The House met at 10 a.m. and was called to order by the Speaker pro tempore (Ms. ESHOO).

DESIGNATION OF THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE

The SPEAKER pro tempore laid before the House the following communication from the Speaker:

WASHINGTON, DC, October 28, 2021.

I hereby appoint the Honorable ANNA G. ESHOO to act as Speaker pro tempore on this day.

NANCY PELOSI, Speaker pro tempore.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, the Reverend Margaret Grun Kibben, offered the following prayer:

Amazing God, Your love surprises us. Regardless of who we are or where we have come from, what we have thought or how we have lived, You reach into our lives, into our very souls and draw us into Your loving embrace. How can we thank You?

And then You send us forth to demonstrate what love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, generosity, and faithfulness should look like in this broken world. How can we best do that?

In a time that thrives on superficiality, may we practice honesty. When it is too easy to capitalize on weaknesses, may we share our competencies. Rather than hide our vulnerability, may we dare to trust.

Then may we hear Your encouragement to erase the dividing lines of differences that all may be enfolded in Your everlasting arms.

May we rely on Your strength to care for those hardened by hurt, that all would discover Your tender love.

Surprise us again and again, O Lord, by Your mercy, that we would be inspired anew to serve You this day in our service to Your world.

In the strength of Your name we pray.

Amen.

THE JOURNAL

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to section 11(a) of House Resolution 188, the Journal of the last day’s proceedings is approved.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Will the gentleman from Iowa (Mr. FEENSTRA) come forward and lead the House in the Pledge of Allegiance.

Mr. FEENSTRA led the Pledge of Allegiance as follows:

I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America, and to the Republic for which it stands, one nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair will entertain up to five requests for 1-minute speeches on each side of the aisle.

HONORING THE MEMORY OF ALEX ODEH

(Ms. TLAIB asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Ms. TLAIB, Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor the memory of Alex Odeh, a peace activist who worked to promote civil liberties for Arab Americans in the United States and civil and human rights around the world.

A Palestinian immigrant, a published poet, lecturer of Arabic language and Middle East history at Coastline College, Alex was someone who embodied the best America has to offer.

Through his work with the American-Arab Anti-Discrimination Committee, he dedicated his life to achieving true equality and equity for all.

And for daring to push for a better tomorrow, Alex was murdered on October 11, 1986, when a pipe bomb exploded as he entered his ADC office in Santa Ana, California.

This horrific act of domestic terrorism targeting Arab Americans was not new, and I am proud to say it has failed to achieve its objectives.

Arab Americans and Palestinian Americans are still here, loud and proud, speaking truth to power, and carrying on Alex’s fight in his memory.

Our politics of love are the only response. Those who support oppressive policies in Palestine that murdered Alex and those who continue to fearmonger and whip up hate against us to this day will not win.

We will never give up, Alex. I am proud to be here because of you.

RECOGNIZING WORLD PSORIASIS DAY

(Mr. JOYCE of Pennsylvania asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. JOYCE of Pennsylvania, Madam Speaker, tomorrow we will recognize World Psoriasis Day. Psoriasis and psoriatic arthritis are diseases that affect over 125 million people worldwide.

As a practicing dermatologist for 25 years, I have seen firsthand the toll that this condition can have on patients. This disease can often have serious and long-lasting consequences, including anxiety, depression, diabetes, and even cardiac issues.

In the past, we were often, unfortunately, unsuccessful in treating the symptoms that the men and women battling psoriasis face each and every day.

Recently, however, we are seeing new treatments and therapies that have dramatically improved our fight against psoriasis.
Finding new and more effective treatments or finding a cure to this disease will take all of us. It will take doctors, it will take legislators, researchers, patients, and advocates working together to find solutions.

It is my promise that I will continue working to address the disease of psoriasis.

TEACHER SHORTAGE MUST BE RESOLVED

(Ms. NORTON asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Ms. NORTON. Madam Speaker, as the daughter of a public school teacher, an essential and prized profession, I never expected to see a shortage of 100,000 teachers. It is catastrophic, especially now when children are being vaccinated and returning to in-person learning. The teacher shortage adds urgency to President Biden’s Build Back Better agenda, which features teacher residences and grow-your-own programs to improve outcomes and develop more teachers of color.

As a ranking member who helped write the pending infrastructure bill, I particularly applaud the Build Back Better agenda’s investments in upgrading school infrastructure with resilient, energy-efficient buildings enriched with technology and the labs students need for the jobs of the future.

AMERICANS ARE FEELING THE PAIN

(Mr. WILLIAMS of Texas asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. WILLIAMS of Texas. Madam Speaker, America is in the midst of an energy and supply chain crisis, and President Biden is nowhere to be found. Instead, this week he will be jetting off to Europe for a climate conference to brag to our European allies about how much he is destroying America’s energy economy.

In the past few months in office, President Biden canceled the Keystone pipeline, which killed over 11,000 American jobs and paused oil and gas leasing on U.S. lands and waters. The consequences of his policy decisions have been dire for hardworking American families.

The numbers don’t lie. Home heating costs are projected to rise by as much as 54 percent. The national average for a gallon of gasoline reached $3.38, and U.S. households are on track to spend $19 billion more on energy by 2030. Instead of working on bipartisan climate solutions, Democrats are more focused on implementing their radical Green New Deal policies and making us less energy independent.

From increased costs at the pump to health bills, Americans are feeling the pain of President Biden’s anti-energy policy in their wallets. The bottom line is socialism just does not work.

In God we trust.

OTTUMWA, IOWA, STEPS UP TO END ALZHEIMER’S DISEASE

(Mrs. MILLER-MEEKS asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mrs. MILLER-MEEKS. Madam Speaker, I rise today to recognize a group of people from my hometown of Ottumwa for taking part in a great event for an even greater cause.

On October 23, 37 teams, comprised of 170 participants, took part in the 2021 Walk to End Alzheimer’s in my hometown of Ottumwa.

The annual walk, led by the Alzheimer’s Association, is held in over 600 communities across the United States to raise funds for research and to raise awareness for the disease that over 5.8 million Americans currently live with, as did my mother prior to her death.

This year, I am proud to announce that the Walk to End Alzheimer’s in Ottumwa has raised $27,636 thus far, with donations still coming in, exceeding their initial goal of $26,000.

Thank you to the residents of Ottumwa and the over 600 communities across the United States who have stepped up and stepped forward to put an end to this debilitating disease.

AMERICANS ARE SEETHING OVER PUMP PRICES

(Ms. FOXX asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Ms. FOXX. Madam Speaker, Americans are seething over the price of gas every time they visit the pump.

Yesterday the national average for a gallon of gas reached $3.39. That is more than a $1.24 jump since last year. Americans have not seen gas prices this high since the Obama-Biden administration. Do we see a pattern here?

Not to mention that in some parts of the country, the price for regular gas is over $7.50 a gallon.

Madam Speaker, this is yet another crisis that President Biden can tack on to his growing list.

Since his first day in office, President Biden’s actions, and especially his policies, have brought America a first-class ticket to economic ruin.

PLEASE DONATE BLOOD IN MEMORY OF LOUDEN LOFGREN

(Mr. FEENSTRA asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. FEENSTRA. Madam Speaker, I rise today in remembrance of Louden Lofgren, the son of my friend and my former colleague, Iowa State Senator Mark Lofgren. Louden sadly passed away at 2 years of age after complications from surgery, where he needed multiple blood transfusions.

After he passed away, his family launched a blood drive, known as Love Like Louden, to encourage folks to donate blood and draw attention to hospital shortages of blood.

Every 2 seconds, someone in America needs blood, and over 38,000 pints are needed daily.

If you can, please consider donating blood in Louden’s memory.

May God bless the Lofgren family.

RECESS

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to clause 12(a) of rule I, the Chair declares the House in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

Accordingly, at 10 o’clock and 12 minutes a.m., the House stood in recess.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to clause 8 of rule XX, the Chair will postpone further proceedings today on motions to suspend the rules on which the yeas and nays are ordered.

The House will resume proceedings on the postponed question at a later time.

FURTHER SURFACE TRANSPORTATION EXTENSION ACT OF 2021

Mr. DeFAZIO. Madam Speaker, I move to suspend the rules and pass the bill (H.R. 5763) to provide an extension of Federal-aid highway, highway safety, and transit programs, and for other purposes.

The Clerk read the title of the bill. The text of the bill is as follows:

H.R. 5763
Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE. This Act may be cited as the “Further Surface Transportation Extension Act of 2021”.

SEC. 2. AMENDMENT TO THE EXTENSION END DATE. Section 2(2) of the Surface Transportation Extension Act of 2021 (Public Law 117–44) is amended by striking “October 31, 2021” and inserting “December 3, 2021”.

SEC. 3. AMENDMENT FOR FEDERAL EMPLOYEE COMPENSATION FOLLOWING HIGHWAY TRUST FUND EXPIRATION. Section 108(b) of the Surface Transportation Extension Act of 2021 (Public Law 117–44) is amended by striking “that begins” and all that follows through the period at the end and inserting the following: “that begins on—”.

“(1) October 1, 2021, and ends on or before the date of enactment of this Act; or
H.R. 5763, the Further Surface Transportation Extension Act of 2021.

Mr. GRAVES of Missouri. Madam Speaker, I ask my colleagues to support this extension which will help provide additional time to work through the final resolution of a long-term surface transportation bill.

I urge my colleagues to support this extension which will help provide additional time to work through the final resolution of a long-term surface transportation bill.

The Federal Transit Administration won’t be able to provide any new funding to States, the District, or territories. They will be able to continue reimbursing, but a lot of States are beginning—they have initiatives and applications pending for new programs, and all those would be set aside and delayed.

And the Office of the Secretary will not be able to make any further TIFIA loans.

The Further Surface Transportation Extension Act of 2021 will allow the Department of Transportation to restart operations of programs funded by the highway trust fund through December 3, 2021, which will be a momentous day around here. It also authorizes DOT to provide backpay for employees in the event of a temporary shutdown.

I urge my colleagues to support this extension which will help provide additional time to work through the final resolution of a long-term surface transportation bill.

Mr. GRAVES of Missouri. Madam Speaker, I yield myself the balance of my time.

Again, it is unfortunate that we here today as Democrats continue negotiating their partisan recompilation proposal while an infrastructure bill sits. It sits idle and serves nothing more than those partisan programs.

This is nothing more than a Trojan horse, Madam Speaker, and it is being used for its popularity to get votes for horse, Madam Speaker, and it is being used for its popularity to get votes for more than those partisan programs.

It will allow States to move forward and propose new highway and bridge projects. It will allow transit agencies to go ahead and acquire new equipment and for other necessary repairs or improvements to their systems.

The Federal Motor Carrier Safety Administration and the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration will be at full operating and full funding, so we will have no lapse should we pass this now. I urge an “aye” vote.

Madam Speaker, I yield back the balance of my time.

Mr. DEFAZIO. Madam Speaker, in the affirmative, the ayes have it.

Mr. GRAVES of Missouri. Madam Speaker, on that I demand the yeas and nays be ordered.

FACTSHEET
NEW U.S. COURTHOUSE
HUNTSVILLE, AL

Project Summary
Public Law (P.L.) No. 115-141, the 2018 Consolidated Appropriations Act, enacted on March 24, 2018, appropriated $110,000,000 for the construction of a new United States Courthouse in Huntsville, Alabama. Of that amount, the General Services Administration (GSA) determined that $86,463,000 would be needed to construct the new courthouse, and the balance of the appropriation would be used to renovate and backfill the existing U.S. Courthouse and Post Office.

On September 24, 2018, GSA submitted a prospectus (PAL-CTC-HU18) to the House Committee on Transportation and Infrastructure and the Senate Committee on Environment and Public Works for the courthouse construction project in Huntsville at an estimated cost of $86,463,000. The prospectus proposed the design and construction of a new courthouse of approximately 123,100 gross square feet, including 26 parking spaces, to meet the 10-year space needs of the court and court-related agencies. The site could accommodate the anticipated 30-year needs of the court. The House Committee on Transportation and Infrastructure and the Senate Committee on Environment and Public Works approved the prospectus on December 12, 2018, and February 5, 2019, respectively.

Following the Committees’ approvals of the prospectus, GSA issued a design-build solicitation and received offers for the base construction contract and alternatives that exceed $86,463,000. The increase in cost between the construction cost estimate in the approved prospectus and the receipt of offers is the result of several factors. The increase in labor costs and supply chain disruptions due to the COVID-19 pandemic are believed to be the primary drivers in the escalation. Additionally, a cost increase is associated with a contract alternative, not included in the base contract, to clad the exterior facade fully in limestone, a construction material not originally assumed in the project budget.

The 2018 Consolidated Appropriations Act, P.L. No. 115-141 authorizes GSA to exceed the cost of new construction and acquisition projects by not more than 10% of amounts included in the prospectus. This escalation authority will allow GSA to make a base construction award with no modifications to either the submitted prospectus or the Committees’ approvals. Modifying the contract to clad the exterior facade fully in limestone would cause the total project cost to exceed 110% of the approved estimated total project cost.

GSA proceeded with the base construction contract award prior to the expiration of offers to avoid further increases in costs. The contract alternative for the limestone facade is still available, but the original bid pricing has expired. The contractor’s original bid to add the limestone was $5,767,650. However, if GSA were to exercise this contract alternative, the cost to incorporate full limestone would be subject to current market conditions, necessary redesign and an additional time extension. For GSA to modify the contract to add a full limestone facade, the Senate Committee on Environmental and Public Works and the House Committee on Transportation and Infrastructure would need to modify the existing resolutions to approve the use of the entire $110,000,000 appropriation. The approvals would need to occur no later than December 1, 2021, to make funds available to award the alternative to the contractor. Without the necessary approvals from the Committees by this date, the additional cost and schedule impact of the full limestone façade alternative will preclude GSA from further consideration of this alternative.
Resolved by the Committee on Transportation and Infrastructure of the U.S. House of Representatives, that pursuant to 40 U.S.C. § 3307, appropriations are authorized for repairs and alterations for the Federal Building located at 801 I Street in Sacramento, CA, to backfill vacant space and reconfigure the industrial and historic first floor to improve its utility and accommodate additional future backfill opportunities, at a design cost of $1,235,000, an estimated construction cost of $11,514,000, and a management and inspection cost of $836,000 for an estimated total project cost of $13,585,000, a prospectus for which is attached to and included in this resolution.

Provided, that the General Services Administration shall not delegate to any other agency the authority granted by this resolution.

Provided further, not later than 30 calendar days after the date on which a request from the Chair or Ranking Member of the Committee on Transportation and Infrastructure of the House of Representatives is received by the Administrator of General Services, the Administrator shall provide such Member a response in writing that provides any information requested regarding the project.

Provided further, that the Administrator of General Services shall aim to achieve net zero carbon buildings, if determined by the Administrator to be practical and cost-effective.

Justification
The Federal Building at 801 I Street has suffered chronic space vacancy due to its industrial space layout that was built to accommodate the former U.S. Postal Service tenant. This project will address the building’s vacancy, increase efficiency, and revitalize one of GSA’s historic assets. In addition, the Government will realize a lease cost avoidance of approximately $600,000 annually, with relocation of SSA from its current leased location to the Federal Building.

Summary of Energy, Water, Sustainability, and Climate Risk Compliance
This project will be designed to conform to requirements of the Facilities Standards for the Public Buildings Service. GSA encourages design opportunities to increase energy and water efficiency (including renewable energy and fossil free measures), adherence to sustainable design principles, and minimizing climate risk liabilities above the minimum performance criteria in a manner that is life cycle cost-effective.

The complex is located on 28 acres, with 561,271 gross square feet and 1,500 parking spaces. The complex consists of a symmetrically configured 17-story office tower and two double-height, single-story wing annex buildings, separated by an enclosed entrance court surrounded by a single-story lobby pavilion. The complex provides secure, long-term housing for Federal agencies with a mission-critical need to be located in the expensive, built-out market of west Los Angeles. The complex currently serves as the Federal Bureau of Investigation’s (FBI) Los Angeles
Field Office and houses the State Department’s Bureau of Consular Affairs and Bureau of Diplomatic Security, as well as other agencies.

Tenant Agencies
Department of Justice–FBI; Department of Veterans Affairs–Veterans Benefits Administration; Department of State–Bureau of Consular Affairs, Bureau of Diplomatic Security; U.S. Agency for Global Media; Joint Use (credit union and cafeteria); and GSA.

Proposed Project
The project proposes remediation of the East Annex that was damaged in a fire in May 2017. The project will fully restore the annex so that the common services can return to the building complex. East Annex work includes seismic upgrades, exterior and interior construction, mechanical, electrical, plumbing replacement, and fire and life-safety work. In addition, work in the Federal Building (main tower) includes extensive renovation of the HVAC system, as well as modernization of the electrical system, accessibility upgrades, and architectural repairs conducted in accordance with historic preservation. The project also includes hazardous material abatement of floor decking; alterations to interior finishes, exterior glazing, cladding, and ceiling panels; and seismic upgrades and strengthening of the office tower.

Justification
In May 2017, the East Annex was badly damaged in a fire that started in the U.S. Postal Service space and quickly spread throughout the annex building. Emergency remediation and encapsulation efforts were completed to prevent further damage to the annex, but it remains unsuitable for occupancy, leaving the complex without 19,000 usable square feet of critical office and joint-use space. Temporary space on the 7th floor of the tower now houses some of the agencies, but there is no longer a cafeteria or post office. Renovating the East Annex will allow the agencies to vacate the 7th floor of the tower.

The Federal Building (main tower) provides secure, long-term housing for Federal agencies with a mission-critical need to be located in west Los Angeles. The building was constructed in 1969 and has never been modernized, with many building systems beyond their useful service, including the HVAC and electrical systems. In addition, hazardous material abatement from the underside of floor decking will mitigate a life-safety liability. Exterior construction will correct widespread glazing gasket failure and deteriorating sealant and caulking. GSA’s Seismic Rating System Report, released on March 31, 2016, lists the main tower of the Federal Building complex as a high seismic priority in the GSA portfolio. Plumbing upgrades will mitigate antiquated fixtures, equipment and piping.

Summary of Energy, Water, Sustainability, and Climate Risk Compliance
This project will be designed to conform to requirements of the Facilities Standards for the Public Buildings Service. GSA encourages design opportunities to increase energy and water efficiency (including renewable energy and fossil free measures), adherence to sustainable design principles, and minimizing climate risk liabilities above the minimum performance criteria in a manner that is life cycle cost-effective.

Provided, that the General Services Administration shall not delegate to any other agency the authority granted by this resolution.

Provided further, not later than 30 calendar days after the date on which a request from the Chair or Ranking Member of the Committee on Transportation and Infrastructure of the House of Representatives is received by the Administrator of General Services, the Administrator shall provide such Member a response in writing that provides any information requested regarding the project.

Provided further, that the Administrator of General Services shall aim to achieve net zero carbon buildings, if determined by the Administrator to be practical and cost-effective.
FY 2022 Project Summary
The U.S. General Services Administration (GSA) proposes a repair and alteration project for the Ronald Reagan Building Complex (RRB Complex) located at 1300 Pennsylvania Avenue NW, Washington, DC. The proposed project includes the full replacement of the fire alarm system and completion of targeted fire protection and life safety repairs/upgrades throughout the RRB Complex.

FY 2022 Committee Approval and Appropriation Requested

Project Budget
- Design $5,048,000
- Estimated Construction Cost (ECC) 55,551,000
- Management and Inspection (M&I) 4,201,000
- Estimated Total Project Cost (ETPC) $64,800,000

*Tenant agencies may fund an additional amount for alterations above the standard normally provided by the GSA.

Schedule
Design and Construction FY 2022 FY 2025

Building
The RRB Complex is a 3,883,881 gross square foot, 10-story, mixed-use office building and includes a Federal Office Building (FOB), an International Trade Center (ITC), and a public parking garage. The building has five separate office towers connected by an atrium and public concourse areas and was constructed in 1996. The building is situated on 9.9 acres of land with 1,950 parking spaces. The facility is a core-performing asset and long-term hold in GSA’s real property inventory.

Proposed Project
The project proposes the full replacement of the fire alarm system. In addition, the project proposes to complete targeted fire protection and life safety repairs in order to bring the entire building up to current fire protection and life safety code standards.
PROSPECTUS – ALTERATION
RONALD REAGAN BUILDING COMPLEX
WASHINGTON, DC

Prospectus Number: PDC-0000AF-DC22

Justification

The RRB Complex’s main fire alarm system requires replacement. The system has reached the end of its useful life, and the manufacturer has issued notice that the panel will no longer be supported with parts and service. Presently, when failures arise, GSA has to send existing parts out to second-party electronics refurbishers to be fixed and repaired.

In addition to replacement of the fire alarm system, numerous life-safety improvements need to be undertaken, including relocating/expanding/providing sprinkler replacement in accordance with applicable nationally recognized codes and standards as well as Federal laws and regulations, installing firestopping where missing/inadequate, providing additional signaling and notification device coverage, correcting inadequate exit signage, and directing egress to outdoor pathways.

The repairs or replacement of the fire and life safety systems will provide reliable, efficient service and ensure that current building codes, fire, life safety, and accessibility requirements are met. If the existing system fails, GSA will be required to implement a fire watch. Depending on the type and extent of the impairment, the cost of the fire watch could amount to approximately $150,000 per day.

Summary of Energy, Water, Sustainability, and Climate Risk Compliance

This project will be designed to conform to requirements of the Facilities Standards for the Public Buildings Service. GSA encourages (a) design opportunities to increase energy and water efficiency (including renewable energy and fossil fuel free measures), (b) adherence to sustainable design principles and (c) minimizing climate risk liabilities above the minimum performance criteria in a manner that is life cycle cost-effective.

Administrator, General Services Administration
Resolved by the Committee on Transportation and Infrastructure of the U.S. House of Representatives, that pursuant to 40 U.S.C. § 3307, additional appropriations are authorized for repairs and alterations for the Regional Office Building located at 301 7th Street SW, in Washington, DC, to renovate and modernize the building to house the Department of Homeland Security, including upgrades to and replacement of multiple building systems, interior alterations, and exterior repairs at an additional design cost of $4,941,000, an additional estimated construction cost of $82,529,000 and an additional management and inspection cost of $1,702,000 for a total additional cost of $89,172,000, a prospectus for which is attached to and included in this resolution. This resolution amends the authorization the Committee adopted on September 30, 2020, of Prospectus No. PDC-0031-WA20.

Provided, that the General Services Administration shall not delegate to any other agency the authority granted by this resolution.

Provided further, not later than 30 calendar days after the date on which a request from the Chair or Ranking Member of the Committee on Transportation and Infrastructure of the House of Representatives is received by the Administrator of General Services, the Administrator shall provide such Member a response in writing that provides any information requested regarding the project.

Provided further, that the Administrator of General Services shall aim to achieve net zero carbon buildings, if determined by the Administrator to be practical and cost-effective.
The General Services Administration (GSA) proposes the second of a two-phase repair and alteration project for the Regional Office Building (ROB) located at 301 7th Street SW in downtown Washington, DC. This project will renovate and modernize the building in two phases (with Phase I previously approved and funded) in preparation for a permanent Government-owned location for several Department of Homeland Security (DHS) components, including Science and Technology (S&T), the Office of Biometric Identity Management (OBIM), Undersecretary for Management subgroups, and Immigration and Customs Enforcement Office of Professional Responsibility (ICE-OPR). Major building systems will be upgraded to accommodate a current housing plan of 4,374 personnel, resulting in a maximum, all-in DHS utilization rate (UR) of 159 square feet per person. The completion of both phases reduces the DHS real estate footprint by more than 109,000 usable square feet (USF) and provides an annual lease cost avoidance of approximately $20,800,000 and an annual agency rent savings of approximately $11,700,000.

This prospectus amends Prospectus No. PDC-0031-WA20 to account for the two-phase approach and request for additional funding. GSA is requesting approval of an additional estimated design cost of $4,941,000, additional estimated construction cost of $82,529,000, and additional estimated management and inspection costs of $1,702,000, for a total additional cost of $89,172,000 to account for a more comprehensive building modernization that addresses the long-term housing needs of DHS and a phased construction approach that allows for swing space during the full building modernization.

