AND FOR OTHER PURPOSES

DECEMBER 12, 2011.—Referred to the House Calendar and ordered to be printed

Mr. DREIER, from the Committee on Rules, submitted the following

R E P O R T

[To accompany H. Res. 491]

The Committee on Rules, having had under consideration House Resolution 491, by a record vote of 7 to 3, report the same to the House with the recommendation that the resolution be adopted.

SUMMARY OF PROVISIONS OF THE RESOLUTION

The resolution provides for consideration of H.R. 3630, the Middle Class Tax Relief and Job Creation Act of 2011, under a closed rule. The resolution provides 90 minutes of debate equally divided and controlled by the chair and ranking minority member of the Committee on Ways and Means. The resolution waives all points of order against consideration of the bill. The resolution provides that the amendment printed in this report shall be considered as adopted and the bill, as amended, shall be considered as read. The resolution waives all points of order against provisions in the bill, as amended. Finally, the resolution provides one motion to recommit with or without instructions.

EXPLANATION OF WAIVERS

The waiver of all points of order against consideration of the bill includes the following:

- Section 302(f) of the Congressional Budget Act of 1974, prohibiting the consideration of a measure which causes the applicable allocation of new budget authority under subsections 302(a) or (b) to be exceeded;
- Section 311(a) of the Congressional Budget Act of 1974, prohibiting the consideration of a measure which would cause the total level of new budget authority or outlays in the most recent budget resolution to be exceeded, or would cause revenues to be less; and

- Clause 10 of rule XXI, prohibiting the consideration of a measure if the provisions of such measure have the net effect of increasing mandatory spending for the period of either the first five-year or ten-year period.

Although the resolution waives all points of order against provisions in the bill, as amended, the Committee is not aware of any points of order. The waiver is prophylactic in nature.
