PURPOSE OF THE BILL

The purpose of S. 246 is to establish the Alyce Spotted Bear and Walter Soboleff Commission on Native Children.

BACKGROUND AND NEED FOR LEGISLATION

Native American people are generally considered to be the most at-risk population in the country, facing significant disparities in mortality, health, education and safety, relative to the non-Native population.¹ These risks begin as soon as Native children are born and continue through adolescence. The Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration reports that suicide is the second leading cause of death—2.5 times the national rate—for Indian youth in the 15–24 age group. Indian tribal governments and Alaska Native Villages, many of which are impoverished, face numerous obstacles in responding to the needs of Native children. Federal agencies lack clear implementation plans, training and technical assistance for tribes and Native villages.

Advocates of S. 246 assert that the collection, development, and evaluation of appropriate data is fundamental to a comprehensive assessment of the needs of Native children who may be rendered even more vulnerable by the misplaced or chronic underfunding of programs for Indian Country due to the lack of data.²

The purpose of S. 246 is to establish a Commission whose goal is to develop recommendations and submit a report on necessary changes and improvements to Federal, state, and tribal programs to benefit Native children. The scope of the Commission’s analysis and report would be broad, including programs, services, and benefits related to child welfare, mental and physical health, and education systems. The report would supplement the efforts of other commissions and task forces, such as the Attorney General’s Task Force on American Indian/Alaska Native Children Exposed to Violence.³

COMMITTEE ACTION

S. 246 was introduced on January 22, 2015, by Senator Heidi Heitkamp (D–ND). It passed the Senate with an amendment by unanimous consent on June 1, 2015. The bill was referred to the Committee on Natural Resources, and within the Committee to the Subcommittee on Indian, Insular and Alaska Native Affairs. On July 12, 2016, the Natural Resources Committee met to consider the bill. The Subcommittee was discharged by unanimous consent. Congressman Rob Bishop (R–UT) offered an amendment designated #1; it was adopted by unanimous consent. No further amendments were offered and the bill, as amended, was adopted and ordered favorably reported to the House of Representatives by unanimous consent on July 13, 2016.

COMMITTEE OVERSIGHT FINDINGS AND RECOMMENDATIONS

Regarding clause 2(b)(1) of rule X and clause 3(c)(1) of rule XIII of the Rules of the House of Representatives, the Committee on Natural Resources' oversight findings and recommendations are reflected in the body of this report.

FEDERAL ADVISORY COMMITTEE STATEMENT

Section 3 of this legislation establishes an advisory committee, as defined by section 3 of the Federal Advisory Committee Act (5 U.S.C. app.). Pursuant to section 5 of the Federal Advisory Committee Act, the Committee determines that the functions of this advisory committee are not being carried out by existing agencies or advisory commissions. The Committee also determines that the advisory committee has a clearly defined purpose, fairly balanced membership, and meets all of the other requirements of section 5(b) of the Federal Advisory Committee Act.

COMPLIANCE WITH HOUSE RULE XIII

1. Cost of Legislation and Section 308(a) of the Congressional Budget Act. With respect to the requirements of clause 3(c)(2) and (3) of rule XIII of the Rules of the House of Representatives and sections 308(a) and 402 of the Congressional Budget Act of 1974, the Committee has received the enclosed cost estimate for the bill from the Director of the Congressional Budget Office:

U.S. CONGRESS,
CONGRESSIONAL BUDGET OFFICE,
Washington, DC, August 8, 2016.

Hon. ROB BISHOP,
*Chairman, Committee on Natural Resources,
House of Representatives, Washington, DC.*

DEAR MR. CHAIRMAN: The Congressional Budget Office has prepared the enclosed cost estimate for S. 246, the Alyce Spotted Bear and Walter Soboleff Commission on Native Children Act.

If you wish further details on this estimate, we will be pleased to provide them. The CBO staff contact is Robert Reese.

Sincerely,

MARK P. HADLEY
(For Keith Hall, Director).

Enclosure.

S. 246—Alyce Spotted Bear and Walter Soboleff Commission on Native Children Act

S. 246 would establish the Alyce Spotted Bear and Walter Soboleff Commission on Native Children in the Office of Tribal Justice in the Department of Justice. The 11-member commission would be tasked with completing a study of federal and nonfederal programs that serve Native American children. Under the bill, the commission would use the results of the study to develop plans and recommendations to improve those programs. The commission would submit a report on those recommendations to the Congress and the President within three years of the formation of the commission. S. 246 also would allow the commission to use staff detailed from other federal agencies to complete its work and to reimburse commission members for traveling expenses.

Based on the costs of similar commissions, CBO estimates that implementing the legislation would cost about $2 million over the 2017–2020 period, subject to appropriation of the necessary amounts. Under the bill, amounts would be used to pay travel expenses and fees for witnesses, and to prepare the commission’s report. CBO estimates that any costs for employees detailed from other agencies to work for the commission would not be significant.

Enacting S. 246 would affect direct spending because it would authorize the new commission to accept and spend gifts; therefore, pay-as-you-go procedures apply. However, CBO estimates that the net effect of that provision on direct spending would be insignificant. Enacting S. 246 would not affect revenues. CBO estimates that enacting S. 246 would not increase net direct spending or on-budget deficits in any of the four consecutive 10-year periods beginning in 2027.

S. 246 contains no intergovernmental or private-sector mandates as defined in the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act.

On February 10, 2015, CBO transmitted a cost estimate for S. 246 as ordered reported by the Senate Committee on Indian Affairs on February 4, 2015. The two versions of the legislation are similar and CBO’s estimate of their budgetary effects are the same.

The CBO staff contact for this estimate is Robert Reese. The estimate was approved by Theresa Gullo, Assistant Director for Budget Analysis.

2. General Performance Goals and Objectives. As required by clause 3(c)(4) of rule XIII, the general performance goal or objective of this bill is to establish the Alyce Spotted Bear and Walter Soboleff Commission on Native Children.

EARMARK STATEMENT

This bill does not contain any Congressional earmarks, limited tax benefits, or limited tariff benefits as defined under clause 9(e), 9(f), and 9(g) of rule XXI of the Rules of the House of Representatives.

COMPLIANCE WITH PUBLIC LAW 104–4

This bill contains no unfunded mandates.

COMPLIANCE WITH H. RES. 5

Directed Rule Making. The Chairman does not believe that this bill directs any executive branch official to conduct any specific rule-making proceedings.

Duplication of Existing Programs. This bill does not establish or reauthorize a program of the federal government known to be duplicative of another program. Such program was not included in any report from the Government Accountability Office to Congress pursuant to section 21 of Public Law 111–139 or identified in the most recent Catalog of Federal Domestic Assistance published pursuant to the Federal Program Information Act (Public Law 95–220, as amended by Public Law 98–169) as relating to other programs.

PREEMPTION OF STATE, LOCAL OR TRIBAL LAW

This bill is not intended to preempt any State, local or tribal law.

CHANGES IN EXISTING LAW

This bill makes no changes to existing law.
