This bill reauthorizes the Justice Department's Juvenile Accountability Block Grant (JABG) program, strengthens the JABG program to reduce youth crime and contains a robust accountability and oversight mechanism to ensure taxpayer dollars are used efficiently and appropriately. The JABG program provides grants to states, tribes and localities to strengthen their juvenile justice systems and reduce recidivist behavior.

H.R. 68—Juvenile Accountability Block Grant Program
Reauthorization Act of 2016.

As ordered reported by the House Committee on the Judiciary on July 13, 2016.

SUMMARY

H.R. 68 would authorize the appropriation of $25 million annually over the 2018–2022 period for the Department of Justice (DOJ) to make grants to State and local governments for programs to strengthen the juvenile justice system, including programs to combat bullying in schools.

Assuming appropriation of the authorized amounts, CBO estimates that implementing H.R. 68 would cost $50 million over the 2017–2021 period. Pay-as-you-go procedures do not apply to this legislation because enacting it would not affect direct spending or revenues.

CBO estimates that enacting the legislation would not increase net direct spending or on-budget deficits in any of the four consecutive 10-year periods beginning in 2027.

H.R. 68 contains no intergovernmental or private-sector mandates as defined in the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act (UMRA); any costs to State, local, or tribal governments would result from complying with conditions of Federal assistance.

ESTIMATED COST TO THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT

The estimated budgetary impact of H.R. 68 is shown in the following table. The costs of this legislation fall within budget function 750 (administration of justice).

BASIS OF ESTIMATE

CBO assumes that the authorized amounts will be appropriated near the start of each fiscal year and that outlays will follow the historical rate of spending for similar activities. The Congress did not provide any funds for this program in 2016.

INCREASE IN LONG-TERM DIRECT SPENDING AND DEFICITS

CBO estimates that enacting the legislation would not increase net direct spending or on-budget deficits in any of the four consecutive 10-year periods beginning in 2027.

INTERGOVERNMENTAL AND PRIVATE-SECTOR IMPACT

H.R. 68 contains no intergovernmental or private-sector mandates as defined in UMRA; any costs to State, local, or tribal governments would result from complying with conditions of Federal assistance.

Duplication of Federal Programs

No provision of H.R. 68 establishes or reauthorizes a program of the Federal Government known to be duplicative of another Federal program, a program that was included in any report from the Government Accountability Office to Congress pursuant to section 21 of Public Law 111-139, or a program related to a program identified in the most recent Catalog of Federal Domestic Assistance.

Disclosure of Directed Rule Makings

The Committee estimates that H.R. 68 specifically directs to be completed no specific rule makings within the meaning of 5 U.S.C. § 551.

Performance Goals and Objectives

The Committee states that pursuant to clause 3(c)(4) of rule XIII of the Rules of the House of Representatives, H.R. 68 reauthorizes the Juvenile Accountability Block Grant program to provide grants to states for programs to address and strengthen juvenile justice initiatives.

Advisory on Earmarks

In accordance with clause 9 of rule XXI of the Rules of the House of Representatives, H.R. 68 does not contain any congressional earmarks, limited tax benefits, or limited tariff benefits as defined in clause 9(e), 9(f), or 9(g) of Rule XXI.

Section-by-Section Analysis

The following discussion describes the bill as reported by the Committee.

Sec. 1: Short Title.

Section 1 provides that the short title of the bill is the “Tiffany Joslyn Juvenile Accountability Block Grant Program Reauthorization Act of 2016.” The title honors Tiffany Joslyn, a counsel for the Committee who died tragically in March of this year. Ms. Joslyn worked tirelessly to reform our criminal justice system, including work on this bill and other efforts to improve the system’s treatment of young offenders.

Sec. 2: Reauthorization of Juvenile Accountability Block Grant Programs.

This section amends various purpose areas for which Juvenile Accountability Block Grant (JABG) funds may be used. Historically, to strengthen the juvenile justice system, states have been authorized to use JABG grant funds for various purposes. Included among these purpose areas are the development, implementation, and administration of a state system of graduated sanctions for juvenile offenders. In addition to graduated “sanctions,” the substitute amendment will add graduated “incentives” to the relevant purpose area. The reason for this addition is to ensure that the states are using incentives, in addition to sanctions, to respond to a juvenile’s ability to meet short and long term goals in compliance with court orders and terms of case disposition.

This section strikes as a purpose area the hiring of juvenile court judges, probation officers, court appointed defenders and special advocates, and prosecutors. It also strikes the establishment of “gun courts” as an available purpose area.

“Mental health services and trauma-informed practices,” are added at the end of the purpose area pertaining to bullying. The prefix “anti” is added to bullying and cyberbullying for clarification.

Under JABG’s prior authorization, any state system of “graduated sanctions” must ensure sufficient flexibility to allow for individualized sanctions. This section adds “incentives,” as an additional component.

This section recognizes a “restorative justice program” is an available sanction.

This section defines “incentives.”

This section authorizes the grant program at $25 million for each of fiscal years 2018 through 2022.

This section adds grant accountability measures, including an audit requirement by the Inspector General of the Department of Justice, for the expenditure of grants funds, an annual certification to the House and Senate Judiciary Committees, and an oversight mechanism to prevent duplicative grants from being awarded.

This section adds a sense of the Congress that the use of best practices is encouraged for all activities for which grants are allocated.

Sec. 4. Use of Amounts Made Available for Department of Justice, General Administration to Carry out Juvenile Accountability Block Grant Program.

Finally, this section provides an offset, in accordance with House spending rules, in the amount of $25 million per year from 2018 through 2022 from the Department of Justice's General Administration budget.

Changes in Existing Law Made by the Bill, as Reported

In compliance with clause 3(e) of rule XIII of the Rules of the House of Representatives, changes in existing law made by the bill, as reported, are shown as follows (existing law proposed to be omitted is enclosed in black brackets, new matter is printed in italics, and existing law in which no change is proposed is shown in roman):
