I. SUMMARY AND BACKGROUND

A. PURPOSE AND SUMMARY

H.R. 6124, as reported by the Committee on Ways and Means, seeks to give tribal council members the ability to elect Social Security coverage. The bill amends Title II of the Social Security Act to allow tribal councils to voluntarily enter into coverage agreements with the Social Security Administration (SSA). The bill also allows tribal council members to receive Social Security credit for FICA taxes paid erroneously, prior to the establishment of the coverage agreement, if these taxes were paid timely and not subsequently refunded.

B. BACKGROUND AND NEED FOR LEGISLATION

When Social Security was established, state and local government employees were excluded from Social Security coverage due to concerns that the 10th Amendment prohibited the federal government from requiring states to join Social Security. The Social Security Amendments of 1950 added Section 218 to the Social Security Act, which allowed state and local governments to extend Social Security (and later Medicare) coverage to their employees through a voluntary agreement, known as a 218 agreement, between the state and the SSA. Under Section 218, the state/local government may only extend coverage following a vote by members of the retirement system through a referendum process. The agreements generally cover all positions within a coverage group, not just specific individuals. Once a group is covered, the employer may not revoke coverage and employees filling the covered positions may not decline coverage.

The services performed by members of tribal councils are not covered by Social Security. In 1959, the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) ruled that services performed by tribal council members in their role as council members do not constitute “employment” for FICA tax purposes, meaning that these earnings are not subject to Social Security and Medicare taxes.

In the early 2000s, the SSA began receiving inquiries regarding the Social Security coverage status of tribal council members, as some members may have been paying Social Security taxes erroneously and believed their earnings would count toward future benefits. In 2006, the SSA updated its program instructions to clarify that tribal council members' earnings do not count toward Social Security benefits, consistent with the 1959 revenue ruling. The SSA's instructions state that the SSA will provide benefit credits for payroll taxes paid erroneously prior to 2006. However, some tribal council members may have paid payroll taxes after this date.

In 2015, Representatives David Reichert (R-WA) and Derek Kilmer (D-WA) exchanged letters with the Acting Commissioner of Social Security and the Commissioner of the IRS requesting additional information about the agencies' policies regarding Social Security coverage for tribal council members. They also asked whether the SSA had explored extending optional Social Security coverage to tribal councils through administrative action. In response, the Acting Commissioner of Social Security indicated that the SSA does not have statutory authority to allow tribal council members to opt into Social Security coverage.

To give tribal council members the same ability to elect Social Security coverage that state and local government employees have, H.R. 6124 allows tribal councils to voluntarily enter into coverage agreements with the SSA. To address any remaining confusion from the IRS's 1959 revenue ruling and the SSA's 2006 policy clarification, the bill also allows tribal council members to receive Social Security credit for FICA taxes paid erroneously, prior to the establishment of the coverage agreement, if these taxes were paid timely and not subsequently refunded.

C. LEGISLATIVE HISTORY

Background

H.R. 6124 was introduced on June 15, 2018 and was referred to the Committee on Ways and Means. A previous version of this bill, H.R. 2860, was introduced on June 8, 2017 and referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

Committee action

The Committee on Ways and Means marked up H.R. 6124, the "Tribal Social Security Fairness Act of 2018," on June 21, 2018, and ordered the bill, as amended, favorably reported (with a quorum being present).

Committee hearings

On June 29, 2017, Social Security Subcommittee Chairman Sam Johnson and Oversight Subcommittee Chairman Vern Buchanan held a joint hearing entitled "Complexities and Challenges of Social Security Coverage and Payroll Tax Compliance for State and Local Governments." The hearing focused on the roles and responsibilities of the SSA, the IRS, and State Social Security Administrators in administering Social Security coverage for state and local governments. The Subcommittees received testimony from: (i) Marianna LaCanfora, Acting Deputy Commissioner, Office of Retirement and Disability Policy, SSA; (ii) Sunita Lough, Commissioner, Tax Exempt and Government Entities Division, IRS; and (iii) Maryann Motza, Legislative Committee Chair and Past President, National Conference of State Social Security Administrators.

