

Administration of Joseph R. Biden, Jr., 2022

Joint Statement by President Biden and Prime Minister Justin P.J. Trudeau of Canada on the One-Year Anniversary of the Roadmap for a Renewed U.S.-Canada Partnership

February 23, 2022

One year ago, the United States and Canada reaffirmed the special nature of our relationship, and our commitment to working closely together in the interests of the collective security and prosperity of our citizens based on the principles of democracy, diversity, and equity. The Roadmap for a Renewed U.S.-Canada Partnership guides our work, and lays out an ambitious framework to build a greener, more prosperous future; grow our economies and strengthen the middle class; combat the global COVID-19 pandemic; create safer, more equitable communities; and stand together in the face of threats to democracy. Defending democracy is at the heart of our commitment to stand with Ukraine in the face of Russia's unprovoked invasion. We have made progress over the past year and laid the foundation to deepen our cooperation on climate change, on supporting the global pandemic response efforts, on enhancing cooperation on the Arctic, and on building the economies of the future, including through work to strengthen bilateral supply chains and cooperation on critical minerals. Much work remains to be done. Our countries are both stronger when we work together towards our shared objectives. We look forward to building on the enduring partnership between our two great nations in the years ahead.

NOTE: An original was not available for verification of the content of this joint statement.

Categories: Joint Statements : Canada, Prime Minister Trudeau.

Names: Trudeau, Justin P.J.

Subjects: Arctic : Conservation efforts, international cooperation; Canada : Prime Minister; Canada : Relations with U.S.; Canada : Trade with U.S.; Coronavirus pandemic, international cooperation efforts; Environment : Climate change; Russia : Relations with Ukraine; Ukraine : Russia, role.

DCPD Number: DCPD202200104.