PURPOSE AND SUMMARY

H.R. 1593, “Coordinating and Leveraging Activities for School Security (CLASS) Act” would direct DHS to establish a council to coordinate activities, plans, and policies of the Department aimed at bolstering school security against acts of terrorism. Additionally, the legislation would require the Secretary to provide to the House of Representatives Committee on Homeland Security and the Senate Homeland Security and Governmental Affairs Committee an annual report of the council’s activities during the preceding year, including information on any metrics regarding the efficacy of such activities.

BACKGROUND AND NEED FOR LEGISLATION

Soft targets like schools and universities have long been a security concern and addressing whether educational institutions are adequately prepared to respond to and effectively manage acts of terrorism, active shooters and other large-scale emergencies continues to be a challenge for communities. In the 19 years since the horrific massacre at Columbine High School in Littleton, Colorado that left 13 people dead, U.S. schools continue to be subject to mass shootings. The 2017–2018 school year saw a record number of school shootings. Between January and May 2018, school shootings averaged one per week.1

Although Federal, State, and local preparedness efforts have improved in recent years, in 2016, the Government Accountability Office (GAO) found that while about half of school districts surveyed practiced emergency exercises with law enforcement every year, schools struggle to fund security priorities.2

After the 2012 shooting at Sandy Hook Elementary School in Newtown, Connecticut, the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) identified a series of actions its components would undertake to help improve school and campus security. After Newtown, DHS was engaged in interagency efforts pursuant to the post-Newtown Executive Actions President Obama issued in January 2013.

Today, DHS’s Office of Academic Engagement (OAE) conducts tabletop exercises and workshops around the country to discuss security protocols, notifications and alerts, response, and recovery capabilities with schools and first responders. Additionally, DHS’s components and offices such as the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA), the Cybersecurity and Infrastructure Agency (CISA), and the Secret Service provide support to the Department’s school security efforts.

While multiple components and offices of the Department aid the nation's preparedness for school security, there is no Congressionally authorized body within the Department tasked with coordinating school security activities. H.R. 1593 would establish a coordinating council within DHS to ensure that the Department’s school security activities, plans, and policies are coordinated; bring together the Under Secretary for Strategy, Policy, and Plans, the director of the CISA, FEMA, the Secret Service, the OAE, and the Assistant Secretary for Public Affairs on the council; and require the Secretary of Homeland Security to report to relevant Congressional Committees annually on the council’s efforts.

HEARINGS

The Committee did not hold any legislative hearings on H.R. 1593; however, the Committee held the following oversight hearing:

An amendment offered by Ms. Jackson Lee Page 3, line 10, insert “and any engagement with stakeholders outside of the Federal Government” before the period at the end.

Duplicative Federal Programs

Pursuant to clause 3(c) of rule XIII, the Committee finds that H.R. 1593 does not contain any provision that establishes or reauthorizes a program known to be duplicative of another Federal program.

Performance Goals and Objectives

The Committee states that pursuant to clause 3(c)(4) of rule XIII of the Rules of the House of Representatives, H.R. 1593 would ensure that the Department of Homeland Security is coordinating its activities, plans, and policies aimed at bolstering school security against acts of terrorism, an active shooter, and other threats.

Advisory on Earmarks

In compliance with rule XXI of the Rules of the House of Representatives, this bill, as reported, contains no congressional earmarks, limited tax benefits, or limited tariff benefits as defined in clause 9(d), 9(e), or 9(f) of the rule XXI.

Advisory Committee Statement
