

PROVIDING FOR THE CONSIDERATION OF H.R. 833, THE
BANKRUPTCY REFORM ACT OF 1999

MAY 4, 1999.—Referred to the House Calendar and ordered to be printed

Mr. SESSIONS, from the Committee on Rules, submitted the following

REPORT

[To accompany H. Res. 158]

The Committee on Rules, having had under consideration House Resolution 158, by a non-record vote report the same to the House with the recommendation that the resolution be adopted.

SUMMARY OF PROVISIONS OF RESOLUTION

The resolution provides for the consideration of H.R. 833, the “Bankruptcy Reform Act of 1999,” under a structured rule. The rule provides one hour of general debate divided equally between the chairman and ranking minority member of the Committee on the Judiciary.

The rule waives points of order against consideration of the bill for failure to comply with section 302 (prohibiting consideration of legislation which exceeds a committee’s allocation of new spending authority) or section 311 (prohibiting consideration of legislation that would cause the total level of new budget authority or outlays in the most recent budget resolution to be exceeded or cause revenues to be less) of the Congressional Budget Act.

The rule provides that it shall be in order to consider as an original bill for the purpose of amendment under the five-minute rule the amendment in the nature of a substitute recommended by the Committee on the Judiciary now printed in the bill. The rule waives all points or order against the committee amendment in the nature of a substitute and amendments thereto.

The rule makes in order only those amendments printed in this report. The rule provides that amendments made in order may be offered only in the order printed in this report, may be offered only by a Member designated in this report, shall be considered as read, shall be debatable for the time specified in this report equally divided and controlled by the proponent and an opponent, shall not be subject to amendment, and shall not be subject to a demand for division of the question in the House or in the Committee of the Whole.

The rule allows for the Chairman of the Committee of the Whole to postpone votes during consideration of the bill, and to reduce voting time to five minutes on a postponed question if the vote follows a fifteen minute vote. Finally, the rule provides one motion to recommit with or without instructions.

The waiver of all points of order includes section 302 of the Congressional Budget Act because section 128 of the committee amendment in the nature of a substitute creates several new judgeships and extends several existing judgeships. The waiver of all points of order also includes section 311 of the Congressional Budget Act because section 148 of the committee amendment in the nature of a substitute waives certain filing fees for indigent filers and section 608 waives certain fees for small businesses. Both the underlying legislation and the Nadler substitute require similar waivers.

SUMMARY OF AMENDMENTS MADE IN ORDER TO H.R. 833—
BANKRUPTCY REFORM ACT OF 1999

Gekas (10 Minutes). Manager's Amendment. The Amendment (1) makes various technical changes; (2) makes a clarifying revision to the type of expenses that a debtor may claim pursuant to the IRS Other Necessary Expenses categories (the revision specifies that the debtor must claim actual monthly expenses for the specified categories); (3) revises certain provisions so that they conform with the Bankruptcy Code's other provisions pertaining to an award of attorneys' fees; (4) clarifies that the chapter 7 trustee must file a statement as to whether or not a case should be presumed to be an abuse in every case administered by such trustee; (5) revised chapter 13's requirements for confirmation to require the court to find that the debtor filed the chapter 13 case in good faith; (6) revises the title of section 134 of the bill; (7) deletes Section 215

(claims relating to insurance deposits in cases ancillary to foreign proceedings) as this provision is included in title XI of the bill, as revised by this Amendment; (8) adds a new provision to describe to certain procedural matters pertaining to appeals, as amended by the bill; (9) adds provisions with respect to the treatment of certain funds subject to state insurance law or regulation for the benefit of claim holders in the United States; (10) repeals sections of the Bankruptcy Code that are no longer necessary' and (11) amends a statutory cross-reference so that it better comports with the drafters' intent, which is to include in the definition of a "financial participant" certain securities contracts, forward contracts, repurchase agreements and swap agreements in addition to certain commodity contracts.

Moran (VA)/Dooley/Ackerman (20 Minutes). Amends the Truth in Lending Act (TILA) to require Credit Card Issuers to make disclosures regarding minimum monthly payments. It would also ensure that consumers have all the information they need in order to avoid the imposition of late fees and requires that Worldwide Web-Based Credit Card Solicitations are subject to the same "Schumer Box" disclosures as all other credit card solicitations.

