HONORING PATAGONIA FOUNDER
YVON CHOUINARD, RECIPIENT OF THE LOS PADRES FOREST WATCH WILDERNESS LEGACY AWARD

HON. JULIA BROWNLEY
OF CALIFORNIA
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Wednesday, April 10, 2013

Ms. BROWNLEY of California. Mr. Speaker, today, I congratulate Yvon Chouinard, the 2013 recipient of the Los Padres Forest Watch Wilderness Legacy Award.

Mr. Chouinard started out as a self-taught blacksmith, selling aluminum pitons for mountain climbing out of the trunk of his car. The only pitons available at that time were made of soft iron, placed on ice, and then left in the rock to rust. In Yosemite, multiday ascents requiring hundreds of placements had left these once-smooth majestic surfaces scarred and pocked. Aluminum pitons revolutionized the sport, preventing further damage and preserving awe-inspiring peaks across the United States. This past year, the company Mr. Chouinard founded, Patagonia, Inc., grossed $414 million dollars in sales.

As his business expanded to outdoor gear and clothing, Mr. Chouinard has brought these same ethical principles to bear by using recycled and organic materials and adapting energy-efficient production methods. Every year, Patagonia pledges 1% of its yearly sales to further conservation work across the globe. Patagonia’s tireless commitment has proven that in business the planet does not need to be sacrificed for profit.

Patagonia is an invaluable partner in the Ventura County community, working with local organizations like Los Padres Forest Watch to protect California’s wild places. Shortly after Los Padres Forest Watch held its first board meeting in 2004, they received a grant from Patagonia. Since that time, Patagonia has generously given grants to support their important conservation work, as well as volunteering their employees, donating their products, and organizing fundraising events like the annual 5k Salmon Run. Yvon Chouinard and Patagonia have had a positive and lasting influence on the preservation of the Los Padres National Forest.

I am pleased to recognize and applaud John Patrick Fischbach for receiving the Arvada Wheat Ridge Service Ambassadors for Youth award. John Patrick Fischbach is a 12th grader at Ralston Valley High School and received this award because his determination and hard work have allowed him to overcome adversities.

The dedication demonstrated by John Patrick Fischbach is exemplary of the type of achievement that can be attained with hard work and perseverance. It is essential students at all levels strive to make the most of their education and develop a work ethic which will guide them for the rest of their lives.

I extend my deepest congratulations to John Patrick Fischbach winning the Arvada Wheat Ridge Service Ambassadors for Youth award. I have no doubt he will exhibit the same dedication and character in all of his future accomplishments.

HONORING THE 34TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE TAIWAN RELATIONS ACT

HON. ILEANA ROS-LEHTINEN
OF FLORIDA
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Wednesday, April 10, 2013

Ms. ROS-LEHTINEN. Mr. Speaker, today, on the 34th anniversary of the Taiwan Relations Act, I want to take a moment to recognize this landmark legislation, the special relationship that exists between the United States and Taiwan, and the exceptional work by this Congress to reinforce the bond between our peoples. Yesterday also marked another important date in U.S.-China relations: the 11th anniversary of the founding of the Congressional Taiwan Caucus. Since April 9, 2002, the Taiwan Caucus has grown into one of the most prominent caucuses in Congress with almost 140 current members, and has led the way in strengthening diplomatic, security, and economic relations between our two nations.

Since this Congress came together 34 years ago to pass the Taiwan Relations Act, the legislation has cemented the cornerstone of our unique relationship with one of the world’s most vibrant democracies. For 30 years, the United States recognized the Republic of China (Taiwan) as the legitimate representative of the Chinese people. Yet, in 1979, the Carter administration switched sides and recognized the People’s Republic of China, and at the same time derecognized the Republic of China (Taiwan). In an effort to counter this act of injustice, a unified United States Congress came together to pass the Taiwan Relations Act. To this day, our great nations continue to prosper through mutually beneficial trade relations, shared security interests, and the policies codified by the Taiwan Relations Act.

Mr. Speaker, while recognizing the accomplishments of the Taiwan Relations Act, we must also recognize the need to strengthen our commitment to Taiwan through expanded diplomatic, security, and trade ties. Earlier this year, I was proud to introduce, with my colleagues, the Biased, Unfair, Corrective, Intransigent Caucus, Representatives MARIO DIAZ-BALART, JOHN CARTER, ALBIO SIRES, GERALD CONNOLLY, the Taiwan Policy Act, which seeks to accomplish these goals. If enacted, our proposed legislation would permit Taiwan’s leaders to meet with U.S. officials in all executive branches, authorize the transfer of decommissioned Perry class guided missile frigates, and support the sale of F16 C/D fighter jets to the Armed Forces of Taiwan. With the growing antagonism of North Korea and the ever expanding territorial ambitions of China, our alliance with the democratic nation of Taiwan is even more important.

