PURPOSE AND SUMMARY

H.R. 4057 was introduced on February 16, 2012, by Representative Gus Bilirakis of Florida. H.R. 4057, as amended, incorporates provisions from H.R. 4115, introduced by Representative Steve Stivers of Ohio; H.R. 4079, as amended, introduced by Representative David McKinley of West Virginia; and H.R. 3337, as amended, introduced by Representative Todd Akin of Missouri. The bill, as amended, would direct the Secretary of Veterans Affairs to develop a comprehensive policy to improve the outreach efforts of institutions of higher learning while providing greater transparency of educational information; would require states to consider military training in granting certain state certifications and licenses; would adjust how grant and per diem payment are paid to homeless veteran providers; would create an open burn pit registry for veterans of conflicts in Iraq and Afghanistan; and, would limit bonuses for senior executives at the Department of Veterans Affairs (VA).

BACKGROUND AND NEED FOR LEGISLATION

SECTION 1—COMPREHENSIVE POLICY ON PROVIDING EDUCATION
INFORMATION TO VETERANS

During the 112th Congress, there has been a renewed focus on the growth of for-profit colleges and alleged predatory practices used by some institutions to recruit GI Bill recipients under chapter 30, 31, 32, 33, and 35 of title 38, U.S.C. While the Committee has received some anecdotal evidence of misleading and predatory practices being conducted by some schools, there is little empirical evidence to support the claims that the for-profit school industry, as a whole, is systematically taking advantage of veterans and servicemembers. While the Committee acknowledges that there could be some bad actors using these predatory practices at for-profit, non-profit, and public institutions, we believe that the actions of a few should not taint an entire industry.

Instead, the Committee believes that the best tool to make the best use of education benefits is to ensure students have the appropriate information needed to make decisions about how to use their VA education benefits.

The Committee believes this section of H.R. 4057, as amended, will help students make an informed choice. This section would require VA to develop a comprehensive policy to improve the transparency and dissemination of education information to veterans. Implemented effectively, this policy would enable veterans to better understand their education benefits and to be better informed about which educational institutions are most appropriate for them.

To accomplish these goals, section 1 would require VA to research and implement the most effective means of making veterans more aware of Chapter 36 Vocational/Educational counseling benefits. Although this educational counseling is available and is a valuable resource, far too few veterans (only 6,656 in FY 2011) take advantage of this one-on-one counseling. The Committee hopes that VA would increase the awareness of students in regards to this counseling by putting a link to Chapter 36 counseling information on the VA online application for Chapter 33 benefits and during the application process for all VA education benefits.

Next, section 1 would require that VA consider providing a centralized system to track and publish feedback on schools from students and State Approving Agencies (SAA). This would include assessment of the quality of instruction and accreditation, recruiting practices, and post-graduation employment placement of institutions of higher learning. In providing this complaint forum, students would be able to read reports from other students and SAAs about the school. The Committee expects that VA would use the centralized process for valid complaints, and not, for example, matters that are subjective in nature, such as grades. The Committee also expects that VA would prohibit anonymous filings to ensure the database's legitimacy and to prevent fraudulent complaints. Students and agencies must be held accountable for any comments that they wish to submit in a public forum such as that proposed in this section.

Section 1 would also address the manner in which SAAs share information with accrediting institutions. The policy that would be required by this section would require the SAAs to share information they gather on schools with accrediting agencies. The Committee believes that by working together the SAAs and accrediting agencies will be better-equipped to address any issues that are occurring at schools and improve the experience for students.

The Committee has found that some veterans are simply not aware of the benefits available to them. The policy required under section 1 would also encourage VA to increase outreach to veterans through the Transition Assistance Programs (TAP). The Committee believes that if more emphasis was placed on education benefits at TAP, servicemembers would be better informed about their benefits before they leave active duty.

In an effort to offer even more resources that provide education information for veterans, section 1 would require VA to provide a list of hyperlinks on its website that lead to existing websites, such as the U.S. Department of Education's College Navigator, that provide consumer information about schools. Graduation and retention rates would be required as well as the median amount of Federal student loan debt, and other information. The Committee notes that the information that would be required in most cases is already listed among the 272 data types for education institutions listed on the College Navigator website. The Committee expects VA to use existing websites and not re-create information that is already available.