Moran (VA) (20 minutes). Inserts a disclosure requiring that a debt relief agency providing bankruptcy assistance to an assisted person shall provide a written notice within three business days after the first date on which a debt relief agency first offers to provide any bankruptcy assistance services to an assisted person, advising assisted persons of their rights and responsibilities of disclosure. Requires that an attorney or bankruptcy petition preparer give an assisted person a written contract specifying what the attorney or preparer will do and the cost. Inserts a "debtor's bill of rights." Requires that a debt relief agency disclose in any advertisement of bankruptcy assistance services or of the benefits of bankruptcy that the services or benefits are with respect to proceedings under this title of the Bankruptcy Code.

Velazquez (20 minutes). To allow the expansion of the credit committee membership under chapter 11 bankruptcies to include a small business when it is determined that the small business' claims are disproportionately large to its gross revenues. And to ensure better access to information for those small businesses not included in the committee by allowing the committee to be open for comment and subject to additional reports or disclosures.

Graham (20 minutes). The bankruptcy code prohibits the discharge of federally made, guaranteed or insured education loans or education loans made by non-profit institutions. This amendment would extend the prohibition from discharge to all qualified education loans. Includes exceptions for undue hardships.

Dooley (20 minutes). Requires the Federal Trade Commission to set standards to be used by the United States Trustees in approving credit counseling agencies, programs described in section 109(h) and instructional courses concerning personal financial management.

Conyers (20 minutes). Waives the provision of chapter 11 relating to small business debtors or to single asset real estate in cases where the application of those provisions could result in the loss of 5 or more jobs.

Watt (20 minutes). Replaces the provisions of H.R. 833 which require that all bankruptcy filers file their tax returns with the court and instead require that a debtor file tax returns with the court at the request of any party in interest.

Whitfield (20 minutes). Establishes a mechanism whereby bankruptcy trustees may receive compensation when they transfer cases from chapter 7 to chapter 13. Under this provision, the level of compensation would be determined by the bankruptcy judge.

Hyde/Conyers (40 minutes). Deletes the reported bill's application of modified IRS expense allowances for determining permissible projected living expenses of debtors and their families during the life of chapter 13 plans. In its place, the amendment adopts a standard that allows only "reasonably necessary" expenses and directs the Executive office of United States Trustees to issue guidelines that will assist in making assessments of whether expenses qualify. The amendment does not affect other provisions of section 102 that are designed to limit the availability of an immediate fresh start in chapter 7, channel significant numbers of chapter 7 debtors into five-year chapter 13 repayment plans, and generate greater recoveries from creditors.

Nadler/Conyers/Meehan/Berman (60 minutes). Substitute. Provides a realistic means test which takes into account the debtor's actual income and expenses. Does not omit expenses a debtor would have to pay in a chapter 13 plan from the test used to determine whether the debtor must file for chapter 13. Does not rely on IRS guidelines to determine how much a debtor should live on. Allows adequate judicial discretion to determine whether the debtor appropriately belongs in chapter 7. Avoids using a debtor's ability to repay a specified percentage of unsecured non-priority debts which is easy for debtors to manipulate. Holds both debtor and creditor attorneys to strict application of Rule 9011's penalties for misconduct or bringing a frivolous case. Contains a safe harbor for families below the median national income. Provides a balance by requiring credit card lenders to behave responsibly and to provide borrowers with the information they need to avoid bankruptcy. Prevents some of the more highly publicized cases in which creditors illegally enforced debts after bankruptcy through "reaffirmation agreements." Deletes a section which would have denied victims in these cases a legal remedy by prohibiting class action suits. Eliminates new grounds for making credit card debts non-dischargeable, but leaves intact current law which makes prebankruptcy debt run-up and fraudulently incurred debt non-dischargeable. Eliminates a provision which would have allowed landlords to evict debtors without obtaining the permission of the bankruptcy court. Removes a provision which allows secured creditors to treat the unsecured part of some loans as secured debt. Modifies the child support portions of the bill to take away the special new rights over families that state and local governments would have obtained in a bankruptcy case. Places families first.

