“(C) BAD CHECK CRITERIA.—In setting the criteria for de minimis offenses under subparagraph (A), if the Corporation establishes criteria with respect to insufficient funds checks, the Corporation shall require that the aggregate total face value of all insufficient funds checks across all convictions or program entries related to insufficient funds checks is $2,000 or less.

“(D) DESIGNATED LESSER OFFENSES.—Subsection (a) shall not apply to certain lesser offenses (including the use of a fake ID, shoplifting, trespass, fare evasion, driving with an expired license or tag, and such other low-risk offenses as the Corporation may designate) if 1 year or more has passed since the applicable conviction or program entry.”; and

(2) by adding at the end the following:

PURPOSE AND SUMMARY

On November 9, 2021, Representative Beatty introduced H.R. 5911, the “Fair Hiring in Banking Act”, which would expand employment opportunities at banks and credit unions by reducing barriers based on past criminal offenses. Currently, the FDIC and NCUA require banks and credit unions to obtain waivers in order to hire persons convicted of certain criminal offenses, including offenses involving dishonesty. This bill would provide an exception from needing such a waiver for certain criminal charges in which the offense occurred over 7 years ago or where incarceration ended over 5 years ago. It would also provide a clear definition of “criminal offense involving dishonesty.” Lastly, it would clarify that criminal offenses that have been expunged, sealed, or dismissed are not included in the FDIC or NCUA review of eligibility to work.

BACKGROUND AND NEED FOR LEGISLATION

This bill codifies and builds on recent reforms the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) and National Credit Union Administration (NCUA) implemented to promote economic opportunities for justice-involved individuals. In July 2020, the FDIC approved a final rule to revise and incorporate into the agency’s regulations a longstanding Statement of Policy (SOP) related to Section 1 which expanded the de minimis exceptions, clarified how to handle expungements, defined some convictions, and clarified that banks should ask about an applicant’s prior record only after they have received a conditional offer of employment. In 2019, the National Credit Union Administration (NCUA) Board approved a final interpretive ruling and policy statement allowing people convicted of certain minor offenses to return to work in the credit union industry without applying for the Board’s approval. However, the actions of the FDIC and board of the NCUA did not address the treatment of drug-related offenses, consideration of a person’s role (there is currently no distinction made between a bank president and a custodial position), the length of time since the offense occurred, and the process of gaining consent from the FDIC and NCUA when a waiver is sought.

The limits on “lookback” periods and clear definitions in this bill are commonsense reforms to reduce unnecessary barriers to employment in America’s banks and credit unions and to prevent discrimination against justice-involved individuals from persisting long after potential employees have served their time. One in three Americans is justice-involved and these individuals often struggle to obtain employment because of their criminal record. Moreover, longstanding racial discrimination in the justice system has been well documented with people of color being incarcerated at five times the rate as White offenders. This bill would help justice-involved individuals reintegrate into society by eliminating unjustified barriers to employment opportunities in the financial industry. It would also help address racial inequities in the criminal justice and financial services industry.

This bill is supported by the following organizations: Bank Policy Institute, Credit Union National Association (CUNA), JPMorgan Chase, National Association of Federally Insured Credit Unions (NAFCU), National Bankers Association (NBA), American Financial Services Association (AFSA) and Public Citizen.

STATEMENT OF OVERSIGHT FINDINGS AND RECOMMENDATIONS OF THE COMMITTEE

In compliance with clause 3(c)(1) of rule XIII and clause 2(b)(1) of rule X of the Rules of the House of Representatives, the Committee's oversight findings and recommendations are reflected in the descriptive portions of this report.

STATEMENT OF PERFORMANCE GOALS AND OBJECTIVES

Pursuant to clause (3)(c) of rule XIII of the Rules of the House of Representatives, the goals of H.R. 5911 are to reduce employment barriers for applicants with minor criminal histories at banks and credit unions.

NEW BUDGET AUTHORITY AND CBO COST ESTIMATE

Pursuant to clause 3(c)(2) of rule XIII of the Rules of the House of Representatives and section 308(a) of the Congressional Budget Act of 1974, and pursuant to clause 3(c)(3) of rule XIII of the Rules of the House of Representatives and section 402 of the Congressional Budget Act of 1974, the Committee has received the following estimate for H.R. 5911 from the Director of the Congressional Budget Office:

H.R. 5911, Fair Hiring in Banking Act
As ordered reported by the House Committee on Financial Services on November 16, 2021
By Fiscal Year, Millions of Dollars	2022	2022-2026	2022-2031
Direct Spending (Outlays)	*	1	1
Revenues	0	0	0
Increase or Decrease (-) in the Deficit	*	1	1
Statutory pay-as-you-go procedures apply?	Yes	Mandate Effects
Increases on-budget deficits in any of the four consecutive 10-year periods beginning in 2032?	No	Contains intergovernmental mandate?	No
		Contains private-sector mandate?	Yes, Under Threshold
* = between zero and $500,000.

H.R. 5911 would amend statutory prohibitions and limitations that restrict the hiring of certain individuals convicted of criminal offenses by insured depository institutions and insured credit unions. Under current law, some convictions prohibit a person from being employed by such institutions without prior consent of the National Credit Union Administration (NCUA) or the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC). Under H.R. 5911, both agencies would be required to issue a rule to provide additional exemptions from consent requirements. The bill also would direct the FDIC and NCUA to establish new procedures governing the review of consent applications and further define what offenses require agency consent. Lastly, each agency would be required to report to the Congress on the outcomes of those changes.