Building

The ROB is located near the L’Enfant Plaza Metro Station at 301 7th Street SW in Washington, DC. As constructed, it contains approximately 941,463 gross square feet, including approximately 845,169 rentable square feet or 612,593 USF. The building was originally built as a warehouse in two phases between 1929 and 1932; it was later adapted for office use in a haphazard fashion, resulting in poor circulation and office layout. The building contains seven above-grade floors and a basement. Its electrical system has both capacity and distribution issues that make it difficult and costly to perform even minor space alterations. Building elevators are far beyond their useful life, resulting in frequent outages of one or more elevators, and often only custom or rebuilt parts can be used to repair them. The building’s HVAC system is also well past its useful life. There are distribution issues that create hot and cold areas throughout the building, regardless of the external temperature. The building also has ongoing plumbing issues, and occasionally pipes burst and damage interior walls and carpet.

Tenant Agencies

DHS - S&T, OBIM, ICE-OPR

Proposed Project

The proposed project will be completed in two phases and will allow DHS to reduce the UR of their current housing from 205 square feet per person to 159 while reducing their real estate footprint by more than 190,000 USF under the current housing plan. Phase I includes the renovation of the major building systems across the eastern half of the building, which includes opening the interior floor plates and replacing the conveyance, plumbing, HVAC, electrical, and fire protection systems. Phase II of the project will include completion of the upgrades of the major systems across the western half of the building. This includes opening the interior floor plates and replacement of the conveyance, plumbing, HVAC, electrical, and fire protection systems. Completing the redesign of the building’s circulation pattern will recapture usable office space and increase the space efficiency by utilizing an open plan office concept to the greatest extent possible. Furthermore, the project will aim to provide an open architecture systems approach to the infrastructure to allow for a high-performance workspace which focuses on the health, safety, and comfort of personnel and to provide flexibility and ease of accommodation for the operators of the building.

Major Work Items (All phases)

- HVAC Upgrades: $67,580,000
- Electrical Upgrades: 22,381,000
- Interior Construction: 19,983,000
- Plumbing Upgrades: 16,115,000
- Conveyance System Upgrades: 15,557,000
- Exterior Construction: 9,397,000
- Fire Protection Upgrades: 7,718,000
- Demolition: 6,106,000

Total Estimated Construction Cost (ECC): $164,837,000

Justification

The ROB, converted from warehouse to office use throughout its life, does not include appropriate lighting, HVAC, interiors, and finishes for modern office space. Yet, the property resides on a highly valuable location in downtown Washington, DC, adjacent to five Metrorail lines and one block from the National Mall. The proposed accommodation of additional DHS personnel into the ROB requires an open office environment to maximize the building space, yet currently, only a small portion of the building, primarily on the second and seventh floors, is built out as open office space. Additionally, the location of mechanical rooms, electrical and telecommunication closets, and restrooms varies from floor to floor, resulting in inefficient distribution of electrical and plumbing systems and consequent energy waste.

A majority of the building’s major systems are outdated, have reached the end of their useful lives and result in poor indoor air quality and pronounced tenant discomfort in the winter and summer months. Approximately one-fifth of the air handling units (AHUs) are more than three decades old, and the steam piping and condensate return lines are greater than 50 years old. The HVAC system consists of a central chilled water plant in the basement and rooftop cooling towers, with heating provided by steam supplied by GSA’s central heating plant. In accordance with Facilities Standards for the Public Buildings Service (GSA P-100), steam heating systems should be converted to hot water upon entrance to the building. Six cooling towers located on the roof are in fair to poor condition and require replacement. Several AHUs on each floor distribute tempered air by low pressure ductwork to constant volume devices in the occupied spaces. Corridors typically provide the path for return air, a violation of current code that requires correction.

The existing sub power and lighting distribution panels throughout the building are in fair to poor condition. Multiple electrical panels are more than 40 years old, and the associated feeders are well beyond the end of their expected useful life.

The building’s vertical transportation systems include 10 passenger elevators and 2 freight elevators, 1 of which has not been operational for several years. Periodic entrapments occur that have lasted up to 20 minutes per incident. Such incidents are the result of high use of aging elevators that run on pulley systems rather than hydraulic systems. Many replacement parts needed are obsolete and can be difficult to obtain.

The existing fire protection system is outdated and will be replaced. The sprinkler system will be expanded to provide protection across the whole building since the current sprinkler system only covers approximately 60 percent of the building.

Summary of Energy, Water, Sustainability, and Climate Risk Compliance

This project will be designed to conform to requirements of the Facilities Standards for the Public Buildings Service. GSA encourages design opportunities to (a) increase energy and water efficiency (including renewable energy and fossil fuel free measures), (b) adherence to sustainable design principles, and (c) minimize climate risk liabilities above the minimum performance criteria in a manner that is life cycle cost-effective.

Building

The Bean Center is a three-story, concrete-framed structure with brick and stone exterior walls located at 8899 East 56th Street in Indianapolis, IN. The building measures approximately 1,660,000 gross square feet and is situated on a 72-acre site. It was constructed in 1953 as a U.S. Department of Defense (DoD) records storage facility. Ownership of the building was transferred to GSA in 1996, at which time the facility was renovated for its current office use.

Tenant Agencies

U.S. Department of Homeland Security, DoD, and GSA

Proposed Project

The project proposes to rebuild the existing roof parapet of the building, repair and recoat the building’s exterior, replace the north portion of roof, repair the building’s windows and interior walls, and replace the cooling tower.

Justification

The building is experiencing a serious structural failure that poses life safety hazard to its occupants and visitors. The roof parapet is separating from the roof and moving outwardly over the building’s perimeter facades. There is a significant risk of large portions of the roof parapet falling off the building, and the risk grows greater as the parapet continues to move further. The movement is also causing delamination of the building’s exterior coating, which continues to fall off the building. Access to portions of the exterior has been restricted, and temporary protective netting and scaffolding have been installed to protect tenants from any falling debris.
The north roof of the building, which has reached the end of its useful life, is experiencing leaks. Failed window sealant is allowing water intrusion into the building, causing water damage to the interior side of the gypsum board below the windows and corrosion of metal studs. The water infiltration below the windows has the potential for mold growth. The building cooling tower is corroding and has reached the end of its useful life.

Summary of Energy, Water, Sustainability, and Climate Risk Compliance

This project will design to conform to requirements of the Facilities Standards for the Public Buildings Service. GSA encourages (a) design opportunities to increase energy and water efficiency (including renewable energy and fossil fuel free measures), (b) adherence to sustainable design principles and (c) minimizing climate risk liabilities above the minimum performance criteria in a manner that is life cycle cost-effective.

PROSPECTUS – ALTERATION
8930 WARD PARKWAY FEDERAL BUILDING
KANSAS CITY, MO

Prospectus Number: PMO-0134-KC22
Congressional District: 05

Justification
The major tenant of this facility is the USDA DISC data center. DISC’s critical mission provides payments to farmers, food-stamp recipients, and U.S. Forest Service firefighting logistics costs and payments, among other functions. Its functionality requires it to be a Tier 4 data center. Upgrades to site security, as well as to both the pedestrian and vehicular traffic circulation, is critical due to the proximity of traffic to the building.

The single-pane windows are original to the building and have reached the end of their useful lives. Upgrading to double-pane windows with blast protection will meet security requirements, save energy, and improve the tenant work environment.

The building’s HVAC equipment and switchgear equipment are at or near the end of their useful lives. The addition of a generator is to address redundancy requirements and identified deficiencies related to the tenant’s Continuity of Operations Plan for building operation emergency loads.

Summary of Energy, Water, Sustainability, and Climate Risk Compliance
This project will be designed to conform to requirements of the Facilities Standards for the Public Buildings Service. GSA encourages design opportunities to increase energy and water efficiency (including renewable energy and fossil free measures), adherence to sustainable design principles, and minimizing climate risk liabilities above the minimum performance criteria in a manner that is life cycle cost-effective.

Building
The MRC is an outstanding example of Richardsonian Romanesque Revival architecture. The property is listed in the National Register for Historic Places as a contributing structure within the Uptown Vicksburg Historic District. This district was entered into the National Register in 1993; this district and this building are listed for the significance of the architecture. The primary exterior features include a grey slate roof, octagonal tower, molded brick, terracotta, granite stairs/newels, iron and copper details, and original windows. Of special interest is an eight-sided tower that surmounts the roof at the northeast corner and is topped with a conical roof.
The building was constructed in 1890-1891 and an addition was constructed in 1915. In 2004, the attic space was built into storage space, and the stairwell was built up to the attic level. The building is five stories, including the attic and basement, totaling 59,832 gross square feet. There are 26 surface parking spaces for employees and guests surrounding the perimeter of the building.

Proposed Project

This project proposes upgrades to or replacement of the mechanical, electrical, plumbing, conveyance (elevators), and fire protection systems. Interior and exterior lights will be upgraded, and the electrical emergency power systems will be replaced. This project also includes corrective measures to the building envelope, such as replacement or repair of the roof and the historic windows, to prevent further moisture damage. During construction, tenants may be temporarily relocated to leased space in phases to accommodate construction needs.

Life-safety and accessibility will be addressed by modifying the current sprinkler system and upgrading the communications and alarm systems’ emergency lighting and signage. The current fire stairs will be upgraded and new safety egress stairs will be added.

PROSPECTUS – ALTERATION
MISSISSIPPI RIVER COMMISSION
VICKSBURG, MS

Prospectus Number: PMS-0071-VI22
Congressional District: 02

Justification

The MRC requires significant modifications and alterations resulting from, but not limited to, code deficiencies, deteriorated envelope condition, and components and building systems at the end of their useful life cycle.

The MRC building needs significant repair to maintain the integrity of this historic asset and to provide long-term use of the building. This project is needed to address failing building systems at the end of their useful life cycle. This project will address notable code violations and deficiencies related to the building systems, life-safety, and accessibility.

The most critical and time-sensitive elements of repair are the building’s envelope and historic windows. The building envelope is the major contributing factor to moisture intrusion and potentially unhealthy conditions for the occupants. The state of the envelope and windows also creates increased energy consumption.

Summary of Energy, Water, Sustainability, and Climate Risk Compliance

This project will design to conform to requirements of the Facilities Standards for the Public Buildings Service. GSA encourages design opportunities to increase energy and water efficiency (including renewable energy and fossil free measures), adherence to sustainable design principles, and minimizing climate risk liabilities above the minimum performance criteria in a manner that is life cycle cost-effective.

Justification
The Weis Courthouse supports the operations of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit and the U.S. District Court for the Western District of Pennsylvania. Most of the HVAC system is more than 50 years old and has surpassed its expected useful life, with older units still utilizing antiquated pneumatic and communication controls. With multiple system components exceeding their expected service lives and in a deteriorated condition, the risk is increasing for a system failure and outage to portions of floors. Failures would lead to a significant disruption to the judiciary’s ability to meet caseload requirements. In addition, GSA has been working to improve space utilization within the building and building systems need to be upgraded to continue to support tenants. Overall vacancy is expected to decrease from 17% to 5% with several planned backfills, including a large U.S. Bankruptcy Court backfill recently approved as part of the FY 2020 Capital Investment and Leasing Program.

The scope also includes replacement of the plumbing and electrical systems associated with the HVAC infrastructure, as these are more than 50 years old and past their expected useful lives. Interior alterations are expected where work has impacted walls and ceilings. As a result of past projects in the building, asbestos and lead-based paint have been discovered, so hazardous material abatement is required.

The sixth-floor roof is proposed as part of this project due to the placement of the cooling towers. Both cooling towers are located on the sixth-floor roof, and the roof will be impacted by the replacement of both towers. Lightning protection and a fall arrest system are not present on the affected roof and need to be addressed.

Summary of Energy, Water, Sustainability, and Climate Risk Compliance

The Complex will meet the 10-year space needs of the court and court-related agencies, and the Complex will accommodate the anticipated 30-year needs of the court.

The Judiciary’s Courthouse Project Priorities (CPP) list (approved by the Judicial Conference of the United States in September 2020) includes a courthouse project in San Juan. The Judicial Conference designated Hato Rey as a judicial space emergency, prioritizing it above all new courthouse construction projects.

FY 2022 Committee Approval and Appropriation Requested
(Design) $22,476,000

Buildings
Degetau and Nazario, constructed in 1974, and comprising 435,000 GSF, are situated on a 27-acre campus (Campus) in the Hato Rey section of San Juan, Puerto Rico. The Campus also includes a standalone childcare center, independent parking structure, and the newly constructed Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) building. The Campus represents the largest facility under GSA’s jurisdiction, custody, and control in the Caribbean.

Overview of Project
The proposed Annex will be located on the southwest corner of the Campus, adjoining both Degetau and Nazario.

Construction of this Annex will provide 6 new courtrooms and 10 new chambers. Upon completion, the Annex and Nazario, in total, will provide 12 courtrooms and 17 chambers, consistent with the application of courtroom sharing policies and limitation on the provision of space for projected judgeships.

Renovation of Degetau will address several critical building needs, including seismic retrofit, modernization of the building’s mechanical systems, and a backfill of approximately 90,000 usable square feet (USF) of space predominantly made vacant by the relocation of the FBI to a newly constructed stand-alone building on the Campus. The project includes minimal renovation of Nazario to facilitate functional operation with the Annex.

Justification

The existing Complex does not meet the 2007 U.S. Courts Design Guide Standards (as partially revised in 2016) and lacks adequate security. The existing building configuration does not allow for distinct separation between restricted, secured, and public areas. The current Complex has significant space, security, and operational deficiencies necessitating the construction of the Annex. The Judicial Conference designated this location as a space emergency, prioritizing it above all new courthouse construction projects. The judicial Complex will provide separate circulation for public, judges, and prisoners, thereby improving security as well as efficiency of court operations.

GSA’s Seismic Rating System Report lists Degetau as being exceptionally high risk (EHR). The report proposed a series of both structural and nonstructural retrofits to ensure the buildings meet established performance criteria for seismic safety. As Degetau needs to be entirely vacated before the seismic and mechanical upgrades can take place, the Annex will be constructed first. The swing space needs will be met in portions of the new Annex and elsewhere on the Campus. The Magistrate Court and jury assembly will relocate from Degetau to their permanent location in Nazario.

Degetau has approximately 90,000 USF of vacant space, predominantly from the relocation of the FBI to its new facility on the Campus. Once the seismic and alteration work in Degetau is complete, the building will be backfilled with the tenants temporarily relocated into swing space, as well as tenants currently located in leased space, and final tenant improvements of the Annex will be completed.

This project as proposed simultaneously addresses the long-term needs of the courts, provides the necessary security and circulation requirements, and addresses seismic and systems needs at the Degetau Building. Furthermore, the backfill of vacant space in Degetau allows for improved utilization of federally owned space.

FY 2022 Project Summary
The General Services Administration (GSA) proposes a repair and alteration project for the Jack Brooks Federal Building, U.S. Post Office and Courthouse (FB-PO-CT) at 300 Willow Street in Beaumont, TX. The project will address the building's deteriorating envelope and mitigate impact of humid climate; modernize outdated mechanical, electrical, plumbing, and conveyance systems; preserve historic attributes; repair damaged portions of the interior; and undertake site and life-safety improvements.

Building
The Jack Brooks FB-PO-CT, constructed in 1934, contains three stories plus an attic and basement. A two-story addition including a basement was completed in 1974. The 159,000 gross square foot building occupies a full city block, is listed in the National Register of Historic Places, and is a contributing element to the Beaumont Commercial Historic District.

- HVAC Replacement: 10,666,000
- Electrical Replacement: 6,952,000

- Site work: 2,259,000
- Life-Safety: 2,179,000
- Total ECC: $49,630,000

Justification
The building’s original cladding is in poor condition with areas of cracks, spalling, and delamination on all elevations. Water flow has deteriorated the stone and washed out mortar joints. Materials on the building’s exterior, such as exterior stone and pieces of mortar, are falling off the building and posing a risk to pedestrians. In anticipation of further degradation, the building facade has been netted to protect pedestrians below. The building’s multiple roofing systems are approaching the end of their useful lives and... require replacement to prevent further water intrusion. The HVAC system has had multiple modifications since original construction and needs complete replacement for code compliance and energy efficiency. The electrical system throughout the building is dated and no longer serviceable. Public corridors, elevator lobbies, courtrooms, and public restrooms require maintenance and repair as identified in the historic building preservation plan. The aging elevators require parts that are no longer available. Plumbing systems are a combination of original and retrofit piping and are unsafe to test due to extensive corrosion. Site work will address poor drainage conditions, trip hazards, and deteriorated parking areas. Life-safety work will correct fire rating of doors and walls in mechanical spaces, emergency lighting, the aging fire alarm and sprinkler system, and exit signage.

Summary of Energy, Water, Sustainability, and Climate Risk Compliance
This project will be designed to conform to requirements of the Facilities Standards for the Public Buildings Service. GSA encourages design opportunities to increase energy and water efficiency (including renewable energy and fossil free measures), adherence to sustainable design principles, and minimizing climate risk liabilities above the minimum performance criteria in a manner that is life cycle cost-effective.

FY 2022 Project Summary
The General Services Administration (GSA) proposes a repair and alteration project for the James V. Hansen Federal Building (FB) located at 328 25th Street in Ogden, Utah. The proposed project will address the failing building facade, improve the seismic resiliency, backfill vacant space, upgrade elevators, and upgrade the building’s main entrance to improve queuing and security. Backfill of the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) from leased space to the Hansen FB will result in approximately $290,000 in annual lease cost avoidance.

Proposed Project

The project proposes to replace the precast concrete panel facade and windows, construct shear walls throughout the building, build out vacant space for IRS, repair passenger elevators and the freight elevator, add an entry vestibule to the south end of the main lobby, and reconfigure the lobby interior to provide improved queuing and security.

Justification

The building’s facade is in disrepair and failing. The precast concrete panels are mounted to a steel support system and, due to the nature of the finish and improper drainage, the panels are cracking, spalling, and presenting a safety hazard.

A seismic evaluation found major structural deficiencies, including inadequate shear walls, discontinuous walls terminating at the first suspended level (northwest stair tower), and inadequate diaphragm connections to shear walls, and existing facade precast panels and connections cannot accommodate building drift.
Security equipment and queuing layout in the entry lobby frequently result in delays and difficulty entering the building. The current layout is causing Federal employees and guests to queue well outside the building for long periods. The elevators, installed in the early 1990s, are nearing their life expectancy and do not meet the current elevator code. Relocation of IRS from leased space will achieve approximately $290,000 in annual lease cost avoidance.

Summary of Energy, Water, Sustainability, and Climate Risk Compliance

This project will be designed to conform to requirements of the Facilities Standards for the Public Buildings Service. WHERE IS THE SENATE?
(Mr. CICILLINE asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. CICILLINE. Mr. Speaker, as the United States reasserts itself on the world’s stage, it is time for robust engagement. We must engage with our allies and regain our footing as a global leader. But we are standing in our own way.

Mr. Speaker, 100 ambassadorial positions are currently unfilled, with 60 awaiting Senate action. Where is the Senate?

Mr. Speaker, more than 300 national security professionals asked this same question this morning in a letter to Senate leadership.

We do not have representatives to NATO, the European Union, AEO, or the Organization of American States. Despite our significant interests in the Middle East, we lack an Assistant Secretary of State for Near East Affairs and an ambassador to Israel.

Mr. Speaker, we are sending a dangerous message of neglect and indifference to our allies and adversaries. The Senate must act.

I join the hundreds of esteemed former ambassadors and Pentagon officials in urging the Senate to begin hearings and to schedule votes for all pending State Department and USAID nominees.

I include in the RECORD a letter from Foreign Policy for America.

Hon. CHARLES SCHUMER, nominee.

Pending State Department and USAID officials in urging the Senate to begin hearings. The resulting vacancies have damaged U.S. national security and our ability to address international threats. We ask for your urgent attention to resolving this situation.

The United States cannot afford to be absent at this time of strategic competition with China. Yet, at this moment, 100 ambassadorial positions are unfilled with 60 awaiting Senate action. As President Biden prepares to meet with world leaders at the G20 summit, the Senate has confirmed just two of the president’s ambassadorial nominations to G20 member states. As the world works to fight the COVID-19 pandemic, the United States lacks both an Assistant Secretary for International Organization Affairs and a USAID Assistant Administrator for Global Health. Of the 17 world leaders known to be attending the COP26 climate summit in Glasgow, only one has had the opportunity to coordinate in advance with a confirmed U.S. Ambassador. Nearly half of Ambassadorial posts on the African continent remain stalled in the Senate. The sum total of missed opportunities is staggering.

In addition to placing the United States at a strategic disadvantage, Washington has sent an unfortunate message of neglect and indifference. We currently lack Representatives to both the European Union and to ASEAN, and to the Organization of American States. In Canada, France, Germany, and the United Kingdom, the lack of confirmed U.S. Ambassadors neglects historic allies. Despite our significant interests in the Middle East and the threats posed by Iran, the United States currently has neither an Assistant Secretary of State for Near East Affairs nor an Ambassador to Israel. As we call for a free and open Indo-Pacific, the United States lacks an Ambassador not only to China, but also to Australia, Bangladesh, India, Japan, New Zealand, the Philippines, Singapore, South Korea, Sri Lanka, Thailand, and Vietnam.

In Washington, widespread leadership vacancies and stopgap appointments have resulted in an overstretched workforce and unacceptable risks. As conflicts and natural disasters spur population displacement unseen since World War II, the United States has neither an Assistant Secretary of State for Population, Refugees, and Migration nor an Assistant Secretary of State for Conflict and Stability Operations. President Biden’s nominee for Assistant Secretary of State for South and Central Asian Affairs, whose nomination was announced on April 23rd, was not confirmed until September 13th, well after the U.S. withdrawal from Afghanistan. The State Department is planning to host a global Summit for Democracy in December, but does so without an Assistant Secretary for Democracy, Human Rights, and Labor.

Countless other vacancies have resulted in unsustainable workloads, undermining morale and retention.

As you are aware, the Senate has thus far confirmed only two of President Biden’s ambassadorial nominees, and just eleven Assistant Secretaries of State. At USAID, only two appointees requiring Senate confirmation have been approved. Of the 235 Senate-confirmed State Department positions, only 24 have confirmed occupants, while 83 are at the Senate awaiting confirmation. This is well below the number of nominees confirmed at similar points in the first terms of Presidents Trump, Obama, and George W. Bush.

We note with particular regret that individual Senators have blocked the confirmations of exceptionally qualified nominees for reasons completely unrelated to their credentials. The Senate’s inaction, which has been employed by members of both parties, has eroded America’s global leadership and contributed to a perception among our friends as well as our adversaries that the United States is in decline.

The steady atrophying of our diplomatic capacity poses an unacceptable risk to U.S. national security. We urge you to exercise decisive leadership to swiftly facilitate committee hearings and votes for all pending State Department and USAID nominees. If unanimous consent agreements cannot be obtained to expedite votes, we ask that you once again dedicate the floor time necessary to approve these nominations by regular order.

Sincerely,

information from cyberattacks and other security breaches. As the concept of a surveillance state becomes more of a reality, we must oppose Democrats’ far-left, socialist policies.

BUDGET RECONCILIATION AND THE HYDE AMENDMENT

(Mr. LAVALFA asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. LAVALFA. Mr. Speaker, as any massive spending package, the Democrats’ $3.5 trillion—it may be getting smaller—reconciliation bill does have some good items in it that we could agree on in a better package, such as critically important disaster relief funds for fires, flood, and other recovery efforts.

Unfortunately, tucked amongst these are some necessary programs but also attempts by the Democrats to once again circumvent the Hyde amendment, originally passed in the House in 1976, and which would force American taxpayers to fund elective abortions. In the reconciliation bill, there are millions of dollars’ worth of public health grants not Hyde-protected. This bill also mandates abortion coverage in the Affordable Care Act for plans covering individuals above the poverty line.

Additionally, it sets aside $1.75 billion for public health activities that would allow the CDC to construct facilities that perform elective abortion and trains others to do so.

If this bill is adopted as currently written, violating the Hyde amendment, all Americans will have to pay for abortions regardless of their State’s policies or their own moral or religious convictions.

AMERICAN PEOPLE ARE ON THE MOVE

(Ms. JACKSON LEE asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Ms. JACKSON LEE. Mr. Speaker, this morning President Joseph Biden was brilliant. He gathered together the members of the Democratic Caucus, and he spoke to the American people about the brilliance of a seismic, monumental change. He spoke to the American people about the brilliance of a seismic, monumental change.

