PURPOSE AND SUMMARY
H.R. 1982, the Rural Housing and Economic Development Improvement Act of 2007, authorizes funding for the Rural Housing and Economic Development (RHED) program administered by the Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD).

BACKGROUND AND NEED FOR LEGISLATION
RHED, a competitive grant program, was first funded by Congress in 1999, but has never been formally authorized. The program has provided $175.3 million to support innovative housing and economic development programs across the country. Because the majority of HUD’s resources are devoted to assisting urban communities, it is the only exclusively rural housing program administered by HUD. The program encourages community level approaches that combine both economic and housing development.

According to the Office of Management and Budget numbers, RHED has helped to create more than 9,100 jobs and more than 12,000 housing units. At least 60 percent of the organizations that have received RHED funds over the program’s history serve high-needs regions, such as Appalachia, the Mississippi Delta, the Border Colonias, and Native American lands.

HEARINGS

H.R. 1982—Rural Housing and Economic Development Improvement Act of 2007

Summary: H.R. 1982 would authorize the appropriation of $30 million in 2008 and $40 million for each of fiscal years 2009 through 2013 to establish a program to support housing and economic development activities in rural areas. Assuming appropriation of the authorized amounts, CBO estimates that implementing the bill would cost about $100 million over the 2008–2012 period, with additional amounts spent in later years. Enacting H.R. 1982 would not affect direct spending or revenues.

H.R. 1982 contains no intergovernmental or private-sector mandates as defined in the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act (UMRA); any costs to state, local, or tribal governments would be incurred voluntarily.

Estimated cost to the Federal Government: The estimated budgetary impact of H.R. 1982 is shown in the following table. For this estimate, CBO assumes that the amounts authorized by the bill will be appropriated by the beginning of each fiscal year and that outlays will follow the historical rate of spending for similar programs. The costs of this legislation fall within budget function 600 (income security).
Intergovernmental and private-sector impact: H.R. 1982 contains no intergovernmental or private-sector mandates as defined in UMRA. State, local, and tribal governments that participate in economic development activities in rural areas would benefit from funds authorized in the bill. Any costs those governments incur would be incurred voluntarily.

Estimate approved by: Peter H. Fontaine, Deputy Assistant Director for Budget Analysis.

FEDERAL MANDATES STATEMENT

The Committee adopts as its own the estimate of Federal mandates prepared by the Director of the Congressional Budget Office pursuant to section 423 of the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act.

ADVISORY COMMITTEE STATEMENT

No advisory committees within the meaning of section 5(b) of the Federal Advisory Committee Act were created by this legislation.

CONSTITUTIONAL AUTHORITY STATEMENT

Pursuant to clause 3(d)(1) of rule XIII of the Rules of the House of Representatives, the Committee finds that the Constitutional Authority of Congress to enact this legislation is provided by Article 1, section 8, clause 1 (relating to the general welfare of the United States) and clause 3 (relating to the power to regulate interstate commerce).

APPLICABILITY TO LEGISLATIVE BRANCH

The Committee finds that the legislation does not relate to the terms and conditions of employment or access to public services or accommodations within the meaning of section 102(b)(3) of the Congressional Accountability Act.

EARMARK IDENTIFICATION

H.R. 1982 does not contain any congressional earmarks, limited tax benefits, or limited tariff benefits as defined in clause 9 of rule XXI.