Members discussed how the SSA, IRS, and State Social Security Administrators can improve coordination to ensure proper administration of Section 218 agreements and increase payroll tax compliance. Members also questioned the lack of Social Security coverage for tribal council members and discussed H.R. 2860 (an earlier version of H.R. 6124) with the SSA and IRS witnesses.

II. EXPLANATION OF THE BILL

A. VOLUNTARY AGREEMENTS FOR COVERAGE OF SERVICES BY AMERICAN INDIAN TRIBAL COUNCIL MEMBERS

(sec. 2 of the bill and sec. 3121 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended and new sec. 218A of Title II of the Social Security Act)

PRESENT LAW

Federal Insurance Contributions Act

Federal Insurance Contributions Act (FICA) taxes on employers and employees finance the Old-Age, Survivors, and Disability Insurance (OASDI, also referred to as Social Security) and Hospital Insurance (HI, also referred to as Medicare) programs.¹ The OASDI tax rate is 6.2 percent on both the employee and employer (for a total rate of 12.4 percent) and applies to employee wages up to the OASDI wage base ($128,400 for calendar year 2018). The HI tax rate is 1.45 percent on both the employee and the employer (for a total rate of 2.9 percent) and applies to all wages.²

FICA taxes (and coverage under the Social Security and Medicare programs) generally are mandatory, that is, employers and employees generally cannot choose whether FICA taxes apply. However, as discussed below, in the case of State and local government employees covered by a State or local government retirement system, a State may enter into an agreement with the SSA to cover one or more groups of such employees under the Social Security and Medicare programs. In that case, services of such employees constitute employment for FICA tax purposes and their wages are subject to FICA taxes.³

FICA taxes apply to wages, defined as remuneration for employment, which in turn is defined as service performed by an employee.⁴ Remuneration for service performed by an individual who is not an employee does not constitute wages for FICA tax purposes and is not subject to FICA taxes. Guidance issued by the IRS holds that services performed by members of Indian tribal councils in their capacities as such do not constitute employment for FICA tax

¹ Sections 3101–3128 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (IRC). Statutory references herein are to IRC unless otherwise indicated. The employee portion of the taxes is collected through withholding by the employer.

² The employee portion of the HI tax (not the employer portion) is increased by an additional tax of 0.9 percent on wages received in excess of a threshold amount. The threshold amount is $250,000 in the case of a joint return, $125,000 in the case of a married individual filing a separate return, and $200,000 in any other case.

³ Sec. 3121(b)(7)(E). In addition, under section 3121(b)(7)(F), State and local government employees who are not covered by a retirement system are generally subject to FICA taxes. Also, generally State and local government employees are subject to the Medicare tax unless an exception applies (for example, section 3121(u)(2)(C) provides a continuing employment exception with various requirements, including employment prior to April 1, 1986).

⁴ Sec. 3121(a) and (b). Employee is defined in section 3121(d).

purposes.⁵ As a result, amounts paid to members of tribal councils for services as council members are not wages subject to FICA taxes.

Social Security and Medicare benefits

The OASDI program under the Social Security Act provides for the payment of benefits (Social Security benefits) to individuals based on wages earned as an employee and credited to the employee's earnings record.⁶ Eligibility for Medicare coverage under the Social Security Act generally is based on eligibility for Social Security benefits and, thus, on wages credited to an employee's earnings record.⁷ Similar definitions of wages and employment apply for benefit purposes as for FICA tax purposes.⁸ Thus, remuneration for service performed by an individual who is not an employee does not constitute wages for purposes of earning credits for Social Security or Medicare benefits.

Coverage under the Social Security and Medicare programs generally is mandatory. However, coverage generally does not apply in the case of State and local government employees covered by a State or local government retirement system. In that case, if a referendum process and certain criteria are met, then at the request of a State, the Commissioner of Social Security will enter into an agreement with the State with respect to one or more coverage groups of such employees under the Social Security and Medicare programs.⁹ Generally, such an agreement encompasses all positions within such a coverage group and once covered, the employer may not revoke such coverage and employees filling such covered positions may not decline coverage.