The operating costs for the FDIC and NCUA are classified as direct spending. Using information from both of those agencies, CBO estimates that each agency would require about two employees to complete the bill's requirements over a three-year period, increasing gross direct spending by about $2 million over the 2022–2031 period. However, the NCUA collects fees from credit unions to offset its operating costs; those fees are treated as reductions in direct spending. Thus, on net, CBO estimates that enacting the bill would increase direct spending by $1 million over the same period.

If the NCUA increased annual fee collections to offset the costs associated with implementing the bill, H.R. 5911 would increase the cost of an existing private-sector mandate on entities required to pay those fees. CBO estimates that the incremental cost of the mandate would be small and would fall below the thresholds established in the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act (UMRA) for private-sector mandates ($170 million in 2021, adjusted annually for inflation).

H.R. 5911 contains no intergovernmental mandates as defined in UMRA.

The CBO staff contact for this estimate is Stephen Rabent (for federal costs) and Rachel Austin (for mandates). The estimate was reviewed by H. Samuel Papenfuss, Deputy Director of Budget Analysis.

COMMITTEE COST ESTIMATE

Clause 3(d)(1) of rule XIII of the Rules of the House of Representatives requires an estimate and a comparison of the costs that would be incurred in carrying out H.R. 5911. However, clause 3(d)(2)(B) of that rule provides that this requirement does not apply when the committee has included in its report a timely submitted cost estimate of the bill prepared by the Director of the Congressional Budget Office under section 402 of the Congressional Budget Act.

UNFUNDED MANDATE STATEMENT

Pursuant to Section 423 of the Congressional Budget and Impoundment Control Act (as amended by Section 101(a)(2) of the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act, Pub. L. 104–4), the Committee adopts as its own the estimate of federal mandates regarding H.R. 5911, as amended, prepared by the Director of the Congressional Budget Office.

ADVISORY COMMITTEE

No advisory committees within the meaning of section 5(b) of the Federal Advisory Committee Act were created by this legislation.

APPLICATION OF LAW TO THE LEGISLATIVE BRANCH

Pursuant to section 102(b)(3) of the Congressional Accountability Act, Pub. L. No. 104–1, H.R. 5911, as amended, does not apply to terms and conditions of employment or to access to public services or accommodations within the legislative branch.

EARMARK STATEMENT

In accordance with clause 9 of rule XXI of the Rules of the House of Representatives, H.R. 5911 does not contain any congressional earmarks, limited tax benefits, or limited tariff benefits as described in clauses 9(e), 9(f), and 9(g) of rule XXI.

DUPLICATION OF FEDERAL PROGRAMS

(C) PRETRIAL DIVERSION OR SIMILAR PROGRAM.—The term "pretrial diversion or similar program" means a program characterized by a suspension or eventual dismissal or reversal of charges or criminal prosecution upon agreement by the accused to restitution, drug or alcohol rehabilitation, anger management, or community service.

(2) The rules shall establish the time limits within which insured credit unions shall comply with the standards and shall require the submission of periodic reports with respect to the installation, maintenance, and operation of security devices and procedures.

(3) An insured credit union which violates a rule promulgated pursuant to this subsection shall be subject to a civil penalty which shall not exceed $100 for each day of the violation.

(f)(1) Every insured credit union is authorized to maintain, and make loans with respect to, share draft accounts in accordance with rules and regulations prescribed by the Board. Except as provided in paragraph (2), an insured credit union may pay dividends on share draft accounts and may permit the owners of such share draft accounts to make withdrawals by negotiable or transferable instruments or other orders for the purpose of making transfers to third parties.

(2) Paragraph (1) shall apply only with respect to share draft accounts in which the entire beneficial interest is held by one or more individuals or members or by an organization which is operated primarily for religious, philanthropic, charitable, educational, or other similar purposes and which is not operated for profit, and with respect to deposits of public funds by an officer, employee, or agent of the United States, any State, county, municipality, or political subdivision thereof, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, American Samoa, Guam, any territory or possession of the United States, or any political subdivision thereof.

(2) If the rate prescribed in paragraph (1) exceeds the rate such credit union would be permitted to charge in the absence of this subsection, and such State fixed rate is thereby preempted by the rate described in paragraph (1), the taking, receiving, reserving, or charging a greater rate than is allowed by paragraph (1), when knowingly done, shall be deemed a forfeiture of the entire interest which the loan carries with it, or which has been agreed to be paid thereon. If such greater rate of interest has been paid, the person who paid it may recover, in a civil action commenced in a court of appropriate jurisdiction not later than two years after the date of such payment, an amount equal to twice the amount of interest paid from the credit union taking or receiving such interest.

- (2) other alternatives are not reasonably available; and
- (3) the public interest would best be served by approval of such merger, consolidation, purchase, or assumption.

(2) For purposes of the authority contained in paragraph (1), insured accounts of the credit union may upon consummation of the purchase and assumption be converted to insured deposits or other comparable accounts in the acquiring institution, and the Board and the National Credit Union Share Insurance Fund shall be absolved of any liability to the credit union's members with respect to those accounts.

(j) PRIVILEGES NOT AFFECTED BY DISCLOSURE TO BANKING AGENCY OR SUPERVISOR.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—The submission by any person of any information to the Administration, any State credit union supervisor, or foreign banking authority for any purpose in the course of any supervisory or regulatory process of such Board, supervisor, or authority shall not be construed as waiving, destroying, or otherwise affecting any privilege such person may claim with respect to such information under Federal or State law as to any person or entity other than such Board, supervisor, or authority.

(2) RULE OF CONSTRUCTION.—No provision of paragraph (1) may be construed as implying or establishing that—

(A) any person waives any privilege applicable to information that is submitted or transferred under any circumstance to which paragraph (1) does not apply; or
