COMMITTEE STATEMENT AND VIEWS

PURPOSE AND SUMMARY

H.R. 3797, the first annual omnibus authorization bill for the District of Columbia, would authorize improvements in the operations of the government of the District of Columbia.

BACKGROUND AND NEED FOR LEGISLATION

The Government Reform Committee has jurisdiction over the municipal affairs of the District of Columbia. In order to foster a better working relationship between the District of Columbia and Congress, the Committee has initiated an annual or biannual authorization process that would provide the District with a vehicle with which to move needed changes in the federal laws governing the District of Columbia.

SECTION-BY-SECTION

Section 1. Short title

This Act may be cited as the “2004 District of Columbia Omnibus Authorization Act.”

Section 2. Requiring submission of plan by school board for allocation of funds under Mayor’s proposed budget

This section would provide for a “budget reconciliation” requirement for the DC school system. Currently, the Mayor and the Council establish spending caps for the School Board’s budget, but the DC Home Rule Act prohibits the Mayor and the Council from altering any of the budget decisions made by the School Board. This section would provide for the Mayor and Council to request reconciled budgets from the schools after the District’s budget process is completed.

Section 3. Multiyear contracting authority and leasing agreements for District of Columbia courts

This section would authorize the court to (1) enter into severable services contracts for periods crossing fiscal years (similar to GSA’s authority); (2) enter into multiyear leasing agreements up to 10 years for property (GSA is authorized to enter into 20 year leases) and multiyear contracts for goods and services not to exceed $5 million (GSA is authorized to enter into contracts not to exceed $10 million). This section also includes a procedure for cancellation or termination for insufficient funding after first year, similar to federal government cancellation procedures.

Section 4. Establishment of academic year as fiscal year for DC schools

This provision would change the annual budget cycles for the public school system, the charter schools and the University of the District of Columbia to an academic year (from a fiscal year) beginning with the FY2007 budget cycle.

Section 5. Extension of deadline for council to adopt budget to account for days of recess

This language would provide the Council with an additional 6 days with which to review the budget. The DC Home Rule Act states that “The Council, within fifty calendar days after receipt of the budget proposal from the Mayor, and after public hearing, shall by act adopt the annual budget for the District of Columbia government.” Given the timeframe of the District’s budget process, the weeklong Spring recess, which is scheduled around Easter just like Congress’s recess, falls in the middle of the 50-day review period.

Section 6. Exemption of DC government employees on compressed schedule from Federal overtime requirements

This section would exempt District government employees from the Fair Labor Standards Act, enabling DC to offer alternate work schedules (flextime rather than overtime) to employees, similar to federal employees. This section would take effect upon date of enactment.

Section 7. Availability of enforced annual leave or enforced leave without pay for Corporation Counsel attorneys

This section would give the District’s Corporation Counsel the ability to place an attorney on forced leave, while an investigation is underway in the case where an attorney may have engaged in misconduct. In accordance with Home Rule provisions, Congressional action is necessary for this provision to apply to pre-1980 employees. This section would take effect upon date of enactment.

Section 8. Regulation of DC banks by Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation

This section would transfer the oversight of DC-chartered banks from the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency to the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation. In all 50 states, state-chartered banks are regulated by the FDIC and the state banking regulator, and nationally-chartered banks are regulated by the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency (OCC). In DC, however, DC-chartered banks would be regulated by the OCC rather than the FDIC. Although there were no DC-chartered banks in existence at the time the Committee considered this legislation, District officials explained that three banks have expressed interest in applying for DC charters, but have not yet done so because of the burden of being regulated differently than their state-chartered banks in other states. This section would take effect upon date of enactment.

EXPLANATION OF AMENDMENTS

The Committee adopted no amendments.

COMMITTEE CONSIDERATION

On February 26, 2004, the Committee met in open session and ordered favorably reported the bill, H.R. 3797, by voice vote, a quorum being present.

ROLLCALL VOTES

No roll call votes were held.

CORRESPONDENCE

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
COMMITTEE ON EDUCATION AND THE WORKFORCE,
Washington, DC, June 17, 2004.

Hon. TOM DAVIS,
Chairman, Committee on Government Reform, Rayburn House Office Building, Washington, DC.

DEAR CHAIRMAN DAVIS: I am writing to confirm our mutual understanding with respect to consideration of H.R. 3797, the 2004 District of Columbia Authorization Act, which the Committee on Government Reform reported on February 26, 2004. This bill was referred to the Committee on Government Reform, and in addition to the Committees on Education and the Workforce and Financial Services. Section 6, Exemption of District of Columbia Employees on Compressed Schedule from Federal Overtime Requirements, amends the Fair Labor Standards Act and is within the sole jurisdiction of the Committee on Education and the Workforce.