REASONS FOR CHANGE

The Committee believes that the provision would correct a long-standing inequity in the Social Security Act that currently prevents tribal council leaders and members (collectively, members) from contributing to and accessing Social Security and Medicare benefits with respect to services performed in their capacity as members of the tribal council. The bill would amend the Social Security Act and the IRC to allow tribal governments to opt into Social Security and Medicare, pay the related FICA taxes, and receive Social Security and Medicare benefits.

EXPLANATION OF PROVISION

The provision amends the Social Security Act to provide that, at the request of an Indian tribal government, the Commissioner of Social Security will enter into an agreement with the Indian tribe

⁶ OASDI (Social Security) benefits are provided under Title II of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. secs. 401ff.).

⁷ Sec. 226 of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. sec. 426).

⁸ Secs. 209 and 210 of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. secs. 409 and 410).

⁹ Generally, the State or local government may only extend coverage following a referendum process in which a vote occurs that satisfies various conditions, and if the governor of the State, or an official of the State designated for this purpose, certifies to the Commissioner of Social Security that such conditions have been met. Sec. 218 of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. sec. 418).

to cover services performed by individuals as members of the Indian tribe's tribal council under the Social Security and Medicare programs. Accordingly, service of a member of a tribal council under such an agreement constitutes employment. For purposes of the provision, the term "tribal council" means the appointed or elected governing body of a Federally recognized Indian tribe. In addition, the term "member" means, with respect to a tribal council, an individual who is appointed or elected to serve as a member or the head of the tribal council.

An agreement with an Indian tribal government under the provision applies to all members of the tribal council and must include all services performed by individuals in their capacity as members of the tribal council. An agreement will be effective with respect to services performed after an effective date specified in the agreement, provided that the date may not be earlier than the first day of the next calendar month after the month in which the agreement is executed by both parties. At the request of the Indian tribal government at the time of the agreement, the agreement may apply with respect to services performed before the effective date for which there were timely paid in good faith (and not subsequently refunded) to the Secretary of the Treasury amounts equivalent to the sum of the employee and employer Social Security and Medicare taxes (that is, the FICA taxes) which would have been imposed by the IRC had such services constituted employment for purposes of the IRC. No agreement under the provision may require payment to be made after the effective date of any taxes with respect to services performed before the effective date. No agreement under the provision may be terminated on or after the effective date of the agreement.

The provision also amends the IRC to provide that a tribal council member covered by an agreement under the provision is an employee for FICA tax purposes. Therefore, services of a tribal council member covered by an agreement constitute employment for FICA tax purposes, and wages of the tribal council member are subject to FICA taxes.¹⁰

EFFECTIVE DATE

The provision is effective on the date of enactment.

III. VOTES OF THE COMMITTEE

In compliance with clause 3(b) of rule XIII of the House of Representatives, the following statement is made concerning the vote of the Committee on Ways and Means during the markup consideration of H.R. 6124, the "Tribal Social Security Fairness Act of 2018," on June 21, 2018.

The bill, H.R. 6124, as amended, was ordered favorably reported to the House of Representatives by a voice vote (with a quorum being present).

¹⁰ Nothing in the provision is to be construed to affect the application of any Federal income tax withholding requirements.

IV. BUDGET EFFECTS OF THE BILL

Pursuant to clause 8 of rule XIII of the Rules of the House of Representatives, the following statement is made by the Joint Committee on Taxation with respect to the provisions of the bill amending the Internal Revenue Code of 1986: The gross budgetary effect (before incorporating macroeconomic effects) in any fiscal year is less than 0.25 percent of the current projected gross domestic product of the United States for that fiscal year; therefore, the bill is not “major legislation” for purposes of requiring that the estimate include the budgetary effects of changes in economic output, employment, capital stock, and other macroeconomic variables.

B. STATEMENT REGARDING NEW BUDGET AUTHORITY AND TAX EXPENDITURES BUDGET AUTHORITY

In compliance with clause 3(c)(2) of rule XIII of the Rules of the House of Representatives, the Committee states that the bill involves no new or increased budget authority. The Committee further states that the revenue-increasing tax provision involves no new tax expenditure.