Section 1 would prohibit inducements of any kind to reward recruiting by employees or students. The Committee believes that students seeking higher education or training should be able to make an informed decision, and should not be influenced by those few schools that use deceptive practices to recruit veterans. The language in this section that prohibits these inducements aligns with similar language in section 487 of the Higher Education Act of 1965 (title 20 U.S.C.).

Under this section, VA would also be required to conduct a market survey to identify two commercially available off-the-shelf software systems. The first system would contain a database of institutions that can be narrowed down by the user's criteria (such as environment, location, programs offered, requirements for graduation and other criteria). Such a system would allow students to compare institutions side-by-side which the Committee believes would help enable more informed decisions.

The second system would provide veterans with the option to assess whether they are academically prepared or would need remediation before attending post-secondary training. We believe such a test will help veterans be successful in the education or training program of their choice.

Finally, section 1 would require VA to report on the development and implementation of the comprehensive policy required by this section within 90 days of enactment. This report would be sent to the House and Senate Committees on Veterans' Affairs as well as the House Committee on Education and the Workforce and the Senate Committee on Health, Education, Labor, and Pensions.

SECTION 2—STATE CONSIDERATION OF MILITARY TRAINING IN GRANTING CERTAIN STATE CERTIFICATIONS AND LICENSES AS A CONDITION ON THE RECEIPT OF FUNDS FOR VETERANS EMPLOYMENT AND TRAINING

Section 2 would require states to provide information to the U.S. Department of Labor describing how their state licensing or certification processes for occupations such as nursing assistants, registered nurses, certified nursing assistants, emergency medical technicians, and commercial drivers might grant credit for prior military education and training in these fields.

The Committee believes that this information sharing would assist veterans in transferring the skills acquired during active duty service to civilian professional opportunities with a minimum of additional or repetitive training. The Committee believes that the program would encourage states to recognize veterans' prior experience and training to ensure that state licensing or certification processes are not duplicative of education and training veterans have already undergone in the military.

Section 2 would also require that the Department of Labor publish the results of its data collection on its website so veterans and servicemembers can see how their military training does, or does not, lead to a license or credential in a particular state. The Department of Labor would also have to transfer the data to the Department of Defense to assist in determining the feasibility of adjusting in-service training to better conform to the licensing and credentialing requirements in states. The Committee hopes that by making this information available on the internet that states and credentialing bodies would adjust licensing and credentialing requirements to facilitate recruitment of qualified veterans.

SECTION 3—CONDITIONS ON THE AWARD OF PER DIEM PAYMENTS BY THE SECRETARY OF VETERANS AFFAIRS FOR THE PROVISION OF HOUSING OR SERVICES TO HOMELESS VETERANS

The Department of Housing and Urban Development estimates that in 2011, approximately 14 percent of all homeless adults in the United States were veterans, with approximately 67,494 veterans homeless on any given night in January 2011 alone. The VA provides housing and supportive services to homeless veterans through a myriad of programs, including the Homeless Provider Grant and Per Diem (GPD) Program.

The GPD Program was authorized as a pilot in P.L. 102-590 (106 Stat. 5141), the Homeless Veterans Comprehensive Service Programs Act of 1992, and was made permanent in P.L. 109-461 (120 Stat. 3403), the Veterans Benefits, Health Care, and Information Technology Act of 2006. According to VA, the purpose of the program is to promote the development and provision of supportive housing and services to homeless veterans to assist them in achieving residential stability, increased income level and skills, and greater self-determination.

Under the grant portion of the program, public entities or private nonprofit organizations may apply for capital grants to fund up to 65 percent of the cost of acquisition, expansion, or remodeling of a building for use as a service center or transitional housing facility. Grants may also be used to procure vans for outreach and transportation needs. To be considered eligible for a grant under this program, 75 percent or more of the clients served by the grantee must be veterans. Under the per diem portion of the program, grant recipients and/or organizations that would be eligible to apply for and receive grants are reimbursed for the cost of providing housing or supportive services to homeless veterans. Supportive services eligible for reimbursement under the GPD Program include: outreach activities; food and nutrition services; health care; mental health care; substance use counseling; job training and placement; and transportation. The maximum per diem rate for a supportive housing center is currently set at $38.90 per day per veteran. The maximum per diem rate for a service center not connected with a supportive housing center is currently set at one-eighth of the daily cost of care, not to exceed eight hours in any given day or the current VA state home rate for domiciliary care.