SEC. 154. DISCLOSURES.

(a) DISCLOSURES.—Subchapter II of chapter 5 of title 11, United States Code, as amended by section 106, is amended by adding at the end the following:

“§ 527. Disclosures

“(a) A debt relief agency providing bankruptcy assistance to an assisted person shall provide the following notices to the assisted person:

“(1) the written notice required under section 342(b)(1) of this title; and

“(2) to the extent not covered in the written notice described in paragraph (1) of this section and no later than three business days after the first date on which a debt relief agency first offers to provide any bankruptcy assistance services to an assisted person, a clear and conspicuous written notice advising assisted persons of the following—

“(A) all information the assisted person is required to provide with a petition and thereafter during a case under this title must be complete, accurate and truthful;

“(B) all assets and all liabilities must be completely and accurately disclosed in the documents filed to commence the case, and the replacement value of each asset as defined in section 506 of this title must be stated in those documents where requested after reasonable inquiry to establish such value;

“(C) current monthly income, the amounts specified in section 707(b)(2) and, in a chapter 13 case, disposable income (determined in accordance with section 707(b)(2)) must be stated after reasonable inquiry; and

“(D) that information an assisted person provides during their case may be audited pursuant to this title and that failure to provide such information may result in dismissal of the proceeding under this title or other sanction including, in some instances, criminal sanctions.

“(b) A debt relief agency providing bankruptcy assistance to an assisted person shall provide each assisted person at the same time as the notices required under subsection (a)(1) with the following statement, to the extent applicable, or one substantially similar. The statement shall be clear and conspicuous and shall be in a single document separate from other documents or notices provided to the assisted person:

“IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT BANKRUPTCY ASSISTANCE SERVICES FROM AN ATTORNEY OR BANKRUPTCY PETITION PREPARER

“If you decide to seek bankruptcy relief, you can represent yourself, you can hire an attorney to represent you, or you can get help in some localities from a bankruptcy petition preparer who is not an attorney. THE LAW REQUIRES AN ATTORNEY OR BANKRUPTCY PETITION PREPARER TO GIVE YOU A WRITTEN CONTRACT SPECIFYING WHAT THE ATTORNEY OR BANKRUPTCY PETITION PREPARER WILL DO FOR YOU AND HOW MUCH IT WILL COST. Ask to see the contract before you hire anyone.

“The following information helps you understand what must be done in a routine bankruptcy case to help you evaluate how much service you need. Although bankruptcy can be complex, many cases are routine.

“Before filing a bankruptcy case, either you or your attorney should analyze your eligibility for different forms of debt relief made available by the Bankruptcy Code and which form of relief is most likely to be beneficial for you. Be sure you understand the relief you can obtain and its limitations. To file a bankruptcy case, documents called a Petition, Schedules and Statement of Financial Affairs, as well as in some cases a Statement of Intention need to be prepared correctly and filed with the bankruptcy court. You will have to pay a filing fee to the bankruptcy court. Once your case starts, you will have to attend the required first meeting of creditors where you may be questioned by a court official called a “trustee” and by creditors.

“If you choose to file a chapter 7 case, you may be asked by a creditor to reaffirm a debt. You may want help deciding whether to do so and a creditor is not permitted to coerce you into reaffirming your debts.

“If you choose to file a chapter 13 case in which you repay your creditors what you can afford over three to five years, you may also want help with preparing your chapter 13 plan and with the confirmation hearing on your plan which will be before a bankruptcy judge.

“If you select another type of relief under the Bankruptcy Code other than chapter 7 or chapter 13, you will want to find out what needs to be done from someone familiar with that type of relief.

“Your bankruptcy case may also involve litigation. You are generally permitted to represent yourself in litigation in bankruptcy court, but only attorneys, not bankruptcy petition preparers, can give you legal advice.’.

“(c) Except to the extent the debt relief agency provides the required information itself after reasonably diligent inquiry of the assisted person or others so as to obtain such information reasonably accurately for inclusion on the petition, schedules or statement of financial affairs, a debt relief agency providing bankruptcy assistance to an assisted person, to the extent permitted by nonbankruptcy law, shall provide each assisted person at the time required for the notice required under subsection (a)(1) reasonably sufficient information (which shall be provided in a clear and conspicuous writing) to the assisted person on how to provide all the information the assisted person is required to provide under this title pursuant to section 521, including—

“(3) how to determine what property is exempt and how to value exempt property at replacement value as defined in section 506 of this title.

