better community.

Earlier today at an event that we had with many of the volunteers to discuss this legislation, we were honored with the presence of Captain Scott Quilty, who retired from the Army after 10 years of service as a decorated infantry captain and Army Ranger during his tour in Iraq, where he led a platoon assigned to train, assess and build the operational capacity of a 460-man element of the Iraqi Army.

In that tour of duty, he lost an arm and a leg. When he returned to America, as if he hadn't given enough service to America, he immediately joined the organization of Survivor Corps to help our returning vets when they come back to this country after serving in Afghanistan, Iraq, and other places around the world, to reintegrate with their families, their communities, their schools, their jobs, their friends, their neighbors.

We were honored with Scott Quilty. And at that very same service, a gentleman walked up to me and handed me these, many of us see this when we tour our Army bases or our Air Force Bases or meet with the troops, it's called the Young Marines, and they do much of the same service. They give their time to our veterans. But they are not the only ones. We have senior grandparents, we have Teach For America, we have Jumpstart, we have Americans doing all of this.

We have Americans in the AmeriCorps that organized over 300,000 hours of volunteer service when the floods hit Iowa. They were there first. They came with their first responders in California with the wildfires and with the floods. They showed up early and they stayed late with Katrina and Rita.

This is what we celebrate with this legislation, and I want to thank you for your support and your good words on behalf of these people, Americans all, who step forward every time one of us needs them or the community needs them.

This legislation will strengthen and enable more Americans to be able to do so. It will tie in an educational benefit so that young children can have a service experience in middle school and high school and schools will become the center of service for young people in their communities.

Now let me get to the motion to recommit. I think, as we have only seen it for a few minutes, I think most of the motion to recommit is, in fact, already covered in statutes, regulations and the grant agreements that are issued. We are well aware of these issues. The Members on both sides of the aisle have spoken to them, and they have offered statutes, not only in this act, but in other acts, making sure that people who get these grants don't engage in activities that they should not be.

So we plan to accept this amendment. I appreciate the gentlewoman offering it, and we will take it to conference.

But, again, I want to thank you for supporting this legislation in advance of your support, and I would ask that you feel free to vote for the motion to recommit.

Again, I ask for passage of the bill.

I yield back the balance of my time.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Without objection, the previous question is ordered on the motion to recommit.

There was no objection.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on the motion to recommit.

The question was taken; and the Speaker pro tempore announced that the ayes appeared to have it.

RECORDED VOTE

Ms. FOXX. Madam Speaker, I demand a recorded vote.

A recorded vote was ordered.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to clause 9 of rule XX, the Chair will reduce to 5 minutes the minimum time for any electronic vote on the question of passage.

The vote was taken by electronic device, and there were—ayes 318, noes 105, not voting 8, as follows:

REPORT ON RESOLUTION PROVIDING FOR CONSIDERATION OF MOTIONS TO SUSPEND THE RULES

Mr. POLIS, from the Committee on Rules, submitted a privileged report (Rept. No. 111-40) on the resolution (H. Res. 257) providing for consideration of motions to suspend the rules, which was referred to the House Calendar and ordered to be printed.

add no safety benefits or protections to consumers. These forced changes will result in higher prices for vitamins and minerals many Americans rely on to maintain a healthy diet and lifestyle.

In December of 2006, the Dietary Supplement and Nonprescription Drug Consumer Protection Act was passed into law. The law requires mandatory reporting of serious adverse events. That is a good thing. But the FDA has now mandated label changes which they're only giving the industry 1 year to comply with. Industry will make the required changes in their labels, but forcing them to do so in less than 9 months is not the answer.

Keep in mind, however, the law underlying this guidance did not require any label changes. It was the FDA's decision, independent of legislation, to force these changes on supplement producers. And what is the price tag for these required changes? According to the FDA's own documents, compliance would exceed $220 million. Not a small amount in today's business environment.

Clearly, now is not the time for our government to find ways to needlessly increase costs for consumers, especially when these mandates provide no added benefits or protections for consumers.

AIG'S EXECUTIVE BONUSES

(Mr. LANGEVIN asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. LANGEVIN. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to express my deep outrage over AIG using $165 million in government funding to pay top executive bonuses.

The company, for all intents and purposes, is bankrupt and has been bailed out by taxpayer dollars, and the fact that these bonuses could have gone forward simply defies logic.

Mr. Speaker, I would like to commend Chairman FRANK and Chairman KANJORSKI for presiding over today's hearing on AIG and for their continued oversight to make sure that taxpayer funds are being used responsibly to get our economy back on track.

While I was pleased to hear that Edward Liddy said that he would try to recoup the bonuses from his employees, I remain furious at how and why AIG chose to reward complete incompetence with taxpayer money. AIG executives must be held more accountable for their decision and may need to pay for mismanagement with their jobs. That is why I joined over 90 of my colleagues in sending a letter to Secretary Geithner demanding a full accounting of the use of taxpayer money at AIG and to block these bonuses and why I support legislation to ensure that taxpayers receive a full refund.

At this time of great uncertainty and instability in our Nation, the public deserves more from AIG and from us, their elected officials, who are entrusted to make responsible decisions on their behalf.

FDA ADVERSE EVENT REPORTING LABELING CHANGES

(Mr. CHAFFETZ asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. CHAFFETZ. Mr. Speaker, Americans are concerned not only about the safety of their food but their ability to put food on their tables. So it makes no sense that the Food and Drug Administration has mandated change to dietary supplement labels which will

AUTHORIZING THE CLERK TO MAKE CORRECTIONS IN ENGROSSMENT OF H.R. 1388, GENERATIONS INVIGORATING VOLUNTEERISM AND EDUCATION ACT

Mr. GEORGE MILLER of California. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that the Clerk be authorized to make technical corrections in the engrossment of H.R. 1388, to include corrections in spelling, punctuation, section numbering, cross-referencing, and the insertion of appropriate headings, and that the Clerk make the correction that I have placed at the desk.

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. DRIEHAUS). The Clerk will report the correction.

Mr. GEORGE MILLER of California (during the reading). I ask unanimous consent that the reading be dispensed with.

THE FIGHTING TIGERS OF MISSOURI

(Mr. LUETKEMEYER asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. LUETKEMEYER. Mr. Speaker, if you listen very closely, very closely, you can hear it. It's the sound of Tigers roaring from their den at the University of Missouri-Columbia, deep in the heart of the Ninth Congressional District.

For those of you who haven't heard, the Fighting Tigers of Mizzou were unleashed upon their unsuspecting Big 12 prey and earned MU's first league championship in 16 years and first Big 12 Basketball Championship this past weekend.

I want to congratulate Coach Anderson and the 2009 Missouri Tigers for a regular season to remember. I also want to recognize the best defense in the country for offering their opponents “40 Minutes of Hell.”

But these Tigers are still hungry. And as the No. 3 seed in the West Regional, they are seeking new prey, beginning with Cornell this Friday. Mr. Speaker, I'm not a betting man, but something tells me that the Tigers will roar when they hit the floor, knocking down that national championship door. Go Tigers.