C. COST ESTIMATE PREPARED BY THE CONGRESSIONAL BUDGET OFFICE

In compliance with clause 3(c)(3) of rule XIII of the Rules of the House of Representatives, requiring a cost estimate prepared by the CBO, the following statement by CBO is provided.

H.R. 6124—Tribal Social Security Fairness Act of 2018

Summary: H.R. 6124 would allow Indian tribes to enter into agreements with the Social Security Administration (SSA) to provide Social Security and Medicare Hospital Insurance coverage for members of tribal councils.

CBO and the staff of the Joint Committee on Taxation (JCT) estimate that enacting H.R. 6124 would increase revenues by $13 million and would increase direct spending by an insignificant amount over the 2019–2028 period. Because enacting HR. 6124 would affect direct spending and revenues, pay-as-you-go procedures apply.

CBO estimates that enacting H.R. 6124 would not increase net direct spending or on-budget deficits by more than $5 billion in any of the four consecutive 10-year periods beginning in 2029.

CBO and the staff of JCT have not reviewed H.R. 6124 for inter-governmental or private-sector mandates. Section 4 of the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act (UMRA) excludes from the application of that act any legislative provisions that relates to the old-age, survivors, and disability insurance program under title II of the Social Security Act (including taxes imposed by sections 3101(a) and 311(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986). CBO and the staff of JCT have determined that H.R. 6124 falls within that exclusion.

Estimated cost to the Federal Government: The estimated budgetary effects of H.R. 6124 are shown in the following table. The costs of the legislation fall within budget function 650 (Social Security).

* = between –$500,000 and $500,000.

Basis of estimate: Under current law, the earnings of members of tribal councils of federally recognized Indian tribes are not subject to Social Security or Medicare payroll taxes under the Federal Insurance Contributions Act (FICA), and their earnings are not credited toward eligibility for Social Security or Medicare benefits.

H.R. 6124 would amend the Social Security Act to allow Indian tribal governments to enter into agreements with SSA to obtain Social Security and Medicare coverage for tribal council leaders and members. It also would amend the Internal Revenue Code to include tribal council members as employees for FICA tax purposes if they are covered by an agreement under the bill.

CBO and JCT expect that under the bill, by 2028, less than a tenth of eligible tribal members would choose to be covered, and an additional $13 million in payroll tax revenues would be collected over the 2019-2028 period. Of that amount, $3 million would consist of on-budget revenues from Medicare taxes and $10 million would be off-budget revenues from Social Security taxes.

The additional coverage also would result in higher Social Security and Medicare outlays over the lifetime of the affected council members, although few of them would become eligible for Medicare or Social Security by 2028. CBO estimates that such outlays over the 10-year period would be insignificant.

Pay-As-You-Go considerations: The Statutory Pay-As-You-Go Act of 2010 establishes budget-reporting and enforcement procedures for legislation affecting direct spending or revenues. The net changes in outlays and revenues that are subject to those pay-as-you-go procedures are shown in the following table. Only on-budget changes to outlays or revenues are subject to pay-as-you-go procedures.

CBO ESTIMATE OF PAY-AS-YOU-GO EFFECTS FOR H.R. 6124 AS ORDERED REPORTED BY THE HOUSE COMMITTEE ON WAY AND MEANS ON JUNE 21, 2018

Increase in long-term direct spending and deficits: CBO estimates that enacting H.R. 6124 would not increase net direct spending by more than $2.5 billion or on-budget deficits by more than $5 billion in any of the four consecutive 10-year periods beginning in 2029.

Mandates: CBO and the staff of JCT have not reviewed H.R. 6124 for intergovernmental or private-sector mandates. Section 4 of UMRA excludes from the application of that act any legislative provisions that relates to the old-age, survivors, and disability insurance program under title II of the Social Security Act (including taxes imposed by sections 3101(a) and 311(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986). CBO and the staff of JCT have determined that H.R. 6124 falls within that exclusion.

