PURPOSE AND SUMMARY

H.R. 158 takes steps to address potential security gaps in the Visa Waiver Program (VWP) in light of concerns raised about terrorists attempting to use visa-free travel to enter the United States. Specifically, H.R. 158 grants the Secretary of Homeland Security the authority to temporarily suspend a VWP country from the program, if such country fails to live up to its agreement to provide terrorism-related information, and requires notification to relevant congressional committees of such suspension.

The bill further requires the Department to provide the Committee with the number of individuals, identified by country, whose applications to travel under the Visa Waiver Program were denied or whose eligibility to travel was revoked, and the number whose applications were denied or revoked based on a determination that he or she was a threat to the security of the United States. The legislation also requires the Department to provide an assessment of how well VWP countries are adhering to their commitment to share Passenger Name Record data, Lost and Stolen Passport reports, and information about individuals whose travel patterns may pose a security concern to the U.S. Finally, it requires the Department to report to the Committee on steps that can be taken to improve the information provided through Electronic System Travel Authorization (ESTA) process.

BACKGROUND AND NEED FOR LEGISLATION

H.R. 158 clarifies in statute that, in a post-9/11 world, the purpose of the VWP has evolved from a program solely for travel facilitation to a counterterrorism and national security program. In current statute, the Secretary does not have the authority to temporarily suspend a VWP country from the program if the country fails to adhere to the terms of the agreement to provide terrorism-related information. The ability for the Secretary to temporarily suspend a country from the program will allow the Secretary to hold countries accountable without permanently removing them from the program. A primary national security component of the VWP is the Electronic System for Travel Authorization, or “ESTA”. The ESTA is the online application that travelers from VWP countries are required to complete. Once their ESTA is approved, they may travel to the United States without a visa.

HEARINGS

No hearings were held on H.R. 158.

tives requires the Committee to list the recorded votes on the motion to report legislation and amendments thereto.

NEW BUDGET AUTHORITY, ENTITLEMENT AUTHORITY, AND TAX EXPENDITURES

In compliance with clause 3(c)(2) of Rule XIII of the Rules of the House of Representatives, the Committee finds that H.R. 158, the Visa Waiver Program Improvement Act of 2015, would result in no new or increased budget authority, entitlement authority, or tax expenditures or revenues.

CONGRESSIONAL BUDGET OFFICE ESTIMATE

The Committee adopts as its own the cost estimate prepared by the Director of the Congressional Budget Office pursuant to section 402 of the Congressional Budget Act of 1974.

U.S. CONGRESS,
CONGRESSIONAL BUDGET OFFICE,

Hon. Michael McCaul,
Chairman, Committee on Homeland Security,
House of Representatives, Washington, DC.

Dear Mr. Chairman: The Congressional Budget Office has prepared the enclosed cost estimate for H.R. 158, the Visa Waiver Program Improvement Act of 2015.
If you wish further details on this estimate, we will be pleased to provide them. The CBO staff contact is Mark Grabowicz.

Sincerely,

Robert A. Sunshine
(For Keith Hall, Director.)

Enclosure.

H.R. 158—Visa Waiver Program Improvement Act of 2015

H.R. 158 would make administrative changes to the visa waiver program, under which citizens of certain countries may visit the United States temporarily without a visa, and would require the Department of Homeland Security to prepare several reports to the Congress on national security issues affected by the visa waiver program.

Based on the costs of similar reports, CBO estimates that implementing H.R. 158 would cost about $1 million in 2016 and less than $500,000 annually thereafter, assuming appropriation of the necessary funds. Because enacting the legislation would not affect direct spending or revenues, pay-as-you-go procedures do not apply.

H.R. 158 contains no intergovernmental or private-sector mandates as defined in the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act and would not affect the budgets of state, local, or tribal governments.

The CBO staff contact for this estimate is Mark Grabowicz. The estimate was approved by H. Samuel Papenfuss, Deputy Assistant Director for Budget Analysis.