We as Democrats stood united behind the framework of Build Back Better, realizing that we will change the lives of kindergartners and children across the land and change the world. With universal preschool for 3- and 4-year-olds; affordable, high-quality childcare; affordable, high-quality care for hundreds of thousands of those older Americans in the latter part of their lives, allowing them to live at home in dignity—expanded and cut, is what I would like to call it—we stood unified.

For all the chatting about friends on the other side of the aisle, name one good deed that they have done to change generations of Americans.

Mr. Speaker, I am proud to stand with Joe Biden, the President of the United States. When he leaves and goes to the G20, he will be able to say that he has a united Caucus that believes in change, that believes in humanity and the human infrastructure that Build Back Better is.

We are on the move. We are on the road. We are going to pass both bills. And we are going to change Americans’ lives forever and ever and ever. I am proud to be a Democrat and to stand in this monumental era of our time.

Mr. Speaker, tell the American people we are on the move.

Mr. CICILLINE. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that in the engrossment of H.R. 5763, the Clerk be directed to make the correction I have placed at the desk.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Dr. Barry C. Black, offered the following prayer:

Let us pray.

Eternal Lord God, the source of all freedom, thank You for people who join You in bringing deliverance to captives and healing to those who are bruised. Continue to bless those men and women who are Your hands, heart, voice, and feet in these challenging times. Support them all the day long until the shadows lengthen and the evening comes and the busy world is hushed and the fever of life is over and their work is done.

Lord, when their light of hope is threatened, renew them with faith in Your providence and power. Make them more than victorious because of Your great love.

We pray in Your sacred Name. Amen.

ATTORNEY GENERAL GARLAND

Mr. MCCONNELL. Madam President, yesterday brought reports that carjackings in my hometown of Louisville were up 150 percent since 2019, and the city’s 2021 murder total is rapidly closing in on an all-time record that was set just last year. These aren’t just local problems; they are national trends. Twenty-twenty saw the homicide rate jump more than at any point in over a century—the worst spike in the murder rate in more than 100 years.

The law enforcement crises don’t stop there. Our southern border saw more illegal crossings last year than in any year on record. Yet ICE has made its fewest interior arrests in a decade. A crime epidemic and a border crisis—these are the sorts of problems you might expect the Nation’s top law enforcement officer to face head-on. These are the sorts of issues that should keep the Department of Justice up all night long. But, alas, Attorney General Garland has other priorities.

The AG made waves this month with a bizarre memo that directed the FBI, along with DOJ’s Criminal, National Security, and Civil Rights Divisions, to focus—now listen to this—special attention and security on parents—parents—who have opinions about their local school boards.

Yesterday, under questioning from the Judiciary Committee, the Attorney General seemed absolutely incapable of giving a satisfactory explanation as to why the parents of America are his A–1 priority; nor could he explain why this bizarre guidance came just days—days—after a powerful interest group sent a letter demanding this action.

Actually—listen to this—the interest group has already apologized for the letter. They say they regret sending it. But the Attorney General won’t budge from his shocking guidance even after the special interests that asked for it have backed away. Apparently, the instant that special interests ask the Biden administration to jump, the Attorney General responds: How high?

The Attorney General insisted that all his Department is concerned about is “violence and threats of violence.” Well, of course violence and threats are always wrong. They are already illegal and already the purview of local law enforcement.

There is no evidence that America’s concerned parents needed to be singled out as targets of this J. Edgar Hoover act from the Feds. If Democrats at the local, State, and Federal levels want fewer parents—concerned parents—showing up at school board meetings, the solution is to stop indoctrinating the kids with crazy messages on the taxpayer-funded Bill. In short, it is the Federal law enforcement to frighten families out of their First Amendment rights.

GOVERNMENT SPENDING
Madam President, now on a totally different matter, in recent years, Washington Democrats have also shown an alarming willingness to invent crises to justify radical ideas. They have tried to vilify our independent judiciary and exhume the concept of court-packing from the ash heap of history. They have tried to sell a 50-State Federal takeover of election laws by fearmongering about mainstream and reasonable State decisions. When it came to an actual crisis, a one-in-a-century pandemic, Democrats didn’t even try to conceal their intentions. As the House majority whip put it back in March of 2020, it was all “a tremendous opportunity to restructure things to fit our vision.”

With unified control of government, they brought this spring about passing the most progressive legislation in American history. This first spending spree expanded Federal supplements to unemployment insurance so massively that the best choice for huge numbers of skilled American workers was simply to stay home—stay home. The whole thing was an avalanche of cash that stunted our economic recovery and, of course, accelerated inflation.

Now Washington Democrats are behind closed doors again, assembling an even bigger reckless taxing-and-spending spree. It is meant to be a Trojan horse for permanent socialism—conclusive proof that the radical left is calling the shots in today’s Democratic Party. It is a list of leftist boondoggles that our colleagues are packing into this plan. At the heart of it all is one simple and dangerous assumption: that American families ought to be more reliant on American off of the private health insurance plans they chose and onto government rolls. They would shred a decennial takeover of election laws by federal conscience plans they chose and onto government rolls. They would shred a decade of rights. There is giveaway after giveaway after that the United States hasn’t experienced the recent inflation levels in a “once-in-a-lifetime” and the Democrats’ efforts to restrain American oil and gas production—this one is not about spigots. It is about the law. President Biden’s efforts to restrain American oil and gas production while, oddly, hypocritically, strangely, appealing to OPEC to increase the global oil supply in the face of high gas prices at home has resulted in higher energy prices, which could drive inflation even higher in the months to come.

This is a frontal assault on the nature of the Federal Government. The Democrats’ plans would chase more Americans off the private health insurance plans they chose and onto government rolls. They would shred a decades-old consensus about the importance of American workers being able to get cash grants to families without any employment requirements—without any employment requirements. They want to reinvent welfare without welfare reform. There is giveaway after giveaway that isn’t even means tested. Their new America is going to be a fantasized world of free school lunch for the kids of millionaires and billionaires—no means testing whatsoever. None.

In addition, Washington Democrats want to insert themselves into the middle of the most personal family decisions about childcare and family structure, redistributing huge amounts of money only to households that arrange the lives the way Democrats want. In area after area, Democrats want to implement far-left policies that would make the economy worse for working families and then clumsily try to make it up to citizens with socialism that is disconnected from work. This is a frontal assault on the nature of employment and work itself in American life.

They are out to, as one economist put it, “fundamentally change the relationship between the state and its citizens.” Even the New York Times last month called what Democrats are hammering out “a cradle-to-grave reweaving” of the government’s role. Lower wages. Fewer jobs. At least American workers will have cradle-to-grave socialism.

It is one vision for the future, all right, but it is not one that Americans want, and it is one that Senate Republicans will fight every step of the way. I suggest the absence of a quorum.

The ACTING PRESIDENT pro tempore. The clerk.

The senior assistant legislative clerk proceeded to call the roll.

Mr. MORAN. Madam President, I ask unanimous consent that the order for the quorum be rescinded.

The ACTING PRESIDENT pro tempore. Without objection, it is so ordered.

GOVERNMENT SPENDING

Mr. MORAN. Madam President, $28 trillion, $173.2 trillion. It is common for Members of this Senate to stand on the Senate floor and debate the price tag of spending bills and legislation that costs millions, billions, and even trillions of dollars. These numbers are so large that for many people—perhaps even for you—it is incomprehensible and unreliable.

Today, I would like to take a moment to talk about dollars and cents. In Kansas, the current average price for a gallon of gas has jumped 13 cents this year. In Kansas was $1.93. This means filling up a 15-gallon tank will cost you an extra $17 every time you fill up your car at the pump. If you fill up your vehicle once a week, that is an additional $904 you spent on gas this year as opposed to just last year.

Electricity prices are up 5.2 percent this year. The average monthly electric bill for a residence in Kansas last year was $116. This year’s increase is an additional $68 per family.

This winter is going to be expensive for American families, particularly in the Midwest, as households are expected to see their heating bills jump much more than in most other areas compared to last winter, making it the most expensive winter since 2008.

Thanks to inflation, the price of eggs is up 9.9 percent. A used car is going to cost 7 percent more this year. Chicken breast is up 7.2 percent in cost, up 7 percent.

In fact, these realties are being reflected by media across the country.

Newsweek’s headline: “Your Thanksgiving Turkey Could Be the Most Expensive Ever.”

MSNBC: “Thanksgiving is now less than a month away and it’s shaping up to be the most expensive meal in the history of the holiday. We have the most expensive Thanksgiving feast in the history of American history.”

NBC News: “Thanksgiving, be prepared to fork over more dough for your feast.”

And The New York Times: “This Year’s Thanksgiving Feast Will Wallop the Wallet.”

This is horrible news for almost every Kansasan and for all Americans, and it is especially damaging to those who are already struggling to pay the bills because their hard-earned dollars just don’t go far enough now.

An extra $17 at the gas pump or $68 on electricity bill is not small change here or there is quickly adding up, for middle-class and low-income families, to be a major challenge.

These dollars add up to tough decisions like: Will we be able to make our mortgage payment this month? Do we forgo a Thanksgiving meal this year so we can afford to make the drive across the country to see the grandparents for the holidays?

The current trajectory for inflation doesn’t look good either. Treasury Secretary Janet Yellen said on Sunday that the United States hasn’t experienced the recent inflation levels in a “once-in-a-lifetime” and the current inflation is caused by government spending, and the Democrats’ out-of-control spending and policies have fueled the rate of inflation 60 cents here or there is quickly adding up, for middle-class and low-income families, to be a major challenge.

Part of inflation—a significant portion of inflation is caused by government spending, and the Democrats’ out-of-control spending and policies have fueled the rate of inflation 60 cents here or there is quickly adding up, for middle-class and low-income families, to be a major challenge.

In particular, President Biden’s effort to restrain American oil and gas production—this one is not about spigots. It is about the law. President Biden’s efforts to restrain American oil and gas production while, oddly, hypocritically, strangely, appealing to OPEC to increase the global oil supply in the face of high gas prices at home has resulted in higher energy prices, which could drive inflation even higher in the months to come.

It is time for Congress to turn off the spending spigot. The Democrats’ nearly $2 trillion spending package that passed the beginning of this session, in January, did nothing to help with our labor shortage or to improve the supply chain. It, instead, accelerated inflation around the country. We have been slow to turn that spigot off, and we have exacerbated it since the arrival of a Democrat majority and President Biden in the White House.

The Democrats are awfully busy trying to fulfill their campaign promises by passing their tax-and-spending spree, and they are too busy to worry about the policies that are causing American families. More spending will only exacerbate our current inflationary circumstances, and the path that the Democrats have charted involves massive amounts of spending that will lead to higher prices for everyone.

As Americans face higher prices at the gas station and grocery store, we must work at fixing our supply chain issues, returning to being energy independent, ensuring millions can work, and reining in our spending to slow down the rate of inflation. This out-of-control spending is jeopardizing our economy and hurting Americans.

To my Democrat colleagues, in particular—rather than assuming a mandate by the voters and pushing the tax-and-spend spree legislation with 51 votes, let’s work together. Let’s work together to get government spending and borrowing in check. If this is done, it will be done for the well-being of all Americans.

I yield the floor.

I suggest the absence of a quorum.

The ACTING PRESIDENT pro tempore, call the roll.

The senior assistant legislative clerk proceeded to call the roll.

Mr. THUNE. Madam President, I ask unanimous consent that I be allowed to speak for up to 15 minutes.

The ACTING PRESIDENT pro tempore. Without objection, it is so ordered.

Mr. THUNE. Madam President, I ask unanimous consent that I be allowed to speak for up to 15 minutes.

The ACTING PRESIDENT pro tempore. Without objection, it is so ordered.

BIDEN ADMINISTRATION

Mr. THUNE. Madam President, work continues on Democrats’ socialist spending spree, and the Senate seems to be on track to vote on their bill in the near future. Well, maybe. It depends on who you ask at any given time around here these days.

Just to highlight the high level of uncertainty surrounding this process, President Biden was on Capitol Hill just this morning—his second visit this month—to twist the arms of still-undeclared Democrats.

As they continue to see what sticks to the wall, it is good to know that priorities like government jobs for climate activists, tax credits for environmental justice programs at colleges and universities, and a $200 million mental health justice programs at colleges and universities, are being discussed in the Senate.

The 2021 budget was supposed to restore our standing in the world. Yet, once again, this barely seems to have worked. Our standing is the lowest since the end of the Cold War.

Our military men and women just have to wait longer for upgrades to our defense capabilities, as well as funding for our military men and women—from pay increases to protective equipment, to investments in impact aid.

It is not a bill we can afford to ignore, but under Senate Democrats, the bill has taken a back seat to Democrats’ pet priority, and that is this massive, partisan tax-and-spending legislation that is focused on expanding the size of government, critical military priorities are going unauthorized and unfunded.

Without the National Defense Authorization Act, and then the Defense appropriations bill that falls from it, the military can’t sign off on contracts for critical new equipment. Shipbuilding projects, military infrastructure projects, the development of new combat systems—they are all having to wait, while Democrats negotiate over their socialist spending spree.

In my home State of South Dakota, Ellsworth Air Force Base is currently preparing to be the first home of the B-21 bomber, where we will host both the Formal Training Unit and first operational squadron.

The B-21 bomber will eventually replace the Air Force’s aging B-1 fleet and ensure that we have a long-range strike asset and leg of the nuclear triad capable of meeting the threats of the 21st century, wherever in the world they are found.

This year’s NDAA authorizes critical funding for developing the B-21 and starting to transform Ellsworth to prepare for the mission, plus a requirement to maintain the remaining B-1 fleet until the bombers can be replaced by the B-21.

This is just one of the many critical national security investments we cannot afford to lose. As President Biden continues to mark up this defense authorization bill, he must work to ensure our military men and women and their families are getting any better. Yet, we could be forgiven for wondering if Democrats have even noticed.

I am pretty sure the President and his administration spent more time earlier this year fighting against the use of the word “crisis” in finding the safe haven at the border than they did actually thinking about how they might deal with the influx. The President’s main response to the situation seems to be ignoring it in hopes that it will just go away. He is happy to travel all over the place, whether to a campaign rally in Virginia or a climate change summit overseas, but he can’t seem to find a minute to visit the southern border.

The border crisis is not the only crisis the President is ignoring. The President’s disastrous Afghanistan withdrawal was a real low point for this country. Thirteen of our military men and women died in the terrorist attacks on September 11, and the abnormally thousands of individuals who had worked with us in Afghanistan and whom we had promised to protect, not to mention hundreds of Americans still working to find a way home. The President, who was supposed to restore our standing on the world stage, left our allies wondering if our word can be relied upon.

Most of all, the disastrous withdrawal has left our country in a much more precarious national security position. After a President who ran on the idea of America being the last, safe haven in Afghanistan, could be ready to launch terrorist attacks on our homeland in as little as 6 months—6 months. Al-Qaida, which looks away, is happy to travel all over the place, whether to a campaign rally in Virginia or a climate change summit overseas, but he can’t seem to find a minute to visit the southern border.

We are in the midst of a serious, increasingly long-term inflation problem—a problem Democrats helped to trigger by dumping a lot of unnecessary government money into the economy earlier this year; yet Democrats are not only ignoring this crisis, they are escalating by dumping even more government money into our economy.

SOUTHERN BORDER

Mr. President, then there is the crisis at the southern border. U.S. Customs and Border Protection apprehended 192,000 individuals attempting to cross our southern border in September, a 233-percent increase from the previous September—233 percent. Customs and Border Protection apprehended more than 1.7 million individuals attempting to cross our southern border in fiscal year 2021—the highest number ever.

We have a security, enforcement, and humanitarian crisis at our southern border, and there is no sign that things are getting any better. Yet, we could be forgiven for wondering if Democrats have even noticed.

I am pretty sure the President and his administration spent more time earlier this year fighting against the use of the word “crisis” in finding the safe haven at the border than they did actually thinking about how they might deal with the influx. The President’s main response to the situation seems to be ignoring it in hopes that it will just go away. He is happy to travel all over the place, whether to a campaign rally in Virginia or a climate change summit overseas, but he can’t seem to find a minute to visit the southern border.

I yield the floor.
working on the situation. Well, quite frankly, this is something the administration should have figured out before—before—withdrawning our troops from Afghanistan and destroying our ability to conduct counterterrorism operations within the country. Unfortunately, the President was more focused on meeting his predetermined, arbitrary deadline than on dealing with the actual situation on the ground, with predictably catastrophic consequences.

A lot of priorities have had to take a backseat to Democrats’ tax-and-spend spree. I only wish the bill were worth it. Unfortunately, Democrats’ massive spending bill is likely to worsen our inflation crisis, weaken our national security priorities will have to continue to wait until Democrats find the time to address them. I am not holding my breath.

I yield the floor.

from sad experience that this isn't going to go away anytime soon. Prices, once they go up, tend to stick.

Meanwhile, President Biden, apparently, is not satisfied with only making things more expensive, but he is also making it harder and in some cases, more impossible for many Americans to work. His still-unpublished vaccine mandate is causing millions of Americans to be at risk of losing their employment or, alternatively, acquiescing to Federalation. These are everyday Americans, all too often struggling just to get by. They are not bad people. They are not people whom we should shun. No. These are mothers and fathers. Some are first responders, and others are military heroes. They are our neighbors, friends, and fellow citizens. They deserve the respect and autonomy to make this decision for themselves.

And the Constitution, when properly understood, protects Americans from precisely this type of Federal intrusion, especially this type of Federal intrusion wielded by one man, one person, in one office.

I have heard now from over 300 Utahans just in the last few weeks who are otherwise spending other people's money or spending money we don't have, money that ends up, effectively, being printed.

Our Founding Fathers entrusted Congress with the power of the purse because they understood Congress, which is the branch of government most accountable to the people at the most regular intervals, to be most likely to jealously guard the funds of those who sent us here.

Understanding that as every Member of the House is required to stand for election every 2 years, and one-third of the Members of this body are required to stand for election every 2 years, that ought to have an effect. It ought to have an effect that we remember: that it is not our money; it is the people's money, and that when we run out of it, we can't just pretend that we have more. When you do that, it causes problems—especially for the poor and the middle class.

The Framers assumed that Congress would be the most responsible branch in managing our Nation's finances—again, because we are the branch most accountable to the people. But in this respect we failed. We failed in every sense. We failed dismally, miserably. Americans work for months out of every single year just to pay their Federal taxes. Yet our Nation is still barreling toward $30 trillion of national debt. We are now reaching devastating debt-to-GDP ratios that we have never contemplated during peacetime in America. And Americans are feeling the pain—real Americans, everyday Americans.

Inflation is at its highest rate in decades. Everything from gas to groceries, from housing to healthcare—it is all more expensive and getting more expensive every single day. We know
Don’t take my word for it. Look at the Federal Government itself. Even unions are opposed to a vaccine mandate, with the American Postal Workers Union, the Federal Law Enforcement Officers Association, and the American Federation of Teachers coming out in opposition not to the vaccine but to the mandate.

The pandemic does not make the Constitution irrelevant or put our rights of private citizens up for discussion. We are a nation of liberties, not mandates. We respect individuals.

That is why I am cosponsoring several different bills that would protect our citizens from this overreach. One bill, S. 2849, clarifies that Federal Agencies do not have the power to mandate COVID–19 vaccines. While this should be self-evident, sadly, many in Washington, DC, have forgotten about America’s founding principles.

Another bill, S. 2851, blocks Federal Agencies from fining anyone who violates the COVID–19 mandates.

Further, the bill that Senator LEE is offering today, S. 2851, audits COVID funding so the American people know where their hard-earned tax dollars went over the past year and a half, so we can evaluate what has worked and what has not, as Senator LEE has said.

The Biden administration should work to bring us together, not drive us further apart through politicized Executive actions. No matter what President Biden decides to do, an individual’s right to be in charge of their own healthcare is sacrosanct, and I believe Senator LEE’s bills are a step in the right direction.

Thank you.

I yield the floor.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Utah.

Mr. LEE. Mr. President, as if in legislation objection, I ask unanimous consent that the Homeland Security and Governmental Affairs Committee be discharged from further consideration of S. 2851 and that the Senate proceed to its immediate consideration. I further ask that the bill be considered read a third time and passed and that the motion to reconsider be considered made and laid upon the table.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection?

The Senator from Michigan.

Mr. PETERS. Mr. President, I reserve the right to object. I certainly welcome the Senator from Utah’s interest in oversight of coronavirus emergency relief funds. There is no question in Americans’ minds, and now where their hard-earned tax dollars are going and how these critical relief funds are being used to help communities all across our country in the wake of this public health crisis, especially for those who need it the most.

I assume that my colleagues agreed with the importance of conducting thorough oversight of these programs and supported the creation of the Pandemic Response Accountability Committee when we passed the CARES Act. These oversight requirements, based on the successful oversight model of the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act, ensure that we have strong oversight of all coronavirus relief dollars through regular, detailed reports and recommendations from the PRAC, the GAO, and the inspector general.

Following guidance from the Office of Management and Budget, all COVID–19 relief funding from the legislation that the Senator has identified is already being tracked on USASpending.gov. Anyone—anyone—can go to the website right now and see the figures.

As of August 31, Congress has provided $4.7 trillion in relief spending. The administration has committed $3.9 trillion of those funds to helping communities, and $3.4 trillion in assistance has already reached those who need help through this crisis.

I would also urge the Senator to consider the more than 1,300 oversight reports that the GAO has completed related to the pandemic response, in addition to the more than 100 reports that the GAO has also issued on this topic, rather than creating additional and redundant work for the GAO at taxpayer expense.

The Senator’s proposal is duplicative and unnecessary, and for that reason I offer the PRESIDING OFFICER. Objection is heard.

The Senator from Utah.

Mr. LEE. Mr. President, I appreciate the insight from my friend, colleague, and distinguished Senator from Michigan. I appreciate his willingness to look out for making sure that there isn’t duplication in government.

I also think it is important that at a time when we are spending an unprecedented amount that we are on the side of redoubling efforts to audit, to oversee.

There has never been a time in American history when we have brought in more money in a year than we have in the year 2020. We brought in over $3 trillion. But there has never been a time when we have spent nearly as much money in total dollars or as far as a number of dollars relative to what we brought in.

I mean, we spent $6.6 trillion last year. This is an enormous amount of money. We are spending a comparable amount again this year—again, trillions of dollars more than we are bringing in. We are doing it ostensibly because of the COVID pandemic. And for that reason, it is good that we make sure that we know where we are spending that money, where it is going. If it can make our efforts more effective and more efficient, if this is about protecting and sustaining life, then why wouldn’t we want to make sure that it is being done in the most effective, efficient way possible?

We work for the people. They deserve to know where the money is being spent.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Kansas.

GOVERNMENT SPENDING

Mr. MARSHALL. Mr. President, I come to the floor today in support of our men and women in uniform who put their lives on the line each day to defend our freedoms and our American way of life.

Unfortunately, thousands of our heroes are about to lose those very freedoms that they have fought so hard to defend, as Joe Biden’s vaccine mandate threatens the honorable discharge should they choose not to get the COVID vaccine.

Now, let me be clear, as a physician and a veteran, I am confident the vaccine has saved countless lives, and I encourage every veteran, every American to consider and to discuss with their physician getting that vaccine. I believe vaccinating our servicemembers, though, against COVID–19 is such a very, very important effort. But deep down, I am a doctor from Great Bend, KS, and I believe in the sanctity of the physician-patient relationship and that every one of our situations is unique.

A soldier’s clinical history is unique. There are pros and cons; there are risks and benefits of taking this vaccine. And each of our soldiers all are using common sense—the common sense that God has given them, and I respect their decisions. This administration should too.

Right now, thousands of our service members are not vaccinated. When it comes to our guardsmen and -women in Kansas, only 58 percent are fully or partially vaccinated—a number I am confident would hold true across the remainder of the country.

Unfortunately, the policy out of the White House says that one size has to fit all; that there is no exception, even though we know that natural immunity to COVID IS stronger than the vaccine, if not more powerful than, the vaccine.

We have never asked people—especially military folks—to get a vaccine for a virus they are already immune to or a virus that doesn’t affect them. It just doesn’t make sense.

