RECOGNIZING GEORGIA STATE UNIVERSITY

HON. EARL L. "BUDDY" CARTER

OF GEORGIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 24, 2026

Mr. CARTER. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize Georgia State University, which has been named the No. 1 public university in America for undergraduate teaching by U.S. News & World Report for the sixth consecutive year.

This distinction is decided by presidents, provosts, and admissions deans from colleges across the country, making it a mark of respect earned from other institutions.

Between 2010 and 2020, Georgia State's graduation rate climbed by more than 60 percent, a transformation achieved not by admitting less qualified students, but by strengthening the support systems available to them.

The university's advising system uses real-time data to help identify students that may be struggling, before a small step back turns into a withdrawal.

Located in the heart of downtown Atlanta, Georgia State has created a standard where teaching quality and students are the true measures of success and excellence.

I congratulate Georgia State University and everyone who pours into its success.