STATEMENT OF GENERAL PERFORMANCE GOALS AND OBJECTIVES

Pursuant to clause 3(c)(4) of Rule XIII of the Rules of the House of Representatives, H.R. 158 contains the following general performance goals and objectives, including outcome related goals and objectives authorized.

The general performance goals and objectives of H.R. 158 are to improve and strengthen the Visa Waiver Program to prevent terrorists from entering the United States.

DUPLICATIVE FEDERAL PROGRAMS

Pursuant to clause 3(c) of Rule XIII, the Committee finds that H.R. 158 does not contain any provision that establishes or reauthorizes a program known to be duplicative of another Federal program.

CONGRESSIONAL EARMARKS, LIMITED TAX BENEFITS, AND LIMITED TARIFF BENEFITS

In compliance with Rule XXI of the Rules of the House of Representatives, this bill, as reported, contains no congressional earmarks, limited tax benefits, or limited tariff benefits as defined in clause 9(e), 9(f), or 9(g) of the Rule XXI.

FEDERAL MANDATES STATEMENT

The Committee adopts as its own the estimate of Federal mandates prepared by the Director of the Congressional Budget Office pursuant to section 423 of the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act.

PREEMPTION CLARIFICATION

In compliance with section 423 of the Congressional Budget Act of 1974, requiring the report of any Committee on a bill or joint resolution to include a statement on the extent to which the bill or joint resolution is intended to preempt State, local, or Tribal law, the Committee finds that H.R. 158 does not preempt any State, local, or Tribal law.

DISCLOSURE OF DIRECTED RULE MAKINGS

The Committee estimates that H.R. 158 would require no directed rule makings.
ADVISORY COMMITTEE STATEMENT

No advisory committees within the meaning of section 5(b) of the Federal Advisory Committee Act were created by this legislation.

APPLICABILITY TO LEGISLATIVE BRANCH

The Committee finds that the legislation does not relate to the terms and conditions of employment or access to public services or accommodations within the meaning of section 102(b)(3) of the Congressional Accountability Act.

SECTION-BY-SECTION ANALYSIS OF THE LEGISLATION

Section 1. Short Title.

This section provides that bill may be cited as the “Visa Waiver Program Improvement Act of 2015”.

Section 2. Grounds for ineligibility for travel to the United States; reports on law enforcement and security interests; continuing qualification and designation terminations; report on strengthening the electronic system for travel authorization.

Subsection (a) Grounds for Ineligibility for Travel to the United States; Period of Validity.

This subsection clarifies in statute that the purpose of the Visa Waiver Program (VWP) is primarily a counterterror and national security program. After 9/11, several changes were made to the law to transform what was once solely a trade and travel facilitation program into a strong national security program that plays a significant role in keeping terrorists and other inadmissible individuals out of the country.

Subsection (a) also places two reporting requirements on the Department of Homeland Security (DHS). First, DHS must provide the relevant committees with the number of individuals, identified by country, whose application to travel under the VWP was denied or whose eligibility to travel was revoked, and the number that were denied or revoked based on a determination that he or she was a threat to the security of the United States. Second, DHS must provide the relevant committees with an assessment of how well VWP countries are complying with agreements to share Passenger Name Record data, Lost and Stolen Passport reports, and information about individuals whose travel patterns may pose a security concern to the U.S.

The Committee acknowledges the importance of the VWP for travel facilitation. However, threats against our nation continue to evolve, including the threat of foreign fighters with passports from VWP nations. The Committee believes that the VWP is an essential national security program and should be revised as necessary to meet changing threats.
Subsection (b) Reports on Law Enforcement and Security Interests; Continuing Qualification and Designation Terminations.

This subsection grants the Secretary of Homeland Security the authority to suspend a VWP country from the program if that country fails to fulfill its agreement to provide terrorism-related information to the U.S. in a timely manner. It also requires the relevant Committees be notified of any such suspension.

While the Secretary currently has the authority to terminate a country’s participation in the VWP, this provision would allow the Secretary to suspend a VWP country for noncompliance, should it become necessary, until compliance is achieved.