Because of Joe Biden’s vaccine mandate, thousands of American heroes are going to be separated from the service, and they are going to, perhaps, be given a dishonorable discharge. I want to make sure this body and the American people understand exactly what the significance of a dishonorable discharge is. Soldiers will lose access to medical benefits from the VA. They will lose access to home loans. They will lose access to the GI bill for further education. They will potentially lose their right to vote in some States. They will lose their Second Amendment rights and access to ammunition. They will lose military funeral honors. They will lose their ability to be part of another branch of military. And they will have an extremely difficult time finding employment.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Kansas.

Mr. LEE. Mr. President, I appreciate his willingness to listen.
Getting a dishonorable discharge may be the worst checkmark you can get in your life—truly, a scarlet letter. These sort of repercussions sound like they should be reserved for felons. But, no, this is what Joe Biden wants to hand down to our servicemembers. This is insulting, and we must put a stop to it.

For these reasons, I introduced legislation—the COVID–19 Vaccine Dishonorable Discharge Prevention Act—to prohibit the Department of Defense from discharging American heroes who choose not to receive a COVID–19 vaccine.

There is no question about it: American heroes should not be treated as felons because of their personal medical choices.

This is one of a number of highly important issues for our national security that Leader SCHUMER and our colleagues across the aisle have to put on hold while they go back and forth on how to squeeze out any additional money that would trigger an IRS reporting requirement. The Democrats originally proposed authorizing legislation that Congress passes every year—60 years in a row, as if it were some kangaroo court. They have been making excuses for others, and they have been making excuses for themselves. They have been saying that the IRS can be fine if we just have more government, more spending, and more taxes.

That is why, for months, President Biden and congressional Democrats have put all their time and energy into crafting a completely partisan $3.5 trillion tax-and-spending spree. They are spending on leftwing priorities that will result in more debt, more inflation, more dependency government, and more government intrusion into the lives of our American heroes.

Equally concerning is how the Democrats want to pay for some of their out-of-control spending. They plan to take $400 billion from taxpayers by monitoring and auditing their bank accounts. Democrats want to turn your bank or your credit union—that small bank around the corner in some rural community across America—into a branch of the IRS, making them monitor and report your financial activity and directly report it to the IRS.

To make matters worse, the Democrats want to hire 80,000 new IRS agents so they can go through your personal financial information—what you spend your money on and what income you take in. And using that information, the IRS will then try to squeeze out any additional money that they can from you.

The Democrats originally proposed making this a slippery slope. Now, the IRS reporting at a $600 transaction. Americans who heard about the scheme were outraged.

Most Americans aren’t too fond of the IRS. I dare say, if you were to do a poll of the 10 most favorite government agencies, the IRS wouldn’t make the list. And they certainly don’t trust the IRS with having more power and more of your personal financial information.

My office alone has received over 15,000 calls of overreach, imagining many of my Democratic colleagues have heard from their constituents as well, so it is not surprising they went back to the drawing board. Since the $600 transaction wasn’t selling, they came up with a new proposal, and it was a total of $10,000 in transactions that would trigger an IRS reporting requirement.

But you can’t be fooled by this sleight of hand. It will subject nearly every American with a job to the same scheme. Consider that the average American makes a little bit more than $60,000 in annual expenditures, yet Democrats have the audacity to claim that this plan is really just targeted to the wealthy.

I don’t know many hairdressers and plumbers and painters and Uber drivers who are billionaires, but I do know they make over $10,000 a year and they will be subject to the same scheme because of the way they make their income.

Now, these hard-working Americans, who have done nothing wrong, could have their personal information sent directly to the IRS.

And let’s be clear, this additional information won’t even provide the IRS with direct evidence of tax noncompliance. Instead, it would give the IRS—and keep it in mind, 80,000 more IRS employees; roughly twice, doubling the number of people working in the IRS—to go on a taxpayer-funded fishing investigation designed to rummage through individual Americans’ finances in the hope of finding a tax cheat.

We don’t let police enter someone’s house without a warrant in the hopes they can find something illegal, and we certainly should not provide this kind of power to the IRS.

And what will happen when a hard-working hairdresser or plumber or carpenter, who is already struggling to make ends meet, gets a letter from the IRS alleging that they owe more taxes? They don’t have an army of tax lawyers and accountants like billionaires do. They will have to try and take on the IRS themselves, and that is a losing proposition.

The IRS reporting plan is not about catching tax cheats and making sure billionaires are paying their taxes. It is about shaking down middle-class Americans to pay for the Democrats’ tax-and-spending spree, plain and simple, burning them with more bureaucracy and giving them yet another thing they have to worry about, in addition to rising inflation, energy prices, and supply chain shortages.

I was talking with one of my staff this morning about my situation and what I think happens every day in this country. You have somebody who is struggling to pay their bills. I had a family member many years ago who came to me and said they needed—if I would give them a loan so that they could make ends meet. They worked in construction and they had a project coming due, but they had a cash-flow problem. So I made them a loan, like so many people do for their friends and family members. Well, depending upon the size of that gesture, it could suddenly be a reportable transaction to the IRS.

What is an IRS compliance agent going to do? They are going to call you up and say Well, you didn’t report that as income.

And then the person is going to say: Well, it was a loan.

And then the IRS agent is going to say: Yes, that’s a loan, but what was the document?

And so: It was with a brother or an uncle or a cousin. We shook hands, and I promised to pay him back.
There are the kinds of things that are going to happen if this IRS tax transaction reporting goes into place. That is why I recently joined with Senator Tim Scott and dozens of my Republican colleagues to introduce legislation that will prevent the Biden administration from implementing their surveillance plan. It is wrong. It is an overreach, and it is not going to work.

But the easiest solution is for my colleagues on the other side of the aisle to simply rescind this misguided IRS reporting scheme.

Tax-and-spend policies have already made life harder for middle-class Americans. Americans are struggling from the impact of COVID, from the impact of inflation, from energy shortages, and so many uncertainties that we have experienced over the past couple of years. The last thing they need is to have the IRS, with an army of tens of thousands IRS agents, prying into their bank accounts and causing unnecessary confusion, more frustration, and more heartache at the worst possible time.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Washington.

AFFORDABLE HOUSING

Ms. CANTWELL. Mr. President, I come to the floor this afternoon to talk about the affordable housing crisis in the USA.

Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to have this letter printed in the RECORD. It is from 44 different mayors representing 44 different States and the District of Columbia, talking about those housing priorities that we need to see in legislation that we will be voting on, including, No. 1, strengthening and expanding the low-income housing tax credit.

"There being no objection, the material was ordered to be printed in the RECORD, as follows:

Hon. Joseph R. Biden, Jr., President of the United States of America, Washington, DC.
Hon. Charles Schumer, Majority Leader, U.S. Senate, Washington, DC.
Hon. Nancy Pelosi, Speaker, House of Representatives, Washington, DC.

DEAR Mr. President, Leader Schumer and Speaker Pelosi: As 44 mayors representing communities across 20 states and the District of Columbia, we are writing to urge Congress to prioritize them in the Build Back Better package, specifically:

1. Strengthen and Expand the Low-Income Housing Tax Credit (Housing Credit). The Housing Credit is our nation’s primary tool for creating and preserving affordable housing and a critical building block to achieve multiple goals from the Build Back Better agenda, including clean energy, resiliency, better physical and mental health outcomes, child development, and racial justice and economic opportunity. Further, Congress must act to increase Housing Credit authority this year or we will see a cut to production with the expiration of the temporary increases in the credit that were enacted in December 2017 and 2018, which will happen at the end of this year. States are also increasingly becoming bond-cap constrained and lowering the 50 percent bond-financing test to be bond-cap constrained and lowering the 50 percent bond-financing test to 40 percent. Results in a loss in critical immediate production for these communities. In all, the production provisions proposed by the House would create an additional 1.4 million and has benefited 5.5 million people and generate 2 million jobs.

2. Include Robust Funding for the HOME Investment Partnerships (HOME) and Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) Programs. HOME and CDBG are proven tools in helping states and communities address their most pressing housing challenges, providing states and localities with the necessary flexibility and resources. Currently, Build Back Better includes $34.77 billion for HOME—which estimates predict could help state and local governments develop nearly 107,000 new affordable housing units, while also providing tenant-based rental assistance to over 1,000,000 people and $3.5 billion for CDBG. HOME and CDBG are smart investments that leverage billions more in public and private dollars and jumpstart the fact that HOME leverages more than $5.40 in public and private funds for every dollar of HOME funding and has supported roughly 1.9 million jobs and generated $20 billion in local economic activity, according to the HOME Coalition’s most recent analysis. Likewise, every dollar of CDBG leverages $4.69 in public and private sources and has helped millions of people improve their bank accounts and cause more confusion, more frustration, and more heartache at the worst possible time.

3. Provide Housing Stability for Families by Investing in Housing Choice Vouchers (HCV) and Project-Based Rental Assistance (PBRA). We strongly support the $90 billion housing investment in HCVs and PBRA passed by the House Financial Services Committee in recognition of the critical importance of increasing the availability of affordable housing for those with the greatest needs—people experiencing homelessness and the lowest incomes. Taken together, transformative investments in HCVs and PBRA would mark the beginning of the elimination of homelessness once and for all. It would also provide a level of housing resilience that would enable renters to weather the next recession, pandemic, or disaster.

Our country cannot address poverty without also addressing our homelessness and housing instability. The investments in this bill to support families and build back our infrastructure will be diminished if families cannot afford a place to call home.

With a bold commitment to housing, the federal government can effectively end housing instability in our country. The federal government has the opportunity to make that aspiration a reality.

Thank you for your time and leadership.

Sincerely,
Mayor Kathy Sheehan, Albany, NY; Mayor Justin M. Wilson, Alexandria, VA; Mayor Esther Manheimer, Asheville, NC; Mayor Lacey Beatty, Beaverton, OR; Mayor Lynne Robinson, Bellingham, WA; Mayor Seth Fleetwood, Bellingham, WA; Mayor Jesse Arreguin, Berkeley, CA; Mayor Alan Casavant, Biddeford, ME; Mayor Kim Janey, Boston, MA; Mayor David Pershing, Bremerton, WA; Mayor Joseph Collins, Carson City, NV; Mayor James Brainard, Carmel, IN; Mayor Lori Lightfoot, Chicago, IL; Mayor Andrew Ginther, Columbus, OH; Mayor Michael B. Mr. President, I come to the floor because many of my colleagues—29 have joined a bill that myself and Senator Young sponsored, and, I think, 132 Members in the House of Representatives joined, all saying we need to invest more in affordable housing. Why do we need to invest more in affordable housing?

If you don’t incentivize it with the tax credit, people won’t build it, particularly in a place like Seattle, where you can build 20 things other things and get a whole lot more money.

We need a workforce and we need the workforce to be in Seattle. We don’t need them to be four counties away and drive in every day and clog our roads with added traffic that didn’t need to be there. We need to build people close to their homes and nee the flexibility of the affordable housing tax credit, which has been, in my mind, very helpful in being very specific in every community.

You can build affordable housing just for returning veterans. You can build affordable housing for workforce needs. You can build affordable housing just to house previously homeless people. You can build affordable housing to take students who are still going to school and don’t have a place to live, making them have affordable opportunities.

The affordable housing tax credit is the primary tool with which we build housing. Let me say, 90 percent of the affordable housing that gets built in the USA gets built with the tax credit. That is right. Ninety percent of the affordable housing that gets built in the USA gets built with the tax credit. If the housing that is built with—90 percent of affordable housing gets built with the tax credit. That means even if we have other programs in the legislation that we have been talking about today, the Senate-like the home grant program or vouchers or things of that nature—if you don’t use this aspect of the program, you are not going to be able to build that housing, so it has been incredibly popular. That is why we have to increase the amount of capital we are going to put towards the tax incentive. The reason we have to do that is that the United States has a supply shortage. You can ask: Why did we get to this supply shortage? If you ask me, it was really accentuated in the downturn of 2008, when so many more individuals fell out of the job market, creating more demand for affordable housing at that price point. We also, at that point, had a lot of returning veterans, and we had really some very big changes in the diversification of our economy. We had a lot of mental health that had been deinstitutionalized and pushed in a different direction. And we had changes in policy as we saw the challenges of an aging population, really, living a lot longer than people anticipated and they are also needing housing. We had very different issues combined to this dramatic effect of 6.8 million affordable housing shortage in the United States of America. That is the amount of units that we actually have to build.

I wish I could say these problems go away if you just don’t—if you say: Well, if they don’t build the housing, it will just take care of itself. No, it doesn’t take care of itself. If these people end up being homeless, it costs us 25 percent more to deal with them in our hospitals and in jails. In various places, the people who are truly homeless and living on the streets are extra costs. We actually had hospitals support building affordable housing just so people wouldn’t be in their emergency room every day. That is how much it was worth to hospitals to have affordable housing.

So the crisis, as we know in America, is this: There are now 10.5 million Americans who pay more than 50 percent of their income in rent. That means they are rent-burdened. This number has just continued to go up in the charts for years in growth and, basically, continued to exacerbate the problem. Why? Because people will tell you, you can’t spend 50 percent of your income in rent. These dynamics are what is plaguing us in the United States; and it is a problem that we increase the affordable housing tax credit, you are not going to get the relief that you think you can get out of this situation. Our legislation—myself and Senator Young’s legislation—would have increased the tax credit by 50 percent over a 10-year period of time. That would have helped us build a million more units of affordable housing and try to address this problem in the near term.

I hope our colleagues will—as we work through both the proposals that have been part of our infrastructure bill and the reconciliation act—will look and see that we need to include the low-income housing tax credit as part of that proposal. If we don’t have the affordable housing tax credit as part of that proposal, we are not going to have the robust solutions that we need.

While I understand there are very geographic differences across the United States—the East Coast may have some particular aspects that will be very benefited, and the West Coast has other aspects that would benefit—we all can benefit from the low-income housing tax program. That is what is so unique about it. Every State has used it with great flexibility. Every State has used it to solve their problem, and the initiatives have helped us stimulate the economy. It is literally worth billions of dollars of economic activity, and that is why we also should be making this investment.

Many times when our country has faced a downturn in the sixties or seventies or eighties, you would hear a shout-out for housing. People would say: Let’s build housing. Well, you have heard that shout-out in the last decade or so. You literally haven’t for a bunch of different reasons. No one has been trumpeting: We need more housing.

I tell you, Mr. President, we need more affordable housing for those individuals. And I have met so many in my State whose lives have been changed—literally changed.

A woman basically got out of an abusive relationship and moved in with her father in Walla Walla, but knew it wasn’t sustainable. She lived in Billings. Basically, the affordable housing program in Walla Walla got her and her son into a home. She started school. She got a job, changed her life. I have seen it recently in Spokane. Take a couple who basically had become homeless. They separated. They had children that couldn’t all live together. They brought them back together, and in this particular housing project, the promise was made that the partners that everybody in that particular housing would get access not only to help them get a high school education, but a college education as well. That is what you can do with these projects. You can tailor-make them with community partners to address the needs of your specific community.

So this tax credit is bipartisan. It worked successfully. I would say it is one of the most successful programs that we had in the United States for getting affordable housing. Let’s not leave it off the table. Let’s put it in this legislation and make sure it gets to the President’s desk and is signed into law.

I yield the floor.

SENATOR SUSAN COLLINS’ 8,000TH VOTE

Mr. SCHUMER. Madam President, I rise today to recognize a great milestone in this Chamber. Our colleague Susan Collins will in a few moments cast her 8,000th vote.

October 28, 2021

CONGRESSIONAL RECORD — SENATE
I join in extending a warm congratulations to Senator Collins on this terrific achievement and thank her for her many years of public service to her State and country.

And, in deference to this nice occasion, I will all stay in the Chamber and vote quickly so we can leave. I know that is a passion for Senator Collins.

Seriously, we should all try to stay in the Chamber and get this done fast. The ACTING PRESIDENT pro tempore. The Republican leader.

Mr. MCCONNELL. Madam President, January 22, 1997, Senator Collins cast her first rollcall vote for Madeleine Albright to be Secretary of State. From that moment on, she has not missed one single, solitary vote; zero sick days, zero scheduling conflicts. Whether we were voting on war or peace, historic legislation, or the most routine and uncontroversial bills and nominations, the Senator has made sure that Maine got its say every single time.

the battle against the Germans in North Africa.

He wrote his mom:

How are you [mom] and the girls?

He was referring to his sisters. He talked about the hot weather. He sent her $30.

Fast forward a few months later. It is now July 9, 1943. Jim is jumping out of an airplane onto the island of Sicily, a combat jump. In Sicily, it was the largest airborne offensive in U.S. history—a major operation providing support for what was called Operation Husky, more than 170,000 Allied troops that would descend onto the island, drive the Axis powers—mostly the Germans—from the island and open up the Mediterranean front of the European theater. Combat operations, airborne operations, and Jim is 15.

Now, mistakes were made in this very big operation. Communications were sporadic. Friendly fire happened, no doubt killing American service-members—ferocious combat.

Some of these brave paratroopers—many were killed, many missed the landing spot—were scattered all over the land.

When Corporal Schmidt, 15 years old, landed, he came under attack by the Germans. He lost one of his best friends and mentors, fighting together in a foxhole, hand-to-hand fighting. He engaged in combat, killing the enemy. He remembers one young German, a messenger about his age. He actually found the boy’s wallet because he wanted to get in touch with his family after the war to tell them how brave the young German soldier was—tough stuff.

Congratulations. You’re now in the U.S. Navy.

So off to boot camp he went at the age of 16, already a veteran, a serious combat veteran—16 years old, unstoppable, American patriot, wanting to fight for his country in World War II.

Six months later, Jim is on a Navy destroyer deployed. But his age finally caught up with him. Three Bronze Stars for heroism, a battle Infantry Badge, for his actions in North Africa and Sicily. He has already been kicked out of the Navy and Army because he is too young.

Obviously, this young man was hell-bent on serving his country so he found another organization where age didn’t matter. He joined the Merchant Marines, where he remained for the remainder of World War II, serving on an armed resupply ship in the Atlantic, participating in the war until the war was won and wound down.

So the war is over. He is a little older. What do you think he does? Eight months after he turned 18, he enlisted in the U.S. Army.

Now, the Army was gracious and recognized: Hey, we got a combat vet. Yeah, he was only 14. So they brought him in as a sergeant, a D3. And guess what. By luck, he was assigned to occupation duty in Germany with the 508th Paratroop in North Africa and being wounded in the Battle of Sicily.

He was 15.

The newspaper wrote about how Jim had received a commendation in his own grammar school graduation when he was in Sicily.

He wrote back to his grammar school and said:

It will be impossible (for me to attend eighth grade graduation) as I am rather busy with the job of hunting Germans and Italians.

This alone makes a great story.

Grade school graduation was missed because he was fighting in Europe and North Africa and Italy. But there is more to this story.

Shortly after being home, you guessed it, Jim walked into a Navy recruiting office. Again, nobody in the Navy asked how old he was.

The recruiter said:

Congratulations. You’re now in the U.S. Navy.

So off to boot camp he went at the age of 16, already a veteran, a serious combat veteran—16 years old, unstoppable, American patriot, wanting to fight for his country in World War II.

Six months later, Jim is on a Navy destroyer deployed. But his age finally caught up with him. Three Bronze Stars for heroism, a battle Infantry Badge, for his actions in North Africa and Sicily.

So he did that duty; then he went to Japan for occupation duty. And then what happened in 1950? The Korean war breaks out. So he is sent to Korea.

As if his service in World War II wasn’t enough, this remarkable story of James Schmidt continues.

He went alongside the U.S. Marines to fight in one of the most brutal, ferocious battles of the 20th century—the Battle of the Chosin Reservoir. It was 30 below zero, 120 communists, People’s Liberation Army soldiers, surrounding 20,000 marines and the Army, soldiers and marines.

It was incredible, horrible odds. And yet the Marines and the Army persevered, despite brutal combat situations, relentless Chinese communist troops attacking, attacking, attacking.

He was wounded, broke his shoulder again, led his men in many counterattacks, and got the rest of his men out of the Chosin Reservoir.

So, Mr. President, you are seeing that this is remarkable, but we are not done.

He survived Chosin Reservoir. He survived the rest of the Korean war. He survived World War II.

Fast-forward another decade, another American conflict, Southeast Asia, and now Jim Schmidt is a master sergeant, Special Forces, in Laos, charged with raising local forces to fight the communist Lao guerillas.

Now he has been in combat in three wars, presented his third award, a Combat Infantry Badge, for his actions in Laos. And, then, it was on to Vietnam, where Jim was the sergeant major in charge of the 7th Special Forces A-Teams and then the 5th Special Forces Group, one of the most famous units of all of the Vietnam war—5th Special Forces, an airborne unit—until he returned to Fort Bragg in 1965.

So here is what he has done so far for his country: two Silver Stars for heroism, three Bronze Stars for heroism, two Purple Hearts.

He wanted back in the action, but the Army said: Nope. You are going to go into recruiting.

According to one of his daughters, he was never much of a handshaker and did not like the idea of riding a desk. So, despite the heroism, despite the service, he opted to retire from the military, and then he joined Air America, which was doing covert operations in Vietnam, until 1967, when he finally decided to settle down with his wife Peggy and focus on another critically important task for our country: raising three strong, wonderful, beautiful daughters.

Mr. President, that is something I can certainly relate to.

Now, I want to say that this is an amazing story. Unfortunately, Jim was not always treated like the hero he was. During his Vietnam service, his father died—the World War II veteran I mentioned earlier—and so he rushed home through the San Francisco airport to attend his father’s funeral. And, unfortunately, he was in uniform... and, unfortunately, was jeered and booed by many in the airport.

Can you imagine that, America? Think about that. What a shameful period for our Nation that so many failed to honor American heroes like Jim. But fortunately, that didn’t last long for our country. But we should never forget that.

But I am digressing because he wasn’t just an American hero in uniform, he was also the head of a State. He was engaged in their activities—his three daughters—taught them to be determined, independent, hard-working young women where the sky was the limit. He didn’t let them sleep in. That was the military dad, I am sure.

He and his wife Peggy, a registered nurse, came to Alaska in 1993 to be close to one of their daughters, who is now a renowned chef—actually, one of the best in all of Alaska, a lodge owner in Alaska, Kirsten Dixon. His other daughter Catherine is now a successful real estate broker, and his other daughter Jami lives in the DC area, who is also working in the intelligence field, like her older man did. What a great legacy for Jim and Peggy and the whole family.

So Jim loves Alaska, the freedom in Alaska, the frontier spirit, the fact that he was in a State with more veterans per capita than any State. And he is certainly one of the great ones that we have in our State.

At 94 years old, he is surrounded by his children, his grandchildren, his great-grandchildren. According to his family, like most heroes in our country, he doesn’t talk much about the war—still really doesn’t—and his full story was only fully revealed when one of his grandchildren, Henry, began to get interested and did a podcast about his grandfather and shared it on social media—his amazing grandfather. Since then, the letters have flooded in, people wanting to know about this incredible American hero who missed his grade school and college because he was doing airborne operations in Sicily.

Just the other night he was on a Zoom with a 15-year-old because he always has time for veterans, and he gives advice to young people who are interested in serving in the military and hearing his story and getting advice. Jim says that he doesn’t believe the military is for everybody, but if you have the calling, then you should follow your passion even if you are young—but, I would caution, not 14. But Jim should know.

Mr. President, this is a remarkable American story, one for the history books, and it is one of the reasons, many, many so many people in my State have served and sacrificed for their country—everyday heroes we call them—in Alaska. There are heroes all around us, and certainly Jim is one of the most important, one of the most prominent, one of the most humble. We are proud to have him in our State.

We thank him and his wife Peggy and his wonderful three daughters and their whole family for sharing Jim with us, and we want to thank Jim for his incredible tenacity, patriotism, remarkable service, and example.

And, Jim, we want to thank you once again for being our Alaskan of the Week. Happy Veterans Day to you and all the veterans back home in Alaska. I yield the floor.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Ohio.

Mr. PORTMAN. Mr. President, well, first, I must get to hear the story of Jim Schmidt of Alaska—what an amazing American hero. I thank the Senator from Alaska, Senator SULLIVAN, for sharing that with all of us.

INFRASTRUCTURE BILL

Mr. PORTMAN. Mr. President, I am here on the floor tonight to talk about the growing epidemic of drug addiction and the issue that is occurring in my home State of Ohio and, really, all the States represented here in this Chamber and how we need to redouble our efforts.

It is a heartbreaking story because we were making so much progress prior to the COVID—19, but, now, underneath the pandemic, we have this epidemic that is growing.