Given the fact that I support the policy contained in Section 6, I do not intend to ask for continued referral of H.R. 3797, nor will I object to the scheduling of this bill for consideration in the House of Representatives. However, I do so only with the understanding that this procedural route should not be construed to prejudice the Committee on Education and the Workforce's jurisdictional interest and prerogatives on these provisions or any other similar legislation and will not be considered as precedent for consideration of matters of jurisdictional interest to my Committee in the future. Furthermore, should these or similar provisions be considered in a conference with the Senate, I would expect Members of the Committee on Education and the Workforce be appointed to the conference committee on those provisions.

Finally, I would ask that you include a copy of our exchange of letters on this matter in your report to accompany this bill. If you have questions regarding this matter, please do not hesitate to call me. I thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

JOHN A. BOEHNER,
Chairman.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
COMMITTEE ON GOVERNMENT REFORM,
Washington, DC, June 17, 2004.

Hon. JOHN A. BOEHNER,
Chairman, Committee on Education and the Workforce, House of Representatives, Washington, DC.

DEAR MR. CHAIRMAN: Thank you for your recent letter regarding the Education and the Workforce Committee's jurisdictional interest in H.R. 3797, the 2004 District of Columbia Authorization Act. As you have stated, Section 6 exempting certain District of Columbia employees from overtime regulation under the Fair Labor Standards Act is within the jurisdiction of your Committee.

I agree that the Education and Workforce Committee does not waive its jurisdiction over H.R. 3797 by waiving further consideration of the bill. In addition, I will support your request for conferees from the Government Reform Committee should a House-Senate conference on this or similar legislation be convened.

As you have requested, I will include a copy of your letter and this response as part of the Government Reform Committee's report and the Congressional Record during consideration of the legislation on the House floor. Thank you for your assistance as I work towards the enactment of H.R. 3797.

Sincerely,

TOM DAVIS,
Chairman.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
COMMITTEE ON FINANCIAL SERVICES,
Washington, DC, March 9, 2004.

Hon. TOM DAVIS,
Chairman, Committee on Government Reform, Rayburn House Office Building, Washington, DC.

DEAR TOM: On February 26, 2004, the Committee on Government Reform ordered reported H.R. 3797, the 2004 District of Columbia Omnibus Authorization Act. As you know, the Committee on Financial Services was granted an additional referral upon the bill's introduction pursuant to the Committee's jurisdiction under Rule X of the Rules of the House of Representatives over banks and banking. Section 8 of the bill addresses the regulation of banks chartered by the District of Columbia by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.

Because of your willingness to consult with my committee regarding this matter, I will waive consideration of the bill by the Financial Services Committee. By agreeing to waive its consideration of the bill, the Financial Services reserves its authority to seek conferees on any provisions of the bill that are within the Financial Services Committee's jurisdiction during any House-Senate conference that may be convened on this legislation. I ask your commitment to support any request by the Committee on Financial Services for conferees on H.R. 3797 or related legislation.

I request that you include this letter and your response as part of your committees report on the bill and the Congressional Record during consideration of the legislation on the House Floor.

Thank you for your attention to these matters.

Sincerely,

MICHAEL G. OXLEY,
Chairman.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
 COMMITTEE ON GOVERNMENT REFORM,
Washington, DC, March 9, 2004.

Hon. MICHAEL G. OXLEY,
*Chairman, Committee on Financial Services,
 House of Representatives, Washington, DC.*

DEAR MR. CHAIRMAN: Thank you for your recent letter regarding the Financial Services Committee's jurisdictional interest in H.R. 3797, the 2004 District of Columbia Authorization Act. As you have stated, Section 8 regarding the regulation of banks chartered by the District of Columbia by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation is within the jurisdiction of your Committee.

I agree that the Financial Services Committee does not waive its jurisdiction over H.R. 3797 by waiving further consideration of the bill. In addition, I will support your request for conferees from the Financial Services Committee should a House-Senate conference on this or similar legislation be convened.

As you have requested, I will include a copy of your letter and this response as part of the Government Reform Committee's report and the Congressional Record during consideration of the legislation on the House floor. Thank you for your assistance as I work towards the enactment of H.R. 3797.

Sincerely,

TOM DAVIS,
Chairman.

APPLICATION OF LAW TO THE LEGISLATIVE BRANCH

Section 102(b)(3) of Public Law 104-1 requires a description of the application of this bill to the legislative branch where the bill relates to the terms and conditions of employment or access to public services and accommodations. Legislative branch employees and their families, to the extent that they are otherwise eligible for the benefits provided by this legislation, have equal access to its benefits.

STATEMENT OF OVERSIGHT FINDINGS AND RECOMMENDATIONS OF THE COMMITTEE

In compliance with clause 3(c)(1) of rule XIII and clause (2)(b)(1) of rule X of the Rules of the House of Representatives, the Committee's oversight findings and recommendations are reflected in the descriptive portions of this report.

