I. PURPOSE AND BILL SUMMARY

The purpose of H.R. 499, the “Service-Disabled Veterans Small Business Continuation Act,” is to clarify the treatment of certain surviving spouses under the definition of small business concern owned and controlled by service-disabled veterans.

II. BACKGROUND AND NEED FOR LEGISLATION

H.R. 499 was introduced by Ranking Member Steve Chabot (R-OH), and Representative Antonio Delgado (D-NY) on January 11, 2019. The bill corrects a technical error by allowing eligible surviving spouses to continue to receive the contracting preferences conferred under the Veterans Benefits, Health Care, and Information Technology Act of 2006, as amended. Moreover, it creates parity in the treatment of surviving spouses in two distinct service-disabled veteran-owned small business contracting programs.

The Veterans Benefits, Health Care, and Information Technology Act of 2006 (hereinafter the VA Act),¹ authorized a federal contracting preference for veteran-owned small businesses (VOSBs) and service-disabled veteran-owned small businesses (SDVOSBs) at the Department of Veterans Affairs (VA). Similarly, the Small Business Administration (SBA) administers a program that provides contracting preferences to SDVOSBs. While both contracting programs have proven to be successful, there have been some concerns that neither program appropriately addresses what happens when the service-disabled veteran owner dies.

Because of the toll that the sudden death of a veteran can cause to a small business and the employees relying on it, the VA Act authorized the spouses of deceased veterans who had a 100 percent service-connected disability or who died as a result of the service-connected disability, to maintain SDVOSB status for up to 10 years. Subsequently, Section 501 of the Jeff Miller and Richard Blumenthal Veterans Health Care and Benefits Improvement Act of 2016 (Public Law 114–315; 130 Stat. 1566) amended the VA Act to authorize spouses of veterans who died with a less than a 100 percent disability rating, to maintain SDVOSB status for up to three years following the veteran’s death. The Small Business Act did not have similar provisions under its SDVOSB program, creating a disparity in the way surviving spouses of veterans were treated by the VA and by the rest of the federal government.

Attempting to establish uniformity between contracting programs, Section 1832 of the National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 2017 (Public Law 114–328; 130 Stat. 2658) required that both the VA and SBA adhere to a consolidated definition of SDVOSB, set forth by the Small Business Act. While this consolidated definition specified the treatment of surviving spouses as originally enacted in the VA Act, allowing them to keep SDVOSB status for up to 10 years, it unfortunately had the unintended consequence of nullifying the 2016 amendment regarding the expansion of surviving spouses’ SDVOSB status. H.R. 499 rectifies this procedural mistake by amending the Small Business Act in a manner consistent with the 2016 amendment, thereby ensuring that surviving spouses of veterans who died with less than a 100 percent disability rating can maintain their SDVOSB status until one of the following instances occurs: three years after the veteran's death, when the spouse remarries, or when the surviving spouse relinquishes ownership of the small business.

III. HEARINGS

In the 116th Congress, the Committee on Small Business held a hearing on July 10, 2019 titled "Continuing to Serve: From Military to Entrepreneur."² The witnesses for the hearing were: Mr. Davy Leghorn, Assistant Director, The American Legion, Washington, DC; Mr. Scott M. Davidson CPT. USA, Retired, Managing Partner and CEO, The GCO Consulting Group, McLean, VA; Ms. Torrance Hart, Founder, Teak and Twine, LLC, Springfield, VA and; Ms. Laurie Sayles, President and CEO, Civility Management Solutions, Greenbelt, MD.

As part of this hearing, the important role spouses play in the military was highlighted, such as their own service in the military or putting aside their personal aspirations and careers to advance the cause. Thus, the hearing underscored the responsibility the Federal government has in ensuring that veterans, as well as their spouses, are able to thrive once separated from military service. H.R. 499 does precisely that by ensuring that spouses are able to prolong the service-disabled veteran-owned status for their small businesses, even after the death of the veteran. That is why in the hearing, Mr. Leghorn showed support for H.R. 499 on behalf of the American Legion.

IV. COMMITTEE CONSIDERATION

The Committee on Small Business met in open session, with a quorum being present, on July 17, 2019, and ordered H.R. 499 favorably reported to the House of Representatives. During the markup, no amendments were offered.

V. COMMITTEE VOTES

Clause 3(b) of rule XIII of the Rules of the House of Representatives requires the Committee to list the recorded votes on the motion to report legislation and amendments thereto. The Committee voted by voice vote to favorably report H.R. 499 to the House at 12:19 P.M.

VI. SECTION-BY-SECTION OF H.R. 499

Section 1. Short title

This section designates the bill as the “Service-Disabled Veterans Small Business Continuation Act.”