But before I get into that, I must talk first about what is going on this evening in the U.S. House of Representatives. Just this past evening, at the beginning of August, we passed in this Chamber bipartisan legislation to finally address our infrastructure shortfalls in this country. Presidents of both parties had been proposing it for many years. Congress had talked about it a lot, but we had never been able to figure out a way forward.

So a group of 10 Republicans and 10 Democrats got together and said: We are going to grow this from the middle out and figure out how to address our infrastructure challenges and do so in a bipartisan way.

We did that. The President of the United States, President Biden, supported our effort, and we were able to get that legislation across the floor here in the U.S. Senate—not without some challenges and some changes and modifications. But we were able to do it because it was great for America, great for every State represented here, because it was repairing roads and bridges, fixing our waterways, our water infrastructure, our infrastructure that is considered digital, which would be high-speed internet, to make sure it is available to all of our citizens.

So there are a lot of things that people had talked about for a long time and said they were for, but finally we were able to actually put it into writing and get it done. And it passed this Chamber with a big vote: 69 votes. Rarely does something so significant pass this Chamber with that kind of bipartisan support.

Unfortunately, it has languished in the House of Representatives for almost 3 months, since early August. And the reason it has languished over there isn’t because it doesn’t have the votes. It is really more because people would like to use it as a hostage for something they want even more, and that is just wrong.

So I urge my House colleagues, Democrat and Republican alike, to put aside the partisanship and focus on the substance of the bill and pass it. It has been held political hostage by some of my Democratic colleagues, particularly progressives in the House, want even more. It is not that they are opposed to infrastructure. They know this is needed. They know it is good for their constituents and it is good for our country. It is because they want even more to pass a massive, new spending bill called sometimes the Build Back Better bill, sometimes the reconciliation bill, sometimes the $3.5 trillion tax-and-spend bill. That is totally separate from infrastructure, but that is really what this bill will pass.

So they know that a lot of moderate Democrats support the infrastructure bill. They need those moderate Democrats to support the massive tax-and-spend bill. So, in effect, they have held it hostage. They have held the infrastructure bill to move unless they get commitments on the bill they really want, which is the tax-and-spend bill. I think that is just wrong.

So I urge the Speaker of the House and my colleagues in the House to go ahead and vote on that legislation this evening. I know there has been back-and-forth all day about what will happen. All I can say is it is the right thing to do for our country.

When you think about it, the infrastructure bill is exactly what we need right now. Not only do we have a long-term challenge that everybody knows about and that we have been talking about for literally decades, but for the problems we face going forward in our economy, it is very effective.

Inflation: Everybody is concerned about it, and they should be. The cost of gasoline at the pump is up about 42 percent this year compared to last year. It is really tough on middle-class families because, although paychecks may have gone up a little bit, inflation has gone up higher. So it is essentially a tax on so many of our working families in this country. But everything is up: food, clothing, furniture, everything.

So inflation is driven, in part, by the stimulus spending. You remember that, back in March, there was a big bill, $1.9 trillion. And many of us said, including some Democrats and including, famously, Larry Summers, who is the former Democratic Secretary of the Treasury for President Obama and in the Clinton administration: If you do this massive amount of spending, an unprecedented amount of stimulus spending, this would create inflation because you are putting many more dollars into people’s pockets, into the economy, at a time when the economy... is already beginning to improve, and it will be chasing fewer and fewer goods, and that will raise inflation.

And that is exactly what has happened, which is bad for everybody, particularly, again, lower and middle-income families because this hidden tax, really, on everything they buy and, again, taking away the power of their slight increase in wages that we have seen. In fact, when you look at the data, it looks like wages have actually gone down in the past year. They have fallen because, after inflation, wages are worth less.

So that is where we are right now. And the infrastructure bill is actually counterinflationary. Why do I say that? Because it doesn’t invest in the way that the tax-and-spend bill invests. It is not about stimulus. It is about longer term investments in hard capital assets.

So the economists look at that—including conservative economists at the American Enterprise Institute, including Doug Holtz-Eakin, who is a former CBO Director here and a more conservative economist—and they say: Now, this actually will be counterinflationary because you are investing in long term capital assets, rebuilding jobs, making our economy more efficient, making it more productive; and, therefore, in this instance now where we have this high inflation, it is a good thing to do.

No, we have had a lot of natural disasters in this country, particularly in the last year. About one out of every three Americans, apparently, lives in an area that has been subject to one of these natural disasters. It is the hurricanes. It is the floods. It is the wildfires. It is something that is affecting our country in a major way right now, and we hear about it virtually every week.

This legislation, the infrastructure bill, makes provisions for provisions for infrastructure to mitigate the damage from these natural disasters. So it is a well-timed bill in that sense as well.

There is an historic commitment to ensuring that we are not just talking about climate change and natural disasters but actually putting in place things that will protect communities from these natural disasters—whether it is forest fires, whether it is hurricanes, whether it is tornadoes, or other natural disasters. That is in this legislation, the infrastructure bill.

And, finally, what is one of the biggest issues we face right now in terms of our economy? The supply chain crisis. Go to a store in your community, and you will see that the shelves are a lot more bare than they used to be. And there is not much on the shelves because we have this supply chain problem, kind of a bottleneck.

We know the legislation helps in that regard because it provides funding for infrastructure, including our ports: our ports of entry, our land ports, but also our seaports that are now in a situation where they are jammed with more and more container ships, and, yet, they can’t process them quickly enough.

So what the experts tell me is that the $2 billion in the infrastructure bill will help to improve those facilities, improve their operations, improve the intermodal connections—in other words, the truck connections, the train connections—to our ports and help move along this supply chain issue that we are currently facing.

The other focus that I had tonight was about climate change and natural disasters. So it is a well-timed bill in that sense as well.

At the same time, again, it is just needed because our infrastructure has fallen behind, particularly fallen behind other countries. And, therefore, making our economy more efficient and more productive is a good thing. Again, that is why it got 69 votes here in the U.S. Senate and why we need to pass it.

It is totally different from the tax-and-spend reconciliation bill, which, again, is massive new spending, massive tax increases, which will add to inflation; and at a time when we have such high debts and deficits, it will add to our record level of debt and deficit. It puts into our economy at a time when we cannot afford it.

We just got the numbers in from the economic growth in the last quarter. They just came in today: 0.5-percent growth. Very disappointing. Well below expectations.

So we know economic growth is slowing. We know inflation is rising. We know that this is not the time for us to put forward this kind of legislation because it will exacerbate the inflationary pressures, but it also causes us, at a time of debt and deficits, to see big increases in spending.

And, finally, again, at a time when our economy is, unfortunately, not performing the way we would like to see it—it is slowing down; it has been the worst economic quarter we have seen since 2000—we need to make sure we were not adding new taxes to our economy at this time. So the timing is bad.

By the way, the infrastructure bill has no new tax increases. The infrastructure bill is not about immediate spending. It is about long-term spending over 5, 10, 15 years for capital assets—again, counterinflationary.

So they are very different proposals, aren’t they? I call on my colleagues in the House tonight to pass this legislation, get the infrastructure bill done. Don’t hold it hostage with something else. That is not how we operate. Do the right thing for your constituents and for our country.

The other focus that I had tonight was on our opioid and, more broadly, drug addiction crisis we face in this country and, unfortunately, at a time with healthcare problems that has distracted a lot of our attention, understandably. But underneath that pandemic there has been this epidemic that has been going on, and that is, again, this addiction issue.

Back in 2018, we saw a reduction in addiction and, specifically, in the way it is typically measured, which is the number of overdose deaths that occur per year. It was a 22-percent decrease in overdose deaths in my home State of Ohio, after decades of increases every single year—22 percent in 1 year.

2019 was also a good year, where we saw significant success in getting people into treatment, getting people into recovery, reducing the use of drugs through prevention—all the things that we have been wanting to do.

So much of that came from work that had been done in the past, because we did enact new legislation and provided billions of more dollars for prevention, for treatment, for recovery.

And we had a lot of great activity going on at the State level, at our local level, as well.

We had more Narcan being provided to our communities, which is this miracle drug that reverses the effects of an overdose. We had very good success in getting more people not just into treatment but into longer-term recovery, where there is a greater chance of them succeeding and not relapsing.

We did that through some legislation called the Comprehensive Addiction and Recovery Act, bipartisan legislation passed here in this Chamber. Senator WHITEHOUSE joined with me on that as a coauthor. And then we also passed additional legislation to get more money directly to the States. And we found that we were, again, making progress, and then the pandemic hit.

Unfortunately, we now know from the latest data from the Centers for Disease Control—the CDC—that under the cover of this pandemic, the drug epidemic has not only not gone away, it has actually gotten much worse.

Overdose deaths rose by nearly 30 percent between March 2020 and March 2021—the latest year for which we have data; 30-percent increase in overdose deaths.

This is very discouraging and heart-breaking really because that means much more devastation for our communities, families being broken apart, people not being able to achieve their God-given ability in life. Thousands more being lost; 86,779 more individuals—moms and dads, sons and daughters, friends and loved ones—lost their lives to overdose deaths during that yearlong period, the most recent year that we have data for. It is the worst year we have had in the history of our country in terms of overdose deaths.

Again, we have been rightfully focused on COVID-19. But, particularly, for some time now, we have been talking about addiction and, more broadly, counterinflationary legislation that is the infrastructure bill. And the infrastructure bill, that is counterinflationary, and it is about our infrastructure, it is about our supply chain, it is about our economy, it is about our country, it is about our communities, and it is about our lives.
as the COVID pandemic is beginning to get better, the Delta variant finally beginning to affect our communities less, we have got to refocus ourselves on this addiction issue. If we don’t do it, we are going to continue to see this tragic epidemic take away more lives.

In 47 States and the District of Columbia, the overdose rate went up during this last year, including a 26-per cent increase in my home State of Ohio. In some States, by the way, the increase was as high as 85 percent. And I know the Members of the Senate who represent those States are well aware of that and would join me in saying we have to figure out a way; we have got to figure out a way.

So what is the way forward?

Well, part of it is to get back to what we know works. The Comprehensive Addiction and Recovery Act and the bill called the 21st Century Cures Act—both signed into law in 2016—again, provided billions of new dollars for addiction treatment and longer-term recovery, for Narcan to help our first responders. And that worked, and we made progress. So let’s get back to that and redouble our efforts there.

But it is not enough to do more. And we have new legislation we have introduced we think will do that. It is called the Comprehensive Addiction and Recovery Act 2.0—I am sorry, 3.0. We have already done the first bill and 2.0. Now, we are at 3.0. It adds additional help, but also has some new provisions in addition to funding those that we know work, and that is extremely important as well.

By the way, in these overdose deaths, we know that, increasingly, it is synthetic opioids that is causing the deadly outcome. Fentanyl, in particular, which is a synthetic form of heroin or other opioids that, for a long time, was being produced in China and then sent to us. Now, this poison was coming into our communities by our own Postal Service.

So several years ago, we wrote legislation to deal with that called the STOP Act, and it actually has been quite effective to keep these drugs from coming in through the United States mail system. At that time, our mail system didn’t provide the kind of screening that the private carriers did, like FedEx or UPS or DHL, and so people who were traffickers chose to use our mail system. This poison was coming in through our communities by our own U.S. Postal Service.

Through our southern border.

So, today, what the experts will tell you is this deadly fentanyl is coming in primarily through the U.S.-Mexico border. It is cheaper than ever, very inexpensive. Sometimes it is produced in Mexico using precursors that come from China. It is being pressed into pills, often, so people don’t know it is fentanyl. The pill may be Xanax. The pill may be Percocet. People think they are getting pain relief or anxiety relief when, in fact, they are getting fentanyl; and the tragic result of that is, again, more and more overdose deaths.

We had a roundtable discussion recently where we talked about the issue of the border and what was happening and the fact that so many people now are coming over, but also so much contraband, including these drugs. And we had a witness whose name was Virginia Krieger. This was last week: Virginia told us her very tragic story about her daughter, who thought she was taking a Percocet for pain because that is what the pill said. And she died of an overdose. And it was determined after the fact that, in fact, she had died of fentanyl because some evil scientist—perhaps in Mexico—had changed the pill, made these pills, probably to try to get her addicted to this powerful drug fentanyl, and, in fact, she had ingested it, taken it, and it had caused her to overdose and die.

Virginia—God bless her—has taken the depth of her grief. Tiffany Leigh Robertson, and channeled that grief into something positive. She is going out to the schools now and talking to young people—I see our pages going out to the schools now and talking to young people—and saying: Every drug, every pill that is not from a pharmaceutical company—to step forward and aggressively Intercept and destroy these drugs—and this CARA 3.0 that we have introduced we believe that the most progress can be made on the demand side. So, yes, we need to do a better job at the southern border. It is outrageous what is happening now. So many drugs are coming across at record levels. The apprehensions of fentanyl are at record levels. In fact, enough fentanyl has been apprehended this year alone to kill every man, woman, and child in America.

That is how deadly the drug is.

But, ultimately, we have to deal with the demand for that drug in this country. As long as we have this insatiable demand, it is going to be difficult to stop it through the supply side or even making these drugs illegal.

So that is why I think we need new legislation to build on the Comprehensive Addiction and Recovery Act, to build on what we have done previously, and this CARA 3.0 that we have introduced with Senator WHITEHOUSE can help on that. It does so by addressing three important areas: research and education, treatment and recovery, and criminal justice reform.

First, it will bolster our work to prevent drug abuse before it happens, through funding, through research and education. To me, there needs to be a national awareness campaign. It would be money well spent. And I believe we could use the money that we would appropriate here to leverage a lot more private interest in this, to get the private companies—like the pharmaceutical companies—to step forward and help us in a true national drug awareness campaign.

Second, research and development. We need to have better pain relief drugs in this country. We are still relying on things like Percocet, as I mentioned, and other opioids, prescription forms, that we have been relying on for decades. It is time to actually move forward with the research and development of alternative pain treatments that don't lead to addiction as opioids do. There has been some progress there, but not nearly enough, and it needs more help.

Third, in terms of treating substance abuse, our bill builds on what works by doubling down on proven evidence-based addiction treatment methods while expanding treatment options for groups that are currently vulnerable to addiction, including young people, new and expecting moms, rural communities, communities of color. And it will make permanent the expanded telehealth options for addiction treatment that were temporarily created in response to the social distancing required by COVID-19. This is an exciting opportunity because it turns out, during COVID-19, when we had to rely more on telehealth, there was actually a lot of success in getting people into treatment.

Now, it wasn't as good as having your recovery coach there with you and your, perhaps, other recovering addicts with you to give you the support you need. Like Methadone, to a greater number of patients and change the law to allow those drugs to be prescribed via telehealth for greater use of access.

Part of the telehealth we are looking for is if you have a medication-assisted treatment plan, then you can use telehealth out of your home, or even over the internet—to be able to get your prescription. There needs to be safeguards in that. We need to be sure the first time a prescription is given, there is a face-to-face contact and make sure that it is not being abused, but this can be quite helpful.

Finally, CARA 3.0 reforms our criminal justice system to ensure that those struggling with addiction, including our warriors and those treated with fairness and compassion by the law, putting them on a path to recovery instead of a downward spiral of substance abuse.

When someone comes out of one of our prisons or jails and comes out as an addict and there is not treatment paid for, way too often that person, of course, relapses and begins to use again, gets back into criminal activity, and gets right back in the criminal justice system. That doesn't help anybody. It certainly doesn't help the taxpayer because the cost is $30 to $35,000—probably more at the Federal level—to incarcerate someone.

And when they get out, they are just creating more crimes in the community. It is worth putting some emphasis on treatment while someone is in prison if they are suffering from addiction and, certainly, when they get out, getting them into treatment and recovery programs to get them back on their feet.

By the way, we need these people in our workforce right now. We have always needed them, but we particularly do now. This is a win-win for our economy and for the addict.

CARA and CARA 2.0 have given States and local communities new resources and authorities to make a real difference in our States. CARA 3.0, this new bill, renews and strengthens those programs and, given the recent spike in addiction, provides a significant boost in funding as well.

When added with existing CARA programs authorized through 2023, we would be investing over $1 billion a year to address addiction, part of the epidemic, putting us on a path toward brighter future free from addiction. It is money well spent, in my view. It is necessary. Again, it is going to help to bring our families back together, get people back to work, and ensure that our communities are not being devastated by crime that is committed in relation to these drug issues.

I believe these two bills—the FIGHT Fentanyl Act we talked about and CARA 3.0—will make a difference in addressing this crisis of addiction our country now faces that has been made even worse during the time of the pandemic. A lot of our victims of this addiction crisis are suffering in silence.

I urge my colleagues: Let’s act now. Let’s bring this to the light. Let’s allow more people to get into treatment, longer-term recovery. Let’s be sure we are making fentanyl illegal in all of its forms. Let’s, without delay, go to work to once again do what we know works because we turned the tide on addiction.

We began to turn it in 2018, 2019. Let’s get back to that. We will save lives and give so many more Americans the ability to achieve their God-given potential.

I yield the floor.

PROTECTING STUDENT ATHLETES FROM CONCUSSIONS ACT OF 2021

Mr. DURBIN. Mr. President, as our students return to in-person instruction, they also will return to school sports. We encourage our students to be active and play school sports to promote healthy habits, team-building skills and socialization, which are especially important after a year of remote learning due to the COVID-19 pandemic. Yet every year, more than 140,000 estimated student athletes sustain a concussion, and that is just the reported count. You can be sure that many more go unreported and untreated.

The health benefits of competing in school sports are undermined if students are staying out on the field after an injury. The evidence is clear. Unfortunately, many student athletes return to play prematurely, and there is growing evidence that untreated concussions can have detrimental, long-term effects on their health and academic performance.

That is why last week I reintroduced the Protecting Student Athletes from Concussions Act. My bill would direct states to develop concussion safety plans for public schools that include a concussion safety awareness component. Certain States, like Illinois, already have such procedures in place, but it is high time we make this true for all States. By equipping our schools and communities with evidence-based guidance for responding to concussions, we can keep our students and their futures safe.

The bill also would require States to adopt a "when in doubt, sit it out" policy. The possibility that a student athlete has suffered a concussion, their health and safety ought to be the No. 1 priority. That means, if an athlete is suspected of having sustained a concussion, they should sit out and not be allowed to return to play the same day. They should return to play only once evaluated and cleared by a qualified healthcare professional.

Let's be clear: A concussion is a traumatic brain injury that affects brain function. It is, by no means, something we can simply shake or walk off. Getting your "bell rung," like they used to say in my day, is a serious threat to a person. The still-developing brains of children make them more susceptible to injury, making concussions all the more dangerous.

A "when in doubt, sit it out" policy, endorsed by the American College of Sports Medicine and the American Academy of Neurology, will put student athletes in the hands of qualified healthcare professionals. It will prevent student athletes from experiencing successive injuries by staying in the game when they are not fit. It will give student athletes time to heal and help ensure that short-term symptoms do not become long-term effects.

As we return to in-person instruction, we must use common-sense and evidence-based approaches to ensure student safety. For school sports, this means we have to put the necessary procedures for preventing, detecting, responding to, and treating concussions in place. This bill would help do that.

It is why my bill is endorsed by the American College of Sports Medicine; American Academy of Neurology; National Football League (NFL); National Basketball Association (NBA); Major League Baseball (MLB); National Hockey League (NHL); National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA); American Academy of Sports Physical Therapy; American Physical Therapy Association; Easterseals; Illinois High School Association; National Association of School Psychologists; National Association of Secondary School Principals; Disability Rights Network; National Interscholastic Athletic Administrators Association; National Parent Teacher Association; Pop Warner Little Scholars; U.S. Soccer Federation; USA Cheer; U.S.A. Football; Safe Kids World Wide; and Sports & Fitness Industry Association.

I hope my colleagues will join me in this common-sense, evidence-based approach to protecting student athletes. Thank you.

AFGHANISTAN

Mr. GRASSLEY. Mr. President, yesterday, in a hearing in the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, Ranking Member RISCH, called out the State Department for its apparent lack of action in helping those Americans and Afghan allies who are still stuck in Afghanistan.

It has been 2 months since the withdrawal of all American military and diplomatic presence in the country in the wake of the Taliban’s total takeover of that country. In the past week or so, the number of Americans reportedly still in the country has grown, not shrunk. We have gone from around 100 to over 400.

Now, I know Americans are not flocking to Taliban controlled Afghanistan, so why does this number keep going up?

I understand that Americans are not required to register with the State Department and that they would not have a reliable, fixed list of Americans at the start of this crisis. But I find it hard to believe that Americans waited 2 months after being told that their government was going to evacuate them to report Americans and Afghan allies who need to be evacuated.

The State Department set up special e-mail addresses and issued guidance on how to report Americans and Afghans who need to be evacuated. My office heard from many Iowans concerned about those they knew in Afghanistan, and my staff followed the directions from the State Department, forwarding the contact information.

For the most part, all I ever heard back was a confirmation that the message was received. I am starting to wonder if these went into a black hole?

I did not expect that the State Department would devote time and effort to keeping me informed given that presumably it was all hands on deck to evacuate those in the country and make arrangements for them.

However, 2 months later, I don’t see much progress.

Then there are reports that efforts by brave former special forces and other Americans who picked up where their government left off to evacuate Americans and Afghan allies have not received the support they needed from the State Department. Is the State Department just washing their hands of this mess?

I shared with Senator Risch information I passed on to the State Department about 98 Afghan allies known to Iowans to need help as their lives were in danger, after the Taliban takeover.

I am only aware of one that has been evacuated.

I know that many have not even been contacted by the State Department.

I am glad that Ranking Member RISCH entered this information into the RECORD along with information from 24 other Senators, totaling 16,688 cases.

That is just one quarter of the Senate, so I know there are many more cases out there.

It is time to hear what the State Department is doing to get the remaining Americans home and to process the cases of Afghan allies so those who helped us and whose lives are at risk can get to safety.

VOTE EXPLANATION

Mr. SANDERS. Mr. President, I was absent for Senate vote No. 447, the vote on the motion to invoke cloture on Executive Calendar No. 471, Beth Robinson, of Vermont, to be United States Circuit Judge for the Second Circuit. I would like the record to reflect that had I been present, I would have voted yes.

30TH ANNIVERSARY OF OSCE’S OFFICE OF DEMOCRATIC INSTITUTIONS AND HUMAN RIGHTS

Mr. CARDIN. Mr. President, I rise to commemorate the 30th anniversary of the creation of the Organization for Security and Cooperation in Europe’s—OSCE—Office of Democratic Institutions and Human Rights—ODIHR—one of the world’s most preeminent and comprehensive human rights protection bodies.

In 1990–1991, during the signing of the Charter of Paris for a New Europe that created ODIHR, a spirit of “profound change and historic expectations” prevailed among the United States, nations of Europe, and the Soviet Union.
Revolutionary for their time, heads of state and governments resolved to “build, consolidate and strengthen democracy as the only system of government of our nations.” Further, by affirming that government’s first responsibility is to protect the “protection and promotion of human rights,” they explicitly linked the full attainment of those rights with “the foundation of freedom, justice and peace” and set the standard for relations and security within and among nations.

Now, I am deeply concerned that the fundamental freedoms that ODIHR was founded to safeguard are in peril.

Authoritarianism is on the rise in Europe. Credible reports allege there are more than 750 political prisoners in Belarus, many detained for participating peacefully in protest of the fraudulent elections of August 2020 and the brutal government crackdown that followed. In Hungary, Viktor Orbán’s administration continues its unprecedented consolidation of Hungary’s media, even as opposition figures organize to resist him. In many countries across the OSCE area, we have witnessed an alarming rise in anti-Semitism, persecution of minorities and other intolerances, and violence against women. These scourges have worsened the conditions imposed by the COVID-19 pandemic that disproportionately affect the most vulnerable in our communities.

With these and other challenges in mind, ODIHR’s valuable work to assist nations to live up to their commitments is more relevant and more needed than ever.

ODIHR is empowered by states to ensure respect for human rights, fundamental freedoms and the rule of law, and to promote and strengthen democratic institutions and tolerance. ODIHR actively partners with OSCE’s 57 participating states, civil society, and international organizations to support human rights defenders, enhance the independence of judiciaries, and promote human-rights-based policing. It offers legislative reviews and develops tools to support local government officials, including the Words into Action project, which enhances social inclusion within local communities and for which I proudly help secure funding.