Estimate reviewed by: Sheila Dacey, Chief, Income Security and Education Cost Estimates Unit; Leo Lex, Deputy Assistant Director for Budget Analysis.

V. OTHER MATTERS TO BE DISCUSSED UNDER THE RULES OF THE HOUSE

A. COMMITTEE OVERSIGHT FINDINGS AND RECOMMENDATIONS

Pursuant to clause 3(c)(1) of rule XIII of the Rules of the House of Representatives, the Committee advises that the findings and recommendations of the Committee, based on oversight activities under clause 2(b)(1) of rule X of the Rules of the House of Representatives, are incorporated into the description portions of this report.

B. STATEMENT OF GENERAL PERFORMANCE GOALS AND OBJECTIVES

With respect to clause 3(c)(4) of rule XIII of the Rules of the House of Representatives, the Committee advises that the bill contains no measure that authorizes funding, so no statement of general performance goals and objectives for which any measure authorizes funding is required.

C. INFORMATION RELATING TO UNFUNDED MANDATES

This information is provided in accordance with section 423 of the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act of 1995 (Pub. L. No. 104-4).

The Committee has determined that the bill does not contain Federal mandates on the private sector. The Committee has determined that the bill does not impose a Federal intergovernmental mandate on State, local, or tribal governments.

D. APPLICABILITY OF HOUSE RULE XXI 5(b)

Rule XXI 5(b) of the Rules of the House of Representatives provides, in part, that “A bill or joint resolution, amendment, or conference report carrying a Federal income tax rate increase may not be considered as passed or agreed to unless so determined by a vote of not less than three-fifths of the Members voting, a quorum being present.” The Committee has carefully reviewed the bill and states that the bill does not involve any Federal income tax rate increases within the meaning of the rule.

E. TAX COMPLEXITY ANALYSIS

Section 4022(b) of the Internal Revenue Service Restructuring and Reform Act of 1998 (“IRS Reform Act”) requires the staff of the Joint Committee on Taxation (in consultation with the Internal Revenue Service and the Treasury Department) to provide a tax complexity analysis. The complexity analysis is required for all legislation reported by the Senate Committee on Finance, the House Committee on Ways and Means, or any committee of conference if the legislation includes a provision that directly or indirectly amends the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 and has widespread applicability to individuals or small businesses.

Pursuant to clause 3(h)(1) of rule XIII of the Rules of the House of Representatives, the staff of the Joint Committee on Taxation has determined that a complexity analysis is not required under section 4022(b) of the IRS Reform Act because the bill contains no provisions that amend the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 and that have “widespread applicability” to individuals or small businesses, within the meaning of the rule.

F. CONGRESSIONAL EARMARKS, LIMITED TAX BENEFITS, AND LIMITED TARIFF BENEFITS

With respect to clause 9 of rule XXI of the Rules of the House of Representatives, the Committee has carefully reviewed the provisions of the bill and states that the provisions of the bill do not contain any congressional earmarks, limited tax benefits, or limited tariff benefits within the meaning of the rule.

G. DUPLICATION OF FEDERAL PROGRAMS

In compliance with Sec. 3(c)(5) of rule XIII of the Rules of the House of Representatives, the Committee states that no provision of the bill establishes or reauthorizes: (1) a program of the Federal Government known to be duplicative of another Federal program, (2) a program included in any report from the Government Accountability Office to Congress pursuant to section 21 of Public Law 111–139, or (3) a program related to a program identified in the most recent Catalog of Federal Domestic Assistance, published pursuant to section 6104 of title 31, United States Code.

H. DISCLOSURE OF DIRECTED RULE MAKINGS

In compliance with Sec. 3(i) of H. Res. 5 (115th Congress), the following statement is made concerning directed rule makings: The Committee advises that the bill requires no directed rule makings within the meaning of such section.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this subsection, the period for which any such agreement is effective with respect to any foreign entity shall terminate at the end of any calendar quarter in which the foreign entity, at any time in such quarter, ceases to be a foreign affiliate as defined in paragraph (6).