The Committee is concerned that vital terrorism data has been withheld from DHS and the intelligence community by some visa waiver nations. Recent reports indicate that in the wake of high profile terror attacks overseas, VWP nations have shared information on many individuals of concern. Several of those individuals were not known to DHS and could have posed a threat to the safety of the Homeland. The purpose of this section is to ensure that the nations being given visa waiver are sharing vital data with the U.S. intelligence community.

The Committee believes that in order for it to be a successful national security tool, the terms and agreements of the Visa Waiver Program must be enforceable. While the Secretary has the authority to terminate a nation’s involvement in the program, the political and practical repercussions of termination make such a decision unlikely. The Committee believes that providing a temporary suspension authority to the Secretary will help ensure the security of the VWP and visa waiver nations who do not abide by the agreements and provide the United States with the terrorism-related information will be better held accountable.

It is the Committee’s sincerest hope that this authority will be never need to be exercised.

Subsection (c) Clerical Amendments.

This subsection is a clerical amendment to Section 217 of the Immigration and Nationality Act, changing the name of the “Electronic Travel Authorization System” to the “Electronic System for Travel Authorization.” This change updates the law to reflect current practice.

Subsection (d) Report on Strengthening the Electronic System for Travel Authorization.

Subsection (d) requires DHS to report to the Committee on steps that can be taken to improve the Electronic System Travel Authorization (ESTA). ESTA is the application that travelers from VWP countries are required to complete prior to travel to the U.S.

DHS recently updated the ESTA application and the Committee believes they must continually evaluate the requested information and continue to update the ESTA questionnaire as appropriate. In recent months, this need is evident due to the thousands of foreign fighters—many of them from VWP countries—traveling to Iraq and Syria. The Committee believes that as homeland security threats continue to evolve, the systems in place to address these threats must also be revised to best protect the nation.
This subsection requires that the report established in this Act be submitted at the same time as the next report already required under the same section in current law.

CHANGES IN EXISTING LAW MADE BY THE BILL, AS REPORTED

In compliance with clause 3(e) of rule XIII of the Rules of the House of Representatives, changes in existing law made by the bill, as reported, are shown as follows (existing law proposed to be omitted is enclosed in black brackets, new matter is printed in italic, and existing law in which no change is proposed is shown in roman):

(I) shall evaluate the effect of each program country’s continued designation on the law enforcement and security interests of the United States (including the interest in enforcement of the immigration laws of the United States and the existence and effectiveness of its agreements and procedures for extraditing to the United States individuals, including its own nationals, who commit crimes that violate United States law);

(II) shall determine, based upon the evaluation in subclause (I), whether any such designation ought to be continued or terminated under subsection (d);

(i) In general.—In the case of a program country in which an emergency occurs that the Secretary of Homeland Security, in consultation with the Secretary of State, determines threatens the law enforcement or security interests of the United States (including the interest in enforcement of the immigration laws of the United States), the Secretary of Homeland Security shall immediately terminate the designation of the country as a program country.

(ii) DEFINITION.—For purposes of clause (i), the term “emergency” means—

(I) the overthrow of a democratically elected government;

(iii) REDESIGNATION.—The Secretary of Homeland Security may redesignate the country as a program country, without regard to subsection (f) or paragraph (2) or (3), when the Secretary of Homeland Security, in consultation with the Secretary of State, determines that—

(II) the emergency that caused the termination has ended; and

(III) the average number of refusals of nonimmigrant visitor visas for nationals of that country during the period of termination under this subparagraph was less than 3.0 percent of the total number of nonimmigrant visitor visas for nationals of that country which were granted or refused during such period.

(iv) PROGRAM SUSPENSION AUTHORITY.—The Director of National Intelligence shall immediately inform the Secretary of Homeland Security of any current and credible threat which poses an imminent danger to the United States or its citizens and originates from a country participating in the visa waiver program. Upon receiving such notification, the Secretary, in consultation with the Secretary of State—

(II) shall notify any country suspended under subclause (I) and, to the extent practicable without disclosing sensitive intelligence sources and methods, provide justification for the suspension; and

No court shall have jurisdiction under this paragraph to review any visa refusal, the denial of admission to the United States of any alien by the Attorney General, the Secretary's computation of the visa refusal rate, or the designation or nondesignation of any country.

