PURPOSE AND SUMMARY

H.R. 5822, the “Homeland Security Acquisition Professional Career Program Act” authorizes a Department of Homeland Security (DHS) program for developing a cadre of acquisition professionals within DHS. The bill outlines the requirements for the program, which includes acquisition training, on-the-job experience, Department-wide rotations, mentoring, shadowing, and other career development opportunities for participants. The bill also requires the DHS Secretary to report annually to Congress through fiscal year 2026 on various aspects of the program, including the DHS components and offices that participated, attrition and retention rates, and DHS’ recruitment efforts for the program.

BACKGROUND AND NEED FOR LEGISLATION

Each year, DHS spends billions of dollars to acquire goods and services to support its many missions. For example, the U.S. Coast Guard purchases ships and planes to conduct search and rescue, the Federal Emergency Management Agency acquires supplies and services for disaster relief, and the Transportation Security Administration buys passenger and baggage screening equipment to secure the nation’s airports.

To acquire these goods and services, DHS relies on acquisition and procurement professionals. However, the Government Accountability Office (GAO) has identified workforce shortages as a long-standing challenge for DHS’ major acquisition programs. In September 2012, GAO found that 51 of DHS’ major acquisition programs had experienced workforce shortfalls, which increased the likelihood that the programs would not acquire needed goods and services on time or on budget.¹ In April 2015, GAO found that 21 of the 22 programs it reviewed faced staffing shortfalls in their acquisition program offices.² To date, GAO continues to monitor DHS’ progress to assess and address acquisition workforce shortages as a part of its High Risk List.³

DHS established an acquisition professional career program in 2008 to hire contract specialists for its procurement workforce. In 2009, DHS expanded the program to include other acquisition workforce positions, such as program analysts, system engineers, cost estimators, and information technology specialists. The acquisition professional career program is highly structured and features three years of training, on-the-job experience, mentorship, and other career development opportunities that prepare participants to be fully qualified acquisition and procurement professionals in their respective fields. According to DHS, over 300 participants have graduated from the program since its inception. H.R. 5822 would authorize the acquisition professional career program in law to ensure that DHS maintains a pipeline for acquisition professionals. Establishing the program will help the Department address workforce shortfalls and ensure it has a qualified acquisition workforce to obtain the goods and services needed to fulfill its ultimate mission of defending the homeland.

H.R. 5822 would establish a career program for acquisition professionals within the Department of Homeland Security (DHS). The program would establish eligibility requirements for participants; designate the relevant occupational series, grades, and number of positions; and seek to attract candidates from different backgrounds to participate. The bill also would require DHS to report to the Congress on the participants in the program and the retention rates for acquisition professionals.

DHS is currently carrying out an acquisition professional program. Using information about that program, CBO estimates that new activities required under the bill would not require substantial action by the department and would cost less than $500,000 annually. In total, CBO estimates that implementing H.R. 5822 would cost about $2 million over the 2020–2025 period; spending would be subject to the availability of appropriated funds.

The CBO staff contact for this estimate is Madeleine Fox. The estimate was reviewed by H. Samuel Papenfuss, Deputy Director of Budget Analysis.

FEDERAL MANDATES STATEMENT

The Committee adopts as its own the estimate of Federal mandates prepared by the Director of the Congressional Budget Office pursuant to section 423 of the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act.

DUPLICATIVE FEDERAL PROGRAMS

Pursuant to clause 3(c) of rule XIII, the Committee finds that H.R. 5822 does not contain any provision that establishes or reauthorizes a program known to be duplicative of another Federal program.

PERFORMANCE GOALS AND OBJECTIVES

Pursuant to clause 3(c)(4) of rule XIII of the Rules of the House of Representatives, the objective of H.R. 5822 is to strengthen DHS' acquisition workforce by developing a pipeline of qualified and trained acquisition professionals to execute the Department's multi-billion dollar investments in goods and services that support its many missions.

ADVISORY ON EARMARKS

In compliance with rule XXI of the Rules of the House of Representatives, this bill, as reported, contains no congressional earmarks, limited tax benefits, or limited tariff benefits as defined in clause 9(d), 9(e), or 9(f) of the rule XXI.

SECTION-BY-SECTION ANALYSIS OF THE LEGISLATION

Section 1. Short title

This section states that the Act may be cited as the "Homeland Security Acquisition Professional Career Program Act."

Sec. 2. Authorization of the Acquisition Professional Career Program

This section amends the Homeland Security Act of 2002 to establish an acquisition professional career program to develop a cadre of acquisition professionals within DHS. It identifies the Under Secretary for Management as the administrator of the acquisition professional career program.

This section also outlines the acquisition professional career program requirements, which include the following:

(6) Providing, beyond the required program training, additional specialized acquisition training, including small business contracting and innovative acquisition techniques training.

In establishing these requirements, the Committee expects that all acquisition positions designated for the program are on the General Schedule maintained by the Office of Personnel Management. The Committee also expects that eligible internal candidates, such as current DHS employees or contractors, may apply for the program.

Section 2 further requires the Secretary of Homeland Security to report to Congress no later than December 31, 2020, and annually thereafter through 2026, on the acquisition professional career program. Each report is to include the following:

(1) The number of candidates approved for the program;