In 2012, as our 11th largest trading partner, Taiwan and the United States shared in $63.2 billion in total trade. It is clear that Taiwan is already a close and valuable trade partner for the United States but there is more work to be done. We are glad that TIFA talks were resumed and that the most recent round was concluded in a satisfying fashion. As a next step, our U.S. Trade Representative should begin negotiations on a Bilateral Investment Agreement. A free trade agreement with Taiwan should be our ultimate goal and it is my hope that we can begin negotiations in the near future. The United States should also support Taiwan receiving observer status in the International Civil Aviation Organization.

We, as a nation, are fortunate to have Taiwan as an ally, friend, and one of our largest trading partners. Taiwan is a nation we truly can depend upon; a people who share the same dreams and aspirations as we do here in the United States. Today, we remember our predecessors here in the United States Congress who created the Taiwan Relations Act, as well as the founding members of the Congressional Taiwan Caucus, who have helped the relationship between our two nations blossom into an enduring partnership.

RECOGNIZING KEVIN KRIFFER
HON. DONNA M. CHRISTENSEN
OF THE VIRGIN ISLANDS
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Wednesday, April 10, 2013

Mrs. CHRISTENSEN. Mr. Speaker, when the horses line up in Churchill Downs for the running of the Kentucky Derby next month, all eyes in my district, the U.S. Virgin Islands, will be on young Kevin Krigger, a jockey from my State of St. Croix, who will be riding the horse Goldencents.

We are all proud of Kevin, who grew up in LaVallee and attended Central High School. According to Kevin, he has always wanted to be a jockey and grew up in the sport, riding horses on the beaches of the island and challenging anyone he could to a race. Before he was recruited by other Virgin Islands born jockeys who race in the States to join their ranks, he was well known on the tracks of St. Croix, St. Thomas and Tortola as a talent to watch. He proved himself riding on the West Coast, in particular at Emerald Downs in Seattle, Washington before his historic win on Saturday at the Santa Anita Derby.

With Saturday’s win, Kevin Krigger has become the first African American to win the Santa Anita Derby. Last fall, he was the first African American jockey to win a million dollar race in Louisiana’s Delta Jackpot. If he rides Goldencents to victory in the Kentucky Derby next month, he will become the first African American to do so since 1902. Goldencents is co-owned by the owner of the New York Giants football coach, Bill Belichick, and is trained by Doug O’Neill.

Mr. Speaker, Kevin Krigger’s family and fans in the U.S. Virgin Islands will be cheering wildly on the first Saturday in May. I congratulate his mother Averil Simmonds and father Alphonso Mo. We are proud of this young man and his accomplishments and wish him Godspeed in this and all of his future endeavors.
Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor Investigator Francesco Z. McBride, a constituent of my district, who has been chosen to receive the distinguished honor of the Amtrak Police Department’s Officer of the Year for 2012 for his numerous and significant contributions to the department.

A resident of Sharon Hill, Investigator McBride joined the Amtrak Police Department (APD) in 2001 initially as an Officer, and is now an Investigator in Amtrak’s Mid-Atlantic Division. He is a member of the APD Pipe and Drum Unit.

Investigator McBride’s exemplary service has resulted in arrests in cases that have a combined monetary value of approximately $325,000. These cases include copper wire theft in Encino; an incident that resulted in damaging and serious disruptions to train operations; recovering Amtrak-owned tools and equipment from burglar’s barn; and tracking down the culprits of the theft of copper materials in Philadelphia. These are just a few examples of Investigator McBride’s invaluable work that has earned him the distinction of Amtrak Police Officer of the Year.

I ask that you and my other distinguished colleagues help me in honoring the Officer of the Year, Investigator McBride, for his admirable work with Amtrak.

COMMENDING THE ANTHONY TELESCA FOUNDATION

HON. GUS M. BILIRAKIS
OF FLORIDA
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Wednesday, April 10, 2013

Mr. BILIRAKIS. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to commend the Anthony Telesca Foundation for selflessly working to improve the safety of communities in Florida by promoting safe driving habits to Florida’s teenagers. The organization helps to educate and encourage teenagers to drive safely by hosting safety awareness functions with local high schools and law enforcement officials.