Section 2011(b)(5) of title 38, United States Code stipulates that VA ensure that entities receiving grants under the GPD Program meet fire and safety requirements established by VA as well as all applicable state and local codes and standards. VA medical center clinicians in each local jurisdiction act as liaisons between the Department and the GPD-funded entity and are responsible for ensuring compliance with this provision. There is no similar requirement for recipients of per diem payments under the GPD Program and VA is not required to evaluate or report an assessment of the basic safety of homeless service providers.

GPD-funded entities are commonly referred to as “residential board and care facilities.” These facilities are defined as a building or portion of a building that is used for lodging and/or boarding four or more residents who are not related by blood or marriage to the owners or operators of the building for the purpose of providing personal care services. The National Fire Protection Association (NFPA) estimates that, from 2006 to 2010, more than nineteen hundred structure fires were reported in facilities of this kind. The fires resulted in ten deaths, 61 injuries, and $8 million in property damage.

To combat these fires, NFPA publishes and recommends the use of the Life Safety Code. The Life Safety Code governs the annual maintenance of fire extinguishers, exit paths, and other issues related to safety of building users in an emergency situation. In addition to the Life Safety Code, approximately 43 states use the International Fire Code (IFC), published by the International Code Council (ICC) to govern annual maintenance of building safety features. The two codes are similar in scope, and equivalent in maintaining a safe building environment. However, in a statement for the record provided to the Subcommittee on Health the National Association of State Fire Marshals reported that some parts of the country have no minimum building or fire code requirements and, in states where such requirements are present, significant variation exists in their use and application.

While some states and local jurisdictions use the Life Safety Code, published by the National Fire Protection Association (NFPA), as the code to govern annual maintenance of fire extinguishers, exit paths, and other issues related to safety of building users in an emergency situation, 43 states use the International Fire Code (IFC), published by the International Code Council (ICC) to govern annual maintenance of building safety features. The two codes, while similar in scope, and equivalent in maintaining a safe building environment, cannot be enforced simultaneously without significant and unnecessary expense. Therefore, allowing use of the IFC in the alternative assures the safety of all veterans' facilities, while not imposing additional inspection or compliance burdens in the 43 states where the IFC is currently adopted and enforced.

Section 3 of H.R. 4057, as amended, would require per diem recipients under the VA Homeless Grant and Per Diem Program to provide VA with a certification of compliance with all relevant fire, safety, and building codes and require VA to include an accounting and evaluation of the safety and accessibility of facilities used for homeless veterans in the Annual Report on Assistance to Homeless Veterans. Existing recipients would have two years to certify such compliance.

SECTION 4—ESTABLISHMENT OF OPEN BURN PIT REGISTRY

According to the Institute of Medicine, uncontrolled burning of waste in pits has been the primary solid waste management solution during the conflicts in Iraq and Afghanistan. Joint Base Balad, one of the largest military bases in Iraq, burned an estimated 100 to 200 tons of waste per day in open-air burn pits in 2007. Burn pit usage was restricted in 2009 after servicemembers complained of poor odor, decreased visibility, and detrimental health effects. The potential long-term health effects of burn pit exposure continues to cause widespread concern on behalf of servicemembers, veterans, and their families.

In response to these concerns, VA asked the Institute of Medicine (IOM) to conduct a study to assess the possible long-term health effects of burn pit exposure in veterans of Iraq and Afghanistan. The IOM study was issued on October 31, 2011. Due to complicating factors, including the presence of high background levels of ambient pollution from other sources, a lack of information regarding the quantity and composition of the waste burned in burn pits, and insufficient data on exposure to burn pit emissions, the IOM was unable to develop a firm conclusion regarding the long-term health effects of burn pit exposure. In an April 16, 2012, statement for the record for the Subcommittee on Health, the IOM recommended that, “[a]long with more efficient data gathering methods, the report recommends that a study be conducted that would evaluate the health status of servicemembers from their time of deployment . . . over many years to determine the incidence of chronic diseases, including cancers, that tend to show up decades after exposure.”