Section 2. Technical amendment regarding treatment of certain surviving spouses under the definition of small business concern owned and controlled by service-disabled veterans

This section would amend section 3(q)(2) of the Small Business Act (15 U.S.C. 632(q)), to clarify that a surviving spouse of a service-disabled veteran who was not rated as a 100 percent disabled would be included under the definition of small business concern owned and controlled by service-disabled veterans.

The period for which they would be eligible would begin on the date of the death of the veteran and end on the date that is three years after this death, on the date when the spouse re-marries, or the date when the surviving spouse relinquishes ownership of the small business, whichever comes first.

This section becomes effective on the date specified by section 1832(e) of the National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 2017.

VII. CONGRESSIONAL BUDGET OFFICE COST ESTIMATE

The Congressional Budget Office pursuant to section 402 of the Congressional Budget Act of 1974, submitted a cost estimate for H.R. 499 that stated enacting the legislation would not increase net direct spending or on budget deficits in any of the four consecutive 10-year periods beginning in 2030.

U.S. CONGRESS,
CONGRESSIONAL BUDGET OFFICE,
Washington, DC, August 14, 2019.

Hon. NYDIA M. VELÁZQUEZ,
*Chairwoman, Committee on Small Business,
House of Representatives, Washington, DC.*

DEAR MADAM CHAIRWOMAN: The Congressional Budget Office has prepared the enclosed cost estimate for H.R. 499, the Service-Disabled Veterans Small Business Continuation Act.

If you wish further details on this estimate, we will be pleased to provide them. The CBO staff contact is Logan Smith.

Sincerely,

PHILLIP L. SWAGEL,
Director.

In procuring goods and services, federal agencies give preference to firms owned and controlled by veterans with service-connected disabilities. Under current law, surviving spouses of veterans whose service-connected disabilities were rated at 100 percent are eligible to retain that preferential contracting status for up to 10 years after the veteran's death. H.R. 499 would authorize similar treatment for surviving spouses of veterans whose service-connected disabilities were rated at less than 100 percent. Those spouses would receive priority for obtaining contracts for up to three years.

The bill would change the priorities for awarding government contracts, but would not affect the amount agencies spend on such contracts. CBO expects that verifying the eligibility for preferences of those surviving spouses would have insignificant administrative costs. On that basis, CBO estimates that implementing H.R. 499 would cost less than $500,000 over the 2020–2024 period; that spending would be subject to the availability of appropriated funds.

The CBO staff contact for this estimate is Logan Smith. The estimate was reviewed by Leo Lex, Deputy Assistant Director for Budget Analysis.

VIII. UNFUNDED MANDATES

H.R. 499 contains no intergovernmental or private sector mandates as defined in the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act, Public Law No. 104–4, and would impose no costs on state, local, or tribal governments.

IX. NEW BUDGET AUTHORITY, ENTITLEMENT AUTHORITY, AND TAX EXPENDITURES

In compliance with clause 3(c)(2) of rule XIII of the Rules of the House, the Committee provides the following opinion and estimate with respect to new budget authority, entitlement authority, and tax expenditures. While the Committee has not received an estimate of new budget authority contained in the cost estimate prepared by the Director of the Congressional Budget Office pursuant to § 402 of the Congressional Budget Act of 1974, the Committee does not believe that there will be any additional costs attributable to this legislation. H.R. 499 does not direct new spending, but instead reallocates funding independently authorized and appropriated.

X. OVERSIGHT FINDINGS

In accordance with clause 2(b)(1) of rule X of the Rules of the House, the oversight findings and recommendations of the Committee on Small Business with respect to the subject matter contained in H.R. 499 are incorporated into the descriptive portions of this report.

XI. STATEMENT OF CONSTITUTIONAL AUTHORITY

Pursuant to clause 7 of rule XII of the Rules of the House of Representatives, the Committee finds the authority for this legislation in Art. I, § 8 of the Constitution of the United States.

XII. CONGRESSIONAL ACCOUNTABILITY ACT

H.R. 499 does not relate to the terms and conditions of employment or access to public services or accommodations within the meaning of § 102(b)(3) of Public Law No. 104-1.

XIII. FEDERAL ADVISORY COMMITTEE ACT STATEMENT

H.R. 499 does not establish or authorize the establishment of any new advisory committees as that term is defined in the Federal Advisory Committee Act, 5 U.S.C. App. 2.

XIV. STATEMENT OF NO EARMARKS

Pursuant to clause 9 of rule XXI, H.R. 499 does not contain any congressional earmarks, limited tax benefits, or limited tariff benefits as defined in subsections (d), (e), or (f) of clause 9 of rule XXI of the Rules of the House.

