PURPOSE AND SUMMARY

H.R. 5117, to exempt persons with disabilities from the prohibition against providing HUD section 8 rental assistance to college students, will allow college students with disabilities to receive section 8 rental assistance. Currently, only college students who are veterans, married, or who have a dependent child are exempted from the general prohibition against college students receiving section 8 rental assistance. H.R. 5117 will add a new subsection to section 327(a) of Public Law 109–115 so that college students with disabilities (as defined by the Housing Act of 1937) will also be exempted from this prohibition.

BACKGROUND AND NEED FOR LEGISLATION

The section 8 Housing Choice Voucher program is the largest federal program designed to provide affordable housing to low-income families. Administered by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD), the program serves over 2 million households and includes both tenant-based and project-based subsidies for low-income families to use in the private market to lower their rental costs to 30 percent of their incomes. The program has grown to replace public housing as the primary tool for subsidizing the housing costs of low-income families.

Through this program, HUD provides subsidies to individuals (tenant-based) who seek rental housing from qualified and approved owners. HUD also provides subsidies to private property owners who set aside some or all of their units for low-income families (project-based).

H.R. 5117 would allow college students with disabilities continued access to the HUD section 8 rental assistance program by exempting them from the prohibition enacted by P.L. 109–115 against providing section 8 rental assistance to college students. Section 327 of the FY06 Transportation, Treasury, Housing and Urban Development, the Judiciary, the District of Columbia, and Independent Agencies Appropriations Act (P.L. 109–115) included language intended to close a loop-hole in the section 8 program, which allowed student athletes and other non-needy students access to section 8 housing. However, the Final Rule issued by HUD, in response to P.L. 109–115, has the potential to disqualify from section 8 eligibility severely disabled individuals, under the age of 24, who are enrolled in an institution of higher education.

H.R. 5117 adds persons with disabilities to the list of exempt individuals under P.L. 109–115, which currently includes veterans, married individuals, and those with dependent children, so that these students may continue to receive section 8 rental assistance. The Final Rule issued by HUD prohibits granting section 8 assistance to non-exempt students unless both the student and the student’s parents are income-eligible for the section 8 program.

NEW BUDGET AUTHORITY, ENTITLEMENT AUTHORITY, AND TAX EXPENDITURES

In compliance with clause 3(c)(2) of rule XIII of the Rules of the House of Representatives, the Committee adopts as its own the estimate of new budget authority, entitlement authority, or tax expenditures or revenues contained in the cost estimate prepared by the Director of the Congressional Budget Office pursuant to section 402 of the Congressional Budget Act, when received.

COMMITTEE COST ESTIMATE

The Committee adopts as its own the cost estimate prepared by the Director of the Congressional Budget Office pursuant to section 402 of the Congressional Budget Act of 1974, when received.