“(d) A debt relief agency shall maintain a copy of the notices required under subsection (a) of this section for two years after the date on which the notice is given the assisted person.”.

“(a) A debt relief agency shall—

“(1) no later than five business days after the first date on which a debt relief agency provides any bankruptcy assistance services to an assisted person, but prior to such assisted person’s petition under this title being filed, execute a written contract with the assisted person specifying clearly and conspicuously the services the agency will provide the assisted person and the basis on which fees or charges will be made for such services and the terms of payment, and give the assisted person a copy of the fully executed and completed contract in a form the person can keep;

“(2) disclose in any advertisement of bankruptcy assistance services or of the benefits of bankruptcy directed to the general public (whether in general media, seminars or specific mailings, telephonic or electronic messages or otherwise) that the services or benefits are with respect to proceedings under this title, clearly and conspicuously using the following statement: ‘We are a debt relief agency. We help people file Bankruptcy petitions to obtain relief under the Bankruptcy Code.’ or a substantially similar statement. An advertisement shall be of bankruptcy assistance services if it describes or offers bankruptcy assistance with a chapter 13 plan, regardless of whether chapter 13 is specifically mentioned, including such statements as ‘federally supervised repayment plan’ or ‘Federal debt restructuring help’ or other similar statements which would lead a reasonable consumer to believe that help with debts was being offered when in fact in most cases the help available is bankruptcy assistance with a chapter 13 plan; and

“(3) if an advertisement directed to the general public indicates that the debt relief agency provides assistance with respect to credit defaults, mortgage foreclosures, lease eviction proceedings, excessive debt, debt collection pressure, or inability to pay any consumer debt, disclose conspicuously in that advertisement that the assistance is with respect to or may involve proceedings under this title, using the following statement: ‘We are a debt relief agency. TITLE I—CONSUMER BANKRUPTCY PROVISIONS

Subtitle A—Needs based bankruptcy

SEC. 101. CONVERSION.

Section 706(c) of title 11, United States Code, is amended by inserting “or consents to” after “requests”.

SEC. 102. DISMISSAL OR CONVERSION.

(a) IN GENERAL.—Section 707 of title 11, United States Code, is amended—

(1) by striking the section heading and inserting the following:

“§ 707. Dismissal of a case or conversion to a case under chapter 13”; and

(2) by amending subsection (b) to read as follows:

“(b)(1) After notice and a hearing, a court, on its own motion or on a motion by the United States trustee, the trustee, or any part in interest who is eligible to bring a motion, may dismiss a case filed by an individual debtor under this chapter, or with the debtor’s consent, convert such a case to a case under chapter 11 or 13 of this title if it finds that the granting of relief would be an abuse of the provisions of this chapter, the court shall consider whether—

“(A) the debtor has the ability to repay some portion of the debtor’s unsecured nonpriority debt as determined under paragraphs (2) and (3);

“(B) the debtor has filed the petition in bad faith; or

“(C) the totality of the circumstances (including whether the debtor seeks to reject a personal services contract and the financial need for such rejection as sought by the debtor) of the debtor’s financial situation demonstrates abuse.

“(2) In considering under paragraph (1)(A) whether the granting of relief would be an abuse of the provisions of this chapter, the court shall conclusively presume abuse does not exist if the debtor’s current monthly income, when multiplied by 12, is less than or equal to 100 percent of the highest national or applicable State or

Statistical Area median family income reported for a family of equal size, whichever is greater, or in the case of a household of 1 person, less than or equal to 100 percent of the highest national or State or Metropolitan Statistical Area median household income for 1 earner, whichever is greater, as adjusted, if applicable, as provided in paragraph (6).