STATEMENT OF GENERAL PERFORMANCE GOALS AND OBJECTIVES

In accordance with clause 3(c)(4) of rule XIII of the Rules of the House of Representatives, the Committee's performance goals and objectives are reflected in the descriptive portions of this report

CONSTITUTIONAL AUTHORITY STATEMENT

Under clause 3(d)(1) of rule XIII of the Rules of the House of Representatives, the Committee must include a statement citing the specific powers granted to Congress to enact the law proposed by H.R. 4012. Article I, Section 8, Clauses 17 and 18 of the Constitution of the United States provide Congress the power to enact this law.

FEDERAL ADVISORY COMMITTEE ACT

The Committee finds that the legislation does not establish or authorize the establishment of an advisory committee within the definition of 5 U.S.C. App., Section 5(b).

UNFUNDED MANDATE STATEMENT

Section 423 of the Congressional Budget and Impoundment Control Act (as amended by Section 101(a)(2) of the Unfunded Mandate Reform Act, P.L. 104-4) requires a statement whether the provisions of the reported include unfunded mandates. In compliance with this requirement the Committee has received a letter from the Congressional Budget Office included herein.

COMMITTEE ESTIMATE

Clause 3(d)(2) of rule XIII of the Rules of the House of Representatives requires an estimate and a comparison by the Committee of the costs that would be incurred in carrying out H.R. 3797. However, clause 3(d)(3)(B) of that rule provides that this requirement does not apply when the Committee has included in its report a timely submitted cost estimate of the bill prepared by the Director of the Congressional Budget Office under section 402 of the Congressional Budget Act.

BUDGET AUTHORITY AND CONGRESSIONAL BUDGET OFFICE COST ESTIMATE

With respect to the requirements of clause 3(c)(2) of rule XIII of the Rules of the House of Representatives and section 308(a) of the Congressional Budget Act of 1974 and with respect to requirements of clause 3(c)(3) of rule XIII of the Rules of the House of Representatives and section 402 of the Congressional Budget Act of 1974, the Committee has received the following cost estimate for H.R. 3797 from the Director of Congressional Budget Office:

H.R. 3797—2004 District of Columbia Omnibus Authorization Act

Summary: H.R. 3797 would amend various federal laws applicable to the operation of the District of Columbia (D.C.) government, including provisions that would increase monitoring of city and school budgets, establish the academic year as the fiscal year for D.C. schools, offer alternative work schedules for D.C. government employees, and modify the regulation of banks chartered in the District. CBO estimates that those provisions would have no significant impact on the federal budget.

CBO estimates that enacting section 3 would increase federal direct spending by about $20 million over the 2004–2014 period because it would authorize the Executive Officer of the D.C. Courts to enter into 10-year building leases regardless of whether the D.C. Courts have sufficient appropriated funds available for such a lease. Under the National Capital Revitalization and Self-Government Improvement Act of 1997, the budget of the D.C. Courts system is funded through federal appropriations, and its expenditures are recorded on the federal budget. Enactment of the bill would not affect federal revenues.

The bill contains no private-sector mandates as defined in the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act (UMRA). Section 2 of H.R. 3797 contains an intergovernmental mandate as defined in UMRA, but CBO estimates that the resulting costs would not be significant and would not exceed the threshold established in UMRA ($60 million in 2004, adjusted annually for inflation).

Estimated cost to the Federal Government: The estimated budgetary impact of H.R. 3797 is shown in the following table. The costs of this legislation fall within budget function 800 (general government).

	By fiscal year, in millions of dollars—
	2004	2005	2006	2007	2008	2009	2010	2011	2012	2013	2014

Note.—* = less than $500,000.

Basis of estimate: For this estimate, CBO assumes that the bill be enacted near the end of fiscal year 2004. Most of the bill's provisions that would directly affect operations of the city government have been passed by the Council of the District of Columbia and signed by the Mayor. Under the Home Rule Act, any legislation enacted by the city must be approved by the Congress. CBO estimates that those provisions would not have a significant effect on the federal budget.

H.R. 3797 would authorize the D.C. Courts to enter into agreements with nonfederal entities to lease commercial or special-purpose property. Such agreements could obligate the federal government for up to 10 years without regard to provisions of the Anti-Deficiency Act. Thus, the government's obligations could occur in advance, or in excess, of appropriated amounts. The legislation thereby provides contract authority—the authority to obligate funds in advance or in excess of appropriations to cover the obligation.

Based on information from the D.C. Courts, CBO expects that the agency would use the authority in H.R. 3797 to enter into an operating lease for temporary office space during renovations to the J. Carl Moultrie Courthouse at an estimated cost of about $20 million over the next 10 years. Assuming that this lease would qualify as an operating lease under the government's scorekeeping guidelines, and if it did not contain a cancellation clause, budget authority would be recorded in the budget in the year of enactment equal to the estimated total payments expected over the full term of the lease. (If the lease contract were to contain a cancellation clause, only the budget authority that would be necessary for annual lease payments would be recorded in the budget. For the first year of the lease, the budget also would record an amount sufficient to cover costs associated with cancellation.)