VA has long identified a need for the Department to monitor possible health risks and understand the long-term consequences of exposure to chemical hazards during military service. Accordingly, the Department currently operates five environmental health registries, including an Agent Orange Registry and a Gulf War Registry. VA claims that these registries are intended for, “. . . veterans who may have been exposed to certain environmental hazards during military service “and allow the Department to, “. . . track and monitor the health of specific groups of veterans,” and to “. . . understand and respond to . . . health problems more effectively.” Enrollment in a VA health registry is free and voluntary and does not require a veteran to enroll in the VA healthcare system. VA's Environmental Health Registry Brochure actively encourages all eligible veterans meeting the criteria for a registry to enroll and receive an evaluation.

Section 4 of H.R. 4057, as amended, would require VA to establish and maintain an open burn pit registry, to include information necessary to ascertain and monitor health effects, for veterans of Iraq and Afghanistan who may have been exposed to toxic chemicals and fumes caused by open burn pits during deployment; direct VA to develop a public information campaign to inform eligible veterans about the registry and periodically notify them of significant developments in the study and treatment of conditions associated with burn pit exposure; require VA to contract with an independent scientific organization to develop a report on the effectiveness of actions taken to collect and maintain information on the health effects of burn pit exposure and submit the completed report to Congress.

SECTION 5—PERFORMANCE AWARDS IN SENIOR EXECUTIVE SERVICES

Section 5384 of title 5, United States Code, sets out the authority for Federal agencies to allocate performance incentives to employees of the Senior Executive Service (SES). According to information supplied by VA, 221 SES bonuses were awarded in FY 2008 at a total cost of $3,816,330; 219 bonuses were awarded in FY 2009 at a total cost of $3,728,536; and 227 bonuses were awarded in FY 2010 at a total cost of $3,342,100. During this tight fiscal climate, it is appropriate that VA reevaluate its entire bonus program and exercise restraint in its award of them particularly when there is a dubious connection between agency performance and bonuses awarded.

In order to facilitate that reevaluation, section 5 would require VA to limit the amount paid in performance awards to senior staff to a total of $1 million for the fiscal years of 2013 to 2017.

Hon. JEFF MILLER,

DEAR MR. Enclosure.

H.R. 4057—A bill to amend title 38, United States Code, to direct the Secretary of Veterans Affairs to develop a comprehensive policy to improve outreach and transparency to veterans and members of the Armed Forces through the provision of information on institutions of higher learning, and for other purposes

Summary: H.R. 4057 would require the Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) to provide information on educational institutions to veterans and servicemembers, establish a registry to track servicemembers who may have been exposed to toxic chemicals caused by open burn pits, and make other changes to programs that provide services to veterans. The bill also would limit the amount of performance awards VA may pay to senior staff.

On net, CBO estimates that implementing H.R. 4057 would reduce discretionary costs by $1 million over the 2013–2017 period, assuming appropriation actions consistent with the bill. Pay-as-you-go procedures do not apply to this legislation because it would not affect direct spending or revenues.

H.R. 4057 contains no intergovernmental or private-sector mandates as defined in the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act (UMRA).

Estimated cost to the Federal Government: The estimated budgetary impact of H.R. 4057 is shown in the following table. The costs of this legislation fall within budget function 700 (veterans benefits and services).

Notes: Components may not sum to totals because of rounding.

Basis of estimate: This estimate is based on information from VA and the Department of Labor (DOL). For the purposes of this estimate, CBO assumes that the bill will be enacted near the beginning of fiscal year 2013, that annual appropriations acts consistent with this bill will be enacted, and that outlays will follow historical patterns for similar and existing programs.

Performance awards for senior executive staff

Section 5 would limit the total amount that VA could pay in performance awards to senior staff to $1 million per year over the 2013–2017 period. In recent years, VA paid slightly less than $4 million annually for performance awards. Assuming that similar amounts would be provided under current law going forward, CBO estimates that implementing section 5 would reduce discretionary costs for pay and performance by $13 million over the 2013–2017 period, assuming appropriations actions consistent with the bill.

Education information for Veterans

Section 1 would require VA to develop a policy to improve outreach efforts to those veterans and servicemembers using, or seeking to use, their education benefits and to provide those individuals with detailed information on educational institutions. VA also would be required to conduct a market survey of online applications that would allow veterans to assess their academic preparedness to pursue postsecondary education and training opportunities and provide those veterans with a list of providers of such opportunities.