“(3) In considering under paragraph (1)(A) whether the granting of relief would be an abuse of the provision of this chapter, the court shall presume abuse exists if—

“(A) the debtor’s current monthly income, when multiplied by 12, is less than or equal to 100 percent of the highest national or applicable State or Metropolitan Statistical Area median family income reported for a family of equal size, whichever is greater, or in the case of a household of 1 person, less than or equal to 100 percent of the highest national or State or Metropolitan Statistical Area median household income for 1 yearner, whichever is greater, as adjusted, if applicable, as provided in paragraph (6); and

“(B) the product of—

“(i) the debtor’s current monthly income, reduced by allowable monthly expenses specified in paragraph (4) (which shall include, if applicable the continuation of actual expenses of a dependent child under the age of 18 for tuition, books, and required fees at a private elementary or secondary school, or comparable expenses stemming from the home education of such child, or the attendance of such child at a public elementary or secondary school, not exceeding $10,000) and monthly debt payments specified in paragraph (5), and less estimated administrative expenses and reasonable attorneys’ fees, is not less than $6,000 of the debtor’s nonpriority unsecured claims in the case.

“(ii) multiplied by 36,

“(4) For the purposes of this subsection, the debtor’s allowable monthly expenses shall be the expenses reasonably necessary—

“(A) for the maintenance or support of the debtor, the dependents of the debtor, and in a joint case, the spouse of the debtor if the spouse is not otherwise a dependent; and

“(B) if the debtor is engaged in business, for the payment of expenditures necessary for the continuation, preservation, and operation of such business.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this clause, the debtor’s monthly expenses shall not include payments for debts described in paragraph (5).

“(5) For purposes of this subsection, the debtor’s monthly debt payments shall include—

“(A) the total amount scheduled as contractually due on all secured debts in each month of the 36 months following the date of the petition and divided by 36; and

“(B) the debtor’s expenses for payment of all priority claims, including priority domestic support obligations, calculated as the total amount of debts entitled to priority in each month of the 36 months following the date of the petition and divided by 36.

“(6) For the purposes of this subsection—

“(A) national or applicable State or Metropolitan Statistical Area median family income reported for a household of more than 4 individuals shall be that of a household of 4 individuals plus $583 per month for each additional member of that household;

“(B) a family or household shall consist of the debtor, the debtor’s spouse, and the debtor’s dependents, but not a legally separated spouse unless the spouse files a joint case with the debtor.

“(7) In any proceeding brought under this subsection, the presumption of abuse may be rebutted by demonstrating special circumstances that justify additional reasonable expenses or adjustments of current monthly total income. In order to establish such circumstances, the debtor shall be required to—

“(B) The Supreme Court shall promulgate rules under section 2075 of title 28, United States Code, that prescribe a form for a statement under subparagraph (A) and may provide general rules on the content of such statement.

“(A) the counsel for the debtor to reimburse the trustee for all reasonable costs in prosecuting a motion brought under section 707(b), including reasonable attorneys’ fees;

“(12) If an attorney for a party in interest (other than a trustee, bankruptcy administrator, or United States trustee) brings a motion for dismissal or conversion under this subsection, and the court does not grant that motion and finds that the action of the counsel for the moving party in filing such motion under this chapter violated Rule 9011, the court shall assess damages, which may include ordering—

“(A) the counsel for the moving party to reimburse the debtor for all reasonable costs in defending a motion brought under section 707(b), including reasonable attorneys’ fees;

“(B) the assessment of an appropriate civil penalty against the counsel for the moving party.

“(13) In making a determination whether to dismiss a case under this section, the court may not take into consideration whether a debtor has made, or continues to make, charitable contributions (that meet the definition of ‘charitable contribution’ under section 548(d)(3) and as described by section 548(a)(2) of this title to any qualified religious or charitable entity or organization (as that term is defined in section 548(d)(4)) of this title.

“(14) No court, United States trustee, bankruptcy administrator, or other party in interest shall bring a motion under subsection (b)(1)(A) if, as of the date of the order for relief, the debtor’s current monthly income, when multiplied by 12, is less than or equal to 100 percent of the highest national or applicable State or Metropolitan Statistical Area median family income reported for a family of equal size, whichever is greater, or in the case of a household of 1 person, less than or equal to 100 percent of the highest national or State or Metropolitan Statistical Area median household income for 1 earner, whichever is greater, as adjusted, if applicable, as provided in paragraph(6).”

