Agreed to:

Scott (VA) en bloc amendment No. 1 consisting of the following amendments printed in part B of H. Rept. 117–10: Bourdeaux (No. 1) that clarifies that nothing in this Act shall be construed to affect the jurisdictional standards of the NLRB with respect to small businesses, including any standards those that measure the size of a business with respect to revenues, that are used to determine whether an industry is affecting commerce for purposes of determining coverage under the National Labor Relations Act; Davids (KS) (No. 4) that clarifies that the amendments made under this Act shall not affect the privacy of employees with respect to voter lists provided to labor organizations by employers pursuant to elections directed by the Board; Jackson Lee (No. 9) that provides whistleblower protections to employees who report violations of the Labor Management Reporting and Disclosure Act (LMRDA) with this amendment covering employees of employers as well as employees of labor unions; Levin (MI) (No. 11) that directs the National Labor Relations Board to develop a system and procedures to conduct union representation elections electronically, as allowed by the underlying legislation; McBath (No. 12) that clarifies that nothing in this Act shall affect the definitions of “employer” or “employee” under any state law for wage, hour, worker’s compensation or unemployment insurance; Murphy (FL) (No. 13) that requires GAO, within one-and-a-half years from the date of enactment, to prepare a report on the impact—on workers and businesses across different sectors—of the changes made by the bill to the definition of “employee” (the “ABC” test) and the definition of “joint employer” under the National Labor Relations Act; the President is required to consider the report and, within 60 days, may recommend that Congress modify one or both of these definitions or make no recommendation; expresses the Sense of the House that the House shall consider whether to accept, reject, or modify any recommendations received from the President; Newman (No. 14) that specifies the National Labor Relations Board's regulations regarding notices to inform workers of their rights must address requirements for posting notices in the languages spoken by the employees; Stevens (No. 15) that directs the GAO to conduct a report on sectoral bargaining in other countries; Tlaib (No. 16) that establishes a 120-day timeline for the tripartite arbitration process between the employees/labor organization and employer in order to ensure that the arbitration process is not indefinitely drawn out; and Torres (NY) (No. 17) that revises the Labor-Management and Disclosure Act of 1959 to require the Department of Labor to make disclosures under the persuader rule publicly available in an accessible and searchable electronic form, and through a secure software application for use on an electronic device (by a yea-and-nay vote of 227 yeas to 196 nays, Roll No. 67).

Pages H1154–60, H1174–75

Rejected:

Scott (VA) en bloc amendment No. 2 consisting of the following amendments printed in part B of H. Rept. 117–10: Allen (No. 2) that sought to strike Section 111 in the bill, which overturns state right-to-work laws; Comer (No. 3) that sought to strike Sec. 202 of the bill which codifies the Obama Administration's "persuader rule" requiring attorneys and consultants to disclose to DOL arrangements or agreements they have with employers regarding unionization where the attorney or consultant will not be communicating with employees; Fitzgerald (No. 5) that sought to require a labor organization to receive express consent from the employee before using his or her union dues for any purpose not directly related to the labor organization's collective bargaining or contract administration; Fulcher (No. 6) that sought to codify "vote-and-impound" process for blocking charges and 45-day decertification window for voluntary recognition as set forth in the NLRB's August 12, 2019, Notice of Proposed Rulemaking; Good (VA) (No. 7) that sought to amend section 302 of the Labor Management Relations Act to prohibit "neutrality agreements", to allow for greater fairness and transparency for workers in their representation; Hern (No. 8) that sought to state that the Act may not take effect until the Secretary of Labor certifies that the bill will not have an adverse impact on rates of employment in the United States; Keller (No. 10) that sought to strike language in the bill banning employers from permanently replacing striking workers and language which permits intermittent striking; the NLRA currently protects the right of employees to replace striking workers permanently, and the NLRB has held that "intermittent" strikes are not protected activity under the NLRA; Walberg (No. 18) that sought to strike the language in the bill requiring that a pre-election hearing begin no later than eight days after a notice of such hearing is served and replaces the provision with language ensuring at least 14 days between the filing of an election petition and a hearing taking place; and Wilson (SC) (No. 19) that sought to amend Section 111 to strike current language and insert the national right-to-work language erasing automatic dues clauses (by a yea-and-nay vote of 185 yeas to 243 nays, Roll No. 68).