Based on information from VA, CBO estimates that VA would have to hire four additional full-time employees and develop an information technology (IT) system to implement those provisions. CBO estimate that hiring those employees, developing and maintaining the IT system, and conducting the outreach would cost $7 million over the 2013–2017 period, assuming appropriation of the estimated amounts.

State certifications and licensing

Under section 2, to qualify for grants from DOL to provide employment services to veterans, states would have to submit to DOL their standards for issuing certifications or licenses to veterans who served in certain medical and transportation occupations while on active duty. In addition, the states would be required to include an explanation of how they evaluate the training and work experience received by those veterans. Upon receipt, DOL would have to publish that information on its Web site and share it with the Department of Defense.

Based on information from DOL, CBO estimates that DOL would have to develop an IT system and utilize about four full-time employees to manage, and make available via the Internet, the information that would be provided by the states. CBO estimates that implementing section 2 would cost $3 million over the 2013–2017 period, assuming appropriation of the necessary amounts.

Open burn pit registry

Section 4 would require VA, not later than 180 days after enactment, to establish an open burn pit registry for servicemembers who may have been exposed to toxic chemicals from burn pits while deployed in Iraq or Afghanistan. The registry would provide information on the health impacts from exposure to such toxins. This bill also would require VA to develop a campaign to make the public aware of the registry. Based on information about existing registries established by VA, CBO estimates that the start-up and maintenance costs for the registry and an associated public awareness campaign would amount to $1 million in 2013 and $2 million over the 2013–2017 period, assuming the availability of appropriated funds.

Grants for homeless Veterans

Section 3 would require recipients of certain grants to certify to VA that they comply with all state, local, and federal requirements relevant to their operations and the level of care provided to homeless veterans (for example, fire and safety regulations). Under current law, grantees are already required to meet such regulations but are not required to provide certification. CBO estimates the discretionary costs would not be significant (less than $500,000) over the 2013–2017 period, assuming the availability of the necessary funds, and would reflect VA's cost to update the grant criteria and review compliance documents.

Pay-As-You-Go considerations: None.

Estimated impact on state, local, and tribal governments: H.R. 4057 contains no intergovernmental mandates as defined in UMRA. As a condition of federal assistance, the bill would prohibit public institutions of higher education from providing bonuses or incentive payments to admissions or recruiting personnel related to enrollment or financial aid awards. In addition, the bill would require states to certify the safety of facilities where assistance is provided to veterans and to provide DOL with standards for licensing commercial drivers and medical professionals in a state. Any costs incurred by those governments would result from complying with grant conditions.

Estimated impact on the private sector: H.R. 4057 contains no new private-sector mandates as defined in UMRA.

Estimate prepared by: Federal Costs: Ann Futrell, William Ma, and Dwayne Wright; Impact on State, Local, and Tribal Governments: Lisa Ramirez-Branum; Impact on the Private Sector: Elizabeth Bass.

Estimate approved by: Theresa Gullo, Deputy Assistant Director for Budget Analysis.

FEDERAL MANDATES STATEMENT

The Committee adopts as its own the estimate of Federal mandates regarding H.R. 4057, as amended, prepared by the Director of the Congressional Budget Office pursuant to section 423 of the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act.

ADVISORY COMMITTEE STATEMENT

No advisory committees within the meaning of section 5(b) of the Federal Advisory Committee Act would be created by H.R. 4057, as amended.

STATEMENT OF CONSTITUTIONAL AUTHORITY

Pursuant to Article I, Section 8 of the United States Constitution, the reported bill is authorized by Congress' power to "provide for the common Defense and general Welfare of the United States."

APPLICABILITY TO LEGISLATIVE BRANCH

The Committee finds that the legislation does not relate to the terms and conditions of employment or access to public services or accommodations within the meaning of section 102(b)(3) of the Congressional Accountability Act.