(b) DEFINITION.—Section 101 of title 11, United States Code, is amended—

(1) by inserting after paragraph (10) the following:

“(10A) ‘current monthly income’—

“(A) means the average monthly income from all sources which the debtor, or in a joint case, the debtor and the debtor’s spouse, receive without regard to whether the income is taxable income, derived during the 180-day period preceding the date of determination;

“(B) includes any amount paid by any entity other than the debtor (or, in a joint case, the debtor and the debtor’s spouse), on a regular basis to the household expenses of the debtor or the debtor’s dependents (and, in a joint case, the debtor’s spouse if not otherwise a dependent), but excludes—

“(ii) benefits received from the Department of Veterans Affairs in connection with service in the armed forces of the United States;

“(iii) income received on account of disability;and
 “(iv) benefits received under the Social Security Act.”;

(2) by inserting after paragraph (17) the following:

“(17A) ‘estimated administrative expenses’ means 10 percent of projected payments under a chapter 13 plan;”.

(c) DUTIES OF CHAPTER 7 TRUSTEE.—Section 704 of title 11, United States Code, is amended—

(1) by inserting “(a)” before “The trustee shall—”; and

(2) by adding at the end the following:

“(b)(1) With respect to an individual debtor under this chapter, the trustee shall review all materials filed by the debtor and, not later than 10 days after the first meeting of creditors, file with the court and the United States trustee a statement as to whether the debtor’s case could be presumed to be an abuse under section 707(b).

“(2) Not later than 60 days after receiving a statement filed under paragraph (1), the United States trustee or bankruptcy administrator shall—

“(A) file a statement setting forth the reasons why the bankruptcy administrator does not believe that such a motion would be appropriate or would be prohibited because the debtor is a debtor of the kind described in section 707(b)(14) of this title; or

“(B) file a motion to dismiss or convert under section 707(b) if, based on the filing of such statement with the court, the United States trustee or bankruptcy administrator determines that the case should be presumed to be an abuse under section 707(b) and the debtor’s current monthly income, when multiplied by 12, is less than or equal to 100 percent of the highest national or applicable State or State Metropolitan Statistical Area median family income reported for a family of equal size, whichever is greater, or in the case of a household of 1 person, less than or equal to 100 percent of the highest national or State or Metropolitan Statistical Area median household income for 1 earner, whichever is greater. For the purposes of determining whether a motion would be appropriate to be filed, the United States trustee shall consider adjustments to current monthly income for income items received over the most recent 180 days that are not reasonably expected to be reflected in future income, or expenses likely to be due under a chapter 13 plan which are not included in the required statement of the debtor’s expense. The debtor shall, at the request of the United States trustee, provide documentation for any current income items that are not reasonably expected to be reflected in future income, and a detailed explanation of the circumstances that warrant making such adjustments. If the United States trustee determines that, after accounting for these adjustments, the debtor’s current monthly income, which multiplied by 12, is less than or equal to 100 percent of the higher of the national, State, or Metropolitan Statistical Area median family income reported for a family of equal or lesser size, or in the case of a household of 1 person, the national median household income for 1 earner, then the case shall be presumed not be an abuse of the previous of this chapter.

For the purpose of this subsection, the national or applicable State or Metropolitan Statistical Area median family income reported for a household of more than 4 individuals shall be that of a household of 4 individuals plus $583 per month for each additional member of that household.

“(3) Paragraph (2) shall not be construed to preclude the court or any other party who is eligible to file a motion under section 707(b) from bringing such a motion.”.

“SUBCHAPTER III—RECOGNITION OF A FOREIGN PROCEEDING AND RELIEF

“§ 1515. Application for recognition of a foreign proceeding

“(a) A foreign representative applies to the court for recognition of the foreign proceeding in which the foreign representative has been appointed by filing a petition for recognition.

“(b) A petition for recognition shall be accompanied by—

“(1) a certified copy of the decision commencing the foreign proceeding and appointing the foreign representative;

“(2) a certificate from the foreign court affirming the existence of the foreign proceeding and of the appointment of the foreign representative; or

“(3) in the absence of evidence referred to in paragraphs (1) and (2), any other evidence acceptable to the court of the existence of the foreign proceeding and of the appointment of the foreign representative.