(7) VISA WAIVER INFORMATION.—

(A) IN GENERAL.—In refusing the application of nationals of a program country for United States visas, or the appli-ations of nationals of a country seeking entry into the visa waiver program, a consular officer shall not knowingly or intentionally classify the refusal of the visa under a category that is not included in the calculation of the visa refusal rate only so that the percentage of that country’s visa refusals is less than the percentage limitation applicable to qualification for participation in the visa waiver program.

(B) REPORTING REQUIREMENT.—On May 1 of each year, for each country under consideration for inclusion in the visa waiver program, the Secretary of State shall provide to the appropriate congressional committees—

(i) the total number of nationals of that country that applied for United States visas in that country during the previous calendar year;

(8) NONIMMIGRANT VISA REFUSAL RATE FLEXIBILITY.—

(A) CERTIFICATION.—

(i) IN GENERAL.—On the date on which an air exit system is in place that can verify the departure of not less than 97 percent of foreign nationals who exit through airports of the United States and the electronic system for travel authorization required under subsection (h)(3) is fully operational, the Secretary of Homeland Security shall certify to Congress that such air exit system and [electronic travel authorization system] \textit{electronic system for travel authorization} are in place.
(ii) NOTIFICATION TO CONGRESS.—The Secretary shall notify Congress in writing of the date on which the air exit system under clause (i) fully satisfies the biometric requirements specified in subsection (i).

(i) the country meets all security requirements of this section;

(iii) there has been a sustained reduction in the rate of refusals for nonimmigrant visas for nationals of the country and conditions exist to continue such reduction;

(iv) the country cooperated with the Government of the United States on counterterrorism initiatives, information sharing, and preventing terrorist travel before the date of its designation as a program country, and the Secretary of Homeland Security and the Secretary of State determine that such cooperation will continue; and

(v)(I) the rate of refusals for nonimmigrant visitor visas for nationals of the country during the previous full fiscal year was not more than ten percent; or

(II) the visa overstay rate for the country for the previous full fiscal year does not exceed the maximum visa overstay rate, once such rate is established under subparagraph (C).

(C) MAXIMUM VISA OVERSTAY RATE.—

(i) REQUIREMENT TO ESTABLISH.—After certification by the Secretary under subparagraph (A), the Secretary and the Secretary of State jointly shall use information from the air exit system referred to in such subparagraph to establish a maximum visa overstay rate for countries participating in the program pursuant to a waiver under subparagraph (B). The Secretary of Homeland Security shall certify to Congress that such rate would not compromise the law enforcement, security interests, or enforcement of the immigration laws of the United States.

(I) the total number of nationals of that country who were admitted to the United States on the basis of a nonimmigrant visa whose periods of authorized stays ended during a fiscal year but who remained unlawfully in the United States beyond such periods; to

Not later than 60 days after such date, the Secretary shall issue a final maximum visa overstay rate above which a country may not participate in the program.

(9) Discretionary security-related considerations.—In determining whether to waive the application of paragraph (2)(A) for a country, pursuant to paragraph (8), the Secretary of Homeland Security, in consultation with the Secretary of State, shall take into consideration other factors affecting the security of the United States, including—

The Secretary of Homeland Security may not waive any eligibility requirement under this section unless the Secretary notifies, with respect to the House of Representatives, the Committee on Homeland Security, the Committee on the Judiciary, the Committee on Foreign Affairs, and the Committee on Appropriations, and with respect to the Senate, the Committee on Homeland Security and Governmental Affairs, the Committee on the Judiciary, the Committee on Foreign Relations, and the Committee on Appropriations not later than 30 days before the effective date of such waiver.

The Attorney General shall prescribe by regulation the provision of such information as the Attorney General deems necessary to identify the domestic corporation, its officers, employees, shareholders, its place of business, and its business activities.

