Statement on the President's Telephone Conversation With President Xi Jinping of China

June 5, 2025

I just concluded a very good phone call with President Xi, of China, discussing some of the intricacies of our recently made and agreed-to trade deal. The call lasted approximately 1½ hours and resulted in a very positive conclusion for both countries. There should no longer be any questions respecting the complexity of rare earth products. Our respective teams will be meeting shortly at a location to be determined. We will be represented by Secretary of the Treasury Scott Bessent, Secretary of Commerce Howard Lutnick, and United States Trade Representative, Ambassador Jamieson Greer.

During the conversation, President Xi graciously invited the First Lady and me to visit China, and I reciprocated. As Presidents of two great nations, this is something that we both look forward to doing. The conversation was focused almost entirely on trade. Nothing was discussed concerning Russia/Ukraine or Iran. We will inform the media as to scheduling and location of the soon to be meeting. Thank you for your attention to this matter.
