Mr. OBERSTAR, from the Committee on Transportation and

R E P O R T

[To accompany H. Con. Res. 309]

[Including cost estimate of the Congressional Budget Office]

The Committee on Transportation and Infrastructure, to whom was referred the concurrent resolution (H. Con. Res. 309) authorizing the use of the Capitol Grounds for the District of Columbia Special Olympics Law Enforcement Torch Run, having considered the same, report favorably thereon without amendment and recommend that the concurrent resolution be agreed to.

PURPOSE OF THE LEGISLATION

The purpose of House Concurrent Resolution 309 is to authorize the use of the Capitol Grounds for the District of Columbia Special Olympics Law Enforcement Torch Run.

BACKGROUND AND NEED FOR LEGISLATION

The resolution authorizes the use of the Capitol Grounds for the District of Columbia Special Olympics Law Enforcement Torch Run. The Capitol Police, along with the D.C. Special Olympics, will participate in the torch run to be held on June 6, 2008. The D.C. Special Olympics will work closely with the Capitol Police and the Architect of the Capitol to make sure that the event is in full compliance with the rules and regulations governing the use of the Capitol Grounds.

The Law Enforcement Torch Run for the Special Olympics is run nationwide by law enforcement officers, leading up to each state's or national Special Olympics Summer Games. Each year, nearly 50 local and federal law enforcement agencies in Washington, DC, participate to show their support of the D.C. Special Olympics. This torch relay event is a traditional part of the opening ceremonies for the Special Olympics. Over 15,000 District of Columbia citizens with intellectual disabilities have participated in the Special Olympics. Funds raised from the Law Enforcement Torch Run for the Special Olympics help support year-round training and programs for Special Olympics DC. This type of support led to seven Special Olympics athletes competing in the Penn Relays in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, in April 2008.

Each year, approximately 2,500 Special Olympians of all ages compete in over a dozen events in the D.C. Special Olympics. The event is supported by volunteers from the Washington, DC metropolitan region and is attended by thousands more family and friends in the area making this event a truly unique service designed to offer self-determination to individuals with disabilities.