(B) Collections.—In addition to any other fee authorized by law, the Attorney General is authorized to charge and collect, on a periodic basis, an amount from each domestic corporation conducting operations under part 91 of title 14, Code of Federal Regulations, for nonimmigrant visa waiver admissions on noncommercial aircraft owned or operated by such domestic corporation equal to the total amount of fees assessed for issuance of nonimmigrant visa waiver arrival/departure forms at land border ports of entry. (C) Termination of Designation.—Subject to paragraph (3), if the program country's disqualification rate is 3.5 percent or more, the Attorney General shall terminate the country's designation as a program country effective at the beginning of the second fiscal year following the fiscal year in which the determination under subparagraph (A) is made.

(2) Termination of Probationary Status.—
   (A) In General.—If the Attorney General determines at the end of the probationary period described in paragraph (1)(B) that the program country placed in probationary status under such paragraph has failed to develop a machine-readable passport program as required by section (c)(2)(C), or has a disqualification rate of 2 percent or more, the Attorney General shall terminate the designation of the country as a program country. If the Attorney General determines that the program country has developed a machine-readable passport program and has a disqualification rate of less than 2 percent, the Attorney General shall redesignate the country as a program country.
   (B) Effective Date.—A termination of the designation of a country under subparagraph (A) shall take effect on the first day of the first fiscal year following the fiscal year in which the determination under such subparagraph is made. Until such date, nationals of the country shall remain eligible for a waiver under subsection (a).

(B) Requirements.—The system under subparagraph (A) shall satisfy the following requirements:

(i) Data collection by carriers.—Not later than October 1, 2001, the records of arrival and departure described in subparagraph (A) shall be based, to the maximum extent practicable, on passenger data collected and electronically transmitted to the automated entry and exit control system by each carrier that has an agreement under subsection (a)(4).

(ii) Data provision by carriers.—Not later than October 1, 2002, no waiver may be provided under this section to an alien arriving by sea or air at a port of entry into the United States on a carrier unless the carrier is electronically transmitting to the automated entry and exit control system passenger data determined by the Attorney General to be sufficient to permit the Attorney General to carry out this paragraph.

(iii) Calculation.—The system shall contain sufficient data to permit the Attorney General to calculate, for each program country and each fiscal year, the portion of nationals of that country who are described in subparagraph (A) and for whom no record of departure exists, expressed as a percentage of the total number of such nationals who are so described.

(C) Reporting.—

(i) Percentage of nationals lacking departure record.—As part of the annual report required to be submitted under section 110(e)(1) of the Illegal Immigration Reform and Immigrant Responsibility Act of 1996, the Attorney General shall include a section containing the calculation described in subparagraph (B)(iii) for each program country for the previous fiscal year, together with an analysis of that information.

(II) The recommendations of the Attorney General regarding the use of the calculation described in subparagraph (B)(iii) as a basis for evaluating whether to terminate or continue the designation of a country as a program country.

The report required by this clause may be combined with the annual report required to be submitted on that date under section 110(e)(1) of the Illegal Immigration Reform and Immigrant Responsibility Act of 1996.

(2) AUTOMATED DATA SHARING SYSTEM.—

Notwithstanding any other provision under this section, the Secretary of Homeland Security may revoke any such determination at any time and for any reason, or, if the Secretary determines that such is appropriate, may limit such period of eligibility.

(ii) LIMITATION.—A determination by the Secretary of Homeland Security that an alien is eligible to travel to the United States under the program is not a determination that the alien is admissible to the United States.

(iii) NOT A DETERMINATION OF VISA ELIGIBILITY.—A determination by the Secretary of Homeland Security that an alien who applied for authorization to travel to the United States through the System is not eligible to travel under the program is not a determination of eligibility for a visa to travel to the United States and shall not preclude the alien from applying for a visa.

(iv) JUDICIAL REVIEW.—Notwithstanding any other provision of law, no court shall have jurisdiction to review an eligibility determination under the System.
