

RECOGNIZING EMILY TUTTLE-MILLARD

(Mr. NUNN of Iowa asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. NUNN of Iowa. Mr. Speaker, I rise today in recognition of Emily Tuttle-Millard, our deputy chief of staff.

Over the course of Emily's tenure, she has served in numerous roles, consistently demonstrating her professionalism and extraordinary work ethic, with a steadfast dedication to excellence.

Emily was not only a vital member of our team, but she was also an integral force behind our success for folks back home in Iowa.

As deputy chief of staff, Emily tackled strategic goals, including our passage of legislation to address veteran suicide with the Daniel J. Harvey, Jr. and Adam Lambert Improving Servicemember Transition to Reduce Veteran Suicide Act, helping support couples to start a family with the HOPE with Fertility Services Act, and delivering on U.S. national security priorities enshrined in the National Defense Authorization Act. As a fighter for folks in the heart of the heartland, she helped lead more amendments to the prestigious farm bill than nearly any other Member in Congress.

Further, Emily worked across the State and across the aisle to earn bipartisan support and helped our team be in the top 10 most bipartisan Members of Congress.

Throughout her tenure, Emily has been a true plankholder from day one. Whether she was operating in a role as communications director, scheduler, or, ultimately, deputy chief, she has continued to be a true mentor.

I thank Emily for all she has done for our team, especially her ability to foster collaboration and growth and to create a more united effort. Despite her University of Illinois pedigree, she will always be an Iowan and a Hawkeye at heart, from the corn dogs at the State fair to winning friends under the golden dome in Des Moines to right here at the marble steps of the U.S. Capitol.

Our country, our State, and our family are grateful for her service, and we wish her great success in her next adventure.

PROTECTING POSTAL WORKERS

(Mr. MCGARVEY asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. MCGARVEY. Mr. Speaker, since before Christmas, I have heard from Louisvillians every day about mail delays.

I have heard from people who haven't received paychecks, prescriptions, or W-2s. One woman told me she received a bill so late that she owed more in late fees than she did on the bill.

What concerns me is if the Trump administration gets its way, things will get worse.

The USPS has operated independently since 1970, but now Donald Trump wants to take it over. Why? So Elon Musk can go in and fire letter carriers and sorters? These are hardworking people who go above and beyond.

This weekend, I heard about a Louisville letter carrier who wears a headlamp because she works well into the evening. She deserves support, not demonization.

Let's fix this. Let's get our letter carriers the resources they need. Let's get our sorters the machinery they need. Let's ensure Americans don't pay late fees if their mail is delayed. Let's get this done.

REMOVAL OF NAME OF MEMBER AS COSPONSOR OF H.R. 1301

Mr. FEENSTRA. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to remove the gentleman from New York (Mr. GOLDMAN) as a cosponsor to H.R. 1301.

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. KNOTT). Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Iowa?

There was no objection.

RECOGNIZING 41ST ANNIVERSARY OF CBYX EXCHANGE PROGRAM

(Mr. THOMPSON of Pennsylvania asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. THOMPSON of Pennsylvania. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize the 41st anniversary of the CBYX exchange program and to thank David Byrne, a current participant and intern in my office.

The CBYX program is jointly funded by the U.S. Congress and the German Bundestag.

Every year, this unique program offers 75 young Germans and 75 young Americans the opportunity to study, work, and volunteer in Germany and the United States. The participants fully immerse themselves in the other culture, attending university, interning, and living with host families all over both countries.

CBYX is an excellent example of how cultural and political exchange amongst citizens can positively impact international relations in a different, more grassroots, and hands-on way.

As the co-chair of the bipartisan German-American Caucus and representing Pennsylvania, a State with a long history of German heritage, I am proud to support this program.

I thank David for his work and time in my office, and I wish him the best in his future endeavors.

HONORING BLACK HISTORY MONTH

(Mrs. FOUSHEE asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Mrs. FOUSHEE. Mr. Speaker, I rise today in celebration of Black History Month and to highlight the importance of our Nation's historically Black colleges and universities and diversity, equity, and inclusion initiatives.

This month is a time to reflect on and recognize the immense sacrifice and contributions that Black Americans have made throughout our Nation's history.

Today, we are witnessing blatant attempts to stifle DEI efforts, which were designed to promote fairness and provide resources to communities that have systemically been left behind.

These initiatives, in tandem with our Nation's rich web of HBCUs, have allowed for culturally relevant and supportive environments for Black Americans, making higher education more accessible to students of color, many of whom are first-generation college students and are producing top talent in a wide variety of fields.

These efforts are about supporting those in our community with the resources and education they need to thrive, and these policies help close the racial wealth gap and create more opportunities for upward mobility.

There is still much work to be done to properly support the Black community, and I am committed to eliminating discrimination in all forms and continuing to uplift the invaluable contributions of Black Americans to this country.

BEING TRUTHFUL ABOUT BUDGETS

(Mr. LAMALFA asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. LAMALFA. Mr. Speaker, this week, we made an important step in passing the budget resolution in order to carry out the business of the House for the American people.

As we get into the budget reconciliation process, which is going to be a positive one for getting spending under control, we also need to have a lot more truth surrounding what is going to be happening in that process.

For more than I would like to have heard the last week, week and a half, 2 weeks, we keep hearing the same rhetoric that Republicans are going to cut Medicare, SNAP, Medicaid, Social Security, all of these things. Nowhere in that budget reconciliation document does it say that. In the resolution, nowhere does it say that.

We need not lie about what we are doing around here in order to gain political points. We actually should be sitting down at the table together and looking at how we can make these programs work better for longer.

Social Security is going to be in big trouble within 7 or 8 years. If we want to have solutions to that, why don't we sit at the table together and figure
