PURPOSE OF THE BILL

The purpose of H.R. 5420 is to authorize the acquisition of land for addition to the Home of Franklin D. Roosevelt National Historic Site in the State of New York.

BACKGROUND AND NEED FOR LEGISLATION

The Home of Franklin D. Roosevelt National Historic Site, located in Hyde Park, New York, was designated on January 15, 1944, to preserve the birthplace and life-long home of the 32nd President of the United States.¹ The centerpiece of the nearly 850-acre property, President Roosevelt's home called Springwood, was built around 1793 and purchased by Roosevelt's father in 1867.² By 1915, Franklin and his mother, Sara, had completed extensive renovations to the structure and the home's interior.³

Inherited by FDR upon his mother's death in 1941, the home and much of the estate were transferred to the federal government at the President's request. Known as his summer White House, FDR entertained many visiting heads of state at the home. President Roosevelt also helped design and build the first Presidential library on the property.⁴ The interior remains as it was during Roosevelt's lifetime. The grounds feature flower gardens, outbuildings, and miles of walking trails. The estate's rose garden contains the graves of Franklin and Eleanor Roosevelt.⁵

Since its addition to the National Park System in 1944, the site's boundaries have been modified several times to include new land. The Scenic Hudson Land Trust (SHLT) owns approximately 89 acres adjacent to the site that it wishes to sell to the National Park Service. The property is largely unimproved (except for a small house and garage) and is subject to a conservation easement that has been held by the SHLT since 1995. The SHLT advocates that the property provides important context to visitors, and that its addition will provide better connectivity to a section of the Hyde Park Trail that links the Home of FDR National Historic Site with the Vanderbilt Mansion National Historic Site to the north.

H.R. 5420 authorizes the Secretary of the Interior to acquire by donation, purchase from willing seller (SHLT) using donated funds, or exchange, approximately 89 acres of land adjacent to the Home of Franklin D. Roosevelt National Historic Site, and to incorporate the parcel into the site.

COMMITTEE OVERSIGHT FINDINGS AND RECOMMENDATIONS

Regarding clause 2(b)(1) of rule X and clause 3(c)(1) of rule XIII of the Rules of the House of Representatives, the Committee on Natural Resources' oversight findings and recommendations are reflected in the body of this report.

COMPLIANCE WITH HOUSE RULE XIII AND CONGRESSIONAL BUDGET ACT

1. Cost of Legislation and the Congressional Budget Act. With respect to the requirements of clause 3(c)(2) and (3) of rule XIII of the Rules of the House of Representatives and sections 308(a) and 402 of the Congressional Budget Act of 1974, the Committee has received the following estimate for the bill from the Director of the Congressional Budget Office:

U.S. CONGRESS,
CONGRESSIONAL BUDGET OFFICE,
Washington, DC, September 20, 2018.

Hon. ROB BISHOP,
*Chairman, Committee on Natural Resources,
House of Representatives, Washington, DC.*

DEAR MR. CHAIRMAN: The Congressional Budget Office has prepared the enclosed cost estimate for H.R. 5420, the FDR Historic Preservation Act.

If you wish further details on this estimate, we will be pleased to provide them. The CBO staff contact is Janani Shankaran.

Sincerely,

KEITH HALL,
Director.

Enclosure.

H.R. 5420—FDR Historic Preservation Act

H.R. 5420 would authorize the National Park Service (NPS) to acquire 89 acres of land, known as the Morgan Property, for the Home of Franklin D. Roosevelt National Historic Site by means of donation, purchase using donated funds, or through a land exchange. Upon acquisition, that land would be administrated by the NPS as part of the site.

Using information from the Scenic Hudson Land Trust, which currently owns the Morgan Property, and based on recent sale prices of comparable tracts of land, CBO estimates that the cost to acquire the property would be about $1 million. If the NPS purchases the property with donated funds, it would increase direct spending. However, that increase would be offset by donations for the purchase, which are recorded as reductions in direct spending, so that the net effect on direct spending would be negligible.

CBO estimates that any costs to manage and maintain the additional land would be less than $500,000 over the 2019–2023 period; such spending would be subject to the availability of appropriated funds.

Because enacting H.R. 5420 could affect direct spending, pay-as-you-go procedures apply. The bill would not affect revenues.

CBO estimates that enacting H.R. 5420 would not increase net direct spending or on-budget deficits in any of the four consecutive 10-year periods beginning in 2029.

H.R. 5420 contains no intergovernmental or private sector mandates as defined in the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act (UMRA). The bill would authorize a land exchange between the federal government and a private property owner, which could have a small incidental effect on local property taxes. That effect, however, would not result from an intergovernmental mandate as defined in UMRA.

The CBO staff contacts for this estimate are Janani Shankaran (for federal costs) and Zach Byrum (for mandates). The estimate was reviewed by H. Samuel Papenfuss, Deputy Assistant Director for Budget Analysis.

2. General Performance Goals and Objectives. As required by clause 3(c)(4) of rule XIII, the general performance goal or objective of this bill is to authorize the acquisition of land for addition to the Home of Franklin D. Roosevelt National Historic Site in the State of New York.

This bill does not contain any Congressional earmarks, limited tax benefits, or limited tariff benefits as defined under clause 9(e), 9(f), and 9(g) of rule XXI of the Rules of the House of Representatives.

This bill contains no unfunded mandates.