SECTION-BY-SECTION ANALYSIS OF THE LEGISLATION

Section 1. Comprehensive policy on providing education information to veterans

Section 1(a) would amend chapter 36 of title 38, U.S.C. to add a new section that would require the VA to develop a comprehensive policy to improve outreach to veterans and to improve the transparency of information related to institutions of higher learning. The policy would require VA to address the following matters: the most effective way for VA to determine how to make veterans aware of education counseling under Chapter 36; a "centralized" way to publish assessments and complaints from veterans including feedback from veterans and State Approving Agencies; the merit and manner in which State Approving Agencies share information with accrediting institutions; the manner in which servicemembers are informed through the Transition Assistance Programs (TAP) about information on education benefits; and the best way to inform veterans and servicemembers about post-secondary education and training.

This section would also require that as part of this policy, VA would provide links on the Department's website to the appropriate websites that include the following information regarding schools and programs approved for GI Bill benefits: types of accreditation available to schools; a description of Federal student aid programs; whether an institution is public, non-profit, or for-profit; name of the accrediting body that accredits the institution; how students could contact State Approving Agencies to file complaints; whether an institution participates in Title IV (Higher Ed Act) programs; tuition and fees; the median amount of federal student loan debt that the average student incurs while attending the institution, enrollment and graduation data; the degree to which an institution's programs prepare a student to take Federal, state and local tests for licensure or certification in their area of study; the types of student support services offered by the institution, and a description of their policy regarding transfer of academic credits, including those from for-profit schools.

Section 1(b) would amend the law to prohibit inducements of any kind to reward for recruiting by employees or students.

Section 1(c) would require VA to determine the availability of commercial-off-the-shelf software to assist students in choosing an academic institution. It would also require VA to determine the availability of commercial-off-the-shelf software to assist students in determining readiness for post-secondary education and training.

Section 1(d) would require VA to provide to Congress within 90 days of enactment a report on development of the policy and its implementation.

Section 2. State consideration of military training in granting certain State certifications and licenses as a condition on the receipt of funds for veterans employment and training

Section 2(a) would amend 4012A(c) of title 38, U.S.C. to require, as a condition of receipt of a grant or contract for veteran employment and training, States to provide information to DoL describing how a State would treat military education and training towards a State's licensing or certification requirements for the following occupations: nursing assistant, registered nurse, certified nursing assistant, emergency medical technician, and commercial driver's license. The Department of Labor would have to report on their findings and would have to publish them on the Department's internet website and to provide much info to DoD.

Section 3. Conditions on the Award of Per Diem payments by the Secretary of Veterans Affairs for the provision of housing or services to homeless veterans

Section 3(a) of the bill would amend section 2012(c) of subchapter I of chapter 20 of title 38, U.S.C. to require recipients of VA per diem payments to certify that the building where the entity provides housing or services is in compliance with the Life Safety Code, the International Fire Code, and other state and local codes relevant to the operations and level of care provided.

Section 3(b) of the bill would require VA to submit an annual report on the Secretary's evaluation of the safety and accessibility of facilities used to provide programs established by grant recipients or other eligible entities.

Section 3(c) of the bill would require current recipients of per diem payments under section 2012 of title 38 U.S.C. to submit a certification to VA of their compliance with the Life Safety Code, the International Fire Code, and other state and local codes relevant to the operations and level of care provided no later than two years after the date of enactment of this Act.

Section 4. Establishment of Open Burn Pit Registry

Section 4(a) of the bill would require VA to establish and maintain an open burn pit registry for eligible individuals; include certain information within such registry; develop a public information campaign to inform eligible individuals about the registry; and, periodically notify them of significant developments.

Section 4(b) of the bill would require VA to enter into an agreement with an independent scientific organization to develop a report on the effectiveness of actions taken to collect and maintain information on the health effects of burn pit exposure and submit the report to Congress no later than 18 months after the date on which the registry under section 4(a) of the bill is established.

Section 4(c) of the bill would define an "open burn pit" as an area of land located in Iraq or Afghanistan that is designated by the Secretary of Defense to be used for disposing of solid waste by burning in the outdoor air and does not contain a commercially manufactured incinerator or other equipment specifically designated and manufactured for the burning of solid waste; and, an "eligible individual" as any individual who, after September 11, 2001, was deployed in support of a contingency operation while serving in the Armed Forces and, during such deployment, was based or stationed at a location where an open burn pit was used.

Section 5. Performance awards in senior executive services

Section 5 would require VA to limit the amount paid in performance awards to senior staff to a total of $1 million for each of fiscal years 2013 to 2017.