“(c) A petition for recognition shall also be accompanied by a statement identifying all foreign proceedings with respect to the debtor that are known to the foreign representative.

“(d) The documents referred to in paragraphs (1) and (2) of subsection (b) must be translated into English. The court may require a translation into English of additional documents.

“§ 1516. Presumptions concerning recognition

“(a) If the decision or certificate referred to in section 1515(b) indicates that the foreign proceeding is a foreign proceeding as defined in section 101 and that the person or body is a foreign representative as defined in section 101, the court is entitled to so presume.

“(b) The court is entitled to presume that documents submitted in support of the petition for recognition are authentic, whether or not they have been legalized.

“(c) In the absence of evidence to the contrary, the debtor’s registered office, or habitual residence in the case of an individual, is presumed to be the center of the debtor’s main interests.

“§ 1517. Order recognizing a foreign proceeding

“(a) Subject to section 1506, after notice and a hearing an order recognizing a foreign proceeding shall be entered if—

“(1) the foreign proceeding is a foreign main proceeding or foreign nonmain proceeding within the meaning of section 1502;

“(2) as a foreign nonmain proceeding if the debtor has an establishment within the meaning of section 1502 in the foreign country where the proceeding is pending.

“(c) A petition for recognition of a foreign proceeding shall be decided upon at the earliest possible time. Entry of an order recognizing a foreign proceeding constitutes recognition under this chapter.

“(d) The provisions of this subchapter do not prevent modification or termination of recognition if it is shown that the grounds for granting it were fully or partially lacking or have ceased to exist, but in considering such action the court shall give due weight to possible prejudice to parties that have relied upon the granting of recognition. The case under this chapter may be closed in the manner prescribed under section 350.

“§ 1518. Subsequent information

“(2) entrusting the administration or realization of all or part of the debtor’s assets located in the United States to the foreign representative or another person authorized by the court, including an examiner, in order to protect and preserve the value of assets that, by their nature or because of other circumstances, are perishable, susceptible to devaluation or otherwise in jeopardy; and

“(3) any relief referred to in paragraph (3), (4), or (7) of section 1521(a).

“(b) Unless extended under section 1521(a)(6), the relief granted under this section terminates when the petition for recognition is decided upon.

“(d) The court may not enjoin a police or regulatory act of a governmental unit, including a criminal action or proceeding, under this section.

“(e) The standards, procedures, and limitations applicable to an injunction shall apply to relief under this section.

“(1) sections 361 and 362 with respect to the debtor and that property of the debtor that is within the territorial jurisdiction of the United States;

“(2) sections 363, 549, and 552 of this title apply to a transfer of an interest of the debtor in property that is within the territorial jurisdiction of the United States to the same extent that the sections would apply to property of an estate;

“(3) unless the court orders otherwise, the foreign representative may operate the debtor’s business and may exercise the rights and powers of a trustee under and to the extent provided by sections 363 and 552; and

“(4) providing for the examination of witnesses, the taking of evidence or the delivery of information concerning the debtor’s assets, affairs, rights, obligations or liabilities;

“(5) entrusting the administration or realization of all or part of the debtor’s assets within the territorial jurisdiction of the United States to the foreign representative or another person, including an examiner, authorized by the court;

“(d) The court may not enjoin a police or regulatory act of a governmental unit, including a criminal action or proceeding, under this section.

“(e) The standards, procedures, and limitations applicable to an injunction shall apply to relief under paragraphs (1), (2), (3), and (6) of subsection (a).

“§ 1522. Protection of creditors and other interested persons

“(a) The court may grant relief under section 1519 or 1521, or may modify or terminate relief under subsection (c), only if the interests of the creditors and other interested entities, including the debtor, are sufficiently protected.

“(b) The court may subject relief granted under section 1519 or 1521, or the operation of the debtor’s business under section 1520(a)(3) of this title, to conditions it considers appropriate, including the giving of security or the filing of a bond.

“(c) The court may, at the request of the foreign representative or an entity affected by relief granted under section 1519 or 1521, or at its own motion, modify or terminate such relief.