In December 2002, 16-year-old Anthony Joseph Telesca passed away as the result of a reckless driving incident. As a result of this unfortunate and tragic incident, the Anthony Telesca Foundation was created to work with local high school and law enforcement officials to increase driver safety awareness among teenagers. The Foundation also provides scholarships and philanthropic support in order to meet its mission of preventing reckless teenage driving and driving accidents, injuries, and fatalities.

Among other activities, the Foundation has hosted events with the Pinellas County Sheriff’s Office and high schools in northern Pinellas County, Florida, which I represent, to reward teenagers who have been observed practicing safe driving habits. Educating and rewarding teenagers to drive safe has helped to prevent needless motor accidents from occurring.

Mr. Speaker, in the decade since the unfortunate passing of Anthony Telesca, the foundation that was established in his honor has represented the best of the human spirit, and the organization has become a shining example of how to turn an unfortunate tragedy into something meaningful. The Anthony Telesca Foundation’s humanitarian efforts and successes exemplify the strength and compassion within people, and I commend them for their contributions.

PERSONAL EXPLANATION

HON. MICHELLE LUJAN GRISHAM
OF NEW MEXICO
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Wednesday, April 10, 2013

Ms. MICHELLE LUJAN GRISHAM of New Mexico. Mr. Speaker, I was unavoidably detained and so I missed rollover vote No. 90 “to authorize the Secretary of the Interior to facilitate the development of hydroelectric power on the Diamond Fork System of the Central Utah Project” (H.R. 254). Had I been present, I would have voted “yes”.

RESOLUTION ON APRIL AS PARKINSON’S DISEASE MONTH

HON. CAROLYN B. MALONEY
OF NEW YORK
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Wednesday, April 10, 2013

Mrs. CAROLYN B. MALONEY of New York. Mr. Speaker, along with my fellow co-chairs of the Congressional Caucus on Parkinson’s Disease, Reps. Peter King and Chris Van Hollen, today I am introducing a resolution designating April as Parkinson’s Awareness Month. As co-chair of the Caucus we have worked to bring attention to the second most common neurological disease in the United States. This chronic, progressive neurological disease debilitates those living with Parkinson’s and affects their families, as well. In the U.S. there are an estimated 500,000 to 1.5 million people with Parkinson’s disease, with some predictions showing the prevalence will more than double by 2040.

Currently, there is no therapy or drug to slow its progression and a cure has yet to be found. This resolution supports continued education and research to find more effective treatments and eventually a cure. It also applauds the dedicated organizations, volunteers, medical researchers, and millions of Americans working to improve the quality of life of persons living with Parkinson’s disease and their families.

As the loved one of someone afflicted by Parkinson’s disease, I witnessed personally the effect of Parkinson’s disease on my father. As a result, I know firsthand that we must provide support to the loved ones, caregivers and researchers attempting to improve the welfare of those living with Parkinson’s. I urge my colleagues to support this resolution.

HONORING TAIWAN

HON. LUKE MESSER
OF INDIANA
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Wednesday, April 10, 2013

Mr. MESSER. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to commemorate the Taiwan Relations Act (TRA). On April 10th, the United States and the Republic of China, more commonly referred to as Taiwan, will celebrate the 34th anniversary of the TRA, which is the premier law that governs U.S.-Taiwan bilateral relations. In 1979, President Jimmy Carter signed the TRA into law and since that time it has been the cornerstone to maintaining peace, security, and stability in the Western Pacific. The TRA has held up well for over 34 years and is an important reminder of the strong alliance between our two sides.

All facets of the U.S.-Taiwan bilateral relationship—cultural, economic, and strategic—have expanded and grown stronger since the signing into law of the TRA. Taiwan is the United States’ 10th largest trading partner. Taiwan is the seventh largest export market for U.S. agriculture. Since 1998, Taiwan has purchased over $5.5 billion dollars in corn and $4 billion in soybeans from the United States. For my home state of Indiana, Taiwan is one of its top export markets in Asia. Recently, Taiwan signed a multi-million dollar agreement with the State of Indiana for the purchase of corn and soybeans for the years 2012 and 2013. Without a doubt, Hoosier farmers and my state’s economy have benefitted greatly from trade agreements with Taiwan.

As a new member of the House Subcommittee on Asia and the Pacific and the Congressional Taiwan Caucus, I have had the pleasure to meet with Ambassador Pu-tsung King, Taiwan’s Representative serving in Washington, DC. We discussed the unique circumstances that define our two countries’ relations. I look forward to working with Ambassador King on additional initiatives that could benefit the people of Indiana and Taiwan.

I was pleased to learn from Ambassador King of the many steps Taiwan has taken to reduce tensions with China, their neighbors along the Taiwan Strait. Although Taiwan and