The most visible demonstration of ODIHR’s collaboration with the United States is perhaps in the field of election observation, where its methodology is rightly seen as the gold standard in international election observation. Since its founding, ODIHR, the Department of State, and the U.S. Congress, through the OSCE Parliamentary Assembly, have deployed thousands of American citizens and legislators to observe the conduct of elections across the OSCE area, including in the United States, and have generally pledged in 1990 to hold free and fair elections. Election observation has been recognized as one of the most transparent and methodical ways to encourage states’ commitment to democratic standards and is a hallmark of ODIHR’s work.

For nearly 30 years, ODIHR has organized Europe’s largest elections reviews. For instance, the Human Dimension Implementation Meeting—HDIM—gathering thousands of representatives of governments, parliaments, and civil society for 2 weeks around the same table to review progress on human rights commitments. Unfortunately, in some cases, those reviews were left off the plate this September. Russia blocked consensus to hold the meeting, thereby denying the OSCE region’s nearly 1 billion citizens of a meaningful and sustained opportunity to hold their governments to account.

In September, Russia also prevented ODIHR from deploying a full and independent election observation mission to observe its Duma elections. Likewise, Russia was responsible for the closure of OSCE’s border observation mission, which provided valuable insight into the personnel and materiel flowing across Russia’s border into the temporarily occupied areas of eastern Ukraine.

ODIHR’s work is more important and relevant than at any time since its founding at the end of the Cold War. I would like to take a moment to extend my heartfelt appreciation to ODIHR’s 180 staff from 35 countries, upon whose dedication and professionalism we rely as we strive to realize an equitable and just future for all.

ODIHR is not only the human rights arm of the world’s largest regional security organization; it is also the independent body endowed to assist us as we pursue this important goal.

The phrase “Vancouver to Vladivostok” is routinely invoked to describe the organization’s broad geographical reach. However, it is perhaps ODIHR’s “monitoring and comprehensive concept of ‘security,’” which includes military security, economic and environmental cooperation, and human rights, that is its defining characteristic and most important contribution to world peace and the reason why we should all be celebrating ODIHR’s 30th anniversary this year and take steps to ensure its success for years to come.

GENEVA CONSENSUS DECLARATION
Mr. DAINES. Mr. President, this month marks the first anniversary of the Geneva Consensus Declaration on Promoting Women’s Health and Strengthening the Family. The historic coalition that issued this declaration was formed by a diverse group of countries committed to advancing women’s health, protecting life at every stage while affirming that there is no hierarchy between abortion and the commitment to enable women to go safely through pregnancy and childbirth and the commitment “to enable women to go safely through pregnancy and childbirth and the commitment ‘to provide couples with the best chance of having a healthy infant’”.

1. Reaffirm “all are equal before the law,” and “human rights of women are an inalienable, integral, and indivisible part of all human rights and fundamental freedoms”;

2. Emphasize “the equal right of men and women to participate fully and without discrimination in the political, economic, social, cultural, civil, and other spheres of public life”; and that “women and girls must have equal access to quality education, economic resources, and political participation as well as equal opportunities with men and boys for employment, leadership and decision-making at all levels”;

3. Reaffirm the inherent dignity and worth of the human person,” that “every human being has the inherent right to life,” and the commitment “to enable women to go safely through pregnancy and childbirth and provide couples with the best chance of having a healthy infant”; and that “any measures related to abortion within the health system can only be determined at the national or local level according to the national legislative process”;

4. Emphasize that “in no case should abortion be promoted as a method of family planning; and that “any measures related to abortion within the health system can only be determined at the national or local level according to the national legislative process”;

5. Reaffirm that “the child . . . needs special safeguards and care, . . . before as well as after birth” and “special measures of protection and assistance should be taken on behalf of all children,” based on the principle of the best interest of the child; Reaffirm that “the family is the natural and funda-mental group unit of society, and is entitled to protection by society and the State”; that “motherhood and childhood are entitled to special care and assistance,” that “women play a critical role in the family” and women’s “contribution to the welfare of the family and to the development of society”;
6. Recognizing health coverage is fundamental for achieving the Sustainable Development Goals related not only to health and well-being, with further recognition that this is both a state of complete physical, mental and social well-being and not merely the absence of disease or infirmity” that “the predominant focus of healthcare systems on treating illness rather than maintaining optimal health also presents a holistic approach”; and that there are “needs that exist at different stages in an individual’s lifespan,” which together support optimal health across the life course, entailing the provision of the necessary information, skills, and care for achieving the best possible health outcomes and reaching full human potential; and
7. “Reaffirm the importance of national ownership and the primary role and responsibility of governments at all levels to determine their own path towards achieving universal health coverage, in accordance with national contexts and priorities”, preserving human dignity and all the rights and freedoms set forth in the Universal Declaration of Human Rights.

Furthermore, we, the representatives of our sovereign nations do hereby declare in mutual friendship and respect, our commitment to work together to:
Ensure the full enjoyment of all human rights and equal opportunity for women at all levels of political, economic, and public life;
Improve and secure access to health and development gains for women, including sexual and reproductive health, which must always promote optimal health, the highest attainable standard of health, without including abortion;
Reaffirm that there is no international right to abortion, nor any international obligation on the part of States to finance or facilitate abortion, consistent with the long-standing international consensus that each nation has the sovereign right to implement programs and activities consistent with their laws and policies;
Build our health system capacity and mobilize resources to implement health and development programs that address the needs of women and children in situations of vulnerability and advance universal health coverage;
Advance supportive public health policies for women and girls as well as families, including building our healthcare capacity and mobilizing resources within our own countries, bilaterally, and in multilateral fora;
Support the role of the family as foundational to society and as a source of health, support, and care; and Engage across the UN system to realize these universal values, recognizing that, individually we are strong, but together we are stronger.

ADDITIONAL STATEMENTS

RECOGNIZING HINTON MILLS
• Mr. PAUL. Mr. President, as ranking member of the Senate Committee on Small Business and Entrepreneurship, each week I recognize an outstanding Kentucky small business that exemplifies the American spirit and American ingenuity. This week, it is my privilege to recognize a family-owned small business and beloved eastern Kentucky staple, Hinton Mills of Flemingsburg, KY, as the Senate Small Business of the Week.

In 1939, Frank O. Hinton, together with his wife, Maxine, Frank O., who had a passion for raising livestock, added a feed mill in 1956. By 1977, Hinton Mills had added locations in Flemingsburg, Ewing, and May’s Lick. Primarily serving local farmers and supporting local agriculture and tobacco farmers. A fifth location opened in Cynthiana in 2015, enabling Hinton Mills to serve northern and eastern Kentucky.

Today, Hinton Mills continues to thrive as a farm supply store and feed retailer. The family-owned business celebrated its 103rd anniversary in 2021 and is led by the third and fourth generations of Hintons. Family members serve in a number of roles, including Frank O.’s son, Bud Hinton, as president, and Bud’s son, Adam Hinton, as vice president. Led by the ethos of “Faith, Family, Friends, and Farming,” Hinton Mills has grown along with the surrounding area. Their strong sense of family has built a tight-knit, supportive team, with some families employed there for generations. To celebrate its 100th anniversary, Kentucky Gateway Museum Center hosted an exhibit in 2018 to recognize Hinton Mills and their impact on the agricultural community of eastern Kentucky.

Over the past 100 years, the Hinton family has consistently invested in and served their community. They regularly participate in local and regional events, ranging from agricultural fairs and the annual Fleming County FFA Tractor Parade, to hosting their annual weeklong Seed Day customer appreciation event. Hinton Mills champions Kentucky’s agriculture industry, advocating for small agricultural businesses at the local, State, and national level. They are a part of several local business and industry groups, including the Fleming County Chamber of Commerce and Kentucky Retail Federation. Notably, Adam has served on the Kentucky Agricultural Development Board, the Kentucky Retail Federation Board of Directors, and the Kentucky FFA Foundation’s Board of Trustees. Like many small businesses, Hinton Mills rallied to face the challenges caused by the coronavirus pandemic and adapted to continue supporting local farmers as they kept the country fed.

Hinton Mills is a remarkable example of the resilience and adaptability of locally owned small businesses. Small businesses, like Hinton Mills, form the heart of towns across Kentucky and play a critical role in Kentucky’s agricultural industry. Congratulations to Bud, Adam, and the entire team at Hinton Mills. I wish them the best of luck, and I look forward to watching their continued growth and success in Kentucky.

STATEMENTS ON INTRODUCED BILLS AND JOINT RESOLUTIONS

By Mr. Scott of South Carolina

S. 3051. A bill to amend title II of the Social Security Act to repeal the retirement earnings test, and for other purposes; to the Committee on Finance.

Mr. Scott of Florida. Mr. President, older Americans are a vital source of economic strength. Before the pandemic, there were more seniors in the workforce than there were 20 years ago, and men and women age 55 and older lifted the overall labor force participation rate by a substantial percentage. Before the pandemic, there were more seniors in the workforce than there were 20 years ago, and men and women age 55 and older lifted the overall labor force participation rate by a substantial percentage.

The Senior Citizens' Freedom to Work Act, which would repeal the Social Security retirement earnings test. The earnings test is a confusing work disincentive. It says that you lose half your Social Security benefits if you earn more than $18,960. Then it gives your benefits back at full retirement age. The problem is that many seniors know they’re allowed to earn certain amounts, but if they make too much money, but not that they will be replaced later. They treat the earnings test like a 50-percent tax and work less to avoid it.

When I have spoken to small business owners in South Carolina, they’ve made clear to me that the earnings test is in fact a disincentive for many older workers, and it harms their businesses. Older Americans want to earn just enough that they fall right under the threshold so their benefits don’t get cut, which makes it harder for small businesses to hire them even on a part-time basis. It is not surprising that research shows the earnings test reduces labor force participation by more than 3 percent.

The earnings test also deepens inequality. It punishes lower-income seniors who need Social Security benefits and earned income to get by. And if they’re denied benefits and earned income to meet caregiving responsibilities or pressing financial obligations or because you have a lower life expectancy, the earnings test says no, you have to wait until you reach full retirement age, whether that is 65 or 67.

Many seniors just can’t wait that long, and the economy can’t either. The Senior Citizens’ Freedom to Work Act will give these older Americans the freedom and flexibility they need, promote work, and help employers and workers find arrangements that work best for them.

Thank you.

By Mr. Carper:

S. 3104. A bill to amend the Coastal Zone Management Act of 1972 to allow the District of Columbia to receive Federal funding under such Act, and for other purposes; to the Committee on Commerce, Science, and Transportation.

Mr. Carper. Mr. President, today I am introducing legislation to allow the District of Columbia to receive funding and other benefits under the Coastal Zone Management Act. I am pleased to offer this companion legislation to a bill introduced by the Congresswoman from the District of Columbia, Eleanor Holmes Norton.

Few of us realize that 70 percent of the District is located within the coastal plain. Similar to my State of Delaware, sea level rise, upstream sources of water, and degraded infrastructure mean that the District could experience serious future cleanup and repair costs due to flooding, including damage to Federal property, which makes up almost 30 percent of the District.

The National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration, NOAA, reports there has been a 343-percent increase in nuisance flooding in... the District. Since 2006, D.C. has experienced two 100-year flooding events. Scientists predict that tides on the Atlantic coast could rise 2 to 4 feet by the year 2100, causing as much as $7 billion worth of property damage in the District, which would regularly be under threat by flooding. This fact was highlighted by a study released by the nonprofit Climate Central last week. Needless to say, these events will become more and more common due to climate change and sea level rise.

The District of Columbia would be eligible for $1 million or much-needed funding annually to assist in coastal flood-control projects, to combat non-point source water pollution, and to develop special area management plans in areas experiencing environmental justice and/or flood damage.

The National Coastal Zone Management Program, housed in NOAA, was established through the passage of the Federal Coastal Zone Management Act of 1972. At the time, Congress recognized the need to manage the effects of increased growth in the Nation’s coastal zone, which includes jurisdictions bordering the oceans and the Great Lakes.

There are currently 34 jurisdictional coastal zone management programs, including both States and territories. In order for the District of Columbia to participate in the program, Congress must pass this amendment to the Coastal Zone Management Act that would include the District under the definition of a “coastal State.” I ask unanimous consent that the text of the bill I am introducing today be printed in the RECORD following my statement.

There being no objection, the text of the bill was ordered to be printed in the RECORD, as follows:

S. 3108

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

This Act may be cited as the “Flood Prevention Act of 2021”.

SEC. 2. ELIGIBILITY OF DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA TO PARTICIPATE IN THE FEDERAL COASTAL ZONE MANAGEMENT ACT OF 1972.

Section 304(4) of the Coastal Zone Management Act of 1972 (16 U.S.C. 1453(4)) is amended by inserting “the District of Columbia,” after “the term also includes”.

S. 3108. A bill to provide counsel for unaccompanied children, and for other purposes; to the Committee on the Judiciary.

Ms. HIRONO, Mr. President, I rise today to introduce the Fair in Court for Kids Act of 2021. This important legislation would provide all unaccompanied children with legal representation as they go through immigration proceedings. This will protect the legal rights of vulnerable children running from violence, abuse, and gangs, but it will also make our immigration system more efficient.

Five years ago, I traveled to Baltimore, MD, to observe immigration court hearings on the children’s dockets. I watched children who suffered violence and trauma in their home countries, trying to navigate our complex legal system without any support. Leaving young people, children as young as 3, to combat an adversarial government without any understanding why they qualify for a legal immigration status is unacceptable and unconscionable.

I have also had the opportunity to speak to children who were able to secure a legal immigration status with legal support. These children are grateful to have escaped the dangers that drove them to leave home. They also express with certainty that they would not have been able to succeed in their cases if they did not have lawyers representing them.

In immigration court, people seeking relief through our immigration system do not have a right to counsel and often cannot afford counsel who understand online immigration systems and can explain the lifelong ramifications that result from certain decisions. This unfairness is most acute when it comes to unaccompanied children who are trying to escape brutal violence and crushing poverty. Most do not speak English, nor do they have any understanding of our legal system. Yet we expect them to argue their case before immigration court and against trained and skilled ICE attorneys. The Fair in Court for Kids Act would remedy this injustice by providing all unaccompanied children with legal counsel. Attorneys would review the case, advise the child of their legal options, and remain with them throughout their immigration proceedings. Legal counsel would ensure these children have the legal rights and opportunities they are afforded, helping our immigration system protect the people it was meant to support.

In addition to protecting the rights of unaccompanied children, legal counsel will ensure their cases move quicker and more smoothly. Cases with unrepresented children are subject to delays and a slower pace as the judge must repeatedly help the child understand what is going on and help them respond. Children with legal counsel also have a 98 percent appearance rate in court. These efficiencies can only help address our overwhelmed immigration court system, which currently has a 1.4 million case backlog.

I call on my Senate colleagues to help protect unaccompanied children and quickly pass this bill.

S. Res. 431—Supporting the Right of Parents to Be the Leading Voice in the Education of their Children

Mr. SCOTT of Florida (for himself, Mr. BURR, Mrs. HYDE-SMITH, Mr. MCCONNELL, Mr. MARSHALL, Ms. LUMMIS, Mr. RUBIO, Mr. JOHNSON, Mr. BOOZER, Mr. KENNEDY, Mr. RISCH, Mr. CRAPO, Mr. TILLIS, Mr. GRAHAM, Mr. INHOFE, Mr. TUBERVILLE, Mr. HOEVEN, Mr. MORAN, Mrs. BLACKBURN, Mrs. FISCHER, Mr. CRAMER, Mr. LEE, Mr. COTTON, Mr. GRASSLEY, Ms. ERNST, Mr. SCOTT of South Carolina, Mr. BARRASSO, Mr. WICKER, Mr. LANKFORD, and Mr. CORNYN) submitted the following resolution; which was referred to the Committee on Health, Education, Labor, and Pensions:

S. Res. 431

Whereas parents are the first teachers of their children and have the inherent and fundamental right to make decisions regarding the upbringing, education, and care of their children;

Whereas parental involvement in the educational system contributes to a collaborative environment with school administration, teachers, and parents who are entitled to demand accountability from such public servants for policies and actions that affect their children;

Whereas the public meetings of the school board in Loudoun County, Virginia, have become emblematic of the increased engagement by concerned parents across the United States with respect to school policies and educational curricula impacting their children;

Whereas labor organizations representing teachers and school boards have been advocating that administrators and teachers should not listen to parents who express concerns regarding such policies and curricula; whereas school administrators and school board officials have alarmingly implemented policies designed—

(1) to restrict parental involvement at public meetings;
(2) to prohibit parental visitation with children during school hours; and
(3) to limit parental input on policies and race-based curricula taught in the classroom;

Whereas, in a September 2021 letter to President Joseph R. Biden, Jr., the National School Boards Association—

(1) compared grassroots demonstrations and protests by concerned parents against harmful school policies and educational curricula affecting their children to “domestic terrorism and hate crimes” against school boards, administrators, and teachers; and
(2) requested that the President use Federal law enforcement resources and legal authorities designed to address domestic terrorism, such as the authorities provided by the USA PATRIOT Act (Public Law 107–56; 115 Stat. 272), to investigate and prosecute parents who protest against such policies and curricula; was awarded the Medal of Honor for his extraordinary heroism in rescuing two shipmates after a boiler explosion on board the USS San Diego. He survived and continued serving during WWI and WWII until his retirement in 1945.

Today, Telesforo Trinidad holds the distinction of being the first Filipino American and the first and only Asian American in the U.S. Navy to receive a Medal of Honor.

Filipino Americans have also contributed as leaders in important workers’ rights and civil rights movements. In 1965, Larry Itliong, Peter Velasco, and Philip Vera Cruz led Filipino American farm workers to strike, demanding better pay, benefits, and working conditions. The Delano Grape Strike, one of the most pivotal moments in the workers’ rights and labor movements in American history.

Earlier this month, Maria Ressa, a Filipino-American journalist and author, was nominated for the first time for the Nobel Peace Prize. Maria, a “fearless defender of freedom of expression,” was awarded the Nobel Peace Prize for working to expose the abuses of power and the growing authoritarianism in her native country. She also founded Rappler, a digital media company for investigative journalism that has documented how social media is spreading fake news and manipulating public views.

While Filipino American History Month is a time of celebration and commemoration, we must also recognize the disparate impact that the COVID-19 pandemic has had on communities of color, including the Filipino-American community. Approximately one in four Filipino-American adults serve as frontline healthcare workers. High representation in essential work and other socioeconomic factors like living in multigenerational homes, poverty, limited English proficiency, preexisting health conditions, and a lack of health insurance, put these communities at higher risk for COVID-19 transmission. As a result, Filipino-Americans comprise an estimated 32 percent of COVID-19 deaths among people of color; a rate 4 percent of registered nurses nationwide. In spite of the emotional and physical toll of the pandemic on these frontline workers and their families, the Filipino-American community has continued to show its strength and resilience.

During Filipino American History Month, we reflect on the great sacrifices and contributions of generations of Filipino Americans who have helped to shape our Nation. This resolution reminds us that as the United States forges ahead, it is crucial to ensure that future generations can learn from and appreciate the legacies of Filipino Americans, as well as other immigrants and people of color.

SEC. 350C. PETITION FOR DNA TESTING UNDER THE UNIFORM CODE OF MILITARY JUSTICE.

(a) In General.—Subchapter IX of chapter 47 of title 10, United States Code (the Uniform Code of Military Justice), is amended by inserting after section 873 (section 73) the following new section:

"§ 873a. Art 73a. Petition for DNA testing

"(a) In General.—Upon a written petition by an accused sentenced to imprisonment or death for a previous conviction under this chapter (referred to in this section as the 'accused'), the Judge Advocate General shall order DNA testing of specific evidence if the Judge Advocate General finds that all of the following apply:

"(1) The accused asserts, under penalty of perjury, that the accused is actually innocent of the offense for which the accused is sentenced to imprisonment or death.

"(2) The specific evidence to be tested was secured in relation to the investigation or prosecution of the offense charged to the accused.

"(3) The specific evidence to be tested—

"(A) was not previously subjected to DNA testing, and the accused did not knowingly fail to request DNA testing of that evidence in a prior motion for postconviction DNA testing; or

"(B) was previously subjected to DNA testing and the applicant is requesting DNA testing using a new method or technology that is substantially more probative than the prior DNA testing.

"(4) The specific evidence to be tested is in the possession of the Government and has been subject to a chain of custody and retained under conditions sufficient to ensure that such evidence has not been substituted, contaminated, tampered with, replaced, or altered in any respect material to the proposed DNA testing.

"(5) The proposed DNA testing is reasonable in scope, uses scientifically sound methods, and is consistent with accepted forensic practices.

"(6) The applicant identifies a theory of defense that—

"(A) is not inconsistent with an affirmative defense advanced at trial; and

"(B) would establish the actual innocence of the applicant of the offense referenced in the applicant's assertion under paragraph (1).

"(7) If the applicant was convicted following a trial, the identity of the perpetrator was not in dispute.

"(8) The proposed DNA testing of the specific evidence may produce new material evidence that would—

"(A) support the theory of defense referred to in paragraph (6); and

"(B) raise a reasonable probability that the applicant did not commit the offense.

"(9) The Judge Advocate General finds that the applicant will provide a DNA sample for purposes of comparison.

"(10) The petition is made in a timely fashion, subject to the following conditions:

"(A) There shall be a rebuttable presumption of timeliness if the petition is made within five years of the date of the enactment of the National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 2022 or within three years after the date of the entry of judgment under section 866 of this title (article 60c), whichever comes later. Such presumption may be rebutted upon a showing—

"(i) that the applicant's petition for a DNA test is based solely upon information used in a previously decision pertaining to this case (regardless of whether such evidence was introduced at trial), establish by compelling evidence that a new trial would result in the acquittal of the applicant.

"(ii) the evidence to be tested is newly discovered DNA evidence;

"(iii) that the applicant's petition is not based solely upon the applicant's own assertion of innocence and, after considering all relevant facts and circumstances surrounding the petition, a denial would result in a manifest injustice; or

"(iv) upon good cause shown.

"(C) For purposes of this paragraph—

"(i) the term 'incompetence' has the meaning given to that term in section 856b of this chapter (article 76b); and

"(ii) the term 'manifest' means that which is unmistakable, clear, plain, or indisputable and requires no further inference or analysis against timeliness for any petition not

"(b) Appeal of Denial.—The applicant may appeal the Judge Advocate General's finding to the Court of Appeals for the Armed Forces.

"(c) Evidence Inventory; Preservation Order; Appointment of Counsel.—

"(1) Inventory.—The Judge Advocate General shall order the preparation of an inventory of the evidence related to the case for which a petition is made under subsection (a), which shall be provided to the applicant.

"(2) Preservation Order.—To the extent necessary to carry out proceedings under this section, the Judge Advocate General shall direct the preservation of the specific evidence relating to a petition under subsection (a).

"(3) Appointment of Counsel.—The applicant shall be eligible for representation by appellate defense counsel under section 780 of this chapter (article 75b).

"(d) Testing Costs.—The costs of any DNA testing ordered under this subsection shall be paid by the Government.

"(e) Time Limitation in Capital Cases.—

"(1) In General.—Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, the Judge Advocate General shall order any post-testing procedures under subsection (f) or (g), as appropriate.

"(f) Disclosure of Test Results.—Reporting of test results shall be simultaneously disclosed to the Government and the applicant.

"(g) Post-Testing Procedures; Inconclusive and Inculpatory Results.—

"(1) Inconclusive Results.—If DNA test results obtained under section 866 of this title are inconclusive, the Judge Advocate General shall order further testing, if appropriate, or may deny the applicant relief.

"(2) Inculpatory Results.—If DNA test results obtained under this section show that the applicant was the source of the DNA evidence, the Judge Advocate General shall—

"(A) deny the applicant relief; and

"(B) if the DNA test results relate to a State offense, forward the finding to any appropriate State official.

"(h) Post-Testing Procedures; Motion for New Trial or Re resentencing.—

"(1) In General.—Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, the Judge Advocate General shall order further testing, if appropriate, or may deny the applicant relief.

"(2) Standard for Granting Motion for New Trial or Re resentencing.—The applicant's petition for a new trial or resentencing, as appropriate, shall be granted if the DNA test results obtained under this section exclude the applicant as the source of the DNA evidence, or the applicant may file a petition for a new trial or resentencing, as appropriate.

