PURPOSE AND SUMMARY

H.R. 1676, the Native American Homeownership Opportunity
Act of 2007 reauthorizes the Section 184 Indian Loan Program, which offers home ownership, property rehabilitation, new construction, and refinance opportunities for Native Americans. The primary purpose of the Section 184 program is a 100 percent loan guarantee program for Native American families seeking homeownership.

The bill reauthorizes the Section 184 program for 5 years, and makes no changes to the program or underlying law.

BACKGROUND AND NEED FOR LEGISLATION

Section 184 is administered by Department of Housing and Urban Development’s (HUD) Office of Native American Programs. In 1992, Congress created the Section 184 program to address lack of private mortgage capital in Indian country by authorizing HUD to guarantee loans made by private lenders to Native Americans.

The Section 184 program guarantees single-family (one- to four-family units) residential loans for Native American borrowers. The program provides for a 100 percent guarantee of the outstanding principal and interest and payment of other necessary and allowable expenses. The flexible underwriting, low down-payment, higher loan limits, low guarantee fee, and absence of income limits make this the most affordable loan program available in tribal areas.

According to HUD, approximately 4,200 loans have been guaranteed since the program’s inception, and only about 30 of these loans have not performed. As lenders have become more comfortable with making loans secured by land in Indian Country, interest in this program has increased sharply. As a result, the President’s 2008 budget request of $7 million for Section 184 is a $3 million increase from the $4 million appropriated for both 2006 and 2007.

CONGRESSIONAL BUDGET OFFICE ESTIMATE

Pursuant to clause 3(c)(3) of rule XIII of the Rules of the House of Representatives, the following is the cost estimate provided by the Congressional Budget Office pursuant to section 402 of the Congressional Budget Act of 1974:

Hon. Barney Frank,
Chairman, Committee on Financial Services,
House of Representatives, Washington, DC.

DEAR MR. CHAIRMAN: The Congressional Budget Office has prepared the enclosed cost estimate for H.R. 1676, the Native American Home Ownership Opportunity Act of 2007.

If you wish further details on this estimate, we will be pleased to provide them. The CBO staff contact is Susanne S. Mehlman.

Sincerely,

PETER R. ORSZAG.

Enclosure.

Summary: H.R. 1676 would authorize the appropriation of such sums as necessary through 2012 for Indian Housing Loan Guarantees, as provided under section 184 of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1992. Under current law, this program is authorized through 2007.

In 2007, about $6 million was appropriated for the loan guarantee program. Assuming continued appropriations at that level and adjusting for anticipated inflation, CBO estimates that implementing H.R. 1676 would cost about $30 million over the 2008– 2012 period. Enacting this bill would not affect direct spending or revenues.

H.R. 1676 contains no intergovernmental or private-sector mandates as defined in the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act (UMRA) and would impose no costs on state, local, or tribal governments. Enacting this legislation would benefit Indian tribes.

Estimated cost to the Federal Government: The estimated budgetary impact of H.R. 1676 is shown in the following table. Estimated outlays are based on historical patterns for the loan guarantee program. The costs of this legislation fall within budget function 370 (commerce and housing credit).
