(A) promoting significant job and other economic opportunities in a part of the State of Arizona that has a long history of mining, but is currently experiencing high unemployment rates and economic difficulties;

(B) facilitating the development of a world-class domestic copper deposit capable of meeting a significant portion of the annual United States demand for this strategic and important mineral, in an area which has already been subject to mining operations;

(C) significantly enhancing Federal, State, and local revenue collections in a time of severe governmental budget shortfalls;

(D) securing Federal ownership and protection of land with significant fish and wildlife, recreational, scenic, water, riparian, cultural, and other public values;

(E) assisting more efficient Federal land management via Federal acquisition of land for addition to the Las Cienegas and San Pedro National Conservation Areas, and to the Tonto and Coconino National Forests;

(F) providing opportunity for community expansion and economic diversification adjacent to the towns of Superior, Miami, and Globe, Arizona; and

(G) protecting the cultural resources and other values of the Apache Leap escarpment located near Superior, Arizona; and

PURPOSE OF THE BILL

The purpose of H.R. 687 is to facilitate the efficient extraction of mineral resources in southeast Arizona by authorizing and directing an exchange of Federal and non-Federal land.

BACKGROUND AND NEED FOR LEGISLATION

Resolution Copper Mining LLC (Resolution Copper) owns land and holds mining claims near the Town of Superior, in southeastern Arizona. In the late 1990s, Resolution Copper's exploratory activities revealed the existence of a very large copper deposit on its claims, located between 4,500 to 7,000 feet below the surface. Resolution Copper is interested in developing a large underground mine where the ore would be extracted and removed.

The Oak Flat Campground, part of the Tonto National Forest, is located in the center of Resolution Copper's land holdings and mining claims. Approximately 760 acres of National Forest lands in and around the Oak Flat Campground were withdrawn from entry under the mining laws in 1955 along with numerous other tracks of land for the purpose of establishing several campgrounds on the public lands. See Public Land Order 1229 (Sept. 27, 1955); 20 Fed. Reg. 7336–37 (Oct. 1, 1955).

Members of the Arizona Delegation have proposed a land exchange allowing Resolution Copper to acquire the campground and adjacent withdrawn National Forest lands so the company can proceed with development of the mine. The Secretary of Agriculture would convey to Resolution Copper certain lands and interests in the Tonto National Forest, Arizona, in exchange for private lands of environmental and archeological significance in the State of Arizona for management by the U.S. Forest Service and the Bureau of Land Management (BLM). Legislation is required for the proposed land exchange because it includes National Forest System lands.

The three-part land exchange would occur under H.R. 687, as follows:

U.S. Forest Service acquisition of land from Resolution Copper: The Forest Service would acquire a total of 1,194 acres from five different locations. These include Resolution Copper lands located within Coconino (640 acres), Gila (147 acres), Maricopa (149 acres), Pinal (110 acres) and Yavapai (148 acres) Counties. These lands contain riparian habitats and sensitive cultural areas, in addition to the several hundred acres that contain habitat for endangered species, and archeological sites.

BLM acquisition of land from Resolution Copper: BLM would acquire a total of 4,150 acres from three separate locations. Three thousand fifty acres would be acquired from the lower San Pedro River area, which includes one of the largest mesquite bosques (dense forest) left in Arizona, critical habitat for several endangered species, and critical bird habitat. This would be an important addition to the San Pedro Conservation Area. BLM would also acquire 160 acres in Gila County and 940 acres in Santa Cruz County.

Resolution Copper acquisition of land from Forest Service: Resolution Copper will acquire the 2,422 acre "Oak Flat" parcel, which is checker-boarded within Resolution Copper's lands. Resolution Copper already has unpatented mining claims that cover about 75% of the parcel, including the culturally sensitive Apache Leap area. This exchange will provide more protection for Apache Leap since the conveyance will prohibit any type of extraction activity and transfer this land to the federal government indefinitely. If the land received by Resolution Copper exceeds the value of the lands received by the federal government, Resolution Copper may provide additional lands to equal the exchange or provide a monetary payment. Any cash payment will be deposited in a fund established under the Sisk Act and the proceeds used to buy additional forest land for the National Forest System nationally and maintain existing federal facilities.

Enactment of this land exchange would allow for development of the mine while adding other important lands for Federal management. The mine could provide up to one-quarter of the nation's estimated annual copper needs. Resolution Copper estimates that the total economic impact of the mine will exceed $60 billion and support 3,700 jobs annually.

COMMITTEE OVERSIGHT FINDINGS AND RECOMMENDATIONS

Regarding clause 2(b)(1) of rule X and clause 3(c)(1) of rule XIII of the Rules of the House of Representatives, the Committee on Natural Resources' oversight findings and recommendations are reflected in the body of this report.