"(i) Relationship to Other Laws.—

"(I) Post-conviction Relief.—Nothing in this section shall affect the circumstances under which a person may obtain DNA testing or post-conviction relief under other provision of law.

"(J) Habeas Corpus.—Nothing in this section shall provide a basis for relief in any Federal habeas corpus proceeding.

Subtitle B—Countering Russian and Other Overseas Kleptocracy Act

SEC. 1710. SHORT TITLES.

This subtitle may be cited as the “Countering Russian and Other Overseas Kleptocracy Act” or the “CROOK Act”.

Congress makes the following findings:

(1) Authoritarian leaders in foreign countries abuse their power to steal assets from state institutions, enrich themselves at the expense of the sovereigns, undermine the development, and use corruption as a strategic tool both to solidify their grip on power and to undermine democratic institutions abroad.

(2) Global corruption harms the competitiveness of United States businesses, weakens democratic governance, fuels terrorist recruitment and transnational organized crime enabling smuggling and human trafficking, and stymies economic growth.

(3) Illicit financial flows often penetrate countries through what appear to be legitimate financial transactions, as kleptocrats launder money, use shell companies, amass offshore wealth, and participate in a global shadow economy.

(4) The Government of the Russian Federation is a leading model of this type of kleptocratic system, using state-sanctioned corruption to both erode democratic governance from within and undermine democracy abroad, thereby strengthening the authoritarian rule of Vladimir Putin.

(5) Corrupt individuals and entities in the Russian Federation, often with the backing and encouragement of political leadership, use stolen money—

(A) to purchase key assets in other countries, often with the retaining monopoly control of a sector;

(B) to gain access to and influence the policies of other countries; and

(C) to advance interests in other countries, particularly those that undermine confidence and trust in democratic systems.

(6) Systemic corruption in the People’s Republic of China, often with the backing and encouragement of political leadership, use stolen money—

(A) to provide unfair advantage to certain People’s Republic of China economic entities;

(B) to increase other countries’ economic dependence on the People’s Republic of China to secure access to the People’s Republic of China’s diplomatic and strategic goals; and

(C) to exploit corruption in foreign governments as an instrument to allow political elites to enable People’s Republic of China state-backed firms to pursue predatory and exploitative economic practices.

(7) Thwarting these tactics by Russian, Chinese, and other kleptocratic actors requires the international community to strengthen democratic governance and the rule of law. International cooperation in combating corruption and illicit finance is vital to such efforts, especially by empowering reformers in foreign countries during historic political openings for the establishment of the rule of law in those countries.

(8) Technical assistance programs that combat corruption and strengthen the rule of law, including through assistance provided by the Department of State’s Bureau of International Narcotics and Law Enforcement Affairs and the United States Agency for International Development, and through programs like the Department of Justice’s Office of Overseas Prosecutorial Development, Assistance and Training and the International Cooperative Law Institute’s Anti-Corruption Assistance Program, can have lasting and significant impacts for both foreign and United States interests.

(9) There currently exist numerous international instruments to combat corruption, kleptocracy, and illicit finance, including—

(A) the Inter-American Convention against Corruption of the Organization of American States, done at Caracas March 29, 1996;

(B) the Convention on Combating Bribery of Foreign Public Officials in International Business Transactions of the Organisation of Economic Co-operation and Development, done at Paris December 21, 1997 (commonly referred to as the “Anti-Bribery Convention”); and

(C) the United Nations Convention against Transnational Organized Crime, done at New York November 15, 2000;

(D) the United Nations Convention against Corruption, done at New York October 31, 2003;

(E) Recommendation of the Council for Further Combating Bribery of Foreign Public Officials in International Business Transactions, adopted November 26, 2009; and

HON. VAN TAYLOR
OF TEXAS
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Thursday, October 28, 2021

Mr. TAYLOR. Madam Speaker, today, it is my privilege to honor fifteen distinguished military veterans from Texas’ Third Congressional District who answered the call to serve their Nation honorably, both in uniform and following their return to civilian life. The recipients of the 2021 Congressional Veteran Commendation exemplify the timehonored qualities of patriotism, service before self, and bold leadership. Following their time in service, their efforts in our community have earned these few the admiration as the recipients of this prestigious commendation. Their stories of sacrifice will encourage future generations to pursue a life dedicated to the very values we cherish as Americans: faith, freedom, and democracy. One such hero is Sergeant Don Fink of Frisco, Texas.

Don, a native of Chicago, Illinois, Don Fink moved to Texas early in life where he graduated from Richardson High School. From a young age, Don’s father, a World War II veteran, instilled in him a keen awareness that our country’s freedoms were at risk. In 1968, a 20-year-old Fink would enlist as an Infantryman in the U.S. Army. He was assigned to Chu Lai, Vietnam where his contributions in building the strategically important LZ Maryanne would ultimately keep the enemy from advancing on American troops and in due course save thousands of soldiers’ lives.

Upon his return to civilian life, Don would begin employment with United Parcel Service (UPS) where he eventually managed several statewide regional centers. After graduating from the University of Texas at Arlington, Don would establish his own successful staffing and recruiting business.

Today, Don has become known as a widely respected and beloved advocate on behalf of our veterans. A founding member of the Frisco Veterans of Foreign Wars (VFW) Post 8273 he is deeply admired as the current Chaplain. In addition to attending funerals, tending to the sick and needy, as well as those in crisis, Don has been known to personally drive veterans to service officer appointments for benefits counseling. As the proud father of two children and two grandchildren, Don currently resides in Frisco with his beloved dog, Bella. Sergeant Don Fink is a stranger to none and continues to exemplify the spirit of this award through his willingness to help those in need.

Today a grateful Nation thanks Sergeant Fink for his exceptional service and congratulates him on this recognition. May his steadfast example of leadership inspire others to live a life of service to a cause greater than themselves. It is my extreme honor to award him the 2021 Congressional Veteran Commendation for the Third District of Texas.

RECOGNIZING THE VETERANS AIRLIFT COMMAND

HON. JAY OBERNOLTE
OF CALIFORNIA
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Thursday, October 28, 2021
Mr. OBERNOLTE. Madam Speaker, I rise today to recognize the outstanding service of the Veteran Airlift Command, an organization which I’ve volunteered with for many years that has a dedicated network of volunteers working to support our nation’s wounded warriors across the country.

The Veteran Airlift Command, founded by Vietnam War veteran Walter Fricke, has impacted the lives of countless wounded veterans by providing them and their families air transportation when they desperately need it. After being wounded while serving as a helicopter pilot in Vietnam, Walter, like countless other wounded veterans, had to face the challenges presented by everyday civilian life. He realized that despite commercial air travel constituting one of the most essential aspects of modern life, it was among the most inaccessible, especially for our wounded veterans.

As a military trained pilot with over 800 hours of combat flying, Walter was well equipped to remedy this issue. He had an idea for a national organization of volunteer pilots and aircraft that would fly wounded warriors and their families with dignity, respect, and gratitude, and so in 2006 he founded the Veteran Airlift Command.

Walter started the Veterans Airlift Command with his own personal finances, flying expertise, and aircraft, but today the Veterans Airlift Command has grown into a substantial program that boasts a volunteer core of over 2,600 volunteer pilots and aircraft with over 18,000 passengers successfully flown.

The VAC has been and will continue to be an incredible and essential lifeline for wounded veterans and their families. Thanks to their work and that of thousands of volunteer pilots across the country, we can give back to our nation’s wounded warriors and provide the dignity, respect, and comfort that our heroes deserve. I am honored to recognize the VAC today and proud to have the opportunity to volunteer with this organization and give back to those who have sacrificed part of themselves in the defense of this Nation.

IN RECOGNITION OF LARKIN V. “PETE” BOWEN’S 100TH BIRTHDAY

HON. NEAL P. DUNN
OF FLORIDA
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Thursday, October 28, 2021
Mr. DUNN. Madam Speaker, I rise today to celebrate a member of our Greatest Generation and Florida’s Second Congressional District, Larkin V. “Pete” Bowen of Marianna, Florida.

Born October 24, 1921, Mr. Bowen moved to Wewahitchka, Florida with his family in 1941 to build a new life. Like so many in the Panhandle during that time, he extend their thoughts and prayers to.

In 1943, Mr. Bowen started working for the State Road Department, now the Florida Department of Transportation, in Jackson County as a road crew guard.
He later moved to Mariana in the 1950s with his beloved wife Orianna and three children.

During his 42 years working for the state, Pete paved most of the roads across north Florida and maintained a small farm to provide for his family.

From shucking oysters to delivering the “Pensacola News Journal” on Sundays, Mr. Bowen made sure there was enough money to see his children succeed.

In his community, Pete is known for his generosity and unwavering faith. He has been a pillar among both the New Hope Baptist and Trinity Baptist and has selflessly helped with repairs and upkeep at both churches.

Mr. Bowen is also known for sharing his crops with neighbors and lending a helping hand to any fellow farmer who needs one.

Today, Pete Bowen has eight grandchildren, 10 great-grandchildren, and four great-great-grandchildren. Throughout his lifetime, Mr. Bowen has turned his two acres into thirty and has built a long-lasting legacy.

Stories like his are what truly makes Floridians so great.

Ms. NORTON. Madam Speaker, I rise to introduce the District of Columbia Flood Prevention Act of 2021. The District should be eligible under the CZMA just like the states and territories already listed in the CZMA. I urge support for this bill.
I am incredibly grateful for the service of the domestic violence organizations in my Hawaii, such as the Hawaii State Coalition Against Domestic Violence and the some twenty other domestic violence organizations that provide services to survivors and their families, along with every one of their dedicated workers and volunteers. I am also grateful for our local first responders and law enforcement, who have taken actions to better equip themselves to recognize and respond to domestic violence.

There is so much work to be done still in raising awareness and educating our communities about domestic violence. But for now, for anyone experiencing, witnessing or suspecting domestic violence, please call or text a local or national helpline. They are not alone.

Mahala and aloha.

RECOGNIZING J.D. GROM'S SERVICE TO THE NEW DEMOCRAT COALITION

HON. SUZAN K. DELBENE
OF WASHINGTON

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, October 28, 2021

Ms. DELBENE. Madam Speaker, I rise today to recognize the service of J.D. Grom, the longest-serving Executive Director of the New Democrat Coalition.

J.D. departs Capitol Hill this month to continue his federal service as an appointee in the Biden Administration, but he leaves behind a legacy of sound management and strong leadership that will serve the Coalition for years to come.

NewDems occupy an important place within the Democratic Caucus. We are the center of gravity for the House Democrats and an incubator for some of the best, most forward-leaning policy-making on Capitol Hill.

None of that happened by accident. J.D. led the NewDems with a steady hand and a strategic vision that positioned the Members of the Coalition to make real, substantive, and lasting impacts on the legislative output in the House of Representatives.

Under J.D.’s leadership, NewDems were firmly at the center of the work to shape this 21st century economy. Whether speaking out on trade or the ever-evolving future of work in America, NewDems delivered meaningful policy prescriptions and helped put kitchen-table issues front and center for this institution.

NewDems are known for working across ideologies and party lines to deliver results. But more than that, we’ve also become a home for thoughtful, measured leaders who have had enough of the shouting and division that too often defines our politics.

J.D. embodied that NewDem spirit as a selfless leader and mentor throughout his career. That includes his work on behalf of his hometown Representative, Melissa Bean of Illinois, his work at the Department of the Treasury, and service on behalf of four separate Chairs of the New Democrat Coalition, including me, Rep. Ron Kind, Rep. Jim Himes, and Rep. Derek Kilmer.

On behalf of our entire 95-Member Coalition, I thank J.D. for his service, both past and future, and wish him all the best.

PERSONAL EXPLANATION

HON. DARREN SOTO
OF FLORIDA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, October 28, 2021

Mr. SOTO. Madam Speaker, I would have voted YEA for Roll Call number 338, S. 1511—Protecting America’s First Responders Act of 2021, had I been present.

IN RECOGNITION OF THE YEMENI AMERICAN CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

HON. RASHIDA TLAIB
OF MICHIGAN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, October 28, 2021

Ms. TLAIB. Madam Speaker, I rise today in recognition of the Yemeni American Chamber of Commerce (YACC) for their work on behalf of the Yemeni American small business community in southeastern Michigan.

Over thirty thousand Yemeni Americans live in Michigan, with a significant number residing in Wayne County. Many Yemeni immigrants were drawn to the area by work in automotive factories and have established their roots here. Immigration to Michigan is still occurring, with some studies indicating that Yemenis comprise nine percent of the area’s Arab population and that Yemeni community have some of the largest families. However, the Yemeni community has some of the lowest rate of business ownership, only three percent compared to twenty percent for other Arab groups.

This is why YACC is critical to our community. YACC has established a strong network for the small business community. They encourage growth through education and training, as well as collaboration among its member businesses. Beyond that, YACC works to create business owners who are also community leaders. They encourage their members to become actively engaged community partners who are truly the backbone of the local economy.

Please join me in recognizing the many outstanding contributions of the Yemeni American Chamber of Commerce on behalf of the communities of Wayne County and southeastern Michigan.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Thursday, October 28, 2021

Mr. HUFFMAN. Madam Speaker, I rise today in celebration of the life of Raymond Mattz, who passed away at the age of 79 on September 2, 2021. Raymond was a revered elder of the Yurok Tribe who fought for his people’s fishing rights and their reservation, including in a landmark case before the U.S. Supreme Court.

Raymond grew up in Requa, at the mouth of the Klamath River. Though his Yurok ancestors had signed a treaty with the U.S. government in 1855, it was not ratified, which led the state of California to open the Yurok Reservation to white settlement in 1892. This meant tribal fishermen had to obtain permits to fish, which severely limited the catch that the Yurok people had depended on since time immemorial. After being cited by a game warden for fishing, Raymond contested his case in state court, and then finally in the U.S. Supreme Court in 1973.

The Supreme Court overturned California’s assertion that the reservation was no longer Yurok country. Following the ruling, the state turned jurisdiction of the reservation to the federal government, which banned fishing outright and led to the salmon wars of 1978. Raymond was a leader among fisherman in this period, repeatedly challenging state and federal agents who often violently accosted them and confiscated gear. His efforts helped lead to the establishment of the Yurok Tribe’s fishing rights on the Klamath River. Raymond also served on the Yurok Tribal Council and was a member of the Yurok Cultural and Natural Resources committees.

Madam Speaker, I respectfully ask that you join me in extending condolences to Raymond’s family, friends, and tribe; and in expressing our deep appreciation for his decades of contribution to tribal rights and the Yurok Tribe.
In his post-military career, Daniels was an indispensable asset for program development and direction with Raytheon Defense Systems where he dealt with top secret programs centered on radar systems technology.

As a tireless advocate for our veterans and military, Lieutenant Daniels has become a known leader in the Dallas Chapter of the Military Order of the World Wars (MOWW), where he has assumed a variety of roles including Junior Vice Commander, Senior Vice Commander, and as the current Commander. Never one to seek recognition, Chuck is often behind the scenes working on such initiatives including the Dallas Veterans Day Parade, Dallas Community Police Awards, and the Boy and Girl Scout Leadership Awards. As a direct result of his efforts, this year MOWW has been designated as the best large chapter, an international designation of which the organization is justifiably proud. Due to his leadership, Chuck was awarded the coveted MOWW Gold Patrick Henry Medal. Lieutenant Daniels continually strives to exhibit service before self within our veterans community, making an indelible impression on those around him. For his efforts, we give him our unwavering gratitude.

Today a grateful Nation thanks Lieutenant Daniels for his exceptional service and congratulates him on this recognition. May his steadfast example of leadership inspire others to live a life of service to a cause greater than themselves. It is my extreme honor to award to live a life of service to a cause greater than themselves.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

HON. FRANK PALLONE, JR.
OF NEW JERSEY
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, October 28, 2021

Mr. PALLONE. Madam Speaker, I rise today to recognize the Borough of Sayreville, New Jersey as it formally celebrates its centennial this year, after having its 100th anniversary in 2020 during the COVID-19 pandemic. It is my honor to join with borough officials and residents in commemorating this significant milestone.

Although established as a township in 1876 after breaking away from South Amboy, Sayreville was incorporated as a borough in 1920. Following Sayre and Fisher Company’s establishment of a post office in 1860, the name Sayreville became the commonly used term to reference the area.

With its rich clay deposits and shoreline proximity to New York City, pottery and brick manufacturing was the backbone of the area’s early industrialization. The Sayre and Fisher Brick Company, operating from 1850 to 1969, was one of the state’s largest employers and supported the rapid growth of the community, from less than 2,000 residents in 1876, to over 32,500 by the end of the 1960s. Materials made in Sayreville not only helped construct buildings throughout town, they were also used in the construction of the Empire State Building and the Holland Tunnel.

In 1968, Sayreville elected Peggy Kerr as Mayor, who proudly served as the first woman to hold the position in Sayreville’s history. In its centennial, the borough is governed by Mayor Victoria Kilpatrick, Council President Kevin Dalina, and council members Vincent Conti, Damon Enriquez, Michele Maher, Mary Novak and Donna Roberts.

Madam Speaker, I sincerely hope my colleagues will join me in marking the 100th anniversary of the Borough of Sayreville and celebrating its rich history.

Mr. WILLIAMS of Texas. Madam Speaker, I rise to pay tribute to the launch of the inaugural season of Major League Pickleball (MLP) on November 5, 2021. I’m proud to say that MLP’s Season One will take place in Texas’ 25th Congressional District at Dreamland in Dripping Springs, Texas, and it will feature eight MLP teams led by an accomplished list of owners:

- Discovery Warriors: Eric Kuo and Mike Meldman

- Team Rally: John Raymond and Jim Toth
- ATX Pickleballers: Brene Brown, Steve Alley and Charles Kiley

MLP will feature the world’s best female and male professional pickleball players, competing in a unique format for the Pritchard Cup, named after the late U.S. Representative Joel Pritchard of Washington State, the inventor of pickleball.

The new league has two stated aims—to create a platform to showcase the world’s best professional pickleball players to pickleball fans worldwide; and to attract new people to pickleball. Pickleball is the fastest growing sport in America and already enjoyed by over 4 million regular players, according to The Economist.

MLP is the brainchild of Steve Kuhn, a noted business leader and entrepreneur whose passion and love of pickleball inspired him to found MLP in 2021. Kuhn’s goal is to spread pickleball as widely as possible to ensure children and adults from all walks of life will be able to play.

I would like to express my support for the launch of the newly created Major League Pickleball and wish them well in their inaugural season.

Thursday, October 28, 2021

Mr. TAYLOR. Madam Speaker, today, it is my privilege to honor fifteen distinguished military veterans from Texas’ Third Congressional District who answered the call to serve their Nation honorably, both in uniform and following their return to civilian life. The recipients of the 2021 Congressional Veteran Commendation exemplify the time-honored qualities of patriotism, service before self, and bold leadership. Following their time in service, their efforts in our community have earned these fine individuals recognition as the recipients of this prestigious commendation. Their stories of sacrifice will encourage future generations to pursue a life dedicated to the very values we cherish as Americans: faith, freedom, and democracy. One such hero is Navy SEAL Ryan Parrott of Allen, Texas.

Originally from Detroit, Michigan, Ryan “Birdman” Parrott enlisted in the U.S. Navy after watching the Twin Towers fall on September 11, 2001. Ryan served eight years as a Navy SEAL, attached to Team Seven. During his time in service, he completed three combat tours in Iraq prior to being assigned to Advanced Training Command as an instructor. In 2004, his life was forever changed. While manning a gun turret of a Humvee in enemy territory, his vehicle was struck by an improvised explosive device. Parrott was thrown from the vehicle and along with his teammates, suffered devastating burns and a long road to recovery.

For his actions, Parrott was awarded the National Defense Service Medal, Global War on Terrorism Service Medal, Good Conduct Medal, Navy and Marine Corps Achievement Medal w/Combat “V”, Sea Service Deployment Ribbon, Iraqi Campaign Medal, Army and Navy Commendation Medals, and a Purple Heart.

After his discharge, Ryan moved to Dallas and after connecting with other veterans who suffered similar injuries, he established Sons of the Flag in order to support those in the military community, first responders, and civilians suffering from traumatic burns. Under his leadership, the organization has raised more than $5 million to assist burn victims and provide medical fellowships to facilitate research, development, and treatment. Ryan is also the Founder of the Bird’s Eye View Project which leverages extreme sports to raise awareness for the extreme needs of veterans and first responders.

Ryan and his wife, Vlada, are the proud parents of two sons named after the couple’s grandparents, who also served in the military. Navy SEAL Ryan “Birdman” Parrott is a shining example of how he has used adversity to serve the community, particularly those who have experienced life altering injuries, as he empowers others to lead a life on mission.

Today a grateful Nation thanks Mr. Parrott for his exceptional service and congratulates him on this recognition. RECOGNIZING OCTOBER AS NATIONAL WOMEN’S SMALL BUSINESS MONTH

HON. BRENDA L. LAWRENCE
OF MICHIGAN
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Thursday, October 28, 2021

Mrs. LAWRENCE. Madam Speaker, I rise today to celebrate the month of October as National Women’s Small Business Month and recognize the accomplishments and impact of our women entrepreneurs and business owners across America.

While women-owned businesses have faced setbacks due to the pandemic, they remain the fastest growing segment of our economy. Black and Brown women entrepreneurs are the main drivers of this growth, even though they are far more likely to also be the primary breadwinners and caregivers for their families. We must continue to invest in and support women business owners, especially Black and Brown women business owners, as we begin our economic recovery.

I also want to recognize the 136 Women Business Centers nationwide, such as the Great Lakes Women’s Business Council which has done so much to support women-owned small businesses in my home state of Michigan. In recognition of the U.S. Small Business Administration, which has continued to provide resources to women-owned businesses in their 68 district offices. My district is fortunate to host the U.S. Small Business Administration’s Michigan district office. Businesses that have received support from these institutions are far more likely to succeed, and when women succeed, America succeeds.

As we mark National Women’s Small Business Month, on behalf of the United States of America, I salute all the women business owners of two sons named after the couple’s grandparents.

Mr. PARROTT. Madam Speaker, I rise today to recognize the life and service of Mr. James Charlie Lane of White Pine, Tennessee. J.C. was born on April 30, 1920 and celebrated his 101st birthday on April 30, 2021. He was a Veteran of WWII and served in the Navy from March 1941 to August 1946. From 1940 to March 1941, he was an employee of the Civilian Conservation Corps in both Unicoi and the Sugarlands in his birth county, Sevier County.

In addition, I want to recognize the U.S. military community, first responders, and civilians suffering similar injuries, he established Sons of the Flag in order to support those in the military community, first responders, and civilians suffering from traumatic burns. Under his leadership, the organization has raised more than $5 million to assist burn victims and provide medical fellowships to facilitate research, development, and treatment. Ryan is also the Founder of the Bird’s Eye View Project which leverages extreme sports to raise awareness for the extreme needs of veterans and first responders.

Navy SEAL Ryan “Birdman” Parrott is a shining example of how he has used adversity to serve the community, particularly those who have experienced life altering injuries, as he empowers others to lead a life on mission.

Today a grateful Nation thanks Mr. Parrott for his exceptional service and congratulates him on this recognition. May his steadfast example of leadership inspire others to live a life of service to a cause greater than themselves. It is my extreme honor to award him the 2021 Congressional Veteran Commendation for the Third District of Texas.

RECOGNIZING OCTOBER AS NATIONAL WOMEN’S SMALL BUSINESS MONTH

HON. DIANA HARSBARGER
OF TENNESSEE
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Thursday, October 28, 2021

Mrs. HARBSPARGER. Madam Speaker, I rise today to recognize the life and service of Mr. James Charlie Lane of White Pine, Tennessee. J.C. was born on April 30, 1920 and celebrated his 101st birthday on April 30, 2021. He was a Veteran of WWII and served in the Navy from March 1941 to August 1946. From 1940 to March 1941, he was an employee of the Civilian Conservation Corps in both Unicoi and the Sugarlands in his birth county, Sevier County.

He volunteered and joined the Navy in March 1941 and was assigned to the USS Al-绊marle, where he would qualify as an electrician and would eventually be promoted to electrician first class. Volunteering for a new ship that was commissioned, he became a “plank owner” on the Wasp by being one of the original crewmen. By 1944, the Wasp’s battles would include the islands of Marcus, Wake, Saipan, Tinian, Guam, Iwo Jima, Okinawa, Leyte Gulf and the Japanese homeland.

