CERTIFICATE OF DOCUMENTATION FOR THE VESSELS “ENCHANTED ISLES” AND “ENCHANTED SEAS”

JANUARY 26, 1996.—Ordered to be printed

Mr. PRESSLER, from the Committee on Commerce, Science, and Transportation, submitted the following

REPORT

[To accompany S. 1047]

The Committee on Commerce, Science, and Transportation, to which was referred the bill (S. 1047) “A bill to authorize the Secretary of Transportation to issue a certificate of documentation with appropriate endorsement for employment in the coastwise trade for the vessels Enchanted Isles and Enchanted Seas”, having considered the same, reports favorably thereon without amendment and recommends that the bill do pass.

PURPOSE OF THE BILL

S. 1047, as reported, grants coastwise trading privileges to the vessels Enchanted Isles and Enchanted Seas.

BACKGROUND AND NEEDS

Subject to certain limited exceptions, the law known as the Jones Act (section 27 of the Merchant Marine Act, 1920) and sections 12106 through 12108 of title 46, U.S. Code, provide that only those vessels built in the United States, continuously documented under the laws of the United States and continuously owned by U.S. citizens may transport merchandise or passengers in the coastwise trade, or engage in the fisheries, of the United States.

Where the facts applicable to a particular vessel suggest the U.S.-built or U.S.-owned requirements have not been satisfied, the Coast Guard may not issue a document granting coastwise trading or fisheries privileges for that vessel unless the requirements of the Jones Act and the title 46 provisions are statutorily waived.

The vessels Enchanted Isles and Enchanted Seas, Panamanian official numbers 14087-84B and 14064-84D, respectively, are 617-foot passenger vessels that were constructed in Pascagoula, Mississippi in 1959 and 1958, respectively. They were purchased by New Commodore Holdings, Ltd. and New Commodore Cruise Lines, Inc. The vessels' owner intends to use them for foreign and domestic passenger cruises out of U.S. east and gulf coast ports.

Because the vessels' were foreign-registered, the owner has not been able to obtain coastwise trade privileges for the Enchanted Isles and Enchanted Seas. Therefore, the owner is seeking a statutory waiver of the Jones Act and title 46 provisions for the vessels.

LEGISLATIVE HISTORY

S. 1047 was introduced in the Senate on July 18, 1995, by Senator Stevens and Senator Hollings. In open executive session on July 20, 1995, the Committee considered S. 1047, and ordered the legislation reported favorably without objection and without amendment.

ESTIMATED COSTS

In accordance with paragraph 11(a) of rule XXVI of the Standing Rules of the Senate and Section 403 of the Congressional Budget Act of 1974, the Committee provides the following cost estimate, prepared by the Congressional Budget Office:

U.S. CONGRESS,

Sincerely,

JUNE E. O'NEILL, Director.

REGULATORY IMPACT STATEMENT

In accordance with paragraph 11(b) of rule XXVI of the Standing Rules of the Senate, the Committee provides the following evaluation of the regulatory impact of the legislation, as reported.

Because S. 1047 does not create any new programs, the legislation will have no additional regulatory impact, and will result in no additional reporting requirements. The legislation will have no further effect on the number or types of individuals and businesses regulated, the economic impact of such regulation, the personal privacy of affected individuals, or the paperwork required from such individuals and businesses.

SECTION-BY-SECTION ANALYSIS

The bill consists of one section. It provides that, notwithstanding section 27 of the Merchant Marine Act, 1920 (46 U.S.C. App. 883), the Act of June 19, 1886 (46 U.S.C. App. 289), section 12106 of title 46, U.S. Code, section 506 of the Merchant Marine Act 1936, and any agreement with the U.S. Government, as applicable on the date of enactment of this bill, the vessels Enchanted Isles and Enchanted Seas, Panamanian official numbers 14087-84B and 14064-84D, respectively, are eligible to engage in the coastwise trade and the Secretary of Transportation may issue certificates of documentation for such vessels. However, the two vessels are not permitted to operate between or among islands in the State of Hawaii.

CHANGES IN EXISTING LAW

In compliance with paragraph 12 of Rule XXVI of the Standing Rules of the Senate, the Committee states the bill as reported would make no change to existing law.
