PURPOSE OF THE BILL

The purpose of H.R. 931 is to provide for the addition of certain real property to the reservation of the Siletz Tribe in the State of Oregon.

BACKGROUND AND NEED FOR LEGISLATION

The Confederated Tribes of Siletz Indians comprise a number of bands of Oregon Indians who were located to a 1.1 million-acre reservation set aside by Executive Order of President Franklin Pierce in 1855. In 1954, federal supervision over the Siletz was terminated by an Act of Congress. This occurred in the context of the “termination era” when Congress determined that its policy of recognizing tribes, holding their lands in a federal trust, and supervising their affairs made Indians wards of the government and thereby restricted their freedom to use their lands.

After a number of tribes in various parts of the United States were terminated by Congress, Indian people objected to the policy, arguing that they were not fully consulted or informed as to its consequences. Over the years, Congress has restored a number of the terminated tribes to recognized tribal status. In 1977, Congress enacted a bill to restore the Confederated Tribes of Siletz Indians of Oregon (Public Law 95–195). The Act established a process for the tribe to organize, and further required the Department of the Interior and the tribe to develop a plan for creating a reservation, but required any reservation to be established through an Act of Congress.

In 1980, Congress established a reservation for the Siletz under Public Law 96–340, consisting of 3,630 acres as well as a parcel known as Government Hill that was conveyed by the city of Siletz. The lands are mostly timberlands. Over the years, the tribe has increased its land holdings to more than 15,000 acres, mostly in Lincoln and Douglas Counties, Oregon. The tribe owns a casino, resort, and a number of other businesses.

H.R. 931 eases the process for the Siletz Indian Tribe to apply for trust land within the original boundaries of the former 1855 Siletz Coast Reservation, which encompassed a large area on the coast of Oregon within the counties of Benton, Douglas, Lane, Lincoln, Tillamook, and Yamhill. The bill prohibits gaming on land acquired in trust under this bill.

COMMITTEE ACTION

H.R. 931 was introduced on February 28, 2013, by Congressman Kurt Schrader (D-OR). The bill was referred to the Committee on Natural Resources, and within the Committee to the Subcommittee on Indian and Alaska Native Affairs. On May 16, 2013, the Subcommittee on Indian and Alaska Native Affairs held a hearing on the bill. On June 12, 2013, the Full Natural Resources Committee met to consider the bill. The Subcommittee on Indian and Alaska Native Affairs was discharged by unanimous consent. Congressman Peter DeFazio (D-OR) offered an amendment designated .030 to the bill; the amendment was adopted by unanimous consent. No further amendments were offered and the bill, as amended, was then adopted and ordered favorably reported to the House of Representatives by unanimous consent.

COMMITTEE OVERSIGHT FINDINGS AND RECOMMENDATIONS

Regarding clause 2(b)(1) of rule X and clause 3(c)(1) of rule XIII of the Rules of the House of Representatives, the Committee on Natural Resources' oversight findings and recommendations are reflected in the body of this report.

COMPLIANCE WITH HOUSE RULE XIII

1. Cost of Legislation. Clause 3(d)(1) of rule XIII of the Rules of the House of Representatives requires an estimate and a comparison by the Committee of the costs which would be incurred in carrying out this bill. However, clause 3(d)(2)(B) of that rule provides that this requirement does not apply when the Committee has included in its report a timely submitted cost estimate of the bill prepared by the Director of the Congressional Budget Office under section 402 of the Congressional Budget Act of 1974. Under clause 3(c)(3) of rule XIII of the Rules of the House of Representatives and section 403 of the Congressional Budget Act of 1974, the Committee has received the following cost estimate for this bill from the Director of the Congressional Budget Office:

H.R. 931—A bill to provide for the addition of certain real property to the reservation of the Siletz Tribe in the state of Oregon

H.R. 931 would modify how the Secretary of the Interior evaluates land to be taken into trust for the Confederated Tribes of Siletz Indians of Oregon. Under current law, the Department of the Interior has two separate processes for evaluating potential trust land depending on whether the land is located within or outside of the recognized boundaries of the reservation. If the land is located outside of the recognized boundaries, the process requires greater scrutiny. The bill would require the Secretary to consider certain property that is considered "off-reservation" under current law as "on-reservation." Under the legislation, all property taken into trust would be considered part of the reservation.

Based on information provided by the Department of the Interior, CBO estimates that implementing H.R. 931 would have no significant impact on the federal budget because the cost of processing trust land applications and the cost of administering the tribes' trust lands would not change significantly. Enacting H.R. 931 would not affect direct spending or revenues; therefore, pay-as-you-go procedures do not apply.

H.R. 931 contains no intergovernmental or private-sector mandates as defined in the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act.

The CBO staff contact for this estimate is Martin von Gnechten. The estimate was approved by Theresa Gullo, Deputy Assistant Director for Budget Analysis.

2. Section 308(a) of Congressional Budget Act. As required by clause 3(c)(2) of rule XIII of the Rules of the House of Representatives and section 308(a) of the Congressional Budget Act of 1974, this bill does not contain any new budget authority, spending authority, credit authority, or an increase or decrease in revenues or tax expenditures. Based on information provided by the Department of the Interior, CBO estimates that implementing H.R. 931 would have no significant impact on the federal budget because the cost of processing trust land applications and the cost of administering the tribes' trust lands would not change significantly.

3. General Performance Goals and Objectives. As required by clause 3(c)(4) of rule XIII, the general performance goal or objective of this bill is to provide for the addition of certain real property to the reservation of the Siletz Tribe in the State of Oregon.

EARMARK STATEMENT

This bill does not contain any Congressional earmarks, limited tax benefits, or limited tariff benefits as defined under clause 9(e), 9(f), and 9(g) of rule XXI of the Rules of the House of Representatives.

COMPLIANCE WITH PUBLIC LAW 104-4

This bill contains no unfunded mandates.

COMPLIANCE WITH H. RES. 5

Directed Rule Making. The Chairman does not believe that this bill directs any executive branch official to conduct any specific rule-making proceedings.

Duplication of Existing Programs. This bill does not establish or reauthorize a program of the federal government known to be duplicative of another program. Such program was not included in any report from the Government Accountability Office to Congress pursuant to section 21 of Public Law 111-139 or identified in the most recent Catalog of Federal Domestic Assistance published pursuant to the Federal Program Information Act (Public Law 95-220, as amended by Public Law 98-169) as relating to other programs.

PREEMPTION OF STATE, LOCAL OR TRIBAL LAW

This bill is not intended to preempt any State, local or tribal law.

CHANGES IN EXISTING LAW MADE BY THE BILL, AS REPORTED

In compliance with clause 3(e) of rule XIII of the Rules of the House of Representatives, changes in existing law made by the bill, as reported, are shown as follows (new matter is printed in italic and existing law in which no change is proposed is shown in roman):