He arrived in Hawaii and then went to the Marshall Islands in May and saw his first action in the Marshall Islands as part of Admiral Halsey’s fast carrier fleet at the Marianas. During his time in the Navy, he saw action in the European Theater, to the African Coast, to the Pacific Theater in the Philippines and the five-week long battle for Iwo Jima. His military service went on until almost a year after Armistice Day when Japan formally surrendered as his ship brought soldiers back from Italy and England. He retired as a Chief Petty Officer.

Upon returning to Tennessee, he settled in Sevier County, then upon getting a job at American Enka, he moved to White Pine in 1951. He retired from American Enka after thirty-six years.

J.C.’s legacy of love includes his marriage to his wife, Ruth, of forty-nine years until she passed in July 1992, and his children who are so proud of his service, Rita Lane Potter, and Betty Jo Lane Moore. He has three grandchildren and four great-grandsons.

Madam Speaker, James Charlie Lane faithfully served his country under the most difficult situations possible and as a WWII Veteran and member of the United States Navy, and I proudly honor his legacy and service to the United States of America.

HONORING WWII VET NORVIN D. MOORE
OF TEXAS
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Thursday, October 28, 2021

Mr. BANKS. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor the life of Mr. Norvin D. Moore of Fort Wayne, Indiana. Our Nation owes Norvin a tremendous debt of gratitude for his service to our country in the United States Army during World War II. Serving in an Engineer Combat Battalion in the European Theatre, his sacrifices were critical to the defense of our homeland, of Europe and to the security and prosperity of millions.

Most notably, Norvin’s service earned him the French Legion of Honor award, the highest distinction awarded by France. Established by Napoleon in 1804, the Legion of Honor, known as Ordre national de la Legion d’honneur, is awarded only to the most exceptional of soldiers who served in defense of the French Republic. As a combat engineer, Norvin was charged with one of the most perilous tasks of any soldier during the war: removing mines and booby traps left behind by a retreating fanatical Wehrmacht. But for Norvin and his heroic actions, many more Americans would have been killed and the Allied advance across Western Europe would have been even more difficult and deadly than it was.

Norvin’s unit continued into Germany, and then Austria, where it remained involved in combat operations until the end of the war in Europe in May 1945. Norvin returned to Indiana, raised five children with his wife, Maryann, and became a Locomotive Engineer, a job he had for 44 years. I’m proud to extend my regards to him. On behalf of Congress, let me say: we hope Norvin’s heart is filled with joy knowing he has experienced our country’s greatest blessings, including the affection of family, friends, and a grateful Nation, over a long and well-lived life.

May God Bless Norvin, and may God Bless the United States.

RECOGNIZING LIEUTENANT GENERAL JOHN CAMPBELL, RECIPIENT OF TEXAS’ THIRD CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT 2021 CONGRESSIONAL VETERAN COMMENDATION

HON. VAN TAYLOR
OF TEXAS
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Thursday, October 28, 2021

Mr. TAYLOR. Madam Speaker, today, it is my privilege to honor fifteen distinguished military veterans from Texas’ Third Congressional District who answered the call to serve their Nation honorably, both in uniform and following their return to civilian life. The recipients of the 2021 Congressional Veteran Commendation exemplify the time-honored qualities of patriotism, service before self, and bold leadership. Following their time in service, their efforts in our community have earned these fine individuals recognition as the recipients of this prestigious commendation. Their stories of sacrifice will encourage future generations to pursue a life dedicated to the very values we cherish as Americans: faith, freedom, and democracy. One such hero is Lieutenant General John Campbell of McKinney, Texas.

A native of Henderson, Kentucky, Lieutenant General John Campbell was commissioned through the Air Force ROTC in 1969 while at the University of Kentucky. For the next three decades, Campbell served with distinction in unique assignments which took him all over the world, including serving as the first F-15 instructor pilot with the Royal Saudi Air Force, as the Commander of the 57th Fighter Interceptor Squadron based at Keflavik Naval Air Station in Iceland, and as the Commander of the 31st Fighter Wing, Aviano Air Base, Italy during Operation DENY FLIGHT, the air policing of the Balkans. While serving in the Joint Chiefs of Staff, General Campbell was appointed as the first Commander of what later became known as the U.S. Cyber Command. In 2000, he would assume his final military assignment, serving as the Associate Director of Central Intelligence for the CIA at Langley where he was credited with the development of one of the most effective counterterrorism programs in government.

General Campbell earned numerous military and intelligence community awards, including the Defense Distinguished Service Medal with four oak leaf clusters, Legion of Merit with oak leaf cluster, Meritorious Service Medal with four oak leaf clusters, Air Medal, Air Force Commendation Medal with oak leaf cluster, Combat Readiness Medal with oak leaf cluster, NATO Medal, Humanitarian Service Medal, and the CIA’s Distinguished Intelligence Medal, to name just a few.

In 2012, General Campbell, or “Soup” as he is widely known by, and his wife of fifty years, Marly, relocated to McKinney. Campbell wasted no time in forming deep roots within the community, holding positions as the President of the Air Force Association, Board of Directors for Smiles Charity, director of the veterans ministry in his church, and serving within his homemakers association. John and Marly are the proud parents to three children, Rachel, Elizabeth and Matthew, as well as five grandchildren. General Campbell is the epitome of a servant leader who has used his many experiences to the betterment of his fellow man.

Today a grateful Nation thanks Lieutenant General Campbell for his exceptional service and congratulates him on this recognition. May his steadfast example of leadership inspire others to live a life of service to a cause greater than themselves. It is my extreme honor to award him the 2021 Congressional Veteran Commendation for the Third District of Texas.
TRIBUTE TO MRS. AGATHA SHORTER-LEWIS

HON. SALUD O. CARBAJAL OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, October 28, 2021

Mr. CARBAJAL. Madam Speaker, today I raise to celebrate the life of Mrs. Agatha Shorter-Lewis, at age 87 of CA-24's NAACP Branch. Mrs. Shorter-Lewis has been described as “a social justice, human and civil rights champion,” because of her hard work fighting for equal rights throughout the Central Coast. Agatha Noel Shorter-Lewis was born in Los Angeles, California on September 7, 1950, to Leon and Martha Shorter. As a young woman, she studied at a community college in the Los Angeles area, transferred to the University of California, Santa Barbara and earned a bachelor's degree in sociology in 1975.

In 1973, Mrs. Shorter-Lewis began volunteering with Santa Barbara County Probation Department, interned with them in 1974 and in 1975 at the age of 24, she took the test for Deputy Probation Officer II and scored 1%. On January 20, 1976, Mrs. Shorter-Lewis was sworn in as the first Black female Deputy Probation Officer hired by Santa Barbara County. Her first assignment was working with Juvenile.

In an April 2001, Santa Maria Times newspaper article, Mrs. Shorter-Lewis recounted her time at the Probation Department noting one case stands out: “A boy, who just wouldn’t go to school and was giving his parents, school administrators and teachers chaos. She told him, “Listen, if you don’t get up and go to school on time, I’m going to have to get here to enrol him and when you turn over, I’m going to be in bed with you, because I told you to get up and go to school.” The young man thought she was playing with him and wasn’t going to do it. Early one morning his mom called saying he wouldn’t get out of bed. She told him, “I’m on my way.” When she got there, the mom said “don’t wake him up anymore, begging him to go to school” and eased up in bed with him. When he turned over, he said “Oh, Oh, Miss Shorter, Miss Shorter, I’m going to school, I’m going to school.” She said, “sure you are going to school because I’m going to wait right here until you get up.” She drove the boy to school that day and his mother never had problems with him again.

While in prison, Mrs. Shorter-Lewis helped countless youth and their families changing their lives through dedication and caring while providing structure to help them reach their full potential. Mrs. Shorter-Lewis served the last 8 years with the department in the Adult Re-Entry Unit investigating felony offenses, and determining whether or not to grant probation. She represented Probation in Court once a week as a Hearing Officer in Judge Rogello Flores courtroom.

Mrs. Shorter-Lewis served 27 years as Deputy Probation Officer, retiring on April 27, 2001, due to health issues. Mrs. Shorter-Lewis married Rev. Henry Littleton Lewis, Jr. on January 16, 1993. Their wedding was the biggest wedding event in Santa Maria, with 25 bridesmaids many of whom were Juvenile and Probation Officers and more than 1,000 guests in attendance. One of her biggest joys was on September 12, 2013, when Rev. Lewis became Pastor of New Hope Missionary Baptist Church and she became First Lady of the church, a position she absolutely treasured. She was an active church member, and in her own words she served in every office of the church but “Pastor!” In addition to First Lady, at New Hope Missionary Baptist Church, she served in the capacity of Church Clerk, Sunday School Superintendent, District President, Program Committee Chair, and Women’s Choir. She was also active with Coast Counties District Association serving as local president, District President, Minister’s Wives Chairperson, and on various activity planning committees. At the State Baptist level, she was Vice-President of the Women’s Department, Chair of Advisory Council of past Presidents, Serendipity Speaker and Teacher. At the National Baptist level, she was a delegate representing California State Baptist many times, Queen candidate for the Women’s Department and president Sister Alma Tate.

With Rev. Lewis untimely death on September 13, 2013, Mrs. Shorter-Lewis First Lady position ended; however, she remained an active leader and member of the church. In addition to church, Mrs. Lewis was very active in the community. After being sworn in as a Deputy Probation Officer, Mrs. Shorter-Lewis moved to Santa Maria. Once in Santa Maria, she tried renting a home, but each time would be denied when she showed up and the owner saw she was African American. She did not let that discourage her instead renting an apartment for two years and then becoming a homeowner before age 30. She was a lifetime/lifelong member of the National Association For the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) and made history again as the Santa Maria-Lompoc Branch second President in 1981 at the age of 31. Under her presidency the Branch’s annual professional fashion show was born, an event that allowed the community to come out, get dressed up, enjoy dinner and the latest fashions from all over the world while supporting the Branch and the Santa Maria-Lompoc Branch of the NAACP.

Since its inception, the annual Fashion Show has awarded hundreds of scholarships to underserved youth to attend college and it continues 37 years later. When Mrs. Shorter-Lewis’s presidency ended in 1984, she continued her advocacy serving as first vice-president from 1985 to 1988, second vice president from 1989 to 1990, on the Executive Committee from 1991 to 2018, and as Executive Committee Emeritus in 2019 to her final demise death on October 5, 2021. In each role, she was always a Drum Major for Justice answering every call she was asked to do.

Continuing as a trailblazer, Mrs. Shorter-Lewis was a business owner of Almagathaladies’ Hats & Suits, Men’s Ties and Jewelry along with her best friend, Mrs. Anna Tate.

Mrs. Shorter-Lewis loved cruises and vacations and celebrated many birthdays on cruise ships including her 30th, 50th and 60th. On one of those cruises, she was crowned the ship’s queen. She and Rev. Lewis spent their 20th wedding anniversary in Hawaii.

Mrs. Shorter-Lewis was known by most people, well respected in the community, larger than life, outgoing, family and people oriented, with a bubbly personality, a disarming smile, was a dynamic public speaker, very assertive, compassionate, a good listener able to discern truth. She celebrated many family vacations and reunions, chaired extra-large celebrations for her family and friends including her sister Carolyn’s 65th birthday, numerous retirement celebrations for her friends, 75/76th birthday celebration for her friend and arranged for the community to attend the play “The Color Purple” in Los Angeles on a chartered bus.

Over her lifetime, Mrs. Shorter-Lewis, received numerous community awards and recognitions including awards from the Santa Maria-Lompoc Branch, City of Santa Maria, and Vision of Hope, among others.

Madam Speaker, today, it is my privilege to honor fifteen distinguished military veterans from Texas’ Third Congressional District who answered the call to serve their Nation honorably, both in uniform and following their return to civilian life. The recipients of the 2021 Congressional Veteran Commendation exemplify the time-honored qualities of patriotism, service before self, and bold leadership. Following their time in service, their efforts in our community have earned these fine individuals recognition as the recipients of this prestigious commendation. Their stories of sacrifice will encourage future generations to pursue a life dedicated to the very values we cherish as Americans: family, freedom, and democracy. One such hero is Captain Jeran Akers of Plano, Texas.

During his time as a student at the University of Alabama, Jeran Akers, would begin his path to defending our nation by serving as a member from the Hermes Flight Team and the Arnold Air Society. Later, while on active duty from 1969 to 1973, Captain Akers, would earn a Master of Arts in Public Administration. One of his most notable posts was overseeing one of our nation's largest stockpiles of missiles at Ellsworth Air Force Base in South Dakota.

Captain Akers’ military decorations include the National Defense Service Medal and Air Force Outstanding Unit Award with one Oak Leaf Cluster.

Following his time in service, Akers relocated to Texas where he operated a successful small business. During his time as Mayor, he founded the Collin County Mayors’ Alliance and was credited in bringing the Dr Pepper headquarters to town.

His unique experience generated a new passion for organ donation advocacy and he remains a staunch supporter for the cause. Akers also served in the role of President and CEO of the Celina Chamber of Commerce until his recent retirement. In his personal life, Jeran is the proud father of three children with whom he has instilled a love of country. Today, Jeran, and his wife, Victoria, continue spending time in the community and enjoying their five grandchildren. Captain Akers has been a steadfast example of service before self both to his nation and through his dedication to involvement within our local community.

Thursday, October 28, 2021

Ms. SCHAKOWSKY. Madam Speaker, I rise today to commemorate the 50th Anniversary of Rabbi Neil Brief’s service to Ezra Habonim Niles Township Jewish Congregation and the Skokie, Illinois community. In 1971 Rabbi Brief became the Rabbi for the Congregation, and he became Rabbi Emeritus in 2004.

Rabbi Brief overcame poverty as a child and developed his leadership skills by becoming president of the Brooklyn Brownsville Boys Club and coaching two club championship basketball teams.

He attended New York University and distinguished himself at Hebrew Union College-Jewish Institute of Religion through his study of numerology, which he later adapted to meet the needs of his congregants. He worked throughout his higher education, as a waiter, busboy, camp counselor and teaching religious school. He then served his country as an Army Chaplain, counseling soldiers of all faiths and rising to the rank of Captain within two years.

Rabbi Brief helped bring people together. He brought Skokie’s clergy closer together through spearheading the creation of and serving as president of the Niles Township Clergy Forum. And he helped strengthen his congregants’ marriages through his leadership in Jewish Marriage Encounter.

Rabbi Brief helped lead and serve his community through his work with the Skokie Commission on Family Services, the Rotary Club, the United Way of Skokie Valley and many other service organizations.

He has always stood by those who were oppressed and through his congregational, interfaith, political and humanitarian work, helped create Skokie spirit and become a true leader in the community. He helped organize rallies drawing thousands of people to protest prejudicial actions in the community.

Rabbi Brief trained as a Reform rabbi and is a member of the rabbinical organizations of Judaism’s Reform, Conservative, and Reconstructionist.

RECOGNIZING SPECIALIST MATT FOSTER, RECIPIENT OF TEXAS’ THIRD CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT 2021 CONGRESSIONAL VETERAN COMMENDATION

HON. VAN TAYLOR
OF TEXAS
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Thursday, October 28, 2021

Mr. TAYLOR. Madam Speaker, today, it is my privilege to honor fifteen distinguished military veterans from Texas’ Third Congressional District who answered the call to serve their Nation honorably, both in uniform and following their return to civilian life. The recipients of the 2021 Congressional Veteran Commendation exemplify the time-honored qualities of patriotism, service before self, and bold leadership. Following their time in service, their efforts in our community have earned these fine individuals recognition as the recipients of this prestigious commendation: Their stories of sacrifice will encourage future generations to pursue a life dedicated to the very values we cherish as Americans: faith, freedom, and democracy. One such hero is Specialist Matt Foster of Allen, Texas.

Born into a military family, Matt Foster, moved around his first five years of life prior to settling down in Braunfels, Texas. Like many Americans, Matt answered the call to serve our nation following the horrific attacks of 9/11. Upon graduation from high school, Matt enlisted in the United States Army leading to his deployment to Iraq in support of Operation Iraqi Freedom. Foster served as a squad leader in the 101st Airborne Division, leading team members in over 180 missions and combat patrols.

Among Specialist Foster’s awards are the Army Commendation Medal, Army Good Conduct Medal, National Defense Service Medal, Global War on Terrorism Service Medal, Iraq Campaign Medal, Army Service Ribbon, and Overseas Service Ribbon.

Following his honorable discharge from the Army, Specialist Foster earned Bachelor’s and Master’s degrees in Public Administration from the University of Texas at Arlington, where he was later recognized as a Distinguished Alumnus of the Year. Public policy and government are passion points for Foster, and he uses his experiences to serve in the role of Regional Director of Legislative and External Affairs for A&T.

Matt has chosen to give back to his community in a multitude of ways including through his work as the Past Chairman of the DFW USO Advisory Board, as Vice Chairman of the Texas American Legion, as Past President of the Plano Young Professionals. In addition to his many civic activities, Matt serves as the Director of Communications for the Warrior’s Keep, a non-profit organization geared toward enhancing the quality of life for veterans through the use of outdoor therapy as they re-integrate back into their native lives.

Matt and his wife, Vanessa, are raising their young son, Jackson, in Allen, Texas. For his many efforts to support our defenders of freedom, Specialist Foster has earned the respect and admiration of our community as he now works to mentor a new generation of military leaders.

Today a grateful Nation thanks Specialist Foster for his exceptional service and congratulates him on this recognition. May his steadfast example of leadership inspire others to live a life of service to a cause greater than themselves. It is my extreme honor to award him the 2021 Congressional Veteran Commendation for the Third District of Texas.

MIDDLETOWN TOWNSHIP PUBLIC LIBRARY IS AN OASIS OF LEARNING, KNOWLEDGE, WISDOM, AND KNOWHOW

HON. CHRISTOPHER H. SMITH
OF NEW JERSEY
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Thursday, October 28, 2021

Mr. SMITH of New Jersey. Madam Speaker, a hundred years ago, two independent library associations merged into one amazing library—the Middletown Township Public Library.

Congratulations to Library Director Heather Andolsen and Board President Bill Bucco—and library staff and board members past and present—for this remarkable achievement.

A hundred years ago: Warren Harding was in the White House; New Yorkers Joseph Frelighuyzen and Walter Evans Edge were in the U.S. Senate; Theodore Appleby was Monmouth County’s Member of Congress; and the Freeholder Director was Bryant Newcomb.

And it was Albert Einstein who famously said “the only thing you absolutely need to know is the location of the library” which in the early years of MTPL perhaps begged the question, where is Dorothy Norton and her Ford Model T library on wheels?

Today, the Library is an important cultural and meeting center and a venue for assistance when disasters hit like Superstorm Sandy.

MTPL is an oasis of learning, knowledge, wisdom, and knowhow. As food nurtures the body, the availability and accessibility of books and other literary works feeds the mind and soul.

A few weeks ago, I introduced an anti-human trafficking bill named after the great abolitionist, author, orator, and former slave Frederick Douglass.

I was joined at the press conference by Frederick Douglass’s great, great, great grand-son Ken Morris, who quoted his famous ancestors words said, “know makes a man unfit to be a slave” and “Once you learn to read you will be forever free.”

IN RECOGNITION OF THE 100TH ANNIVERSARY OF STATE THEATRE NEW JERSEY

HON. FRANK PALLONE, JR.
OF NEW JERSEY
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Thursday, October 28, 2021

Mr. PALLONE. Madam Speaker, it is my pleasure to recognize State Theatre New Jersey on its 100th anniversary and join its leadership, staff, and Board of Trustees in celebrating its reopening ribbon cutting and marquee lighting.

Opened in 1921 by Walter Reade, State Theatre New Jersey, then known as Reade’s State Theatre, continues to bring exceptional arts-programming, culture, and vitality to the greater New Brunswick community. State Theatre New Jersey is a premier regional venue, providing an outstanding educational and entertainment resource for Central Jersey and beyond, attracting visitors as far as Canada and England. Its efforts to introduce the theatrical arts to the general public, including underserved populations, enriches the lives of the diverse local community and provides a valuable impact on cultural and economic landscape of the area.

Begun as a silent film and vaudeville theatre, the theater was a popular entertainment destination for residents of central New Jersey throughout the 1920s. As films with sound evolved, Radio-Keith-Orpheum (RKO) took over operation of the facility and transformed the theater to accommodate and enhance the movie experience, including soundproofing and other features.

A few years later, the State Theatre was acquired and is now owned by the New Brunswick Partnership. For about 30 years, RKO State Theatre remained well-attended by residents until many began migrating into the suburbs and television became mainstream. Efforts by Johnson & Johnson, the New Brunswick Development Corporation and the New Brunswick Cultural Center revitalized the theater in the 1980s and in 1988 it reopened as State Theatre New Jersey. Under the direction of its current President and CEO, Sarah Chaplin, State Theatre New Jersey continues to honor and preserve its history while improving safety, accessibility, and efficiency to bring the theater into the next century.

Once again, I sincerely hope my colleagues will join me in congratulating State Theatre New Jersey on its 100th anniversary. State Theatre New Jersey’s commitment to promoting the arts has contributed to the thriving cultural landscape of the community and is truly deserving of this body’s recognition.

RECOGNIZING SENIOR MASTER SERGEANT PAT NUGENT, RECIPIENT OF TEXAS’ THIRD CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT 2021 CONGRESSIONAL VETERAN COMMENDATION

HON. VAN TAYLOR OF TEXAS
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, October 28, 2021

Mr. TAYLOR. Madam Speaker, today, it is my privilege to honor fifteen distinguished military veterans from Texas’ Third Congressional District who answered the call to serve their Nation honorably, both in uniform and following their return to civilian life. The recipients of the 2021 Congressional Veteran Commendation exemplify the time-honored qualities of patriotism, service before self, and bold leadership. Following their time in service, their efforts in our community have earned these fine individuals recognition as the recipients of this prestigious commendation. Their stories of sacrifice will encourage future generations to pursue a life dedicated to the very values we cherish as Americans: faith, freedom, and democracy. One such hero is Senior Master Sergeant Patrick Nugent of Allen, Texas.

Upon joining the U.S. Air Force, Pat Nugent, trained as a parachute rigger and was stationed at England Air Force Base prior to being transferred to RAF Mildenhall, England where he was assigned to an Aerial Port squadron supporting aerial delivery parachute systems throughout the European Theater. During this time, Nugent developed a lifelong passion for photography and was eventually assigned to cover the world-renowned Air Force Thunderbirds. Due to his training as a photojournalist at Syracuse University, Pat would have the opportunity to cover a variety of historical events including the Rhein-Mein Air Base bombing and the return of hostages, Father Martin Jenco and David Jacobson, as well as those kidnapped from the Italian cruise ship Achille Lauro. Pat also covered Operations Desert Shield, Desert Storm, Provide Hope, and the Panama invasion, and was involved in efforts to introduce digital photography to the Department of Defense.

During his 23 years of military service, Sergeant Nugent earned a multitude of awards including the National Defense Service Medal with 1 device, the Air Force Training Ribbon, Air Force Longevity Service Ribbon with 4 devices, Air Force Good Conduct Medal with 6 devices, Air Force Outstanding Unit Award with 3 devices, Air Force Overseas Short Tour Ribbon, Vietnam Service Medal, Air Force Achievement Medal, Air Force Commendation Medal and the Republic of Vietnam Campaign Medal to name just a few.

Following his retirement from the military, Nugent held government account management positions with Eastman Kodak and Nikon. As an active and lifetime member of Vietnam Veterans of America, Disabled American Veterans, the Seidel Dallas Chapter of the Air Force Association, the USAF Combat Camera Association, and the Collin County Veterans Coalition, Pat can often be seen behind the lens capturing our veterans and military which earned him the Air Force Association’s “Medal of Freedom.”

Mr. Nugent is a tremendous example of using one’s gift in service to their nation. Pat and his wife, Carol, look forward to celebrating fifty years of marriage this year and are the proud parents to two adult children, and five grandchildren.

Today a grateful Nation thanks Senior Master Sergeant Nugent for his exceptional service and congratulates him on this recognition. May his steadfast example of leadership inspire others to live a life of service to a cause greater than themselves. It is my extreme honor to award him the 2021 Congressional Veteran Commendation for the Third District of Texas.
