

Administration of Joseph R. Biden, Jr., 2024

Joint Statement by the United States, United Kingdom, France, Germany, and Italy on the Situation in the Middle East

August 12, 2024

We, the leaders of the United States, the United Kingdom, France, Germany, and Italy discussed the situation in the Middle East. We expressed our full support for ongoing efforts to de-escalate tensions and reach a ceasefire and hostage release deal in Gaza. We endorsed the joint call from President Biden, President Sisi of Egypt, and Amir Tamim of Qatar to renew talks later this week with an aim to concluding the deal as soon as possible, and stressed there is no further time to lose. All parties must live up to their responsibilities. In addition, unfettered delivery and distribution of aid is needed. We expressed our support for the defense of Israel against Iranian aggression and against attacks by Iran-backed terrorist groups. We called on Iran to stand down its ongoing threats of a military attack against Israel and discussed the serious consequences for regional security should such an attack take place.

NOTE: The joint statement referred to Prime Minister Keir Starmer of the United Kingdom; President Emmanuel Macron of France; Chancellor Olaf Scholz of Germany; and Prime Minister Giorgia Meloni of Italy.