COMPLIANCE WITH HOUSE RULE XIII

1. Cost of Legislation. Clause 3(d)(1) of rule XIII of the Rules of the House of Representatives requires an estimate and a comparison by the Committee of the costs which would be incurred in carrying out this bill. However, clause 3(d)(2)(B) of that rule provides that this requirement does not apply when the Committee has included in its report a timely submitted cost estimate of the bill prepared by the Director of the Congressional Budget Office under section 402 of the Congressional Budget Act of 1974. Under clause 3(c)(3) of rule XIII of the Rules of the House of Representatives and section 403 of the Congressional Budget Act of 1974, the Committee has received the following cost estimate for this bill from the Director of the Congressional Budget Office:

H.R. 687—Southeast Arizona Land Exchange and Conservation Act of 2013

H.R. 687 would authorize a land exchange in Arizona between the federal government and a mining company. Based on information provided by the affected agencies, CBO estimates that implementing the bill would cost less than $500,000 annually, assuming the availability of appropriated funds. Those costs would include preparing management plans and administering private lands received in exchange for federal land.

Enacting the legislation could increase offsetting receipts, which are treated as reductions in direct spending; however, CBO has insufficient information to estimate whether any receipts would be collected under the bill. Because enacting the bill could affect direct spending, pay-as-you-go procedures apply.

Under H.R. 687, the Forest Service would convey about 2,400 acres of land in southeast Arizona to Resolution Copper Mining LLC in exchange for about 5,400 acres of company-owned land. Of the company land, about 1,200 acres would become part of the National Forest System, and about 4,200 acres would be administered as conservation areas by the Bureau of Land Management.

If the property sought by Resolution Copper is appraised at more than the appraised value of the property that the company offers for exchange, the company could donate additional land or make a cash payment to the United States to make the final exchange of equal value. If the company's property is appraised for more than the federal acreage, the difference in the value would be considered a donation to the federal government. Any cash payment received by the Forest Service would be deposited in the U.S. Treasury as an offsetting receipt. In addition, after completion of the exchange, Resolution Copper would have to pay the federal government a portion of any future income earned on the former federal property if the company determines that the actual cumulative production of minerals located on that property exceeds the value of the estimated production used in the original appraisal process.

The bill's effect on offsetting receipts would depend on the outcome of formal appraisals of the federal and private properties that would be conducted after enactment. Those appraisals would determine the relative values of the properties affected by the exchange, including the value of mineral deposits that underlie the federal land. If the value of the federal land were to exceed the value of the company land, Resolution Copper could pay the government a lump sum equal to the difference in property values in the year or two following enactment. That payment might be significant; however, because there are no publicly available estimates regarding the quantity of copper underlying the federal land, CBO has no basis for estimating the value of that land relative to the value of the company land. Therefore, we cannot determine whether the company would make a payment or estimate the size of any such payment.

In addition, if the company extracts more mineral resources than assumed in the original appraisal, Resolution Copper would make annual payments to the federal government. Such payments might be significant; however, based on information provided by Resolution Copper, CBO expects that those lands would not be mined within 10 years of the enactment of H.R. 687. Therefore, no payments would be made over the next 10 years.

The bill contains no intergovernmental or private-sector mandates as defined in the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act and would impose no costs on state, local, or tribal governments.

The CBO staff contact for this estimate is Jeff LaFave. The estimate was approved by Theresa Gullo, Deputy Assistant Director for Budget Analysis.

2. Section 308(a) of Congressional Budget Act. As required by clause 3(c)(2) of rule XIII of the Rules of the House of Representatives and section 308(a) of the Congressional Budget Act of 1974, this bill does not contain any new budget authority, spending authority, credit authority, or an increase or decrease in revenues or tax expenditures. Based on information provided by the affected agencies, CBO estimates that implementing the bill would cost less than $500,000 annually, assuming the availability of appropriated funds.

3. General Performance Goals and Objectives. As required by clause 3(c)(4) of rule XIII, the general performance goal or objective of this bill is to facilitate the efficient extraction of mineral resources in southeast Arizona by authorizing and directing an exchange of Federal and non-Federal land.

EARMARK STATEMENT

This bill does not contain any Congressional earmarks, limited tax benefits, or limited tariff benefits as defined under clause 9(e), 9(f), and 9(g) of rule XXI of the Rules of the House of Representatives.

COMPLIANCE WITH PUBLIC LAW 104-4

This bill contains no unfunded mandates.

COMPLIANCE WITH H. RES. 5

Directed Rule Making. The Chairman does not believe that this bill directs any executive branch official to conduct any specific rule-making proceedings.

