The Administrator of the Federal Emergency Management Agency shall submit to the Committee on Transportation and Infrastructure of the House of Representatives and the Committee on Homeland Security and Governmental Affairs of the Senate a report containing a description of the internal processes used to make decisions regarding the distribution of covered assistance under section 1216 of the Disaster Recovery and Reform Act of 2018 (42 U.S.C. 5174a) and any changes made to such processes.

PURPOSE OF LEGISLATION

The purpose of H.R. 5953, as amended, is to amend the Disaster Recovery Reform Act of 2018 (DRRA, Division D of P.L. 115–254) to require the Administrator of the Federal Emergency Management Agency to waive certain debts owed to the United States related to covered assistance provided to an individual or household.

BACKGROUND AND NEED FOR LEGISLATION

Section 408 of the Robert T. Stafford Disaster Relief and Emergency Assistance Act (Stafford Act, P.L. 93–288, as amended) authorizes the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) to provide financial assistance and services to individuals and households who have necessary expenses as a direct result of a major disaster. In some instances, Section 408 assistance is erroneously provided to individuals and households and FEMA must recoup the funds from the recipient. Assistance is often spent by the recipient before an error is discovered, creating a debt to the Federal government.

Section 1216(a) of the Disaster Recovery Reform Act of 2018 authorizes FEMA to waive debts owed to the United States related to assistance provided under Section 408 of the Stafford Act. Further, DRRA Section 1216(a) currently allows FEMA to waive a debt related to covered assistance if the debt was distributed in error by FEMA without fault by the debtor and collection would be “against equity and good conscience.”

H.R. 5953, as amended, amends DRRA Section 1216(a) by directing the Administrator of FEMA to waive debts owed by individuals and households to the United States when (1) disaster assistance was provided as a result of an Agency error (such debt is deemed to be a hardship); or (2) the disaster assistance provided might be subject to a claim or legal action taken by the Agency. The bill also requires FEMA to report to Congress detailing the number of errors the Agency has made in providing assistance to disaster victims and include proposed actions to reduce future errors.
