Mr. MCGOVERN, from the Committee on Rules, submitted the following

R E P O R T

[To accompany H. Res. 1499]

The Committee on Rules, having had under consideration House Resolution 1499, by a record vote of 8 to 4, report the same to the House with the recommendation that the resolution be adopted.

SUMMARY OF PROVISIONS OF THE RESOLUTION

The resolution provides for consideration of H.R. 3372, the One Stop Shop Community Reentry Program Act of 2021, under a structured rule. The resolution provides one hour of debate equally divided and controlled by the chair and ranking minority member of the Committee on the Judiciary or their designees. The resolution waives all points of order against consideration of the bill. The resolution that the amendment printed in part A of this report shall be considered as adopted and the bill, as amended, shall be considered as read. The resolution waives all points of order against provisions in the bill, as amended. The resolution makes in order the amendment printed in part B of this report. The amendment may be offered only by a Member designated, shall be considered as read, shall be debatable for the time specified in the report equally divided and controlled by the proponent and an opponent, shall not be subject to amendment, and shall not be subject to a demand for division of the question in the House. The resolution waives all points of order against the amendment printed in Part B of this report. The resolution provides one motion to recommit. The resolution further provides for consideration of H.R. 6878, the Pregnant Women in Custody Act, under a structured rule. The resolution provides one hour of debate equally divided and controlled by the chair and ranking minority member of the Committee on the Judiciary or their designees. The resolution waives all points of order against consideration of the bill. The resolution provides that the amendment in the nature of a substitute recommended by the Committee on the Judiciary now printed in the bill, modified by the amendment printed in part C of this report, shall be considered as adopted and the bill, as amended, shall be considered as read. The resolution waives all points of order against provisions in the bill, as amended. The resolution makes in order the amendment printed in part D of this report. The amendment may be offered only by a Member designated, shall be considered as read, shall be debatable for the time specified in the report equally divided and controlled by the proponent and an opponent, shall not be subject to amendment, and shall not be subject to a demand for division of the question in the House. The resolution waives all points of order against the amendment printed in Part D of the report. The resolution provides one motion to recommit. The resolution further provides for consideration of H.R. 8876, the Jackie Walorski Maternal and Child Home Visiting Reauthorization Act of 2022, under a closed rule. The resolution provides one hour of general debate equally divided and controlled by the chair and ranking minority member of the Committee on Ways and Means or their designees. The resolution waives all points of order against consideration of the bill. The resolution rule provides that an amendment in the nature of a substitute consisting of the text of Rules Committee Print 117–69 shall be considered as adopted and the bill, as amended, shall be considered as read. The resolution waives all points of order against provisions in the bill, as amended. The resolution provides one motion to recommit. The resolution further provides for consideration of H.J. Res. 100, to provide for a resolution with respect to the unresolved disputes between certain railroads represented by the National Carriers' Conference Committee of the National Railway Labor Conference and certain of their employees, under a closed rule. The resolution provides one hour of general debate equally divided and controlled by the chair and ranking minority member of the Committee on Transportation and Infrastructure or their designees. The resolution waives all points of order against consideration of the joint resolution. The resolution provides that the joint resolution shall be considered as read. The resolution waives all points of order against provisions in the joint resolution. The resolution provides one motion to recommit. The resolution provides that at any time through the legislative day of December 2, 2022, the Speaker may entertain motions offered by the Majority Leader or a designee that the House suspend the rules with respect to multiple measures that were the object of motions to suspend the rules on the legislative day of November 29, November 30, December 1 or December 2, 2022, on which the yeas and nays were ordered and further proceedings postponed. The Chair shall put the question on any such motion without debate or intervening motion, and the ordering of the yeas and nays on postponed motions to suspend the rules with respect to such measures is vacated. The resolution provides that proceedings may be postponed through December 2, 2022, on measures that were the object of motions to suspend the rules on the legislative day of November 29, 2022, and on which the yeas and nays were ordered. The resolution provides that House Resolution 1495 is hereby adopted. The resolution provides that House Concurrent Resolution 118 is hereby adopted. The resolution provides that during the remainder of the One Hundred Seventeenth Congress, it shall not be in order to offer a motion under clause 7(c) of rule XXII with respect to H.R. 4521. The resolution further provides for consideration of H. Con. Res. 119, providing for a correction in the enrollment of H.J. Res. 100, under a closed rule. The resolution provides 10 minutes of general debate equally divided and controlled by the chair and ranking minority member of the Committee on Transportation and Infrastructure or their designees. The resolution waives all points of order against consideration of the concurrent resolution. The resolution provides that the concurrent resolution shall be considered as read. The resolution waives all points of order against provisions in the concurrent resolution.