Duplication of Existing Programs. This bill does not establish or reauthorize a program of the federal government known to be duplicative of another program. Such program was not included in any report from the Government Accountability Office to Congress pursuant to section 21 of Public Law 111-139 or identified in the most recent Catalog of Federal Domestic Assistance published pursuant to the Federal Program Information Act (Public Law 95-220, as amended by Public Law 98-169) as relating to other programs.

PREEMPTION OF STATE, LOCAL OR TRIBAL LAW

This bill is not intended to preempt any State, local or tribal law.

CHANGES IN EXISTING LAW

If enacted, this bill would make no changes in existing law.

DISSENTING VIEWS

H.R. 687 will rob Native People of their heritage, local people of their water and the American people of valuable natural resources, all to benefit two large, foreign-owned mining corporations. This legislation is an abdication of our responsibilities as stewards of the public lands and the public trust and it should be rejected by the House.

Resolution Copper Mining, LLC (Resolution Copper) is a subsidiary of Rio Tinto and BHP-Billiton. Resolution Copper owns land and holds mining claims on the Tonto National Forest in Southeastern Arizona. The company believes the area is home to a significant copper deposit and is seeking to develop a lucrative copper mining operation. However, approximately 760 acres of national forest land in the area was withdrawn from mining by President Eisenhower in 1955. Resolution Copper is seeking H.R. 687 to require the federal government to exchange the withdrawn forest land for land owned by the Company so that the mining operation can proceed.

Evaluating the merits of land exchanges is difficult under the best of circumstances; H.R. 687 would require this land exchange to proceed under the worst of circumstances. By waiving timely Tribal consultation, standard appraisal requirements and meaningful compliance with the National Environmental Policy Act (NEPA) (42 U.S.C. § 4321 et seq.), H.R. 687 would require that the exchange go forward without mitigation or even analysis of its potentially devastating impacts.

Testimony received by the Committee indicates that the mining operation planned by Resolution Copper would require 40,000 acre-feet of water per year; roughly the amount used by the city of Tempe (population 160,000). The company has been less than transparent regarding where they would find this massive quantity of water in Southeastern Arizona. Past practice for mining companies has been to simply sink deeper wells and take the water they need, leaving their neighbors literally high and dry.

Securing a fair return to taxpayers on this exchange is difficult given that the most valuable aspect of the exchange by far is the copper, the value of which is speculative but estimated to be worth billions of dollars. Rather than clarifying the valuation issue, H.R. 687 further muddies the waters by requiring highly unusual appraisal procedures which fail to guarantee that Resolution Copper will pay a fair price for the copper it stands to receive from the American people.

The principal justification for this land exchange is the creation of jobs in Southeastern Arizona. These claims are highly suspect, however, given that Rio Tinto and BHP-Billiton are pioneers in the automation and remote control of mining operations.

Finally, H.R. 687 trades away several sites that are sacred to Native People. The hearing record includes desperate pleas from the San Carlos Apache Tribe, White Mountain Apache Tribe, Yavapai-Apache Nation, Tonto Apache Tribe, Fort McDowell Yavapai Nation, Hualapai Tribe, Jicarilla Apache Nation, Mesquero Apache Tribe, the Pueblo of Zuni and other Native Nations to respect their religious and cultural traditions.

Instead, the bill waives compliance with NEPA, the Native American Graves Protection Act, and all other statutes that might give Tribes a voice. The final insult comes when the bill requires consultation with Native People—after the land exchange has occurred.

The majority rejected an amendment from Representative DeFazio (D-OR) that would have imposed a royalty rate of 12.5 percent on minerals produced from the conveyed federal land, required Resolution Copper to annually report to the Secretary of the Interior the amount of minerals produced from the conveyed federal land, and required that the funds received from the royalty payments be used for abandoned hardrock mine lands reclamation.

The Majority also rejected an amendment from Water and Power Subcommittee Ranking Member Napolitano (D-CA) that would have prevented adverse impacts on water quantity and quality in the development of this project.

The Majority rejected three amendments from Public Lands and Environmental Regulation Subcommittee Ranking Member Grijalva (D-AZ). The first would have excluded any Native American sacred or cultural sites, including Apache Leap, from the federal land conveyance.

The second Grijalva amendment would have required the mining plan for the conveyed federal land to support the local workforce, while the third would have made the conveyance of federal land contingent on the Secretary of the Interior completing an environmental review document regarding the land exchange, proposed mine, and mine plan of operations in accordance with NEPA.

In one fell swoop, H.R. 687 would gather up hundreds of acres of sacred land, thousands of acre-feet of precious water, and millions of tons of valuable copper, and hand it all over to Resolution Copper and its owners, Rio Tinto and BHP-Billiton. Such a move would be a disservice to local residents, Tribes and taxpayers. The House should reject this irresponsible and unwise proposal.