XV. STATEMENT OF DUPLICATION OF FEDERAL PROGRAMS

Pursuant to clause 3 of rule XIII of the Rules of the House, no provision of H.R. 499 establishes or reauthorizes a program of the federal government known to be duplicative of another federal program, a program that was included in any report from the United States Government Accountability Office pursuant to § 21 of Pub. L. No. 111-139, or a program related to a program identified in the most recent catalog of federal domestic assistance.

XVI. DISCLOSURE OF DIRECTED RULEMAKINGS

Pursuant to clause 3 of rule XIII of the Rules of the House, H.R. 499 does not direct any rulemaking.

XVII. PERFORMANCE GOALS AND OBJECTIVES

Pursuant to clause 3(c)(4) of rule XII of the Rules of the House, the Committee establishes the following performance-related goals and objectives for this legislation:

H.R. 499 corrects a technical and clerical amendment. Its objective is to clarify the treatment of certain surviving spouses under the Small Business Act, thereby allowing small businesses with a SDVOSB status to keep such designation for up to three more years after the death of the service-disabled veteran.

(a) SMALL BUSINESS CONCERNS.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—For the purposes of this Act, a small-business concern, including but not limited to enterprises that are engaged in the business of production of food and fiber, ranching and raising of livestock, aquaculture, and all other farming and agricultural related industries, shall be deemed to be one which is independently owned and operated and which is not dominant in its field of operation.

(2) ESTABLISHMENT OF SIZE STANDARDS.—

(A) IN GENERAL.—In addition to the criteria specified in paragraph (1), the Administrator may specify detailed definitions or standards by which a business concern may be determined to be a small business concern for the purposes of this Act or any other Act.

(B) ADDITIONAL CRITERIA.—The standards described in paragraph (1) may utilize number of employees, dollar volume of business, net worth, net income, a combination thereof, or other appropriate factors.

(C) REQUIREMENTS.—Unless specifically authorized by statute, no Federal department or agency may prescribe a size standard for categorizing a business concern as a small business concern, unless such proposed size standard—

(i) is proposed after an opportunity for public notice and comment;

(ii) provides for determining—

(I) the size of a manufacturing concern as measured by the manufacturing concern's average employment based upon employment during each of the manufacturing concern's pay periods for the preceding 12 months;

(II) the size of a business concern providing services on the basis of the annual average gross receipts of the business concern over a period of not less than 5 years;

(III) the size of other business concerns on the basis of data over a period of not less than 3 years; or

(IV) other appropriate factors; and

(iii) is approved by the Administrator.

(3) VARIATION BY INDUSTRY AND CONSIDERATION OF OTHER FACTORS.—When establishing or approving any size standard pursuant to paragraph (2), the Administrator shall ensure that the size standard varies from industry to industry to the extent necessary to reflect the differing characteristics of the various industries and consider other factors deemed to be relevant by the Administrator.

(4) EXCLUSION OF CERTAIN SECURITY EXPENSES FROM CONSIDERATION FOR PURPOSE OF SMALL BUSINESS SIZE STANDARDS.—

(A) DETERMINATION REQUIRED.—Not later than 30 days after the date of enactment of this paragraph, the Administrator shall review the application of size standards established pursuant to paragraph (2) to small business concerns that are performing contracts in qualified areas and determine whether it would be fair and appropriate to exclude from consideration in the average annual gross receipts of such small business concerns any payments made to such small business concerns by Federal agencies to reimburse such small business concerns for the cost of subcontracts entered for the sole purpose of providing security services in a qualified area.

(B) ACTION REQUIRED.—Not later than 60 days after the date of enactment of this paragraph, the Administrator shall either—

(i) initiate an adjustment to the size standards, as described in subparagraph (A), if the Administrator determines that such an adjustment would be fair and appropriate; or

(A) a detailed description of the industry for which the new size standard is proposed;

(B) an analysis of the competitive environment for that industry;

(C) the approach the Administrator used to develop the proposed standard including the source of all data used to develop the proposed rule making; and

(D) the anticipated effect of the proposed rulemaking on the industry, including the number of concerns not currently considered small that would be considered small under the proposed rule making and the number of concerns currently considered small that would be deemed other than small under the proposed rulemaking.

(D) JUDICIAL REVIEW.—The publication of a final rule in the Federal Register described in subparagraph (B) shall be considered final agency action for purposes of seeking judicial review. Filing a petition for reconsideration under subparagraph (A) shall not be a condition precedent to judicial review of any such size standard.

(E) RULES OR GUIDANCE.—The Office of Hearings and Appeals shall begin accepting petitions for reconsideration described in subparagraph (A) after the date on which the Administration issues a rule or other guidance implementing this paragraph. Notwithstanding the provisions of subparagraph (B), petitions for reconsideration of size standards revised, modified, or established in a Federal Register final rule published between November 25, 2015, and the effective date of such rule or other guidance shall be considered timely if filed within 30 days of such effective date.
