Purpose and Summary

Following up on the enactment of Title 54, United States Code (“National Park Service and Related Programs”), into positive law in the 113th Congress, H.R. 3241 would make technical amendments to laws classified to various titles of the United States Code.

Background and Need for the Legislation

The House of Representatives has assigned to the Judiciary Committee responsibility for the “Revision and codification of the Statutes of the United States.”<sup>1</sup> In modern practice, this responsibility entails periodically updating the United States Code (“the Code”). Currently organized in 54 titles based on subject matter, the Code contains all of the general and permanent laws of the United States. Congress created the Code in 1926 to compile federal laws into a sensible, up-to-date collection that would spare people the labor of searching for laws in the chronologically-organized volumes of the Statutes at Large.<sup>2</sup> To date, 25 of these 54 titles have been enacted into “positive law,” which means the text of these titles is itself the law,<sup>3</sup> while the remaining titles are “non-positive,” meaning that they organize federal statutes for users’ convenience, but do not themselves have the force of law.<sup>4</sup>

The entity responsible for updating the Code as Congress passes new laws or amends existing ones is the Office of the Law Revision Counsel (OLRC).<sup>5</sup> Established within the House of Representatives, OLRC’s purpose is “to develop and keep current an official and positive codification of the laws of the United States,” while maintaining strict impartiality as to issues of legislative policy.<sup>6</sup> The Judiciary Committee plays an essential role in OLRC’s mission. OLRC is required:

(1) To prepare, and submit to the Committee on the Judiciary one title at a time, a complete compilation, restatement, and revision of the general and permanent laws of the United States which conforms to the understood policy, intent, and purpose of the Congress in the original enactments, with such amendments and corrections as will remove ambiguities, contradictions, and other imperfections both of substance and of form, separately stated, with a view to the enactment of each title as positive law.<sup>7</sup>

Following this procedure, OLRC recently submitted the text of H.R. 3241 to the Judiciary Committee for consideration. In 2014, Congress passed and the President signed a bill (P.L. 113–287) enacting a new positive-law Title 54 of the U.S. Code (“National Park

<sup>2</sup>The Statutes at Large is the collection of laws passed in a particular session of Congress, arranged in sequence by public law number, <https://www.archives.gov/federal-register/publications/statutes.html>. The content of the Statutes at Large is considered “legal evidence of laws, concurrent resolutions, treaties, international agreements other than treaties, proclamations by the President, and proposed or ratified amendments to the Constitution of the United States therein contained, in all the courts of the United States, the several States, and the Territories and insular possessions of the United States.” 1 U.S.C. § 112.

<sup>3</sup>For example, H.R. 2694 (117th Congress) proposes amending Title 18 (“Crimes and Criminal Procedure”), which is a positive title of the U.S. Code, so it is drafted to directly amend a provision of that title (“Section 4285 of title 18, United States Code, is amended in the first sentence. . . .”). The content of positive-law Code titles is considered “legal evidence of the laws therein contained, in all the courts of the United States, the several States, and the Territories and insular possessions of the United States.” 1 U.S.C. § 204.

<sup>4</sup>For example, H.R. 2922 (117th Congress) proposes amending section 101(b) of the Elder Abuse Prevention and Prosecution Act, which is compiled in Title 34 (“Crime Control and Law Enforcement”), a non-positive title of the Code. In this situation, the bill amends the underlying law and includes a parenthetical citation to its location in Title 34 as a convenience (“Section 101(b) of the Elder Abuse Prevention and Prosecution Act (34 U.S.C. 21711(b)) is amended to read . . .”). The contents of non-positive titles “establish prima facie the laws of the United States, general and permanent in their nature, in force on the day preceding the commencement of the session following the last session the legislation of which is included.” 1 U.S.C. § 204.

Service and Related Programs”).<sup>8</sup> While laws relating to the National Park Service had been traditionally included in Title 16 of the Code (“Conservation”), OLRC determined that these provisions should be codified in a new title. H.R. 3241 makes necessary “follow up” changes to Title 54 and provisions related to Title 54 in other titles of the Code. It adds to title 54 provisions that state the purposes of certain laws included in the enactment of title 54, it repeals provisions that should have been repealed by P.L. 113–287, and it makes necessary technical amendments to P.L. 113–287 and other provisions of law.<sup>9</sup>

Hearings

The Committee did not hold any hearings related to H.R. 3241.

Committee Consideration

On Tuesday, May 18, 2021, the Committee met in open session and ordered the bill, H.R. 3241, favorably reported without amendment, by a voice vote, a quorum being present.

Committee Votes

No rollcall votes occurred during the Committee’s consideration of H.R. 3241.

Committee Oversight Findings

In compliance with clause 3(c)(1) of House rule XIII, the Committee advises that the findings and recommendations of the Committee, based on oversight activities under clause 2(b)(1) of House rule X, are incorporated in the descriptive portions of this report.

New Budget Authority and Tax Expenditures

In compliance with clause 3(c)(2) of House rule XIII and section 308(a) of the Congressional Budget Act of 1974, and in compliance with clause (3)(c)(3) of House rule XIII and section 402 of the Congressional Budget Act of 1974, the Committee sets forth, with respect to the bill, H.R. 3241, the following analysis and estimate prepared by the Director of the Congressional Budget Office. This analysis finds that because it makes no substantive changes to the law, H.R. 3241 would have no effect on the federal budget.

H.R. 3241 would make technical and conforming changes to several titles of the United States Code that affect the National Park Service and other recreation and preservation programs. The bill would make technical amendments and update statutory references to title 54, United States Code, to reflect recently enacted laws. Information from the Office of Law Revision Counsel indicates that the bill would make no substantive changes to the law; therefore, CBO estimates that implementing H.R. 3241 would not affect the federal budget.

The CBO staff contact for this estimate is Lindsay Wylie. The estimate was reviewed by Leo Lex, Deputy Director of Budget Analysis.

Duplication of Federal Programs

Pursuant to clause 3(c)(5) of House rule XIII, no provision of H.R. 3241 establishes or reauthorizes a program of the federal government known to be duplicative of another federal program.

Performance Goals and Objectives

The Committee states that pursuant to clause 3(c)(4) of House rule XIII, H.R. 3241 would make improvements in the enactment of title 41, United States Code, into a positive law title and improve the Code.

Advisory on Earmarks

In accordance with clause 9 of House rule XXI, H.R. 3241 does not contain any congressional earmarks, limited tax benefits, or limited tariff benefits as defined in clause 9(d), 9(e), or 9(f) of House rule XXI.

Section-by-Section Analysis

Explanation of H.R. 3241, To Make Improvements in the Enactment of Title 54, United States Code, Into a Positive Law Title and To Improve the Code

Background

Public Law 113–287, which was signed into law on December 19, 2014, enacted certain laws relating to the National Park Service and related programs as title 54, United States Code. This bill adds to title 54 provisions that state the purposes of certain laws included in the enactment of title 54, repeals provisions that should have been repealed by Public Law 113–287, and makes necessary technical amendments to Public Law 113–287 and other provisions of law. The Office of the Law Revision Counsel of the House of Representatives prepared the bill and submitted it to the Committee as part of the responsibilities of the Office under section 205(c) of House Resolution No. 988, 93d Congress, as enacted into law by Public Law 93–554 (2 U.S.C. 285b), to provide revisions in titles of the Code that have been enacted into positive law so that those titles may be kept current and to update the Code to reflect newly enacted law.