Because the authority is not limited to a particular project or purpose, it is possible that the D.C. Courts could use the authority in this bill to lease special-purpose facilities specifically constructed for use by the D.C. Courts. If appropriated funds are not available for the planned C Street expansion to the H. Carl Moultrie Courthouse, it is possible that the D.C. Courts could use the authority provided in H.R. 3797 to enter into lease-purchase agreements to facilitate new construction to allow the consolidation of the Family Court and related services. For such agreements, the budget records the full cost of the federal obligation when the leases are initially approved. Using information from the Master Plan for Judiciary Square, the General Accounting Office, and the General Services Administration, CBO estimates that such a new addition would cost $63 million. At this time, however, we have no basis for predicting whether the authority that would be provided by H.R. 3797 would be used for such an addition, and we have not included those costs in this estimate.

Intergovernmental and private-sector impact: H.R. 3797 contains no private-sector mandates as defined in UMRA. Section 2 of H.R. 3797 contains an intergovernmental mandate because it would require the District of Columbia's School Board to submit a comprehensive budget plan to the Mayor and the City Council. This new requirement constitutes a mandate, but CBO estimates that the resulting costs would not be significant and would not exceed the threshold established in UMRA ($60 million in 2004, adjusted annually for inflation). CBO estimates that the remaining provisions in the bill would benefit the District of Columbia by increasing the flexibility of personnel policies and providing for multiyear contracting authority.

Estimate prepared by: Federal Costs: Matthew Pickford; Impact on State, Local and Tribal Governments: Sarah Puro; and Impact on the Private Sector: Paige Piper/Bach.

Estimate approved by: Robert A. Sunshine, Assistant Director for Budget Analysis.

The views and recommendations shall be submitted within thirty calendar days of the date on which notice is given, or within ten calendar days of such date if the Board advises the Comptroller of the Currency or the State supervisory authority that an emergency exists requiring expeditious action. Within three days after giving such notice to the applicant, the Board shall notify in writing the applicant and the disapproving authority of the date for commencement of a hearing by it on such application. If the Board has found pursuant to this subsection either that an emergency exists requiring expeditious action or that it must act immediately to prevent probable failure, the Board may grant or deny any such application without a hearing notwithstanding any recommended disapproval by the appropriate supervisory authority.

SECTION 9 OF THE FEDERAL RESERVE ACT

SEC. 9. Any bank incorporated by special law of any State, or organized under the general laws of any State or of the United States, including Morris Plan banks and other incorporated banking institutions engaged in similar business, desiring to become a member of the Federal Reserve System, may make application to the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, under such rules and regulations as it may prescribe, for the right to subscribe to the stock of the Federal reserve bank organized within the district in which the applying bank is located. Such application shall be for the same amount of stock that the applying bank would be required to subscribe to as a national bank. For the purposes of membership of any such bank the terms "capital" and "capital stock" shall include the amount of outstanding capital notes and debentures legally issued by the applying bank and purchased by the Reconstruction Finance Corporation. The Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, subject to the provisions of this Act and to such conditions as it may prescribe pursuant thereto may permit the applying bank to become a stockholder of such Federal reserve bank.

Upon the conversion of a national bank into a State bank, or the merger or consolidation of a national bank with a State bank which is not a member of the Federal Reserve System, the resulting or continuing State bank may be admitted to membership in the Federal Reserve System by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System in accordance with the provisions of this section, but, otherwise, the Federal Reserve bank stock owned by the national bank shall be canceled and paid for as provided in section 5 of this Act. Any such State bank which, at the date of the approval of this Act, has established and is operating a branch or branches in conformity with the State law, may retain and operate the same while remaining or upon becoming a stockholder of such Federal reserve bank; but no such State bank may retain or acquire stock in a Federal reserve bank except upon relinquishment of any branch or branches established after the date of the approval of this Act beyond the limits of the city, town, or village in which the parent bank is situated. Provided, however, That nothing herein contained shall prevent any State member bank from establishing and operating branches in the United States or any dependency or insular possession thereof or in any foreign country, on the same terms and conditions and subject to the same limitations and restrictions as are applicable to the establishment of branches by national banks except that the approval of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, instead of the Comptroller of the Currency, shall be obtained before any State member bank may hereafter establish any branch and before any State bank hereafter admitted to membership may retain any branch established after February 25, 1927, beyond the limits of the city, town, or village in which the parent bank is situated. The approval of the Board shall likewise be obtained before any State member bank may establish any new branch within the limits of any such city, town, or village [(except within the District of Columbia)].
