I. PURPOSE AND SUMMARY

H.R. 4727, the Department of Homeland Security Mentor-Protégé Program Act of 2019, amends the Homeland Security Act to codify a mentor-protégé program within the Department of Homeland Security (DHS). The program is designed to encourage large business prime contractor firms to provide mutually beneficial developmental assistance to small businesses, to improve the performance of contracts and subcontracts, and to strengthen subcontracting opportunities. The Act requires the Secretary to develop eligibility requirements, establish an application and approval process, and other aspects of the program to include the program’s duration and benefits.

II. BACKGROUND AND THE NEED FOR LEGISLATION

In 2016, the Small Business Administration (SBA) created the All Small Mentor-Protégé Program to increase the pool of small businesses contracting with the Federal Government and to increase small business capabilities.<sup>1</sup> The SBA also allows for other agencies to create their own mentor-protégé program, and DHS took the opportunity to create their own program. The mission of DHS’s mentor-protégé program is “to motivate and encourage large business prime contractors to provide mutually beneficial developmental assistance to small businesses.”<sup>2</sup> The program also attempts to bolster contracts with veteran-owned businesses, women-owned businesses, minority-owned businesses, service-disabled veteran-owned small businesses, and other businesses that are typically underrepresented in contracts with agencies.<sup>3</sup>

Mentors and protégés mutually benefit from the mentor-protégé program in numerous ways. Mentors are able to receive credit in criteria areas during the application process for contracts.<sup>4</sup> Protégés also receive credits for the contract application process as well as technical, financial, and managerial benefits in contracting.<sup>5</sup> DHS also benefits by expanding the pool of small businesses it does business with and strengthening the performance of the small businesses in contracts.

The SBA works with each agency and establishes goals for each agency.<sup>6</sup> DHS has a long history of working well with small businesses and meeting or exceeding the goals that the SBA has set for the agency. For more than a decade, DHS has scored top marks on the SBA Annual Small Business procurement scorecard.<sup>7</sup> For Fiscal Year 2018, DHS awarded 34.5 percent of its contracting dollars to small businesses.<sup>8</sup> However, the number of small businesses across the Federal Government receiving prime contracts is at the lowest number in a decade—a 27 percent drop from Fiscal Year 2009.<sup>9</sup> This Act codifies the DHS mentor-protégé program in order to strengthen the program and spell out Congress’ intent for how the program should function effectively.

III. LEGISLATIVE HISTORY

Representatives Donald McEachin (D–VA–4) and Bennie Thompson (D–MS–2) introduced H.R. 4727 on October, 17, 2019. Representative Donald Payne, Jr. (D–NJ–10) joined as a co-sponsor on May 14, 2019. The House of Representatives considered H.R. 4727 on December 09, 2019, under suspension of the rules and it passed by voice vote. The Act was referred to the Committee on Homeland Security and Governmental Affairs on December 10, 2019.

The Committee considered H.R. 4727 at a business meeting on July 22, 2020. Chairman Johnson and Ranking Member Peters offered an amendment adding a rule of construction to ensure that DHS is able to carry out their mentor-protégé program without conflict. The amendment and the Act as amended were reported favorably by voice vote en bloc with Senators Johnson, Portman, Paul, Lankford, Romney, Scott, Enzi, Hawley, Peters, Carper, Hassan, Harris, and Rosen present. Senators Paul and Scott asked to be recorded as having voted “No” for the record.

Pursuant to Committee Rules, the Act is reported with a technical amendment at the agreement of the Chairman and Ranking Member.

IV. SECTION-BY-SECTION ANALYSIS OF THE ACT, AS REPORTED

Sec 1. Short title

This section names the Act as the “Department of Homeland Security Mentor-Protégé Program Act of 2019”.

Sec. 2. Department of Homeland Security Mentor-Protégé Program

Subsection (a) adds a new section to the Homeland Security Act of 2002 codifying the mentor-protégé program within DHS titled “Sec. 890B. Mentor-Protégé Program.”

New section 890B, subsection (a) establishes the program. New section 890B, subsection (b) requires the Secretary of Homeland Security to establish eligibility requirements for the program, including a requirement that no firm already suspended or debarred can be eligible for the program.

New section 890B, subsection (c) requires the Secretary, through the Office of Small and Disadvantaged Business Utilization within DHS, to establish an application process that includes a description of assistance that will be provided by the mentor, milestones, costs to the mentor, a list of reports required to DHS, and a notification requirement if there are any changes in eligibility or if the mentor withdraws from the program. This subsection also requires DHS to notify applicants within 60 days of approval or denial into the program. It also allows DHS to rescind approval should it be necessary. Subsection (d) stipulates that the mentor and protégé firm must agree to participate in the program for at least 36 months.

New section 890B, subsection (e) describes the benefits that the mentor and protégé firm may receive through the program, including evaluation credits for mentor firms.

New section 890B, subsection (f) requires the head of the Office of Small and Disadvantaged Business Utilization to submit a report to Congress after a year after enactment and every year afterwards that identifies the number of agreements, the types of assistance being provided, and contracts awarded under this program.

Subsection (g) of the new section stipulates that nothing in this Act should limit DHS's ability to participate in a mentor-protégé program carried out by or requiring approval from the Small Business Administration. However, should any provision of this section conflict with another provision of law, regulation or policy, this section shall control.

New section 890B, subsection (h) provides definitions for terms in this Act including "Historically black college or university;" "Mentor firm;" "Minority institution of higher education;" "Protégé firm;" and other small business definitions.

Subsection (b) of the Act provides a technical amendment to the table of contents within Homeland Security Act of 2002 to reflect the additional section.

V. EVALUATION OF REGULATORY IMPACT

Pursuant to the requirements of paragraph 11(b) of rule XXVI of the Standing Rules of the Senate, the Committee has considered the regulatory impact of this Act and determined that the Act will have no regulatory impact within the meaning of the rules. The Committee agrees with the Congressional Budget Office's statement that the Act contains no intergovernmental or private-sector mandates as defined in the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act (UMRA) and would impose no costs on state, local, or tribal governments.

VI. CONGRESSIONAL BUDGET OFFICE COST ESTIMATE

U.S. CONGRESS,
CONGRESSIONAL BUDGET OFFICE,
Washington, DC, October 29, 2020.

Hon. RON JOHNSON,
Chairman, Committee on Homeland Security and Governmental Affairs, U.S. Senate, Washington, DC.

DEAR MR. CHAIRMAN: The Congressional Budget Office has prepared the enclosed cost estimate for H.R. 4727, the Department of Homeland Security Mentor-Protégé Program.

If you wish further details on this estimate, we will be pleased to provide them. The CBO staff contact is Lindsay Wylie.

Sincerely,

PHILLIP L. SWAGEL,

H.R. 4727 would direct the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) to establish a program for mentor firms to enter into agreements with protégé firms to help them compete for prime contracts and subcontracts.

DHS is currently carrying out activities similar to those required by this act, and any new activities required under the legislation would not require substantial action by the department. Thus, CBO estimates that implementing H.R. 4727 would not have a significant cost; any spending would be subject to the availability of appropriated funds.

On December 20, 2019, CBO transmitted a cost estimate for H.R. 4727, the Department of Homeland Security Mentor-Protégé Program Act of 2019, as passed by the House of Representatives on December 9, 2019. The two acts are similar and CBO's estimates of their budgetary effects are the same.

The CBO staff contact for this estimate is Lindsay Wylie. The estimate was reviewed by H. Samuel Papenfuss, Deputy Director of Budget Analysis.
